The moral distress suffered by Mr. Moffitt since September 1976 until the moment he entered into a serious relationship with his present spouse is an historic fact of his personal life whose compensation shall be determined taking into consideration that today he is not afflicted by said suffering. The Presentation does not give sufficient evidence that Mr. Moffitt does not live a new happiness, or a new spiritual joy that entirely supplanted his previous affliction. Nor does it deliver objective information which permits evaluating each and every one of the relevant circumstances in order to determine the alleged compensation. Although moral damage is at stake, the economic income, the employment situation and the current social condition cannot be ignored, since they demonstrate to what extend he has been affected by the claimed moral damage.

B6

In conclusion, the Government of Chile rejects, for the reasons expressed, the demand of the United States of America to compensate the moral damage to Mr. Michael Moffitt due to the death of Mrs. Ronni Karpen Moffitt.

E. The indemnification claimed for mental anguish and psychological trauma suffered by Mr. Michael Moffitt.

The Government of the United States of America requests for Michael Moffitt, US$ 500,000 for his significant moral damage, including psychological injuries that he suffered as victim of attempted murder.

A basic question arises in order to accede to the petition of the Government of the United States of America: Why US$ 500,000? There is no basis in said petition.

First of all it is worthwhile to again emphasize to the Commission that the civil concept of liability and the penal concept of guilt are entirely different.

In the case submitted for the Commission's consideration, the situation is even clearer, since it is established that the State of Chile will pay ex-gratia, without admitting liability.

The Presentation states as basis of its petition, the case submitted before the Inter-American Court of Human Rights, the Godinez-Cruz case, similar to the Velásquez-Rodríguez case.

Said decisions are illustrative, bearing in mind that they have been rendered by a Court, which the Commission is not, and based upon due process, regulated by the standards of the Inter-American Convention on Human Rights of November 22, 1969, the Statute of the Inter-American Commission of Human Rights, approved in October of 1979 by the OAS, the Regulations of the Inter-American Commission of Human Rights, approved by the Commission on April 8, 1980, the Statute of the Inter-American Court of Human Rights, approved in October of 1979 by the OAS, and the Regulations of the Inter-American Court of Human Rights, approved by the Court in 1980.

The Inter-American Court's own rulings, on the substance of the matter, already constitute, by themselves, "a significant and important form of moral representation and satisfaction for the families of the victims."

It cannot be ignored that the Government of Chile, through the declarations and actions of its highest authorities, including the President of the Republic, has given moral satisfaction to those affected, as indicated in Chapter I.

In effect, the investigation ordered to be carried out by the National Commission for Truth and Reconciliation, created by Decree Law N°355 on April 25th, 1990, of the Ministry of the Interior of the Republic of Chile; the discourse delivered by the President, Mr. Patricio Aylwin A. on March 4th, 1991, and Address Nº293-321 sent by the President of the Republic to the National Congress on March 26th, 1991, in which various provisions concerning reparations in benefit to the families of the victims referred to in the report of the National Commission of Truth and Reconciliation, all of which must be understood as in themselves constituting a form of significant and important moral reparation and satisfaction for the families of the victims.

The judgement mentioned by the Presentation adds, in the Velásquez and Godinez cases (Nº38), that the just compensation provided for by Article 63.1 of the Inter-American Convention, in referring to a part of reparation and in directing itself to the injured party, is compensatory and not punitive. The judgement indicates: "Although some municipal courts, particularly Anglo-American, fix compensations whose amounts serve for exemplary or dissuasive purposes, this principle is not applicable under the current state of international law."

The Government of Chile clearly deems that the compensation requested by the Government of the United States of America, for the purpose of compensating the moral damages of Mr. Michael Moffitt, both for compensating the death of his former spouse, as well as for the psychological trauma that he himself suffered, possess such a nature and are clearly extraneous to the concept of justice that must prevail.

The Commission must comply with the provision established in Nº4 of the Compromis, in order that the determination of the payment that must be made by the Government of Chile be done "in accordance with applicable principles international law", and clearly, the indicated judgements of the Inter-American Court and the Inter-American Convention subscribed by the United States of America on June 1st, 1977, contribute principles of international law applicable to the case, without prejudice to the special circumstances that must be taken into account under the current situation, as indicated in Chapter II.

The moral damage for the entire Velásquez family amounts to 250,000 Lempiras (N°52 of the judgement), equivalent to approximately US$ 47,035.00, as of the month of September 1991.

The Presentation by the Government of the United States of America, pursuant to the rules of international law as recognized at the Inter-American level, is far from being just.

On the level of European international law, the European Commission on the Rights of Man, in case N° 5961/72 (Amekrane versus the United Kingdom) on July 19th, 1974, accepted the declaration of the United Kingdom to pay Lbs 37,500 Sterling to the claimants, establishing that it is the only payment to be made, under the condition that no other payment will be required from the authorities of Gibraltar or the United Kingdom, all of which without recognition that the rights of the claimants as recognized by the Convention had been infringed. Said amount was equivalent to US$ 89,362.50 in 1974 (Today approximately US$ 317,224.71)

In considering the cases decided by the Courts of the United States of America, including the Civ. A. claim 78-1477 (United States District Court of Columbia. Isabel Morel de Letelier et al., Plaintiffs V. The Republic of Chile et al., Defendants), the Commission must take into account the Compromis subscribed between both Governments, and only if they be in accordance with international law, since such cases are representative of the doctrines applied by Anglo-American courts, as indicated in the aforementioned Velásquez case by the Inter-American Court.

To conclude, the Commission must apply criteria based on justice and not chastisement, given that the Government of Chile does not recognize responsibility, in the same way the Government of the United Kingdom did not, in the aforementioned case, and, furthermore, that payment is made ex-gratia. In Chapter VI, the amount that the Government of Chile considers to be just, is indicated along with the grounds for doing so.

III. Injury and the amount of damages claimed in favor of Hilda and Murray Karpen.

A. Moral damage suffered by Hilda and Murray Karpen.

The Presentation formulated by the Government of the United States indicates that the following has been requested in the name of Hilda and Murray Karpen: US$ 250,000 dollars for moral damage suffered by Hilda Karpen; US$ 500,000 dollars for moral damage and physical injuries suffered by Murray Karpen and US$ 24,285 covering medical expenses and other direct costs. This is a total of US$ 774,285.00, plus 10% interest per annum as of September 21st, 1976, which amounts to US$ 1,161,427.50 (approximately).

The preceding means that what is requested in the Presentation is equivalent to US$ 1,935,712.50. Concerning the interest, these are discussed in Chapter IV, without prejudice to what has already been indicated in Chapter II, Section VI Special matters, letter b.

There is no basis for the claim formulated on the grounds of moral damage as refers to its extremely high valuation which in capital amounts to US$ 750,000.

It must be called to the attention of the Commission, that in the lawsuit filed by the Letelier and Moffitt families against the National Intelligence Direction (DINA and Others) in accordance with the judgement Annexed as I, the District of Columbia Court sentenced the responsible parties, in accordance with the merits of said judgement, to the sum of US$ 80,000 in favor of the married couple Murray and Hilda Karpen, for the death of their daughter.

In spite of the absence of the defendants, it is obvious that said lawsuit observed a greater strictness in conforming to the existing legal provisions concerning evidence under applicable judicial systems, for the District of Columbia; which must be considered as a judgement on this matter more in accordance with justice, since it was directed at obtaining an indemnification.

In comparing said amount with the exorbitant petition formulated by the Government of the United States of America, one arrives at the conclusion that an unjustified amount is sought in favor of the Karpen couple at the expense of the State of Chile, and to establish in addition, a penalty against said State, for the responsibilities not acknowledged, for the assassination of Mrs. Ronni K. Moffitt.

The Government of Chile understands the pain experienced by Mrs. Hilda Karpen, as well as the pain that has affected all the family members due to the violence in the past 15 years prior to 1990, as shown in the text of President Patricio Aylwin A.'s address. For this reason, the phrase as to "No amount of money can bring her back to us," as testified by sworn affidavit subscribed on the 25th of July 1991 before the Notary Public, Patricia A. Zocco, reveals that the claim for compensating Mrs. Hilda Karpen, in the manner formulated by the Government of the United States of America in their presentation, exceeds the natural measure of justice that the Commission must determine, in establishing the amount of the compensation, which, in no case shall be an indemnification, as was that fixed by the Court of the District of Columbia, according to what we have already indicated.

Said compensation is sought to be increased, adding an illness that Mrs. Hilda Karpen had begun to suffer.

It has not been proven in any way that Mrs. Hilda Karpen's ulcer, with which she has begun to suffer, has any direct relation to the death of her daughter.

The Godinez and Velásquez cases, the former mentioned in the Presentation, once again constitute an accurate parameter for considering the justice in the reparation of moral damage claimed by the Government of the United States of America for Hilda and Murray Karpen - a reparation which, in the mentioned cases, is produced by indemnifying judgement and before a court, before which due process can be carried out.

In the matter brought to the consideration of the Commission, it is only a question of establishing a compensation and not an indemnification, that in a voluntary manner, the State of Chile has desired to pay, for the purpose of normalizing diplomatic relations with the Government of the United States of America.

It is pointed out to the Commission that the amount of US$ 750,000 is sufficient capital in order to obtain a pension of US$ 45,000 deposited at 6% per annum.

The latter does not take into consideration the calculation of interest that the Presentation claims, the inappropriateness of which is analyzed in these Observations.

The Government of Chile is unaware of the level of income of Mr. Murray Karpen and his spouse, but infers from the context of the Presentation and especially of the private representations made by both spouses, that said income may be approximately similar to what they have received annually. Nor has the Presentation of the Government of the United States of America proved the existence of the economic dependence of the parents upon their daughter Ronni. The Government of Chile considers it essential that authentic evidence be provided concerning the level of income of the Karpen couple.

That the compensation for moral damage of the parents of the deceased victim of murder be disproportionate goes against the most elementary principles of international justice and international law as pointed out in Chapter II: The indemnification for moral damage has as its purpose to alleviate the pain in the intrinsic affection to human nature, for the death of a child. The compensation has as its purpose the recognition of the existence of said pain and consequently the purpose of attenuating it. Should it be added that such an act is carried out as an act of grace the degree of compensation must also be lower.

The Presentation in this chapter tends to materialize the intimate feelings and the ethics that must exist in the analysis of moral damage that affects the Karpen couple and which the judicial organism of the United States of America evaluated in an amount which is almost 10% of that evaluated by the Department of State. Since the petition is brought by said Department within the framework of the Agreement and Compromis subscribed with the Government of Chile, the latter calls the attention of the Commission, in order that the matter submitted to its consideration be reduced to proportions in accordance with the purpose kept in mind by the Parties upon forming the Commission. Such a purpose is that of normalizing the relations with the United States of America, insofar as the claim made by its Government through the Diplomatic Note of April 18th, 1988 will be regarded as satisfied. It has never been the purpose, of the parties to disproportionately compensate the persons affected by the death of Mr. Letelier and Mrs. Moffitt, nor to hold them indemnified of all incidences of an economic order in the future, that could be derived from such deaths, especially when the non-existence of economic dependency has been demonstrated.

The Commission's actions, by accepting the exorbitant amounts claimed on account of moral damage to the Karpen couple, would not only imply the determination of an excessive compensation, but would also be contrary to the principles of international law.

What has been expounded leads the Government of Chile to request the Commission, in order that it substantially reduce the claimed amounts, in accordance to what is indicated in Chapter VI in the present Observations.

B. Direct damages for medical expenses and interest.

The Presentation formulates a claim of US$ 24,285 for medical expenses of Mr. Murray Karpen and other direct expenses, and interest of 10% per annum on the expenses and moral damages, from the date of death.

Such an amount is detailed as follows:

|---|---|
| US$ 4,250 | Funeral expenses; |
| US$ 14,785 | Hospitalization, medical bills, medicines and costs caused by attacks; and |
| US$ 5,250 | Travel to Washington for meetings with the Department of State. |

Each of said amounts are analyzed as follows:

(a) Funeral Expenses: The Government of Chile, in spite of the fact that these actual values are not certified in any way, and which correspond to the funeral of his daughter, but are rather is the mere and sole affirmation of Mr. Murray Karpen, will not object to said amounts once it is certified that economic dependency existed, just as required by international law.

(b) Hospitalization and Medical Expenses: The Government of Chile objects to all of these expenses since no effective receipts have been attached, and it is a global account which must be analyzed in a more detailed manner. The referred to account is only supported by the interested party's own affirmation which is inadmissable for the purposes of claiming payment.

(c) Travel to Washington D.C. for meetings with the Department of State:

The Government of Chile also rejects this global entry, since this is not damage suffered by Mr. Murray Karpen, but rather an expense which he, at his sole discretion, has considered appropriate, the scope of which is unknown, although it is possible to infer that such travel is related to interviews carried out for the drafting of the Presentation or other processes.

(d) Interest:

Such expenses can never reach the degree of damage that may or must be compensated by the Government of Chile, since all the expenses of the Presentation are obviously the responsibility of the party who incurred them, that is the Department of State - the organism who, in representation of the Government of the United States, made the diplomatic claim the settlement of which is sought through the Commission's determination the compensation.

Finally, the Government of Chile, also rejects the claim of interest of 10% or under any other applicable rate on such expenses, as of the date of the death of Ronni K. Moffitt. Concerning hospitalization, medical expenses and travel, such calculations as requested are erroneous. But even so, the Government of Chile must reject such a petition, in whichever manner it is formulated, according to the reasoning explained in Chapter V of these Observations.

IV. Injury and the amount of damages claimed by the family of Mr. Orlando Letelier.

On this matter we reaffirm in this Chapter what has been put forth in Chapter II Section VI, regarding the analysis, as a basic mitigating element for the determination of compensation, of the normal inadmissibility that the Government of the United States should act on behalf of Chilean nationals.

Without prejudice to the foregoing, the observations warranted by the Government of Chile to the claims presented in the Presentation will be analyzed.

A. The "Damnum Emergens" and "Lucrum Cessans" suffered by the family of Mr. Orlando Letelier.

In the Presentation, the Government of the United States of America requests the amount of US$ 3,473,665 for the economic losses suffered by the family of Mr. Orlando Letelier.

Once again, the NERA system was employed, establishing an hypothesis based on a series of subjective estimation.

It is assumed that Mr. Orlando Letelier would write books, dictate conferences and courses, all such activities which would allow him to obtain important benefits.

The only concrete and real fact is that, up until the time of his death, Mr. Orlando Letelier, received a remuneration from the I.P.S. Mr. Letelier, Chilean public figure of renowned trajectory, developed intensive international political activity, in support of his political party - the Socialist Party. It is public knowledge that such activity is carried out for reasons of ideological commitment and are not motivated by the purpose of making a profit. Mrs. Isabel

Letelier states: "Orlando was committed to continue his efforts in order to expose the crimes and damages that the Pinochet dictatorship was perpetrating against the Chilean people. He was a frank critic of the policies of the dictatorship in Chile and an indefatigable champion of the Chilean people and the many victims of the abuses of human rights in Chile. He travelled to Europe and other parts all over the world in an effort to transmit his message, and make known what actually was occurring in Chile."

It follows that all of the hypotheses concerning the possibilities of life that are presumed in the study prepared by NERA for the Department of State, dated July 22nd, 1991, which are attached as Exhibit N°15, must be rejected. In Chapter II, it has been extensively abounded that in order to determine the loss of profits ("lucrum cessans"), the amount that the victim may have obtained in possible activities or businesses cannot be considered.

The initial hypothesis set forth in the NERA report is the most manifest and evident expression of a great amount of speculation that is used as a basis. It supposes that Mr. Letelier could have chosen "two alternative professional directions" that is "reasonable to assume" and that he "very likely" would have taken if it had not been for his death. The first that is assumed is that he would have stayed in the IPS as executive associate during the rest of his professional career; and the second, that "he would have withdrawn from the IPS and would have joined some bank of importance as an international banker". However, for this "second possibility" it is assumed that "he would have continued in the IPS until 1980" and that he would have "then become a banker." There is a considerable difference between what the report calls "loss of income" between both hypotheses: for the first, the alleged loss is estimated to be: US$ 2,021,104, and the second to be: US$ 3,484,352, the latter amount being greater than the former by more than 70%.

The mere mention of this proposal is conducive to rejection. The report itself is responsible for establishing that the change in Mr. Letelier's "career path" from the IPS to international banking as of the year 1980, is no other than a mere probability o speculation, a mere supposition or conjecture, that can only lead to the establishment of contingent or hypothetical damage, which pursuant to law is never compensable. Mr. Letelier's desires or hopes of changing activities in order to improve his income, and even certificates or merits that could have been shown for the goal of achieving this purpose, are not sufficient in order to ensure that it was necessarily going to occur. The continuance of the conditions for so doing, the persistence of his rights, the reality that the international banking system would have chosen him and that, furthermore, given him a level of remunerations that it is supposed they would have granted, etc - all are conjectural elements that, precisely being so, cannot be accepted. The only thing concrete and which is not of a speculative nature, lies in the fact that the natural course in the life of the outstanding politician, Mr. Orlando Letelier, would be associated to his country, to return to it, as soon as it were possible for him, in order to discharge duties at the highest level.

It is fitting, then, to entirely reject all the calculations contained in the report about the contingent financial losses that could have been brought about, in the hypothesis that Mr. Letelier may have entered the international banking system as of the year 1980.

As concerns the presumed loss of income under the hypothesis that Mr. Letelier would have continued in the IPS until reaching the age of 75, which would occur in the year 2007, it is appropriate to formulate following commentaries:

UNCLASSIFIED

The calculations found in the report concerning the matter leads to the assumption of a loss of income from the year 1976 to the year 2007 amounting to US$ 2,021,104.

Such calculations are made on the precarious basis of supposing or conjecturing:

- that Mr. Letelier would have lived to the age of 75 years;
- that until reaching that age he would have maintained, without weaknesses, his employment capacity and his health;
- that he would not have retired before the year 2007;
- that the IPS would have contracted his services until that year;
- that the IPS itself would maintain its existence until the same year;
- that Mr. Letelier would have permanently increased his annual income;
- that the IPS would be in financial conditions to pay these yearly increases;
- that Mr. Letelier would have published a book every four years, about non-specified topics, receiving a 20,000 dollar payment for each book; and would have carried out publications about his work in magazines, which are also not identified, receiving 7,500 dollars each year for this concept, amounts all of which would have increased with the inflation rate until the year 2007;
- that he would have assigned all his income, except his personal expenses, to the expenses of his family;
- that he would have provided household services for his family, such as home repairs, carpentry, construction and gardening work, dedicating two hours daily to such tasks, although, as acknowledged in the report, there is no "definite information on the number of hours Mr. Letelier would have spent performing these services";

DECLASSIFIED

- that the nature, quantity and quality of these tasks or household services had, in fact, the economic value assigned to each, etc.

All that contained in the NERA Report is unacceptable in law, since it is inevitably conducive to conjecturing the existence of fortuitous or hypothetical damages, that can not be taken into consideration in establishing an indemnification, much less a compensation.

It is important to point out, that after being the Embassador of the Republic of Chile before the White House, Mr. Letelier was appointed Minister of Foreign Relations of Chile, having taken office on May 22nd, 1973. At that time, the country was in a state of absolute upheaval. He remained in said office until August 8th, 1973, since on the 9th of the same month, he was appointed as Minister of the Interior, holding the position of Political Chief of Staff. A few days later, on August 23rd, he assumed as acting Minister of National Defense, as such that upon the fall of the Government on 11th of September, 1973, Mr. Orlando Letelier was carrying out two ministerial functions.

This is recounted only for the purpose of pointing out the deserved political vocation that Mr. Letelier assumed, all of which obviously conflicts with the hypothesis of considering him as a possible candidate for occupying an office in the international banking system.

The only certain thing, is that Mr. Letelier would have returned to Chile during the year 1988, an era during which the great majority of exiles could re-enter the country, associating himself with the political activities of the moment, the remuneration of the leaders of which is practically unknown.

DECLASSIFIED

In any case, Mr. Letelier would have returned to Chile by the time the National Congress unanimously restored its nationality. It is obvious that, following his trajectory, Mr. Letelier would have stood as a candidate for a popularly elected public office, whether as Representative or Senator, or carried out functions as Minister of State. (Exhibit 8, page 5)

Without prejudice to the foregoing explanation for establishing a just indemnification, the Presentation reveals serious contradictions.

In effect, the certificate subscribed by Diana de Vegh, dated July 20th, 1990, indicates that in 1976 Mr. Letelier received US$ 33,000 a year.

Mrs. Isabel Morel de Letelier indicates that her husband's salary amounted to US$ 25,000 a year, as indicated in the transcription of the proceedings of the Civil suit 78-1477 of the United States Court for the District of Columbia, attached to the Presentation as Exhibit No. 15, which is confirmed by NERA's affirmation, indicating in addition that his salary was increased by US$ 1,000 for each of his dependents. It is not specified who are the dependents and until what date they can be considered dependents, should such an affirmation be effective.

Therefore, it appears that the only thing clear and specific is Mrs. Morel's declaration, who supposedly knew exactly what her husband earned, given the harmonious relation that existed between them, as inferred from the document attached to the Presentation as Exhibit No. 8 ("Orlando remained a devoted father and loving, caring husband").

In this way, in order for the Commission to carry out a just and equitable determination, it must necessarily reject all and every one of Mr. Letelier's hypothetical future and always successful activities, and establish a compensation based on the only certain facts which are known and which are supported by the facts transmitted by the Department of State of the Government of the United States of America.

If the amount requested in the Presentation is invested at a rate of 6% per annum, the US$ 3,473,665 would result in an annual income of US$ 208,419.00, or US$ 17,368 monthly.

Once again, it is shown that the Presentation of the Government of the United States of America, is disproportionate and unjustified. The result of said arithmetic calculation exceeds far beyond the real and hypothetical remunerations that Mr. Letelier may have obtained had he been alive.

The calculations made concerning Mr. Letelier's personal services rendered at home, conflict with the sole affirmations of Mrs. Morel de Letelier. She expresses that "in spite of all the traveling and political activities, I guess the way he relaxed better was by gardening and building things, and he loved carpentry."

In this way, it is admitted that Mr. Letelier did not dedicate time to the so-called "services that Mr. Letelier performed to the benefit of his family", according to what is indicated in Chapter V in the report prepared by NERA. Mrs. Morel de Letelier's husband apparently rested very little, performing some gardening or simple carpentry activities (making bookshelves).

It was never the intention of the Letelier family that the head of their household could increase the family income, with the time that Mr. Orlando Letelier dedicated to the "services to the benefit of his family", since such activities were carried out for his personal benefit, in order to achieve rest, recreation or distraction from his overwhelming travel and intense political activity, which naturally consume a great amount of intellectual activity, the performance of manual labor being the way to counteract this.

From there to conclude that Mr. Letelier performed activities of "services to the benefit of his family", valued in monetary terms, is truly an hypothesis that has no serious supporting element.

The report prepared by NERA indicates that Mrs. Morel mentioned in the affidavit attached to the presentation as Exhibit No. 8, "that her husband was a good family man and dedicated much time to necessary house work and gardening, dedicating many hours to the family", is absolutely inaccurate. Mrs. Morel de Letelier's affidavit contains no quantification of the time that her husband dedicated to "services to the benefit of his family."

In this way, the calculation made by NERA must be rejected not only for being hypothetical the determination of the loss of profits for "services to the benefit of his family", that Mr. Letelier could have rendered, but also because no evidence or element exists that permits establishing, with reasonable certainty, that Mr. Orlando Letelier dedicated time for the purpose of making a profit in rendering "services to the benefit of his family."

The report prepared by NERA indicates that Mr. Letelier earned US$ 2,050 a year for giving lectures at the American University.

The Presentation contains no evidence thereof. Mrs. Morel de Letelier alludes to some courses, without indicating their purpose, length of the contract, the received emoluments, the taxes paid for such income, among others.

The degree of evidence presented by the Government of the United States, to lay claim to the enormous amounts requested, is of a minimal grade of certainty, for which reason it is formally requested of the Commission that they not carry out any determination without having added to the record, and which may be verified by the Government of Chile, the authentic documents that convincingly prove the actual income expected to be used as the basis for the calculation of any compensation.

In summary, with respect to the loss of profits ("lucrum cessans"), the Government of Chile concludes that the only actual amount that could be used from the attached documentation, is the US$ 25,000 that Mr. Orlando Letelier received annually from the IPS, not knowing whether said amount was subject to discounts of a tax nature.

The rest of the valuation that the Presentation formulates are mere hypotheses, that cannot be considered in a serious and equitable calculation in order to establish an ex-gratia compensation for the family members of Mr. Orlando Letelier.

B. Moral damage suffered and claimed for by Mrs. Isabel Morel de Letelier.

The Government of the United States of America, claims US$ 500,000 for moral damage suffered by Isabel Morel de Letelier. In Chapter IV, letter B, of the Presentation entitled "Determination of Amount of Compensation for Moral Damage", the consequences of the death of Mr. Orlando Letelier is described, in the person of Mrs. Isabel Morel, and ends by requesting that said moral damage be settled by US$ 500,000.00, plus interest as requested in Chapter VI, denominated "Conclusion".

Other than the quoted description, no other information is given for establishing said value for moral damages.

The claimed amount appears absolutely exorbitant to the Government of Chile, amount which has no relation to what is currently happening in Chile, where Mrs. Morel is currently living.

UNCLASSIFIED

It has been indicated previously that the Government of Chile and the National Congress, in which one of the sons of Mrs. Morel, the Honorable Deputy Mr. Juan Pablo Letelier conducts his activities, is considering a Bill for compensating the damage suffered by the family members of the arrested and missing persons indicated in the Report of the Commission for Truth and Reconciliation.

Moral damage is among such damage being considered for redress in said draft law, under the terms indicated in Article 3 thereof (See Annex V).

To such effect, the draft law establishes a monthly allowance amounting to CH$ 140,000.00, accumulatively readjustable each time the Consumer Price Index, fixed monthly by the National Statistics Institute, is greater than 10% in any period. In addition, a one-time compensatory bonification amount is granted equivalent to 12 months' pension.

The first amount is approximately equivalent to US$ 274 a month and the second to US$ 3,288.

There is absolutely no doubt that Mrs. Morel, in making use of the diplomatic protection of the Government of the United States of America and in choosing the referred to moral indemnification, is obtaining an enormous amount, compared to what the Chilean State would pay to the victims of human rights violations and political violence - in accordance with the situation being discussed in Chile.

The Commission must consider this situation, in order to determine the corresponding equitable compensation in relation to the moral damage suffered by Mrs. Isabel Morel.

Naturally it seems inequitable that Mrs. Isabel Morel, under the diplomatic protection of the Government of the United States of America, obtain the amount of US$ 500,000.00 and not make use of the general policy of all the beneficiaries of common legislation, which has already received the favorable vote of the legislators of the Government coalition of which her own son, the Honorable Deputy Mr. Juan Pablo Letelier, forms part, all with the resources of the public treasury of the Chilean State.

Furthermore, the situation described in the affidavit that appears as Exhibit No. 8 of the Presentation, is not consistent with the current reality of Mrs. Isabel Morel, inasmuch as she is in charge of the women's rights program of the I.P.S., as program head, enjoying extensive periods of alternate residency between the United States and Chile. Nor does it indicate if she is the owner of real estate in the United States of America or in Chile, if she enjoys allowances or other income derived from investments. Neither does the Presentation indicate if Mrs. Isabel Morel has had the possibility of finding companionship and support in her emotional life. The Presentation should deliver sufficient information in order to evaluate the economic situation of Mrs. Morel de Letelier, and at the same time, information about whether her children have married, established families and the number of grandchildren.

The Government of Chile is aware that Mrs. Morel is highly regarded in liberal circles in Washington, and among the Chilean leftist sectors, which form part of the current Government coalition, having ended her forced and voluntary exile as soon as the President of the Republic, Mr. Patricio Aylwin A., entered office, which occurred on March 11th, 1990.

the Chilean people from 1989, have been in a process of transition toward a political life of full democracy and freedom. While there exist serious and strong deficiencies in sectors of the population, such deficiencies are being remedied by the current Government of the Republic within possible means, that among its party members, includes the political group to which Mr. Letelier and Mrs. Morel are a part.

The interview that Mrs. Isabel Morel held with a journalist of the "La Segunda" newspaper in Washington, and published in May of 1990, in which the topic of indemnification is referred to, is attached as Annex No. VI. It is important to emphasize in said interview that Mrs. Morel indicates that at least the "Leteliers" have not proposed the sum of US$ 12,000,000 as an indemnification. Such an amount would have been fixed by the Government of the United States of America.

As can be seen, the indemnification that the Government of the United States of America requests from the Government of Chile for compensating the moral damage to Mrs. Isabel Morel, is absolutely disproportionate to a reasonable ex-gratia compensation, that could be granted to a person that is not a national of the claimant Government and that has requested diplomatic protection, against a Government that has acted in order to elucidate, in all its dimensions, the death of Mr. Letelier, who, without a doubt, would have efficiently contributed at the highest level towards the democratic transition in Chile.

The Commission ought to determine a different sum, amounting to that which is indicated in Chapter VI.

C. Moral damage suffered and claimed for by the children of Mr. Orlando Letelier.

The Government of the United States of America claims for each of the children of Mr. Orlando Letelier, the amount of US$ 250,000 which totals US$ 1,000,000.

The basis for this claim are the affidavits themselves of Messrs. Letelier - Morel and the report that Dr. James Gordon has issued on them.

Dr. Gordon declares, especially for the purposes of the Presentation, that he has had a personal professional connection with one of the Messrs. Letelier - Morel, without indicating any details concerning the professional attention that he may have rendered them. The rest of the report refers to the examination that he has made of the affidavits, personally made by each one of the children of the Letelier - Morel couple, for the specific purpose of being accompanied to the Presentation.

It is evident that the declaration of each of those affected by the assassination of Mr. Orlando Letelier, revealing his affliction and what he would have felt at the death of his father is sufficient by itself, without having to certify said feelings by way of an examination of such declarations by a doctor who has not interviewed them. The affidavits, in addition to the legitimate lamentations of the Letelier - Morel couple, all are characterized by an impressive lack of information, that decrease their likelihood.

In effect, one cannot ignore that it is essential to know what each of the Messrs. Letelier - Morel are today. Precisely as a result of the procedure, the Presentation must include substantiated answers to the following questions:

What are each of them doing today?
What educational degrees do they possess?
What are their means of livelihood?
Have they married?
How many children to they have?
What are their personal assets?
Have they travelled?
Where do they live?
Do they have political interests?

and many others, which are necessary in order to evaluate the moral damage being claimed; such questions cannot be formulated.

It is of public knowledge that one of the Messrs. Morel-Letelier, specifically Mr. Juan Pablo, is a Deputy for one of the districts of the Metropolitan Region in the Chamber of Deputies of the National Congress - a person who has been an active participant in the Chilean Parliament, being one of the leaders of the Socialist Party group, to which his father belonged. The recognition he has in his electoral district constitutes an unquestionable form of moral reparation.

It is known that another of the children of Mr. Orlando Letelier, is a cinema artist, another declares residence in Chile, without indicating what he does for a living, who is his wife, where he lives, etc. The vagueness of the declarations, is obviously formulated in order to emphasize a degree of abandonment and solitude that would justify the enormous indemnification claim for moral damage.

If the indemnification for moral damage granted by the Civil courts of the District of Columbia, merely as a piece of information already commented upon, is compared with what is required for the four children of Mr. Orlando Letelier, once again it is confirmed that this is an indemnification of a punitive nature, instead of an assistance from the State of Chile in recognition of the suffering felt by the Messrs. Letelier - Morel.

Furthermore, Messrs. Letelier - Morel have become parties to the legal recourses existing today in Chile, in order to pursue the responsibility of those guilty of the assassination of their father, in which recourses the Honorable Deputy, Mr. Juan Pablo Letelier has played an active role.

The Commission must keep in mind, in determining the sought after compensation, that a Deputy representative of the popular sovereignty of Chile, is claiming protection through a foreign government, against the State whose sovereignty he represents together with the rest of the Chilean Congressmen. This occurs, in the particular moment in that the Chilean Congress is debating the topic of the compensations for the victims of violations of human rights and political violence.

The Government of Chile deems, that the just compensation determined in favor of the children of Mr. Orlando Letelier must not be in any case disproportionate, considering their condition as Chileans, due to the grave moral, social and legal repercussions it would entail for the country in the transition process towards democracy that is being developed.

The amount requested for each child is approximately equivalent to CH$ 88,750,000.00, which is comparable to 28 economic family dwellings, which receive state subsidies, having an approximate surface area of 40m2, with 150m2 of land, in the peripheral communities of Santiago and Valparaíso.

Also, this is equivalent to a luxurious mansion in the areas of the city which are utilized by those of a higher economic bracket in the country, including large pieces of land, swimming pools, saunas, etc.

These comparisons are carried out so that the Commission may appreciate the impact that the compensation determined can have, should the enormous amount claimed by each of the Messrs. Letelier - Morel be granted.

CHAPTER IV.

INADMISSIBILITY OF INTEREST PAYMENTS.

I. Introduction.

In Chapter II, Section VI (b), of these Observations, it has been shown that the claim for interest in cases of physical damages or death to persons under international law is inadmissable. In the present Chapter the reasons for disallowing the petition of the Government of the United States in this matter, will be explained from the point of view of the patrimonial loss experienced by the families of the victims. This explanation will be illustrated by a number of cases taken from the diplomatic history between the Governments involved relative to the payment of compensation for patrimonial loss suffered by United States citizens.

In the Presentation, the Government of the United States claimed a 10% per annum interest payment, as of September 21, 1976, on the following claims:

(a) Those associated with moral damages in favor of Isabel Morel de Letelier and her four children;

(b) Those associated with moral damages in favor of Hilda Karpen, with moral damages and damages for physical injuries in favor of Murray Karpen, and with his direct damages; and

(c) Those associated with moral damages, and damages for personal injuries, and direct expenses in favor of Michael Moffitt.

DECLASSIFIED

The claims -- although baseless, as has been demonstrated in Chapter III -- that are set forth for the above-mentioned items amount to US$ 3,292,492.48, so that the application of interest of 10% per year over that sum, as of September of 1976, would mean increasing said cost to the exorbitant figure of US$ 8,231,231.20, without prejudice to that which is claimed for "loss of financial support and of services" and for "payment of attorney fees and expenses."

The Presentation of the United States basically relies in its argument for interest claims in that these would be intended for "compensating the loss of the use of money during the fifteen years gone by since the date of the deaths of Ronni Moffitt and Orlando Letelier," since "in order for the refund to the families to be complete, it is necessary that they be compensated for this delay."

The interest claimed by the Government of the United States is inadmissible because:

(a) it is irrelevant to consider interest when dealing with an ex gratia payment;

(b) the injurious act is not the cause of the obligation to pay compensation;

(c) its non-collection by the injured parties does not constitute a definite damage, but rather a merely hypothetical and possible damage;

(d) the obligation to indemnify is unliquidated since its amount has not been determined, therefore default in payment, which is an indispensable requirement to accrue interest on an outstanding sum, could not have existed; and

(e) because they would amount to an excessive compensation superior to the amount of damage directly and necessarily caused by the detrimental act.

II. The interest claimed by the Government of the United States are inadmissible.

(a) Interest may not be considered when discussing an ex-gratia payment.

The Government of Chile considers the referred claim for interest as inadmissible and rejects it, in the first place because it does not coincide with the nature of an "ex-gratia payment", agreed upon with the Government of the United States and the amount of which is to be determined by the Commission.

The "ex-gratia" payment, as its name suggests, does not stem from the fulfillment of a legally established obligation to indemnify, but, to the contrary, implies that the Government which offers it does not acknowledge that it is obliged to make payment, but rather does so for political and humanitarian reasons. Consequently, the "ex-gratia" payment cannot be determined by dating things back to bygone times before the offer. It must be calculated by means of the assessment of its amount from the moment in which, by agreement of the parties, that payment must be made. If it were not so, it would no longer be "ex-gratia", but would become an acknowledgement of responsibility, with the same effects of that declared by a condemnatory judicial decision.

The text of the "Agreement" subscribed to by both governments is very explicit in order to establish that, "without admitting liability, the Government of Chile, in order to facilitate the normalization of relations, is willing to make an 'ex-gratia' payment, subject to the provisions of Paragraph 5, to the Government of the United States of America, to be received on behalf of the families of the victims" (paragraph 3). According to paragraph 5, the commitment of the Government of Chile is that of making the "ex gratia" payment in accordance with "the amount of compensation as determined by the Commission", "as soon as possible and after the necessary legal requirements have been fulfilled, following the determination by the Commission." In both paragraphs, then, the idea is implicit concerning a present or current determination of that payment by the Commission, without retroactive effect.

It does not alter what has already been stated that, subject to paragraph 4 of the "Agreement", "the ex-gratia payment should be equal to that which be due if liability were established", since this paragraph has no other scope than to establish that the question of existence of responsibilities remains excluded from the controversy and from those matters which must be decided upon by the Commission; and the final phrase of the cited paragraph thus expresses as a consequence or corollary: "in light of the understandings set forth herein, the amount of the compensation to be paid shall be the sole question to be determined by the Commission." To understand that the Government of Chile would have accepted that the Commission could order benefits for delay in the payment would not only be contrary to the nature of the "ex-gratia" payment, (1) but also would mean authorizing the Commission to pass a condemnatory judgement as though it were a court of justice with according jurisdictional powers, which is inconsistent with the meaning and spirit of the agreement subscribed by both countries.

In summary, for the sole reason that we are dealing with an "ex-gratia" payment, to take into account interest is inappropriate, nor is it either appropriate according to what follows below.

(b) The injurious act is not the cause of the obligation to pay compensation.

It is not distinctly perceivable what the relation of causality between the injurious act and the non-collection of interest might be. The damage that would be an immediate and direct consequence of that act are indemnifiable, because they are causally linked to it. But the non-collection of interest is not derived from that fact; it is not the direct and necessary result of the same, but rather of another event subsequent to its occurrence. The Presentation itself recognizes that it is dealing with "additional damage by virtue of the delay in receiving prompt payment." They would be, therefore, the consequence of another act different from that which caused the damage: that is, the delay of the payment of indemnification. This latter act can give rise to a specific penalty: that is, the order of payment of interest on arrears. But for that to happen, the debtor must be in default of payment, which in turn requires that the obligation be perfectly established, as to its existence as well as to its amount, and that payment of the same not be made within the term set by the parties themselves or by judicial decision. (2) Nothing of the sort occurs in the instant case.

In the case of the frigate Franklin, detained by Chile in 1832, the Governments of Chile and the United States settled their dispute through the Convention signed on September 10, 1858. (3) The obligation assumed by Chile in said Convention was that of compensating the losses suffered by the owners, the captain, and the other persons with interests in the frigate. However, there was no express acknowledgment of responsibility by the Government of Chile. In this case, it was expressly agreed upon to pay interest at the rate of 6% per annum, as of January 1, 1859 (Art.2). In this way only the delay in the approval of the Convention by the Chilean Congress was compensated .

DECLASSIFIED

(c) The non-collection by the injured parties does not constitute a definite damage, but rather a merely hypothetical and possible damage.

The collection of interest is inadmissible, in the third place, because it is sustained on an erroneous concept of the principle on which it is founded.

The principle that compensation must be equivalent to the damage means, as previously explained, that it must not be less than the damage, nor greater. This implies that the compensation cannot constitute a source of gain or profit for the receiving party, in terms of procuring for said party a patrimonial benefit or gain which exceeds the amount of ascertainable damage suffered as the immediate and direct consequence of the injurious act.

Consequently, it is beyond doubt that such a principle must be kept in mind in determining the amount of compensation, and for that reason it is necessary to distinguish whether or not the amount is to be determined from the moment that the damage is produced or from the date in which its appraisal is made.

In the first case -- that is to say, if the amount of compensation is determined according to the value of the damage from the moment in which the detrimental act occurred -- it is lawful to adjust that value according to the devaluation which the nominal monetary unit has undergone, so that the injured party would thus receive a full compensation. But certainly that does not authorize adding interest to the amount of compensation, since in the field of economics as well as of law, interest is not a means of adjusting money to maintain its constant value, but rather typically constitute a profit, benefit, or gain produced on capital. As such, to apply interest on the amount of indemnification means failing to fulfill the principle on which the collection of the same is sustained, since interest is always a profit or gain, which increases that amount, and is not causally associated with the injurious act.

In the second case -- that is to say, when the amount of compensation is determined according to the value of the damage at the moment in which its assessment is made -- it is clear that no adjustment is applicable, since it is already so adjusted; nor is it admissible to add retroactive interest, because if that were done it would be granting a profit, benefit, or gain to the injured party equal to the amount of interest acknowledged to the party, clearly a breach of the principle mentioned above. In a word, that would mean granting a double indemnity. (4)

The presentation of the Government of the United States claims the application of a 10% interest per annum as of the year 1976, both on the amount of moral damages and, damages for personal injury as well as on direct expenses. With regard to the former, its inadmissibility is manifest if one considers that the valuation of the moral damage and personal injuries is made now, in 1991, and not according to the appraisal that might have been made of the same in 1976, so that adding 15 years of retroactive interest onto its current value is clearly increasing the amount in an artificial way and converting the interest into a net profit or gain in favor of the persons for whom it is claimed.

As refers to interest applied to what the Presentation calls "direct expenses", its rejection is imposed for the reasons previously indicated; i.e., because the interest claimed is not a means for avoiding monetary devaluation; and inasmuch as they constitute a source of profit or gain, it becomes inadmissible to add them on to the amount of such expenses. It would be appropriate, on the other hand, to adjust the amount in case of devaluation of the monetary unit in which the expenses were made; but the Presentation makes no petition to that effect, nor does it indicate the exact date in which they may have been made and commencing from when they should be adjusted, for which it is not appropriate for the Commission to make a determination thereon.

In the case of the USS Baltimore, originated by the deaths of United States sailors in the Chilean port of Valparaíso, the agreement between the two Governments contained elements of satisfaction as means of reparation of the damage caused, which suggested the responsibility of the State of Chile. At no time, however, was the payment of interest offered or claimed by the parties. (5)

In summary, the claim of interest is inadmissible according to the very principle on which it is founded.

(d) Interest may not arise from an unliquidated obligation.

What has just been explained leads to the question of delayed interest in the case of unliquidated debts.

Debts are unliquidated when they are not perfectly determined, whether in their existence or in their amount. They, exist, for example, when an act has occurred which can give rise to indemnification; but it is not known for certain whether the author of the act will be declared responsible for the same, nor what amount of indemnification must be paid.

As long as the debt remains unliquidated, the debtor cannot incur in delay, since this consists in the wrongful delay in payment of the quantity owed; such that when the obligation or its amount have not been previously determined, it is inadmissible to say that the debtor has wrongfully delayed payment; whenever this might occur it is necessary for the debtor to know that he is such, as well as the amount that is owed. Moreover, not even the creditor knows for sure what he has the right to claim.

Hence, it is inferred that the unliquidated debts do not accrue interest, since the debtor of an unliquidated obligation cannot be held delinquent while it continues as such. Only once the obligation has been liquidated and the debtor legally required to make payment is default in payment established. (6)

When these principles of municipal law, recognized by the majority of civil legal orders, are applied to the present case, the inadmissibility of the claimed interest in the Presentation of the United States becomes evident, inasmuch as the obligation to compensate the damage is unliquidated, and thus its amount is not even known. Only once the Commission has determined the amount of the "ex-gratia" payment which Chile must effect will that amount be known and only then can there be delay, provided that payment is not made within the term set forth in the Agreement subscribed by both Governments.

The "second" Macedonian case serves both as a contrast to and as an illustration of, these ideas. It arose through the seizure by the Chilean Fleet of a cargo of silver from a United States citizen in 1821. The matter was submitted by the two Governments to the arbitration of the King of the Belgians, deciding ex aequo et bono, through a Convention signed on November 10th, 1858. (7) In said Convention the question of whether interest was owed on the appropriated capital was specifically submitted, as well as what the rate was to be, and as of what date payment of interest should be made.

The considerations of the arbitrator were the following:

"It is a fact that the sum seized amounted to 70,400 pesos or dollars;

"Whereas this sum proceeded from a transaction mutually undertaken and whose settlement should be made according to the terms set forth in the contract which took place between the parties on November 25th, 1819;

(The product of the transaction was to be apportioned in 1/5 for Mr. Smith and 2/5 for his United States creditors.)

"Whereas the capture was groundless, the restitution of the seized capital must include with it the restitution of interest;

"Whereas, however, that until March 19th, 1841, the Government of the United States has done nothing to accelerate the settlement;

"Whereas, furthermore, that from December 26th, 1848, the High contracting Parties to the contract were in agreement in principle regarding the need for an arbitration".

The arbitrator, in his decision of May 15th, 1863, granted interest on the fractional part of the owed capital, at the rate of 6% per annum, but only from March 19th, 1841, to December 26th, 1848. (8)

Consequently, the damage suffered by the affected individuals was of a commercial and adjustable nature according to a contract previously agreed to. On this basis, the question of interest was expressly submitted for the decision of the arbitrator. (9) The arbitrator confirmed that the delay of payment of one State vis-a-vis another occurred only with the formal claim by the latter against the former.

(e) The interest claimed would amount to a lucrative compensation.

Without prejudice to what has been stated, it is worth taking into account the proposal referring to the claimed loss of interest sustained by the injured parties for the non-use of claimed sums from the date of the damage until that of its compensation, which is designated "additional damages by virtue of the delay in receiving prompt compensation."

The consideration of such "additional damages" is based on the erroneous assumption that money produces interest by the mere fact of its receipt. In order for money to produce interest -- that is, civil benefits -- it is essential to invest it or do business with it, either by lending it, depositing it, or entering into other legal acts capable of generating profits or benefits. That makes the increase of money possible; but it also involves the risk of deterioration or loss.

It cannot be accepted, therefore, that the affected parties have been prevented from earning 10% yearly interest for the mere fact of not having been able to make use of the money relevant to the compensation, and that for that reason they have automatically become adversely affected by a quantity equal to the amount of said interest.

The claim for interest set forth in the Presentation supposes or speculates that the injured parties would have allocated the money for the undertaking of lucrative investments, that these would always have been successful, and that they would have obtained an interest of 10% per annum. The non-collection of interest on those sums does not constitute, therefore, a certain or real damage, but rather one merely hypothetical or possible, that may or may not have occurred, and whose existence depends upon foretelling or speculating the above assumptions, which in law does not constitute a recoverable damage.

III. Conclusion.

In conclusion, we have confirmed that under applicable rules of international law, interests are not due as compensation in cases for physical damage, or the violent death of individuals. In cases of ex-gratia payments it is furthermore inappropriate to consider interest, given the nature of these payments. Nor a fortiori may interest be applied retroactively. This, no doubt, has been the intention of the parties.

Indeed, no causal relation is established between the injurious act and the payment of ex-gratia compensation, which underlines the inadmissibility of accounting for interest.

In cases of compensation arising from violent death of individuals, the granting of interest would be equivalent to double indemnity. This is confirmed by the principles applied in international decisions, according to which it is inadmissible to grant interest on this class of debts: a) since they are not liquid; and b) even if they were liquid, during the period prior to their diplomatic claim by one Government to another. The above is also based upon the principle of the equivalence between the damage and the compensation.

These conclusions uphold the consistent practice between the Governments of Chile and of the United States, in the sense that when the parties have intended to consider interest in the settlement of their disputes, they have expressly so stipulated in their agreements or conventions. In the instant case before the Commission, there is no stipulation whatsoever concerning the subject of interest.

It is therefore concluded that in the present situation the nature of the damage and the ex-gratia character of the payment must prevail, according to which the payment of interest by the Government of Chile to the Government of the United States on behalf of the affected families does not apply.

CHAPTER V.

CLAIM FOR LAWYERS' FEES AND EXPENSES.

Illegality of the claim for fees and expenses in accordance with the Agreement and Compromis subscribed between The United States of America and the Republic of Chile.

I. Introduction.

The Government of Chile has promised to make an ex gratia payment, determined by the Commission, as though responsibilities had been established for the State of Chile.

Since responsibility in the assassination of Mr. Orlando Letelier and of Mrs. Ronni K. Moffitt, occurring on September 21, 1976, is not acknowledged by the Government of Chile, it is evident that Chile cannot be considered as being obliged to pay lawyers' fees and direct expenses disbursed by several lawyers, the latter amounting to US$ 48,367.70.

II. The claim for lawyers' fees and expenses is unfounded.

The reasons by which it is not acceptable to order the payment of fees and other direct expenses disbursed by several lawyers, are the following:

(a) The Agreement and Compromis do not allow the claim.

The Agreement and Compromis, in no part establish that such expenses must be assumed by the parties. Moreover, in the diplomatic note, which gave rise to the current disagreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Chile, the solution of which must be deemed settled once payment of the material compensation for the Presentation is determined, it was expressly indicated that the Government of the United States would not charge its expenses.

UNCLASSIFIED

Among the costs of the fees claimed in the Presentation, there are important amounts related to the expenses and fees incurred in the preparation of the Presentation.

In fact, it is sought to charge the referred US$ 48,367.70, amount which includes US$ 4,422.45 resulting from direct expenses, according to what is indicated in Exhibit N° 20, which came about between June of 1990 and August of 1991.

It is evident that this expense arises exclusively from the preparation of the Presentation drafted by the Department of State, with the collaboration of lawyers, and Messrs. Karpen, Moffitt and Letelier.

No expense, whether by an individual or by an organism of the Government of the United States, that is needed to prepare the Presentation, can be claimed against the Government of Chile, who ex gratia has expressed itself in favor of paying a just compensation to the family members of those murdered on September of 1976.

The same thing applies to the claims presented by Mr. Buffone or the Department of State for US$ 78,075.30, arising from Mr. Eden's work and the NERA reports which were used in preparing the Presentation, as indicated in Exhibit N° 19.

(b) Payment of fees and expenses is not due in cases of ex gratia payment.

The payment to be determined by the Commission is an ex gratia act, and obviously a voluntary act, intended to normalize relations between the two States. Therefore, the expenses made by one party cannot be claimed so that the Commission may act in a certain way.

The sole act of requesting payment for expenses and legal fees reveals the mistaken conception that the Government of the United States of America has given to its Presentation.

The Government of the United States of America should convince itself that it is not at trial against a Government that acts outside of international law. The Government of Chile has graciously consented to pay compensation for the damage suffered by the family members of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt. It is for that reason that the Government of Chile is not only found to be within the norms of international law, but also is cooperating toward the harmony that should exist in international relations.

It is evident that the costs of said acts are the responsibility of each of the parties.

As precedents, in the disputes that Chile has circumstantially had with the Government of the United States of America, as are, the "Franklin" case, the "Macedonian" case, and the "Baltimore" case, it has never happened that either of the parties assumed a special cost for fees and expenses.

Indeed, on June 21, 1859, the National Congress approved the Agreement that had been negotiated, concluded and signed on September 10, 1858, between the Republic of Chile and the United States of America. By virtue of said Agreement, the Government paid the sum of CH$ 15,000, Chilean currency of the time, as "an indemnification" equitably due to the owners, the Captain and other interested parties in the American whaler "Franklin", which had been detained in Talcahuano in 1832 under suspicion of violation of Chilean customs laws -- said sum having to be considered by all interested parties in that ship as total payment for all the losses experienced and for the expenses they incurred as a consequence of their detention in Talcahuano in the year 1832.

The Macedonian Case was submitted to the arbitration of His Majesty the King of Belgium, in accordance with the agreement signed on November 10, 1858, who should have established, among other matters, whether the Government of Chile, in addition to the principal sum, should pay interest over this amount, and if so, what was the rate and from what date was it to be paid. No question regarding expenses or costs was established between the parties.

In the Baltimore Case, the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Chile agreed to arbitration in order to resolve the problem that had arisen, which arbitration did take place. The Government of Chile agreed to pay to the Government of the United States of America, the amount of CH $75,000 in gold, without consideration of additional costs and expenses.

In these cases between both Governments, directly or through arbitration, the expenses of the respective Governments have not been considered, be they for preparation or of any other nature. It follows from this that in the relations between both States, it is not in order to claim for the payment of expenses related to the preparation of presentations or complaints, since in the respective agreements, nothing has been stipulated to that effect.

(c) The payment of lawyer fees and expenses is not due, since there has been no litiscontestation between the parties.

The collection of such expenses or costs, implies placing the party obliged to pay, in a position of having been defeated in a "litiscontestation" before a competent international tribunal.

No international litigation of this kind exists between both States, nor has the Commission been given full jurisdiction to be acquainted with the diplomatic dispute.

Therefore, no nation is either successful or defeated. The latter is the one who should cover the expenses of the victory.

This is yet another reason to reject the payment claimed by the Government of the United States of America.

(d) The payment of costs incurred prior to the proceedings before the Commission.

It is inappropriate to pay the fees of the lawyers hired by the families of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt and other expenses they incurred for court proceedings and of any other nature, prior to the date of the Agreement subscribed between both Governments.

The order to pay costs, according to the generally accepted principles of law, consists in redressing the damage caused by the trial, if the defendant does not voluntarily proceed to make reparation. Obliging the victim to obtain legal recognition of his right, the offender has caused the victim a new damage, concerning the expenses claimed for the prosecution of the action. Likewise, this order will be borne by the liable third parties, since they are responsible for all the damaging consequences of the act committed by the perpetrator of the crime. (Theoretical and Practical Treaty of Public, Criminal and Contractual Responsibility. Henri and León Mazeaud - André Tunc. Third Book. Volume I. Fifth Edition, Ediciones Jurídicas [Legal Editions]).

However, the State of Chile does not have any pending lawsuit related to the indemnification of damages for events occurring on September 21, 1976, affecting the family members of Mr. Orlando Letelier and Ronni K. Moffitt.

Furthermore, in the trial sustained by said family members with the participation of the lawyers Messrs. Michael Tigar and Samuel J. Buffone before the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, notwithstanding having directed themselves against the State of Chile and in which they did not take part, the Government of Chile was not ordered to pay costs, as recognized in the declaration made by the lawyer, Mr. Buffone, in Exhibit N° 20 of the Presentation.

The proceeding in which the ex gratia Compensation to be paid by the State of Chile is fixed, cannot be deemed to be a judicial proceeding and the family members of the murder victims, occurring on September 21, 1976, are not parties to the proceeding nor do they have a right to claim costs and expenses of any nature.

In accordance with the principle indicated previously, the Government of Chile has, with the United States of America, agreed to submitting the question of the ex gratia payment, as concerns its amount, to the Commission. Therefore, there has never been a refusal of payment of a compensation agreed upon by both States.

On the other hand, in their particular lawsuit, the family members of Mr. Orlando Letelier and Mrs. Ronni Moffitt could pursue the collection of costs and expenses against those liable defendants, natural persons, that were sentenced to pay. The Government of Chile is unaware that they have taken actions in this direction.

The Government of Chile is only bound to submit itself to the jurisdiction of the courts of its own country, in conformity with the procedures established by the Political Constitution of the Republic of Chile and the laws pertaining to legal process. Since it does not accept the jurisdiction of the United States Court for the District of Columbia, it would never be obliged to pay for costs and expenses of this lawsuit as sought by the Presentation.

Similarly, the refusal of the Government of Chile to comply with a verdict of a court of the United States of America, cannot lead, in accordance with the principles and standards of international law, to the payment of the costs of this lawsuit, since that would be contrary to a principle of international law regarding the immunity of jurisdiction, without detriment to that it would also be in violation of a standard of Chilean Public Law.

(e) The payment of lobbying expenses before the U.S. legislature is not due.

It also appears odd and thus the Government of Chile rejects any attempt to claim costs and expenses which the lawyers of the family members of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt would have incurred, for the intention of modifying the statutes of the United States of America, specifically, the "Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act" in negotiations carried out in 1984.

The foregoing explanation should be considered absurd, inasmuch as it expects that the cost of amending laws of the United of States of America should be assumed by a foreign State.

It is illustrative, for the Members of the Commission, to remember that it was Mr. Orlando Letelier, in his capacity as Minister of Foreign Relations of Chile, who lead the defense of the principle of jurisdictional immunity before the foreign Courts of its time when they attempted to place an attachment on the possessions of the State of Chile, specifically as a result of the nationalization of copper mines being exploited by foreign companies of United States nationality.

In conclusion, it is absolutely inappropriate that through the Presentation's claims, the Government of the United States seeks to increase the amount of the ex gratia compensation with the additional cost of the fees and expenses of the private attorneys of the Letelier and Moffitt families, without prejudicing the right they have to pursue payment of the fees and expenses decreed by the judgement of the Court of the United States against the individuals who were convicted by said tribunal. Likewise, the additional charge for negotiations related to amendment of the 1976 Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act or before the Department of State, does not proceed and it is especially contrary to the Agreement and Compromis of June 11, 1990 to include expenses and fees that are subsequent to the subscription of a diplomatic agreement that put an end to a dispute between both States.

A FAIR AND REASONABLE COMPENSATION.

I. Theoretical Basis.

(a) The Government of Chile believes that a prudent compensation involves payment to the family members of Mr. Orlando Letelier and Mrs. Ronni Karpen Moffitt, which lessens or alleviates their damages, associated with the actual damages (damnum emergens) and loss of profits (lucrum cessans), as well as moral damage. This compensation is not the same as an indemnification, since the latter's purpose would be to leave the family members of the bomb attack victims, occurring in Washington D.C. on September 21, 1976, undamaged.

(b) This prudent compensation takes into consideration the efforts the Government of Chile is making, to redress the damages of political violence that occurred, in connection with the Chilean Government from 1973 until 1990. These efforts would necessarily include the compensation to be paid to the family members of the victims of the previously mentioned bomb attack.

(c) As well, a prudent compensation should be fixed within the scope of the ex gratia payment made by the Government of Chile, without admitting liability and as a way of reestablishing full diplomatic relations between both Governments.

DECLASSIFIED

(d) Lastly, a prudent compensation takes into consideration all of the information, allegations and arguments contained in the Presentation and in the previously formulated Observations.

II. Compensation to the family members of Mr. Orlando Letelier del Solar.

(a) Income before his return to Chile.

In calculating a prudent compensation for material damages suffered by the family members, the basis used is the approximate remuneration that Mr. Letelier received at the I.P.S. at the date of his death, as indicated in the Presentation.

Said remuneration is calculated until 1990, presuming that Mr. Letelier would have returned to Chile at this time, with the object of incorporating himself into the transitional process towards democracy, for which he carried out active work at an international level, as shown in Chapter III.

(b) Income after his return to Chile.

After 1990, it is estimated that he would have received remuneration equivalent to that of a Minister of State of the Republic of Chile; and, from the age of 65, at which time he would have retired, he would have received a retirement payment until the age of 74.

In both cases, it states that Mr. Letelier would have spent 40% of his income on family activities, which corresponds to the material damage and the loss of profits (lucrum cessans) of his wife and children, considering the time at which the latter would normally be independent.

Summary:

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| (1) | Before returning to Chile: (1990) | | | |
| | US$ 308,333 | 40 % | = | US$ 143,333 |
| (2) | After returning to Chile: | | | |
| | Salary as a Minister of State | 40 % | = | CH$ 20.160.000 |
| | Retirement Pension | 40 % | = | CH$ 6.480.000 |
| | | | | CH$ 26.640.000 |

This last amount, up to this moment, is currently equivalent to approximately US$ 74,000.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| | 1. | US$ | 143,333 |
| + | 2. | US$ | 74,000 |
| T o t a l | | US$ | 217,333 |

(c) Moral Damage.

This is calculated on the highest indemnification (not compensation) that the State of Chile would be ordered to pay in a lawsuit before the Chilean courts, approximately CH$ 50.000.000.---, equivalent to US$ 138,000.----.

As a result, the family of Mr. Orlando Letelier, consisting of his wife and his four children, could receive the amount of US$ 355,333.----------.

The Government of Chile, believes that the distribution of said amount should be made between the family at their own decision, inasmuch as there is a lack of information in order to indicate the amount that each one of its members would receive or to weigh the factors that would allow them to establish differences between them.

III. Mr. Michael Moffitt's Compensation.

The Government of Chile only acknowledges payment of moral damages, since no estimates nor requisites for claiming material damages are given.

The moral damage caused by the death of his spouse are assessed at US$ 200,000.---------- and the personal injury at US$ 50,000.----------, all in accordance with the Observations formulated in the preceding Chapters, II and III.

IV. Compensation to the parents of Mrs. Ronni Karpen Moffitt.

The Government of Chile believes that the only reasonable and prudent compensation that could be paid to Mrs. Hilda and to Mr. Murray Karpen amount to US$ 70,000.-------, all in conformity with the observations formulated in the previously mentioned Chapters II and III and in the cases examined.

V. Maximum Limit.

The Government of Chile, according to what has been stated in the present Chapter, believes that the maximum amount that should be paid to the Government of the United States of America, in accordance to the Agreement and Compromis, amounts to US$ 675,333.----, without payment of interest of any kind or surcharge for costs and fees.

The amount referred, to will be paid as set forth in the Agreement and Compromis, that is "as soon as possible and after the necessary legal requirements have been fulfilled following the determination by the Commission." (Point 5 of the Agreement).

SUBJECT: LETELIER/MOFFITT: JUSTICE BANADOS PUZZLED BY U.S. APPROACH TO LETTERS ROGATORY

1. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. THE LOCAL ATTORNEY REPRESENTING THE USG IN THE LETELIER/MOFFITT MURDER CASE MET WITH JUSTICE BANADOS LATE NOVEMBER 5. ETCHEBERRY ASKED FOR THE MEETING TO PASS ON THE NAME OF AN INDIVIDUAL HE OBTAINED INFORMALLY THROUGH PERSONAL CHANNELS WHO MAY HAVE INFORMATION RELATED TO THE PASSPORT FALSIFICATION ASPECT OF THE CASE. DURING THE BRIEF MEETING, BANADOS ASKED WHY THE U.S. WAS TAKING SO LONG IN RESPONDING TO HIS LETTERS ROGATORY REQUEST OF SEPTEMBER. ETCHEBERRY, WHO KNOWS THAT THE FORMAL REQUEST WAS ONLY RECEIVED IN LATE OCTOBER, EXPLAINED THE U.S. PROCEDURES FOR RESPONDING TO SUCH REQUESTS, INCLUDING THE TIME INVOLVED IN OBTAINING OFFICIAL TRANSLATIONS.

3. ETCHEBERRY TOLD US BANADOS WAS ALSO CURIOUS WHY HIS FIRST LETTERS ROGATORY REQUEST HAD NOT BEEN RESPONDED TO BY A JUDGE, BUT RATHER BY THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE AND THE U.S. ATTORNEY'S OFFICE. ETCHEBERRY SOUGHT AGAIN TO EXPLAIN U.S. PROCEDURES, NOTING THAT THE TYPE OF RESPONSE PROVIDED BY THE U.S. WAS IN KEEPING WITH NORMAL PRACTICES.

4. FINALLY, BANADOS EXPLAINED HIS REQUEST FOR STATEMENTS MADE BEFORE THE JUDGE BY THE CUBANS SUAREZ AND PAZ, NOTING THAT WHEN ARMANDO FERNANDEZ LARIOS REACHED A PLEA BARGAIN AGREEMENT, THE PRESIDING JUDGE NEVERTHELESS ASKED HIM A SERIES OF QUESTIONS ABOUT THE CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE LETELIER/MOFFITT MURDERS. ETCHEBERRY EXPLAINED THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE FACTUAL PROFFERS SUBMITTED IN THE U.S. RESPONSE TO THE FIRST LETTERS ROGATORY REQUEST, ADDING THAT NO DIRECT QUESTIONING OR STATEMENTS WERE MADE IN CONNECTION WITH THE SENTENCING OF SUAREZ AND PAZ.

5. COMMENT: ETCHEBERRY, WHO REMAINS OPTIMISTIC THAT THE SUPREME COURT WILL UPHOLD THE INDICTMENTS ISSUED BY JUSTICE BANADOS AGAINST MANUEL CONTRERAS AND PEDRO ESPINOZA, ATTRIBUTED BANADOS QUESTIONS MORE TO CURIOSITY RATHER THAN CONCERN, ALTHOUGH HE ACKNOWLEDGES IT IS DIFFICULT TO READ THE FASTIDIOUS, TACITURN BANADOS.

NONETHELESS, ETCHEBERRY AGREES THAT OUR PENDING RESPONSE TO THE SECOND LETTERS ROGATORY REQUEST MAKE CLEAR THE DATE THE REQUEST WAS TRANSMITTED FORMALLY TO THE U.S., AND, IF POSSIBLE, HIGHLIGHT THAT THE U.S. ATTORNEY IS AN OFFICER OF THE U.S. COURTS. ETCHEBERRY UNDERTOOK TO DOUBLE TRACK

I. COMMUNISTS CONCLUDE PARTY CONGRESS

15. (U) THE CHILEAN COMMUNIST PARTY (PCCH) CONCLUDED ITS 21ST CONGRESS BY PROCLAIMING ITSELF AN OPPOSITION PARTY. IT INTENDS TO FORM A LARGE LEFTIST ALLIANCE OF DEMOCRATIC LEFTISTS AND PRESENT A LIST OF CANDIDATES FOR MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS ON A NATIONAL SCALE. THE PCCH CLAIMS IT IS PART OF THE OPPOSITION BECAUSE THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT HAS NOT ABIDED BY THE "CONCERTACION" PROGRAM. MOREOVER, IT CLAIMS CHILE HAS A LIMITED "DEMOCRACY." THE COMMUNISTS SEEK A STRATEGIC ALLIANCE THAT OFFERS A LEFTIST ALTERNATIVE TO THE CENTER-LEFT GOVERNMENT AND THE PRESENT SYSTEM.

16. (U) THE COMMUNISTS DISCUSSED A NUMBER OF ISSUES AT THE CONGRESS, INCLUDING SUCH GOALS AS TRANSFORMING THE STRUCTURE OF THE CLASSES AND POWER BASE, DEMOCRATIZING THE AR"ED FORCES, TRANSFORMING THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM, PROMOTING LATIN AMERICAN INTEGRATION, AND CHANGING NEOLIBERAL ECONOMIC POLICY. THE PCCH IS NOW PLANNING A "NATIONAL ASSEMBLY OF THE LEFT" FOR THREE DAYS IN EARLY DECEMBER.

17. (C) THE COMMUNISTS HAD SURPRISING SUCCESS AT THE

CUT LABOR CONGRESS (SEPTEL) DAYS BEFORE THEIR OWN CONGRESS. THEIR CONFRONTATIONAL TACTICS KEPT THE SOCIALISTS SIDELINED AND THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS ON THE DEFENSIVE. A SPLINTER CO"MUNIST "OVEMENT, ADVOCATING CLASS STRUGGLE UNDER A DIFFERENT BANNER, HAD LITTLE APPEAL, A SIGN THAT POLITICS IN THE UNION MOVEMENT CONTINUES TO FOLLOW TRADITIONAL POLITICAL DIVISIONS. THE COMMUNISTS STUCK TO THEIR TRADITIONAL "ANTI-IMPERIALIST" THEMES, DESPITE THE DEMISE OF THEIR INTERNATIONAL ROLE MODELS.

J. PUBLIC SECTOR STRIKES

18. (C) IN EARLY OCTOBER, THE AYLWIN ADMINISTRATION APPEARED TO BE HEADED FOR A CONFRONTATION WITH LABOR.

FOLLOWING THE THIRD TWO-DAY STRIKE BY PUBLIC HEALTH WORKERS (SANTIAGO 7369), TEACHERS -- WHO HAD RECEIVED A GENEROUS PAY INCREASE -- ANNOUNCED THAT THEY TOO WOULD HOLD A ONE-DAY STRIKE, PROTESTING THE GOVERNMENT'S BUDGET PROJECTIONS FOR 1992. THE GOC USED LONG DORMANT STATE SECURITY LAWS -- EMPLOYED ONLY DURING THE PINOCHET ERA -- TO REQUEST THE ARREST OF LEADERS OF THE PUBLIC HEALTH UNION AND BUS OPERATORS WHO HAD LAUNCHED A SEPARATE ONE-DAY STRIKE TO PROTEST GOVERNMENT POLLUTION CONTROLS. ON THE EVE OF THE TEACHERS STRIKE, PRESIDENT AYLWIN WENT ON TELEVISION TO ASK THEM TO BE REASONABLE, SAYING THEIR LEADERS WOULD ALSO BE ARRESTED IF THEY CONTINUED TO URGE AN ILLEGAL STRIKE. THE TEACHERS PERSISTED AND THEIR LEADERS (INCLUDING OSVALDO 19. (C) AYLWIN'S PERSONAL INVOLVEMENT -- AGAINST THE COUNSEL OF HIS ADVISORS -- PROVED TO BE DECISIVE, ALTHOUGH POLITICALLY RISKY. THE GOVERNMENT SENT A CLEAR MESSAGE THAT IT WOULD NOT TOLERATE ILLEGAL STRIKES BY PUBLIC SECTOR EMPLOYEES, AND THE STRIKES STOPPED. IN AN ORDERLY FASHION, AYLWIN DROPPED THE CHARGES AGAINST THE LABOR LEADERS (ALLOWING BUSTOS TO

TO: The Secretary

FROM: L - Edwin D. Williamson

SUBJECT: Formal Appointment of Agent before International Commission in the Letelier Case

The United States and Chile are utilizing the services of the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights (IACHR) as Secretariat for the International Commission that will determine the amount of compensation to be awarded for the 1976 assassinations of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt in Washington, D.C. I have been representing the United States Government before the Commission in my capacity as Legal Adviser.

The Government of Chile has recently presented the IACHR with an official Chilean decree signed by the Foreign Minister appointing its agent before the Commission. The Executive Secretary of the IACHR has asked that the United States submit a comparable letter formalizing my appointment as U.S. Agent before the Commission. While we believe that formal appointment of agents for this purpose is unnecessary, we have no objection to this request.

Recommendation

That you sign the letter, attached as Tab A, to the IACHR informing it of my appointment as Agent before the Letelier Commission on compensation.

CHILE: LETELIER CASE

UNCLASSIFIED
UNCLASSIFIED

Q: WHAT IS THE STATUS OF THE LETELIER CASE?

A: A CHILEAN COURT DECIDED THAT EVIDENCE AGAINST GENERAL JUAN MANUEL CONTRERAS AND COLONEL PEDRO ESPINOZA WAS SUFFICIENT TO CHARGE THEM WITH MURDER. THAT DECISION WAS APPEALED TO CHILE'S SUPREME COURT, WHICH IS CONSIDERING THE MATTER.

Q: ONLY ONE OF THE JUDGES ON THE CHILEAN SUPREME COURT WAS NAMED BY THE NEW DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT. DOES THE U.S. FEEL THE COURT IS IMPARTIAL?

A: IT WOULD BE INAPPROPRIATE FOR US TO COMMENT ON THE MAKEUP OF CHILE'S SUPREME COURT.

-- WE DO EXPECT THAT CHILE WILL TAKE ALL NECESSARY STEPS IN COMPLIANCE WITH ITS LAW TO BRING THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE LETELIER-MOFFITT KILLINGS TO JUSTICE.

HAITI: MIGRANTS TO U.S.

Q: ANY DETAILS ON THE SITUATION OF HAITIANS COMING TO THE U.S. WHO WERE PICKED UP AT SEA?

A: SINCE LAST WEEK, THE COAST GUARD HAS STOPPED SIX OVERCROWDED, UNSAFE VESSELS CARRYING ABOUT 200 HAITIANS WHO WERE TRYING TO ENTER THE U.S. ILLEGALLY.

-- THESE PEOPLE ARE NOW ABOARD COAST GUARD CUTTERS. THEY

ARE BEING FED AND ARE RECEIVING NEEDED CARE, INCLUDING

UNCLASSIFIED
UNCLASSIFIED

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE.

Q: WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO THEM?

A: UNDER A BILATERAL AGREEMENT WITH HAITI, U.S. IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS INTERVIEW HAITIANS COMING TO THE U.S. WHO ARE PICKED UP AT SEA TO DETERMINE IF THEY MAY CLAIM ASYLUM.

IF ASKED:

UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, THOSE WHO DO NOT HAVE A CLAIM TO ASYLUM MAY BE RETURNED TO HAITI.

-- WE ARE AWARE OF THE URGENCY OF THIS PROBLEM. WE ARE CAREFULLY CONSIDERING THE SITUATION IN HAITI TO DETERMINE WHETHER THERE SHOULD BE ANY CHANGES IN OUR ESTABLISHED PROGRAM. WE HAVE NOT MADE ANY CHANGES YET.

-- THE INTERVIEWING OF THESE INDIVIDUALS HAS NOT YET BEEN COMPLETED.

Q: HOW IS ASYLUM STATUS GRANTED?

A: CLAIMS FOR ASYLUM ARE ADJUDICATED ON A CASE-BY-CASE BASIS. APPLICANTS FOR ASYLUM MUST DEMONSTRATE THAT THEY HAVE A WELL-FOUNDED FEAR OF PERSECUTION ON ACCOUNT OF THEIR RACE, RELIGION, NATIONALITY, MEMBERSHIP IN A PARTICULAR SOCIAL GROUP, OR POLITICAL OPINION.

Q: DO YOU CONSIDER THE MIGRATION AGREEMENT WITH HAITI IN

UNCLASSIFIED

EFFECT, GIVEN THAT THE HAITIAN GOVERNMENT WAS OVERTHROWN?

A: WE AND THE OTHER NATIONS OF THE HEMISPHERE RECOGNIZE PRESIDENT ARISTIDE'S POPULARLY ELECTED GOVERNMENT AS THE LEGITIMATE GOVERNMENT OF HAITI. AGREEMENTS WE HAD WITH THAT GOVERNMENT ARE STILL IN EFFECT.

HAITI: MIGRANTS TO U.S., OAS MISSION

Q: HAS THE U.S. APPROACHED THIRD COUNTRIES ABOUT TAKING

IN HAITIANS PICKED UP AT SEA? WHEN WILL THERE BE A DECISION?

A: WE VIEW THIS AS A REGIONAL PROBLEM AND ARE TREATING IT ACCORDINGLY.

-- WE ARE IN TOUCH WITH THE UN HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR REFUGEES AND OTHER COUNTRIES IN THE REGION REGARDING THE PROBLEM OF HAITIANS LEAVING HAITI WHO ARE PICKED UP AT SEA.

-- WE ARE ADDRESSING THIS PROBLEM URGENTLY AND HOPE IT WILL BE RESOLVED SOON. HOWEVER, WE HAVE NOT AS YET DECIDED TO MAKE ANY CHANGES IN OUR POLICY OR PROCEDURES.

IF ASKED:

UNDER OUR AGREEMENT WITH HAITI, HAITIANS WHO ARE NOT ELIGIBLE FOR ASYLUM IN THE U.S. MAY BE RETURNED TO HAITI.

Q: ANY UPDATE ON THE OAS CIVILIAN MISSION?

A: THE OAS ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY THAT ITS CIVILIAN MISSION FOR THE REESTABLISHMENT AND STRENGTHENING OF DEMOCRACY IN HAITI WILL LEAVE WASHINGTON FOR PORT-AU-PRINCE TOMORROW.

-- WE HOPE TO SEE A PEACEFUL RESOLUTION TO THE CRISIS IN HAITI WHICH RESPECTS THE ESSENTIAL PRINCIPLE THAT A DEMOCRATICALLY ELECTED PRESIDENT CANNOT AND MUST NOT BE FORCED FROM OFFICE THROUGH VIOLENCE.

NICARAGUA: UNREST

Q: ANY COMMENT ON REPORTS OF STRIKES AND GROWING INSTABILITY IN NICARAGUA?

A: PRESIDENT CHAMORRO'S GOVERNMENT WAS ELECTED ON A PLATFORM OF NATIONAL RECONCILIATION AND ECONOMIC GROWTH FOR NICARAGUA.

-- WE FULLY SUPPORT THE CHAMORRO GOVERNMENT'S ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL REFORMS, WHICH ARE MEANT TO FULFILL THE PROMISES IT MADE TO THE NICARAGUAN PEOPLE.

-- THE SUCCESS OF THESE REFORMS IS VITAL IF NICARAGUA IS TO HAVE A PEACEFUL AND PROSPEROUS FUTURE. ALL NICARAGUANS MUST WORK TOGETHER WITHIN THE DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM TO IMPLEMENT THESE REFORMS IF THEY ARE TO SUCCEED.

-- VIOLENT STRIKES IN RESPONSE TO NEEDED REFORMS, CAN ONLY HURT ORDINARY NICARAGUANS' CHANCES FOR A BETTER LIFE.

2. (U) THE APPEALS COURT IN THE SAN MIGUEL DISTRICT OF SANTIAGO ON DECEMBER 4 INDICTED ARMY LIEUTENANT COLONEL FERNANDO EDUARDO LAUREANI MATURANA FOR THE KIDNAPPING OF TWO BROTHERS, JUAN CARLOS AND JORGE ELIAS ANDRONICO ANTEQUERA, IN OCTOBER 1974. THE COURT REJECTED THE

DEFENSE'S CLAIM THAT THE 1978 AMNESTY LAW APPLIED IN THIS CASE, RULING THAT KIDNAPPING DOES NOT FALL UNDER THE AMNESTY. THE COURT ALSO ISSUED AN ORDER TO DETAIN OSVALDO ROMO MENA, A FORMER DINA OFFICER, FOR HIS SUSPECTED INVOLVEMENT IN THE CRIME.

3. (U) ON OCTOBER 3, 1974, A DINA TEA" OF SEVEN MEN HEADED BY THEN LIEUTENANT FERNANDO ADRIAN LAUREANI MATURANA ENTERED THE ANDRONICO ANTEQUERA HOME, PLACED THE OCCUPANTS IN CERTAIN ROOMS, AND WAITED FOR THE BROTHERS' RETURN. LATER THAT DAY JORGE ELIAS ARRIVED AND WAS TAKEN AWAY. LIEUTENANT LAUREANI STAYED BEHIND WITH THREE OTHER MEN UNTIL JUAN CARLOS RETURNED THE NEXT DAY. THE TEAM THEN LEFT THE HOME ON OCTOBER 5. BOTH BROTHERS, ALONG WITH LUIS FRANCISCO GONZALEZ, BECAME PART OF THE LIST OF DETAINED AND DISAPPEARED VICTIMS. JUAN CARLOS AND JORGE ELIAS, WHO AT THE TIME WERE 24 AND 25 YEARS OLD RESPECTIVELY, WERE REPORTEDLY MEMBERS OF THE MOVEMENT OF THE REVOLUTIONARY LEFT (MIR).

4. (U) LAUREANI HAD IDENTIFIED HIMSELF WHEN HE ENTERED THE RSIDENCE, AND SEVERAL WITNESSES CONFIRM THE BROTHERS' DETENTION. LAUREANI, WHO WAS A DINA MEMBER FROM SEPTEMBER 1974 TO LATE 1975, HEADED A SPECIAL BRIGADE DEDICATED TO REPRESSING MILITANTS OF THE MIR. THE RETTIG COMMISSION FURNISHED NEW INFORMATION THAT LAWYERS FROM THE CATHOLIC CHURCH'S VICARATE OF SOLIDARITY USED IN THE CASE AGAINST LAUREANI.

5. (C) COMMENT: THIS IS THE FIRST TIME THAT AN ACTIVE DUTY ARMY OFFICER AND FORMER DINA AGENT HAS BEEN INDICTED IN A PINOCHET ERA DISAPPEARANCE CASE. THOUGH THE APPLICABILITY OF THE 1978 AMNESTY LAW CASE WILL LIKELY NEED TO BE DECIDED BY THE SUPREME COURT, LAUREANI WILL HAVE TO ANSWER TO HIS WHEREABOUTS AND ACTIONS DURING THE MID-1970S, WHEN MOST OF THE DISAPPEARANCES OCCURRED. LAUREANI WILL PROBABLY BE DETAINED IN A MILITARY FACILITY, AS IN THE CASE OF COLONEL ESPINOZA FOR THE LETELIER-MOFFITT MURDERS. GILLESPIE

CONGRESSIONAL NOTIFICATION AND ARMS SALES

An amendment to the Foreign Operations Authorization Bill has been proposed that requires 15-day congressional notification of proposed arms sales to Chile. It was approved by both the House and Senate despite Administration opposition. In response to Chilean objections, the conference committee included remarks in its report recognizing progress on two fronts:

-- Democratic transition. The report notes "the impressive prgress made by the Aylwin Government in working to strengthen democratic institutions throughout the nation and to ensure civilian control over the military."

-- Letelier/Moffitt case. The report also says that the committee "believes that the Chilean Government has made significant progress in its efforts to investigate and bring to justice those responsible for the Letelier-Moffitt murders and subsequent cover-up and looks forward to the final resolution of this matter."

The center-right opposition in Chile has reacted very negatively to this amendment, alleging that it signifies a reimposition of sanctions on arms sales of the sort imposed by the Kennedy-Harkin amendment in the 1970s. We have explained to the Chileans that the amendment will not prevent the sale of military equipment to Chile; rather, it merely responds to the wish of Congress to assert procedural oversight over Administration arms sales decisions.

REBEL CEASE-FIRE BRINGS FRAGILE PEACE TO WAR-TORN SALVADOR
(Eds: peace talks in mexico in recess, army accused of trying to provoke breach in cease-fire)

By Alberto Barrera

LAS MORAS, El Salvador, Reuter - A fragile peace descended on war-torn El Salvador Saturday.

A cease-fire declared by leftist rebels held through its first tense hours despite continuing military operations in guerrilla bastions such as the Guazapa volcano, 20 miles north of San Salvador.

For the first time in many days, the armed forces reported no casualties from fighting Saturday, and only three wounded -- two rebels and a soldier -- in light clashes Friday.

The cease-fire was announced Thursday by the leftist Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front (FMLN) during U.N.-sponsored peace talks in Mexico City and took effect at midnight Friday.

It was hailed by the United Nations and the United States as a major step toward reaching a final cease-fire in El Salvador's 12-year-old civil war, in which some 75,000 people have died.

In Mexico City, the latest round of peace talks went into recess with no new accords. The talks were to resume after consultations, delegates said.

Rebel leaders said they had no reports of clashes since the truce came into effect. But they accused the armed forces of seeking to provoke a breach in the truce by operating in guerrilla zones in the north, east and center of the country.

''They are putting at risk the effort we are making,'' Joaquin Villalobos, a member of the FMLN five-man general command, told reporters. ''They are practically making clear that the government does not control the armed forces.''

Soldiers and civilians interviewed around Las Moras, a village on the slopes of the Guazapa Volcano, like many war-hardened Salvadoran citizens, greeted the truce with a mixture of hope and skepticism.

''I hope there is peace. I don't want to go around carrying this damn thing any more,'' a soldier of the U.S.-trained Atlacatl counterinsurgency battalion said, gesturing at his M-16 assault rifle.

Elite Atlacatl troops marched into Guazapa late Friday, just hours before the cease-fire was due to come into effect.

Civilians in the region said there had been no combat overnight.

Rebels had melted into the hills before the army advance and were several miles from the government forces, some civilians said.

''Peace is what we most want,'' Ana Maria Menjivar, a civilian living in Las Moras, said, criticizing the military presence in her village. ''The soldiers are still walking around here with a menacing attitude.''

Manning a military roadblock just up the road, Marco Antonio Castro, at 19 a member of the National Guard for just six months, said he would believe peace had finally come to El Salvador only when he saw it with his own eyes.

''If it's good for the people, then it's all right with me,'' he said. ''But I think seeing is believing.''

Juan Ramon Medrano, a guerrilla commander, told reporters in San Salvador that the rebel initiative sought to make reconciliation of the sundered nation easier.

''It is the moment for the reunification of society, of the family, of rebuilding the country ... a new moment in the history of our nation,'' he said.

It was unclear what military response the U.S.-backed government of President Alfredo Cristiani would give to the rebel initiative.

Cristiani said Thursday he would study taking reciprocal military measures if the FMLN honored the cease-fire, but noted the government was under no obligation to respond in kind.

The truce coincided with the second anniversary of one of the most heinous human rights crimes of the war -- the murder of six Jesuit priests, some of them internationally known intellectuals and outspoken advocates of peace -- on Nov. 16, 1989 during the FMLN's biggest offensive of the war.

In September an army colonel and a lieutenant were found guilty of the massacre. As the truce loomed Friday night some 2,000 people held a torchlit march in their memory through the streets of the capital.

U.S. REPORT LINKS SALVADORAN DEFENSE MINISTER TO MURDERS
By Robert Green

WASHINGTON, Reuter - A senior congressman said in a report Sunday he had information suggesting that Salvadoran Defense Minister Emilio Ponce and other high officials planned the 1989 killings of six Jesuit priests.

Rep. Joe Moakley, D-Mass., chairman of the House Task Force on El Salvador, said the information about the murders of the six priests, their cook and her daughter came from sources in the Salvadoran armed forces and elsewhere that he believed were a position to know what happened.

''According to these sources, the decision to murder the Jesuits was made at a small meeting of officials held at the Salvadoran Military School on the afternoon prior to the murders,'' Moakley said in a report to the other 19 members of the task force. The panel is made up of only Democratic members of congress.

The Nov. 16, 1989, killings during a heavy offensive by leftist rebels on San Salvador, sparked an international outcry.

The report was made available by Moakley's office.

''Among those present were Col. (Alfredo) Benavides, commander of the military school; Gen. Juan Rafael Bustillo, then head of the Salvadoran Air Force; Gen. Emilio Ponce, then chief of staff and now minister of defense; Gen. Orlando Zepeda, deputy minister of defense, and Col. Elena Fuentes, commander of the First Brigade.

''Reportedly, the initiative for the murders came from Gen. Bustillo, while the reactions of the others ranged from support to reluctant acceptance to silence,'' Moakley said.

He said Bustillo was now assigned to the Salvadoran Embassy in Israel.

Benavides and a lieutenant were convicted in September by a court in El Salvador for the murders.

Leftist guerrillas, who have been fighting a succession of U.S.-backed Salvadoran governments for 12 years, began a unilateral cease-fire in the war Friday. The two sides were due to resume peace talks in Mexico City later this week.

Moakley said the information led him to believe it was possible that others beside Benavides ordered the murders.

''Based on all that I have learned about the Salvadoran armed forces, I personally find this version of events more credible than the alternative, which is that Col. Benavides acted on his own, notwithstanding the chain of command, and took upon himself the awesome responsibility for these crimes,'' Moakley said.

He said there was also strong circumstantial evidence that senior Salvadoran officers knew which units were involved in the murders soon after they occured and joined a coverup.

The New York Times reported Sunday that Ponce had denied any involvement in the murders. It quoted a U.S. investigator as saying Ponce's role in the meeting was passive.

BACKGROUND

Peace Negotiations

The UN has been leading peace talks since May 1990. The talks yielded a human rights agreement in July 1990 and amendments to the constitution regarding human rights, judicial, electoral, and military reform in April 1991. On September 25 in New York the sides agreed to set up a commission to oversee implementation of peace accords, made up of representatives of the GOES, FMLN and the political parties, with Catholic Church and UN observers.

On November 15 the FMLN leadership unilaterally declared the suspension of all offensive operations and the GOES responded that it will take reciprocal measures. In the current round of negotiations in Mexico City, the GOES and FMLN continue to make substantial progress, especially on military reform. The formula for participation by ex-guerrillas in the new civilian police, and a calendar for the implementation of agreed reforms to be linked to cease-fire steps still require considerable work. The sides will return from a brief recess to the negotiating table in Mexico on November 22. Both sides appear to be trying to reach a cease-fire in December.

Post War Reconstruction

The GOES will ask international donors (particularly the Europeans) to help implement a post-war National Reconstruction Plan that concentrates on providing employment, infrastructure and social services. The Plan will be aimed at demobilized ex-combatants, displaced persons and refugees, and people in particularly war-torn areas of the country. We are promoting the Plan with other donors in order to provide coordinated assistance quickly after a cease-fire.

Human Rights

Our military and economic assistance provide us with leverage to speed improvements while shoring up a democratic government that is under attack from a well-armed insurgent force, the FMLN. Political murder has been steadily decreasing. In 1990, the number of non-combat deaths which may have been politically motivated averaged about five per month. This compares with a monthly average of 750 in 1980. The FMLN also commits numerous human rights violations and often employs indiscriminate tactics which result in civilian deaths. The human rights situation has improved further with the installation of the United Nations Observer Mission in El Salvador (ONUSAL) in July.

Jesuit Murder Case

The murder by soldiers of six priests and two women in November 1989 has come to symbolize past military impunity to the rule of law. The guilty verdict against two of the officers in the Jesuit trial, including the colonel accused of ordering the murders, represents the first conviction of a high-ranking officer for a human rights abuse. The jury apparently made a distinction between the ordering and the carrying out of the murders and found seven lower-ranking soldiers not guilty of the murder charges, although seven face lesser charges for conspiracy and destruction of evidence. Some observers claim there were other high-level officers involved in the planning of the murders, but have produced no concrete evidence.

Pickett/Dawson Murder Case

On January 2, 1991 US LTC Pickett and PFC Dawson survived the downing of their helicopter, but were subsequently murdered by their FMLN captors. Another American was killed in the crash. We maintain that the FMLN must turn the guerrillas responsible over to Salvadoran or US courts and have issued an indictment against one suspect.

Security Threat

The FMLN continues to be a formidable threat, despite the collapse of the Soviet Bloc. The Sandinistas are more discreet about aiding the FMLN since their electoral defeat and the Cubans still help the FMLN while denying that they do so. In the last two years the FMLN has achieved a qualitative upgrade of its arsenal, including acquisition of surface-to-air missiles. (SA-7, SA-14 and SA-16s) The Soviet Union (with Shevardnadze as Foreign Minister) had been helpful in tracing SAMs.

Economy

Despite the war, the government's free market economic reforms are working. In 1990, the economy posted a war-time record real growth rate of 3.4%. Price deregulation contributed to a sharp 9.7% upswing in agricultural activity. Disciplined monetary and fiscal policies kept inflation at 19.3% (modest by Latin American standards) in 1990 and narrowed the public deficit.

Talking Points

- El Salvador appears to represent another regional war drawing to a close.
  - -- The Government is committed to sweeping reforms and will need assistance from all democracies to buttress still fragile democratic institutions and follow through with political reforms and economic development.
  - -- Reforms will include the review of the officer corps' human rights records by a UN-nominated Commission, investigation of key human rights cases by another commission, monitoring of human rights by a third UN organization, and monitoring of the cease-fire by peacekeeping forces. The peace talks have also yielded amendments to the constitution regarding human rights, judicial, electoral, and military reforms. There will also be a commission to oversee implementation of peace accords, made up of representatives of the GOES, FMLN and the political parties, with Catholic Church and UN observers.
- The GOES and the FMLN are making steady progress in the Mexico City talks with both sides showing flexibility.
  - -- We are hopeful that a final round of talks can be held in December and a cease-fire can be signed at that time.
  - -- We hope you will urge the FMLN to reach a cease-fire this year, before Perez de Cuellar leaves office.
- We are very impressed with the GOES post-war National Reconstruction Plan and urge that you discuss it with the GOES and the World Bank.
  - -- The GOES will ask international donors to help implement the Plan, which concentrates on providing employment, infrastructure and social services, aiming at demobilized ex-combatants, displaced persons and refugees, and people in particularly war-torn areas of the country.
  - -- We expect the World Bank to convene a Consultative Group meeting on El Salvador as soon as possible after a cease-fire.
- Despite the war, free market policies are working.
  - -- In 1990, the economy posted a war-time record real growth rate of 3.4%.

Note to the reader: In this submission, the United States will use the same terminology and short forms as set forth in the October 3, 1991 Presentation of the United States on the "Determination of the Amount of Compensation to be Awarded with Respect to the Assassination of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt." To avoid confusion, the United States has attempted to use the terms set forth in the glossary to the "Observations of the Government of Chile." Finally, "Comments" refers to this submission, the "Comments of the United States on the Observations of the Government of Chile."

I. Introduction

In this submission the Government of the United States of America (hereinafter "United States") will present its comments on the Republic of Chile's (hereinafter "Chile") Observations of November 7, 1991 on the Presentation of the United States, in accordance with Article 7(c) of the Compromis attached to and made part of the 1990 Agreement.[1/]

In light of Chile's Observations, it appears that the United States and Chile largely agree on many of the basic legal principles that govern the determination of the amount of compensation due under international law and on certain of the factual premises which should underlie the Commission's determination. Some difference of view does exist, however, on subsidiary aspects of the governing legal principles and on their proper application in this case, as well as on aspects of the factual premises. The United States has attempted in these comments to identify more clearly these areas of agreement and divergence, as it understands them. In the view of the United States, the remaining areas of apparent divergence of view in large part reflect either some confusion as to the applicable legal principles or a misunderstanding of the United States

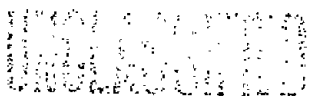
[1/] See Presentation, USG Exhibit 1.



Presentation. This submission will accordingly attempt to provide further clarification in these areas. The United States has also included some further factual material in response to particular concerns which Chile has raised, particularly with respect to the scenario which Chile presents regarding the possible return by Mr. Letelier to Chile.

It has been necessary to emphasize in these comments that the United States and Chile have already agreed on the procedures for, and task of, this Commission, as set forth in the 1990 Agreement and Compromis. As is discussed subsequently, Chile's Observations seek to introduce a number of factors which do not bear on the Commission's task, as already clearly defined. Many of Chile's observations on matters of proof and evidence, moreover, depart very fundamentally from the agreed procedure as well as from international practice generally. Indeed, some of the premises which are urged by Chile would entirely defeat the fundamental purpose of this Commission -- that of putting an end to this dispute by determining an appropriate amount of payment.

This Presentation is divided into two parts. The first, Chapter I, will focus on issues of general applicability, such as the Commission's role, the standard the Commission is to use in making its determination, and general questions of proof. Chapter II will focus on Chile's arguments with respect to the specific elements of the United States' claim.

II. Chapter I

A. The Task of the Commission Under the Terms of the Compromis

1. Considerations which do not Bear on the Commission's Task

Many of the general principles and themes advanced by the Government of Chile are, given the clear terms of the Compromis, outside the purview of the Commission's task. The United States accordingly will not attempt to address in detail all of the Chile's specific assertions with respect to these general principles and themes, but will limit itself to what seem the more significant points and observations.

a) The 1990 Agreement

Chile elaborates on the background to the 1990 Agreement and Compromis while arguing that the facts relating to the Letelier/Moffitt murders and their immediate aftermath are somehow irrelevant. The United States believes that the terms of the Compromis are sufficient to define the role and procedures for the Commission to resolve this dispute. The unilateral intention of a party, expressed after the execution of the agreements cannot serve as a substitute for their plain meaning, except insofar as it may help the Commission to understand the terms of these agreements.

To the limited extent that the history of the U.S./Chilean negotiations is relevant it reinforces the plain meaning of the Compromis. The United States and Chile were unable to resolve the dispute between them as to Chile's responsibility for the assassination of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt, and Chile's obligation to make civil reparations to the families. It should be noted that Mrs. Letelier and her children were plaintiffs in the U.S. district court action, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Karpen and Mr. Moffitt. Thus, the unresolved dispute between the United States and Chile involved not only the treatment of U.S. nationals, but also the failure to pay a United States court judgment awarded in favor of both U.S. citizens and Chilean nationals.[2/] It is also significant that the assassination and deaths which gave rise to the dispute took place in the United States. Against this background, it is neither surprising nor accidental that the 1990 Agreement and Compromis addresses the compensation to be paid to the members of the families of both Orlando Letelier

[2/]The United States does not subscribe to the doctrine of absolute sovereign immunity. Under U.S. law foreign sovereigns can be sued under certain circumstances. Neither the U.S. district court nor the appellate court found that Chile was immune from suit. Chile submitted legal briefs arguing its views on sovereign immunity and U.S. law. These positions were considered and rejected by the U.S. courts. See Letelier v. Republic of Chile, 488 F. Supp. 665 (1980). In the execution phase, the appellate court reversed the district court only on the more limited question of whether the assets attached were immune from execution.

and Ronni Moffitt, irrespective of whether they are Chilean or U.S. citizens.

b) The Question of Liability or Fault

The United States notes that it does not seek before this Commission, to establish any liability or fault on the part of Chile. This issue is one on which the parties have agreed to disagree. Chile points out in its Observations that it does not accept in the 1990 Agreement responsibility for the murders or recognize an obligation to pay the U.S. court judgment. However, neither did the United States accept Chile's position that Chile was not responsible for the assassination or that Chile was not obligated to satisfy the 1980 judgment.

The terms of the Compromis clearly do not require the Commission to decide this question. While both parties reserved their respective positions, the 1990 Agreement provided a mutually acceptable means of resolving the dispute between them.[3/] The parties have agreed that the amount of compensation is to be determined under principles of

[3/] The United States agrees with Chile's statement (Observations, at 19) that the parties are not applying the 1914 Treaty, but rather are utilizing the International Commission set up by that Treaty and agrees that the dispute is to be resolved in accordance with the 1990 Agreement.

international law "as though liability were established."[4/] As the Compromis unambiguously states, "[t]he Commission shall determine the amount of payment to be made by the Government of Chile in accordance with applicable principles of international law, as though liability were established."[5/]

Thus, under the Agreement, actual liability is irrelevant, but the standard to be applied is that of liability. Thus, the references by the United States in its Presentation to liability are necessary references to the governing legal standards, and not an attempt to establish actual liability on the part of Chile. The determination of the amount of liability based on this standard cannot be made without reference to the nature of the act giving rise to liability. Chile's proposal would divert this Commission's attention from its necessary area of inquiry. At the same time, Chile's argument that it is an innocent party which has agreed to make a humanitarian gesture only serves to re-open the underlying issue of liability intentionally left unresolved by the Parties in the Agreement.

c) The Ex Gratia Nature of the Payment

It follows that Chile's arguments, that the ex gratia nature of the payment should be taken into account by this

---

[4/] Compromis, at ¶ 4 (emphasis added).

[5/] Id.

Commission, contravene the clear terms of the Compromis. The Commission is not requested to determine an "ex gratia" payment, but rather to determine the amount of payment in accordance with applicable legal principles, as if it had already been determined that the Government of Chile was legally responsible for the assassination and deaths of Mr. Letelier and Mrs. Moffitt. While the payment is to be made ex gratia, i.e., the payment itself is not to be construed as an admission of liability, it does not affect the standard for the Commission's determination of the amount of the payment. The amount "should be equal to that which would be due if liability were established." Agreement, ¶ 4. These are the clear instructions to which the Government of Chile and the Government of the United States have already agreed.

d) Domestic Efforts by the Government of Chile

In view of the standard for determination of compensation to which the parties have agreed, several other circumstances which Chile now urges the Commission to take into account in making its determination cannot properly be considered under the terms of the Agreement. The United States recognizes and supports the efforts of the democratic government to investigate the murders of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt and other abuses of human rights. However, in the instant proceeding the compensation is to be determined under applicable principles of international law for liability.

Thus, Chile's criminal investigation has no bearing on the proper amount of damages.

Likewise, Chile's argument that the petitioners, especially those who are Chilean, should not be treated differently than other Chileans whose family members were killed in violation of their human rights, cannot be taken into account. The Agreement creates a special standard for the family members of Orlando Letelier. Chile has acknowledged as much.[6/] While other Chileans will be afforded compensation in accordance with Chilean law and procedures, the dispute between the United States and Chile is to be resolved under the terms of an international agreement which provides for the application of international law, not domestic Chilean standards.[7/]

Although Chile notes that its own Commission for Truth and Reconciliation has investigated the Letelier/Moffitt murders and has included the Chilean members of the families among those eligible for compensation for the violation of their human rights by agents of the State of Chile,[8/] the Department of State has been informed by the families that upon receipt of compensation in the amount determined by this Commission, the families will release the Chilean State from any claims of civil liability and will consider satisfied their outstanding U.S. judgment against the Government of Chile.

e) Diplomatic Protection

The issue of diplomatic protection is also irrelevant to the Commission's determination. In order to bolster its argument that the Chilean nationals on whose behalf the claims are asserted should not receive more than other Chilean citizens, Chile asserts that the protection of the Letelier and Moffitt families by the United States would, in any other circumstance, be unacceptable.[9/] But these are not any other circumstances. A Chilean public figure was assassinated in the United States, at a time when he had not only been forcibly expelled from Chile but also stripped of his Chilean citizenship. The assassination was carried out on a busy public street in the United States capital and took the life of one U.S. citizen and injured another. jeopardized many U.S. citizens present at the scene of the murders. The families of the victims and the injured U.S. citizen obtained a U.S. court judgment against Chile. The Letelier case is considered to be unique even in Chile.[10/] Chile entered into an international agreement under which it agreed to treat the Chilean national family members, not in accordance with internal Chilean proceedings, but rather under the terms of the Agreement.

f. Previous Claims of Families/United States

i. The District Court Case

Chile argues that the judgment awarded in the district court case (which it specifically disavows) should constitute a cap on any award of compensation. However, this is entirely inappropriate since the standard for setting the amount is international law, not U.S. domestic law. The law in the District of Columbia (and in the U.S. generally) does not provide for the award of "moral damage" in wrongful death cases. It provides that a claim for the pain and suffering of the decedent prior to his or her death survives death and can be asserted by the decedent's heirs. Thus the amounts indicated in the judgment for "pain and suffering" are for the pain and suffering of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt experienced by them in the brief time between the bombing before their deaths and their deaths. In contrast, under international law a claim for pain and suffering is personal and is extinguished by death. However, international law, as well as the domestic law of many Latin American countries, provides that family members can claim for their own "pain and suffering" or "moral damage" resulting from the violent severing of the family ties and other emotional harm. International law thus requires the inclusion of elements of damages that do not exist under domestic U.S. law.

10/ In a number of legislative enactments, including the 1978 Amnesty Law, the Letelier case has been singled out for special treatment. The current criminal investigations are widely viewed in Chile as a surrogate for other human rights abuses that will go unprosecuted under the Amnesty laws.

Second, the amounts for lost financial contributions are lower in the district court case than the amounts claimed here primarily because the decision was rendered in 1980. In 1980 sums that would have been earned by the decedents between 1981 and 1991 were discounted to their present value as of 1980. Today, income that would have been earned between 1980 and 1990 must be increased (to offset losses in the purchasing power of the dollar) in order to reach present value.[11/] Additionally,

See 28 U.S.C. § 1961(a) which provides: "Interest shall be allowed on any money judgment in a civil case recovered in district court. . . . the economist in 1980 had to make assumptions about the rate of increase of IPS salaries and about the performance of the economy in general, such as the rate of inflation, which today economists know for a fact. The assumptions chosen in 1980 were lower than the reality proved to be. Finally, the economist that performed the 1979 analyses had limited information on probable career paths. We have now been able to assemble more complete information allowing a far more accurate determination of loss.

ii. United States Diplomatic Note Demanding Compensation

Chile notes that the 1988 diplomatic note requesting compensation for the assassination demands $12,000,000 while the total here, with interest, is approximately $14,000,000. The 1988 diplomatic note informed Chile that the United States sought compensation on behalf of its nationals for their losses and, as Chile points out, the expenses of the United States Government. This 1988 diplomatic claim, thus, did not include the damages suffered by Orlando Letelier's widow or his three non-U.S. citizen sons -- which is approximately half of the amount claimed in this proceeding.[12/]

g) The label given to the payment: Indemnification versus Compensation

Chile argues that there is a distinction to be made between "indemnification" and "compensation" and that compensation somehow implies a lesser obligation under international law than indemnification. However, this argument is without merit. First, in the English language, indemnification is synonymous with compensation. For example, one of the most frequently cited legal dictionaries in the world - Black's Law Dictionary - defines "compensation," in part, as > indemnification; payment of damages; making amends; making whole; . . . An act which a court orders to be done, or money which a court or other tribunal orders to be paid, by a person whose acts or omissions have caused loss or injury to another, in order that thereby the person damnified may receive equal value for his loss, or be made whole in respect of his injury."[13/]

[12/] Chile states that Isabel Morel said in an interview that "the Leteliers" were not claiming this amount rather the figure had been chosen by the United States Government. Observations, at 29. While no English translation of these articles is included in the English version of the Annexes, Isabel Morel's statement rather than constituting a disavowal of the amount is merely restating the obvious. Her claim was not included and those of the U.S. Government were, so of course the amount did not represent "the Letelier" claims.

[13/] Black's Law Dictionary 354 (4th ed. 1968).

"Indemnify" is defined by Black's as "[t]o make good; to compensate; to make reimbursement to one of a loss already incurred by him."[14/] Second, the United States has checked the definitions of "compensation" and "indemnification" in the 1984 Twentieth Edition of the Spanish Royal Academy Dictionary cited by Chile in support of its distinction and observes that the respective definitions read as follows: "to compensate" (2nd def.) "to give something or to extend a benefit as reparation for the damage or sorrow caused" and "to indemnify" means "to repair a loss, damage or injury."

In both definitions the common denominator is "reparation" or its verb "to repair." The same dictionary defines "to repair" as "to indemnify, to make good, to compensate a loss, damages or injury."[15/]

Neither does international law make any such differentiation. Thus, the distinction Chile attempts to make between "compensation" and "indemnification" is completely unfounded.

[15/] Even members of the Chilean Commission on Foreign Relations of the Chamber of Deputies use these terms interchangeably. In one instance they refer to the payment Chile is to make under the Agreement as an "ex-gratia indemnity" where as they later refer to it as an "ex-gratia compensation." 2. Role of Commission/Standards of Proof

Chile's arguments with respect to the role of the Commission and the evidence are inconsistent with the Agreement and misstate applicable international law.

The parties selected this Commission, composed of highly respected international jurists, to perform a challenging task. The Commission is to bring to bear its vast collective wisdom and experience in determining, under international law, the amount of ex gratia payment which should be made on behalf of the families of the victims of an act of international terrorism. The parties entrusted the Commission with determining the amount based on written submissions only, without any independent investigation and within a tight time frame. This procedure was established by the agreement of both parties, and both parties have the responsibility in this proceeding to produce the best evidence they can to assist the Commission in its work. The Commission must then make its best determination upon the evidence available to it and under the constraints set forth in the Compromis.

Chile would convert the Commission's work into the mere mathematical computation of all the sum of damages that the United States proves beyond any doubt whatsoever. This unrealistic and inappropriate standard of proof would effectively prevent the Commission from performing the sensitive task that has been entrusted to it - determining the amount that would compensate the families of the victims for their losses and injuries as if liability were established.

Moreover, although Chile cites to Ralston[16/] to support its assertion that the burden of proof rests upon the claimants, the examples provided by Ralston reveal that this language is used loosely and means that the claimant must establish a prima facie case for recovery, not that it must prove all items of damage beyond any doubt. The respondent "may not insist that the [claimant] pile up evidence to establish its allegations beyond a reasonable doubt without pointing out some reason for doubting."[17/] In the instant proceeding, moreover, the injurious actions and the liability are assumed, thus entitlement to some recovery is also assumed. The Commission has been asked, by agreement of the parties, to determine the proper amount.

The United States agrees with Chile's statement that the Commission is not a court and that the evidentiary standards of domestic courts do not apply. The Commission is tasked with determining the amount of payment as best it can from written documentation.[18/] International tribunals have consistently upheld the unrestricted admission of evidence including affidavits by interested parties. "The practical difficulty of obtaining sufficient evidence upon which to reach a conclusion has compelled international tribunals to eschew stringent rules of evidence concerning the character and quality of the evidence admitted . . . ."[19/]

International tribunals, in order to obtain all available evidence, typically adhere to the twin principles of free admissibility and free evaluation. The approach of the International Court of Justice, for example, "is to keep open the channels for any evidence that might help it to determine the facts relative to the issues in contention before it. The Court's attitude is that it is fully capable of evaluating all evidence submitted to it."[20/] International arbitral

[18/] The parties to the Compromis chose to proceed only on written submissions and to proceed as if liability were established. The Agreement itself, at ¶ 2, recognizes the U.S. efforts to involve a broader fact finding regarding liability. Chile's effort to now argue that the agreed absence of any investigative function by the Commission somehow places an enhanced burden of proof on the United States is at odds with the clear language of the Compromis.

tribunals exercise similar freedom in admitting and evaluating evidence.[21/]

B. Governing Legal Principles

It appears that the United States and Chile agree, in large measure, on what are the "applicable principles of international law, as though liability were established." However, there is some difference of view as to subsidiary aspects of these principles, and more fundamentally, as to their proper application in this case. The United States will further expound on this in Chapter II.

1. The Basic Standard of Reparation

Although Chile looks to private law[22/] as a source of international law while the United States looks directly to public international law principles, the basic standard of

See also Velasquez Rodriguez (judgment of July 29, 1988) at 134, ¶ 127 ("[I]nternational jurisprudence has recognized the power of the courts to weigh the evidence freely, although it has always avoided a rigid rule regarding the amount of proof necessary to support the judgment."); citing Corfu Channel, Merits, Judgment, I.C.J. Reports 1949; Military and Paramilitary Activities in and against Nicaragua (Nicar. v. U.S.), Merits, Judgment, I.C.J. Reports 1986, paras. 29-30 and 59-60.

22/ It is curious that even in applying private law Chile rejects all U.S. domestic law while arguing that the proper amount the Chilean State is ordered to pay cannot exceed the amount that can be awarded in a Chilean lawsuit (CH peso $50,000,000 or $138,000). Observations, at 147.

reparation each sets forth is very similar. Chile notes "[R]eparation must be equal to the amount of the damage, which means that the victim must end up, whenever possible, in the same state had the damaging act not occurred."[23/] This accords with the classic formulation of the governing rule as stated in Chorzow Factory, with which the United States agrees.[24/]

2. The Limitation on Speculative Damages

Chile's submission of what it calls the "principle of certainty of damages" could give rise to some confusion. It is an established principle, as a limitation on the basic standard of making the victim whole, that damages which are too remote or speculative are not compensable. The Government of Chile's submission, however, at times stretches this basic principle far beyond its true scope and intention. This principle is fundamentally a rule of causality, not a rule of proof. It requires that, in order to be compensable, damages must be a reasonably direct and foreseeable consequence of the injurious act. It applies to determine the types of damage which are allowable, not to the calculation of damages. For example, where a Mexican official wrongfully sent a telegram ordering that four American locomotives sent to Mexico not be allowed to return to the U.S., the Mexican United States General Claims Commission found that the damages suffered by the locomotives during their forced stay in Mexico were too remote to be considered caused by the telegram and were thus not allowed on this basis.[25/]

There is no requirement that damages be "certain" in all respects, or in every detail. Damages may be -- and in some cases must be -- "eventual"[26/] in some respects, and calculated on the basis of reasonable presumptions. Thus, Chile's assertion that "probable profits or income, whose coming about depends on the occurrence of certain suppositions . . . do not constitute definite damages, because for its establishment it is necessary to enter into the area of conjectures"[27/] wholly confuses the applicable law, elevating a simple limitation on overly remote and speculative damages to a requirement which would exclude future damages altogether.

25/ H.G. Venable Case (Mex. v. U.S.) Mixed Claims Commission (1927) cited in B. Cheng, General Principles of Law as Applied by International Court and Tribunals 241 (1987).

26/ The United States was puzzled by Chile's argument that "eventual" damages are not compensable under international law. The United States respectfully points out what appears to be an error in the translation of the Spanish word "eventual" which should more properly be translated into the English language as "unexpected" or "uncertain."

27/ See Observations, at 73.

As Chile at points concedes, however, compensable damages are not limited to those which have actually occurred, and the calculation of future damages necessarily involves some assumptions.[28/]

The damages requested in this case are neither remote nor speculative. Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt are dead and their families suffered financial loss, psychological and other moral injuries and direct expenses. As set forth in the Presentation,[29/] these are types of damages which are recognized as compensable. Under international law, these are not regarded as "remote or speculative" damages in wrongful death cases. It is a direct and certain result of a wrongful death that spouses and dependents will suffer a loss of income and services, as well as moral damage and certain direct expenses.[30/] It is clear in this case that Michael Moffitt would have enjoyed a better financial situation had he had a working wife (earning more than he did) than if he lived alone on his own salary. Likewise, it is certain that the Letelier family suffered an economic loss upon the death of Mr. Letelier. The damage is certain. The amount of loss or injury is the issue.

[28/] Chile's discussion of lost profits is somewhat misleading. The concept is not properly associated with the lost earned income and services of a decedent, rather, it is normally considered with business enterprises. Nonetheless, it is generally recognized that lost profits are compensable. As Brownlie notes: "Reasonably foreseeable loss of profits (lucrum cessans) is regularly allowed as aspect of compensation and this without tribunals being concerned whether such damages are 'direct' or not." 1 I. Brownlie, State Responsibility 225 (1983).

As noted above, the limitation on remote or speculative damages does not concern the calculation of damages. Chile's argument that damages are not "certain" and are therefore impermissible if calculating them requires one to make assumptions regarding the future which involve speculation is not supported by international law. This argument would preclude recovery of lost financial contribution in all wrongful death cases, as they necessarily involve some assumptions about the future. This does not reflect international practice.[31/] Moreover, Chile itself admits that damages for lost financial contribution can be based on assumptions regarding the future,[32/] but advocates different assumptions about Orlando Letelier's future career and the amounts that would inure to the benefit of his family. The question here is not whether assumptions about the future should be allowed, but rather what those assumptions should be.

3. Compensatory Damages Versus Punitive Damages

The United States agrees with Chile that punitive damages are not appropriate here nor, as a matter of principle, generally compensable under international law. The United States has not requested punitive damages. Rather, the United States seeks moral damage, which Chile agrees is a proper element of compensation under international law. In arriving at the requested amount, the United States focused on the damage, emotional and psychological as well as monetary, suffered by the family members. The numbers are an attempt to adequately reflect the real injury and losses to the families of the victims. The United States does not ask the Commission to impose punitive damages, only that it determine the amount which will adequately compensate the family members for their moral damage. The German-United States Mixed Claims Commission supports the principle that the award of full compensatory damages are not equivalent to punitive damages.[33/] These are modest amounts by U.S. domestic law standards.[34/]

III. Chapter II

This chapter will comment on, in turn, Chile's objections to the United States' Presentation on claims for lost financial contribution, moral damage, medical and other direct expenses, attorney's fees and other costs of pursuit of justice, and interest.

A. Lost Financial Contribution

1. Generally

Chile's argument that many of the assumptions used in the economists' analyses to calculate lost financial contributions call for speculation and thus cannot be allowed has been addressed in Chapter 1. The assessing of such losses necessarily demands that one make assumptions. The economists attempt to project the financial benefits that the Letelier family and Michael Moffitt would have enjoyed in the natural course of events, had Mr. Letelier and Mrs. Moffitt not been killed.

Chile has accepted that in wrongful death cases family members are, in principle, entitled to lost financial contribution suffered as result of the wrongful death. However, Chile misunderstands the relevancy of dependency in determining lost financial contribution and is mistaken in its interpretation of the proper allocation of a decedent's income between personal expenditures and those which benefits to surviving family members.

a) The Issue of Dependency

As set forth in the United States Presentation, the sum to be awarded for lost financial contribution is the amount "which the decedent, had he not been killed, would have contributed to the claimant . . . ." Lusitania, supra note 33, at 19-20. Dependency is a relevant factor only in determining whether a child or parent could expect to receive future contributions from the decedent, but the expectation of contribution is the standard and dependency itself is not a prerequisite.[35/] There is no dependency issue, however, with regard to spouses as it is assumed the resources are shared.

35/ See 1 M. Whiteman, Damages in International Law 648, 660-61 (1935).

Chile has failed to provide any support for its arguments or any international law cases in which recovery was denied a spouse due to a failure to prove dependency or even any statement that such a requirement exists with respect to spouses.

Dependency could be relevant to determining lost financial contribution of the Letelier sons, as is it expected that at some point the children would become self-sufficient and might no longer expect to receive financial contributions from their father. The economists took this eventuality into account in reaching their totals for lost financial contribution in the Letelier Analysis. Specifically, the economists assumed that the children would no longer share in the financial benefits of earnings of Orlando Letelier once they reached the age of 18. Thus it was assumed that Mr. Letelier's personal consumption would increase accordingly.[36/] In reality, it is more likely that Mr. Letelier would have sacrificed personal expenditures so that his sons could attend good universities. However, it is not necessary in this case for the Commission to determine whether contributions would have been made to the sons beyond

36/ According to the Rand corporation survey, personal consumption, on the average, increases as number of family members decreases, so less contribution is attributed to the "Letelier family" as the sons reach age 18. See Letelier Analysis (USG Exhibit 15) at 14-16.

UNCLASSIFIED

age 18 because no such contributions are included in the calculations.

b) Personal Consumption Computation

Chile charges that the United States has reversed the proper method for allocating funds to Orlando Letelier's wife and sons' support in deducting from projected future income the amount representing Mr. Letelier's personal consumption. Chile, however, offers no support for its assertion, nor does it provide any justification for its use of a 40% figure to represent the portion of income which would have benefitted the members of the Letelier family.

International law requires that the family member receive full compensation for the benefits they lost. To do this, one must calculate the amount the decedents would have consumed personally. The remainder necessarily benefits the other members of his or her household. For every item that was not personal (e.g., food or clothing) the expenditure would benefit the family (e.g. household furnishings). If it did not benefit other family members, the expenditure would be considered personal. The economists who performed the analysis used a methodology for computing lost financial contributions, taking full account of personal consumption, which is standard and accepted by other economic experts. The methodology and calculations are explained in considerable detail in the Letelier and Moffitt Analyses. See Letelier Analysis (USG Exhibit 15), at 14-16; Moffitt Analysis (USG Exhibit 16), at 11-14. The United States points out that the economists' report does not actually attempt to calculate an individualized amount for personal consumption of Orlando Letelier or Ronni Moffitt specifically, but used general statistics that calculate on average the amount that would be allocated to personal consumption of an adult in similar circumstances to that of the decedent. Chile uses the same approach, although without clear foundation for the specific amount, in utilizing its figure of 40%.

2. Financial Loss of the Letelier Family

a) Chile's Alternative Scenario

Chile maintains that it is certain that Mr. Letelier would have returned to Chile in 1989, become a government Minister in 1990 and have no outside investment or other income producing activities until his retirement at age 65. Chile further assumes that after age 65 he would have lived off of his government pension. The United States submits that this scenario is at best highly implausible and serves only to attempt to justify Chile's absurdly low amount of lost financial contribution to the Letelier family resulting from Mr. Letelier's death.

Orlando Letelier was a man of great energy and intelligence. As Mr. Letelier's former colleague at the IADB and long time friend, Mr. Rene Otero explained, Orlando was a distinguished professional in all the activities he had pursued in his life and he maintained for himself and his family a standard of living appropriate to his elevated professional status.[37/] Affidavit of Rene Otero, attached hereto as Exhibit 24, at ¶ 4. Mr. Otero opines that Mr. Letelier would not have permitted his standard of living to drop markedly for any period of time. He state that "Orlando Letelier was a man of infinite resources and talent, and he would have continued to attract financial opportunities globally, had he lived." Id. at ¶ 5. Mr. Otero is certain that Mr. Letelier would have provided for his family and himself to the extent necessary to maintain the lifestyle of a high ranking international statesman. Id.

Mr. Otero further opines that even if Mr. Letelier would have returned to Chile and to government service, he would have "certainly have either simultaneously or intermittently (woven into his government service) pursued some of the many opportunities open to him in international finance, banking, copper, consulting, etc., in order to supplement his government income" to "maintain his lifestyle." Id. at ¶6. He concludes that Mr. Letelier "unquestionably would have continued to remain an international leader, would have participated in a wide range of professional activities . . . and would have secured for himself and his family outstanding financial rewards." Id. at ¶9.

37/ The Leteliers had a nice home in the Washington, D.C. suburbs and a small farm with horses in the Shenandoah mountains. See Affidavit of Isabel Letelier (USG Exhibit 8) at 4.

Ambassador Diego Arria concurs with Mr. Otero's analysis. He states that Orlando Letelier would:

> most likely have pursued a multi-faceted career including achievements in academics and international business and finance, and would have excelled in all these fields. Had Mr. Letelier at some point decided to return to Chile, he would have received an extremely prestigious position, and I am of the opinion that he would have successfully obtained and excelled in positions involving banking, international finance, and international relations.

Affidavit of Ambassador Diego Arria, attached hereto as Exhibit 25, at ¶ 3. Given Mr. Letelier's outstanding professional background alone, Chile's projection of his probable future financial earnings does not even come close to adequately reflecting his real, consistently demonstrated economic potential.

Moreover, Chile assumes that Mr. Letelier would have remained at IPS and earned no more than $25,000 in each of the years between 1976 and 1990. This is patently unreasonable, as in additional to his $25,000 salary in 1976, (which was to be raised to $33,000 in December of that year) he was receiving a dependent allowance of $1,000 per dependent and a benefits package with value equal to 15% of salary. He was receiving a steady income of approximately $2,000 for teaching a course at American University. He had been offered a cash advance of $20,000 to write a book.[38/] In view of the fact that other IPS Fellows continued to receive salary raises between 1976 and 1990 it is unreasonable to assume that Mr. Letelier alone would have remained at $25,000.

In short, the earnings projected in the IPS scenario are based upon his actual and established position at the time of his death and represent the minimum earnings which could be expected on any realistic or reasonable basis for a man of Mr. Letelier's talent, experience and energy. The affidavits of Ambassador Arria and Mr. Otero support the assumption that Mr. Letelier would have returned to international banking or some other lucrative field after a few years at IPS. Thus the United States submits that the international banking scenario set forth in the Letelier Analysis most closely represents the true loss to the Letelier family.

b) Economist's Analysis is Reasonable

While accepting in its Observations that it is reasonable to assume that Mr. Letelier would have remained at IPS, at least until 1990, Chile criticizes several aspects of the economists' projection of lost financial earnings, many of which reveal misunderstandings of the Letelier Analysis. First, Chile asserts that one cannot know if Mr. Letelier would have lived to age 75.[39/] The economists make this projection based on mortality tables; the average life span for a man who has attained the age of 44 years is 75 years. In any case, Chile's proposal assumes that Mr. Letelier would have lived to age 74, so the two parties are in essential agreement on the expected life span of Mr. Letelier.

The Letelier Analysis does not assume that Mr. Letelier would have maintained, without any dimunition, his employment and capacity, nor that he would not have retired before the year 2007. In the section of the Letelier Analysis entitled "Worklife Expectancy" the economists adjust the projected salary downward in accordance with the percentage likelihood that Mr. Letelier would have retired in each of the years from the year of his death to age 75. Letelier Analysis (USG Exhibit 15), at 11-13.

The United States does implicitly assume that IPS would have remained in existence and would have continued to engage his services. IPS has remained in existence in the 15 years since Orlando's death, and in any case, other similar institutions exist for which Mr. Letelier could have worked.[40/] Both the United States and Chile assume that Mr. Letelier would have worked - in order to perform a projection of future salary, some occupation must be selected. The economists have selected two based on Mr. Letelier's past employment record and education. These are based on reasonable projections of the future.

Finally Chile charges that the economists unrealistically assume that Mr. Letelier would have increased his income at IPS in future years. This aspect of the Analysis, however, is not even subject to debate as it is not based upon assumptions, but upon the rate of actual, documented IPS salary increases. See Affidavit of Richard Healy, attached hereto as Exhibit 26. The projections past 1990 into the future are based on actual historical rates and, in any case, reflect a vary modest annual increase.

Chile refuses to recognize any outside earnings under the IPS scenario. In addition to the trial testimony of Isabel Morel de Letelier attesting to Mr. Letelier's employment as a 40/Chile's questioning of the continued existence of IPS is just the type of impermissible speculation that it accuses the United States of engaging in. The future is never certain. However, in making future projections, one must extrapolate from the past and cannot assume some radical and unexpected divergence.

professor at American University,[41] and the notarized letter of Mary Vallely, attached hereto as Exhibit 27, in which she attests that Mr. Letelier did work at the American University in the Spring semester of 1975 and again in the Spring semester of 1976 and that from a record retained by the University, his salary was approximately $2000.[42] These earnings must also be taken into account.

Finally, the economists have assumed that Mr. Letelier would have earned additional outside income from books and teaching. This also a projection based on his actual established position. Mr. Letelier was a frequent and experienced public speaker and a published author. Chile has not given the Commission any reason to believe that Mr. Letelier would have acted differently from the typical IPS fellow. See Presentation, at 53-57. Thus, Chile has pointed to nothing which would seriously challenge any aspect of the IPS scenario.

c) Personal Services of Mr. Letelier

There appears to be some confusion on the part of Chile regarding the method which was used to compute the value of Mr. Letelier's personal services to his family. The economists' report does not attempt to value specifically each of the tasks Mr. Letelier performed for the benefit of his family, but rather assigns to his household services the average value of services of persons of his age (and projected age), family size and gender. The economists assume that Mr. Letelier would have continued to perform tasks for the family because he had done so in the past and because husbands and fathers generally do perform services for the benefit of their families. There is no reason to believe that Mr. Letelier would have become an exception to this general rule.

Chile also seemingly argues that because Mr. Letelier enjoyed performing manual labor around the house, such labor was not a benefit to his family. Merely because one enjoys a task does not deprive the task of economic value. Home repairs are valuable whether or not they are enjoyed. As Isabel notes, her husband had planned to finish a porch and after he was murdered she had to pay someone else to finish it at considerable cost.[43/]

3. Lost Financial Benefits to Michael Moffitt

As established above, the United States is not required to show that Michael Moffitt was "dependent" on his spouse's salary. With respect to spouses, the law presumes that each shall benefit from the other's income, after deducting for purely personal expenses.

Chile's other main attack on Mr. Moffitt's entitlement to lost financial contributions is a series of specific challenges to the assumptions that underlie the Moffitt Analysis. The Moffitt Analysis does not rest so much on the specific assumptions, but represents an average scenario for a woman of Mrs. Moffitt's background and education. Chile objects to the assumption that Mrs. Moffitt would have remained in the profession of fund raiser. Of course it is not known for certain whether Mrs. Moffitt would have remained in the fund raising field. Because she was killed only a few years after she had entered the work force, we do not have a long history from which we can project the facts. Ronni Moffitt had experimented with other career paths, but had at the time of her death found one which she enjoyed, one at which she excelled and in which she intended to stay. Thus it is reasonable to assume that she would have remained in the field of fund raising. (However, as noted in the Moffitt Analysis, basing the projection on a return to teaching yields approximately the same figure.) Chile points out that Michael Moffitt's court testimony states that Mrs. Moffitt had considered going back to graduate school to obtain a master's degree in education. A master's degree in education can be obtained in 1 year and an advanced degree would tend to increase rather than decrease Mrs. Moffitt's future earnings potential.

Neither do we know for certain that Mrs. Moffitt would have had two children. She was young and might possibly have had seven children, or one. However, we know that the Moffitts intended to have children, and that the average number of children married women in the United States have is two. Applying this assumption makes sense also because it takes into account the possible impact of her childraising on her earnings potential. The economists have used statistics applicable to women in the workforce generally, and have reduced her earnings to adjust for the likelihood that Mrs. Moffitt would not be in the workforce in any given year. Presentation, at 67-68. The reason young women most often leave the workforce is to rear children. Thus since the reduction of earnings is based on average statistics, it makes sense to use the same average statistics to project the probable number of children.44/

The economists also assume that Mrs. Moffitt would have earned supplementary income performing small fundraising projects for other entities in addition to her work at IPS. This assumption is made because it is the common practice in the profession and the United States assumes that Mrs. Moffitt would have acted as the average fundraiser.

Finally, there seems to be some confusion regarding the computation of the value of household services. Michael Moffitt testified that Mrs. Moffitt performed household services and gave as examples house painting and furniture refinishing. The actual value of these particular services was not calculated. The amount attributed to household services for Mrs. Moffitt was based on a Cornell University study which calculated the average value of services of a person to his or her household based on the services generally provided by a person of the same provider's age sex and family size.45/ The study valued tasks such as cooking, cleaning, caring for other family members, sewing, laundry, as well as gardening, house painting and home repair.

Chile charges that Mrs. Moffitt could not be expected to perform services of value during her pregnancies. The economists report does not assume that Mrs. Moffitt would have performed services of great value during her pregnancies, but rather calculates the average annual value of the services of persons of her age, sex and family size -- including those who are pregnant. Thus, the report uses an average annual number of hours spent performing household tasks, but does not assume that any specific tasks are performed. In the Presentation, the United States pointed out tasks in which Mrs. Moffitt had engaged in her lifetime only to show that she was energetic and able, and to indicate that she could be expected to perform, had she lived, at least as many household services as the average woman of her age.

Finally, Michael Moffitt's remarriage in 1983 does not provide a basis for decreasing the compensation due him as a lost financial contribution. In order to assess the amount of lost financial contribution, international law requires that one determine the amount the decedent could have been expected to provide to the claimant, had the decedent not been killed. See supra page 25. The prospect or possible effects of remarriage are not taken into consideration. Logically, remarriage cannot be taken into consideration in determining what would have been absent the death because had the decedent not been killed, the claimant would not have remarried. If we were to attempt to take into account actual or possible remarriage, moreover, the equation would become extraordinarily complex. Not only would the fact of remarriage have to taken into account, but also the entire financial picture created by the remarriage, such as her personal consumption, her earnings, whether she had any dependents for which Mr. Moffitt became responsible after marriage.

Although the United States thus believes that remarriage should not alter the computation, subsequent events such as an increase earnings by a surviving spouse, inheritance from other deceased relatives or fortuitous income from a lottery or wager might all effect how a surviving spouse would deal with spousal contribution had his spouse survived. The point is that the spouse did not survive and the resulting loss is measured as of the time of death. This calculation is difficult enough without introducing the type of post facto analysis that Chile's proposal regarding remarriage would require.

B. Moral Damage

1. Generally

As noted above, Chile and the United States agree that moral damage is a compensable element of damages under international law. Chile argues, however, that the amounts requested by the United States are too high and asserts that the United States failed to address a number of issues, most of which are not in fact material to assessing compensation for moral damage.

Chile asserts that the amounts claimed by the United States are arbitrary, as demonstrated by the fact that the same amount is claimed for all four sons. It is indisputable that each of the sons and the other family members have suffered genuine and palpable moral damage by reason of the brutal assassination. The loss has affected each of them uniquely. The United States has fully acknowledged the difficulty of quantifying such damage and agrees that it is impossible to calculate by means of any mathematical formula.[46/] The amount assessed is admittedly, and necessarily, something of an estimate. However, the United States has set forth standards and pointed out factors which can be taken into account in determining the amount of moral damage to be awarded. Although Chile charges that the United States' calculations are arbitrary, it does not point to any alternative standards for the Commission to use in assessing moral damage. On balance, given their individual circumstances and as compared with other family members, the United States believes that the moral damage suffered by each of the sons may be considered equally grave.

46/ See Presentation, at 43.

Chile also seems to make the argument that payment of moral damage would put the families in a better position than had Mr. Letelier and Mrs. Moffitt not been killed. The United States submits that such an argument would rest on an astonishing view of human love and suffering and cannot be seriously entertained. The families' members would clearly consider themselves better off had their loved ones not been brutally murdered. If full compensation for all monetary expenses and lost financial contribution resulting from the deaths were paid, the additional sums for moral damage could arguably give the family members more economic resources than they might otherwise have enjoyed. However, the moral damage payment is an attempt to compensate for moral injury, not for direct financial loss. The immense grief and anguish the family members have suffered and the severe psychological and medical injuries they have sustained cannot be undone. Money is the only common measure of valuable things, and the only means by which compensation can be attempted. As the amount of money awarded is to be roughly commensurate with the amount of moral damage suffered, the parties will not be unjustly enriched by the payment of moral damage.

2. Moral Damage for the Letelier Family

Chile asserts that the moral damage to the Letelier family members living in Chile should be compensated in accordance with domestic Chilean legislation. But, as stated previously, this Commission is to decide the amount of compensation due in accordance with applicable principles of international law. Domestic Chilean legislative activity thus cannot properly be considered.

Chile further asserts that because the families of the victims have been able to get on with their lives, to varying degrees, they have not really suffered any grave moral damage. This argument is blind to the nature of the tragedy. Life does, and must, go on, but the suffering remains. That Mrs. Morel de Letelier has an interesting job does not mean she does not suffer from chronic anxiety, a decreased ability to get close to others, or depression. Mrs. Morel de Letelier's affidavit, submitted in support of the United States request for damage (USG Exhibit 8), amply demonstrates the nature of the moral damage she has suffered due to the assassination of her husband. [redacted] B6

Similarly, that the Letelier sons have prestigious positions or are married with children does not mean the effects and the scars of the pain and suffering caused them by their father's assassination can ever be erased. There were also, in fact, many difficult years following their father's death in which they were so deeply traumatized that they could not move forward with their careers and personal lives -- lost years for which they can never be fully compensated. The United States does not argue that they are permanently and completely incapacitated by their father's assassination, but points out the extent to which their lives have been damaged - the social difficulties they experienced, the ability to obtain employment and their lives filled with more suffering than had their father not been killed. See Presentation, at 30-36. It is clear that each of the sons has suffered genuine moral damage as a result of the assassination of their father for which compensation is due.

Thus the United States maintains that Isabel Letelier has suffered serious and irreparable moral harm for which compensation is due in the amount of $500,000. For the moral damages suffered by Christian, Jose, Francisco and Juan Pablo Letelier, the United States continues to request $250,000 each.

3. Moral Damage for Michael Moffitt

There are two separate bases for injury under the heading of "moral damage" for Michael Moffitt. First, $500,000 is claimed as the amount to compensate for the moral damage he suffered upon the brutal murder of his wife. Chile admits as much, offering him $200,000 for the moral damage he sustained by reason of the death of his spouse and $20,000 for his personal injury.[47/] This is a claim for the shock and horror he experienced when he saw his young wife lying at the side of the road at Sheridan Circle with blood flowing from her mouth, the pain he felt upon learning that she was dead, and for the great loss he endured when his family ties were so violently severed. This is described in great detail in his affidavit, submitted as USG Exhibit 2. It cannot be said that with Mr. Moffitt's remarriage the loss of his wife, Ronni, has been eradicated. Both his affidavit and the report of Dr. Kaufman, 47/Chile offers only $20,000 to compensate for the personal injury to Michael Moffitt - the suffering and pain he suffered as a direct victim of the bombing, as compared to the District Court judgment awarded of $400,000, which Chile repeatedly points to as the model of reasonableness.

submitted as USG Exhibit 4, demonstrate that he continues to suffer from the effects of the his wife's brutal murder.

Second, there is claimed $500,000 for the moral damage he himself sustained as a victim of the bombing. Chile charges that there is no basis for this number in the Presentation. Again the United States fully acknowledges that there is no set formula for calculating moral damage. Rather the Presentation sets forth factors that go into calculating the amount of moral damage, [

The United States thus continues to request $500,00 for the moral damage Michael Moffitt suffered as a result of the death of his wife and $500,000 for the moral damage he sustained as a victim himself of the bombing.

4. Moral Damage for Mr. and Mrs. Karpen

The moral damage resulting from the violent severing of the family ties is apparent from the affidavits of Ronni Karpen Moffitt's parents Hilda and Murray Karpen. As stated by Chile in its Observations at page 104: "The indemnification for moral damage has as its purpose to alleviate the pain the intrinsic affection to human nature, for the death of a child. The compensation has as its purpose the recognition of the existence of said pain and consequently the purpose of attenuating it." Where Chile and the United States disagree is on the amount which will most closely compensate the parents of Ronni Karpen Moffitt for the death of their child. The loss to the Karpens and the pain they sustained was enormous. Chile asserts that Mrs. Karpen's statement that "no amount of money can bring her back to us" indicates that the amounts claimed are excessive. This is fact clearly shows the opposite, that the amounts claimed are inadequate to compensate for the loss of their daughter.

Chile contests that Mrs. Karpen's ulcers were caused by the death of her daughter. The United States admits that the evidence is circumstantial, but notes that Mrs. Karpen did not suffer from ulcers before her daughter's death, that it is well known that stress is the primary cause of ulcers, and that her daughter's death was the most significant cause of stress and anxiety in her life since 1976. Thus it is reasonable to conclude that the ulcers are caused by the stress she sustained as the result of her daughter's death.

B6

Thus the United States renews its request for moral damages in the amount of $500,000 for Mr. Karpen and $250,000 for Mrs. Karpen.

C. Medical and Burial Expenses

Chile agrees that the expenses of psychological treatment are compensable, but asserts that the fact that the district court judgment indicated that no specific evidence of medical expenses was presented at trial somehow precludes asserting and documenting such a claim before this International Commission.[48/] As Chile does not even recognize that judgment, and both Governments agree that this proceeding is completely independent of the earlier judgment, the statement by Judge Green has no bearing on a claim for medical expenses before this Commission.

Medical expenses, including the costs of psychiatric treatment, are also disputed by Chile on the grounds that bills are not produced. While itemizations by the treating doctors and Mr. Karpen were submitted with the Presentation detailing the incurred medical expenses, supplemental information has been provided by the claimants further outlining their expenses.

---

[48/] See Observations, at 47.

Mr. Moffitt has also incurred medical expenses which were submitted in the Presentation.[50/]

---

[50/] Mr. Moffitt does not claim for his lost salary because during his dysfunctional period, IPS continued to pay him a nominal salary although he worked almost exclusively on the investigation of the murders and trials. The brief does not show that he did not suffer any economic loss. It merely means that no claim is put forth in respect of such loss. In fact it can be argued that because he failed to advance in his career during this time period, he did in fact suffer a loss. As demonstrated by Mr. Moffitt's ability to become a successful businessman later in life, he had great considerable ability in this field which he was not able to explore until more than five years after the murder.

UNCLASSIFIED

Similarly, Chile objects to the claim for burial expenses on the ground that dependency was not shown.[52/] The concept of "dependency," however, has no logical or legal bearing on a claim for reimbursement of the actual expenses of burial, which are compensable as direct costs under the general principle that the families be made whole. It is without question that burial expenses for Ronni Moffitt were incurred by her family. This is evidenced by a receipt from the Jewish Memorial Chapel indicating the amounts expended for Ronni's burial in New Jersey and an affidavit by Murray Karpen outlining a breakdown of the charges expended for the funeral.[53/]

D. Costs of Pursuit of Justice

It is an established principle of international law that expenses incurred in exhausting local remedies or otherwise seeking redress of wrong are an accepted element of a claim later asserted on a government to government level.[54/] In the instant proceeding, claims are made for travel and other expenses, as well as attorneys' fees incurred in the pursuit of justice: investigating the murders, appearing in the criminal and civil trials, and otherwise pursuing civil and criminal redress for the assassinations.[55/]

Chile does not dispute that such costs were incurred in this case.[56/] Chile argues, however, that payment of attorneys' fees and expenses should not be included in the case of ex gratia payments. As set forth in Chapter I, the ex gratia nature of Chile's payment is irrelevant to the Commission's determination. The amount of compensation here, by the terms of the 1990 Agreement, should compensate the families for losses they suffered by reason of the assassination as if liability was established.[57/]

Chile further argues that as there was no jurisdiction over it in the domestic court proceeding and that as Chile was not a party to the suit, it can not be held responsible for costs expended by the families in attempting to press their claim. Such an argument would effectively exclude the costs of pursuit of justice as a general matter. It is always the case the party on whose behalf the claim is asserted on a diplomatic level was unable to obtain satisfaction of its claim through travel expenses he and his wife incurred in the pursuit of justice.

[57/] Chile argues that is not responsible for the murders and has done all it can to redress them. The principle of state succession, however, requires that a successor government accept legal responsibility for the acts of a previous government. See, e.g., M. Whiteman, 8 Digest of International Law 819-820 (1967). Thus a successor government incurs the obligation to make those who have suffered injury as nearly whole as is possible.

other means. If liability were established here, as the Commission is to assume for the purpose of measuring damages, the past refusal to comply with an international obligation to make reparation, does not permit escape from the obligation to reimburse for the attempts of obtaining compensation.58/

Chile further argues that the expenses and attorney fees expended by the families were neither necessary nor beneficial in obtaining the consent of the Government of Chile to the Agreement. As noted above, international law does not provide that only the costs of a successful effort to obtain justice can be recovered. The United States notes, moreover that in its Observations Chile states that the 1990 Agreement was concluded to put an end to the dispute over the liability of the Government of Chile for the assassination and the dispute over whether Chile was obligated to satisfy the district court judgment.

Chile asserts that expenses and attorneys' fees incurred after the June 1990 signing of the Agreement could have no relevance to pursuit of compensation. The Agreement did not enter into force, however, until it was approved by the Chilean Congress in July 1991. The families engaged in lobbying activities between June 1990 and July 1991 in an attempt to ensure that the compensation agreement did not fall by the wayside.

Finally, Chile attempts to distinguish the Rainbow Warrior case,[59/] which is squarely on point. Chile asserts that because a lump sum was awarded, the Rainbow Warrior decision does not support the principle that international law requires compensation for expenses incurred in the pursuit of reparations. In that case, however, the costs of the Government of New Zealand in investigating the bombing of the vessel and in prosecuting those responsible was the portion of damage claim ($4 million) which France conceded was due. International responsibility for these expenses was agreed and thus it is safe to assume that this amount was included in the award.[60/]

E. Costs of Preparation of the Presentation

Recovery of costs incurred in prosecuting an international claim have often been awarded as part of the compensation, 60/ The only other element of the claim, which resulted in a $7 million award total, was for moral damage. The parties were unable to resolve the dispute through negotiations due to their differing views on the moral damage portion of the claim.

although not in all cases.[61] Whiteman notes that often expenses or costs are allowed without any explanation.[62] Borchard summarizes the state of the law as follows:

> When disallowed, the refusal may be justified on the ground that as a general rule of municipal law the costs and expenses of litigation other than the usual and ordinary court costs are not recoverable in an action for damages, and this ground has in certain cases been expressly advanced. It will have been noted, however, that most arbitrators in the allowance of costs and expenses have been governed by equitable considerations rather than by this technical rule of law.[63]

Ralston observes that the costs of recovery can be awarded in various fashions. In the Costa Rica Packet case expenses were simply added to the award, but in the May case an amount was granted for expenses but was not separated from the other items of the award.[64/] Since interest was allowed on the award, the claimant thus received interest upon his recovery of expenses incurred.

Because the Agreement provides that it is the families who are to be made whole, the United States has not included in this proceeding a claim for its expenses incurred in the preparation of this Presentation. We are not here addressing the question of whether the actual party to the proceeding, in particular the governments, can seek reimbursement of such expenses in the absence of such a provision in the Compromis. What we are concerned with are the expenses incurred by the injured victims themselves. Only a relatively small amount, however, has been claimed on behalf of the families with respect to the costs of preparation of the Presentation. These are as follows:

Preparation of Psychiatric testimony:

Dr. Gordon: $3,875

DR. Kaufman: $8,700

Preparation of economists' report:

NERA: $3,591.62

Eden: $39,701.85

Sam Buffone: (6/90 - 8/91) - $56,248.50

International law supports the inclusion of costs incurred by the injured individual in the preparation and presentation of the claim.[65/] Thus, costs should be considered by the Commission in its determination of the amount which would make the injured families whole for all losses they have suffered.

F. Interest

1. General Principles

a) Interest as Part of Full Compensation

It is well established as a general principle that full compensation includes payment of interest.[66/] Interest is not a "gain" or "profit;" it is part of the full compensation and is routinely awarded in order to compensate for the loss of the use of money over time.[67/] Chile's assertion that interest is awarded only where provided for in the Compromis is thus completely unfounded.[68/] International commentators have also noted this rule.[69/]

i. Award of Interest on Medical Expenses and other Financial Losses

As noted in its Presentation, in the application of this general principle, interest is routinely awarded in commercial claims, and for payment of interest on pecuniary or other liquidated losses.[70/] It should be noted, therefore, that there is no divergent opinion on the payment of interest on damages that can be readily quantified, such as financial losses, expenses and costs expended in the pursuit of justice.[71/] In fact, international law jurists routinely 71/ In fact the authorities from the Iran - U.S. Claims Tribunal which Chile cites to support the proposition that interest should not be paid on tort actions, support the proposition that interest must be awarded for direct financial losses. As tort claims are outside the purview of the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal under the terms of the Algiers Accords, Tribunal cases have made no pronouncements on the admissibility of interest in wrongful death cases.

award interest for these types of damage as fully outlined in the Presentation.[72/]

ii. Award of Interest on Moral Damage for Deliberate Wrongful Death Claims

As both Chile and the United States have noted, conflicting decisions exist regarding the payment of interest on non-pecuniary claims, in particular, in personal injury and wrongful death cases.[73/] The United States submits, however, that the better rule would provide for the award of interest on

[72/] See Presentation, at 85, nn. 77, 78.

[73/] See Presentation, at 86-87. Chile quotes Garcia-Amador as stating that "the most common decisions are those which do not accept interest. . . ." See Observations, at 63. However, the text actually states: "Decisions . . . disallowing interest appear to be more common." Garcia-Amador, supra note 69, at ¶ 165. In the paragraph preceding the one from which this quote was taken, Garcia-Amador notes that "[i]n the decisions of other tribunals and commissions, interest has been regarded as an integral part of reparation - i.e., as an additional sum intended to secure full compensation for the damage sustained by the alien." Id. at ¶ 164. Chile also cites to the Pinson case (Observations, at 127), where in fact, the Presiding Commissioner stated "in claims where Mexico's liability rested solely on its ex gratia promise, no interest could be awarded, but where Mexico's liability was based upon principles of international law interest could be granted. . . ." Garcia-Amador, at ¶ 164. As outlined in this Reply, the amount to be awarded must be determined on the basis of the principles of international law that apply in the case of liability, and thus this case supports an awarding of interest. Garcia-Amador further notes that the Presiding Commissioner of the German Mexican Commission opined "that interest might be awarded whenever the Commission considered it equitable." Id.

the moral damage for deliberate wrongful death as in this case.[74/]

Such an award is consistent with the general principle that compensation should be such as to make the injured party whole. As Garcia-Amador states:

> The measure of "damages" is also completely different from that of the methods of restitution. . . . In this sense, reparation is not confined to the damnum emergens, but may also be made for the lucrum cessans and other injuries consequential on the original injury or on the act by which it was caused, provided that the necessary causal connection can be proved. This mode of reparation, where appropriate, also applies to types of injury which by their nature are not capable of restitution, such as "moral injury" and other kinds of injury to the person of aliens. . . . it can even include the payment of a sum of money for interest, expenses and costs as an integral part of the indemnity, or as a supplement thereto.[75/]

Accordingly, as noted by the United States in its Presentation, a number of international commissions have explicitly awarded interest in personal injury or wrongful death cases in the same manner as interest on pecuniary loss, while other cases which do not explicitly do so have

[74/] Arguments made by Chile that interest should not be awarded because this would amount to "additional damages" because "in order for money to produce interest . . . it is essential to invest it" (Observations, at 134) are off the mark. It is necessary to compensate for loss of use of money over time and interest is merely a convenient measure. A 10% interest rate is generally considered reasonable. See Presentation, at 90-93.

nonetheless implicitly awarded interest, by taking the delay in making compensation into account in determining a lump sum amount.[76/]

Here the delay involved has been very considerable. As the chart in USG Exhibit 21 demonstrates - there have been few, if any, international wrongful death cases where the actual delay in receiving compensation has lasted over 15 years.[77/]

iii. Adjusting Amounts to Present Value

Chile suggests that the value of the award should be adjusted to present day value and that it is lawful to do so.[78/] The United States concurs with Chile that adjustment to present value may be an alternative to the award of interest insofar as they are founded on the same basic principle and result -- that award of compensation should be "full" in real, present-day terms, and thus must take delay in making compensation into account. Accordingly, the United States has not requested interest on lost financial contributions and services, as these have already been calculated in current terms by adjustment to current present value. The United States notes, however, that the items on which interest is requested have not been adjusted to present value. The medical and other expenses are valued as of the date of their payment. The moral expenses requested are valued as of the date of loss, i.e., 1976, which is when compensation for moral expenses would have been received by the victims, had it been paid in a timely fashion.[79/]

[77/] In its Observations, Chile refers to the Iran Air case. Observations, at 68-69. It should be noted that case differed markedly from the instant one. On July 3, 1988 the USS Vincennes shot down Iran Air #655, killing the passengers and crew. President Reagan announced on July 11, 1988 that ex gratia compensation would be paid to the families of the victims. Thus, it was only a matter of days before the United States offered to make an ex gratia payment to the families of the victims, and the actual payment mechanism established in less than two years. Moreover, the comparison made by Chile between these two cases, where a standard of law was incorporated by the Agreement and Iran Air where no such standard existed, is unfounded.

[79/] In order to bring to present value the amounts which the families are entitled for moral damage one must look to the rate of increase in the consumer price index (CPI) from September 1976 to present. See Charts, attached hereto as USG Exhibit 33. In September 1976 the CPI was 57.6 and for September 1991 it was 137.2 which means that the rate has increased by 138.2%. This measure is used to determine how much is needed today to purchase the same quantity of goods and services in 1976. For example, what would have cost $1.00 in 1976 would cost $2.38 today. The following figures are the present value calculations for the amounts claimed for the families:

| | 1976 | 1991 |
|---|---|---|
| Isabel | $500,000 | $1,191,000 |
| Christian | $250,000 | $595,500 |
| Franciso | $250,000 | $595,500 |
| Jose | $250,000 | $595,500 |
| Juan Pablo | $250,000 | $595,500 |
| Murray Karpen | $500,000 | $1,191,000 |
| Hilda Karpen | $250,000 | $595,500 |
| Michael Moffitt | $500,000 | $1,191,000 |

2. Date Interest Begins

Chile argues that interest should be calculated from the date the claimants gave notice to Chile regarding a claim against it.[80/] There is, as Chile notes, some authority for the proposition that interest is awarded from the date of notice to the responsible Government, rather than from the date of loss.[81/] The United States submits, first, that it is established that interest should be paid from the date of the loss as illustrated in the Presentation.[82/] Second, the date of notice was used for the calculation of interest in the cases cited by Chile because the responsible Government was previously unaware of the claim, and it was deemed more just not to require interest until the Government had some opportunity to make payment. As described by Ralston:

> Governments may not be presumed to know, until a proper demand be made upon them, of the existence of claims which may have been created without the > authorization of the central power, and even against its express instruction. . . . The Umpire . . . does not now consider that it would be just to charge Venezuela with the payment of interest for perhaps long periods of time during which that Republic was not notified that a claim was made against it.[83/]

In the case of a deliberate assassination, however, there is no "justice" in such a rule. The responsible Government must be presumed to know of the injury, and consequent need for compensation. Moreover, in any event the Government of Chile was aware of the claim's existence since shortly after the assassination.[84/] Thus, the Chilean Government was clearly aware of the claim against it early on and cannot invoke lack of knowledge to avoid responsibility for the unreasonable delay in resolving the claim.

IV. Conclusion

In conclusion, the United States reiterates its request, for an award on behalf of Isabel Morel, Christian, Jose, Francisco and Juan Pablo Letelier, Michael Moffitt and Hilda

(THE MAJORITY DECISION BY CHAMBER PRESIDENT CERECEDA AND JUSTICES TORO AND PERALES CONFIRMED IN ONE SENTENCE ALL ASPECTS OF THE BANADOS INDICTMENT ORDER; THE MINORITY POSITION OF JUSTICES FAUNDEZ AND VALENZUELA DID NOT ADDRESS THE MERITS OF THE EVIDENCE ON WHICH THE INDICTMENTS WERE BASED, BUT CONCURRED WITH THE PROCEDURAL ARGUMENTS PRESENTED BY ESPINOZA'S LAWYER THAT THE CHILEAN COURTS LACK JURISDICTION OVER A MURDER PERPETRATED IN THE U.S. BY NON-CHILEANS AND THAT THE FIVE-YEAR STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS ON PASSPORT FALSIFICATION HAD EXPIRED.) WITH THE INDICTMENTS UPHELD, JUDGE BANADOS' CONTINUING INVESTIGATION INTO THE LETELIER/MOFFITT MURDERS RECEIVED A CRITICAL BOOST, VIRTUALLY ENSURING THAT CONTRERAS AND ESPINOZA WILL FACE CRIMINAL TRIAL PROCEEDINGS IN THE NEAR FUTURE. INDICTMENTS IN THE UNLIKELY EVENT ANY NEW COMPELLING EVIDENCE EMERGES IN THEIR FAVOR. THE DEFENSE MAY ALSO FILE ANOTHER APPEAL WHEN THE "SUMARIO" PHASE IS CONCLUDED, BEFORE A FORMAL TRIAL PROCESS BEGINS. BUT LEGAL EXPERTS, INCLUDING USG LAWYER ETCHEBERRY AND LETELIER FAMILY ATTORNEY BUSTOS, BELIEVE THE FOURTH CHAMBER'S DECISION MEANS ANY FUTURE APPEAL IS UNLIKELY TO SUCCEED.

CONTRERAS' ATTORNEY HAS INDICATED PUBLICLY HE WOULD SEEK CONTRERAS' RELEASE ON BAIL. THE LETELIER FAMILY IS LIKELY TO MOUNT PRO-FORMA OBJECTIONS. BUSTOS HAS INDICATED THAT THE LETELIER FAMILY DOES NOT WANT TO CONTRIBUTE TO ANY UNDUE SYMPATHY FOR THE DEFENDANTS, AND, AS CONTRERAS AND ESPINOZA ARE UNLIKELY TO FLEE JUSTICE, THERE IS LITTLE RISK IN GRANTING THEM BAIL. USG LAWYER ETCHEBERRY POINTS OUT, HOWEVER, THAT ONCE THE ACCUSED ARE RELEASED ON BAIL, THE PACE OF INVESTIGATIONS AND TRIALS IN CHILE TENDS TO SLOW DOWN. THIS MIGHT PLAY TO THE ADVANTAGE OF THE DEFENSE, WHO HAVE LITTLE TO LOSE BY DRAWING THE CASE OUT IN THE HOPE OF ENCOUNTERING A MORE FAVORABLE FUTURE POLITICO-JURIDICAL ENVIRONMENT.

AT THE SAME TIME, ETCHEBERRY NOTES THAT BANADOS' INVESTIGATION HAS PROVIDED INSIGHTS INTO THE ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE OF DINA (THE PINOCHET-ERA INTELLIGENCE AGENCY), AND THAT THE PICTURE BEING CONSTRUCTED OF THAT AGENCY'S HIERARCHY AND ACTIVITIES MAY BE USEFUL IN OTHER PENDING HUMAN RIGHTS CASES. ETCHEBERRY NOTES FURTHER THAT WE SHOULD NOT RULE OUT THE POSSIBILITY, HOWEVER REMOTE AT THIS POINT, OF ESPINOZA SEEKING SOME FORM OF ACCOMMODATION WITH THE U.S., PARTICULARLY IF HE BECOMES CONVINCED THAT CONTRERAS IS LIKELY TO BLAME HIS FORMER OPERATIONS CHIEF FOR ANY CRIMINAL ACTS.

INTRODUCTION

By means of this presentation, the Government of Chile provides its response to the comments set forth by the Government of the United States on November 19th, 1991.

This presentation has been made in accordance with that which has been established in N° 7, letter d) of the Compromis.

In its Comments, the Government of the United States, hereinafter the U.S.A., states its agreement to many basic legal principles even though there persists a disagreement of criteria concerning these principles to the regulation of the ex gratia compensation.

Nevertheless, the Government of Chile's defense has understood that the Government of the U.S.A. insists upon certain judgments of an overall nature as well as in specific aspects which, in this case, are not in agreement with the applicable principles of international law and with the precise meaning or interpretation of the Agreement to which both nations subscribed on June 11th, 1990.

In the various chapters of this Rejoinder, the Government of Chile will refer to the most important aspects which merit a determination on the defense's behalf, following the same order, wherever possible, of the U.S.A.'s presentation.

CHAPTER I.

GENERAL COMMENTS WHICH WARRANT OBSERVATIONS, MADE BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THE U.S.A.

1. Judgments Made Regarding the Fact that Chile's Observations Depart from the Compromis.

In many passages of its presentation, the opposing party explicitly and implicitly accuses the Government of Chile of seeking to depart from the procedures established in the Compromis, a judgment which Chile rejects.

Clearly, it can be shown that the basis of this accusation is related to the legal disagreement regarding the focus which should be made regarding the fair compensation to be paid in this case and not for a lack of fulfillment of the procedural obligations assumed by Chile in the Compromis. Each is a different matter, and we consider it a delicate affair to confuse the two.

Chile has fulfilled and will rigorously fulfill the obligations which arise from the June 11th, 1990 Agreement, and we do not notice nor neither does the United States Government expressly state, which would have been the unfulfilled obligation on behalf of the Government of Chile which cause it to depart from the procedures agreed upon.

According to the above mentioned, it is obvious that the verdict which the Commission dictates will be binding on both countries, besides it being troublesome for international harmony by creating insinuations which will affect the later fulfillment of the judgment.

2. Consideration of Aspects which the Government of the U.S.A. Deems Irrelevant to the Case.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

In its comments, the U.S.A. deems that Chile's defense has introduced aspects which are immaterial to the ruling in this case or which are related to aspects of the previous controversy between Chile and the U.S.A. which were resolved in the June 11th, 1990 Agreement.

Chile disagrees with this point of view since the Commission must maintain a comprehensive perspective of the situation it seeks to resolve by the Agreement. The referential and historical background is always useful and the Commission must have some parameters in establishing a just compensation.

Furthermore, when Chile invokes some historical and referential facts it is not done to free itself from its obligation to pay an ex gratia compensation, but rather for the adequate determination of its amount.

Let us examine some aspects invoked by Chile, whose admission and interpretation is not shared by the U.S.A.

2.1 Collaboration on behalf of Chile's new Government in resolving the murder of Orlando Letelier and its compensatory attitude regarding all human rights violations.

In the observations of the U.S.A., only small reference is made regarding the current Democratic Government's efforts to restore the enforcement of human rights, but adds that this should not influence the regulation of the compensation and that will not permit that this aspect be considered by the Commission.

According to international law, the compensation should not only constitute the money paid, but more importantly, the moral compensation to the attacks against the victim's rights and those of their families.

REPUBLICA DE CHILE
CONSEJO DE DEFENSA DEL ESTADO
PRESIDENCIA

Chile retroactively reinstated Orlando Letelier's nationality. Through the State Defense Council, active part has been taken in the criminal prosecution currently underway in Chile concerning passport forgeries and Orlando Letelier's murder. The Government of Chile sent a bill of law to Congress in order to redress the violations of the victims' human rights, among whom are included the family members of Orlando Letelier. Chile formed a Commission for Truth and Reconciliation which privately investigated more than 600 cases of violations of human rights and carried out the pertinent charges to the Criminal Courts. The Government of Chile requested and obtained the designation of a Minister of the Supreme Court, Mr. Adolfo Bañados, to advance Orlando Letelier's murder proceedings. Justice Bañados has subjected to trial Messrs. Manuel Contreras Sepúlveda and Pedro Espinoza Bravo.

All of the above, according to the Government of the U.S.A., is irrelevant to the case and it is not a sought after reparation since only the amount of money to be paid for the amount determined by the Commission, will produce a compensation for the damages caused.

At times, it seems that the opposing defense makes no distinction between the previous Military Authoritarian Government and the new Chilean Democratic Government and this becomes more evident when analyzing the document of proof N° 24 accompanying the comments of the U.S.A. which consists of an affidavit by Mr. René Otero.

In this affidavit and to justify that Orlando Letelier would not have returned to Chile to occupy a high position in the new administration, as, for example, Minister of State, Mr. Otero textually states:

"6. I do not believe that he would have accepted to participate in the current coalition government which includes members of the Pinochet regime, nor am I convinced that he would have agreed to return to Chile to fill a similar position to those he held before in his professional career."

The above mentioned affidavit, together with other statements of the same witness to the effect that Orlando Letelier's future was with the international bank and not in Chilean politics, violently differ from reality and common sense.

The coalition which backs the Chilean Government, denominated "Concertación" does not include General Pinochet's supporters. The socialist party participates actively and faithfully in the "Concertación", in which congressman Mr. Juan Pablo Letelier is a militant member. (1)

Included in the annexes that accompanied the observations of the Government of Chile, were numerous clippings from newspapers with declarations made by Mrs. Isabel Morel de Letelier, by Mr. Juan Pablo Letelier and by his lawyer Mr. Buffone, to the effect that their compensatory civil suit filed before the District of Columbia sought to punish the illegitimate government of Pinochet.

However, now the primary objective of the civil suit has been forgotten and they seek to make the democratic government responsible and claim an elevated payment under the legal fiction that the government of a country is one and the same, and that the current government should respond for the actions of that which preceded it.

This contrast is not for the purpose of avoiding that Chile pay a just compensation, but rather it seeks to portray an image to the Commission, since the amount of the compensation will surely influence Chile's political evolutionary process when the respective funds are requested to the National Congress, seat where an extensive debate will be held regarding the subject.

UNCLASSIFIED

When Chile affirms that, given Orlando Letelier's political trajectory he could have been a Minister of State, it is not making unfounded affirmations. His son returned to Chile and was elected to Parliament. His wife resides in Chile. His sister, Fabiola Letelier, has worked unceasingly in the proceedings currently underway in Chile, because she believes that justice and civil suit should be pursued in Chile, without discrimination to the Chilean victims of human rights violations. How can the U.S.A. sustain that Orlando Letelier would not have returned to Chile because it was governed by a coalition including parties of the previous regime? Either there has been a lack of information or the attitude to defend an elevated compensation has taken precedence, whatever the consequences may be.

In brief, there is a new historical context in Chile which is not irrelevant to the determination of a just compensation, specifically regarding Orlando Letelier's family members, the majority of which are Chileans.

2.2. The judgment rendered in 1980 by the district court of Columbia.

Chile invokes this judgment as a referential element in considering the plaintiff's claims.

In this matter, our presentation has not been interpreted as it should be by the U.S.A. defense since it has understood that the judgment is invoked to establish a maximum compensation amount.

This is not how the matter is. Chile believes that there is a contradiction between what the victim's family members requested and obtained in 1980, and what the U.S.A. claims in 1991.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

If one studies the petitory of the suit presented in 1978, we can point out that the Court is requested a compensation greater than US$10,000 and that in its verdict the district court does not grant a compensation for "moral damages" in the case of wrongful death.

The Government of U.S.A. seeks to justify the charged exaggerated amounts for moral damages adducing that the law of the District of Columbia does not allow the payment of these damages for wrongful death, but that international law does. It is thereby recognized that by means of the 1990 agreement, the affected parties are claiming damages that they were unable to validly claim before the United States Courts. Besides being disadvantageous for Chile, this amounts to a protection for United States citizens higher than that which corresponded accordingly to the judicial decision of the U.S.A. Court.

It seems that precisely a controversy existed whether or not said judgment was or was not obligatory upon the Government of the Republic of Chile, and as a means of overcoming the unresolved difficulties, the parties submitted themselves to an agreement and compromis conferring the power to the Commission to determine a compensation. Now, in reality, what is intended is to increase the amount of the claimed compensation and charge amounts which would not have been permitted according to U.S. legislation applicable to the case.

The above mentioned aspect is relevant for Chile and we believe that it must influence the compensation amount that is to be determined.

2.3. Diplomatic protection and nationality of the claimants.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Chile sustained that according to the principles of international law, diplomatic protection can not be exercised without there existing a continuous bond of nationality between an individual and the state which protects him, and that a state cannot claim in the name of a person who is not of that state's nationality.

Regarding this point, it must be taken into account that Isabel Letelier and her children are Chileans. With regards to Mr. Juan Pablo Letelier, the Government of the U.S.A. considers him a citizen of the United States whom it is its duty to protect, but as this defense has indicated, Mr. Juan Pablo Letelier is also a Chilean citizen since by that virtue he was elected a Deputy of the National Congress and, as well, currently resides permanently in Chile. Therefore if there is dual-nationality, we believe that the Chilean nationality has priority and surely Mr. Letelier also believes the same. International law, as well, sustains the same as already explained in the first observations.

The above mentioned argumentation is not put forward for the purpose of exonerating the Government of Chile from a compensation payment in favor of Orlando Letelier's family members, but rather for the purpose of defining a contextual situation in order to enlighten the Commission in the ruling of the compensation.

The Government of the U.S.A. argues that the June 11th, 1990 Agreement exceeds the scope of diplomatic protection and is of a "special" character when it expressly indicates that the compensation will benefit Orlando Letelier's and R. Moffitt's family members, without distinguishing those who are Chileans or United States citizens. The U.S.A. defense adds that the Letelier case was particularly serious because it involved a crime committed in the capital of the U.S.A. in which the life of a high Chilean official was taken, who had been arbitrarily deprived of his citizenship and of a United States citizen, notwithstanding the threat to the lives of many other people who were present at the place of the assassinations. By this it concludes that a special agreement is justified in which different treatment would be advisable for the family members of Chilean citizenship.

UNCLASSIFIED

Undoubtedly the current case is special, but it does not impede considering the fact that the affected parties are not acting before the Commission on their own behalf, but rather are represented by a Government which grants them diplomatic protection. Though the contents of the agreement, to the effect that an ex gratia compensation should be paid to O. Letelier's as well as R. Moffitt's family members, cannot be ignored, its ruling should be according to the principles of international law which are contrary to the diplomatic protection on behalf of a State in favor of foreign citizens.

Among the additional considerations that must be taken into account by the Commission, is the fact that Orlando Letelier was a public figure and that his spouse as well as his children were Chileans. The natural course of Mr. Letelier's life lead him to occupy the highest positions in the Chilean Government which would follow the military Government. Hence, his return to Chile must be considered legitimate and credible, in order to determine the pertinent material compensation. The return to Chile of the Chilean family members is also a relevant fact in the evaluation of damages. As Chileans, they share with all of their fellow countrymen the expectations and realities of their life in Chile. Many in the future will ask which could have been the reasons justifying an exorbitant compensation with relation to other even more serious cases of violations of human rights which were committed in Chile or abroad where discrimination is involved. We consider that the explanation is insufficient regarding this difference that it had been committed in the U.S.A. and in any case, the compensation to be paid should be paid according to the Chilean reality.

The Government of the U.S.A. seems to confuse the fact that it could exercise, under extraordinary or special circumstances, diplomatic protection on behalf of Chilean citizens, considering the subject of relevant criteria in determining the compensation. That the U.S.A. appears claiming compensation in their favor does not transform them into citizens of that country and does not change the country of current residence which constitutes the center of their action and interest.

Briefly stated, this part sustains that the problem of citizenship of Orlando Letelier's family members is not something irrelevant or aside from the matter which the Commission should resolve, because it is not the same to rule a compensation in favor of citizens of the United States whose center of activity and interest is in the U.S.A. as to make this determination in favor of Chileans who have returned to their country and who should not receive a discriminatory treatment as opposed to other Chileans who suffered attempts against their basic rights. (2)

2.4. Interpretation of the June 11th, 1990 Agreement ratified by the National Congress of Chile.

In view of various allusions made by the Government of the U.S.A. regarding the fact that Chile deviates from the agreement subscribed to between both countries in seeking that the Commission decide on the basis of elements foreign to the controversy and for a true understanding of the subject, it is necessary to establish the frame of reference and the contents of the Agreement.

2.4.1. The controversy between both Governments regarding the validity of the judgment by the Judge of Columbia regarding Chile, had not been settled when the 1990 Agreement was negotiated.

Though the U.S.A. alleged the Chilean Govérnment's lack of fulfillment of the 1980 U.S.A. judgment, Chile replied argumenting the international law regarding the lack of jurisdiction before the courts of the United States.

The U.S.A. sustained that there was a law enacted in 1976, granting their courts jurisdiction in qualified cases, for suing a foreign State. Chile rejected these arguments invoking the well-known international agreements on the matter.

However, aside from these different points of view, the family members of O. Letelier and R. Moffitt were at a standstill in obtaining any compensation from the Chilean Government, as a result of the 1980 judicial judgment, because it had been a United States Court which had endorsed Chile's proposals to exclude the Republic of Chile's assets from the attachment decreed by the United States Courts. (3)

So much so, that there were numerous declarations on behalf of the Letelier family, and this is acknowledged by the U.S.A.'s presentation, to the effect that they took steps for lobbying in the United States Congress in order to seek a modification of the 1976 law which permitted them to continue the executory process against the Republic of Chile. Additionally, they even charged the expenses and fees which were required in this lobbying. According to the newspaper clippings attached to the first Chilean presentation, the family members efforts did not receive the expected response on behalf of the

Congress as well as on behalf of the United States Department of State. (4)

Wherefore, in 1988 and 1989, the only possible avenue for said family members was to obtain diplomatic protection from the U.S.A. Government; however this protection, pursuant to the principles of international law, could only benefit R. Moffitt's family members but not those of O. Letelier.

Thus, the Agreement must be interpreted by way of this historical reference which is considered relevant.

2.4.2. The diplomatic note N° 082.

On April 18th, 1988, the Government of the U.S.A., by way of diplomatic note N° 082, claimed before the Chilean Government, diplomatic protection in favor of its United States citizens and requested for that purpose that the Chilean Government fulfill "its international obligation to compensate the U.S.A. for the damages suffered by the Government of the U.S.A. and its citizens, Mr. Michael Moffitt, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Karpen and Mr. Juan Pablo Letelier." (5)

As the Government of the U.S.A. well knows, it could not claim damages suffered by Chilean citizens, by way of international protection, even though the note makes reference to the economic losses suffered by Orlando Letelier's and Mrs. R. Moffitt's family members.

2.4.3. The interpretation of the Agreement.

Afterwards, in order to interpret the 1990 Agreement, this defense finds no other facts to consider except for the complete and non-partial text of the referred to Agreement and the records left by the National Congress of Chile for approval of the Agreement.

UNCLASSIFIED

This defense, which did not participate in the Agreement negotiations, cannot consider other aspects which may have been spoken about between the official representatives of both countries and must respond to the Chilean public opinion regarding the fulfillment of the Agreement which was published in Chile's Official Gazette dated October 9th, 1991. (6)

This aspect of concern will be expounded upon in the remaining points of Chapter I.

3. The Matter of Responsibility.

The Government of the U.S.A. coincides with Chile's Government to the effect that it is not the Commission's responsibility to investigate the acts relating to the deaths of Orlando Letelier and R. Moffitt nor must it elucidate upon the problem of the State of Chile's responsibility.

However, the interpretation made by the opposing party of these principles is erroneous.

Indeed, the Government of the U.S.A. highly values the 4th Clause of the Compromis which stipulates that the Governments agree "that the amount of the ex gratia payment should be equal to that which would be due if liability were established.

According to the Government of the U.S.A. responsibility in itself is irrelevant, but the norm which should be applied is that of responsibility and that the references made in its presentation to the acts occurring in 1976, do not constitute an attempt to establish real responsibility on the part of Chile.

This last justification contradicts, in several areas with the presentation of the U.S.A. because, for example, the claim as of 1976, for interest on moral damages are justified, inasmuch as the Chilean State was responsible and as such knew the obligation it had to compensate, in such a way that the opposing presentation assumes a subjective attitude of unfulfillment on the part of Chile, whereas the 1990 Agreement reiterates in several parts that the ex gratia payment will be regulated without considering Chile's responsibility.

All legal instruments must be interpreted in its context and not partially through isolated text. Accordingly, although the 4th clause establishes that the mount fixed will be the same had the responsibilities been established, in another part of the 3rd clause it is expressly set out that "without admitting responsibility, the Government of Chile, in order to facilitate the normalization of relations is willing to make an ex gratia payment to the Government of the U.S.A. to be received on behalf of the families of the victims."

On the other hand, the 1st clause of the Agreement indicates that there is a dispute between the two States "concerning responsibility for the deaths of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt in Washington, D.C., on September 21, 1976" and that the 3rd clause of the Agreement indicates that there are discrepancies of opinion between the two countries, since the U.S.A. considers the State of Chile to be legally responsible, under international law, for the deaths of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt, and the damages suffered by Michael Moffitt and Chile does not admit liability in the matter and is only willing to make an ex gratia payment as a way of normalizing relations.

To the aforementioned must be added the important evidence which the Chilean Senate left when it approved the Agreement between both countries and whose contents are reproduced integrally in the first Chilean presentation and which we again reiterate in the pertinent part:

UNCLASSIFIED

"That in the first part of point 3 of the Agreement ("The United States asked Chile, in representation of the Letelier-Morel and Moffitt families, the payment of a compensation on the basis that the United States considers the Chilean State to be legally responsible, according to International Law, for the deaths of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt and the damages suffered by Michael Moffitt") constitutes an opinion of the United States Government regarding which a pronouncement on behalf of the Senate is not in order". (7)

How can the Agreement be interpreted in order to resolve the apparent ambiguities between the contents of the clauses already cited?

The answer to this question is in the nature of the ex gratia payment and in the compensation which is agreed upon in the Agreement.

In regard to the matter, this does not just involve a humanitarian gesture on behalf of the Chilean Government when an ex gratia payment is agreed upon whose amount will be determined by the Commission, as it is understood by the Government of the U.S.A. with regard to Chile's presentation.

Nor does it imply that through this Agreement Chile has recognized its responsibilities in the acts.

What is it about? Simply an Agreement between two sovereign countries which, putting aside the subject of responsibility, specifically relating to the subjective element of the participation of Chilean agents and as a way to solve a dispute between both Governments regarding the pending civil aspects of the Letelier Case, a new legal obligation is created which is eliminated due to an ex gratia payment for an appropriate amount which will be determined by the Commission.

In other words, the responsibility element is not taken as a subjective measure and less as a parameter to arrive at conclusions regarding Chile's presumed unfulfillment of previous international obligations or of pending obligations toward the Letelier and Moffitt family members.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

4. Compensation and Indemnification.

In the Government of Chile's prior presentation, it commented that in the Chilean Senate, the Legislative Commission considered that the concepts of compensation and indemnification were not synonymous. Indemnification seeks to leave the effected person undamaged, that is, "free or exempt from damage" and on the other hand, compensation does not pretend to leave the compensated person "undamaged" since to compensate means "give some thing or to create a benefit in compensation for injury, damage or pain which has been caused."

The Government of the U.S.A. sustains that there is no difference between compensation and indemnification for the purposes of interpretation of the Agreement. This point must be clarified.

In the first place, the linguistic or etymologic quotations used by the Chilean Government are for the purpose of demonstrating the parties true intentions upon subscribing to the Agreement. To this effect, Chile invokes the semantic differences in the expressions compensation and indemnification. Although the U.S.A. quotes an older version of the Dictionary of the "Real Academia Española de la Lengua", these semantic differences still continue to exist; however, it is not the point to extensively analyze them here. What is pertinent is whether the language employed has a clear legal connotation and as such is of those expressions that must be interpreted in conformity to their technical sense under International Law, in accordance with Art. 31 of the Vienna

UNCLASSIFIED

Convention on the Law of Treaties. Therefore, the expressions made by the Chilean Deputies are irrelevant since they were not formulated in this technical sense. Also, it is irrelevant that the U.S.A. quotes terms in an Anglo-Saxon Dictionary of ordinary law, since this is not International Law; in this way Chile could point out that in civil or continental law the term "compensation" is totally foreign to the area of responsibility. (8)

Likewise, the U.S.A. defense rejects the distinction between compensation and indemnification assuring that it is not maintained by any author of International Law.

Nevertheless, International Law does distinguish between compensation and indemnification as a means of reparation. With regard to the legal nature of the compensation, Professor García Amador explains the following:

"Although compensation and reparation have some points in common - and is perhaps for this reason that the former is sometimes studied in the light of the rules governing the latter there can be no doubt that the two are wholly distinct institutions." (9)

We recognize that this distinction has originated from the area of expropriations and nationalizations (10), but the rules in effect denote an important analogy to the present case. Compensation is mentioned when the obligation of payment originates in a sovereign act, the exercise of a right; reparation is applied, on the other hand, when dealing with illicit acts. In the current case the legal origin of Chile's obligation is, without a doubt, a sovereign act which consists in the decision to grant an ex gratia payment by subscribing to an international agreement which creates a new legal obligation for the Chilean State.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

This is not a new topic for discussion in Chile, inasmuch as the point was extensively analyzed by Congress when it approved the law nationalizing the greater copper mining industry. We attach a copy of the respective discussion held in the Senate in which various Senators intervened, among them Mr. Patricio Aylwin, Chile's current President. (11)

We must ask ourselves if perhaps the drafters of the Agreement used the expression "compensation" as a synonym for indemnification.

We have reasons to believe that both countries were very careful in the words used in the Agreement. It was especially complex enough in Chile to obtain legislative approval in Congress regarding an agreement in which Chile is obligated to "indemnify" all the injuries caused to the Letelier and R. Moffitt family members. (12)

Going deeper into the issue, it was necessary to overcome the resistance of many members of Parliament who would not approve the Agreement if Chile were understood to be bound to indemnify, without their existing a Chilean verdict or one of a competent jurisdiction recognizing the State of Chile's responsibility in the acts already mentioned. (13)

From this point of view, it was necessary to speak about compensation and an ex gratia payment as a formula for solving the conflict between both nations. Thus, Chile would not be obliged to admit its responsibility, and the U.S.A. would declare that the problem of the judicial verdict, which according to this country, Chile had not fulfilled, had been overcome.

There is another additional reason to sustain that compensation is not synonymous with indemnification, at least in this case.

If this were treated as an indemnification in the strict sense, the appropriate organism to decide upon its amount would be a court of international character with full faculties to be aware of the acts and of the right and by means of a full procedure in which the evidence could be challenged by the opposing party, that is, an adequate and due process should have been stipulated for knowing and resolving a claim for indemnity.

UNCLASSIFIED

In the current case and such as was sustained in the Chilean presentation, without the issue having been argued by the U.S.A., the Commission designated in the 1990 Agreement is not a court with the characteristics of any jurisdictional entity. A very simple procedure is involved in which there are only four written presentations, personal appearances are unnecessary, and without the Commission investigating the facts or establishing responsibilities, but rather solely ruling upon the appropriate amount for an ex gratia compensation which Chile must pay. It is obvious that in order to evaluate an "indemnification" for damages, a contradictory procedure is needed as well as a formal indemnity trial, and such has been the practice in other cases of international dispute between several countries.

The consequences of the compensation consist in a limited or mitigated payment. García Amador bases this conclusion on the authority of the classic decision of the International Court regarding the Chorzow Factory, invoked by both parties in the present case. (14)

Even the fiction "as though liability were established" does not diminish this fact, since Chilean citizens are favored and on whose behalf the Government of the U.S.A. would not have been able to otherwise make a claim. Indeed, the diplomatic claim which gave rise to the controversy did not give protection to those citizens. In this regard, it is not true that the Agreement had created a "special norm" for compensation of Chilean citizens; it does not make them, for those purposes, citizens of the United States. The rules of International Law regarding the treatment of one State to its own citizens are only those related to Human Rights. Thus it is especially important to consider the decisions of the Inter-American Court of Human Rights which refers to a prudent compensation for damage suffered.

In conclusion, Chile reiterates that it does require that an integral indemnification be considered in the ex gratia compensation amount, all without detriment to the allegations of the following chapters which oppose the extension of the indemnity charges of the U.S.A. presentation.

5. Possibility that the Family Members Favored by an Ex Gratia Compensation may Again Bring Action Against Chile for Damages which they Claim.

Unfortunately this possibility exists since the Agreement declares that only the Government of the U.S.A. be satisfied when it receives the ex gratia payment determined by the Commission.

With regard to the matter, the sixth clause stipulates that "upon receipt of the ex gratia payment...., the Government of the U.S.A. will regard as satisfied the claim spoused in its Diplomatic Note to the Chilean Government of April 18, 1988, as well as any other possible civil claim of the United States Government in regard to this matter."

The Agreement does not stipulate that the Letelier and R. Moffitt family members also consider satisfied all their civil claims.

In the Comments of the Government of the U.S.A. it mentions that the Department of State is informed by the families that once they have received compensation in the amount determined by this Commission, they would free the State of Chile from any claim for civil responsibility. (15)

This information given by the Department of State is not sufficient in order to conclude that the family members will not attempt any new civil action, and, on the contrary, there is evidence of activities of a civil nature by a few relatives of Orlando Letelier in the criminal action currently underway in Chile. (16) It is useful to emphasize as well that in the present Compromis the Government of the U.S.A. has not presented the powers of attorney which have been conferred to it by the family members to request and receive from Chile the compensation it claims, in such a way that we are not in condition to know if the ex gratia payment will amount to an extinction and complete settlement of all the civil obligations claimed from Chile in relation to the acts occurred on September 21st, 1976.

This possibility confirms our thesis to the effect that the Commission must be very prudent in determining the ex gratia payment amount that must be made by Chile. Otherwise, the purpose of the Agreement will find itself frustrated due to lack of a definite solution to the problem.

6. The Exhaustion of all Internal Jurisdictional Remedies as a Requisite for Diplomatic Protection.

During several years the family members of the victims of the acts occurred on September 21st, 1976 sustained that Chilean Justice did not give them guarantee to pursue the investigation of the crimes committed a well as an indemnification for the damage suffered.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

This affirmation was supported in the circumstance that the case was under the jurisdiction of Chile's military courts, which were not independent of or impartial to the military Government of the time.

The situation has changed today, since the case, according to what has been previously commented, has come under the jurisdiction of competent civil courts by virtue of Law 19,047, the so-called "Cumplido Law" (Ley Cumplido) and in addition, the Prosecuting Judge, Justice Adolfo Bañados, has submitted Messrs. Manuel Contreras Sepúlveda and Pedro Espinoza Bravo to trial for their participation as authors of the qualified murder of Mr. Orlando Letelier, which also resulted in the death of the United States citizen, R. Moffitt. (17).

Furthermore, various family members of the victims have appeared before the Justice of the Supreme Court, Mr. Bañados, bringing criminal charges against the defendants mentioned, which have been admitted for processing by the Chilean court. (18).

Consequently, under strict law, it is considered improper to offer aid and diplomatic protection in favor of persons who have not exhausted the jurisdictional remedies before the Chilean courts.

Though the above mentioned basis does not exclude the ex gratia payment agreed to by the existence of a Special Agreement in the Letelier Case, it is no less certain that this factor must be weighed at the time the just compensation is determined by the Commission.

NOTES AND ANNEXES OF CHAPTER I TO THE RESPONSE FROM CHILE TO THE COMMENTS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

1. It is public and notorious fact that the Marxist revolutionary left and the Communist Party do not participate in the Government of the "Concertación" and they are excluded. On the other hand, the Socialist Party, in which Juan Pablo Letelier is an active supporter and in which Orlando Letelier militated, is part of the "Concertación" and within Government responsibilities.

A press clipping is attached which expresses the opinion of Mr. Jorge Arrate, President of the Socialist Party, who deems that the indemnification that Chile must pay, must be much lower than what is being claimed by the U.S.A. and that the State Defense Council has the professional obligation to insist on the reduction of the indemnification.

2. Press clippings are attached with diverse opinions that reject the discrimination between the indemnification that Chile must pay to the Letelier family and to the rest of the Chileans adversely affected by the violations of human rights. Worthy of special mention is the opinion of Fabiola Letelier, which criticizes the Agreement of the Senate for allowing a millionaire indemnification, discriminating against the rest of those arrested and missing.

For illustrative purposes, we have also attached the entire Draft approved by the Chamber of Deputies of the Congress concerning reparation to the family members of those arrested and missing. This Draft is currently pending before the Senate for final approval.

CHAPTER II.

THE COMMISSION'S WEIGHTING OF THE EVIDENCE

1. General Background.

The U.S.A. asserts that the arguments presented by Chile are inconsequent with the Agreement and that in these arguments the applicable International Law is erroneously expounded.

In this chapter we will demonstrate that this is not correct and that Chile, far from pretending to convert the Commission's task to a mere mathematical computation of all the sum of damages, believes that the Commission has the necessary elements in order to regulate a just compensation and that the means of proof furnished by the United States, are completely invalid and ought to be rejected.

The references made in the United States' Presentation to paragraph marked 2, entitled "Role of Commission - Standards of Proof", are inapplicable to the case since they themselves so declare that the Commission is not an international court and, consequently, all probatory standards of International Courts are not applicable thereto.

Indeed, the standards which the United States invokes, refer to international courts, which is not the nature of the Commission, and are therefore inapplicable to them.

The present chapter will be dedicated to an analysis of the aforementioned.

2. The Evidence

One of the circumstances which most calls the attention in both of the documents of the Government of the

UNCLASSIFIED

U.S.A. - that which contains its original Presentation, as well as that to which this document is responding - is the attempt to "prove" or "assumed proven" certain acts by utilizing the "means of proof" which are not nor will they be of this nature- be it before International Law or before any internal law- or are not in accordance with the juridical background within which the present controversy is developed.

Among the "means of proof" invoked by the U.S.A. and concerning the first category recently mentioned (those which can not have the nature of such in any legal system) are found, for example, the affidavits of those actually affected by the damages and the consequences occasioned by the assassinations of Mr. Letelier and Mrs. Moffitt.

It is an incontrovertible principle that no one can prove with their own declarations an act before a judicial entity, unless the opposing party accepts said declarations or does not contest its essentials, in which case the statement becomes incontrovertible, but the instrument which contains it in no way acquires by it the nature of being a means of proof, but is the other party's attitude which allows the fact to be deemed as proven.

Among the second assumed "means of proof", are certain psychiatric "reports" which would recount the damages and effects, and "sworn declarations" of friends of one of the victims.

We affirm that said elements do not serve in "proving" or deeming proven certain acts in this dispute since, as we shall see, these do not reconcile the terms in which the same has been presented and agreed to by the parties.

Let us remember that evidence has a totally different treatment in national law than in international law. In the latter, the basis of the dispute, the standards by which it is governed and within them the evidence, resides "within the will of the States in litigation". (1)

While the basis of all jurisdiction in municipal law is found in the law and -normally- we would be faced with standards of public policy which the parties cannot modify according to their will, in international law a judicial decision cannot exist without a strictly conventional basis.

The conventional basis which governs this controversy, which in no case has the nature of a trial, is the Agreement subscribed between the governments of Chile and the U.S.A., agreement which establishes that the controversy will be taken on the exclusive basis of written presentations by the parties. (6. Presentations by the parties to the Commission, including all claims and supporting evidence shall be in writing only...)

These presentations are called "acts of legal proceedings", having been defined by Chiovenda in his "Institutions" like: "acts which have legal importance regarding the procedural relation pertaining; that is, acts which have as an "immediate consequence the constitution, conservation, development, amendment or definition of a "procedural" relation." (2)

The Government of Chile does not ignore the fact that there are third party acts of legal proceedings and that, precisely, between them are found some means of proof, a matter which will be devolved upon later.

Nevertheless, for the purposes interesting this dispute, the act of legal proceeding called "the parties written presentations", is that which has already been defined and which is designed for constituting, conserving, developing, amending or defining a procedural relation.

UNCLASSIFIED

In the abovementioned category, the psychiatric reports and the parties' and third parties' declarations, which the presentations of the Government of the United States of America has /provided, are not included; a matter which we simply state and which we will return to further on.

Of course the question arises regarding whether, in these circumstances, the Commission established for determining the amount of the compensation will find itself able to do so only on the basis of the presentations and the parties written evidence, which must comply with the requirements described and with those which will be indicated further on.

The answer to this question is affirmative and, in order to reinforce said affirmation we must, briefly, confine ourselves to the general principles which govern the theory of proof, a matter found to be extremely developed in international doctrine, since it has had a similar development to that of the human being as a person that -as time has gone by- has acquired greater perfection in his degree of correlation, his rights and his obligations.

3. Legal Evidence.

The notion of "evidence" without qualifications of any kind, is present in all manifestations of human life.

The above mentioned, leads us to affirm that there is an ordinary or vulgar notion of evidence, on the one hand, and on the other, a technical notion and that these two vary, according to the type of activity or science in which it is applied. (3)

However it is within the sciences and reconstructive activities where the jurisdictional notion is precisely found, where the notion of evidence acquires an exact and special meaning. (4)

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

It is evident that what the legal expert does is to reconstruct the past, in order to find out who is right in the present. In that way his job is different than that of other reconstructive sciences, like that of the historian, the archaeologist or the linguist, who not only perform their work to inform about and value past events, but to better understand current and future events.

Obviously before a conflict of a legal nature, without the parties' evidence they would remain exposed to the irreparable violation of their rights, and the State could not exercise its jurisdictional role in reestablishing the social peace which had been broken.

An old legal proverb states that "not having rights is as valuable as not being able to prove it."

We affirm -and without contradicting ourselves of what has been previously stated as far as the Commission's task is concerned- that the authors are correct being in accordance with the fact that the administration of justice would be impossible without evidence, as well as it would be in the prevention of litigations and of illicit penalties since, finally, no system of laws would exist. (5) And this proof, considered from its point of view as a contrition to the proceedings, be it an activity of the Judge or of the parties, be it as the diverse means utilized in order to obtain the persuation of the judge regarding the existence or nonexistence and the characteristics of the acts over which the decision must be made, is an "act of legal proceeding". (6)

According to what we have already stated, the matter has suffered a similar evolution as that of the development of the human being down through its history.

4. General Theory of Proof.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

In fact, we have passed from the primitive to the mystical stage and, during this time we learned about arbitrary and absurd probatory systems called "Trial by Ordeal", such as duels, water ordeal and fire ordeal, etc.

Man finds himself far from that stage and today he has developed a universal doctrine which is called the general theory of proof.

In the first place, this theory separates, with absolute authority, the concept of "evidence", with the notion of "means of proof". (7)

And with the foregoing, we would like to arrive at that which is an essential matter of the affair which we are currently developing: under certain circumstances a jurisdictional conflict may exist in which the judge finds himself in a position to resolve it, without having received the means of proof - as such - as to acts of legal proceedings prior to the judgment.

Once again we must recur to the general theory of proof in order to demonstrate the assertion of what was previously indicated, since today it speaks about acts which do not need to be proven even though they are part of the facts on which actions and exceptions are based and, among the multiple acts which it enumerates are the non-contradictory and notorious facts.

The last of those identified - the non-contested ones - are the easiest to single out: they are the substantial and pertinent acts linked with the dispute, which the parties have expressly accepted, or which they have not contested, reason for which it is understood that they do not have the character of acts which need to be proven. (8)

UNCLASSIFIED

As stated by the doctrine, "admission of the fact produces a double procedural effect of obliging the judge to have it present and to consider it to be sufficiently proven." (9)

On the other hand, those acts whose knowledge forms part of the own normal culture of a determined social circle at the time in which the decision is rendered, are considered to be notorious.

The assertion that notorious acts do not need to be proven comes from an old aphorism coined by "Canonical Law", which states: "notoria non agen probatione" (that which is well-known requires no proof).

It is evident that in a controversy acts can concur that, having a notorious nature are, as well, not contested and, at the same time, notorious acts that the parties could contest by virtue of special circumstances.

Specifically in this matter, within the frame of the rules of international law and, consequently, circumscribed to the scope which the States have agreed to submit the same to the Commission's decision, we affirm that the Commission is in perfect conditions to resolve that which has been submitted for its decision, on the basis of the non-contested facts and those that have a notorious nature and that, on the contrary, are left out of the analysis and without the possibility of being considered by the Commission, those which may have a contested character, for the reasons we will indicate further on, unless they are found to be supported by uncontested and undeniable written evidence, which is not the case, since that which the United States has presented does not have such character.

The non-contested acts existing in this matter are many.

Let's limit ourselves to point out the most important ones, by way of example: the treacherous assassination of Mr. Letelier; the circumstances in which Mrs. Ronni Moffitt died; the fact that four of the seven individuals under the diplomatic protection of the U.S.A. are Chilean citizens; the fact that Mr. Michael Moffitt is married and has children from his second marriage, has written a book and lives what we could call a "normal" life; the fact that Mr. Letelier's children have continued their studies and that his widow has developed an equally normal life, etc.

Also, the matter submitted to the Commission contains an important amount of notorious acts: that in the majority of cases, the death of a father causes or creates economic upheavals to the dependent's household - unless significant insurance coverage or other circumstances exist; the fact that the death of a father, spouse or child normally causes pain for to the children, spouse or father, etc.

It is precisely these circumstances which the Governments of Chile and the U.S.A. have had in mind when stipulating the Agreement under the terms which it has been made.

This is a procedure devoid of any probationary period in which the parties, using their will - only generating source of a court or Commission at an international level - have constrained the terms of the dispute to a discussion period through four acts of legal proceedings by the parties, consisting of the presentations made by the parties, without having any possibility of the opening of a probatory period, not even by desire of the authority they created.

It is obvious that the presentations of the U.S.A., in the way in which it had provided what pretends to be "means of proof", they have completely gone astray from the agreement which generated this compromis and, consequentially, said assumed probatory means must be repelled by the Commission and not even considered in the determination of a just compensation.

Without detriment to all of the above, hereinafter we will demonstrate how what was previously indicated is not only a logical consequence of the terms of the compromis, but also of the way in which said evidence has been presented.

We wish to emphasize that the reflections suggested are not contrary to what was previously indicated, to the effect that we categorically affirm that any kind of evidence which is not absolutely uncontested and undeniable is improper. Even in the case said affirmations were not true in light of the terms in which the Compromis has been drafted and upon which it was agreed - an argument that we recognize for the sole purpose of this discussion - "the means of proof" contributed to this dispute by the U.S.A., are futile and must be equally rejected as well.

In fact, the Commission is not a court, as has been said in the response to the Presentation - see page 26 of the Spanish version -but that it is an international authority whose purpose is to issue a report in which the amount of the ex gratia payment will be determined which must be paid by the Chilean Government (N° 7, letter e of the Compromis).

Wherefore, the evidence that serves as a basis for its allegations and that must be presented in writing, are not, as the U.S.A. has believed, any means of proof.

The evidence referred to in the compromis must be absolutely self-sufficient and confirming public and notorious acts, without entering into an analysis of the contested acts, unless it is done in the terms that gave way for an absolutely irrefutable presumption. Let us think, for example, of a document emanating, at some moment, from a particular high center of learning in the United States stating that one of Mr.

UNCLASSIFIED

Letelier's children could not continue his studies, due to the fact that a direct relation existed between the trauma caused by his father's death and the impossibility of continuing with his studies.

On the contrary, what the U.S.A. presented as "means of proof", are instruments which can in no case can be considered sufficient to prove this fact. Some of them - according to that which was previously expressed - cannot have such a character before any court and others cannot have it before the Commission, since this is not a court in the terms of jurisdictional authority acting in the fullness of its powers.

5. Analysis of the Hypothetical Means of Proof.

Regarding the affidavits of persons who receive protection of the U.S.A. - be they made or not before a Notary - it is important to note that no jurisdictional entity - national or international - said affidavits, insofar as they are mixed up with the claim, can constitute a means of proof, since the content of that affidavit has no other value than the same affirmations expressed in the presentation. This is related to the affirmations of the parties that are only different from those contained in the Presentation exclusively insofar as they are given under oath and in a separate document. This later circumstance lacks legal relevance, since it is not free of the subjectivity which would be required to reject it as a means of evidence.

The doctrine in this matter distinguishes between the statement of the party and confession as a means of evidence.

One of the legal acts that emanates from the parties is their own declaration, this being the general term and confession the specific term.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

That is to say, all confessions are a party's declaration, but the latter may or may not contain confession.

The party's confession as a means of proof is valid, when it complies with a formal sworn statement or upon answering a judge's or an adversary's interrogatory motion during the submission of proof. (11)

According to universal doctrine, it is inadmissable to weigh as a testimonial deposition, a unilaerial declaration made outside of court, and without the adversary party having the possibility of cross-examination. There are no arguments whatsoever that could allow evidentiary merit to this type of confession, to benefit the confessing party. (Obviously this type of declaration can be utilized against the confessing party, but in no way to its own benefit).

Even though the Commission does not have the character of a court, the invalidity of the documents presented by the U.S.A. is of such entity, that the above mentioned standards are fully applicable to them. The U.S.A., having given diplomatic protection, is making the claim of the individuals its own and it would never pretend to invoke as proof the same declaration of those individuals regarding acts constituting its claim. The situation is so absurd that it is as if the lawyer were to invoke as a means of proof in his favor an instrument granted by the mandator.

In this way, all of the declarations formulated by the members of the Letelier Family, by Mr. Michael Moffitt and by the parents of Mrs. Ronni Moffitt, remain without any probatory merit at all.

Equally invalid are the declarations on behalf of third parties which were friends of one of the victims (declaration of Mr. René Otero and of Mr. Diego Arria), regarding the future of Orlando Letelier. In a strict sense, "the concept of testimony is limited to the declaration by third parties in the civil, labor and administrative contested procedure." (12).

Even given with the greatest good faith, and involving persons of distinguished moral solvency, their testimony will only be valid if expressed in accordance with the formalities required under a genuinely contested procedure.

Indeed, the general theory of evidence to which we have made reference many times above in this chapter, brings us to the conclusion that there are generally accepted principles applicable to evidence and, among them, is counted essentially - as far as concerns this case - the contradiction of evidence.

This means that the party against whom a proof is submitted must possess the legal opportunity permitting to extract from it anything which would eventually be beneficial to that party and destroy anything which would be apparently prejudicial to the same. That occasion is none other than that in which the witness declares and is the outcome of questioning by the presenting party and cross-examinations by the opposing party.

Testimony given without these minimum elements - which furthermore guarantees the formative principle of bilaterality of the audience which is not only common to the means of proof but is essential to any procedural relation - has no probatory value whatsoever.

The word "witness" comes from the Latin term "testis", designating the person who attests to, or "gives testimony", which means to narrate or relate. Thus, this applies to those who are called to render testimony in a matter where they are not principal, secondary, nor transitory parties at the moment of doing so. (13)

The quality of a witness is acquired from the moment in which the Judge or the competent authority pronounces the decision which orders the reception of the testimony, be it ex officio or at the party's request. (14)

Hence, testimonies expressed in a unilateral manner, even when they are taken under oath and before a Notary Public, and by persons of distinguished moral solvency, violate the formative principle of the presence of both parties to an act and that of bilaterality and, consequently, cannot even be the basis of a legal presumption.

Regarding psychological reports prepared by the Government of the U.S.A., two categories must be distinguished.

In the first place, those arising from a direct analysis by the one furnishing the information about the matter, and those issued by a professional based upon their own sworn declarations to which reference was made previously. Neither the first nor the second can hold any value before the Commission.

In fact, the expert report or the technical report - as it is also usually called in doctrine- does not subtract from the formative principles of the general theory of proof or to which we have made previous reference.

It is essential that a technical report or a report by experts is issued by a person designated by the authority- guaranteeing not only his suitable professional ability, but his disassociation or independence with regard to the parties.

None of these requirements are given in the instant case with respect to the informing Psychiatrists.

Thus, the maximum value which could be given to these reports is that of an out-of-court testimony by an earwitness, that is, no value, since what is heard comes from the same interested party accrediting the act.

As to the value of said means of proof as testimonial, we refer to all that has been expressed above regarding the evidence emanating from the party, which are fully applicable to those experts, since they have declared without the presence of both parties and without the possibility of being cross-examined by this party, and, finally, without knowledge of the proceedings used for this effect.

As to hearsay evidence, or "ex auditu", we might be in the presence of an "ex auditu proprio", meaning, hearsay evidence of what has been heard to be affirmed by the party itself and, consequently, the value of the same is usually rejected.

Doctrine does not completely disallow hearsay evidence, whenever it is possible to have the original evidence and it has to do with witnesses that have perceived the acts by means of personal inspections of the authority or an analysis of documental evidence. However, in this case as well, little probatory merit is given, simply as a complementary element. (15).

Regarding the psychiatrist that reports on the basis of sworn declarations by the parties, in virtue of what is previously indicated, it is not necessary to tire the Commission's attention regarding the invalidity of his testimony and the absolute necessity of omitting the same.

Thus, all of the above rests upon the probatory merit of the written evidence given by the United States of America, which is not even sufficient to serve as a basis for legal presumption.

CHAPTER III.

APPLICABLE LEGAL PRINCIPLES

1. The Basic Rule of Reparation.

Regarding this point, the comments of the United States first refers to what is called "the basic standard of reparation"; and states that Chile's definition -to the effect that "the reparation should be equal to the amount of damage, which means that the victim should remain, whenever possible, in the same state he would find himself had the detrimental not taken place"- is in consonance with what the United States sustains.

This is not, however, exactly so, since the complete principle of equivalence between the damage and the reparation involves removing their natural and logical consequences. As Chile expressed in its Observations, from this principle it is understood that not only as the reparation must not be inferior to the damage, it also cannot be superior to it, under such terms that the compensation constitutes a source of gain or profit in favor of the receiving party, that is, a way of unjust enrichment to the injured person. This principle of unjust enrichment is a universal law, and is contemplated in almost all of the municipal legal systems of civilized states and has been accepted by the doctrine of International Law. (1)

From what has been expressed it appears the "the basic standard" imposes a limit to the reparation, to avoid or impede the risk that, through subjective appreciations or by mere probability, indemnifications may be eventually determined which would objectively contribute to a source of enrichment for the victim having regard of his particular circumstances, and the surroundings in which he lives and carries out his work activities or obtains his economic resources.

2. The Certainty of the Damage.

Intimately linked with the above is the principle of universal law which requires the certainty of damage so that it can be compensated, already developed at great length in the Observations of the Government of Chile (see pages 33 and thereafter). The United States stated in this regard that this principle "could cause certain confusion". It opposes the principle that "damages that are too remote or speculative are not compensable" and that, to be so, should be a reasonably direct and foreseeable consequence of the injurious act." Therefore it is believed that this principle is "fundamentally a rule of causality and not a rule of proof" and that "it is applicable to the determination of the types of damages that are allowable and not to the calculation of damages", quoting, by way of example, the case of four locomotives resolved by the Mixed Claims Commission for Mexico and the United States.

The beforementioned is certainly correct in the sense that the causal relationship between the injurious act and the damage suffered constitutes one of the requisites or essential elements in order that the responsibility or obligation to indemnify arises. Moreover, it is not acceptable insofar as it intermingles two distinct elements of responsibility: the existence of damage with a causal link (nexus). The absence of the latter constitutes an indirect damage, independently whether there is or is not a computable legal damage as such.

The certainty of damage, on the other hand, is related to its existence. In fact, that it has positively occurred or that it will necessarily be produced in the future, is a requirement. Hence, that an eventual or hypothetical damage, that may or may not be produced and for whose occurrence certain questionable assumptions of accomplishment are required, does not give right to an indemnification because it is not a certain damage. In the same way, being deprived of a mere expectation or of an uncertain contingency of gain, also does not constitute a damage that can be indemnified since it is uncertain.

So, for example, Mr. Letelier's change of "career path" from the I.P.S. to international banking commencing in 1980, which is proposed in the Presentation of the United States, is no more than simple probability or speculation, a mere supposition or conjecture which is impossible to determine. Wherefore, the financial losses, based upon the expected change in professional direction, which assumes that Mr. Letelier's family would have experienced by being deprived of the increased income that he would have obtained in international banking, do not constitute real or certain damages, but rather possible and hypothetical damages, which do not give the right to indemnification.

In the same way, the income which supposedly Mr. Letelier would have obtained by the publication of a book every four years and the publication of his work in magazines reflects these same characteristics, since there is no certainty whatsoever that these publications would have been carried out and that with these he would have actually received earnings. The loss or damage predicted on this basis, constitutes, inasmuch, a merely possible damage, that cannot grant the right to indemnification.

At the same time the possible "loss of services" which the victim would have provided his family had he lived, invoked in the Presentation of the United States as a compensable damage, does not have this nature, since the family lacks the right to demand the delivery of these services and, therefore, this delivery constitutes for them a mere expectation, the privation of which does not constitute a certain or real damage which merits granting an indemnification.

The Government of the United States errs, therefore, by affirming that "the damages may be -and in some cases must be 'eventual' in some respects", as well as sustaining the principle that the certainty of damage would not be supported by international law.

Said principle has been recognized by civilized nations in their municipal legal systems, according to what was profusely shown in Chile's Observations and, consequently, constitutes, regarding the specific topic of tort liability, an applicable principle of international law. Furthermore, the publicists doctrine fully confirms their acceptance by international law. To the publicists referred to in Chile's Observations, it is important to add Max Sorensen's explanations, who, in his Handbook of Public International Law, in referring to the "loss of earnings" regarding responsibility, indicates that "presumed earnings that are of a highly problematic and conjectural nature, too remote or speculative, are rejected by the courts of arbitration" and cites various cases resolved in this way. The same publicist reminds us that, in the Chorzow Factory Case, the Permanent Court rejected certain claims "qualifying them as being possible damages but contingent and undetermined, which, according to the jurisprudence of the courts of arbitration, cannot be taken into account". (2) It is clear, therefore, that by indicating that the losses of presumed, problematic, conjectural, speculative or contingent earnings are not idemnifiable, it accurately recognizes the principle that the damage must be certain and, thereby, authorizes the rejection of all damage based upon suppositions or conjectures, which is referred to as possible damage. As Jiménez de Aréchada sates in his "Derecho Internacional Contemporáneo", in the matter of indemnification, "the decisive factor to keep in mind is the certainty of the damage". (3)

The support which said principle has had in international law, is, therefore, evident. The Government of the United States does not cite any precedent which reflects the opposite.

What has been expressed is not in contradiction with the possibility that the damages be calculated "on the basis of reasonable presumptions", as the United States says. The principle of certainty of damage does not exclude the use of the presumptions as far as means of proof of the amount or extension of the damage and even of its existence, conditioned upon which these presumptions may be serious, precise and concordant, as taught by comparative law. What this principle excludes is not this, but rather the attempt to elevate, from the merely possible or hypothetical -based on suppositions and conjectures- to the category of damage that can be indemnified. It is always possible to imagine or suppose something or conjecture a future fact starting from the present; but it is not enough to consider the supposition or the act as being established, as probable as it may seem, if its occurrence depends upon factors that must also be supposed or conjectured. Presumptions should be based on real and proven facts, and not on other presumptions. For example, it is feasible to suppose that a famous politician, of certain prestige and with large electoral backing, could become President of the Republic. These presumptions are enough to accept such an hypothesis. But this is nothing more than an hypothesis, and therefore, in spite of supporting said presumptions, it is inadmissible to consider that this politician, not having intervened his death, would have occupied that high position. For such it must be supposed, among other conjectural factors, that he really would have stood as a candidate, that his party would have supported him and that in the election he would have obtained sufficient popular votes to be elected.

Neither does what has been said imply, as the United States defense seems to understand, that we reject future damage on the grounds that it is just that. Future damage, even though it has not yet happened, can be indemnified provided that there is a certainty that it could happen. But possible or hypothetical future damage cannot be considered; not because it is the future, but rather because its existence is problematic or conjectural and consequently, uncertain or possible. Indemnifying the plaintiff for this type of damage would mean enriching him without cause at the expense of the one responsible, exceeding the limits of the indemnification system.

3. Punitive Damages.

Regarding the principle that the reparation is not of a punishing nature, which leads to the rejection of the "punitive damages", the Government of the United States recognizes its full acceptance in International Law and adds that it has not requested punitive damages. Reality, however, contradicts this assertion. The detailed and unnecessary description of a crime that the Government of Chile is the first to condemn, and the exaggerated amount of the indemnifications claimed for moral damage, as well as the extremely high interest charged over 15 years, makes it clear and evident that, even though the payment of such damages is not formally requested, the practice of certain Anglo-American courts to fix indemnifications of a punitive character in favor of the victims is present in the United States' claim, for which they describe and accentuate acts and details directed towards highlighting the seriousness of the crime. This matter was already pointed out in Chile's Observations and will be returned to further on, especially for the purpose of the interest charge. We refer ourselves, therefore, to the respective chapters.

CHAPTER IV.

LOST FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTIONS

1. Presumptions.

In the Comments, the United States points out that Chile's argument in the sense that "many of the assumptions used in the economist's analyses to calculate lost financial contributions call for speculation... cannot be allowed."

It adds that "the assessing of such losses necessarily demands that one make assumptions." (page 24, Chapter II.A. Lost Financial Contribution. 1. Generally. English Version).

In this Rejoinder, we have already referred to this matter (See Chapter II). However, it is necessary that the Commission analyze the rules of law set forth in the Observations, in Chapter II.A. Principles of Generally Accepted Private Law, III. The Principle of Certainty of Damage.

As the Comments apparently demonstrate, said paragraphs explaining the legal rules on certainty of damage, have not been understood as they should.

In any calculation of damage, there is going to exist a projection of the future and this is effected on the basis of presumptions.

The presumptions which may be applied are called "PRAESUNTIONES HOMINIS O FACTI", distinct from those denominated "PRAESUNTIONES JURIS ET DE JURE".

The presumptions are an element of evidence and generally consist in a reasoning which, beginning from a known fact, provide certainty regarding the unknown fact by the logical relationship existing between the one and the other. The reasoning may be constituted not only by the principles of logic, but also by those of experience which enable a judgment regarding the certainty of the conclusion.

UNCLASSIFIED

José Chiovenda, in his classic work on "Principios de Derecho Procesal Civil" (1), points out that "Presumption is, therefore, a conviction founded upon the normal order of things, and which lasts as long as nothing is proven to the contrary."

The Commission must accept nothing less than serious, precise, and consistent presumptions.

Chile has pointed out in its Observations that the facts related in the Presentation of the Government of the United States of America lack conviction, since such facts are not duly proven nor have they any basis in the normal order of things. As such, the projections of the financial benefits which the Letelier family and Michael Moffitt may have lost must be made upon the basis of presumptions, but these must be serious, precise, and consistent.

The Commission must have an existing, real and proven fact, without which the presumption does not function. The Government of the United States of America has the burden of proof of this fact on the basis of what has been manifested in the Observations in paragraph V of Chapter II, relative to the Burden of Proof and to the criteria of weighing there described.

The Government of Chile rejects the setting forth of presumptions on the basis of unproven, disputable facts, whether they be equivocal or whose proof is based solely upon the declarations of the affected parties.

Presumptions set forth or carried out on the basis of facts which are uncertain or wrongly proven, will necessarily cause the Commission to arrive to erroneous conclusions.

It is for this reason that the Government of Chile considers the financial calculations to be based on speculations as they do not meet the required characteristics of pressumptions.

It cannot be possible that with the declarations alone of the affected parties and of their attorneys the Commission is expected to determine a just Compensation for the death of Mr. Orlando Letelier and Mrs. Ronni Moffitt, as was set forth in the Presentation. In the Comments of the Observations, the Government of the United States presents some background information which will be analyzed in order to see if they carry the category of presumptions.

2. The Question of Economic Dependency.

The Comments point out that "dependency is a relevant factor only in determining whether a child or a parent could expect to receive future contributions from a decedent, but the expectation of contribution is the standard and the dependency itself is not a prerequisite." The Comments cite the case of the Lusitania and the cases of the insurrection which took place on January 13, 1883, in Egypt, in which 29 persons of Italian nationality died, and the case of the death of Giovanni Cammarano with the Government of Venezuela. In I. Whiteman, 648, 660-661, such cases appear as the dependency of widows and their children in regard to their deceased husbands for the acts related therein, for which no evidence is brought out supporting the affirmation of the Comments.

With regard to material damage, the Observations are clear in the matter by indicating the applicable principles of International Law (See Chapter II, B, II, a). Notwithstanding what has already been indicated, it is important to emphasize that Professors García Amador, Sohn and Baxter make a clear distinction in those cases of violent death affirming that in these situations "there is the strictly pecuniary loss sustained by the person dependent on the deceased, which is measured mainly by the degree of financial dependency that existed between them at the moment of his death." Furthermore, the opinion of these distinguished authors is totally concordant with what umpire Parker has manifested in the often quoted Lusitania Case, affirming that in the facts under his consideration "the direct personal losses referred to is of a pecuniary nature and is measured principally by the degree of financial dependence which existed between the claimant and the deceased." (2)

With regard to this issue of dependence there are three cases in point which arose as a result of the sinking of the Lusitania. Thomas Vance requested an indemnification for the death of his brother considering that his living expenses had increased since the deceased was no longer able to share and divide the expenses of renting a room nor to help him in supporting a younger sister. Umpire Parker disallowed the claim on the ground that the damages, if any, suffered by Thomas were "too remote in legal contemplation to form a basis for an award." (3)

Another request was made by Samuel Ferguson due to the death of his 22 year-old wife and of his 15 month-old son -it should be remembered that at the time of Ronni Moffitt's death she was 25 years of age. Though she was given an indemnification, what Whiteman emphasizes should be considered: "This amount was certainly not allowed on the basis of probable expected contributions." (4)

And Finally, Reverend John Beattie's request who also lost his wife in this tragedy, seems to be very decisive. What is interesting is that at the end of a year and a half he remarried. In his decision Commissioner Friel stated that: "There is nothing in the loss of his wife, and of course sad as was the case, which can be construed into pecuniary damages and his claim in that respect is disallowed." That is to say, the period as a widower was not even considered. (5)

The link of economic dependency is essential in determining whether or not there exists loss of profits or material damages, for if such a dependency does not exist, nothing can have been lost by whom does not depend upon the income of economic benefit from the deceased. The most one could claim is moral damage, but not the loss of an economic benefit which, during the life of the deceased he did not have, if this did not provide pecuniary assistance.

This is such a strongly established rule in International Law, that even the Commission which was formed on the occasion of the 1911 China Revolution, indicated as criteria for consideration: "In dealing with death claims on behalf of relatives, the age of the beneficiaries was ascertained and also the actual or average annual sum received from the deceased." (6)

For this reason, when in the Lusitania Case the claimants sought to induce umpire Parker to take into consideration "the value of the lost life", this he declined to do. As Whiteman explains: "Instead, he repeatedly asserted that the measure of damage ws not the 'value of the life taken', but the pecuniary loss sustained by the claimant on account of that death." (7)

And not only did umpire Parker make declarations to this effect, but he proceeded to rule in accordance with this principle. Perhaps the clearest case is that of Mr. Alfred Vanderbilt. He supported his wife and three children with the income of his properties. Although he allocated US$ 300,000 dollars annually to said family members, they were not granted any indemnification in view of his death. As the Commission indicated, the amount of the indemnifications "is not the value of the life lost but the plaintiff's losses to the claimants resulting from the decedent's death, so far as such losses are susceptible of being measured by pecuniary standards." (8)

Finally, The Government of the United States' own practice establishes this principle. Indeed, the Department of State in an official document -its "Suggestions for Preparing Claims for Personal Injuries or Loss of Life"- indicates in number two: "Claims based upon loss of life should be supported by evidence to establish the following: c) Extent of contributions made by the deceased toward support of claimant." (9)

The payment of that presumed and hypothetical loss or losts profits to the survivors of the deceased person who provided no economic contribution will cause such survivors to be enriched. In such case, a compensation or indemnification does not exist, but rather a payment destined to enrich the survivor, since if he did not receive support or economic assistance from the deceased, it is evident that he has lost nothing as a consequence of the death.

The Government of the United States adds that "there is no dependency issue with regard to spouses as it is assumed that the resources are shared." Let us assume the statement "that the resources are shared" in the case of the Moffitts, a fact which has not been proven.

But while Mrs. Ronni K. Moffitt provide income because of her death, it is obvious that her husband cannot share his income with anyone as long as he remains a widower. As such, the question of economic dependency of one spouse to the other is also a basic point in order to determine whether or not there must exist a fair compensation for economic loss or lost profits.

The Government of the United States of America points out that in the Observations of the Government of Chile its arguments are not supported, neither has it cited cases of international law. It is clear that the Government of the United States has also been unable to demonstrate that a spouse independent of the other has obtained a compensation for economic loss or loss of income from his/her deceased spouse, a complicated situation, since the burden of proof falls on them.

As such, since there are no existing cases in international law which prove the affirmation and requirement of the Government of the United States of America with regard to compensating the loss of income of the members of the Letelier family or of Mr. Michael Moffitt, who were not dependents of the deceased persons, it is possible to conclude that in International Law lost profits in such cases have not be compensated, but rather only moral damage has been compensated.

The Government of Chile reaffirms each one of the affirmations contained in Chapter II, section B, Principles of International Law applicable to the determination of the amount of payment of the ex gratia compensation, and requests special consideration by the Commission regarding this matter, since it has a bearing on the claim of US$ 2,065,345 for the loss of financial support and of services as set out in the Analysis of the Economic Losses sustained by the Family of Ronni Moffitt.

3. The Computation of Personal Consumption.

The Comments point out that "Chile offers no support for its assertion, nor does it provide any justification for its use of 40% figure to represent the portion of income which would have benefitted the members of the Letelier family," for the fact that in (ii) Valuation of material damages in the Presentation of the Government of the United States, it has been pointed out that "International Law does not allow the calculation of future income and the simple deduction of personal expenses... The use of such a method of analysis unjustifiably inverts the terms that International Law requires."

It is pertinent to point out that in the Observations of the Government of Chile it is estimated that 40% of a person's income may be allotted to the life of his dependents -- wife and children -- for their support, a condition which arises in trials derived from marital breakups, in which the courts set said percentage for the purposes indicated.

In any case, the Government of Chile, by indicating the fair Compensation for the Letelier family, has proposed as an alternative the quantities indicated in Chapter VI of the Observations, for it is not its responsibility to establish the value of compensations. As such, the Commission and the Government of the United States of America should bear in mind the Chapter on Fair and Reasonable Compensation as a fair alternative -- since it is not its responsibility to justify in extenso, as is the obligation of the claimant Government, the amount of Compensation it wishes to obtain in favor of the U.S. and Chilean citizens.

In the Observations set forth by the Government of Chile, the defects, imprecisions, and errors of the Presentation of the Government of the United States have been sufficiently set forth in order that the Commission might carry out a prudent appraisal of the claimed damages, in accordance with the standards applicable to this case, subject to International Law, for which it is irrelevant to take up the criticisms set forth in the Comments.

The Commission's attention is continually called for the employment of mechanical criteria applicable in the United States of America, but applying them to persons not residents of said country has no equitable justification whatsoever.

4. The Presumption of Mr. Orlando Letelier's Life in Chile.

The Comments point out that the alternative proposed by the Government of Chile, in that Mr. Orlando Letelier could have lived in Chile beginning at the end of the decade of the 80's "serves only to attempt to justify Chile's absurdly low amount of lost financial contributions to the Letelier family resulting from Mr. Letelier's death."

Such an affirmation is grave, coming from the Department of State of the Government of the United States, and arises the feelings of a humanitarian conscience, with regard to the roots and relationships with the fatherland.

For the time being, the Government of Chile could say, but does not -- and the phrases which follow serve only to point out the absurdity of the affirmation contained in the Comments -- that the possibility of Mr. Orlando Letelier's life in the United States advanced in the Presentation "serves only to attempt to justify the absurdly" high "amount of financial contribution to the Letelier family resulting from Mr. Letelier's death."

Among those who trusted Mr. Orlando Letelier in the period in which he assumed political leadership of the Socialist Party, believe that their leader was deeply and irrevocably associated with Chile, his country, his fatherland, the land of his ancestors, where he was born, was educated, and developed intellectually, where he met his wife and the mother of his children, and where the majority of them were born.

As such, to suppose that it was Mr. Letelier's purpose to return and live in his country, take part in its social, political, and economic life, is a presumption that is based on essential facts of awareness and of his personal and family life.

UNCLASSIFIED

That it would mean less economic income is for millions of human beings a certain fact that, despite such economic disadvantage, is surmounted by other enormous advantages of social, spiritual, political, religious, and other sorts, which overcome those that unfortunately oblige many to emigrate to other countries where a greater income may be obtained, but to the detriment of their personality.

Mr. Orlando Letelier, as has been clearly attested by his widow in the Presentation set forth by the Government of the United States of America, strove for the reestablishment of a democratic system in Chile, for which reason to presume that one who strove for that objective would return to his country to enjoy its victory is completely logical and rational. Indeed, in her affidavit, presented as element of evidence N° 8 of the Government of the United States, Mrs. Morel de Letelier states: "Many people were of the belief that the dictatorship would not last very long and that Orlando would hold a high position in the new Government, he planned to continue writing, giving speaches and teaching. Being faced with the economic reality inherent in raising and educating four sons, we had considered other options, as well as a position in the international banking system. However, for the moment and in the foreseeable future Orlando was committed to continuing his efforts to openly expose the crimes and damage that the dictatorship of Pinochet was perpetrating against the Chilean people. He was an outspoken critic of the policies of the Chilean dictatorship and an indefatigable champion of the Chilean people and of the many victims of human rights abuses in Chile. He traveled to Europe and other places around the world in an effort to transmit his message, and make known what was really occurring in Chile."

UNCLASSIFIED

The "La Epoca" Newspaper published, in its edition of November 21, 1991, an interview of Mr. Michael Moffitt, showing that Mr. Orlando Letelier, Mrs. Ronni K. Moffitt and the interviewer himself were fundamentally political activists against the Government of General Augusto Pinochet, whose leadership in the opposition activity was lead by Mr. Letelier. This interview confirms what Mrs. Morel has stated and shows that the only possible assumption, regarding the future life of Mr. Orlando Letelier, was to return to Chile as soon as the changes for which he fought were produced. See Exhibit 19 for the referred interview.

To establish the contrary -- that is, that Mr. Letelier would remain in the United States of America following the reestablishment of democracy in Chile for the sole purpose of obtaining greater economic income -- is to consider that the "man of extraordinary energy and intelligence," "distinguished professional in all the activities that he undertook," "man of infinite resources and talents" for economic reasons would not have taken part in the process of democratic consolidation in which Chile is now engaged, implies an insult to his memory and to his political record.

The Comments support the course of a pretentious career as an international banker or as a political consultant in the United States on the statements of two persons who say they are his intimate friends. This statement of friendship alone is enough to reject their testimonies, by not being impartial and for only being aimed at obtaining through extreme partiality an advantage for the affected parties.

The statement by Mr. Otero is absolutely extraneous, not to say repudiable, within the social and political life of Chile in the present century.

UNCLASSIFIED

Indeed, Mr. Otero expresses that Mr. Letelier was a man of "infinite resources and talents," instead of saying that he possessed many or varied resources and talents. The exaggeration of "infinite" discards the seriousness of his affirmation. He adds that his friend Letelier "would have continued attracting financial opportunities all over the world," as though Mr. Letelier would have been an international businessman, that the American continent could not restrain him and that he needed all the countries of the world. He adds within this collection of exaggerations that Mr. Letelier in "whatever occupation that he would have undertaken after 1976, it would have provided him remunerations which would have enabled him to maintain his family in the life-style corresponding to a statesman of great international calibre."

The Commission and the Government of the United States must know that in the Republic of Chile it is thought that former Presidents like Messrs. Jorge Alessandri Rodríguez, Eduardo Frei Montalva, or Gabriel González Videla, lived temperate lives, devoted to their families and friends, without the public offices which they held affording them a "life-style corresponding to a statesman of great international calibre."

As a general rule, Chilean politicians maintain moderate lives, not to say frugal, dedicated to public service, whose personal fortunes are separate from being made in said public service or associated with it.

For that reason, we are amazed by the statements of Mr. Otero, who points out that Mr. Letelier, upon "forming part of the new Government (of President Patricio Aylwin), with all certainty, be it concurrently or intermittently, while at the same time exercising his public duties, would have taken advantage of the many opportunities at his disposal in international finance, banking, copper mining, consultant services, etc..., to supplement a Government salary, and thus be able to maintain his life-style and acquire personal wealth."

Such manner of carrying out a public office we suppose must be rejected by Deputy Juan Pablo Letelier, son of the late Orlando Letelier, since it is the exact opposite of what the present political parties of the coalition government aspire to, among which is found the Socialist Party, to which Mr. Letelier was an prominent affiliate.

In any case, the life-style that Mr. Otero imagines, for the case that Mr. Letelier would live in Chile and would have served in the coalition government, is absolutely at the opposite pole of what in the majority of cases is the modest life of the Ministers of State of the Republic of Chile or of its principal authorities.

In paragraph 7 of Mr. Otero's statement, he expresses that "although Mr. Letelier might have decided at some moment to return to Chile and form part of the Chilean Government, he would have occupied a post of high rank that would carry him to other activities very well remunerated in banking, finance, and international relations." Here Mr. Letelier is presented as interested in a government role, which he would use as a trampoline to obtain offices or activities "very well remunerated."

The Government of Chile perfectly understands that Mr. Otero and the Department of State of the Government of the United States of America persist upon establishing conjectures or unlikely hypotheses to convince the Commission that Mr. Letelier was on the road to becoming a wealthy and powerful man, in order to obtain an enormous indemnization, but the actual case is that if he opted for the road of reintegration into Chilean political life, this would have been a contrary way of enrichment; that is, a modest, simple life, without great riches, but with a sum of values which is not necessary to point out. The remunerations of Chilean public servants are of public knowledge, and the entire country may know what the salary of a Minister or any other authority is, since they are established on a Single Pay Scale, and any increase must be established by law.

The Government of Chile is convinced that a logical, serious, precise, and consistent presumption, with regard to whom strove for establishing a democratic order in the Republic, would, sooner or later, have integrated into its political and social life and his level of life would have corresponded to the highest civil authorities of Chile. We understand that the Government of the United States of America conceives this as only aimed "to justify the absurdly low figure of the financial contribution lost by the Letelier family," but the members of the Commission know by their own account, or through experience, or from their knowledge of life in a South American country, that the income from civil activities in Chile can never compare with those perceived by the civil authorities of a country like the United States or Western Europe.

The Commission must discard absolutely Mr. Otero's statements, not just for not being independent, but for lacking all basis on the Chilean reality and to be contrary to political ethics, at least in the Republic of Chile.

The Ambassador of Venezuela to the United Nations, Domingo Arria, formulates a more moderate statement, in which it should be pointed out that nowhere in his declaration does he "manifest agreement with Mr. Otero," as the Comments state (page 28 Spanish version).

This statement confirms the Chilean presumption that were Mr. Orlando Letelier "to return to Chile, he would have occupied an office of very high prestige," which is not synonymous to economic income.

UNCLASSIFIED

It should be remembered that, in the interview which the journalist Florencia Varas held with Mrs. Isabel Morel and which was published in a book entitled: "The Letelier Case" (Aconcagua Publishers, Lautaro Collection, 1979), she declares that "his income was to support his family and his four children, that now he did not have enough for his political work and the expenses of political work are always great...." (See Exhibit N° 20).

The Government of Chile agrees that Mr. Letelier could have reached that very high office, which Ambassador Arria refers to, office which is remunerated in the form indicated in the Observations.

The Government of Chile has not discussed the economic potential of Mr. Letelier, but rather has affirmed that he could have occupied the office of Minister of State, whose gross remuneration is CH$ 700,000.00, equivalent to US$ 2,000 per month.

With respect to the affirmations repeated in the Comments regarding the activity and remunerations of Mr. Letelier, the Government of Chile persists in the very low standard of submitted proofs. There is no back tax information or statement of income that we suppose the Department of State could have obtained.

In order to reaffirm the salaries that Mr. Orlando Letelier and Mrs. Ronni Moffitt would have earned, a statement by Mr. Richard Healey, Director of the I.P.S., is attached, who declares that the letter of Mrs. Diana de Vegh is correct.

Such a probatory level is very low, since it would have been natural to include the I.P.S. staff payroll statement, duly audited with supporting tax information, in order to prove its effectiveness.

UNCLASSIFIED

The simple statements by persons subscribing said certificates in a non-judicial or non-litigious proceedings must be rejected, since a high probationary standard must be demanded by the Commission in order to satisfy the reasonable concerns demonstrated by the Government of Chile.

The most notable case is that of the Certificate issued by Mrs. Mary Vallely, who says that "it seems that Mr. Letelier taught two courses and was paid approximately US$ 2,000."

How can the Government of Chile accept a testimony in which is stated that "it seems" that Mr. Letelier taught two courses? Such an expression denotes a value judgment after having attested to some background information, which is not disclosed without having evidenced with certainty and in an unquestionable form such an affirmation.

It is emphasized that the affirmation alone of Mrs. Isabel Morel de Letelier is sufficient to prove that her husband would have written splendidly paid books and articles.

In these Comments which the Government of Chile sets forth, it is not its wish to repeat the already known arguments brought out in the Observations, which have not been adversely affected by a better means of evidence.

5. Mr. Orlando Letelier's Personal Services.

The Government of Chile still does not understand how the personal services of Mr. Orlando Letelier can be appraised in the form done in the Presentation.

The Presentation stated that "since precise figures on the amount of time he (O. Letelier) spent in such activities (personal services) are not available: a Cornell University report... is used to calculate the value of his household services."

UNCLASSIFIED

Why should the study of Cornell University be applied to a political fighter who carried out no labors or services in benefit of the family, but who rather found repose in garden work and in constructing things of no value?

The Government of the United States has no evidence of a sufficient level to prove without any doubt that Mr. O. Letelier constantly carried out activities or professional services in favor of his family. Since it does not have that available, it expects that an income figure from a university study be presumed.

Mr. Letelier did not carry out repair work according to what Mrs. Isabel Morel indicates; he carried out elementary carpentry work, with no economic value, for relaxing.

If a comparison is made of the paragraph aimed by the Government of the United States in its Comments (page 32 Spanish version) to lessen the merit of that stated by the Government of Chile in its Observations (pages 127-128), it can be seen that the affirmations pointed out by the Comments do not correspond to those expressed in the Observations.

All of the above is without limiting the fact that in law there is no room for considering within the category of indemnifiable damages the alleged losses for services, since it has to do with uncertain damage, merely possible or hypothetical.

6. The Desire for Profit

From the debate produced in connection with the economic losses of the Letelier family for the death of Mr. Orlando Letelier, it follows that the Government of the United States, apparently, has displayed great eagerness of obtaining for Mrs. Morel and her children a profit for anything which might increase a fair compensation

It would have been interesting to have obtained a clear affirmation to that effect from his children and his wife, especially from Deputy Juan Pablo Letelier Morel.

The Government of Chile has limited resources, and the systems of valuation for losses of lives, between the culture of the United States of America and of Chile, are at opposite poles.

The Government of the United States has not presented an adequate probationary level, resorting to subjective formulas or conjectures which do not fulfill an adequate level of presumptions.

In the face of this situation, a thoughtful reflection is asked from the Commission regarding this matter which would denature the purpose of an ex gratia compensation in favor of the family of Mr. Orlando Letelier.

7. The Hypothetical Loss of Economic Benefits Suffered by Mr. Michael Moffitt.

The Comments point out that "with regard to spouses, the law presumes that each shall benefit from the other's income, after deducting for purely personal expenses."

However, such Comments do not specify which law makes such a presumption, since no applicable international law exists regarding the matter, and in international law no principle whatever exists for supporting the affirmation of the Government of the United States of America.

The quote from I.M. Whiteman, Damages in International Law, 648, 660-61(1935), does not demonstrate in any way the thesis proposed to the Commission by the Government of the United States of America.

On the contrary, upon the death of one of the spouses the economic contributions which are reciprocally made cease to be received and carried. Unless it can be demonstrated that Mrs. Ronni Moffitt's contributions were greater than those carried out by Mr. Michael Moffitt, could the dependency or loss of a percentage of the contribution of the deceased in favor of the husband be established.

As such, the Government of Chile, facing the lack of evidence and of principles of international law, insists in its absolute rejection as to recognizing Mr. Michael Moffitt's right to obtain compensation of an economic nature or derived from lost profits for the death of Mrs. Ronni Karpen Moffitt.

The Comments add no other probatory element different from those shown in the Presentation, whose quality has been assessed in the Observations.

The Government of Chile has challenged the conjectures made in the Presentation in the case of Mrs. Ronni K. Moffitt with regard to her income.

Indeed, the Presentation in its hypotheses establishes an ever-ascending and uninterrupted line of a family and economic activity that constantly produces income or that can be economically evaluated.

However, it does not consider the interruptions for the hypothetical pregnancies, the studies she would carry out, her devotion to rearing children, etc...

No evidence is presented regarding the time it takes in the United States to obtain a Master's Degree in education, nor the cost of such studies which Mrs. Ronni Moffitt wished to pursue.

In the hypotheses, made for an undetermined universe of persons, the figures are applied wholly, without considering any reduction of income that normally the life of one person also experiences, despite the establishment of averages.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

The comments confirm the mechanical application of criteria of appraisal of the household activity of Mrs. Ronni K. Moffitt which could be valid under the North American judicial system but not in comprative law nor in international law; and also confirm that these are not presumptions regarding the real life which could be projected in regard to her earnings, since it is expressed that "the real value of these specific services was not calculated."

The Presentation omitted pointing out the ability of Mrs. Karpen Moffitt for cooking, cleaning the home, taking care of others, sewing, washing, gardening, painting, and of having submitted concrete proofs of such abilities.

It expects that with the study of Cornell University the Commission will determine a compensation for the loss of profits by Mr. Michael Moffitt for such items. Such studies may support an evidence, but do not constitute the center or nucleus of the proof of the capacity and ability of Mrs. Ronni Moffitt to execute household labors valuable in money.

The Comments discard that the marriage of Mr. Michael Moffitt should be considered in any form "for decreasing the compensation due him as a lost financial contribution."

The Commission must determine a real damage and not a hypothetical one, and it is a fact for evaluating this, the real life of Mr. Michael Moffitt and not an hypothetical life that he might have had.

The Commission must evaluate all and each of the circumstances of damage produced to whom the Government of the United States of America protects; within such circumstances is the fact that Mr. Moffitt has remarried and has children, that he is a businessman and works, apparently successfully, in the city of New York. (See Comments Note N° 50). The damage which, for these reasons, the Presentation and the Comments have hidden, has not been permanent and therefore should not be compensated as though it had been so, since this would not constitute an indemnization nor a compensation, but rather enrichment without cause, giving rise to a profit at the cost of the Government of Chile.

UNCLASSIFIED

For these reasons and those pointed out in the Observations, the Government of Chile insists in rejecting any payment derived from a hypothetical loss of profit or financial loss that Mr. Moffitt might have had on the occasion of the death of Mrs. Ronni K. Moffitt.

CHAPTER V.

MORAL DAMAGE

1. The Absence of Significant Facts.

The Comments addresses the issue of Chile's contention that the amounts requested by the United States are too high and asserts that the United States has failed to address a number of issues, most of which are not, in fact, material for assessing compensation for moral damage."

Certainly the Presentation and the Comments have not confronted a variety of issues, relating to moral damages.

The personal histories of those affected and protected by the Government of the United States remains hidden, and only vague fragments of them are disclosed, to expand upon just a few of those somber aspects that can lead the Commission to the understanding of the existence of serious moral damage.

"Why did the Presentation and the Comments not express the complete history, real, past and current, of the life of those affected?

This question will remain without an answer, creating new queries to all those wishing that the "Letelier Case" could be definitively clarified.

2. The Calculations are not Real.

The Comments admit that the amounts for the compensation of moral damage are estimated, claiming that they have set forth the standards and pointed out the factors which can be taken into account in determining the amount of the moral damage to be awarded.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Why was the moral damage to Mrs. Isabel Morel de Letelier estimated in US$ 500,000?

The Government of Chile understands that this is an estimation, but it does not understand which are the standards and factors leading them to conclude that this estimation would be US$ 500,000.

The same thing occurs with the US$ 750,000 dollars requested for the married couple, Murray and Hilda Karpen, and the US$ 500,000 dollars requested for Michael Moffitt for the death of the same person, Mrs. Ronni Karpen Moffitt.

What accounts for the US$ 670,000 dollar difference in each case?

As well, it cannot be forgotten that the payment of interest over these amounts as of the date of Mrs. Ronni K. Moffitt's death is also claimed.

The Government of Chile has provided grounds for what could come close to a just evaluation of moral damage suffered by all these individuals, quoting the value determined by the Inter-American Court of Human Rights, in the Velásquez Case, as can be seen on Page 112 of the Observations (Spanish version). In the Amekrane Case, the British Government paid a lump sum of US$ 317,224.71 dollars up to September 1991. (See Page 113 of the Spanish Version of the Observations).

3. The Concept of Unjust Enrichment by the Payment of Moral Damages.

In evaluating moral damage, for the purpose of compensating it with the payment of an amount of money, the situation of the person receiving said payment must be considered.

Indeed, an immensely rich person whether receiving a small or large amount of money, will not receive any compensation, because money is not important and for that person and the greater the amount he receives will become a means of punishment upon the payer of the compensation.

UNCLASSIFIED

For its part, receiving economical reparation for moral damages will be of great importance to a person in need of money.

The Government of the U.S.A. has concealed the exact reality of the economic, social and cultural life of those it protects, for which reason, it has not been possible to consider the socio-economic factors in determining the compensation for moral damage.

In this way, the affirmation formulated in the Comments with regard to the fact that "Money is the only common measure of valuable things..." and that "the amount of money awarded is to be roughly commensurate with the amount of the moral damages suffered, the parties will not be unjustly enriched by the payment of moral damages", only contains a very small part of the factors or grounds for determining the amount of the moral damage.

Indeed, enrichment will depend upon the current wealth of those affected and of the amount that is expected to be paid to them, since being rich or not is a true measure, that must be compared with the person's lifestyle.

The amounts requested, in all of the cases, will make the persons receiving them rich, that is, persons who will have at their disposition an amount of assets or will have the possibility to acquire them beyond their capacity to consume them.

It is obvious that by paying compensation to mitigate the moral damage, a person may not be enriched, since in that case he would be profiting from the moral damage and the one who pays it would be punished.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

The Government of Chile sustains that this cannot be the purpose of a just compensation for moral damage.

4. Moral Damages for the Letelier Family.

The Comments indicate that the "Commission is to decide the amount of compensation in accordance with applicable principles of International Law", with the purpose of excluding the possibility of the taking into account Chilean legislative measures.

What is the basis for this?

Why is International Law barred to consider that it is just to compensate a country's citizen for moral damage in conformity with the rules of his country and not of another's and given that, as well, this country's conditions of life are absolutely dissimilar to that of the other country?

The Comments do not sustain their affirmation, with any logical basis or with standards of law.

Quite the contrary, the fact that the Government of Chile, with the support of Deputy Mr. Juan Pablo Letelier, urges a common legislation for redress to victims of political violence, as is established in the report of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission, shows that it is a common legal rule which applies to Chileans, a fact that the Commission can recognize and thus differentiate from those who do not possess said nationality.

The common legislation promoted for the purpose of compensating the damages of victim's of political violence, does not exclude Mr. Orlando Letelier's family members, rather quite the contrary, it refers to them, by mention made of these family members in the Report of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission (See Annexes IV and V of the Observations).

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Therefore, Mr. O. Letelier's family members have two alternatives for redress, specifically, that which is derived from the Protection they receive from the Government of the United States and that which the Chilean Government gives to them through common legislation.

As no doubt it is doing and will continue to do, the Commission must clearly analyze the enormous responsibility that it must assume, confronted with the fact of preferring one or another compensatory procedure and what are the existing grounds in International Law for making the choice.

As to the magnitude of the moral damage that the family members suffered, the Comments indicate a mistaken concept. Indeed, page 39 of the Spanish version indicates that "Chile further asserts that because the families of the victims, in varying degrees, have been able get on with their lives to varying degrees, they have not really suffered any grave moral damage."

The Government of Chile recognizes the seriousness of the moral damage that Mr. Orlando Letelier's family members suffered, seriousness which is not consistent with the indemnification claimed by the Government of the United States, inasmuch as the moral damage has not been an impediment to the normal development of the lives of the protected family members.

What occurs, is that the Presentation has hidden the reality of the actual lives of Mr. Orlando Letelier's family members, making known only fragments of their lives, which shows the opposite of the somber scene described in the affidavits and in the accompanying psychological analysis.

On the basis of the supporting evidence, which is practically null, the Commission cannot accept as reputable that Mrs. Isabel Morel "has less capacity for getting close with other individuals, or that she suffers from depression."

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Neither in the Comments nor in Dr. Gordon's reports is there an explanation of how he could give such an emphatic testimony about the life of Mrs. Isabel Morel. What did Dr. Gordon know about the Letelier-Morel Family, of their marriage, of their relationship with their children, etc...? There is no testimony presented relating to these facts and the Government of Chile has not been able to contest the evidence, except by Dr. Roa's report.

Regarding the children, both Governments agree that they have not been completely and permanently incapacitated by their father's assassination; the disagreement begins with respect to the fact that the Government of Chile sustains that there is no existing evidence of incapacity of Messrs. Letelier-Morel, but on the contrary, there are strong indicators and facts showing that they are successful people and that they have full physical and mental capacity, without limitations of any kind. No one doubts that they have suffered and will always carry a feeling of loss for the death of their father, with all the more reason if it is a violent death, as is Mr. Orlando Letelier's case.

The Government of Chile has not stated that compensation is not due to Mr. Orlando Letelier's family members, but on the contrary, sustains that it is due to them, but the compensation must be just and prudent. The standard of justice and of prudence must consist in such compensation as is indicated in the Observations, since it maintains a greater proportion to the rest of Messrs. Letelier Morel's fellow countrymen, and with their particular circumstances.

In order to adequately evaluate the damage to Mrs. Isabel Morel's personality and in this way be able to establish the pecuniary compensation for the moral damage claimed, a rigorous clinical examination of her personality is required.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Professor Dr. Armando Roa refers to this when commenting the affirmations contained in the Comments, made by Mr. James S. Gordon, as can be seen in Annex N°21 of this document.

Professor Dr. Roa sustains that "it would be interesting to have information on the basis of a study done by specialists and with the rigor required for such reports -what would have been the course of her life and of her marriage, in the year previous to the crime." For that purpose it is pertinent to read page 139 (Spanish version) of the book entitled "Laberinto" written in 1982 by the District Attorney Mr. Eugene M. Propper and Mr. Taylor Branch, where they narrate Mrs. Isabel Morel's and her husband's, Orlando Letelier, marital experiences, which is attached as Annex N°22. With regard to the quote expressed in the book mentioned, the Government of Chile wishes to place on the record that its purpose is not to damage the intimacy of Mrs. Isabel Morel de Letelier, whom is held in the most genuine respect. However, it is a fact worthy of consideration in any psychological analysis related to the evaluation of moral damage, even more so when these facts have been published in a widely circulated book and whose author was actively involved in the investigation of the Letelier Case.

Dr. Gordon's examination is insufficient as probatory means, as Professor Dr. Armando Roa points out, for which reason the Commission is requested to attentively examine this situation before determining the moral damage of Mrs. Isabel Morel de Letelier. The attached document as Annex N°21, reveals probatory insufficiencies in the psychiatric tests performed by Dr. Gordon.

5. Mr. Michael Moffitt's Moral Damage.

Ironically, the Comments mean to point out that in the Observations the Government of Chile offers to compensate Mr. Moffitt with US$ 20,000 for personal injuries suffered (See note 47 in the Spanish text), comparing said amount with the US$ 400,000 assigned to him by the District Court of Columbia's judgment "whose judgment Chile repeatedly pointed out as an example of reasonableness."

In no part of the Observations has Chile said that the referred to judgment is moderate or an example of moderation.

Said judgment reflects an indemnification established in a contested proceeding, in which it must be assumed that the level of proof is more perfect than the one presented before the Commission.

As is recorded on page 148 of the Observations, Chile offered Mr. Moffitt the payment of moral damages for the death of his spouse, amounting to US$ 200,000 and for personal damages to him, US$ 50,000 and not US$ 20,000 as the Comments state.

The parameters of the judgment of the District Court of Columbia, are those proper of judicial dispute, extremely demanding in the matter of evidence, in which the Government of Chile had no part and which was judged according to the laws and practices of the United States of America.

The Chilean Government's offer corresponds to an ex gratia payment, without admitting liability and as a way of mitigating the damage.

In its Observations the Government of Chile refers to the Mr. Michael Moffitt's current way of life, indicating as a fact which must be considered, his current marriage which the Comments of the United States has only made allusions to.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

The question arises of knowing what is the scope of the phrase, "Ronni's loss". From the affirmation of the Department of State, the Commission has no declaration by Mr. Moffitt as to his current marriage in the sense that with this new marriage, the loss of affection that Mr. Moffitt felt for Ronni has been eliminated.

This is one of the key issues of moral damage which would hypothetically affect Mr. Moffitt, for the purpose of evaluating said damage. We have made reference in Chapter IV N°2, to the Lusitania Case, regarding the Reverend John Beatitie, who also lost his wife in that tragedy and after a time re-married, upon which the payment of any indemnification was rejected.

The Comments point out that Mr. Moffitt was an "individual free from any diagnosable mental disease." (page 46). The Professor Dr. Armando Roa, has prepared a new report regarding the alleged refutations of Mr. Harold Kaufman, in which he notes that the personality diagnosis of Mr. Moffitt is required "to know to which of the diverse types of normal personality he is ascribed since within the norm, some are more reluctant than others faced with tragic events." Dr. Kaufman's report does not contain said diagnosis and therefore it is not possible to determine with certainty the extension of the moral damage.

Professor Dr. Armando Roa indicates various needs or deficiencies in Dr. Kaufman's report, which makes the latter an ineffective element as far as the damage which Mr. Michael Moffitt claims to suffer. Attached is Professor Dr. Armando Roa's report, as annex N°23.

In short, from a psychiatric point of view, in order to adequately evaluate the moral damage claimed by the Government of the United States of America, for the purpose of compensating him with the amount of US$ 500,000, "the previous personality, or the true personality of Mr. Moffitt should be known, in order to appreciate in what measure he has or does not have the facility to use mental defenses of the kind alluded to by Dr. Kaufman...". (Page 2 of Professor Dr. Armando Roa's report).

Once again, it is a matter of low probatory level which is sought to be applied, wherewith the enormous indemnifications requested to the Commission, cannot prudently be satisfied.

The Government of Chile deems more than reasonable and prudent the amounts proposed to pay Mr. Michael Moffitt, formulated in the Observations, and insists on them with greater basis after knowing Dr. Kaufman's response and the observations which said response warranted to Professor Dr. Armando Roa.

6. Moral Damages to the Karpen Couple.

As it is known, the Government of the United States of America claims that together the Karpen spouses must be indemnified in the amount of US$ 750,000 on account of moral damage plus an annual interest rate of 10% commencing September 21, 1976.

The Government of Chile, rejects this amount for being too high, comparing it with the amount awarded by the District Court of Columbia, of US$ 80,000 for the same purposes. The Government of Chile has proposed the amount of US$ 70,000.00, for the purpose of mitigating the pain of their daughter's death.

The Comments indicate that the declaration formulated by Mrs. Hilda Karpen in saying, when referring to the death of her daughter, that "no amount of money can bring her back to us", intends to mean that the amount of US$ 750,000 is inadequate to compensate the loss suffered. (see page 47) This means that in conformity with what the Comments express, the Karpen's require even more money to mitigate their pain.

The Government of Chile does not share this criteria, derived from Mrs. Karpen's painful declaration, that sounds like an echo of that sentence "Don't forget: there is no return, you will not benefit from him, and you will harm yourself." (Ecclesiastics 38-21).

It is not a matter of compensating the moral damage of the parents of Mrs. Ronni Karpen Moffitt to pay enormous sums of money, rather to grant a prudent compensation in order to mitigate the pain suffered with the insidious death of her daughter.

The amount indicated by the Government of Chile is in line with the values judged by the Inter-American Court of Human Rights and those accepted by the European Court of Human Rights.

Regarding the new report added as an element of proof N° 31, this is clearly insufficient, since it comes from the affected person herself and regarding said proof we limit ourselves to what is indicated in Chapter II of this document.

The Government of Chile emphasizes that the Comments recognize that "the evidence is circumstantial", with regard to the proof of Mrs. Karpen's ulcer, but since it has not been proved by other scientific means, said situation cannot change its criteria regarding the amount of the indemnification offered.

CHAPTER VI.

INTEREST

Concerning this subject, the rejoinder of the United States practically avoids considering the well grounded reasons and arguments developed in Chile's Observations, which demonstrate the illegality of adding interest to the charges in the Presentation for moral damages, personal injuries and expenses.

For this reason, in these observations, the Government of Chile has limited itself to insisting on those arguments and reasons, which, not having been refuted, continue absolutely valid and ask that the Commission reject the charging of interest formulated by the United States, upon the items indicated.

Nevertheless, it is considered worthwhile to formulate a few brief observations.

The fundamental basis for rejecting the interest charged by the United States government lies in the nature of the "ex gratia" payment as offered by the Chilean Government " in order to facilitate the normalization of relations" and "without admitting liability" (point three of the Agreement). It is the Commission's only authority to determine the amount of this payment "in accordance with the applicable principles of International Law", and since here an "ex gratia payment" is being considered, the principles to be considered are those applicable to ex gratia payments, to which accordingly, as established in Chile's Observations, in this type of payment, interest is not contemplated. This is absolutely justifiable being that should interest be added retroactively from the year 1976 to the amount of the ex gratia payment, such a payment would be denatured and increased with surcharges not foreseen at the time of its offer; and the Commission, exceeding its faculties, would end up rendering a decision against Chile, declaring it responsible for acts to which, as one of the fundamental basis of the agreement, it does not admit liability. (1)

UNCLASSIFIED

We must also insist that the argument that the payment of interest has as its purpose that of achieving complete indemnification lacks legal sense, since adding interest to the indemnification amount that is being determined, in 1991, with current criteria and according to the valuation of the damages made today, is only intended to grant the injured parties a greater indemnification than the amount of the damage. The damage would be entirely repaired according to the present value and interest would be added for a period of fifteen years, which would result in the granting a double indemnity and thereby breaching the principle that is being invoked.

The affirmation that the United States now makes that "moral expenses requested are valued as of the date of loss, i.e. 1976" and not at their current value cannot be accepted. If this were the case, it would have formally stated it in its Presentation, which was not done and which it could not have done, since it is impossible to figure out today an estimate of the value that said damages would have had fifteen years ago. In any case, it is certain that the Commission must estimate these damages now, in 1991, and therefore to request the retroactive addition interest at a rate of 10% per annum over the past fifteen years on the indemnification to be determined, implies in fact, an invitation to grant a reparation which would almost triple the amount of the damages subject to indemnity according to its current value, that is, totally updated.

The affirmation of the United States that interest is not a gain or profit is also unacceptable. Both in Spanish as well as in English, its meaning is exactly that one. According to the "Diccionario de la Real Académica Española", "interés" means "benefit, profit, gain", "profit produced by capital". In the English language it has the same meaning, for which, according to the currently used dictionaries, "interest" is "benefit, profit", "the part taken in some profitable business; capital profits; amount paid for the use of money". Consequently, it is a fact that interest typically constitutes a profit, a return or gain on capital, and by this same reason, it is also a fact that adding interest to the amount of the updated indemnification implies increasing it with a profit, return or gain.

UNCLASSIFIED

The aforementioned obviously does not exclude, that moratory interest be claimed, since these constitute a form of indemnification for damages that does not have the wrongful act as its cause, but rather is derived from the debtor's delay, that is, the culpable delay of payment. Yet, as demonstrated in Chile's Observations, in order for the obligated party to be considered as being delayed, it is necessary that the debt be liquidated, since no-one can be guilty of not fulfilling an obligation whose existence and amount have not been determined. In this case, it is impossible, therefore, to consider interest due to negligent delay since what is under discussion is an unliquidated debt, which excludes delay. It is relevant to remember, regarding this point, that as Reitzer states, the United States / Germany Mixed Commission "established the following rule: Each time a non liquid damage is under consideration, the extension of which cannot be determined by a simple calculation, the interest will only be calculated from the time of the decision" and that "within this category fall injuries to someone's life, health, liberty, honor, etc." (1)

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

On the other hand, the Government of the United States recognizes that important precedents exists concerning the disallowance of the payment of interest "in the case of personal injury and wrongful death". Yet they claim that "the better rule would provide for the award of interest on the moral damages for deliberate wrongful death, as in this case"; and further on, with reference to Ralston's opinion about the notification or injunction requirement in order to charge interest, he adds that "in the case of deliberate assasination there is no 'justice' in such a rule". These paragraphs are quoted, because they constitute a self evident demonstration that the United States, although affirming that it has not requested punitive damages, has in fact done just that. Nothing else is implied by seeking the application of interest on moral damages as a consequence of "deliberate and unjust death" or "premeditated murder". The idea is clear here that the seriousness of the act or the disapproval it merits, must be punished or sanctioned by the application of interest. It has already been demonstrated that in International Law, all possibilities of increasing the indemnification as a penalty or punishment are rejected, and the Government of the United States recognizes the validity of this principle. Consequently, there is no consistency in the arguments invoked which support the charging of interest, which must therefore be rejected as being illegal.

As far as the considerations included in the United States' response under the subtitle "Adjusting Amounts to Present Value", it is worthwhile mentioning that the Government of Chile has not intended to suggest "an option" to the award of interest, as is seemed to be understood. In the Observations, it was made perfectly clear, and as such this presentation has reiterated, that with reference to values and estimates that are now made, in 1991, any updating adjustments is inappropriate, since such updating is automatically in effect by the fact of ruling on the moral damages today and not based on criteria that would have been applied in 1976. Therefore, increases of the Consumer Price Index in the United States since 1976, are irrelevant, and it is entirely inappropriate to expect to apply this increase - which would be 138.2% - to the estimated moral damages claimed according to its present value. Furthermore, this was not requested in the Presentation of the United States. Nor is it a fact that "both procedures "are founded on the same principle", since, as has been established, the interest, by its lucrative nature, can never serve as an updating factor of an original amount, under the hypotheses that such updating were justified.

UNCLASSIFIED

Finally, it is worthwhile mentioning that the Government of Chile rejects the interest charged both in what refers to its justification as well as the rate requested to be applied. The rejection of the interest also involves, as is obvious, the rejection of the rate being considered.

NOTES

(1) It should be mentioned that in the cases of William T. Way and Mary Evangeline Arnold Munroe, in which Mexico had promised "ex gratia" to make a "full indemnification" to those affected (García Amador, op. cit., 576), the Mexican-United States Mixed Claims Commission did not grant interests. In both cases, as well, a long time had passed since the occurrence of the damage. In the Way case the claim was decided in 1929, and the victim had died in 1904 (25 years before); and in the Munroe case the claim was resolved in the same year, 1929, whereas the death of the victim had taken place in the year 1880 (49 years before). Both cases are cited in Whiteman, Damages, 699.

(2) Ladislao Reitzer; "La reparation comme conséquence de l'acte illicite en Droit International", Lib. du recuéil Sirey, Paris, 1938).

(3) In the Observations, the Government of Chile has extensively based its opinions on the illegality of interest payments. Among such opinions, certain cases have been singled out which have occurred between the Governments of the United States of America and Chile, since they reveal the form in which problems of bilateral relations between both countries have been settled, in which it is found that interest payments have always been agreed upon.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

In order to refute said assertions, the Government of the United States, in its Commentaries cites the Alsop case in note Nº 69, extracted from the book "The Diplomatic Protection of Citizens Abroad", whose author is Mr. E. Borchard.

However, the Alsop case, which arose on occasion of the War which Chile sustained with Peru and Bolivia in 1879, corresponds to a claim maintained by the firm of Alsop & Company, a corporation constituted in Chile and so declared by sentence of the Arbitral Court of Washington, on February 8th, 1901, regarding a payment of indemnification to the Government of Bolivia and which, on the occasion of the Peace Treaty of 1904 subscribed to with the Government of Chile, the latter would assume. The United States Government took up the protection of the said company against the Government of Chile, demanding the payment of the sums owed by Bolivia and that Chile should pay. The debt, as expressly admitted by the Government of Bolivia, included interest. Among the proposals for concluding an Agreement on the dispute, the Government of Chile proposed to the Government of the United States of America to pay 67,000 pounds sterling to the claimants, plus a 4% annual interest, as of 1905 until the day of payment. The Government of the United States of America, through its Business Representative, Mr. Seth L. Pierrepont, rejected this alternative on November 18, 1909, demanding $US 1,000,000 in gold. In December of 1909, both Governments decided to submit the matter to His Majesty King Edward VII of Great Britain, as arbitrator of the Alsop case. It was placed on record that since both governments "had not been able to come to an agreement regarding the sum that in fairness is owed to the claimants in the Alsop claim... they have resolved to refer the disagreement to His Majesty...."

It is obvious that if the Government of Chile had officially offered to pay interest as of 1905, the decision of His Majesty of Great Britain, which was handed down on July 5, 1911, by King George V, must have considered interests "in light of all the facts and circumstances of the case," as is established by the Diplomatic Agreement. As such, the Alsop & Company case confirms, rather than adversely affects, the constant standard between both Governments, in that the interests have been a question previously discussed or previously established in the settlement of legal conflicts that have occurred. (Foreign Relations File N°42511 A78/582).

Chapter VII.

EXPENSES INCURRED IN THE PURSUIT OF JUSTICE AND COSTS OF THE PREPARATION OF THE PRESENTATION

1. Basic Observations.

The Government of the U.S.A. has deemed it proper to insist on the justice and the legal basis of this charge. (1)

Referred to and included in the first Presentation of the U.S.A., was the claim of various expenses as well as lawyer's fees of the Letelier and Moffitt families to the amount of US$900,826.25.

It should be noted, of course, that none of the items which the U.S.A. is claiming in this matter correspond to what is understood in procedural law as legal costs and expenses.

According to the eminent authority on procedural law, E.J. Couture, the costs take on an "additional penalty which the judge imposes upon the party who has litigated with culpable lightness. (2)

Another author of procedural law, J. Guasp, defines the order to pay costs "as those imposed upon a determined person through judicial decision in order to pay certain procedural expenses that without said imposition, the one sentenced would have no obligation to meet". (4)

The draft of the Civil Code of Procedure for the Eastern Republic of Uruguay by E.J. Couture, in its article 201, paragraphs 1 and 2, establishes that "the sentence will place on the losing party of the suit the costs of the trial determining the amount of the same" and further adds that "by costs is understood the various justified and necessary expenses which are incurred in the trial such as stamped paper, seals and other taxes on legal proceedings, the fees of lawyers, attorneys, skilled experts, auditors, etc." (5)

Consequently, applying these concepts to the present case, we must conclude that:

(a) There is no winning or losing party in this procedure.

(b) There is no judge's sentence which could impose the payment of costs of the procedure on either State, because the Commission is not a court nor has it been given the authority to assess the costs against either of the parties.

(c) According to international law, a State accepting that a matter be resolved by an international organism by means of an Agreement that settles an international dispute, cannot be considered under any regard as a malicious, or guilty or unsuccessful party.

Even though within the concept of costs that can be imposed upon a litigant, the winning party lawyer's fees are included, it is necessary to add some thoughts which clearly show the unjust claim by the Government of the U.S.A. regarding Mr. Buffone's fees and those of others defending the Letelier and Moffitt families.

These thoughts are as follows:

(a) The U.S.A. Presentation and the Comments are signed by distinguished Legal Counsel from the Department of State, which would logically suppose that they prepared them. Said Government in reiterated diplomatic notes prior to the Agreement had manifested that Chile is not being claimed with the expenses that were made as of 1976 in the pursuit of justice in this case. It is also reasonable to suppose that the legal counsellors of the Department of State are not claiming additional fees for the preparation of the Presentation, because that is part of their important public functions.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Thus, there is no rationale to sustain that Chile must pay the fees of the private lawyers of the Letelier and Moffitt families, even though none of them sign or subscribe to the U.S.A. Presentation before the Commission.

The opposite would be to assume that the Presentation of the Government of the U.S.A. has been prepared by the private lawyers of the Letelier and Moffitt families.

(b) The Government of Chile does not have any binding legal relation with the private lawyers mentioned nor with the claimants, excepting in this last regard that which is stipulated in the Agreement, which is an agreement between two sovereign countries and not between a country and individuals so demanding.

(c) As we have already sustained, Chile does not recognize any obligation prior to the June 1990 Agreement, so that nothing in relation to the suits previously carried out in the U.S.A. is binding on Chile in any way.

(d) Furthermore, not even the 1980 judgment of the United States Court, charged the Republic of Chile with the payment of the expenses and lawyer's fees of the families already mentioned.

In relation to other expenses of a legal nature that are claimed alleging that they have originated in the "pursuit of justice", these are also categorically rejected by Chile, the reasons being the same as those above.

To charge Chile with the following expenses which would have originated far before the 1990 Agreement, is inadmissible, such as:

(a) The lawyer's legal efforts in the criminal action carried out in the U.S.A. in the Letelier case;

(b) The private lawyer's legal efforts before the Department of State of the U.S.A.;

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

(c) The legal efforts by those same lawyers in pursuing Townley's civil liability;

(d) The lobbying negotiations in the Congress of the U.S.A. to convince congressmen to modify the 1976 Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, in order to attach Chilean properties in the U.S.A.

It is furthermore inadmissible to attempt to include in the claim, the fees of private lawyers that might have collaborated in the U.S.A. Presentation between 1990 and 1991, since according to what has already been said, the official presentations of the U.S.A. must be made through the corresponding public authorities, and if these accept the collaboration of private lawyers, it is not a matter concerning the Republic of Chile.

2. Particular Issues.

The Comments indicate "that the expenses incurred in exhausting local remedies or otherwise seeking redress of wrong are an accepted element of a claim later asserted on a government to government level."

All the costs and expenses incurred by persons protected by the United States of America, in exhausting local remedies, are not accepted with regard to the Chilean State, but rather to the persons that are considered by the Court of the District of Washington, D.C. At the very beginning of the trial against the State of Chile, those involved in the proceedings before the District Court (see Annex I of the Presentation), all of whom know or must know about law, particularly about International Law, are aware that it was impossible to take the Republic of Chile before such Court without its consent.

The family members of Mr. O. Letelier and of Ms. Ronni K. Moffitt can and have been able to claim such costs from

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Messrs. Contreras Sepúlveda, Espinoza Bravo, Fernández Larios, Townley, Ross Díaz and the Novo Sampol brothers.

But in the United States they could never obtain the verdict against the Republic of Chile based on the concept of their lawyers' fees, or of any other, prior to the time when both Governments subscribed the Agreement and Compromis, for the simple reason that the State of Chile was not a party to the trial before the District Court of Columbia.

The Comments indicate that "if liability were established here, as the Commission is to assume for the purpose of measuring damage, the past refusal to comply with an international obligation to make reparations, does not permit escape from the obligation to reimburse for the attempt of obtaining compensation (page 54 in the original English version)".

A contradiction exists here between this affirmation and the Principles of International Law, especially in the Inter-American area. Since the principle of immunity of jurisdiction exists, it is obvious that there can be no refusal of a State to comply with an international obligation, since a municipal court cannot impose an obligation on a foreign state. Only an international tribunal or some special body, such as the Commission established in this case, can determine an international obligation enforceable against Chile.

The Republic of Chile, prior to the Agreement and Compromis, has never been obligated to comply "with the international obligation to make reparations", since otherwise the Agreement and Compromis nor the Commission would have ever existed, the latter being precisely that which will determine the obligation of the State of Chile.

There is also a contradiction between the affirmation indicated and the text of the Agreement and Compromis, in that the Government of Chile does not admit liability, and for this reason is making an ex gratia payment - a situation accepted by the Government of the United States of America.

UNCLASSIFIED

In making an ex gratia payment for the damages suffered by the family members of Mr. O. Letelier and Ms. Ronni K. Moffitt and by Mr. M. Moffitt himself, it is evident that the expenses incurred by such persons, in exhausting remedies in the United States, cannot be charged to the Government of Chile, since such payment was made voluntarily, and one who is not forced to comply with an obligation, can never voluntarily assume a responsibility derived from the expenses incurred in establishing its voluntary payment.

On the other hand, one that voluntarily assumes the payment of a compensatory obligation, cannot reasonably presume that within it also be included the expenses incurred by those beneficiaries of the reparation, by attempting to force a payment to which one was not obliged. This would imply disguising the payment of the just compensation by including items or factors which are alien to the compensatory payment in the reparation of damages, and not the expenses and costs for establishing the international obligation which has been voluntarily assumed.

The Government of the United States of America knows, since it has so agreed, that the Commission will not establish responsibilities and that the payment will be made ex gratia. Similarly, the Government of Chile is not eluding obligations to reimburse for the attempts to obtain an indemnification, since it did not agree to it. The Comments reflect a mistaken interpretation of the Agreement about which the Government of Chile refers to what has been expounded in the Observations and what has been indicated in this document.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

The Comments refer to the Rainbow Warrior case, which it deems pertinent. The Government of Chile is informed that in this case, International Law was not exclusively applicable. New Zealand and France requested that the Secretary General of the UN make an equitable decision and based on principles ("equitable and principled"), upon which the parties believe that the decision will be "ex aequo et bono" (Note J. Wexler. The Rainbow Warrior Affair: State and Agent Responsibility for Authorized Violation of International Law 5 Boston L. J. 402 (1987)).

New Zealand requested a US$ 9,000,000 compensation which included investigation costs of the incident (see 26 I.L.M. 1346 (1987)). The Government of New Zealand did not request nor were they granted compensations for lawyers' fees incurred by the victims.

Furthermore, it is important to keep in mind what was resolved in 1986 by the Iranian - United States Court of Claims which resolved, in accordance with the express Agreement between both countries, that only the expenses incurred by the parties before the court of claims itself, were compensable. In the Chilean - United States Agreement on the Letelier case, not even this possibility was stipulated. Therefore, any expense claimed as compensable is inadmissible.

3. The Harvard Draft Convention.

The Commentaries indicate that "international law" justifies the inclusion of costs incurred by the injured person in the preparation and presentation of the claim."

As a source of this standard the Harvard Draft Convention on State Responsibility is cited, which constitutes only one university's study regarding the matter, out of many universities devoted to the study of international law.

In order to illustrate the non-validity of said source of international law -- without implying a disqualification or disregard to the high level of the Harvard University Law School-- the Commission should be acquainted with the background and outcome of the Harvard Draft.

In 1953 the United Nations entrusted the International Law Commission to codify the principles of international law which regulate a State's liability. The Commission named Mr. F.V. García Amador as rapporteur in this matter, and he issued at least six reports relative to the subject (U.N. Documents A/AN.4/96/, 106, 111, 119, 125, and 134 [1956-61]).

At the request of the Secretary of the International Law Commission, the Harvard School of Law consented to revise the draft convention which had been prepared by Prof. E. Borchard in 1929 (AJIL Spec. Supp. 133/1929).

Due to the important developments that had transpired during this interval (1929-1953), something more than a new revision of the 1929 project was needed, and the School commissioned Professors Sohn and Baxter to reexamine the entire subject. They prepared a Draft Convention with Explanatory Notes which included observations on each article. Also, it was proposed to prepare for each article of the Draft a commentary on case law treaties, internal application of the States, and doctrine relative to the subject of each Article. The truth is that the final version of the project was published in 1961 and, more than a revision and update of the 1929 text, it constituted a completely new draft.

There followed, upon the authors' presentation of the draft before the International Law Commission, a brief debate which highlighted the fact that, although expressing high regard for the work carried out by Harvard University and gratitude for their valuable contribution, the members of the mentioned Commission were not generally disposed to accept many of the ideas and lines of thought reflected in the project, nor to follow its authors along the much-signaled road of abandoning the traditional concepts on the subject. They expressed serious doubts regarding the possibility of recognizing that the law in force had sanctioned the principles set forth by the Harvard jurists.

However, Professor Sohn interceded before the Commission in one of the subsequent sessions in order to present a new version of the Harvard Draft containing modifications to the first Draft, but which in no way affected the essential features of the same. Consequently, during the debate the positions already adopted were reaffirmed by the different members of the Commission.

In 1960, for the first time since 1952, the question of the codification of State Responsibility in the General Assembly of the United Nations was put forth. Speaking out on this matter, several representatives criticized the Secretariat of the Commission for having suggested in 1955 that the Harvard University School of Law revise and update its 1929 draft regarding State Responsibility. According to them, the Secretariat had no right to address the Harvard University School of Law without a previous decision by the Commission. That measure and the fact that, consequently, the Special Rapporteur had not consulted other than said School, without also approaching the scientific organizations of other countries with different legal systems, resulted in the report having reflected only certain non-generalized concepts.

The representative of the Secretary General had to face all these criticisms. However, due to their having manifested serious differences including other subjects whose study the Commission had to undertake, it was decided that the General Assembly in its next period of sessions restudy the problem of the future work of the International Law Commission in the area of responsibility as well as in all the other areas.

UNCLASSIFIED

On the one side, the Commission in its 613th session (1961) listened to Professor Sohn, who presented the final draft prepared by Harvard University. In fulfillment of the resolution of the General Assembly, the Commission examined the program of its future work in a later session. The idea that State responsibility should be included among the works of priority character won the approval of all the members of the Commission. However, it was pointed out that, since Mr. García Amador was no longer a member of the Commission and since his reports (six in all) had neither been examined nor approved by the Commission, it was not a question, as the General Assembly recommended, of simply pursuing the work already begun on the subject of responsibility, but rather of undertaking ex novo the study of the question, and above all determining the form of entering upon its study.

With the forgoing explanation, it may be assessed that the cited Harvard Draft Convention has not been accepted by the International Law Commission regarding State Responsibility.

The Government of Chile insists that pursuant to the origin and the text of the Agreement subscribed to with the Government of the United States, it is inappropriate to compensate in any way the costs for preparing the Presentation submitted to the Commission, in order to obtain an ex gratia payment from the Government of Chile for the death of Mr. Orlando Letelier and Mrs. Ronni K. Moffitt and for damages incurred by Mr. Michael Moffitt.

CHAPTER VIII

CONCLUSIONS

The Government of Chile, after having completely examined the Comments and Presentation formulated by the Government of the United States of America, is thoroughly convinced that its claims for indemnity are excessively far from being prudent and what should correspondingly and justly be granted to the victims of the treacherous assassination which cost the lives of Mr. Orlando Letelier and Ms. Ronni Karpen Moffitt and personally affected Mr. Michael Moffitt.

This is the last document that the parties can present to the Commission, and the assigned Agent, in representation of the Government of Chile wishes to express and place on record the rigorous examination carried out upon the documentation presented by the Government of the United States of America, the elevated spirit of harmony and goodwill with which the examination of the documents and allegations was performed, and the purpose of allowing for the payment of a just and prudent compensation which satisfies the wishes of both Governments and those persons diplomatically protected by the U.S.A.

This Agent regrets, however, that by way of the Observation document to the Presentation, the Government of the United States of America has not considered reasonable and prudent the compensation proposition formulated for the family members of the victims of the assassination, which has become the object of debate submitted to the Commission for its consideration.

The beforementioned is a fact, since the search for a harmonious solution in this case is essential for the proper strengthening of the Chilean democracy and its institutions, and particularly for freedom from social unrest, which has been weakened by the death of the mentioned individuals and the clarification of which the Government of Chile demands from the Courts of Law of this Republic.

The arguments developed in the comments and the documents furnished have not convinced the Government of Chile to modify its formulated proposition in the Observations. In the foregoing pages, the differences of opinion that exist with the Government of the United States of America have been extensively developed, which the Government of Chile requests the Commission to meticulously examine, utilizing the knowledge the members possess, in order to soundly determine the prudent and just compensation which motivated the Government of Chile to come to an agreement in order to make an ex gratia payment to the family members of the victims.

According to what has been expounded upon, the Government of Chile reiterates its offer of compensation formulated in the Observations to the Presentation made by the Government of the United States of America and requests the Commission that this be the value determined as payment or in the alternative that which is in conformity with international law, according to what has been established in the norms of the Agreement and Compromis.

SUBJECT: UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FOR HUMAN RIGHTS - [redacted] PROGRESS

SUMMARY AND INTRODUCTION

1. (U) THE FOLLOWING SUMMARIZES AND ANALYZES THE 1991 REPORT OF THE U.N. SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FOR EL SALVADOR, JOSE ANTONIO PASTOR RIDRUEJO. [redacted] LITTLE TIME IN EL SALVADOR HIMSELF, PASTOR CONCENTRATES ON REPORTS FROM OTHERS ABOUT HUMAN RIGHTS IN EL SALVADOR. HE OFTEN QUOTES VARYING VERSIONS WITHOUT DRAWING CONCLUSIONS HIMSELF, ALTHOUGH THE 1991 REPORT CONTAINS MORE DIRECT STATEMENTS FROM PASTOR THAN PREVIOUS REPORTS. [redacted] SOURCES LEADS TO A CONFUSING MELANGE OF STATISTICS. [redacted] AGAIN CITES THE PERSISTENCE OF SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, BUT NOTES AN IMPROVEMENT IN VIRTUALLY EVERY CATEGORY. PASTOR CRITICIZES BOTH FMLN ECONOMIC SABOTAGE AND GOES ACTIONS TO BREAK UP STRIKES AND DEMONSTRATIONS. HE NOTES THAT TUTELA LEGAL REPORTS A DECLINE IN SUMMARY EXECUTIONS BY GOES FORCES AND A DECLINE IN "DEATH SQUAD" ACTIVITY. [redacted] PASTOR SAYS PROSECUTION WITNESS ACCUSED IN THE AYALA [redacted] TOLD HIM THEY ARE INNOCENT. [redacted] ALLEGED MASSACRE [redacted] DRAMATICALLY WHILE "MEN-KIDNAPPINGS CONTINUE. MISTREATMENT OF PRISONERS CONTINUES BUT IS NOT GOES POLICY. [redacted] ABOUT THE INTELLECTUAL AUTHORS REMAIN. PASTOR LAMENTS THE LACK OF PROGRESS IN OTHER HISTORIC CASES. HE CALLS THE EXECUTIVE/JUDICIAL FAILURES, [redacted] THE BUILDING OF PEACE. CIVILIAN CASUALTIES ARE DOWN. INITIAL GOES REACTION TO THE REPORT IS POSITIVE, NOTING PASTOR'S EMPHASIS ON OVERALL IMPROVEMENTS.

ECONOMIC, SOCIAL, AND CULTURAL RIGHTS

2. (U) IN HIS 1991 REPORT, UNHRC SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR

PASTOR RIDRUEJO DISCUSSES THE REPRESSION OF STRIKES AND DEMONSTRATIONS REPEATING CHARGES BY OTHERS THAT THE DISPERSAL OF CROWDS CONSTITUTES AN "ATTACK" ON DEMONSTRATORS. HE CITES CLASHES DURING PUBLIC SECTOR STRIKES IN MARCH WITHOUT MENTIONING THAT THE MOST SERIOUS INJURY INCURRED WAS TO A POLICEMAN AND THAT THE GOES WAITED OVER A WEEK BEFORE EVICTING STRIKERS ILLEGALLY OCCUPYING PUBLIC BUILDINGS. THE REPORT ALSO REPORTS ILLEGAL LAND SEIZURES BUT FAILS TO URGE A CESSATION OF SUCH ACTION. THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR DISCUSSES FMLN ECONOMIC SABOTAGE INCLUDING ATTACKS ON THE ELECTRICAL GRID AS WELL AS BANKS AND CONSTRUCTION COMPANIES, AND MENTIONS FMLN EXTORTION LETTERS TO BUSINESS LEADERS BUT ADDS THAT FMLN REPS DENIED SUCH ACTION TO HIM.

SUMMARY EXECUTIONS BY ESAF DOWN

3. [redacted] PASTOR RECEIVED NUMEROUS ACCUSATIONS OF SUMMARY EXECUTION FOR POLITICAL REASONS BUT ADDED THAT AN EXACT FIGURE WAS DIFFICULT TO OBTAIN. THE REPORT INCLUDES A MISLEADING TABLE LISTING NONCOMPARABLE DATA FROM TUTELA LEGAL AND THE GOVERNMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (CDH). HE QUOTES TUTELA LEGAL FIGURES ON POLITICALLY MOTIVATED SUMMARY EXECUTIONS BY THE ESAF - 41 IN 1991, DOWN FROM 45 IN 1990. HOWEVER, THE CDH FIGURES (63 IN 1991, UP FROM 42 IN 1990) REFER TO "CIVILIAN DEATHS ATTRIBUTED TO THE ESAF". WHILE THE SEPARATE COLUMNS ARE LABELED, PLACING THEM SIDE BY SIDE LEADS ONE TO CONCLUDE THAT THE CDH ACTUALLY LISTED MORE POLITICAL MURDERS BY THE ESAF THAN TUTELA (FYI: AMERICAS WATCH REP (INITIALLY DREW THIS CONCLUSION FROM THE REPORT). THE CDH FIGURE ACTUALLY INCLUDES COMMON CRIMES (SUCH AS CASES WHERE SOLDIERS OR CIVIL DEFENSE MEMBERS HAVE BEEN PROSECUTED FOR NON-POLITICAL MURDERS) AND ACCIDENTS. PASTOR CONCLUDES THAT SUMMARY EXECUTIONS BY GOVERNMENT FORCES CONTINUED IN 1991 AT A SLIGHTLY LOWER RATE THAN IN 1990.

DEATH SQUAD ACTIVITY - HARD TO IDENTIFY, BUT DECLINING

4. [redacted] PASTOR REPORTS BOMBARDING ACCUSATIONS OF DEATH SQUAD ACTIVITY WITHOUT DISCARDING THE POSSIBILITY THAT THESE ACCUSATIONS SOMETIMES REFER TO COMMON CRIMES. HE CITES TUTELA'S FIGURES ON POLITICAL EXECUTIONS BY DEATH SQUADS - 38 IN 1991 DOWN FROM 51 IN 1990. HE AGAIN COMPARES THIS NUMBER TO A TOTALLY DIFFERENT CDH FIGURE, CIVILIAN DEATHS IN 1991 CAUSED BY UNIDENTIFIED PERSONS - 141. THE TWO CATEGORIES ARE IMPORTANT BECAUSE TUTELA LEGAL SELDOM EXPLAINS WHY IT ATTRIBUTES GIVEN CASES TO DEATH SQUADS. PASTOR CITES THE CASE OF ISAAC MARTINEZ AS AN ALLEGED DEATH SQUAD CASE LATER FOUND TO BE A COMMON CRIME. HE ALSO LISTS THE CASE OF GUSTAVO ROSA RAMIREZ WHO WAS ALLEGEDLY KILLED THREE WEEKS AFTER HAVING BEEN DETAINED AND RELEASED BY THE NATIONAL POLICE IN LA LIBERTAD.

SURPRISE IN AYALA CASE, PASTOR THINKS SUSPECTS INNOCENT

5. [redacted] RATHER SURPRISINGLY, THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR CONCLUDES THAT THOSE ARRESTED FOR THE JULY 9 MURDER OF MARTIN AYALA RAMIREZ, NIGHTWATCHMAN FOR THE COMMITTEE OF MARGINAL COMMUNITIES (CCM), ARE INNOCENT. NOT GOING INTO DETAILS, PASTOR CITES ONLY "CONTRADICTIONS" IN WHAT THE ACCUSED TOLD HIM AS THE BASIS FOR HIS CONCLUSIONS. (NOTE: EMBASSY HAS REPORTED IN DETAIL THE PHYSICAL EVIDENCE AS WELL AS CONFESSIONS OF THE THREE ACCUSED AND HAS CONCLUDED THAT THEY ARE PROBABLY GUILTY. THE CASE HAS NOT GONE TO TRIAL AND POST IS RELUCTANT TO REACH DEFINITIVE CONCLUSIONS, BUT THE PREPONDERANCE OF EVIDENCE CONTINUES TO POINT TO THOSE ARRESTED AND TO A NONPOLITICAL MOTIVE FOR THE MURDER. END NOTE).

SUMMARY EXECUTIONS BY FMLN

6. (U) THE REPORT QUOTES TUTELA TO THE EFFECT THAT SUMMARY EXECUTIONS BY THE FMLN INCREASED FROM 12 IN 1990 TO 15 IN 1991. PASTOR MENTIONS THE CASE OF GUILLERMO HERNANDEZ ROSALES WHO WAS KIDNAPPED BY THE FMLN NEAR LA MORA, CUSCATLAN APRIL 8. PASTOR WAS TOLD BY FMLN COMMANDANTE "TITO RUIZ" THAT THE FMLN INTERROGATED AND THEN SHOT HERNANDEZ ON APRIL 18 FOR COLLABORATING WITH THE ESAF. THE REPORT ALSO MENTIONS FMLN THREATS TO MAYORS AND OTHER CIVILIAN OFFICIALS IN 1991.

ARRESTS/ALLEGED DISAPPEARANCES DOWN DRASTICALLY, FMLN KIDNAPPINGS CONTINUE

7. (U) THE REPORT NOTES ACCUSATIONS THAT THE GOES DETAINS PEOPLE FOR POLITICAL MOTIVES. PASTOR POINTS TO A DRASTIC REDUCTION IN THE TOTAL NUMBER OF THOSE ARRESTED AND NOT RELEASED, HOWEVER, DOWN FROM 316 IN 1990 TO 145 IN 1991 ACCORDING TO TUTELA. TUTELA ALSO LISTS A LARGE REDUCTION IN ALLEGATIONS OF DISAPPEARANCES AFTER DETENTION - DOWN FROM 68 IN 1990 TO 3 IN 1991. TUTELA'S FIGURES FOR TOTAL "DISAPPEARED" ARE ALSO DOWN FROM 158 IN 1990 TO 87 THIS YEAR. ACCORDING TO TUTELA DISAPPEARANCES AFTER DETENTION BY THE FMLN WENT UP TO SEVEN IN 1990 TO NINE IN 1991. PASTOR MENTIONS TWO SPECIFIC CASES OF FMLN KIDNAPING FOR RANSOM: JUNE 18 THE FMLN TOOK ESAF LIEUTENANT PEDRO HERNANDEZ AND HELD HIM UNTIL THE FAMILY PAID A RANSOM SEPT. 8; IN JULY THE FMLN KIDNAPPED RANCHER GREGORIO ZELAYA RELEASING HIM IN AUGUST AFTER A PAYMENT OF OVER 100,000 COLONES (USD 1,500).

MISTREATMENT OF PRISONERS NOT INSTITUTIONALIZED PRACTICE

8. (U) ACCUSATIONS OF MISTREATMENT OF PRISONERS CONTINUE. PASTOR SAID PRISONERS WHO "BELONG TO ORGANIZATIONS" ALL MADE THE SAME CLAIMS OF MISTREATMENT: LONG INTERROGATIONS WHILE BLINDFOLDED WITHOUT BEING PERMITTED TO SIT OR USE A BATHROOM, BEATINGS, OCCASIONAL USE OF SUFFOCATION HOODS, IMMERSION IN WATER, AND ELECTRIC SHOCK OR THREATS TO USE SHOCK ON PRISONERS OR THEIR FAMILIES. PRISONERS NOT BELONGING TO ORGANIZATIONS REPORTED ONLY "RIGOROUS INTERROGATION WHILE BLINDFOLDED." PASTOR CONCLUDES THAT IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO TELL HOW MANY PRISONERS ARE TORTURED OR MISTREATED BUT THAT THE PRACTICE CONTINUES. HE ADDS, HOWEVER, THAT THE PRACTICE "DOES NOT STEM FROM AN INSTITUTIONALIZED PRACTICE."

JESUIT VERDICT HISTORIC, DOUBTS ABOUT INTELLECTUAL AUTHORS - LAMENTS LACK OF PROGRESS IN OTHER CASES

SAN SA 15841 00 OF 04 042349Z 021928 S076584

9. (U) PASTOR CALLS THE CONVICTION OF COLONEL GUILLERMO BENAVIDES IN THE JESUIT CASE "A PRECEDENT WHOSE SIGNIFICANCE SHOULD NOT BE MINIMIZED IN THE CURRENT CONTEXT OF THE SALVADORAN JUSTICE SYSTEM." HOWEVER, HE EXPRESSES DOUBTS TO WHETHER THERE ARE OTHER "INTELLECTUAL AUTHORS" TO THE CRIME. PASTOR LAMENTS THE LACK OF PROGRESS IN OTHER IMPORTANT CASES SUCH AS MSGR. ROMERO, HERBERT ANAYA (FYI: THERE IS ACTUALLY A CONVICTION IN THIS CASE. END FYI), AND THE FENASTRAS BOMBING. THE REPORT FAULTS THE INVESTIGATIVE PROCESS AND THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH, SPECIFICALLY THE SIU, RATHER THAN JUDGES AND JURIES FOR THE LACK OF PROGRESS IN MOST HUMAN RIGHTS CASES. PASTOR RECOMMENDS THE PLANNED TRANSFER OF THE SIU TO

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE BE COMPLETED ASAP, ALTHOUGH HE WOULD PREFER TO SEE IT PUT UNDER THE JUDICIAL BRANCH.

CIVILIAN CASUALTIES DECLINE

10. (U) PASTOR CONCLUDES THAT THE ESAF HAS CAUSED CIVILIAN DEATHS AND INJURIES DURING COMBAT WITH THE FMLN BUT "NOT IN A DELIBERATE, GENERALIZED, OR INDISCRIMINATE MANNER BUT RATHER OCCASIONALLY THROUGH LACK OF PRECAUTIONS." HE ALSO NOTES THE NUMBER OF SUCH INCIDENTS IS LOWER THAN LAST YEAR. THE REPORT MENTIONS THAT THE FMLN MURDERERS OF PICKETT AND DAWSON HAVE NOT BEEN BROUGHT TO JUSTICE. PASTOR ALSO SAYS THE FMLN KILLED TWO CHILDREN DURING AN ATTACK IN SAN MIGUEL IN FEBRUARY, AND THAT THEY KILLED RAMON ORELLANA IN CUSCATLAN MARCH 12 AFTER MISTAKING HIM FOR A SOLDIER. PASTOR ALSO DETAILS THE MAY 22 FMLN ATTACK ON THE FIRST BRIGADE IN SAN SALVADOR DURING WHICH SIX OF SEVEN MORTARS FIRED MISSED THEIR MILITARY TARGET KILLING TWO WOMEN, INJURING TWO CHILDREN, AND DESTROYING THEIR RESIDENCES. AN FMLN JULY ATTACK ON THE NATIONAL GUARD IN THE TOWN OF GUAZAPA ALSO KILLED ONE CHILD AND WOUNDED ANOTHER. THE REPORT ALSO NOTES THAT A SOLDIER DIED WHEN FMLN FORCES INTERCEPTED AN AMBULANCE AUG. 29, 1991, AND DETAINED IT FOR SEVERAL HOURS.

PASTOR'S CONCLUSIONS

11. (U) THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR PRAISES PRESIDENT CRISTIANI'S INTEREST IN IMPROVING THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION AS WELL AS THE WORK OF OTHER GOES OFFICIALS. THE REPORT CRITICIZES FMLN ECONOMIC SABOTAGE AS "GRAVELY PREJUDICIAL TO IMPORTANT ECONOMIC, SOCIAL, AND CULTURAL RIGHTS OF SALVADORAN CITIZENS," BUT ADDS THAT GOVERNMENT ACTION AGAINST HUMANITARIAN, LABOR, RURAL, AND REPATRIATE ORGANIZATIONS CONTINUES. IT ALSO CHARGES THAT POLITICAL MURDERS BY GOVERNMENT FORCES CONTINUE ALTHOUGH AT LOWER LEVELS THAN IN 1990. ACCUSATIONS OF DEATH SQUAD ACTIVITY CONTINUE, AND WHILE FINDING THE CHARGES PLAUSIBLE, IT IS "UNABLE TO COME TO DEFINITIVE CONCLUSIONS IN SPECIFIC CASES AND CAN'T EXCLUDE THAT COMMON CRIMES ARE COVERED UP THROUGH APPARENT DEATH SQUAD ACTIVITY."

DECLASSIFIED

12. (U) THE REPORTS CHARGES THAT THE FMLN HAS ALSO CONTINUED TO MURDER PRESUMED COLLABORATORS OF THE ESAF, ALTHOUGH IN LOWER NUMBERS THAN IN 1990. POLITICAL KIDNAPPINGS CONTINUE AND THE FMLN HAS KIDNAPPED BOTH OFF DUTY ESAF PERSONNEL AND CIVILIANS.

SURPRISE IN AYALA CASE, PASTOR THINKS SUSPECTS INNOCENT

5. [redacted] RATHER SURPRISINGLY, THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR CONCLUDES THAT THOSE ARRESTED FOR THE JULY 8 MURDER OF MARTIN AYALA RAMIREZ, NIGHTWATCHMAN FOR THE COMMITTEE OF MARGINAL COMMUNITIES (CCM), ARE INNOCENT. NOT GOING INTO DETAILS, PASTOR CITES ONLY "CONTRADICTIONS" IN WHAT THE ACCUSED TOLD HIM AS THE BASIS FOR HIS CONCLUSIONS. @NOTE: EMBASSY HAS REPORTED IN DETAIL THE PHYSICAL EVIDENCE AS WELL AS CONFESSIONS OF THE THREE ACCUSED AND HAS CONCLUDED THAT THEY ARE PROBABLY GUILTY. THE CASE HAS NOT GONE TO TRIAL AND POST IS RELUCTANT TO REACH DEFINITIVE CONCLUSIONS, BUT THE PREPONDERANCE OF EVIDENCE CONTINUES TO POINT TO THOSE ARRESTED AND TO A NONPOLITICAL MOTIVE FOR THE MURDER.

SUMMARY EXECUTIONS BY FMLN

6. (U) THE REPORT QUOTES TUTELA TO THE EFFECT THAT SUMMARY EXECUTIONS BY THE FMLN INCREASED FROM 12 IN 1990 TO 15 IN 1991. PASTOR MENTIONS THE CASE OF GUILLERMO HERNANDEZ ROSALES WHO WAS KIDNAPPED BY THE FMLN NEAR LA MORA, CUSCATLAN APRIL 8. PASTOR WAS TOLD BY FMLN COMMANDANTE "TITO RUIZ" THAT THE FMLN INTERROGATED AND THEN SHOT HERNANDEZ ON APRIL 10 FOR COLLABORATING WITH THE ESAF. THE REPORT ALSO MENTIONS FMLN THREATS TO MAYORS AND OTHER CIVILIAN OFFICIALS IN 1991.

ARRESTS/ALLEGED DISAPPEARANCES DOWN DRASTICALLY, FMLN KIDNAPPINGS CONTINUE

7. (U) THE REPORT NOTES ACCUSATIONS THAT THE GOES DETAINS PEOPLE FOR POLITICAL MOTIVES. PASTOR POINTS TO A DRASTIC REDUCTION IN THE TOTAL NUMBER OF THOSE ARRESTED AND NOT RELEASED, HOWEVER, DOWN FROM 316 IN 1990 TO 145 IN 1991 ACCORDING TO TUTELA. TUTELA ALSO LISTS A LARGE REDUCTION IN ALLEGATIONS OF DISAPPEARANCES AFTER DETENTION - DOWN FROM 88 IN 1990 TO 23 IN 1991. TUTELA'S FIGURES FOR TOTAL "DISAPPEARED" ARE ALSO DOWN FROM 150 IN 1990 TO 87 THIS YEAR. ACCORDING TO TUTELA DISAPPEARANCES AFTER DETENTION BY THE FMLN WENT UP FROM SEVEN IN 1990 TO NINE IN 1991. PASTOR MENTIONS TWO SPECIFIC CASES OF FMLN KIDNAPING FOR RANSOM: JUNE 18 THE FMLN TOOK ESAF LIEUTENANT PEDRO HERNANDEZ AND HELD HIM UNTIL THE FAMILY PAID A RANSOM SEPT. 07 IN JULY THE FMLN KIDNAPPED RANCHER GREGORIO ZELAYA RELEASING HIM IN AUGUST AFTER A PAYMENT OF OVER 100,000 COLONES (USD 12,500).

MISTREATMENT OF PRISONERS NOT INSTITUTIONALIZED PRACTICE

8. (U) ACCUSATIONS OF MISTREATMENT OF PRISONERS CONTINUE. PASTOR SAID PRISONERS WHO "BELONG TO ORGANIZATIONS" ALL MADE THE SAME CLAIMS OF MISTREATMENT: LONG INTERROGATIONS WHILE BLINDFOLDED

THE FMLN HAS ALSO FORCED MINORS TO JOIN THEIR RANKS. MISTREATMENT OF PRISONERS CONTINUES BUT IS NOT GENERALIZED NOR THE POLICY OF THE GOES. PASTOR SHARES DOUBTS OF MANY THAT COMPLETE JUSTICE HAS BEEN DONE IN THE JESUIT CASE AND WORRIES ABOUT THE LACK OF PROGRESS IN PROSECUTION OF OTHER HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS FROM PREVIOUS YEARS. DEATH AND INJURY TO CIVILIANS AS THE RESULT OF COMBAT, ESPECIALLY IN REPOPULATED AREAS, CONTINUE BUT ARE OCCASIONAL, NOT SYSTEMATIC OR

13. GOVERNMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION DIRECTOR, BENJAMIN CESTONI, TOLD POLOFF HE WAS PLEASED WITH PASTOR'S REPORT AND ITS EMPHASIS ON OVERALL IMPROVEMENTS IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION. CESTONI ADDED THAT PASTOR "SPOKE IN HIS OWN VOICE MORE THIS YEAR, MAYBE BECAUSE HE WANTS TO RETURN NEXT YEAR." ACCORDING TO CESTONI, THE GOES WOULD NOT MIND HAVING PASTOR RETURN NEXT YEAR, DESPITE THE FACT THAT ONUSAL'S PRESENCE WOULD APPEAR TO MAKE IT UNNECESSARY. CESTONI SAID THE GOES WOULD NOT MIND BEING ABLE TO "PICK THE U.N. REPORT IT LIKES BEST" AND THINKS PASTOR AND ONUSAL MIGHT SERVE TO "KEEP EACH OTHER HONEST."

1. (U) ON DECEMBER 6, PRESIDENT JORGE SERRANO ELIAS NAMED GEN. JOSE DOMINGO ANTONIO GARCIA SAMAYOA TO REPLACE GEN. LUIS ENRIQUE MENDOZA GARCIA AS THE GUATEMALAN MINISTER OF DEFENSE. THE PRESIDENT ALSO REPLACED RETIRING ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF GEN. EDGAR AUGOSTO GODOY GAITAN, WITH GEN. JORGE ROBERTO PERUSSINA RIVERA, AND TAPPED GEN. MARIO RENE ENRIQUEZ MORALES TO BECOME THE NEW DEPUTY CHIEF OF STAFF.

2. (U) ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS, THE NEW MINISTER OF DEFENSE WAS BORN ON JUNE 13, 1945 IN COBAN, ALTA VERAPAZ. HE GRADUATED FROM GUATEMALA'S MILITARY ACADEMY IN 1965 BEFORE PURSUING HIS CAREER IN THE GUATEMALAN MILITARY. JUST PRIOR TO BECOMING DEFENSE MINISTER, GEN. 3. (C) COMMENT: SERRANO HAS LONG BEEN DISPLEASED WITH MENDOZA, SO HIS DISMISSAL COMES AS NO SURPRISE TO ANYONE, ALTHOUGH THE TIMING WAS: IT HAD BEEN EXPECTED THAT THE PRESIDENT WOULD WAIT UNTIL EARLY NEXT YEAR BEFORE ACTING TO PERMIT MENDOZA TO COMPLETE A FULL YEAR IN THE JOB AND GODOY TO RETIRE AS SCHEDULED AT THE END OF THE YEAR. THE MOVE REFLECTS OBVIOUS CONFIDENCE ON THE PRESIDENT'S PART THAT HE IS COMMANDER IN CHIEF IN FACT AS WELL AS IN NAME, AND THAT THE ARMY AS AN INSTITUTION ACCEPTS CIVILIAN CONTROL. THE EMBASSY'S VIEW THAT THE NEW MOD, CHIEF OF STAFF, AND DEPUTY CHIEF OF STAFF ARE PROGRESSIVE BY GUATEMALAN STANDARDS ALSO GIVES US CAUSE TO HOPE THAT THE NEW TEAM WILL WORK TOWARD A RESOLUTION OF THE DEVINE CASE, WHICH REMAINED STALLED DURING MENDOZA'S TENURE.

I. SUMMARY. MEXICO IS A MAJOR PRODUCER OF OPIUM POPPY AND CANNABIS AND THE KEY TRANSSHIPMENT POINT FOR COCAINE BEING SENT TO THE U.S. DRUG MARKET. APPROXIMATELY 63 PERCENT OF THE MARIJUANA AND 23 PERCENT OF THE HEROIN CONSUMED IN THE UNITED STATES IS OF MEXICAN ORIGIN. USG OFFICIALS ALSO BELIEVE THAT 50 TO 70 PERCENT OF THE COCAINE FLOWING INTO THE UNITED STATES TRANSITS MEXICO. THE BULK OF THIS COCAINE IS TRANSPORTED FROM COLOMBIA TO MEXICO BY PRIVATE AIRCRAFT WHICH ILLEGALLY ENTERS MEXICAN AIRSPACE. NEVERTHELESS, STRONG GOVERNMENT OF MEXICO (GOM) INTERDICTION MEASURES IN 1991 DISRUPTED AIR TRAFFICKER OPERATIONS CAUSING SOMEWHAT OF A SHIFT TO MARITIME COCAINE SMUGGLING INTO MEXICO BY YEAR'S END. CONTINUE FOR THE INDEFINITE FUTURE, GIVEN THE 1,933 MILE POROUS US/MEXICAN BORDER, STRONG U.S. MARKET DEMAND, LIMITED ECONOMIC OPTIONS FOR PEASANT FARMERS, AND NARCOTICS-RELATED CORRUPTION. MEXICO'S FUTURE AS A TRANSSHIPMENT POINT FOR DRUGS INTO THE UNITED STATES WILL BE DETERMINED BY TRAFFICKER INGENUITY AND RESOURCEFULNESS AND THE ABILITY OF MEXICAN LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES TO COUNTERACT CHANGES IN TRAFFICKER TACTICS. END SUMMARY.

II. STATUS OF COUNTRY: MEXICO IS A SIGNIFICANT SOURCE FOR MARIJUANA AND OPIUM GUM/HEROIN, AND A TRANSIT COUNTRY FOR SOUTH AMERICAN PRODUCED COCAINE. PRESIDENT CARLOS SALINAS DE GORTARI HAS MADE NARCOTICS A TOP NATIONAL PRIORITY DURING HIS FIRST THREE YEARS IN OFFICE. THE OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL (PGR) HAS SOLE RESPONSIBILITY FOR COORDINATING ALL ANTI-NARCOTICS EFFORTS AND THE LEAD ROLE IN INTERDICTION. THE MEXICAN ARMY IS TASKED WITH MANUAL ERADICATION AND ASSISTING THE PGR IN ITS AERIAL AND LIMITED MANUAL ERADICATION EFFORTS. THE MEXICAN NAVY CARRIES OUT DRUG INTERDICTION OPERATIONS IN MEXICAN WATERS AND HAS INCREASED ITS COOPERATION WITH THE U.S. COAST GUARD. THE NEW ATTORNEY GENERAL (AG) IGNACIO MORALES LECHUGA, WHO ASSUMED OFFICE

IN MAY OF 1991, RECENTLY SAID MEXICO REQUIRED NEW LEGISLATION TO COMBAT DRUG TRAFFICKING AND CONSUMPTION IF THE COUNTRY WAS TO AVOID EXPANDING AS A CONSUMER MARKET FOR NARCOTICS. MEXICO IS ALSO CONSIDERED A CONDUIT FOR ILLEGAL MONEY LAUNDERING TRANSACTIONS. ALTHOUGH THE GOM IS ATTEMPTING TO ENACT MORE STRINGENT REGULATIONS ON MONEY LAUNDERING, THE PROFUSION OF CURRENCY EXCHANGE HOUSES ALONG THE U.S./MEXICO BORDER HAS FACILITATED THE LAUNDERING OF LARGE AMOUNTS OF NARCO DOLLARS. MOST PRECURSOR CHEMICALS FOR HEROIN CONVERSION LABORATORIES ARE PURCHASED CLANDESTINELY IN SMALL AMOUNTS WITHIN MEXICO, WHILE CHEMICALS FOR COCAINE CONVERSION LABORATORIES IN SOUTH AMERICA ONLY TRANSIT THE COUNTRY. AS A MEMBER OF THE INTER-AMERICAN DRUG ABUSE CONTROL COMMISSION (CICAD) AND THE INTERNATIONAL DRUG ENFORCEMENT CONFERENCE (IDEC), MEXICO MADE COMMITMENTS TO DRAFT LEGISLATION TO GOVERN THE CONTROL, RECORD KEEPING AND REPORTING REQUIREMENTS ON PRECURSOR CHEMICALS.

III. COUNTRY ACTIONS AGAINST DRUGS:

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

A. POLICY INITIATIVES: THE GOM CONTINUED ITS PUBLICLY ANNOUNCED INTENTION OF ATTACKING ALL DRUG TRAFFICKING ACTIVITIES WITHIN MEXICO, AS IT VIEWS DRUGS AS A SERIOUS THREAT TO NATIONAL STABILITY. IN 1991 GOM INTERDICTION AND ERADICATION EFFORTS INTENSIFIED SIGNIFICANTLY,

RESULTING IN RECORD DRUG SEIZURES AND ILLICIT CROP DESTRUCTION. MEXICO ARRESTED SEVERAL CLASS I DRUG TRAFFICKERS THIS YEAR, INCLUDING THE QUOTE UNTOUCHABLE UNQUOTE JUAN N. GUERRA, LONG CONSIDERED AN IMPORTANT

BOTH THE MEXICAN ARMY AND NAVY HAVE SUCCESSFUL ANTI-NARCOTICS PROGRAMS. THE ARMY CONDUCTS REGIONAL AND NATIONAL MANUAL ERADICATION OPERATIONS TARGETING MAJOR

THE GOM AND USG HELD THE INAUGURAL SESSION OF THE U.S./MEXICO MIXED PERMANENT COMMISSION (MPC) AGAINST NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING AND DRUG DEPENDENCY IN MEXICO CITY ON SEPTEMBER 7. THE DEMAND REDUCTION WORKING GROUP OF THE MPC MET IN WASHINGTON, DC, ON OCTOBER 22 FOR TECHNICAL TALKS.

THE GOM SIGNED FOUR COUNTER-NARCOTICS MEMORANDA OF UNDERSTANDING (MOU) WITH THE USG ON SEPTEMBER 25 COVERING SUPPORT FOR THE PGR'S PROPOSED JOINT INFORMATION CENTER, ENHANCEMENT OF ERADICATION EFFORTS, MOBILE TRAILERS AND TRUCKS FOR AIR INTERDICTION OPERATIONS, AND AN AERIAL SURVEY PROGRAM OF ILLICIT CROPS.

AG MORALES NAMED A SPECIAL PROSECUTOR IN JULY TO HEAD A NEW PGR DEPARTMENT DEALING EXCLUSIVELY WITH CRIME AND CORRUPTION AMONG GOVERNMENT AND STATE OFFICIALS. HE ALSO OPENED A PGR COORDINATION OFFICE FOR INVESTIGATIVE LIAISON IN SAN ANTONIO, TX, IN SEPTEMBER. IN OCTOBER MORALES ANNOUNCED THE CREATION OF A FUND TO COMPENSATE INDIVIDUALS WRONGLY ACCUSED OF A CRIME.

SUCCESSFUL PGR NORTHERN BORDER RESPONSE FORCE (NBRF) OPERATION HALCON AIR INTERDICTION MISSIONS IN MEXICO RESULTED IN THE SEIZURE OF OVER 35 METRIC TONS OF COCAINE, 23 AIRPLANES, AND THE ARREST OF 16 INDIVIDUALS ON DRUG-RELATED CHARGES FROM JANUARY 1 THROUGH OCTOBER 31, 1991. THE NINE USG UH-1H HELICOPTERS LEASED TO THE

THE USG ALSO PROVIDED INTERDICTION TECHNICAL TRAINING FOR PGR PILOTS AND RADAR OPERATORS. NBRF/HALCON REFERRALS OF AIR AND MARITIME INTERDICTION INFORMATION TO OTHER COUNTRIES ACCOUNTED FOR THE ADDITIONAL SEIZURE OF 13.4 METRIC TONS OF COCAINE, ONE AIRCRAFT, AND THE DETENTION OF SIX INDIVIDUALS ON DRUG-RELATED CHARGES. SIX SUSPECTED TRAFFICKERS WERE KILLED IN AIRCRAFT ACCIDENTS DURING THE SAME PERIOD.

THE GOM REPORTED DESTROYING 6,24[illegible] HECTARES (86,446 FIELDS) OF OPIUM POPPY AND 9,30[illegible] ECTARES (115,299 FIELDS) OF MARIJUANA, SEIZING 33 METRIC TONS OF COCAINE, 137 KILOS OF HEROIN, 83 KILOS OF OPIUM GUM, 107 METRIC TONS OF MARIJUANA, 1,102 KILOS OF MARIJUANA SEEDS, 248 KILOS OF OPIUM POPPY SEEDS, 1,557 LAND VEHICLES, 34 AIRCRAFT, 5 BOATS, 2,974 FIREARMS, AND 32,809 ROUNDS OF AMMUNITION, DISMANTLING 6 CLANDESTINE LABORATORIES, AND DETAINING 6,234 MEXICANS AND 84 FOREIGNERS ON DRUG-RELATED CHARGES FROM JANUARY 1 THROUGH SEPTEMBER 30.

ONE OF MEXICO'S MOST WANTED DRUG LORDS, MANUEL SALCIDO UZETA, ALIAS COCHILOCO OR CRAZY PIG, WAS GUNNED DOWN IN THE STREETS OF GUADALAJARA IN OCTOBER BY UNKNOWN ASSAILANTS. SALCIDO WAS A FOUNDING MEMBER OF THE

D. CORRUPTION: ON ORDERS FROM PRESIDENT SALINAS, AN ALL OUT WAR HAS BEEN DECLARED ON OFFICIAL CORRUPTION, PARTICULARLY ON OFFICIALS ACCUSED OF FACILITATING NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING. MANY MFJP AND MILITARY COMMANDERS HAVE BEEN REMOVED FROM OFFICE AND OTHERS ARRESTED FOR DRUG SMUGGLING OR FOR PROTECTING DRUG TRAFFICKERS. THE PGR IS ATTEMPTING TO ELIMINATE CORRUPTION AND HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSE BY PLACING ALL MFJP ACTIVITY UNDER THE DIRECTION OF FEDERAL PROSECUTORS. THE CNDH REPORT DATED DECEMBER 6 ACCUSED GENERAL MORAN [illegible]EVEDO, COMMANDER OF THE MILITARY ZONE, AND OTHER HIGH-RANKING MILITARY OFFICERS OF BREAKING CIVIL AND MILITARY LAWS AND RECOMMENDED THE ARMY INVESTIGATE THE INCIDENT FURTHER. IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING THE REPORT, THE ARMY SUSPENDED THE GENERAL AND THE OTHER OFFICERS INVOLVED IN THE INCIDENT.

E. AGREEMENTS AND TREATIES: THE MUTUAL LEGAL ASSISTANCE TREATY (MLAT) CAME INTO FORCE WHEN THE USG AND GOM EXCHANGED PROTOCOL AND INSTRUMENTS OF RATIFICATION ON MAY 3. PRODUCING MORE THAN THE TRADITIONAL TRI-STATE AREA OF

CHIHUAHUA, DURANGO, AND SINALOA. HIGHER YIELDS ALSO HAVE BEEN CALCULATED IN THE SOUTHWEST VERSUS THE DRIER NORTHWEST REGION, BUT RECENT HEAVY RAINFALL IN THE LATTER COULD RESULT IN INCREASED YIELDS IN EARLY 1992. OPIUM POPPY CULTIVATED IN THE STATE OF GUERRERO PRODUCES APPROXIMATELY 15 KILOS OF OPIUM GUM PER HECTARE, COMPARED WITH 10 KILOS OF OPIUM GUM PER HECTARE FOR THE REST OF THE COUNTRY. LONGSTANDING GOM POLICY IS TO ELIMINATE ILLICIT CROPS WHEREVER FOUND. IN THE PAST THE GOM HAS NEITHER MADE CROP ESTIMATES NOR SET ANNUAL DRUG ERADICATION TARGETS. PREVIOUS GROSS ESTIMATES OF DRUG CULTIVATION IN MEXICO WERE MADE BY USG OFFICIALS. THE GOM WILL BE ABLE TO PRODUCE ANNUAL NATIONAL ILLICIT CROP PRODUCTION ESTIMATES FOR MEXICO UPON IMPLEMENTING ITS AERIAL SURVEY PROGRAM IN 1992. UNDER THE SALINAS ADMINISTRATION, PGR LEADERSHIP HAS MAINTAINED A GLOBAL STRATEGY USING THE AIR FLEET TO SUPPORT DRUG INTERDICTION AND OTHER ANTI-NARCOTICS LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTIVITIES WHILE MAINTAINING A STRONG COMMITMENT TO THE ERADICATION PROGRAM. PGR EFFORTS THROUGH THE FIRST NINE MONTHS OF 1991 EVIDENCE DESTRUCTION INCREASES OF 5 PERCENT FOR OPIUM POPPY AND 14 PERCENT FOR MARIJUANA OVER THE SAME PERIOD LAST YEAR. BASED ON NEW HELICOPTER PURCHASES BY THE PGR IN 1991 AND PLANNED USG TECHNOLOGY TRANSFERS NEXT YEAR, WE EXPECT TO SEE AN APPROXIMATELY 10-15 PERCE INCREASE IN GOM C ERADICATION IN 1992.

G. DOMESTIC PROGRAMS (DEMAND REDUCTION): DRUG USE IN MEXICO REMAINS LOW, ALTHOUGH THE GOM RECENTLY RECOGNIZED THAT COCAINE AND HEROIN ABUSE IS ON THE RISE ALONG THE U.S./MEXICO BORDER AND IN SOME MAJOR RESORTS. AG MORALES CALLED FOR COMPULSORY DRUG EDUCATION IN SCHOOLS, AN EXTENSIVE PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN ON PREVENTION MEASURES, AND A PROGRAM FOR ASSISTING DRUG ADDICTS IN HOSPITALS. HE POSITED THAT MEXICO IS VULNERABLE TO THE SPREAD OF DRUG ADDICTION BECAUSE OF INCREASED DISPOSABLE INCOME, NEW NATION-WIDE DEVELOPMENT PATTERNS, AND A DECLINE IN TRADITIONAL FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS. MEXICO HAS A GROWING NUMBER OF GOVERNMENTAL, VOLUNTARY AND COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS INVOLVED IN DRUG PREVENTION RESEARCH, TREATMENT AND EDUCATION PROGRAMS, ALBEIT MANY OPERATE WITH MINIMAL HUMAN AND FISCAL RESOURCES. PREVENTION PROGRAMS ARE BASED ON UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION DEMAND REDUCTION OBJECTIVES AND FOCUS ON EDUCATING, TRAINING AND MOBILIZING THE COMMUNITY.. MEXICO CONDUCTED PUBLIC CAMPAIGNS ON DRUG PREVENTION IN THE MEDIA, ESPECIALLY ON TV AND RADIO, AND RAN A SUCCESSFUL POSTER CAMPAIGN ON QUOTE SAYING NO UNQUOTE TO DRUGS.

IV. USG POLICY INITIATIVES AND PROGRAMS

A. USG POLICY INITIATIVES: THE USG SEEKS TO SUBSTANTIALLY REDUCE, IF NOT ELIMINATE, THE FLOW OF ILLICIT DRUGS FROM MEXICO INTO THE UNITED STATES THROUGH BUILDING CLOSE COUNTER-NARCOTICS COOPERATION WITH THE GOM AND BY MATERIALLY ASSISTING THE GOM TO ENHANCE ITS NARCOTICS CONTROL PROGRAMS. SPECIFICALLY, USG POLICY SUPPORTS EFFORTS BY THE GOM TO:

-- REDUCE/ELIMINATE ILLICIT NARCOTICS PRODUCTION THROUGH ERADICATION, AND BUILD AN AERIAL SURVEY CAPABILITY AND VERIFICATION PROGRAM TO REPORT ON ERADICATION RESULTS

-- REDUCE NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING FROM MEXICO TO THE UNITED STATES BY INTENSIFYING INTERDICTION OPERATIONS, INCREASING SEIZURES, AND DISRUPTING MAJOR TRAFFICKING ORGANIZATIONS;

C. ROAD AHEAD: UNDER PRESIDENT SALINAS THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT HAS STEPPED UP ITS WAR ON DRUGS WITH GREATER EMPHASIS ON ENFORCEMENT, EDUCATION, AND TREATMENT. DESPITE NOTEWORTHY PROGRESS, THE FLOW OF DRUGS THROUGH MEXICO INTO THE UNITED STATES HAS NOT BEEN STEMMED, NOR HAS MEXICAN SOCIETY AND INSTITUTIONS BEEN INSULATED FROM FROM THE ENORMOUS ADVERSE PRESSURES GENERATED BY THIS MULTI-BILLION DOLLAR CRIMINAL ACTIVITY. AS WE EXPECT MEXICO'S CONTINUED ROLE AS THE LARGEST EXPORTER OF DRUGS

TO THE UNITED STATES, WE MUST BUILD ON THE GENERALLY POSITIVE MEXICAN REACTION TO PRESIDENT BUSH'S DRUG STRATEGY BY ENCOURAGING GREATER BILATERAL CONFIDENCE AND COOPERATION. WHEN MEXICANS DOUBT OUR COMMITMENT TO DEMAND REDUCTION AND ENFORCEMENT WITHIN OUR OWN BORDERS, WE MUST PRESENT CONCRETE EVIDENCE OF THE ENORMOUS EFFORT BEING MADE BY U.S. FEDERAL, STATE, AND LOCAL

REPORT ON EL SALVADOR
REQUIRED UNDER THE FOREIGN ASSISTANCE APPROPRIATIONS ACT OF 1991

January, 1992

El Salvador: Human Rights Special Project (1993)

RELEASED
RELEASABLE

Introduction

This report has been prepared pursuant to the requirements of section 531 (i) of the Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Appropriations Act, 1991 (P-L 101-513), that the President submit a report to Congress on El Salvador 60 days after the date of enactment, and every 180 days thereafter. Presidential Determination No. 91-15 of January 15, 1991 delegated this function to the Secretary of State. This report provides an update to the report last submitted to the Congress in July, 1991.

Negotiations (since July 1991)

Summary: Representatives of the Government of El Salvador (GOES) and the Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front (FMLN) met regularly and in an intensified fashion during the reporting period in an effort to negotiate an end to the conflict. In the final hours of the final day of last year, the Government and the FMLN reached a comprehensive agreement, including a cease-fire at the United Nations in New York. (See Annex) Principal agreements included the creation of a new National Civil Police, creation of a Commission for the Consolidation of the Peace (COPAZ), economic and social reforms, post-war reduction of the Salvadoran Armed Forces (ESAF), the implementation of a cease-fire, and FMLN political activity. End Summary.

Key Events (Since July):

— In July, United Nations Secretary General Perez de Cuellar, on the occasion of the first Ibero-American Summit, held in Guadalajara, Mexico, met separately with Salvadoran President Cristiani and with the FMLN General Command. He also met with the Presidents of Colombia, Mexico, and Venezuela and with the President of the Government of Spain, leaders of the "Friends of the Secretary General" group. The purpose of the consultations was to discuss how to revitalize the talks that were stalled at that time.

— On July 26, The United Nations Observer Mission in El Salvador (ONUSAL) opened. ONUSAL's mandate to verify the GOES-FMLN human rights accord of July 1990 is unprecedented in UN history and will involve human rights investigations and a nationwide awareness program. By September 15, ONUSAL had 101 international staffers at seven offices around the country. In its initial report to the UN, issued September 16, ONUSAL noted the danger of unrealistic expectations and the difficulties the mission faces in the absence of a cease-fire. The report also noted that ONUSAL was receiving full cooperation from the GOES and the FMLN.

— On August 1 the Secretary of State and the Soviet Foreign Minister sent a joint letter to the Secretary General of the United Nations, seeking to support the latter with regard to the

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

Salvadoran negotiations. The Secretary General responded with ideas on ways in which the two countries could help the Secretary General grapple with issues which he considered to be causing a deadlock in the negotiations.

-- In response to the urging of opposition political parties, the GOES agreed to begin ratification before a cease-fire of constitutional amendments stemming from the accords reached April 27, 1991 between the GOES and FMLN in Mexico. The Legislative Assembly unanimously ratified reforms dealing with human rights on September 11, reforms of the electoral system on September 25, and reforms of the judicial system on October 31. The reforms entered into effect on November 30. (The Mexico package also includes measures on military restructuring, which the Salvadoran legislature plans to ratify after a cease-fire.)

— Human rights reforms include creation of the office of a National Human Rights Ombudsman.

— The electoral reforms replace the current Central Elections Council with the Supreme Electoral Tribunal and expand its membership from three to five people in order + include a representative from the Democratic Convergence coalition of parties, which has historical links to the FMLN.

— On October 31, the Legislative Assembly ratified constitutional amendments on the judicial system that came from the April Mexico Accords with the FMLN. Reforms include giving the Legislative Assembly responsibility for electing members of the National Judicial Council which proposes the candidates to be named by the Supreme Court to trial and appeals judgeships. The constitutional reforms also call for six percent of the national budget to be reserved for the judiciary.

— Military reforms will include: better definition of the subordination of the Armed Forces to civil authority; creation of a National Civilian Police; separation of the intelligence organ from the Armed Forces; restrictions on military legal jurisdiction, abolition of paramilitary organizations; abolition of forced recruitment; and human rights training. There is also a plan for Armed Forces reduction which will reduce combat capability by approximately 65 percent.

-- In September the GOES, represented by President Cristiani, and the FMLN accepted the Secretary General's invitation to meet at U.N. headquarters in New York to seek a resolution to the issues causing deadlock in the negotiations. On September 25, the two sides signed the New York Accord, which concentrated the negotiating process into one phase in order to establish, before a cease-fire, the necessary conditions and guarantees for the reintegration of FMLN members into Salvadoran society within a framework of full legality. This negotiating format replaced the previous one, designed by the Geneva and Caracas accords (of April and May 1990 respectively) which had provided for reaching a cease-fire followed by continued open-ended negotiations on political issues. The sides agreed to form a Commission for the Consolidation of the Peace (COPAZ), made up of representatives of the GOES, FMLN, and the political parties, with Catholic Church and U.N. observers. The New York accords established a new "compressed" agenda for pursuing agreement on outstanding issues, including points on the reform of the armed forces, its doctrine and training, the establishment of a new national civilian police, and on economic and social questions. The direct participation of President Cristiani and Secretary General Perez De Cuellar were considered crucial to this breakthrough.

— On October 11 in Mexico City, the GOES, FMLN and the political parties declared that COPAZ will operate under a transitional phase until the end of the conflict. During its transitional phase, COPAZ agreed to concentrate first on drafting its on implementing legislation. (COPAZ legislation has now been drafted.)

— On November 16 the FMLN leadership unilaterally declared the suspension of all offensive operations. The Government then responded with proportional and reciprocal measures to reduce military activity. While both sides have apparently violated their own unilateral truces in some instances, the level of combat has significantly decreased. The Secretary General of the United Nations welcomed the suspension of offensive operations, by both sides, noting that "this encouraging development which cannot but raise the level of confidence of the Salvadoran people in the prospects for a negotiated political solution to the conflict, but which, in the absence of specific agreements and independent monitoring, is inherently fragile."

— On December 10, the Secretary General of the United Nations named the members of the Salvadoran Truth Commission, which, as part of the Mexico Agreements, was formed with the mandate of investigating serious human rights crimes that have taken place since 1980. The three members are Belisario Betancur, former president of Colombia, Reinaldo Figueredo, former Foreign Minister of Venezuela, and Thomas Buergenthal, former president of the Interamerican Court for Human Rights and president of the Interamerican Institute for Human Rights.

— Negotiations took place from October 13 to 21 and November 3 to 16 and from November 25 to December 10 in Mexico. The talks then moved to United Nations headquarters in New York, where, in the last hours of December 31, 1991, the two sides signed a comprehensive peace agreement, including a cease-fire. The cease-fire is to begin on February 1, once ONUSAL peace keepers are in place, and continue for nine months, during which time the FMLN is to disarm and demobilize under ONUSAL supervision. The two sides are scheduled to meet again on January 5 at the U.N. to work out an exact calendar of events to match the agreements reached.

Human Rights Cases Listed in Section 538 (since July 1991)

The Jesuit Case:

Nine members of the Salvadoran military were charged with participation in the murder of six Jesuit priests, their housekeeper and her 15-year old daughter on the campus of the University of Central America (UCA) on November 16, 1989. The case was raised to the trial stage on December 7, 1990 on charges of terrorism, murder, destruction of evidence, and conspiracy to commit terrorist acts. On September 28, 1991 a jury found Col. Guillermo Benavides guilty of having ordered the murders. Lt. Yusshi Rene Mendoza was convicted of ordering the murder of the housekeeper's daughter. Seven lower-ranking soldiers, including the four who had admitted to the shooting, were exonerated by the jury of the murder charges, but still face several other charges, such as perjury and conspiracy.

The guilty verdict represents the first conviction of a high-ranking military officer for a human rights abuse. This is a historic achievement in the Salvadoran context, although the acquittal of seven other defendants, suspicions regarding the possibility of higher-level involvement, and other pending charges leave the case not yet completely resolved. Individual members of the Armed Forces did not appear to cooperate fully during the investigation and trial. Some military officers destroyed evidence, perjured themselves, and/or provided sketchy or contradictory testimony, raising questions about possible involvement beyond the defendants, though no firm evidence substantiating allegations on this point has yet surfaced.

The jury apparently made a distinction between the ordering and the carrying out of the murders when it found seven lower-ranking soldiers not guilty of murder. Convicted Col. Benavides and Lt. Mendoza, as well as Lt. Jose Ricardo Espinoza Guerra and Lt. Gonzalo Guevarra Cerritos still have charges pending against them of conspiracy to commit terrorist acts. The maximum sentence is three years, but the accused can be credited with time already served. Lt. Col. Camilo Hernandez and Lt. Mendoza also face charges of obstruction of justice and three soldiers also face perjury charges. Judge Zamora is expected to announce final sentences for the colonel and lieutenant convicted of murder at the same time he rules on obstruction of justice and other charges against other defendants and on civil damage claims filed by the University of Central America. One exonerated defendant who was tried in absentia due to his desertion has still not been found.

On October 29 Judge Zamora raised to plenary the case of three enlisted soldiers charged with perjury in the Jesuit case. By raising the case to plenary, Zamora has ruled that there is sufficient evidence against the defendants to try them before a jury. The suspects, Sgt. Hector Solorzano Esquivel, Sub-Sgt. Rufino Barrientos Ramos and soldier Hector Maravilla Chavez allegedly gave false testimony to the court in October 1990 about their presence at the University of Central America on the night of the murders. Appeals of the judge's ruling are expected to take several months, after which a trial will be held if the judge's decision raising the case to plenary is upheld. The maximum sentence for perjury is eight years in prison.

El Salvador: Human Rights

On October 29 defense attorneys petitioned for Judge Zamora's recusal from the case. The First Criminal Appeals Court of San Salvador rejected the petition without prejudice on procedural grounds. The petition sought to bar Judge Zamora from sentencing convicted Col. Benavides and Lt. Yusshy Mendoza on murder charges, ruling on conspiracy charges against Lt. Espinoza Guerra and Lt. Guevara Cerritos and ruling on obstruction of justice charges against Lt. Col. Camilo Hernandez and Lt. Yusshy Mendoza. The defense attorneys re-submitted their petition on other grounds, again suspending action on the case; a decision on their petition is expected shortly.

Jesuit Provincial for Central America, Father Jose Maria Tojeira, asked the Salvadoran National Assembly on December 18 to investigate the possible involvement of higher-ups in the Jesuit murders. His statement did not make specific allegations against any individuals.

After the September 28 verdict, the soldiers and officers who had been indicted for the murders or for related crimes, whether found guilty or not-guilty, were dismissed from the Salvadoran military, except for those officers whose verdicts were still pending. (Dismissal from the armed forces in cases pending verdicts could be seen as prejudicial, perhaps creating an appeal opportunity for the defendants.)

Murder of Ten Peasants Near San Francisco (San Sebastian Case): On September 12, 1988, a military patrol detained ten peasants from Canton San Francisco, San Sebastian Municipality, San Vicente Department. Soon afterward, villagers heard two explosions and small arms fire. The next day, they found the dead bodies of all ten peasants. The military claimed that eight suspected FMLN collaborators and two captured guerrillas were killed when the column escorting the detainees to the helicopter was ambushed by guerrillas. The victims' families allege that the military executed all ten. The judge in San Sebastian investigated the killings and concluded that the villagers had been murdered.

There was very little progress in the case until Vice President Quayle visited El Salvador in February 1989 and emphasized US concern about the case. A special military honor board was formed to review the evidence and found cause to dismiss two officers and seven enlisted men from military service and turn them over to a judge for prosecution. Eventually, a total of twelve soldiers were arrested between February 13 and March 2, 1989. Several writs of habeas corpus filed in March 1989 were not resolved by the Supreme Court until September 1989, when the case was remanded to the court in San Sebastian.

On February 8, 1990, the judge of the First Instance Court of San Sebastian ruled that there was insufficient evidence to proceed to trial against ten of the accused and ordered their release. At the same time, he ordered trial proceedings initiated against Major Mauricio de Jesus Beltran and a sub-sergeant. The defense and the prosecution immediately filed appeals of the judge's ruling.

On April 27, the First Criminal Appeals Court of San Vicente ordered trial proceedings initiated against Beltran in the original court but held that there was insufficient evidence to initiate trial proceedings against the sub-sergeant. In addition, the appeals court also confirmed the finding of insufficient evidence against the other ten defendants, dropped all charges against them, and ordered their immediate release. On June 26, the Supreme Court granted a petition from the prosecutors and transferred the case against Major Beltran, the only remaining defendant, from San Sebastian to the Sixth Criminal Judge of San Salvador.

In September 1991, Major Beltran again petitioned the Supreme Court for habeas corpus relief. The Supreme Court appointed Rafael Moran Castaneda as the executive judge, who recommended that Beltran be released. In a report dated November 25, 1991 Judge Moran Castaneda concluded that the evidence against Beltran is insufficient to warrant his further detention and trial. Moran Castaneda based his findings on the lower court decisions which had dismissed charges against the lower ranking material authors suspected of the massacre. If the evidence was insufficient against those believed to have pulled the trigger, argued Moran Castaneda, it must also be insufficient against the alleged intellectual author of the crime. The Constitutional Chamber of the Supreme Court will now review Moran Castaneda's conclusions in light of the entire Supreme Court record and make the final decision. Major Beltran remains in the custody of the National Police.

Murders of Michael Hammer, Mark Pearlman and Jose Rodolfo Viera (The Sheraton Case): On January 4, 1981 Jose Rodolfo Viera, head of the Agrarian Reform Institute, Michael Hammer and Mark Pearlman, both of the American Institute for Free Labor Development (AIFLD) were murdered. In April 1981 the Salvadoran Government arrested Ricardo Sol Meza, the owner of the Sheraton hotel where the murders had been committed, and requested the extradition of Hans Christ, a businessman who had fled to the United States. In the fall of 1981 a judge suspended all action in the case on the grounds that there was insufficient evidence to implicate Christ and Sol Meza in the murders. That decision was upheld by a court of appeals in April 1982 and Sol Meza was released. In September 1982 two Salvadoran National Guard enlisted men confessed to having committed the murders and alleged that Lt. Rodolfo Lopez Sibrian and Capt. Eduardo Ernesto Alfonso Avila and businessman Hans Christ ordered them to kill Viera and the two Americans. In December 1982 the case against Lopez Sibrian was dismissed due to insufficient evidence against him. In April 1983 an appellate court upheld the dismissal of charges against Lopez Sibrian and in November 1983 the supreme court denied the appeal of the appellate court decision. On December 19, 1983, as a result of the direct intervention by then-Vice President Bush, Captain Avila was arrested. On March 22, 1984 Avila was released. The two enlisted men were convicted of the murders on February 14, 1986. On December 19, 1987 an appeals court decided that the case came under the Esquipulas II Central American peace accords amnesty program, freed the two convicted murderers, and dropped charges against former Captain Eduardo Avila, the alleged mastermind of the crime. There are no active efforts at this time to re-open this case.

Bombing of FENASTRAS Headquarters: A bomb killed ten people and wrecked the offices of the FENASTRAS labor federation on October 31, 1989. In the days following the bombing, President Cristiani called for an investigatory commission to look into the crime. FENASTRAS initially refused to permit the Special Investigative Unit to conduct a physical examination of the site. Salvadoran investigators, assisted by FBI explosives incidents personnel, were not permitted by FENASTRAS to visit the site until November 8, 1989. By then FENASTRAS employees had cleaned up the site, thereby destroying much of the evidence. Efforts to investigate the bombing were further hampered by the beginning of the FMLN's major military offensive eleven days after the bombing. In September 1990, FENASTRAS leaders offered to present new evidence regarding the bombing and asked the US Embassy for assistance. To date, however, they have produced no new evidence or witnesses.

FMLN Receipt of Lethal Military Assistance (since July 1991)

The FMLN has no source of supply in El Salvador for their Soviet-made surface-to-air missiles, standard-issue AK-47 automatic rifles, Dragonov sniper rifles, mortars, rocket propelled grenade launchers, machine guns, etc. The FMLN relies on external support for these weapons, ammunition, and much other materiel. We have no indication that the guerrillas have begun to run low on arms or ammunition. We also continue to receive reports from credible sources that both the Government of Cuba and elements within the Nicraguan Sandinista Popular Army continue to supply and train the FMLN, despite denials by both the Cubans and the Sandinistas.

In the past, when complicity of Sandinista Air Force officers in smuggling highly sophisticated surface-to-air missiles to the FMLN has been proven, the Sandinistas have claimed that the incidents had been rogue operations, without institutional authorization. It has been difficult to evaluate this Sandinista claim of institutional innocence, however, since considerable quantities of war materiel are still reported to be shipped from or through Sandinista hands to the FMLN. High-level FMLN commanders are also reported to operate out of Managua, the FMLN maintains political and propaganda organs there, and the principal FMLN radio broadcasts from Nicaragua.

The Administration is prepared to update the appropriate congressional committees on information on this topic which has not been made public.

Specific arms trafficking incidents which have been made public during the period covered by this report include:

-- On August 22, Salvadoran authorities captured an FMLN cache in San Salvador which contained over four tons of weapons, the single largest seizure of the war. The cache contained a variety of mostly Soviet-made weapons, munitions, and other materiel.

-- On October 19 a Nicaraguan military court convicted six Nicaraguans of stealing and attempting to sell to the FMLN five SA-14 surface-to-air missile firing mechanisms, 13 SA-14 rockets, seven SA-7s, about 700 82mm mortar rounds, and a large number of RPG rockets. It remained unclear, however, how low-ranking Sandinista military officials could have stolen so large a quantity of arms without more senior level coordination.

-- On November 10 the Honduran Army intercepted a truck coming from Nicaragua, which was smuggling ten military radios, batteries, and over 22,000 rounds of rifle ammunition.

-- On November 11, the Honduran Army intercepted another truck coming from Nicaragua, this one carrying 51 walkie-talkie radios and antennas, blasting cord, blasting caps, and 5099 rounds of 5.56 ammunition for the M-16 rifle.

-- The Honduran Army announced on November 29 that it had seized an arsenal in the western part of the country which was intended for the FMLN. The arsenal included accessories for RPG rocket launchers, explosives, bases for 60 mm mortars, 9 mm bullets for Soviet-made pistols, blasting caps, and other materiel.

Attacks Against Civilians

Discerning a trend or pattern in the level of political violence in El Salvador is difficult, and the collection and classification of information on politically motivated killings is not uniform. Common criminal murders may be disguised as political killings while political murders may be wrongly classified as common crimes. Credible reports indicate that both the Armed Forces and the FMLN continue to commit political and extrajudicial killings, but a decade-long decline in the number of suspicious killings continued in 1991.

There were no confirmed cases of killings by death squads (right wing terrorist groups which may include personnel from the security forces) nor cases where death squads claimed responsibility for murders during the reporting period. Nonetheless, human rights organizations continued to ascribe certain suspicious deaths to death squads. The UN Special Rapporteur concluded in his 1991 report that the ESAF's involvement or acquiescence in death squad activity was credible but difficult to verify.

Numerous death threats were reported in 1991. Most notable were those issued by the self-styled Salvadoran Anti-Communist Front (FAS) to a variety of groups beginning in May. The FAS demanded that businesses halt service to members of the UN, the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), and other humanitarian organizations it claimed violated Salvadoran sovereignty. Later communiques were delivered to individuals, including two members of the National Assembly; religious, union and social organization leaders; and two U.S. journalists. The GOES has denounced the threats, but GOES investigations have not determined their source or sources.

ONUSAL's second report, released on November 15, includes a section on cases in which "prima facie" responsibility could be assigned to the state and its agents. These include cases in which the state failed to comply with its obligation to prevent illegal acts or to investigate, prosecute, and punish the guilty, as well as cases of actual involvement in the killings. The section lists nine separate cases.

— The first three clearly involve ESAF (including security forces) perpetrators and suspects are being held in two of the three. The suspect in the third case has been identified but has apparently fled the country.

— In only one of these cases, the September 25 killing of Jose Samuel Fuentes Marroquin, is a political motive apparent. The National Police arrested one of its own and a member of the Santa Tecla Municipal Police for allegedly torturing and killing Fuentes on suspicion of hiding weapons. ONUSAL praises the arrest of these suspects, despite their official status, as "a clear message directed at members of the security force personnel about the need to abstain from such practices in the future."

— In the third case "a soldier or ex-soldier" threw a grenade into a crowd at a party killing eight and wounding 26. The Defense Ministry, among others, reported the case to ONUSAL and according to the Attorney General the perpetrator was identified but left the country. The motive was apparently revenge against a young woman who refused the murderer's invitation to dance.

— The fourth case involves accusations that on September 7 police guarding the military hospital in San Salvador beat Rosalio Hernandez Mendez to death. The guards had allegedly demanded that Hernandez perform some service for them. Hernandez said he could not be late for work but promised to return later to do it. Hernandez reportedly returned during his lunch break and was captured by the police, taken away, and beaten. He later died from his injuries. ONUSAL has investigated, but has been unable to determine conclusively what happened.

— ONUSAL's reports that the first four cases deal with allegations of killings by present or ex-ESAF personnel without any apparent involvement by the ESAF as an institution. The military High Command reportedly informed ONUSAL that in September alone, 11 members of the ESAF were turned over to judges for alleged abuses against the life, security, or property of civilians.

The remaining five cases in this section of the November 15 ONUSAL report involve killings by unknown persons, but are used by ONUSAL to emphasize the obligation of the state to protect citizens and investigate, prosecute, and punish murderers.

— In the first case, the ESAF told ONUSAL that Rigoberto Hernandez Argueta was kidnapped September 23 by 20 well-armed men the ESAF called "delinquent terrorists," a term often used to refer to the FMLN.

— In the second case, on September 24 a member of the SUTC construction union, Miguel Angel Martinez, was found murdered on the side of a main road in San Salvador. SUTC leaders had previously been threatened by the self styled "Salvadoran Anticommunist Front (FAS)." ONUSAL notes that the special investigative unit (SIU) is on the case.

— In the third case, Jose Edgardo Guevara and Oscar Armando Lopez were allegedly abducted by an unidentified man August 3 and later found murdered.

— In the fourth case, Waldo Acosta Brizuela, an ex-member of the Treasury Police, was found dead of gun shots to the head September 23 allegedly after having been forced to get off a bus.

— In the fifth case, occurring in August, "John Doe" was allegedly seized by four masked uniformed men carrying pistols. The victim was taken away, tortured, and killed.

— ONUSAL says the above five cases "present many of the characteristics of the phenomenon frequently denounced as actions of 'death squads.'" ONUSAL adds that the evidence does not show that GOES elements were directly involved in these killings or that the murderers acted with the support or tolerance of the authorities. However, ONUSAL adds that there is a "pattern of failure to take adequate measures to prevent, investigate, and prosecute suspicious murders."

— The U.N. Rapporteur's 1991 report mentions continuing accusations of "death squad" activity which may include members of the security forces, without discarding the possibility that some of these accusations may actually stem from common, rather than political, crimes. The report cites Tutela Legal's figures on political execution by death squads as being down from 51 in 1990 to 30 in 1991. The U.N. report explains the difficulty in defining which crimes are properly attributable to death squads and notes that it is "unable to come to definitive conclusions in specific cases and cannot exclude that common crimes are covered up through apparent death squad activity.

El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

-- The UN report cites the case of the murder of Isaac Martinez, a former leftist political candidate, as an example of an alleged death squad case later found to have been a common crime. Martinez' wife and stepson later confessed to having killed him in self defense.

-- Although the preponderance of evidence suggests that the case stemmed from a common crime, some have tried to portray the July 8 murder of Martin Ayala, a nightwatchman for a leftist organization, and the wounding of his wife as politically motivated.

The ONUSAL report says that Cristian Vladimir Martinez, who had allegedly been detained by the National Guard in April, was taken from his house by five armed men dressed in street clothes in June. The Supreme Court told ONUSAL that Martinez is not being held by the security forces. ONUSAL reports paying special attention to the issue of disappearances but is unable at this time to reach definitive conclusions about whether a pattern of disappearances continues. In the case cited, ONUSAL points out that it is unclear whether elements of the state were involved in the abduction. However, ONUSAL adds that the lack of adequate investigation of disappearances makes it difficult to determine what happened. ONUSAL notes that many "disappearances" turn out to be forced recruitment or arbitrary or illegal detentions.

The ONUSAL report mentions five cases of torture or mistreatment of prisoners, including one in Santa Ana, in which prison officials have been arrested. The victim in this case was found dead, hanging in his cell but it is possible he died from police mistreatment. Investigation of this case continues. On October 5 a woman was allegedly detained by men in civilian dress, taken to a "military brigade," and raped repeatedly before being transferred to the National Police the next day. Commanders of the brigade in question claim to be investigating the allegations. A medical examination of the victim has reportedly been performed and both a judge and the Special Investigative Unit are involved in the investigation.

ONUSAL says it is premature to conclude that a systemic practice of torture or mistreatment exists in El Salvador. ONUSAL adds that the maintenance of prisoners "incommunicado" is a major factor in facilitating mistreatment. ONUSAL's presence and ability to visit any detainee at any time has provided improved guarantees to detainees.

FMLN Attacks on Civilian Targets and Injuring Civilians

-- The U.S. Embassy in San Salvador estimates that direct and indirect damage to the economy inflicted by the FMLN in 1990 totalled $123 million. Actual production losses to industry, commerce, and agriculture totalled $45 million -- equivalent to 1.2 percent of GDP. These losses likely reduced real GDP growth by more than 25 percent. The FMLN executed more than 1,000 bombing attacks against primary and secondary electrical transmission lines and power stations in 1990. FMLN attacks against civilian targets declined slightly in 1991 as compared to 1990. ONUSAL also points out that FMLN economic sabotage, including attacks on the electrical grid, affect the rights of many civilians, including the right to access to medical care, employment, and education. The 1991 report of the U.N. Special Rapporteur for El Salvador discusses FMLN economic sabotage, including attacks on the electrical grid as well as on banks and construction companies, and mentions FMLN extortion letters to businesspeople. Despite its 1990 announcement that it would target only military installations and the electric grid, in April the FMLN burned at least 12 civilian vehicles and, in August and September, attacked model homes and banks in the capital and destroyed two beach houses belonging to ESAF officers.

-- ONUSAL reports that Serafino Orlando Merino was captured in Cabanas by the FMLN and summarily executed July 31. Both local FMLN commanders and the political/diplomatic committee of the FMLN confirm that Merino was shot, allegedly at the request of local residents who accused him of being a torturer.

-- The FMLN continued to put civilians at risk by using inaccurate weapons to attack military installations.

  -- In the process of taking the town of Guazapa for a half day on July 22, the FMLN killed a six year old girl.

  -- The FMLN often forcibly occupied civilian homes for use as shelters and bases to attack government targets.

  -- On September 10, Lorena del Carmen Diaz Romero, 16 years old, was killed when an FMLN projectile hit her house in San Miguel. ONUSAL established that the ESAF units involved in combat with the FMLN were over 500 meters from Ms. Diaz' house.

  -- Jose Vicente Burgos, 64 years old, was killed during an FMLN attack on the city hall and the Civil Defense headquarters of Apastepeque. The FMLN admitted having conducted the attack and ONUSAL urged the FMLN to avoid the indiscriminate use of force.

-- FMLN use of unmarked, indiscriminately placed mines and booby traps is also a cause of death and maiming of civilians. However, the use of these mines seems to be declining. Twenty-three civilians were killed in the first five months of 1990 and four in the first five months of 1991.

-- The ONUSAL report details alleged threats to GOES officials, the families of ESAF personnel, alleged informants, FMLN deserters, and peasants. The FMLN admits threatening GOES officials entering certain areas.

— "Jane Doe" allegedly received a letter from the FMLN August 11 ordering her to leave the area and ordering her to "change her attitude." The FMLN confirmed that it expels "informants" from certain areas but had no details on this case.

— "John Doe" was forced to leave Usulutan after threats from the FMLN in 1989 and is unable to return. The FMLN told ONUSAL that the victim was an FMLN deserter and could not return.

— "Jane Doe" of Chalatenango claims that she was threatened by the FMLN because her son left the FMLN. The FMLN admitted to ONUSAL that it had talked to "the mother of the deserter" but denied threatening her.

— On September 2 the FMLN detained two employees of the National Commission for the Restoration of Areas (CONARA) in La Union. The FMLN threatened the workers and burned their vehicle.

— Three members of a municipal council in Usulutan were threatened by the FMLN August 19 for "exercising municipal activities in areas of insurgent control." ONUSAL calls these threats against the right to integrity and security of the person unjustified.

— Various people have complained to ONUSAL that the FMLN threatens them if they refuse to help the guerrillas. Many residents of Morazan report receiving letters demanding payment of "war taxes." The FMLN admits seeking such payments. Many residents declined to talk to ONUSAL about these types of payments out of fear of FMLN reprisal.

— The FMLN claimed credit for assassinations of two off-duty officers: Captain Carlos Alfredo Lopez was killed on June 17 as he left his home for work, and Captain Nestor Ariel Lam was killed July 24 as he was driving to his job at the engineering battalion in Zacatecoluca.

— Guillermo "Billy" Sol, businessman and ARENA treasurer, was kidnapped by unknown assailants on July 18. Despite charges by ARENA politicians, there is no evidence that he was taken by the FMLN.

— The FMLN admitted on August 6 that it had kidnapped rancher Gregorio Zelaya in early July in Usulutan. Zelaya was released after a "political arrangement" had been negotiated with his family on August 23. According to a U.N. report, the "arrangement" included the payment of ransom.

— Archbishop Rivera y Damas noted that fellow bishops had also mediated in several lower-profile kidnappings by the FMLN.

— On August 25, near the Segundo Montes community in Morazan, the FMLN detained a clearly marked military ambulance carrying a wounded soldier, Emerson Vigil, for seven hours. When the ambulance was recovered, Vigil's intravenous transfusion had been disconnected and he was dead.

— On October 12, FMLN member Jorge Alberto Miranda was found guilty of the murder of Herbert Ernesto Anaya, the coordinator of the governmental human rights commission (CDHES). Although Miranda confessed, neither the CDHES nor Anaya's widow believe he is guilty.

— U.N. Rapporteur's report quotes the Archbishopric of San Salvador's legal assistance office, Tutela Legal, to the effect that summary executions by the FMLN increased from 12 in 1990 to 15 in 1991.

— The U.N. Rapporteur and ONUSAL criticize the FMLN for forcing minors to join their ranks.

— On January 2, the FMLN shot down a US military helicopter carrying United States Army Lieutenant Colonel David Pickett, Airman Ernest Dawson, and Chief Warrant Officer Daniel Scott near San Miguel. Although the victims were not civilians, as US military personnel, they were non-combatants. Scott died in the crash, but Pickett and Dawson survived and were later murdered. Eyewitnesses testified that Pickett and Dawson were ambulatory when they climbed out of their helicopter and that they were beaten before being shot at point blank range. After an initial denial, the FMLN admitted that two of their combatants shot Pickett and Dawson but claimed that these crimes were actually mercy killings. Both the US and Salvadoran governments have investigated these murders, and the U.S. has issued an indictment for one suspect. The U.S. investigation continues. Faced with the evidence, the FMLN admitted that two of its members may have committed murder, but the FMLN has refused to turn these suspects over to Salvadoran or US authorities and there are reports that, contrary to its claims, the FMLN has not even detained them.

Armed Forces Attacks on Civilian Targets and Injuring Civilians

— ONUSAL's report cites three cases in which the ESAF allegedly fired into civilian communities in Chalatenango and Cabanas: August 29/31 in Comunidad Hacienda Vieja, July 21 and 27 and August 7/8 in Santa Marta and other communities, and September 7 in San Francisco in Cabanas. ONUSAL says that it is difficult to reconstruct the circumstances of possible combat leading to these damages. The report notes that it is important to point out that incidents of this sort attributed to the ESAF are occasional, rather than systematic.

— Nongovernmental organizations said that combat between FMLN combatants and ESAF forces in or near repatriate communities led to civilian casualties including the death of 9 month old Mayra Norelvis Salazar during fighting in the area of San Jose Las Flores, Chalatenango on September 2. ONUSAL stated that a line of fire existed from an ESAF position to the house where the child was killed and urged both sides to avoid putting civilians at risk. In skirmishes in the Segundo Montes repatriate community in Morazan on August 18, Dora Alicia Gonzalez was injured and suffered a miscarriage. In this case, ONUSAL said the ESAF used excessive force in reacting to civilians carrying rocks and machetes.

-- The 1991 report of the U.N. Special Rapporteur for El Salvador reports that the Armed Forces continue to cause civilian deaths and injuries during combat with the FMLN but "not in a deliberate, generalized, or indiscriminate manner but rather occasionally through lack of precautions." The report also notes that the number of allegations of such incidents is lower than last year.

-- There continued to be credible charges that persons disappeared after being seized by the security services during 1991. Amnesty International noted in its report covering 1990 that the number of disappeared persons is declining. The constitution and government policy forbid unacknowledged detention by the security forces or military. According to press reports, a total of 79 civilians disappeared between January and June. This figure may include lost or runaway children, and persons who desert their families, emigrate, or join guerrilla ranks. Many persons originally reported missing had been legally arrested and reported to human rights organizations.

-- The U.N. Rapporteur's 1991 report discusses the dispersal of demonstrating crowds as an attack on the demonstrators. The report particularly cites clashes during a public sector employees' strike, although the most serious injury that occurred was sustained by a policeman and the authorities waited over a week before evicting strikers illegally occupying public buildings. The report also mentions the use of force in evicting squatters from illegally occupied land.

-- The ESAF attempts to control the flow of food and medical supplies and access of humanitarian organizations to villages (including repatriate communities) in areas of combat or heavy guerrilla presence. The Inter-American Human Rights Commission (IAHRC) reported that the ESAF subjects civilians living in war zones to arbitrary searches, harassment, and threats. Credible reports indicate that supplies going to repatriate communities are diverted to the guerillas. FMLN guerrillas routinely use resettlement camps as support bases.

-- Credible reports of torture and abuse of detainees by the public security forces and the military continued in 1991 despite some improvement as a result of new orders issued by the military High Command in July 1990 prohibiting such mistreatment. Most reports charge that human rights violations occur during the 72-hour period of administrative detention, prior to the presentation of a prisoner before a judge. During 1991 government forces also continued to resort to abusive tactics to intimidate noncombatants perceived as FMLN sympathizers. The number of persons detained on suspicion of subversive offenses declined by more than 50 percent. From January to August 1990, 881 persons were detained; during the same period in 1991, 371 were detained. Of those detained in 1991, 195 were subsequently released and never formally charged, while the remainder were consigned to the courts. According to the Supreme Court's information office, 2,000-3,000 persons were arrested every month from January to August by the security forces and the courts. Nearly two-thirds of these detainees were not formally charged and were released before seeing a judge.

— The 1991 report of the U.N. Special Rapporteur for El Salvador said that summary executions by government forces continued in 1991 at a slightly lower rate than in 1990. The report cited figures compiled by Tutela Legal, alleging that politically motivated executions committed by the Armed Forces were down from 45 in 1990 to 41 in 1991.

— The U.N. Rapporteur's report notes a drastic reduction in the number of allegations that the security services detained people for political motives. The report also points to Tutela Legal's figures that the number of persons detained and not released [illegible] down from 316 in 1990 to 145 in 1991.

-- On October 9 a Sonsonate jury exonerated 13 Civil Defense members for the murder of approximately 29 persons in 1980-82, in what has been known as the Armenia wells case. Eight were tried in absentia, while the other seven have been incarcerated since 1983, when the 29 corpses were exhumed. The defendants were denied amnesty on 1988, on the grounds that the murders were not political in nature.

-- Conscription by the Salvadoran Armed Forces continues to be largely arbitrary.

Act of New York

The Government of El Salvador and the Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front declare that they have reached definitive agreements, which together with those previously signed in San Jose, Mexico and New York, reach the culmination of the negotiation on all substantive themes of the Agenda of Caracas and of the Compressed Negotiation of New York. Their execution will put a definitive end to the Salvadoran armed conflict.

An agreement has also been reached on all the technical-military aspects of the separation and the cessation of armed confrontation, which includes the end of the military structure of the FMLN and the reincorporation of its members into the civil, political and institutional life of the country, within a framework of full legality.

The Parties have likewise agreed that the cessation of armed confrontation will formally begin on February 1, 1992 and will conclude on October 31, 1992.

January 5, 1992 has been fixed as the date for another meeting between the parties in order to negotiate the calendar of execution of the accords and for the method to be followed to end the military structure of the FMLN and reincorporation of its members, within a framework of full legality, into the civil, political and institutional life of the country.

Said negotiations must yield positive results no later than January 10, 1992. If this does not occur, the parties commit themselves to accept the formula for unresolved issues that will be presented by the Secretary General of the United Nations, no later than January 14, 1992. The Final Peace Accords will be signed in Mexico City on January 16, 1992.

The Parties commit themselves to maintain the necessary climate to continue and deepen the unilateral decisions which they have taken to avoid all military activity.

The Secretary General further indicated that "numbers of National Guard and Treasury Police had not yet gathered for demobilization, some had been inducted into the national police and others converted into military police and frontier guard units in contravention of the Accords." Finally the Secretary found "equally unacceptable * * * the failure of the FMLN to demobilize on schedule and give up its arms. Suspicions that the FMLN is retaining clandestine caches of arms and ammunition have had a destabilizing effect on the whole implementation process." The Committee urges all sides in this situation to remember that the war is over, the Peace Accords must be adhered to, and continued U.S. assistance is integrally tied to that adherence.

In developing the recommendation for the level of military assistance the Committee has followed a conceptual approach that the level of U.S. assistance should not be directly tied to the size of the armed forces or their weapons inventory. Now that the war is over U.S. assistance should be provided in a similar mode to other countries in the region. That is, if it is appropriate to provide it at all, it should be on a sustainment basis only, and not meant to support a particular force structure or helicopter fleet of a certain size. The only other country in Central America to which the United States now provides military assistance is Honduras, and that is at a level of $5,000,000 to $8,000,000 per year. The Committee expects that military assistance levels for El Salvador will steadily decline in the future until they reach pre-war levels. The decisions on force structure and weapons inventory then will fall squarely on the government, as they will be required to use their own funds to finance their armed forces.

The Committee is concerned about the implementation of the National Plan for Reconstruction and in particular that it be carried out in a fashion involving consultation of all affected groups. The mechanisms that have been set up to review various programs and to resolve disputes should be fully utilized. The Committee is particularly concerned about the failure to establish the National Public Security Academy and the failure to begin recruitment for the National Civil Police on the programmed date. The U.S. should assert its role in the international effort to establish a new police force, and urge the government to make necessary decisions and to meet the deadlines specified in the Peace Accords.

The recent report of ONUSAL, the UN monitoring team in El Salvador, notes the "government's delay in implementing those aspects for the Agreement that would facilitate the re-integration of excombatants into civilian life notably those related to land, the formation of the new National Civil Police, and political activity by the FMLN." The Committee endorses the report and strongly urges the Salvadoran government to implement these programs in accordance with the agreed timetable and to catch up on delays that have already occurred.

assistance provided to Guatemala in fiscal year 1993 be notified through the regular notification process.

With respect to economic aid, the Committee has also included bill language requiring that all economic support funds made available for Guatemala should be used solely by civilian agencies and non-governmental organizations: (1) for programs that directly address poverty, basic human needs and environmental concerns, (2) to improve the performance of democratic institutions or to promote pluralism, (3) for the National Reconciliation Commission, (4) for fiscal reform, fiscal administration and to reform the tax system, and (5) to promote foreign and domestic trade and investment. These funds may not be used for partisan political purposes or as an instrument of counterinsurgency. Economic support funds may also be made available to Guatemala for a Peace Fund. These funds are to be used for the costs of demobilization, retraining, relocation and reemployment in civilian pursuits of former combatants and noncombatants affected by the conflict in Guatemala, and the costs of monitoring the ceasefire, and may be made available only after a permanent settlement has been achieved.

In reviewing notifications for development assistance, economic support funds, and international military education and training, the Committee will place great emphasis on the degree to which the Government of Guatemala has made significant progress toward eliminating human rights violations and in investigating and bringing to trial those responsible for certain human rights cases, such as those relating to Sister Dianna Ortiz, Michael Devine, Myrna Mack and Brother James Miller.

The Committee recognizes that during his one and one-half years in office, Guatemala's President Serrano has made many positive statements indicating his commitment to improve the human rights situation in Guatemala, and has taken several concrete steps to that end. The Committee encourages the Serrano government to expand its efforts to improve the functioning of civilian institutions, particularly the judiciary and attorney general's office.

However, the fact remains that the government has made little progress in fulfilling pledges to end human rights abuses by government forces, to establish full civilian control over the military, to expand labor rights, and to redress the social and economic grievances of the poor.

There continue to be serious human rights abuses committed by Guatemalan military and security forces. The Committee notes the State Department's assessment that, "In 1991 the military, civil patrols, and the police continued to commit a majority of the major human rights abuses, of, among others, human rights activists, unionists, indigenous people, and street children."

Despite the encouraging development of a conviction of four police agents in the beating death of a street child, the witnesses in the trial and their family members have been harassed, beaten and raped.

In addition there appears to be a pattern of persecution emerging of members of the staff of Casa Alianza, an organization devoted to the housing and rehabilitation of street children. Several incidents have occurred during the last three months. These activities cannot be tolerated. The response by AID to repeated recommendations by the Committee to develop and implement a comprehensive program to address the needs of street children in Guatemala have been ignored. While the committee commends AID for taking steps to award grants to existing nongovernmental institutions, no substantial effort has been made to reform government institutions dealing with juveniles, or to develop a program to reform the juvenile justice code. The Committee reiterates its recommendation that AID develop and implement such a program.

There also has been little significant progress on the many human rights cases in which the United States has officially expressed interest. According to the State Department, "the Security forces are virtually never held accountable for human rights violations. With few exceptions, the Government failed to properly investigate, detain, and prosecute perpetrators of extrajudicial and politically motivated killings." The Committee expresses special concern about escalating attacks against the CERJ and its leader, Amilcar Mendez, and about increasing violence and repression directed at students and educators.

Human rights abuses will continue until the Guatemalan government conducts a full investigation of all abuses allegedly committed by security forces, makes public the results, and prosecutes those found to be responsible.

The Committee is aware of continuing preparations and negotiations for the repatriation of Guatemalan refugees from southern Mexico. It encourages the Government of Guatemala and the permanent Commissions of Representatives of the Guatemalan Refugees in Mexico to reach an agreement that will allow the safe and dignified return of the refugees. It applauds the efforts of the Canadian, French, Mexican, and Swedish embassies in Guatemala and the International Council of Voluntary Agencies to lend their assistance to the return process. The Committee believes that a safe and successful repatriation would give important impetus to the peace talks and expects to follow this situation closely over the coming year.

The Committee is encouraged by the election of a new President of the Guatemalan Supreme Court, and his declared intention to reform and restructure Guatemala's criminal justice system. This undertaking, while fraught with dangers, should be fully supported by the United States. His plans include greater oversight of lower court judges to combat corruption and ensure fair application of the law. Other plans include creating a criminal investigation capacity under the authority of the courts instead of the Army or National Police, establishing municipal courts and forensic medical facilities in each of the 330 municipalities, providing training for judges, investigators and prosecutors, and focusing attention on the most serious unsolved murder cases.

The Committee urges President Serrano to fully support these efforts and to publicly endorse them. The entire request for fiscal year 1993 of $10 million in ESF is devoted to reforming the judicial sector. The Committee will closely monitor its implementation and the support given by the government of Guatemala to the effort.

REPORT ON EL SALVADOR
REQUIRED UNDER THE FOREIGN ASSISTANCE APPROPRIATIONS ACT OF 1991

January, 1992

RELEASE

Introduction

This report has been prepared pursuant to the requirements of section 531 (i) of the Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Appropriations Act, 1991 (P-L 101-513), that the President submit a report to Congress on El Salvador 60 days after the date of enactment, and every 180 days thereafter. Presidential Determination No. 91-15 of January 15, 1991 delegated this function to the Secretary of State. This report provides an update to the report last submitted to the Congress in July, 1991.

Negotiations (since July 1991)

Summary: Representatives of the Government of El Salvador (GOES) and the Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front (FMLN) met regularly and in an intensified fashion during the reporting period in an effort to negotiate an end to the conflict. In the final hours of the final day of last year, the Government and the FMLN reached a comprehensive agreement, including a cease-fire at the United Nations in New York. (See Annex) Principal agreements included the creation of a new National Civil Police, creation of a Commission for the Consolidation of the Peace (COPAZ), economic and social reforms, post-war reduction of the Salvadoran Armed Forces (ESAF), the implementation of a cease-fire, and FMLN political activity. End Summary.

Key Events (Since July):

— In July, United Nations Secretary General Perez de Cuellar, on the occasion of the first Ibero-American Summit, held in Guadalajara, Mexico, met separately with Salvadoran President Cristiani and with the FMLN General Command. He also met with the Presidents of Colombia, Mexico, and Venezuela and with the President of the Government of Spain, leaders of the "Friends of the Secretary General" group. The purpose of the consultations was to discuss how to revitalize the talks that were stalled at that time.

— On July 26, The United Nations Observer Mission in El Salvador (ONUSAL) opened. ONUSAL's mandate to verify the GOES-FMLN human rights accord of July 1990 is unprecedented in UN history and will involve human rights investigations and a nationwide awareness program. By September 15, ONUSAL had 101 international staffers at seven offices around the country. In its initial report to the UN, issued September 16, ONUSAL noted the danger of unrealistic expectations and the difficulties the mission faces in the absence of a cease-fire. The report also noted that ONUSAL was receiving full cooperation from the GOES and the FMLN.

— On August 1 the Secretary of State and the Soviet Foreign Minister sent a joint letter to the Secretary General of the United Nations, seeking to support the latter with regard to the Salvadoran negotiations. The Secretary General responded with ideas on ways in which the two countries could help the Secretary General grapple with issues which he considered to be causing a deadlock in the negotiations.

— In response to the urging of opposition political parties, the GOES agreed to begin ratification before a cease-fire of constitutional amendments stemming from the accords reached April 27, 1991 between the GOES and FMLN in Mexico. The Legislative Assembly unanimously ratified reforms dealing with human rights on September 11, reforms of the electoral system on September 25, and reforms of the judicial system on October 31. The reforms entered into effect on November 30. (The Mexico package also includes measures on military restructuring, which the Salvadoran legislature plans to ratify after a cease-fire.)

— Human rights reforms include creation of the office of a National Human Rights Ombudsman.

— The electoral reforms replace the current Central Elections Council with the Supreme Electoral Tribunal and expand its membership from three to five people in order to include a representative from the Democratic Convergence coalition of parties, which has historical links to the FMLN.

— On October 31, the Legislative Assembly ratified constitutional amendments on the judicial system that came from the April Mexico Accords with the FMLN. Reforms include giving the Legislative Assembly responsibility for electing members of the National Judicial Council which proposes the candidates to be named by the Supreme Court to trial and appeals judgeships. The constitutional reforms also call for six percent of the national budget to be reserved for the judiciary.

— Military reforms will include: better definition of the subordination of the Armed Forces to civil authority; creation of a National Civilian Police; separation of the intelligence organ from the Armed Forces; restrictions on military legal jurisdiction, abolition of paramilitary organizations; abolition of forced recruitment; and human rights training. There is also a plan for Armed Forces reduction which will reduce combat capability by approximately 65 percent.

— In September the GOES, represented by President Cristiani, and the FMLN accepted the Secretary General's invitation to meet at U.N. headquarters in New York to seek a resolution to the issues causing deadlock in the negotiations. On September 25, the two sides signed the New York Accord, which concentrated the negotiating process into one phase in order to establish, before a cease-fire, the necessary conditions and guarantees for the reintegration of FMLN members into Salvadoran society within a framework of full legality. This negotiating format replaced the previous one, designed by the Geneva and Caracas accords (of April and May 1990 respectively) which had provided for reaching a cease-fire followed by continued open-ended negotiations on political issues. The sides agreed to form a Commission for the Consolidation of the Peace (COPAZ), made up of representatives of the GOES, FMLN, and the political parties, with Catholic Church and U.N. observers. The New York accords established a new "compressed" agenda for pursuing agreement on outstanding issues, including points on the reform of the armed forces, its doctrine and training, the establishment of a new national civilian police, and on economic and social questions. The direct participation of President Cristiani and Secretary General Perez De Cuellar were considered crucial to this breakthrough.

— On October 11 in Mexico City, the GOES, FMLN and the political parties declared that COPAZ will operate under a transitional phase until the end of the conflict. During its transitional phase, COPAZ agreed to concentrate first on drafting its on implementing legislation. (COPAZ legislation has now been drafted.)

— On November 16 the FMLN leadership unilaterally declared the suspension of all offensive operations. The Government then responded with proportional and reciprocal measures to reduce military activity. While both sides have apparently violated their own unilateral truces in some instances, the level of combat has significantly decreased. The Secretary General of the United Nations welcomed the suspension of offensive operations, by both sides, noting that "this encouraging development which cannot but raise the level of confidence of the Salvadoran people in the prospects for a negotiated political solution to the conflict, but which, in the absence of specific agreements and independent monitoring, is inherently fragile."

— On December 10, the Secretary General of the United Nations named the members of the Salvadoran Truth Commission, which, as part of the Mexico Agreements, was formed with the mandate of investigating serious human rights crimes that have taken place since 1980. The three members are Belisario Betancur, former president of Colombia, Reinaldo Figueredo, former Foreign Minister of Venezuela, and Thomas Buergenthal, former president of the Interamerican Court for Human Rights and president of the Interamerican Institute for Human Rights.

— Negotiations took place from October 13 to 21 and November 3 to 16 and from November 25 to December 10 in Mexico. The talks then moved to United Nations headquarters in New York, where, in the last hours of December 31, 1991, the two sides signed a comprehensive peace agreement, including a cease-fire. The cease-fire is to begin on February 1, once ONUSAL peace keepers are in place, and continue for nine months, during which time the FMLN is to disarm and demobilize under ONUSAL supervision. The two sides are scheduled to meet again on January 5 at the U.N. to work out an exact calendar of events to match the agreements reached.

Human Rights Cases Listed in Section 538 (since July 1991)

The Jesuit Case:

Nine members of the Salvadoran military were charged with participation in the murder of six Jesuit priests, their housekeeper and her 15-year old daughter on the campus of the University of Central America (UCA) on November 16, 1989. The case was raised to the trial stage on December 7, 1990 on charges of terrorism, murder, destruction of evidence, and conspiracy to commit terrorist acts. On September 28, 1991 a jury found Col. Guillermo Benavides guilty of having ordered the murders. Lt. Yusshi Rene Mendoza was convicted of ordering the murder of the housekeeper's daughter. Seven lower-ranking soldiers, including the four who had admitted to the shooting, were exonerated by the jury of the murder charges, but still face several other charges, such as perjury and conspiracy.

The guilty verdict represents the first conviction of a high-ranking military officer for a human rights abuse. This is a historic achievement in the Salvadoran context, although the acquittal of seven other defendants, suspicions regarding the possibility of higher-level involvement, and other pending charges leave the case not yet completely resolved. Individual members of the Armed Forces did not appear to cooperate fully during the investigation and trial. Some military officers destroyed evidence, perjured themselves, and/or provided sketchy or contradictory testimony, raising questions about possible involvement beyond the defendants, though no firm evidence substantiating allegations on this point has yet surfaced.

The jury apparently made a distinction between the ordering and the carrying out of the murders when it found seven lower-ranking soldiers not guilty of murder. Convicted Col. Benavides and Lt. Mendoza, as well as Lt. Jose Ricardo Espinoza Guerra and Lt. Gonzalo Guevarra Cerritos still have charges pending against them of conspiracy to commit terrorist acts. The maximum sentence is three years, but the accused can be credited with time already served. Lt. Col. Camilo Hernandez and Lt. Mendoza also face charges of obstruction of justice and three soldiers also face perjury charges. Judge Zamora is expected to announce final sentences for the colonel and lieutenant convicted of murder at the same time he rules on obstruction of justice and other charges against other defendants and on civil damage claims filed by the University of Central America. One exonerated defendant who was tried in absentia due to his desertion has still not been found.

On October 29 Judge Zamora raised to plenary the case of three enlisted soldiers charged with perjury in the Jesuit case. By raising the case to plenary, Zamora has ruled that there is sufficient evidence against the defendants to try them before a jury. The suspects, Sgt. Hector Solorzano Esquivel, Sub-Sgt. Rufino Barrientos Ramos and soldier Hector Maravilla Chavez allegedly gave false testimony to the court in October 1990 about their presence at the University of Central America on the night of the murders. Appeals of the judge's ruling are expected to take several months, after which a trial will be held if the judge's decision raising the case to plenary is upheld. The maximum sentence for perjury is eight years in prison.

On October 29 defense attorneys petitioned for Judge Zamora's recusal from the case. The First Criminal Appeals Court of San Salvador rejected the petition without prejudice on procedural grounds. The petition sought to bar Judge Zamora from sentencing convicted Col. Benavides and Lt. Yusshy Mendoza on murder charges, ruling on conspiracy charges against Lt. Espinoza Guerra and Lt. Guevara Cerritos and ruling on obstruction of justice charges against Lt. Col. Camilo Hernandez and Lt. Yusshy Mendoza. The defense attorneys re-submitted their petition on other grounds, again suspending action on the case; a decision on their petition is expected shortly.

Jesuit Provincial for Central America, Father Jose Maria Tojeira, asked the Salvadoran National Assembly on December 18 to investigate the possible involvement of higher-ups in the Jesuit murders. His statement did not make specific allegations against any individuals.

After the September 28 verdict, the soldiers and officers who had been indicted for the murders or for related crimes, whether found guilty or not-guilty, were dismissed from the Salvadoran military, except for those officers whose verdicts were still pending. (Dismissal from the armed forces in cases pending verdicts could be seen as prejudicial, perhaps creating an appeal opportunity for the defendants.)

Murder of Ten Peasants Near San Franciso (San Sebastian Case): On September 12, 1988, a military patrol detained ten peasants from Canton San Francisco, San Sebastian Municipality, San Vicente Department. Soon afterward, villagers heard two explosions and small arms fire. The next day, they found the dead bodies of all ten peasants. The military claimed that eight suspected FMLN collaborators and two captured guerrillas were killed when the column escorting the detainees to the helicopter was ambushed by guerrillas. The victims' families allege that the military executed all ten. The judge in San Sebastian investigated the killings and concluded that the villagers had been murdered.

There was very little progress in the case until Vice President Quayle visited El Salvador in February 1989 and emphasized US concern about the case. A special military honor board was formed to review the evidence and found cause to dismiss two officers and seven enlisted men from military service and turn them over to a judge for prosecution. Eventually, a total of twelve soldiers were arrested between February 13 and March 2, 1989. Several writs of habeas corpus filed in March 1989 were not resolved by the Supreme Court until September 1989, when the case was remanded to the court in San Sebastian.

Received
El Salvador Human Rights

On February 8, 1990, the judge of the First Instance Court of San Sebastian ruled that there was insufficient evidence to proceed to trial against ten of the accused and ordered their release. At the same time, he ordered trial proceedings initiated against Major Mauricio de Jesus Beltran and a sub-sergeant. The defense and the prosecution immediately filed appeals of the judge's ruling.

On April 27, the First Criminal Appeals Court of San Vicente ordered trial proceedings initiated against Beltran in the original court but held that there was insufficient evidence to initiate trial proceedings against the sub-sergeant. In addition, the appeals court also confirmed the finding of insufficient evidence against the other ten defendants, dropped all charges against them, and ordered their immediate release. On June 26, the Supreme Court granted a petition from the prosecutors and transferred the case against Major Beltran, the only remaining defendant, from San Sebastian to the Sixth Criminal Judge of San Salvador.

In September 1991, Major Beltran again petitioned the Supreme Court for habeas corpus relief. The Supreme Court appointed Rafael Moran Castaneda as the executive judge, who recommended that Beltran be released. In a report dated November 25, 1991 Judge Moran Castaneda concluded that the evidence against Beltran is insufficient to warrant his further detention and trial. Moran Castaneda based his findings on the lower court decisions which had dismissed charges against the lower ranking material authors suspected of the massacre. If the evidence was insufficient against those believed to have pulled the trigger, argued Moran Castaneda, it must also be insufficient against the alleged intellectual author of the crime. The Constitutional Chamber of the Supreme Court will now review Moran Castaneda's conclusions in light of the entire Supreme Court record and make the final decision. Major Beltran remains in the custody of the National Police.

Murders of Michael Hammer, Mark Pearlman and Jose Rodolfo Viera (The Sheraton Case): On January 4, 1981 Jose Rodolfo Viera, head of the Agrarian Reform Institute, Michael Hammer and Mark Pearlman, both of the American Institute for Free Labor Development (AIFLD) were murdered. In April 1981 the Salvadoran Government arrested Ricardo Sol Meza, the owner of the Sheraton hotel where the murders had been committed, and requested the extradition of Hans Christ, a businessman who had fled to the United States. In the fall of 1981 a judge suspended all action in the case on the grounds that there was insufficient evidence to implicate Christ and Sol Meza in the murders. That decision was upheld by a court of appeals in April 1982 and Sol Meza was released. In September 1982 two Salvadoran National Guard enlisted men confessed to having committed the murders and alleged that Lt. Rodolfo Lopez Sibrian and Capt. Eduardo Ernesto Alfonso Avila and businessman Hans Christ ordered them to kill Viera and the two Americans. In December 1982 the case against Lopez Sibrian was dismissed due to insufficient evidence against him. In April 1983 an appellate court upheld the dismissal of charges against Lopez Sibrian and in November 1983 the supreme court denied the appeal of the appellate court decision. On December 19, 1983, as a result of the direct intervention by then-Vice President Bush, Captain Avila was arrested. On March 22, 1984 Avila was released. The two enlisted men were convicted of the murders on February 14, 1986. On December 19, 1987 an appeals court decided that the case came under the Esquipulas II Central American peace accords amnesty program, freed the two convicted murderers, and dropped charges against former Captain Eduardo Avila, the alleged mastermind of the crime. There are no active efforts at this time to re-open this case.

Bombing of FENASTRAS Headquarters: A bomb killed ten people and wrecked the offices of the FENASTRAS labor federation on October 31, 1989. In the days following the bombing, President Cristiani called for an investigatory commission to look into the crime. FENASTRAS initially refused to permit the Special Investigative Unit to conduct a physical examination of the site. Salvadoran investigators, assisted by FBI explosives incidents personnel, were not permitted by FENASTRAS to visit the site until November 8, 1989. By then FENASTRAS employees had cleaned up the site, thereby destroying much of the evidence. Efforts to investigate the bombing were further hampered by the beginning of the FMLN's major military offensive eleven days after the bombing. In September 1990, FENASTRAS leaders offered to present new evidence regarding the bombing and asked the US Embassy for assistance. To date, however, they have produced no new evidence or witnesses.

FMLN Receipt of Lethal Military Assistance (since July 1991)

The FMLN has no source of supply in El Salvador for their Soviet-made surface-to-air missiles, standard-issue AK-47 automatic rifles, Dragonov sniper rifles, mortars, rocket propelled grenade launchers, machine guns, etc. The FMLN relies on external support for these weapons, ammunition, and much other materiel. We have no indication that the guerrillas have begun to run low on arms or ammunition. We also continue to receive reports from credible sources that both the Government of Cuba and elements within the Nicraguan Sandinista Popular Army continue to supply and train the FMLN, despite denials by both the Cubans and the Sandinistas.

In the past, when complicity of Sandinista Air Force officers in smuggling highly sophisticated surface-to-air missiles to the FMLN has been proven, the Sandinistas have claimed that the incidents had been rogue operations, without institutional authorization. It has been difficult to evaluate this Sandinista claim of institutional innocence, however, since considerable quantities of war materiel are still reported to be shipped from or through Sandinista hands to the FMLN. High-level FMLN commanders are also reported to operate out of Managua, the FMLN maintains political and propaganda organs there, and the principal FMLN radio broadcasts from Nicaragua.

[illegible] Human Rights

The Administration is prepared to update the appropriate congressional committees on information on this topic which has not been made public.

Specific arms trafficking incidents which have been made public during the period covered by this report include:

— On August 22, Salvadoran authorities captured an FMLN cache in San Salvador which contained over four tons of weapons, the single largest seizure of the war. The cache contained a variety of mostly Soviet-made weapons, munitions, and other materiel.

— On October 19 a Nicaraguan military court convicted six Nicaraguans of stealing and attempting to sell to the FMLN five SA-14 surface-to-air missile firing mechanisms, 13 SA-14 rockets, seven SA-7s, about 700 82mm mortar rounds, and a large number of RPG rockets. It remained unclear, however, how low-ranking Sandinista military officials could have stolen so large a quantity of arms without more senior level coordination.

— On November 10 the Honduran Army intercepted a truck coming from Nicaragua, which was smuggling ten military radios, batteries, and over 22,000 rounds of rifle ammunition.

— On November 11, the Honduran Army intercepted another truck coming from Nicaragua, this one carrying 51 walkie-talkie radios and antennas, blasting cord, blasting caps, and 5099 rounds of 5.56 ammunition for the M-16 rifle.

— The Honduran Army announced on November 29 that it had seized an arsenal in the western part of the country which was intended for the FMLN. The arsenal included accessories for RPG rocket launchers, explosives, bases for 60 mm mortars, 9 mm bullets for Soviet-made pistols, blasting caps, and other materiel.

Attacks Against Civilians

Discerning a trend or pattern in the level of political violence in El Salvador is difficult, and the collection and classification of information on politically motivated killings is not uniform. Common criminal murders may be disguised as political killings while political murders may be wrongly classified as common crimes. Credible reports indicate that both the Armed Forces and the FMLN continue to commit political and extrajudicial killings, but a decade-long decline in the number of suspicious killings continued in 1991.

There were no confirmed cases of killings by death squads (right wing terrorist groups which may include personnel from the security forces) nor cases where death squads claimed responsibility for murders during the reporting period. Nonetheless, human rights organizations continued to ascribe certain suspicious deaths to death squads. The UN Special Rapporteur concluded in his 1991 report that the ESAF's

El Salvador Human Rights
Special Collection

involvement or acquiescence in death squad activity was credible but difficult to verify.

Numerous death threats were reported in 1991. Most notable were those issued by the self-styled Salvadoran Anti-Communist Front (FAS) to a variety of groups beginning in May. The FAS demanded that businesses halt service to members of the UN, the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), and other humanitarian organizations it claimed violated Salvadoran sovereignty. Later communiques were delivered to individuals, including two members of the National Assembly; religious, union and social organization leaders; and two U.S. journalists. The GOES has denounced the threats, but GOES investigations have not determined their source or sources.

ONUSAL's second report, released on November 15, includes a section on cases in which "prima facie" responsibility could be assigned to the state and its agents. These include cases in which the state failed to comply with its obligation to prevent illegal acts or to investigate, prosecute, and punish the guilty, as well as cases of actual involvement in the killings. The section lists nine separate cases.

— The first three clearly involve ESAF (including security forces) perpetrators and suspects are being held in two of the three. The suspect in the third case has been identified but has apparently fled the country.

— In only one of these cases, the September 25 killing of Jose Samuel Fuentes Marroquin, is a political motive apparent. The National Police arrested one of its own and a member of the Santa Tecla Municipal Police for allegedly torturing and killing Fuentes on suspicion of hiding weapons. ONUSAL praises the arrest of these suspects, despite their official status, as "a clear message directed at members of the security force personnel about the need to abstain from such practices in the future."

— In the third case "a soldier or ex-soldier" threw a grenade into a crowd at a party killing eight and wounding 26. The Defense Ministry, among others, reported the case to ONUSAL and according to the Attorney General the perpetrator was identified but left the country. The motive was apparently revenge against a young woman who refused the murderer's invitation to dance.

— The fourth case involves accusations that on September 7 police guarding the military hospital in San Salvador beat Rosalio Hernandez Mendez to death. The guards had allegedly demanded that Hernandez perform some service for them. Hernandez said he could not be late for work but promised to return later to do it. Hernandez reportedly returned during his lunch break and was captured by the police, taken away, and beaten. He later died from his injuries. ONUSAL has investigated, but has been unable to determine conclusively what happened.

— ONUSAL's reports that the first four cases deal with allegations of killings by present or ex-ESAF personnel without any apparent involvement by the ESAF as an institution. The military High Command reportedly informed ONUSAL that in September alone, 11 members of the ESAF were turned over to judges for alleged abuses against the life, security, or property of civilians.

The remaining five cases in this section of the November 15 ONUSAL report involve killings by unknown persons, but are used by ONUSAL to emphasize the obligation of the state to protect citizens and investigate, prosecute, and punish murderers.

— In the first case, the ESAF told ONUSAL that Rigoberto Hernandez Argueta was kidnapped September 23 by 20 well-armed men the ESAF called "delinquent terrorists," a term often used to refer to the FMLN.

— In the second case, on September 24 a member of the SUTC construction union, Miguel Angel Martinez, was found murdered on the side of a main road in San Salvador. SUTC leaders had previously been threatened by the self styled "Salvadoran Anticommunist Front (FAS)." ONUSAL notes that the special investigative unit (SIU) is on the case.

— In the third case, Jose Edgardo Guevara and Oscar Armando Lopez were allegedly abducted by an unidentified man August 3 and later found murdered.

— In the fourth case, Waldo Acosta Brizuela, an ex-member of the Treasury Police, was found dead of gun shots to the head September 23 allegedly after having been forced to get off a bus.

— In the fifth case, occurring in August, "John Doe" was allegedly seized by four masked uniformed men carrying pistols. The victim was taken away, tortured, and killed.

— ONUSAL says the above five cases "present many of the characteristics of the phenomenon frequently denounced as actions of 'death squads.'" ONUSAL adds that the evidence does not show that GOES elements were directly involved in these killings or that the murderers acted with the support or tolerance of the authorities. However, ONUSAL adds that there is a "pattern of failure to take adequate measures to prevent, investigate, and prosecute suspicious murders."

— The U.N. Rapporteur's 1991 report mentions continuing accusations of "death squad" activity which may include members of the security forces, without discarding the possibility that some of these accusations may actually stem from common, rather than political, crimes. The report cites Tutela Legal's figures on political execution by death squads as being down from 51 in 1990 to 30 in 1991. The U.N. report explains the difficulty in defining which crimes are properly attributable to death squads and notes that it is "unable to come to definitive conclusions in specific cases and cannot exclude that common crimes are covered up through apparent death squad activity.

-- The UN report cites the case of the murder of Isaac Martinez, a former leftist political candidate, as an example of an alleged death squad case later found to have been a common crime. Martinez' wife and stepson later confessed to having killed him in self defense.

-- Although the preponderance of evidence suggests that the case stemmed from a common crime, some have tried to portray the July 8 murder of Martin Ayala, a nightwatchman for a leftist organization, and the wounding of his wife as politically motivated.

The ONUSAL report says that Cristian Vladimir Martinez, who had allegedly been detained by the National Guard in April, was taken from his house by five armed men dressed in street clothes in June. The Supreme Court told ONUSAL that Martinez is not being held by the security forces. ONUSAL reports paying special attention to the issue of disappearances but is unable at this time to reach definitive conclusions about whether a pattern of disappearances continues. In the case cited, ONUSAL points out that it is unclear whether elements of the state were involved in the abduction. However, ONUSAL adds that the lack of adequate investigation of disappearances makes it difficult to determine what happened. ONUSAL notes that many "disappearances" turn out to be forced recruitment or arbitrary or illegal detentions.

The ONUSAL report mentions five cases of torture or mistreatment of prisoners, including one in Santa Ana, in which prison officials have been arrested. The victim in this case was found dead, hanging in his cell but it is possible he died from police mistreatment. Investigation of this case continues. On October 5 a woman was allegedly detained by men in civilian dress, taken to a "military brigade," and raped repeatedly before being transferred to the National Police the next day. Commanders of the brigade in question claim to be investigating the allegations. A medical examination of the victim has reportedly been performed and both a judge and the Special Investigative Unit are involved in the investigation.

ONUSAL says it is premature to conclude that a systemic practice of torture or mistreatment exists in El Salvador. ONUSAL adds that the maintenance of prisoners "incommunicado" is a major factor in facilitating mistreatment. ONUSAL's presence and ability to visit any detainee at any time has provided improved guarantees to detainees.

FMLN Attacks on Civilian Targets and Injuring Civilians

-- The U.S. Embassy in San Salvador estimates that direct and indirect damage to the economy inflicted by the FMLN in 1990 totalled $125 million. Actual production losses to industry, commerce, and agriculture totalled $45 million -- equivolent to 1.2 percent of GDP. These losses likely reduced real GDP growth by more than 25 percent. The FMLN executed more than 1,000 bombing attacks against primary and secondary electrical transmission lines and power stations in 1990. FMLN attacks against civilian targets declined slightly in 1991 as compared to 1990. ONUSAL also points out that FMLN economic sabotage, including attacks on the electrical grid, affect the rights of many civilians, including the right to access to medical care, employment, and education. The 1991 report of the U.N. Special Rapporteur for El Salvador discusses FMLN economic sabotage, including attacks on the electrical grid as well as on banks and construction companies, and mentions FMLN extortion letters to businesspeople. Despite its 1990 announcement that it would target only military installations and the electric grid, in April the FMLN burned at least 12 civilian vehicles and, in August and September, attacked model homes and banks in the capital and destroyed two beach houses belonging to ESAF officers.

-- ONUSAL reports that Serafino Orlando Merino was captured in Cabanas by the FMLN and summarily executed July 31. Both local FMLN commanders and the political/diplomatic committee of the FMLN confirm that Merino was shot, allegedly at the request of local residents who accused him of being a torturer.

-- The FMLN continued to put civilians at risk by using inaccurate weapons to attack military installations.

-- In the process of taking the town of Guazapa for a half day on July 22, the FMLN killed a six year old girl.

-- The FMLN often forcibly occupied civilian homes for use as shelters and bases to attack government targets.

-- On September 10, Lorena del Carmen Diaz Romero, 16 years old, was killed when an FMLN projectile hit her house in San Miguel. ONUSAL established that the ESAF units involved in combat with the FMLN were over 500 meters from Ms. Diaz' house.

-- Jose Vicente Burgos, 64 years old, was killed during an FMLN attack on the city hall and the Civil Defense headquarters of Apastepeque. The FMLN admitted having conducted the attack and ONUSAL urged the FMLN to avoid the indiscriminate use of force.

-- FMLN use of unmarked, indiscriminately placed mines and booby traps is also a cause of death and maiming of civilians. However, the use of these mines seems to be declining. Twenty-three civilians were killed in the first five months of 1990 and four in the first five months of 1991.

-- The ONUSAL report details alleged threats to GOES officials, the families of ESAF personnel, alleged informants, FMLN deserters, and peasants. The FMLN admits threatening GOES officials entering certain areas.

— "Jane Doe" allegedly received a letter from the FMLN August 11 ordering her to leave the area and ordering her to "change her attitude." The FMLN confirmed that it expels "informants" from certain areas but had no details on this case.

— "John Doe" was forced to leave Usulutan after threats from the FMLN in 1989 and is unable to return. The FMLN told ONUSAL that the victim was an FMLN deserter and could not return.

— "Jane Doe" of Chalatenango claims that she was threatened by the FMLN because her son left the FMLN. The FMLN admitted to ONUSAL that it had talked to "the mother of the deserter" but denied threatening her.

— On September 2 the FMLN detained two employees of the National Commission for the Restoration of Areas (CONARA) in La Union. The FMLN threatened the workers and burned their vehicle.

— Three members of a municipal council in Usulutan were threatened by the FMLN August 19 for "exercising municipal activities in areas of insurgent control." ONUSAL calls these threats against the right to integrity and security of the person unjustified.

— Various people have complained to ONUSAL that the FMLN threatens them if they refuse to help the guerrillas. Many residents of Morazan report receiving letters demanding payment of "war taxes." The FMLN admits seeking such payments. Many residents declined to talk to ONUSAL about these types of payments out of fear of FMLN reprisal.

— The FMLN claimed credit for assassinations of two off-duty officers: Captain Carlos Alfredo Lopez was killed on June 17 as he left his home for work, and Captain Nestor Ariel Lam was killed July 24 as he was driving to his job at the engineering battalion in Zacatecoluca.

— Guillermo "Billy" Sol, businessman and ARENA treasurer, was kidnapped by unknown assailants on July 18. Despite charges by ARENA politicians, there is no evidence that he was taken by the FMLN.

— The FMLN admitted on August 6 that it had kidnapped rancher Gregorio Zelaya in early July in Usulutan. Zelaya was released after a "political arrangement" had been negotiated with his family on August 23. According to a U.N. report, the "arrangement" included the payment of ransom.

— Archbishop Rivera y Damas noted that fellow bishops had also mediated in several lower-profile kidnappings by the FMLN.

— On August 25, near the Segundo Montes community in Morazan,

the FMLN detained a clearly marked military ambulance carrying a wounded soldier, Emerson Vigil, for seven hours. When the ambulance was recovered, Vigil's intravenous transfusion had been disconnected and he was dead.

— On October 12, FMLN member Jorge Alberto Miranda was found guilty of the murder of Herbert Ernesto Anaya, the coordinator of the governmental human rights commission (CDHES). Although Miranda confessed, neither the CDHES nor Anaya's widow believe he is guilty.

— U.N. Rapporteur's report quotes the Archbishopric of San Salvador's legal assistance office, Tutela Legal, to the effect that summary executions by the FMLN increased from 12 in 1990 to 15 in 1991.

— The U.N. Rapporteur and ONUSAL criticize the FMLN for forcing minors to join their ranks.

— On January 2, the FMLN shot down a US military helicopter carrying United States Army Lieutenant Colonel David Pickett, Airman Ernest Dawson, and Chief Warrant Officer Daniel Scott near San Miguel. Although the victims were not civilians, as US military personnel, they were non-combatants. Scott died in the crash, but Pickett and Dawson survived and were later murdered. Eyewitnesses testified that Pickett and Dawson were ambulatory when they climbed out of their helicopter and that they were beaten before being shot at point blank range. After an initial denial, the FMLN admitted that two of their combatants shot Pickett and Dawson but claimed that these crimes were actually mercy killings. Both the US and Salvadoran governments have investigated these murders, and the U.S. has issued an indictment for one suspect. The U.S. investigation continues. Faced with the evidence, the FMLN admitted that two of its members may have committed murder, but the FMLN has refused to turn these suspects over to Salvadoran or US authorities and there are reports that, contrary to its claims, the FMLN has not even detained them.

Armed Forces Attacks on Civilian Targets and Injuring Civilians

— ONUSAL's report cites three cases in which the ESAF allegedly fired into civilian communities in Chalatenango and Cabanas: August 29/31 in Comunidad Hacienda Vieja, July 21 and 27 and August 7/8 in Santa Marta and other communities, and September 7 in San Francisco in Cabanas. ONUSAL says that it is difficult to reconstruct the circumstances of possible combat leading to these damages. The report notes that it is important to point out that incidents of this sort attributed to the ESAF are occasional, rather than systematic.

— Nongovernmental organizations said that combat between FMLN combatants and ESAF forces in or near repatriate communities led to civilian casualties including the death of 9 month old Mayra Morelvis Salazar during fighting in the area of San Jose Las Flores, Chalatenango on September 2. ONUSAL stated that a line of fire existed from an ESAF position to the house where the child was killed and urged both sides to avoid putting civilians at risk. In skirmishes in the Segundo Montes repatriate community in Morazan on August 18, Dora Alicia Gonzalez was injured and suffered a miscarriage. In this case, ONUSAL said the ESAF used excessive force in reacting to civilians carrying rocks and machetes.

-- The 1991 report of the U.N. Special Rapporteur for El Salvador reports that the Armed Forces continue to cause civilian deaths and injuries during combat with the FMLN but "not in a deliberate, generalized, or indiscriminate manner but rather occasionally through lack of precautions." The report also notes that the number of allegations of such incidents is lower than last year.

-- There continued to be credible charges that persons disappeared after being seized by the security services during 1991. Amnesty International noted in its report covering 1990 that the number of disappeared persons is declining. The constitution and government policy forbid unacknowledged detention by the security forces or military. According to press reports, a total of 79 civilians disappeared between January and June. This figure may include lost or runaway children, and persons who desert their families, emigrate, or join guerrilla ranks. Many persons originally reported missing had been legally arrested and reported to human rights organizations.

-- The U.N. Rapporteur's 1991 report discusses the dispersal of demonstrating crowds as an attack on the demonstrators. The report particularly cites clashes during a public sector employees' strike, although the most serious injury that occurred was sustained by a policeman and the authorities waited over a week before evicting strikers illegally occupying public buildings. The report also mentions the use of force in evicting squatters from illegally occupied land.

-- The ESAF attempts to control the flow of food and medical supplies and access of humanitarian organizations to villages (including repatriate communities) in areas of combat or heavy guerrilla presence. The Inter-American Human Rights Commission (IAHRC) reported that the ESAF subjects civilians living in war zones to arbitrary searches, harassment, and threats. Credible reports indicate that supplies going to repatriate communities are diverted to the guerillas. FMLN guerrillas routinely use resettlement camps as support bases.

-- Credible reports of torture and abuse of detainees by the public security forces and the military continued in 1991 despite some improvement as a result of new orders issued by the military High Command in July 1990 prohibiting such mistreatment. Most reports charge that human rights violations occur during the 72-hour period of administrative detention, prior to the presentation of a prisoner before a judge. During 1991 government forces also continued to resort to abusive tactics to intimidate noncombatants perceived as FMLN sympathizers. The number of persons detained on suspicion of subversive offenses declined by more than 50 percent. From January to August 1990, 881 persons were detained; during the same period in 1991, 371 were detained. Of those detained in 1991, 195 were subsequently released and never formally charged, while the remainder were consigned to the courts. According to the Supreme Court's information office, 2,000-3,000 persons were arrested every month from January to August by the security forces and the courts. Nearly two-thirds of these detainees were not formally charged and were released before seeing a judge.

— The 1991 report of the U.N. Special Rapporteur for El Salvador said that summary executions by government forces continued in 1991 at a slightly lower rate than in 1990. The report cited figures compiled by Tutela Legal, alleging that politically motivated executions committed by the Armed Forces were down from 45 in 1990 to 41 in 1991.

— The U.N. Rapporteur's report notes a drastic reduction in the number of allegations that the security services detained people for political motives. The report also points to Tutela Legal's figures that the number of persons detained and not released [illegible] down from 316 in 1990 to 145 in 1991.

— On October 9 a Sonsonate jury exonerated 13 Civil Defense members for the murder of approximately 29 persons in 1980-82, in what has been known as the Armenia wells case. Eight were tried in absentia, while the other seven have been incarcerated since 1983, when the 29 corpses were exhumed. The defendants were denied amnesty on 1988, on the grounds that the murders were not political in nature.

— Conscription by the Salvadoran Armed Forces continues to be largely arbitrary.

ANNEX: Informal translation of text

Act of New York

The Government of El Salvador and the Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front declare that they have reached definitive agreements, which together with those previously signed in San Jose, Mexico and New York, reach the culmination of the negotiation on all substantive themes of the Agenda of Caracas and of the Compressed Negotiation of New York. Their execution will put a definitive end to the Salvadoran armed conflict.

An agreement has also been reached on all the technical-military aspects of the separation and the cessation of armed confrontation, which includes the end of the military structure of the FMLN and the reincorporation of its members into the civil, political and institutional life of the country, within a framework of full legality.

The Parties have likewise agreed that the cessation of armed confrontation will formally begin on February 1, 1992 and will conclude on October 31, 1992.

January 5, 1992 has been fixed as the date for another meeting between the parties in order to negotiate the calendar of execution of the accords and for the method to be followed to end the military structure of the FMLN and reincorporation of its members, within a framework of full legality, into the civil, political and institutional life of the country.

Said negotiations must yield positive results no later than January 10, 1992. If this does not occur, the parties commit themselves to accept the formula for unresolved issues that will be presented by the Secretary General of the United Nations, no later than January 14, 1992. The Final Peace Accords will be signed in Mexico City on January 16, 1992.

The Parties commit themselves to maintain the necessary climate to continue and deepen the unilateral decisions which they have taken to avoid all military activity.

Executive Summary

Despite the first transfer of power between elected civilian presidents in recent history, Guatemala remains a country heavily burdened by persistent human rights violations and by a dominant and powerful military. President Jorge Serrano Elias, operating from a weak political base, has stated his intention to exert civilian control over the military and has advanced negotiations between his government and the URNG rebels with the aim of achieving a political settlement to the ongoing civil war. The continued impunity enjoyed by the military and police force as regards human rights violations makes this task infinitely more difficult. The current stalemate in the negotiations results in large part from the government's unwillingness to implement tangible human rights guarantees prior to any demobilization by the rebels. The rebels, on the other hand, insist on such guarantees prior to giving up their arms.

The delegation found no tangible improvement in the human rights situation in Guatemala after nine months of the Serrano government, notwithstanding President Serrano's stated intentions to hold the military and police accountable for human rights abuses. The delegation did note the fact that the issue of human rights has become a legitimate and common topic for political discussion. The delegation recognizes the positive role played by United States Ambassador Thomas Stroock, by the Bush Administration and by the Congress in highlighting rights abuses involving both American citizens and Guatemalans.

The delegation concluded that any progress in the investigation of human rights cases and the prosecution of those responsible for human rights abuses will be dependent on President Serrano's good intentions, coupled with his willingness to implement consistent and substantive human rights policies. Such progress will also depend on a commitment by the United States to tie the provision of economic assistance and the maintenance of trade privileges for Guatemala to material improvements in the respect for human rights, as measured by objective and articulable standards. The United States should increase its support for the ongoing negotiations between the Guatemalan government and the URNG rebels.

Introduction and Purpose of the Trip

The delegation was constituted in order to determine whether there had been substantial progress in the respect for human rights in Guatemala in the nine months since the election of President Jorge Serrano. In addition, the delegation sought information from the parties involved in the historic and ongoing peace talks between the Serrano government and the URNG guerrillas.

The dawn of 1991 saw the inauguration of Jorge Serrano Elias as Guatemala's president. His election marked the first peaceful transfer of power between elected governments in the country's recent history. Serrano's predecessor, Christian Democrat Vinicio Cerezo, was widely credited with squandering a strong political mandate, lowering the credibility of democratic civilian government, and leaving behind a much deteriorated human rights situation. After Cerezo's term, as before it, the Guatemalan military continued to exercise effective power in the country. Serrano's rhetoric gave rise to expectations that he could succeed where Cerezo had failed. Notwithstanding serious outstanding as well as new cases of human rights violations, US policymaking circles decided to give the new president an opportunity to implement his own programs and to demonstrate a willingness to tackle thorny issues. Nine months into the Serrano administration, sufficient time had passed to permit an assessment of progress.

Delegation Participants:

Representative Peter H. Kostmayer (Democrat from Pennsylvania's Eighth District);

Craig Powers, Legislative Assistant to Representative Constance Morella (Republican from Maryland's Eighth District);

Richard D. Glick, Legislative Assistant to Rep. Peter Kostmayer;

Kenneth Klothen, Executive Director of Children's Rights International;

John Ruthrauff, Member of the Board of the US-Guatemala Labor Education Project;

Patrick Lacefield, Associate Director of the Commission on United States-Latin American Relations.

Election of the Serrano Government

Vinicio Cerezo's election, in December of 1985, had marked a return to civilian government in Guatemala after two decades of military rule. Before the election, however, the military granted itself an amnesty for all human rights violations. Nonetheless, Cerezo seemed to augur a new day. He vowed to defend civil rights and liberties, to fight for the poor majority, to modernize the economy, to end the impunity enjoyed by the army and security forces with regard to human rights abuses, and to force Guatemala's tiny, conservative elite to pay their fair share of taxes.

Cerezo's performance, however, frustrated this vision and dashed the hopes of the vast majority of Guatemalans. His economic policies neither addressed the horrific social inequalities that existed, nor did they boost the woefully low standard of living of most Guatemalans. This was due in part to the intransigence of advantaged groups, but also reflected the ineptitude and corruption within Cerezo's administration. According to the U.S. Drug Enforcement Agency, Guatemala became a major center for the transshipment of drugs into the United States during Cerezo's term with the hands-on involvement of officials in the Guatemalan military.

Weakened by a series of abortive military coups, Cerezo never used his substantial political mandate to challenge the power of the military or to terminate the impunity they enjoyed, especially after May of 1988. According to the non-governmental Guatemalan Human Rights Commission, in the five years of the Cerezo government there were 2,456 extra-judicial killings, 565 disappearances, and 42 massacres with 230 additional victims. By the end of Cerezo's term not one single case of political assassination or disappearance had been resolved. Not only were the military and the police not held accountable for human rights abuses but even those army officers implicated in coup attempts against the government went unprosecuted. Forced recruitment of young men into the ranks of the military continued as before. So, too, did the formation of all-but-mandatory "civil patrols" made up of reluctant peasants in the countryside. Both practices explicitly violated the terms of Guatemala's 1985 constitution.

In the election of 1990, early indications pointed to a victory for former Guatemala dictator General Efrain Rios Montt. Rios Montt previously had held power pursuant to a 1982 military coup. During his rule, Rios Montt accelerated the army's rural counter-insurgency program at the cost of nearly 400 destroyed villages and thousands of persons killed. Under the new 1985 constitution, persons involved in leading illegal seizures of state power were barred from running for the presidency but they were not barred from serving as president. Seizing this legal anomaly, Rios Montt declared his candidacy. His campaign was riding high until the Supreme Court ruled him ineligible.

Jorge Serrano, with his newly-formed MAS party, picked up where Rios Montt left off. Serrano, also an evangelical, had served as Chief of the Council of State under Rios Montt after starting his political career in Christian Democratic student politics. Serrano finished on top in the first round of elections, then handily dispatched Jorge Carpio Nicolle of the center-right Union of the National Center party (who had lost the 1985 race to Cerezo) in the run-off. Both electoral rounds were marked by a low turnout of eligible voters. When Jorge Serrano took office in January 1991, the military establishment continued to overshadow Guatemala's civilian government.

An Assessment of President Serrano and His Administration

In discussions with a broad spectrum of persons, the delegation heard over and over again the view that, on a personal level, President Serrano was a man of good will and good intentions, but that he lacked substantial political support. Moreover, outside of government circles, the consensus was that Serrano's political weakness and the continued power of the Army made his good will and intentions far less relevant than would otherwise be the case.

Speaker of the Congress Ana Catarina Soberanis, a Christian Democrat, pointed out that Serrano's MAS party is only the third largest force in the Congress with only 18 of 116 seats and that the party holds only 13 of the 330 mayoral posts.This necessitates a patchquilt coalition which was weakened even as the delegation was in the country by the resignation of Foreign Minister Alvaro Arzu of the Party of National Advance (PAN), who disagreed with Serrano's efforts to improve relations with neighboring Belize.

"The only breathing space that Serrano has is the dialogue for peace," said Rony Ochaeta, the director of the Human Rights Office of the Catholic Archdiocese of Guatemala. "Without this, he'd be even more isolated. This government is better at speeches... the situation requires leadership."

Even Pablo Monsanto, a member of the General Command of the rebel army Guatemalan National Revolutionary Unity (URNG), told one member of the delegation in Mexico City that he professed a belief in the President's good will. "We believe he has an honest desire for peace and has good intentions," said Monsanto, who has participated in the negotiations between the government and the rebels. "He wants to step up the pace of the talks, but...he faces obstacles from intransigent sectors and from divisions within the military, and suffers from his own extremely weak political base."

Also plaguing Serrano is an economy characterized by a sharp decline in the living standards of Guatemalans. While the business sector is happy that his policies have brought down inflation and stabilized the exchange rate of the quetzal, food and electricity rates have skyrocketed. According to a recent poll taken by La Cronica, Guatemala's equivalent to Newsweek, Serrano's popularity has declined from 71 percent approval in January to 35 percent in October.

Human Rights Under the Serrano Government

A primary objective of the delegation was to ascertain whether the human rights situation had improved, deteriorated or remained stable during the first nine months of the Serrano administration. To place Guatemala's human rights situation in context, one need only quote from the Guatemala section of the State Department's 1990 Country Reports on Human Rights Practices. It states:

> "Due primarily to a lack of will, authorities did not stem growing violence during 1990. Reliable evidence indicates that security forces and civil patrols committed, with almost total impunity, a majority of the major human rights abuses. These included extrajudicial killings, torture, and disappearances of, among others, human rights activists, unionists, indigenous people, and street children." (emphasis added)

said that in the first six months of 1991 there were 116 confirmed cases of extrajudicial killings, excluding common crimes and those killings for which adequate evidence was not available. During this period, the Procurator's office confirmed 127 cases of forced disappearances and kidnappings. The office also received 234 complaints of forced recruitment into the military during the period and 270 complaints of threats, illegal detentions and torture or mistreatment.

The Catholic Archdiocese Office on Human Rights documented 477 extrajudicial killings as of September 20, including nine political assassinations. The Committee on Peasant Unity, a popular organization based in the north of the country, tallied 27 killings and no kidnappings in July, 59 killings and 23 kidnappings in August.

Representatives of the government asserted that human rights violations were diminishing. They argued that many of the cases that have become contentious issues in U.S.-Guatemalan relations (the killings of American innkeeper Michael Devine and Guatemalan anthropologist/social activist Myrna Mack, the kidnapping and torture of Ursuline nun and U.S. citizen Sister Dianna Ortiz, and the Santiago Atitlan massacre of 13 peasants) happened during Cerezo's term. The implication was that the Serrano government bore less of a responsibility to investigate or prosecute cases that had not occurred on its "watch".

The delegation met with Colonel Paiz, then Chief of the National Police, and with representatives of the Interior Ministry. Colonel Paiz initially asserted that the human rights problem in Guatemala resulted from a sensationalist press and that there were no political assassinations in the country. In the face of the delegation's disbelief at this statement, he amended his judgement to say that there were no human rights violations by the police. (Evidence implicating the police in human rights violations was examined by the delegation and will be discussed below.) None of the government representatives would comment on the human rights record of the military. "The statistics are very clear," Colonel Paiz told the delegation. "Human rights abuses are a very minimal problem. Traditionally, those who abuse human rights are the security forces. We want police for peace. We are seeking community with the Guatemalan people. We are on the right path."

Colonel Paiz said that the National Police had just purged its ranks, discharging 1577 of 8800 agents and that he had given the police their first pay raise in four years. Colonel Paiz promised the delegation that none of the discharged officers would be rehired by the National Police. He emphasized a new training program that would teach recruits that they are not superior to the law and stated that the police "psychological department" studies each new recruit. Interior Ministry Human Rights Director

Marco Antonio Sagastume pointed to his section's "human rights training" as beginning to make a difference. "We give each new policeman a copy of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and a copy of the 1776 Virginia Declaration on the Rights of Man," he explained. "Now even G-2 (the feared Guatemalan intelligence service) has its own human rights courses on the 4th floor of the National Palace," said Colonel Paiz.

Non-governmental organizations agreed with the government on one thing: that it was now possible to talk about human rights in Guatemala. There the agreement ended.

Nearly everyone outside government circles told the delegation that the human rights situation had not improved over the nine months of the Serrano presidency. The vast majority interviewed judged that the situation had remained the same or had gotten worse.

None outside government saw any improvement. "The situation numerically could be said to be equal or worse," said one human rights monitor, "but actually it is worse because this is the first year of a new government with a fresh mandate rather than the last year of a spent, exhausted administration." In other words, the final days of the Cerezo government saw civil authority in a weakened position vis-a-vis the military, whereas the first months of the Serrano presidency--the honeymoon period--should be the time when he is at his strongest, emboldened by a fresh mandate, and most able to make an impact on human rights. The fact that the situation has, at best, not improved is worrisome and augurs ill tidings for the future.

In non-quantitative terms, there was a broad consensus that the repression had become more selective, targeting organization activists just below the level of top leadership. A similar, but slightly different, analysis was expressed by one knowledgable observer. He told the delegation that the security forces were now targeting those whom they believed would assume the leadership of mass popular movements in the event that the URNG guerrillas were to lay down their arms and move into the political arena. He went on to say that the targeted repression has intensified as a result of the dialogue with the URNG. "The dialogue has its cost. Before the army and security forces killed in pursuance of a 'national sovereignty doctrine'--now they kill also because of the dialogue."

All agreed that August, 1991 was a terrible month, with repression disproportionately directed against students and the press. Five journalists fled the country in August due to death threats and the official Mexican news agency Notimex closed up shop. Trade union leaders who spoke to the delegation described the repression that had forced into exile 18 union leaders since April.

One of the problems in assessing human rights abuses in Guatemala centers on differentiating between various kinds of killings. The government of Guatemala and its Army and security forces tend to ascribe the overwhelming majority of deaths to common crime. In conflictive areas, the government claims that most civilians killed by the army were actually guerrillas. However, these claims contradict the pattern described in the State Department's analysis--unless one presumes that the previous pattern of human rights violations has been reversed.

Human rights groups draw a distinction between political assassinations and non-politically-motivated extrajudicial killings but note that both are a product of the impunity enjoyed by the Army, the National Police and other security forces when it comes to human rights abuses. Neither can be classified as "common crime."

The government attitude toward human rights groups seems to range from mildly tolerant to downright hostile. Eugenio de Monterroso of Casa Alianza told the delegation that the government had accused her of "publishing lies" in her denunciations of police attacks on Guatemala's street children and of "not contributing to the international image of the government." During a recent visit to Washington, President Serrano accused CERJ leader and human rights activist Amilcar Mendez with having links to the URNG, citing as proof only that "his politics are parallel with theirs." When Maria Eugenia Morales de Sierra, Deputy Human Rights Procurator, was asked by Congressman Kostmayer what the Army thought of her efforts, she made it clear that the Army still considered her work to be communist-inspired.

Officials of the Serrano administration view themselves as victims of an anti-Guatemalan conspiracy. "Powerful" Washington, D.C.-based human rights groups are, in their view, "using human rights as a strategic weapon." When pressed about discrepancies between Guatemalan government and non-governmental assessments of human rights abuses, Interior Ministry human rights director Sagastume insisted that the delegation did not understand "Guatemalan realities." In the face of international concern over human rights, as was evidenced in President Serrano's recent visit to Washington, the Guatemalan government also resorts to indignant nationalistic bluster.

Two Illustrative Human Rights Cases

Among others, the following killings were discussed with the delegation. In one sense, the killing of Jose Edgar Merida Escobar is extraordinary because it is tied to the high-profile Myrna Mack case and because it demonstrates that even law enforcement personnel are not exempt from the sort of political violence that occurs in Guatemala. Similarly, the killing of 13-year-old Nahaman Carmona Lopez is extraordinary in that it received any attention at all. In fact, this murder of a street child by the police was the first to receive widespread attention in Guatemala. In another sense, these murders are not at all extraordinary. They are but two of the hundreds of killings attributed to the army, to the police, or to semi-official death squads in Guatemala.

Case Number One: The murder of Jose Edgar Merida Escobar

National Police detective Jose Edgar Merida Escobar was slain on August 9, 1991. Merida Escobar, an 11-year police veteran, was assigned, along with his partner, to the investigation of the murder of prominent Guatemalan anthropologist and social activist Myrna Mack. Mack was stabbed 16 times last September 11 as she was leaving the offices of AVANCSO, a progressive research institute in Guatemala City.

Though the authorities were quick to label the killing a common crime, Merida Escobar uncovered witnesses and evidence that pointed to probable security forces involvement in the murder. Unlike his partner, he refused to endorse a "sanitized" version of his report--one that drew no conclusions. After the name of the presumed killer--a person with ties to the Army--was leaked to the newspapers, the government reluctantly issued an arrest order--nine months after the fact. Only on December 4 was the suspect--Noel Beteta--detained by the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service in Los Angeles and returned to Guatemala, where he presently is in custody.

"I have signed my death sentence," Merida Escobar told his friends. He appealed for help from human rights groups in order to leave the country. On August 9, he was gunned down in broad daylight 50 meters from the door of the National Police headquarters. The papers reported that witnesses saw four men in the pick-up truck with darkened windows ride away from the scene.

On August 26, the National Police declared that they had broken the case and apprehended Merida Escobar's killer. According to the Archdiocese Human Rights office, the police detained a man on minor charges in the capital, forced him to memorize a confession and then videotaped the confession in a setting designed to appear like a press conference with police posing as reporters. The tape was aired on Guatemalan television by order of the Interior Ministry and the National Police.

In his confession, the man said that he knew Merida Escobar and that they had robbed a bank together three years earlier. He claimed that Merida Escobar had taken $5000 that belonged to him and that Merida Escobar had sexually abused the man's wife by putting a gun barrel in her vagina, causing an ovarian tumor and infertility. According to his confession, he was having his shoes shined in the plaza across from the National Police headquarters on the day of the murder. Coincidentally, a friend had given him a gun "that needed to be fixed." When he saw Merida Escobar, he shot him in a fit of rage.

The Archdiocese has documented that this "self-confessed killer" did not even arrive in the capital until August 23. On August 9, the day of the murder, he was sowing sesame seeds in Chimaltenango, in the north of the country. He is not now, nor has he ever been, married. Asked about this, Colonel Paiz told the delegation that it was "a case of vengeance, plain and simple." The case, he said, "is closed."

According to the Archdiocese, this young man will be released because his extrajudicial confession is not admissible in court. The Archdiocese said that the entire scenario was part of a growing pattern--perhaps a response to international pressure--whereby the police "solve" a crime by arresting an innocent victim. The police then conduct a public relations effort such as the release of a videotape, to make it appear as if they are actually solving the crime. They then allow the victim to go free while blaming the release on the courts, thus further undermining public confidence in the rule of law.

The delegation was told of other cases where the National Police, eager to make it appear as if they are "solving" cases, are arresting people and charging them with extrajudicial killings without any solid evidence. In one such case, the delegation viewed videotapes of tortured prisoners who had been beaten unmericifully and burned with acid.

Case Number Two: The murder of Nahaman Carmona Lopez

Another case in point involves the murder of a Guatemalan "street kid" by National Police officers. It is estimated that thousands of children live in the streets of the capital--prey to disease and criminals, engaging in petty crime to support themselves and/or their glue-sniffing habits, and vulnerable to police brutality. Casa Alianza, the Guatemala affiliate of the U.S.-based Covenant House, works with the street children and, despite considerable risk, has defended them against police maltreatment.

In March 1990, Nahaman Carmona Lopez, 13 years old, was kicked to death in the wee hours of the dawn by a group of National Police. A policewoman who was there convinced the other police officers not to kill a younger child there with Lopez. At Casa Alianza's urging, charges were brought against the police, and the policewoman present testified against the killers. The judge in the case sentenced the policemen involved to sentences ranging from 10 to 15 years but the Supreme Court remanded the case for review by a trial court because of a transcription error affecting the trial record. Those convicted remain in jail pending further proceedings or their outright release.

The policewoman who testified in the case began receiving threats, even as she was moving from house to house each night. The National Police refused to offer her protection. She fled to the Canadian embassy and was granted refugee status in Canada. She fears returning to Guatemala to testify at any new trial, and such a return might jeopardize her refugee status in Canada.

Recently, the government has moved against military men and police officials in four instances:

1. Following the extrajudicial murder--thought to be drug-related--of 11 truck drivers in Escuintla, seven military officers were charged with complicity in the crime and with drug trafficking. The highest-ranking among them, Naval Commander Giron Arriola, has since been returned to his post, supposedly for lack of evidence, although the government is appealing this decision.

2. Colonel Guillermo Portillo Gomez, one captain, and twelve soldiers had been charged in last year's murder of U.S. citizen and innkeeper Michael Devine. Colonel Portillo Gomez, who was promoted after the killing to the post of commander of the Santa Rosa zone, was later arrested but has since been released.

3. Two low-level personnel-- a sergeant major and a lieutenant--have been convicted in connection with their participation in the December 1990 massacre of 13 civilians in Santiago Atitlan, but the military commander at Santiago Atitlan has not been charged in connection with the killings.

4. Colonel Paiz was dismissed as Chief of Police in early November and replaced by civilian lawyer Carlos Enrique Samayoa Cifuentes who formerly worked as an advisor to the Interior Ministry and in conjunction with the Human Rights Procurator during the Cerezo administration. Colonel Paiz's dismissal was the result of charges filed by Human Rights Procurator Ramiro de Leon Carpio in connection with the videotape of the three tortured suspects mentioned above. This appointment of a civilian is a first and a hopeful sign, though President Serrano has said that the outgoing Colonel Paiz may be given another post in his administration.

While some commendable movement on human rights in these cases has occurred,due in large part to pressure from the United States, from other governments, and from non-governmental organizations, impunity remains the rule in Guatemala.

The Negotiations Between the Guatemalan Government and the URNG

The delegation was in Guatemala during the course of the fourth round of talks and some members of the delegation stopped through Mexico City, the site of the talks, on the way back to the United States in order to meet with sources close to the negotiations.

The seed for the current ongoing negotiations between the government of Guatemala and the armed opposition Guatemalan National Revolutionary Unity was sown with the signing of the August 7, 1987 Esquipulas II accord by the Central American nations. In furthering the goals of an end to armed confrontation and of promoting reconciliation, the two Guatemalan parties agreed to a negotiating framework in Oslo in March of 1990. Since that time, four rounds of negotiations have been held under the auspices of the National Reconciliation Commission, under the leadership of Archbishop Rodolfo Quesada Toruno and with a representative of the United Nations, Dr. Francesc Vendrell, on hand as an observer.

President Serrano, from the start of his administration, has placed a premium on achieving a negotiated political settlement to the conflict. He has engaged in extensive conversations with the Guatemalan military to win their support for his peace moves. With his unquestioned anti-communist credentials, Serrano was in a position to more easily bring along the Army and business sector in support of the talks than Cerezo ever was.

Sources close to the talks speculated on why the Army agreed with the negotiations. "The Army believes that the URNG rebels are in a weak position because of the fall of the socialist camp, the defeat of the Sandinistas, and the shattering of their ideological foundations," said one source. "The intelligence services concluded that the URNG was defeated politically and militarily. That was the reason to sign the accords at Oslo." The army has been represented at the talks by high-ranking officers in command of front-line units.

Negotiations have gone hand-in-hand, however, with increased military operations. As the military has pushed hard against guerrilla forces in the northern provinces, they have sought to isolate the "popular communities in resistance." These communities consist mainly of civilians who have repatriated from Mexico and whom are seen by the military as sympathetic to the guerrillas. In response, the URNG initiated a sabotage campaign of energy facilities, looking to distract the army and tie down government troops in defense of fixed facilities. Recently, the URNG cut the road to Escuintla, Guatemala's second largest city, and held the town for a day while inflicting heavy damage on government columns.

During the course of the delegation's time in Guatemala, it heard a range of views on the importance and likelihood of success in the current talks. For Serrano, the talks are one of the few hopeful signs that could lead to an end to Guatemala's relative isolation, diminish the power of the military, and open up better prospects for foreign investment and international loans. Government officials tended to be optimistic about the chances for success. Non-governmental opinions ranged from skeptical to disbelieving.

" 'Peace' for the government has served as an image for foreign consumption," said Juan Mendoza from the Committee on Peasant Unity. "It has no meaning within."

"The only breathing space for Serrano is the dialogue for peace," said Ochaeta from the Archdiocese Human Rights Office. "Serrano has international support for this."

"The government will agree to anything--on paper," stated one international source close to the talks in Mexico City.

The URNG, for its part, says it has no intention of signing an accord absent what they call "a transition to real democracy." In the most recent round, they called for human rights provisions that would indemnify victims of past violence, abolish civil patrols and forced recruitment, and dismantle the official and unofficial apparatus of repression. The URNG and the government disagree over the timing of the implementation of reforms designed to bolster human rights and democratization. The URNG insists that the reforms are necessary and valuable in and of themselves and should be implemented prior to a cease-fire. The government disagrees.

"I want to be clear," URNG Commander Pablo Monsanto told one member of the delegation. "We are not fighting to incorporate ourselves into the status quo. We are not trying to solve our--the URNG's-- problem by integrating ourselves on generous terms while all else remains unchanged. We are trying...to put down solid foundations and guarantees."

The following question was posed to Monsanto:

If the army is coming to the talks to negotiate the URNG's surrender and given that the URNG doesn't have the army "on the run," where, then, is the hope that the talks will succeed?

Monsanto answered in four parts:

1) A continuation of the war clashes with the worldwide trend toward negotiated settlements. U.S. government pressure has been helpful in that regard.

2) Guatemalan resources that go to war cannot go to development. The military takes 35 percent of the national budget and must compete for a bigger slice of a smaller pie.

3) The army is taking 2000 casualties a year. It can absorb the losses but they nonetheless create tensions in the ranks.

4) The URNG is active in half the provinces in the country, tying down more and more of the army. While the rest of Central America is moving toward reducing the size of armies, Serrano and the Army are talking about doubling the current 45,000-man force. Budget problems are affecting the air force and lack of air support affects the morale of the ground troops.

Aside from the agreement between the URNG and the government on an agenda, the two concrete results of the talks to date have been: 1) recognition by the government and the Army of the URNG as a negotiating partner and, 2) an agreement by both sides that the United Nations will be involved in verifying any agreement reached. Sources involved in the talks believe that Serrano's position vis-a-vis his own military and the hard-line Guatemalan right ought to be strengthened. While the United States has played a positive role, these same sources say, the U.S. should explore using its informal military and intelligence links with its Guatemalan counterparts to nudge them more aggressively towards negotiations.

Summary and Recommendations

1. The United States should increase its support for the ongoing negotiations between the Guatemalan government and the URNG rebels under the mediation of Bishop Rodolfo Quezada Toruno and with observers from the United Nations.

2. The United States should maintain its suspension on all military aid and sales to the Guatemalan army until it fully respects human rights, dismantles semi-clandestine, paramilitary operations, and ends forced recruitment and mandatory rural civil defense programs.

3. The United States should strengthen its commitment to tie the provision of economic assistance and the maintenance of trade privileges for Guatemala to material improvements in the respect for human rights, as measured by objective and articulable standards, and to full investigations into the murders of Michael Devine and Myrna Mack and the kidnapping and torture of Sister Dianna Ortiz.

4. The United States should review the benefits of a policy that would consdition support for multilateral lending to Guatemala to the conditions stated in recommendation number "3" above.

CONGRESS, AND MUNICIPAL OFFICERS; IT MANDATES AN INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY AND A HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, WHO IS ELECTED BY AND REPORTS TO CONGRESS. IN 1992 PRESIDENT JORGE SERRANO SERVED HIS SECOND YEAR OF A 5-YEAR TERM. IN JANUARY CONGRESS ELECTED NEW PRESIDENTS OF CONGRESS AND THE SUPREME COURT. IN AUGUST CONGRESS REELECTED RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO AS HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN.

5. THE ARMED FORCES OPERATE WITH CONSIDERABLE INSTITUTIONAL AND LEGAL AUTONOMY, PARTICULARLY IN SECURITY AND MILITARY MATTERS. THE 43,000-MAN ARMY, WHICH HAS RESPONSIBILITY FOR NATIONAL SECURITY, HAS BEEN FIGHTING A LEFTIST INSURGENCY FOR MORE THAN THREE DECADES. THE ARMY'S MOBILE MILITARY POLICE (PMA) GUARDS KEY FACILITIES AND TRADITIONALLY HAS AN ANTICRIME ROLE. TOTAL MILITARY EXPENDITURES FOR 1989, ACCORDING TO U.S. ARMS CONTROL AND

DISARMAMENT FIGURES, WERE 131 MILLION. ALTHOUGH THE DEFENSE BUDGET FOR 1992 DECREASED IN REAL TERMS, THE 1993 BUDGET WILL INCREASE IN REAL TERMS BY APPROXIMATELY 8 PERCENT.

6. THE NATIONAL POLICE (12,000 STRONG) AND TREASURY POLICE (2,000) REPORT TO THE INTERIOR MINISTER. ON MARCH 4, THE INTERIOR MINISTER CREATED THE "HUNAHPU" TASK FORCE PATROLS COMPOSED OF NATIONAL POLICE, TREASURY POLICE, AND MOBILE MILITARY POLICE TO COMBAT RISING COMMON CRIME. PRESIDENT SERRANO BROKE WITH TRADITION IN 1991 AND APPOINTED A CIVILIAN AS NATIONAL POLICE CHIEF, AS WELL AS OTHER CIVILIANS TO SENIOR POSITIONS IN THE POLICE AND MINISTRY OF INTERIOR. IN A MAY 1992 RESHUFFLING, CIVILIANS WERE APPOINTED INTERIOR MINISTER AND POLICE CHIEF, AND SEVEN MILITARY PERSONNEL WERE ASSIGNED TO KEY ADVISORY POSITIONS. SOME 500,000 MEN SERVE IN VOLUNTARY CIVIL SELF-DEFENSE COMMITTEES, COMMONLY CALLED CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS (PAC'S), SOME OF WHICH CONDUCT COUNTERINSURGENCY PATROLS IN RURAL AREAS. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN AND THE CATHOLIC ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE REPORT THAT SOME PAC MEMBERS WERE COMPELLED TO JOIN, IN VIOLATION OF THE CONSTITUTION. SECURITY FORCES AND PAC'S WERE REPORTED TO HAVE COMMITTED NUMEROUS SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN 1992.

7. THE AGRICULTURE-BASED, PRIVATE SECTOR-ORIENTED GUATEMALAN ECONOMY GREW APPROXIMATELY 4 TO 4.5 PERCENT IN 1992, PRODUCING A SLIGHT INCREASE IN PER CAPITA INCOME AFTER SEVERAL YEARS OF DECLINE. INFLATION STOOD AT APPROXIMATELY 14 PERCENT. DURING THE FOURTH QUARTER,

GUATEMALA ENTERED INTO A STANDBY AGREEMENT WITH THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND, REQUIRING THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT TO BALANCE ITS BUDGET IN 1993 FOR THE THIRD STRAIGHT YEAR, AND SIGNED A 120 MILLION ECONOMIC RESTRUCTURING LOAN WITH THE WORLD BANK.

8. ALTHOUGH THERE WERE SOME IMPROVEMENTS IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN 1992, SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES OCCURRED FREQUENTLY. STATISTICS PREPARED BY THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE AND THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE SHOWED A SUBSTANTIAL DROP DURING 1992 IN REPORTED HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, PARTICULARLY EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, TORTURE, AND DISAPPEARANCES. THERE WAS SOME PROGRESS IN RESOLVING CERTAIN KEY CASES, AND NONE IN OTHERS. WHILE GUERRILLA GROUPS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS REPORTED THAT THE MILITARY, CIVIL PATROLS, AND POLICE CONTINUED TO COMMIT A MAJORITY OF THE MAJOR VIOLATIONS, INCLUDING EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLING AND DISAPPEARANCES.

9. AMONG POSITIVE DEVELOPMENTS, THE PRESIDENTIAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION ISSUED ITS FIRST REPORT UPDATING LEADING HUMAN RIGHTS CASES, THE ARMY CONTINUED HUMAN RIGHTS TRAINING PROGRAMS, AND THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE DEDICATED INCREASED RESOURCES TO PREVENTING ABUSES AGAINST STREET CHILDREN. PRESIDENT SERRANO BECAME THE FIRST GUATEMALAN CHIEF EXECUTIVE TO MEET WITH COMMITTEE OF PEASANT UNITY LEADERS, AND HE, AS WELL AS OTHER GUATEMALAN OFFICIALS AND MILITARY OFFICERS, OPENED A DIALOG WITH GUATEMALAN AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS.

10. BY YEAR'S END, HOWEVER, THAT DIALOG HAD DETERIORATED. PRESIDENT SERRANO AND MEMBERS OF HIS CABINET STRONGLY CRITICIZED BOTH LOCAL AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS, CLAIMING THEY DISTORT GUATEMALA'S HUMAN RIGHTS RECORD FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES. OFFICIALS CRITICIZED THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE, AND THE U.S. GOVERNMENT FOR THE PROTECTION THEY OFFERED TO KIDNAP VICTIM MARITZA URRUTIA. SENIOR OFFICIALS DENOUNCED AS IMPROPER INTERFERENCE IN INTERNAL AFFAIRS EXPRESSIONS OF U.S. GOVERNMENT CONCERN OVER THE COURT'S VERDICT OF "INNOCENT" IN THE CASE OF AN ARMY OFFICER IMPLICATED IN THE MURDER OF AMERICAN CITIZEN MICHAEL DEVINE (SEE SECTION 1.A.). THE GOVERNMENT SHOWED INTOLERANCE FOR PRESS CRITICISM. LOCAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS CONTINUED TO BE THREATENED AND WERE VICTIMS OF VIOLENT ATTACKS. ALTHOUGH PROGRESS WAS MADE IN INVESTIGATING AND PROSECUTING SOME PAST AND PRESENT HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, THE OVERALL RECORD WAS POOR. CHARGES WERE DISMISSED AGAINST SOLDIERS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE AUGUST 1991

"TRAILEROS" MURDERS IN TAXISCO, A CASE WHICH IS STILL IN THE APPEAL PROCESS.

11. GUERRILLAS ALSO COMMITTED NUMEROUS AND SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, INCLUDING EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, KIDNAPINGS, FORCED LABOR RECRUITMENT, WIDESPREAD USE OF MINES AND EXPLOSIVES, AND THE USE OF CHILDREN IN COMBAT. GUERRILLA ATTACKS ON INFRASTRUCTURE TARGETS CONTINUED THROUGHOUT THE YEAR.

SECTION 1 RESPECT FOR THE INTEGRITY OF THE PERSON, INCLUDING FREEDOM FROM:

A. POLITICAL AND OTHER EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLING

12. POLITICALLY MOTIVATED KILLINGS CONTINUED IN 1992, ALTHOUGH THERE WERE FAR FEWER THAN IN PAST YEARS. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN CONFIRMED 40 EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS DURING THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992. OF THOSE 40, 20 WERE BELIEVED COMMITTED BY STATE SECURITY FORCES, 12 BY GUERRILLAS, AND 8 REMAINED UNSOLVED. THE OMBUDSMAN'S 1991 ANNUAL STATISTICS REPORTED 228 EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, OF WHICH 130 POLITICALLY MOTIVATED MURDERS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO STATE SECURITY FORCES AND 71 WERE ATTRIBUTED TO GUERRILLAS. STATE SECURITY FORCES WERE ALSO BELIEVED RESPONSIBLE FOR THE EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLING OF 27 CRIMINAL SUSPECTS. THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE REPORTED 190 EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS DURING THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992, AS COMPARED TO 575 FOR ALL OF 1991, BUT DID NOT BREAK DOWN THE FIGURES ACCORDING TO THE RESPONSIBLE ORGANIZATIONS.

13. THE SECURITY FORCES AND PERSONS ASSOCIATED WITH OR PROTECTED BY THE ARMY, SUCH AS THE CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS OR MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, COMMITTED MANY OF THESE KILLINGS, MOST OF WHICH TOOK PLACE IN AREAS OF GUERRILLA CONFLICT. THE SECURITY FORCES WERE REPORTED TO BE INVOLVED IN MANY VIGILANTE KILLINGS OF CRIMINALS OR CRIMINAL SUSPECTS. THE OMBUDSMAN, THE ATTORNEY GENERAL, AND HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS HAVE FOUND UNAMBIGUOUS EYEWITNESS AND PHYSICAL EVIDENCE OF KILLINGS BY PAC'S. PAC LEADERS

SECURITY FORCES ARE RARELY HELD ACCOUNTABLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. WITH FEW EXCEPTIONS, THE GOVERNMENT FAILED TO INVESTIGATE, DETAIN, AND PROSECUTE PERPETRATORS OF EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS. IN 1992 AN INTERNATIONAL TEAM OF FORENSIC ANTHROPOLOGISTS WORKED TO LOCATE CORPSES OF VICTIMS KILLED AND BURIED IN THE EARLY 1980'S AT CLANDESTINE RURAL CEMETERIES.

14. THE ARMED FORCES AND CIVIL PATROLS FREQUENTLY THREATENED AND SOMETIMES KILLED HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS. THE RUNUJEL JUNAM COUNCIL OF ETHNIC COMMUNITIES (CERJ) IS A RURAL-BASED HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION DEDICATED MAINLY TO OPPOSING INVOLUNTARY SERVICE IN PAC'S. VARIOUS CERJ MEMBERS DISAPPEARED, WERE KILLED, OR WERE THREATENED IN 1992. CERJ MEMBER ESTEBAN TOJIN DISAPPEARED ON MARCH 13 AFTER RECEIVING THREATS DATING BACK TO 1990. A GRENADE EXPLODED ON MAY 10 AT THE SANTA CRUZ DEL QUICHE HOME OF CERJ LEADER AMILCAR MENDEZ, WHO WAS IN GUATEMALA CITY AT THE TIME. MENDEZ REPORTED RECEIVING NUMEROUS ANONYMOUS TELEPHONE THREATS. IN OCTOBER MENDEZ WAS CHARGED WITH PROVIDING EXPLOSIVES TO GUERRILLAS, AND A WARRANT WAS ISSUED FOR HIS ARREST. MENDEZ AND THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN ALLEGED MILITARY PERSONNEL COERCED A CERJ MEMBER INTO ISSUING A FALSE CONFESSION IMPLICATING MENDEZ. MENDEZ RETURNED TO GUATEMALA TO FACE THE CHARGES ON NOVEMBER 22, ACCOMPANIED BY A U.S. CONGRESSMAN AND A GROUP OF HUMAN RIGHTS MONITORS. AFTER TURNING HIMSELF IN TO A GUATEMALAN JUDGE, MENDEZ WAS FREED ON HIS OWN RECOGNIZANCE, A DECISION APPEALED BY THE GUATEMALAN

15. ON JANUARY 17, DRUNKEN SOLDIERS KILLED FOUR PEOPLE IN CIUDAD PERONIA, A GUATEMALA CITY SUBURB. THE ARMY ARRESTED TWO SUSPECTS ON JANUARY 21, BOTH OF WHOM WERE SENTENCED TO DEATH IN A MILITARY COURT ON APRIL 8. THE SOLDIERS ESCAPED FROM JAIL ON MAY 9. ONE WAS RECAPTURED ON JULY 6 AND IS APPEALING HIS DEATH SENTENCE; THE OTHER REMAINS AT LARGE.

16. ON FEBRUARY 10, UNIDENTIFIED GUNMEN MURDERED 27-YEAR-OLD SAN CARLOS UNIVERSITY (USAC) PROFESSOR MANUEL ESTUARDO PENA, WHO WAS ACTIVE IN A VARIETY OF POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS AND SOCIAL CAUSES. THE KILLING FOLLOWED THE JANUARY 30 BOMBING OF USAC STUDENT UNION OFFICES AND COINCIDED WITH NUMEROUS THREATS TO USAC PROFESSORS AND STUDENTS, SOME OF WHOM FLED INTO EXILE. ON APRIL 10, MEMBERS OF A HUNAHPU SECURITY UNIT FIRED ON A GROUP OF USAC STUDENTS AFTER A CONFRONTATION DURING PREPARATIONS FOR A PARADE, KILLING ONE AND WOUNDING SEVEN OTHERS. MEMBERS OF THE UNIT WERE ARRESTED. IN NOVEMBER A COURT

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 009516

17. THERE WAS SOME PROGRESS IN CERTAIN OTHER HIGH-PROFILE CASES. THE TRIAL OF FORMER GOVERNMENT SECURITY AGENT NOEL DE JESUS BETETA ALVAREZ FOR THE 1990 MURDER OF GUATEMALAN ANTHROPOLOGIST MYRNA MACK CHANG TRIAL BEGAN IN AUGUST AND WAS CONTINUING AT YEAR'S END. ON SEPTEMBER 30, A MILITARY COURT SENTENCED SIX ENLISTED MILITARY MEN TO 30 YEARS FOR THE 1990 MURDER OF AMERICAN CITIZEN MICHAEL DEVINE; A

CAPTAIN ACCUSED OF INVOLVEMENT WAS FOUND INNOCENT, A DECISION APPEALED BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL. TWO OTHER CHARGES AGAINST THE CAPTAIN ARE STILL PENDING. SENIOR OFFICERS INVOLVED IN COVERING UP THE CASE FOR 2 YEARS HAVE NOT BEEN BROUGHT TO TRIAL. ON JULY 19, AN APPELLATE COURT SENTENCED FOUR POLICEMEN TO 12 YEARS IN PRISON AND A COLLECTIVE FINE OF APPROXIMATELY 1,000 FOR THE MARCH 1990 MURDER OF STREET CHILD NAHAMON CARMONA LOPEZ.

18. THERE WAS NO PROGRESS IN RESOLVING THE 1989 DISAPPEARANCES AND MURDERS OF UNIVERSITY STUDENTS, THE 1990 HECTOR OQUELI COLINDRES AND GILDA FLORES KILLINGS, THE 1990 DISAPPEARANCE OF MARIA TIU TOJIN AND HER DAUGHTER, THE 1991 MURDER OF POLICE DETECTIVE JOSE LUIS MERIDA ESCOBAR, THE 1991 "TRAILEROS" KILLINGS IN TAXISCO, THE 1991 DISAPPEARANCE OF DIEGO DOMINGO MARTIN, OR PAST KIDNAPINGS AND MURDERS OF VARIOUS CERJ MEMBERS. THE GOVERNMENT'S INABILITY TO CONTROL OR SANCTION THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS OFFENSES IS A MAJOR IMPEDIMENT TO HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRESS.

B. DISAPPEARANCE

19. THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE RECEIVED 65 COMPLAINTS OF FORCED DISAPPEARANCES DURING THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992. ITS INVESTIGATIONS ATTRIBUTED RESPONSIBILITY TO STATE SECURITY FORCES IN THREE CASES AND TO THE GUERRILLAS IN NINE CASES. OF THE REMAINING 53 CASES, 14 VICTIMS REAPPEARED ALIVE, 3 VICTIMS WERE FOUND DEAD, AND 39 COMPLAINTS REMAINED UNDER INVESTIGATION. STATISTICS FOR 1991 SHOWED 112 FORCED DISAPPEARANCES, OF WHICH 31 WERE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

ATTRIBUTED TO THE STATE AND 14 TO THE GUERRILLAS. THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE REPORTED 3 FORCED DISAPPEARANCES FOR THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992, AS COMPARED TO 144 IN ALL OF 1991. CREDIBLE REPORTS LINKED MOST

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 009516

POLITICAL DISAPPEARANCES TO PERSONS CONNECTED WITH THE ARMED FORCES. THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT IDENTIFY OR PROSECUTE THE PERPETRATORS OF ANY OF THE ABOVE DISAPPEARANCES.

20. IN JUNE THE REMAINS OF FREE-LANCE AMERICAN JOURNALISTS NICHOLAS BLAKE AND GRIFFITH DAVIS WERE LOCATED AND IDENTIFIED WITH THE ASSISTANCE OF THE GUATEMALAN ARMY, THE BLAKE FAMILY, AND THE U.S. EMBASSY. THEY HAD DISAPPEARED IN WESTERN GUATEMALA IN MARCH 1985 WHILE SEEKING TO INTERVIEW GUATEMALAN REBELS. THERE ARE INDICATIONS THAT LOCAL CIVIL PATROL MEMBERS KILLED THE AMERICANS FOR UNKNOWN REASONS.

21. ON THE MORNING OF JULY 23, MARITZA URRUTIA, THE FORMER COMMON- LAW WIFE OF A GUERRILLA COMMANDER WHO HAD SPENT SEVERAL YEARS IN EXILE IN MEXICO, WAS KIDNAPED. SHE WAS RELEASED ON JULY 30, THE DAY AFTER LOCAL TELEVISION BROADCAST A VIDEOTAPED STATEMENT IN WHICH URRUTIA ACKNOWLEDGED PAST LINKS TO THE URNG, AN UMBRELLA GROUP FOR GUERRILLA FORCES (A STATEMENT CONFIRMED BY THE URNG). URRUTIA SOUGHT REFUGE IN THE GUATEMALAN ARCHBISHOP'S RESIDENCE AND MET WITH THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN. THE U.S. EMBASSY ISSUED URRUTIA A VISA ENABLING HER TO VISIT THE UNITED STATES. THE GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT SEVERELY CRITICIZED THE ROLES OF THE OMBUDSMAN, THE ARCHBISHOP, AND THE U.S. EMBASSY IN THE URRUTIA CASE. ACCORDING TO PRESS

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

REPORTS, URRUTIA TESTIFIED ON SEPTEMBER 30 BEFORE THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS THAT SHE BELIEVES GUATEMALAN MILITARY PERSONNEL ABDUCTED HER AND THAT SHE WAS MISTREATED DURING CAPTIVITY. HER CAPTORS WERE WELL TRAINED AND HAD SIGNIFICANT INSTITUTIONAL RESOURCES, INCLUDING A SAFE HOUSE, VEHICLES, VIDEO EQUIPMENT, AND DISCIPLINED PERSONNEL.

C. TORTURE AND OTHER CRUEL, INHUMAN, OR DEGRADING TREATMENT OR PUNISHMENT

22. THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE STATED PUBLICLY THAT IT DID NOT DOCUMENT ANY CASES OF TORTURE IN 1992. NEVERTHELESS, AS IN PAST YEARS, MANY BODIES WERE FOUND THROUGHOUT GUATEMALA BEARING SIGNS OF SEVERE DISFIGUREMENT OR POST MORTEM MUTILATION. THERE WERE CREDIBLE REPORTS OF TORTURE AND MISTREATMENT BY SECURITY FORCES, INCLUDING USE OF EXCESSIVE FORCE BY POLICE AT THE TIME OF ARREST AND OF ABUSIVE TREATMENT OF PERSONS IN RURAL AREAS BY THE ARMY, CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS, MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, AND POLICE. GANGS AND OTHER CRIMINALS, AS WELL AS GUERRILLAS, ALL USE TORTURE.

23. THE GOVERNMENT, ESPECIALLY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, DEDICATED ADDITIONAL PERSONNEL AND UNDERTOOK INCREASED EFFORTS TO END POLICE ABUSE OF STREET CHILDREN IN COORDINATION WITH CASA ALIANZA, AN ORGANIZATION DEDICATED TO PROTECTING THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF STREET CHILDREN. CASA ALIANZA REPORTED NO EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS OF STREET CHILDREN IN 1992. THERE WERE, HOWEVER, NUMEROUS REPORTS OF POLICEMEN BEATING OR ILLEGALLY DETAINING STREET

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

CHILDREN. CASA ALIANZA'S STAFF ALSO REPORTED RECEIVING NUMEROUS ANONYMOUS THREATS, AND THE BROTHER OF ONE STAFF MEMBER WAS KIDNAPED AND HELD BRIEFLY, APPARENTLY IN AN ATTEMPT TO INTIMIDATE STAFF MEMBERS.

D. ARBITRARY ARREST, DETENTION, OR EXILE

24. A COURT-ISSUED ARREST WARRANT IS REQUIRED UNLESS A PERSON IS CAUGHT IN THE ACT OF COMMITTING A CRIME. POLICE MAY NOT DETAIN A SUSPECT FOR OVER 6 HOURS WITHOUT BRINGING HIM BEFORE A JUDGE. THE LAW PROVIDES FOR BAIL, ACCESS TO LAWYERS, AND LIMITS TO 20 DAYS THE TIME ANYONE MAY BE HELD, AFTER WHICH HE MUST BE CHARGED OR FREED. AUTHORITIES MUST PRODUCE DETAINEES ON REQUEST. EXILE IS PROHIBITED UNDER THE CONSTITUTION.

25. DESPITE THESE LEGAL SAFEGUARDS, THERE ARE FREQUENT CREDIBLE REPORTS OF ARBITRARY ARREST AND INCOMMUNICADO DETENTION BY SECURITY FORCES. PERSONS DETAINED ILLEGALLY AND RELEASED SUBSEQUENTLY REPORTED HAVING BEEN HELD AT SECURITY FORCE SAFE HOUSES. THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR ILLEGAL DETENTIONS ROUTINELY IGNORE WRITS OF HABEAS CORPUS.

26. THERE WAS ALSO INCREASING CONCERN OVER APPARENT MISUSE OF THE JUDICIAL PROCESS TO INTIMIDATE POLITICAL OPPONENTS. BAIL FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL ACISCLO VALLADARES, A CRUSADER AGAINST IMPUNITY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATORS, WHO FACES CHARGES OF COVERING UP HIS BROTHER'S ALLEGED FRAUDULENT TRANSFER OF REAL ESTATE DEEDS, WAS FIXED AT AN UNPRECEDENTED AMOUNT. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN ACCUSED MILITARY PERSONNEL OF COERCING PEASANTS INTO TESTIFYING

AGAINST CERJ LEADER AKILCAR MENDEZ. INVESTIGATION INTO THE ACTIVITIES OF FORMER IZABAL DEPARTMENT GOVERNOR LILIAN VASQUEZ DE GUZMAN AND ALLEGED CORRUPTION BY FORMER HEALTH MINISTER MIGUEL MONTEPEQUE APPEARED POLITICALLY MOTIVATED.

27. ON SEPTEMBER 25, THREE AGENTS FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 009516

CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIONS' MINORS' UNIT ARRESTED AN AMERICAN CITIZEN FOR ALLEGEDLY KIDNAPING A GUATEMALAN INFANT. IN FACT, THE AMERICAN WAS IN THE FINAL STAGES OF LEGALLY ADOPTING THE CHILD AND HAD LEGAL CUSTODY UNTIL COMPLETION OF THAT PROCESS. POLICE ARRESTED AND IMPRISONED HER WITHOUT AN ARREST ORDER AND DESTROYED OR HID DOCUMENTS CONFIRMING HER LEGAL CUSTODY OF THE CHILD. SHE WAS RELEASED AFTER THE U.S. EMBASSY PROTESTED HER ILLEGAL DETENTION. THE THREE POLICE OFFICERS INVOLVED IN THE AFFAIR WERE DISMISSED.

E. DENIAL OF FAIR PUBLIC TRIAL

28. THE CONSTITUTION PROVIDES FOR AN INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY COMPOSED OF A COURT OF CONSTITUTIONALITY, A SUPREME COURT, APPEALS COURTS, AND SEVERAL COURTS OF SPECIAL JURISDICTION, SUCH AS LABOR COURTS. MILITARY COURTS HAVE JURISDICTION OVER MILITARY PERSONNEL, INCLUDING MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, BUT NOT PAC MEMBERS, THUS LIMITING THE ABILITY OF CIVIL COURTS TO PROSECUTE MILITARY PERSONNEL IN HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSE CASES. CIVILIAN TRIALS ARE PUBLIC AFTER THE FIRST 15 DAYS, DEDICATED TO AN INITIAL INVESTIGATIVE PHASE THAT IS CLOSED TO THE PUBLIC; DEFENDANTS HAVE THE RIGHT TO BE PRESENT AT TRIALS AND TO LEGAL REPRESENTATION. AN APPEALS COURT AUTOMATICALLY

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

REVIEWS CONVICTIONS.

29. THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM IS INEFFECTIVE. MOST HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS ARE NOT INVESTIGATED; SECURITY FORCE PERSONNEL ARE RELUCTANT TO INVESTIGATE CASES INVOLVING COLLEAGUES. JUDGES ARE SUSCEPTIBLE TO INTIMIDATION AND CORRUPTION AND SUFFER LOW PAY, BAD WORKING CONDITIONS, AND LOW MORALE. SOME JUDGES SUCCEEDED IN BEING EXCUSED FROM HEARING PROMINENT CASES AFTER ALLEGING DEATH THREATS. A TOTAL OF 12 DIFFERENT JUDGES WERE EXCUSED FROM THE MYRNA MACK CHANG CASE, FOR EXAMPLE. IN SEPTEMBER THE FORMER JUDGE IN THE SISTER DIANA ORTIZ CASE PUBLICLY CHARGED THAT THE SUPREME COURT PRESSURED LOWER COURT JUDGES TO DECIDE CASES IN LINE WITH ITS WISHES.

30. WIDESPREAD RECOGNITION OF DEFECTS LED TO CONGRESSIONAL PASSAGE IN LATE SEPTEMBER OF NEW CRIMINAL PROCEDURES AND ANTINARCOTICS CODES. THE NARCOTICS LEGISLATION WENT INTO EFFECT IN 1992, AND THE CRIMINAL PROCEDURE CODE WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE AFTER COMPLETION OF FUNDAMENTAL RETRAINING OF LAWYERS AND JUDGES. THE CRIMINAL PROCEDURES LAW WILL INTRODUCE ORAL PROCEEDINGS (IN BOTH SPANISH AND INDIGENOUS LANGUAGES) OPEN TO THE PUBLIC, AND A PUBLIC DEFENDER PROGRAM. THE NARCOTICS LAW CRIMINALIZES NARCOTICS CONSPIRACIES, ENACTS STIFF

OR CORRESPONDENCE

32. THE CONSTITUTION PROVIDES FOR THE INVIOLABILITY OF HOME, CORRESPONDENCE, AND PRIVATE DOCUMENTS, PROVISIONS THAT ARE NOT ALWAYS RESPECTED. ARMY INTELLIGENCE UNITS MONITOR PRIVATE COMMUNICATIONS. MANY HUMAN RIGHTS MONITORS REPORTED RECEIVING THREATS IN THE FORM OF SURVEILLANCE, TELEPHONE CALLS, AND ANONYMOUS LETTERS.

33. OFFICIALS ENFORCING THE MILITARY DRAFT TRADITIONALLY ENTER HOMES AND PLACES OF BUSINESS WITHOUT LEGALLY REQUIRED COURT ORDERS. IN FEBRUARY THE ARMY ATTEMPTED TO END SUCH ABUSES IN QUICHE WHEN IT ESTABLISHED THE NATION'S FIRST DRAFT BOARD CONSISTING OF THE ZONE MILITARY COMMANDER, THE LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE, AND OTHER CIVILIAN LEADERS. UNDER NEW RECRUITMENT PRACTICES ALSO ADOPTED IN SEVERAL OTHER DEPARTMENTS, POTENTIAL RECRUITS RECEIVE THREE INDUCTION NOTICES, AFTER WHICH THEY ARE ARRESTED IF THEY DO NOT REPORT FOR ENLISTMENT. ACTIVISTS CRITICIZE THE NEW PROCEDURES FOR NOT ADDRESSING THE FACT THAT INDIGENOUS MEN ARE REQUIRED TO SERVE IN THE ARMED FORCES MORE FREQUENTLY THAN NONINDIGENOUS MEN.

34. THE CONSTITUTION REQUIRES THAT PAC SERVICE BE VOLUNTARY. HOWEVER, ARMY OFFICERS, MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, AND PAC LEADERS OFTEN PRESSURE MEN IN CONFLICT AREAS TO BECOME PAC MEMBERS. THERE ARE CREDIBLE REPORTS THAT SOME WHO REFUSE TO SERVE HAVE BEEN KILLED OR SUFFERED OTHER ABUSES.

G. USE OF EXCESSIVE FORCE AND VIOLATIONS OF HUMANITARIAN LAW IN INTERNAL CONFLICTS

35. GUATEMALA'S ARMED INTERNAL CONFLICT ENTERED ITS 32ND YEAR IN 1992 AND CONTINUED TO BE A CAUSE OF MAJOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS BY BOTH GOVERNMENT AND GUERRILLA FORCES. THE URNG MARKED ITS 10-YEAR ANNIVERSARY ON FEBRUARY 7. PEACE NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 009516

THE URNG CONTINUED INCONCLUSIVELY IN 1992. HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES WERE THE PRIMARY AREA OF DISAGREEMENT. ON AUGUST 6, NEGOTIATORS REACHED AN ACCORD ON THE PAC ISSUE WHEREBY THE GOVERNMENT AGREED TO ESTABLISH NO NEW PAC'S IF THE URNG REFRAINED FROM EXTENDING OPERATIONS INTO NEW AREAS. NO NEW PAC'S HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED SINCE THE AGREEMENT WAS REACHED.

36. A WAVE OF BOMBINGS OCCURRED THROUGHOUT THE CAPITAL IN APRIL AND MAY. THE PERPETRATORS WERE NEVER APPREHENDED, BUT SEVERAL RIGHTWING AND LEFTWING GROUPS WERE THOUGHT TO BE RESPONSIBLE. TARGETS INCLUDED GOVERNMENT AND PRIVATE OFFICES, BUSINESSES, AND SCHOOLS.

37. COMMUNITIES IN RESISTANCE (CPR) CLAIMED ARMY AIRCRAFT BOMBED THEIR CIVILIAN SETTLEMENTS ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS. IN MID-JULY, FOR EXAMPLE, CPR REPRESENTATIVES ACCUSED THE ARMY OF BOMBING A CPR NEAR IXCAN, QUICHE. THE DEFENSE MINISTER, WHO ONCE COMMANDED FORCES IN THAT AREA, DENIED THERE HAD BEEN ANY BOMBING AND CLAIMED GUERRILLAS FORCED CIVILIANS TO FLEE THE REGION MANY YEARS AGO. CPR REPRESENTATIVES PRODUCED UNEXPLODED BOMBS TO SUPPORT THEIR ALLEGATIONS. THE ORIGIN OF THE BOMBS HAS NOT BEEN ESTABLISHED.

38. GUERRILLA FORCES RECRUITED CHILDREN INTO THEIR RANKS. GOVERNMENT TROOPS FOUND MARIO CATUJ SALVADOR, A 12-YEAR-OLD CHILD GUERRILLA, AFTER AN ARMED ENGAGEMENT AT PATULUL, SUCHITEPEQUEZ. HE HAD REPORTEDLY BEEN FORCIBLY RECRUITED BY GUERRILLAS WHILE WORKING ON A FARM IN ESCUINTLA. HE DIED SHORTLY THEREAFTER OF MALNUTRITION, DEHYDRATION, DIARRHEA, AND PNEUMONIA.

39. GUERRILLAS ALSO HINDERED INTERNATIONAL RELIEF EFFORTS. ON FEBRUARY 4, APPROXIMATELY 40 "GUERRILLA ARMY OF THE POOR" (EGP) TROOPS INTERCEPTED AND KIDNAPED TWO UNITED NATIONS REFUGEE RELIEF WORKERS ON A ROAD BETWEEN NEBAJ AND CHAJUL, QUICHE. THE U.N. PERSONNEL WERE FORCED TO WALK TO A NEARBY REBEL STRONGHOLD AFTER THEIR PICKUP TRUCK WAS BURNED ON THE HIGHWAY. THEY WERE RELEASED ON FEBRUARY 6.

SECTION 2 RESPECT FOR CIVIL LIBERTIES, INCLUDING:

PRESSURE AND INTERFERENCE TO SILENCE CRITICISM OF THE ACTIONS OF THE PRESIDENT AND HIS FAMILY AND ALLEGED WRONGDOING BY THE SECURITY FORCES.

41. NO JOURNALISTS OR MEDIA FIGURES DISAPPEARED OR WERE KILLED IN 1992, BUT SEVERAL REPORTED RECEIVING DEATH THREATS. TWO OF THE MORE PROMINENT CASES INVOLVED JOURNALISTS FROM PRENSA LIBRE; ONE OF WHOM EVENTUALLY REQUESTED AND RECEIVED POLITICAL ASYLUM IN ANOTHER COUNTRY. IN LATE AUGUST, A GROUP OF JOURNALISTS CLAIMED THAT ARMED JUDICIAL BRANCH SECURITY GUARDS THREATENED TO KILL THEM IF COVERAGE DID NOT CEASE REGARDING THE MYSTERIOUS MURDER OF THE MOTHER OF SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT JUAN JOSE RODIL'S PERSONAL SECRETARY. IN OCTOBER THE OFFICES OF TINAMIT, A LEFT-OF-CENTER MAGAZINE THAT IS FREQUENTLY CRITICAL OF GOVERNMENT AND OTHER PUBLIC FIGURES, WAS THE OBJECT OF A BOMBING THAT RESULTED IN NO INJURIES AND LITTLE PHYSICAL DAMAGE TO THE BUILDING. IN DECEMBER SIGLO VEINTIUNO JOURNALIST OMAR CANO WAS BEATEN, ALONG WITH TREASURY POLICE AGENTS AND REPRESENTATIVES OF GOVERNMENT ENVIRONMENTAL AGENCIES, IN THE PRESENCE OF MILITARY PERSONNEL. CANO WAS INVESTIGATING ALLEGED ILLEGAL TIMBER CUTTING IN NATIONAL PARKS AND PROTECTED RESERVES. THE NATIONAL MEDIA WERE OUTRAGED BY THE INCIDENT AND DIRECTLY ACCUSED MEMBERS OF THE GUATEMALAN ARMY OF RESPONSIBILITY. TO DATE THERE HAVE BEEN NO PROSECUTIONS OF THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR THESE CRIMES.

42. DESPITE THE ALLEGED THREATS, THE NEWS MEDIA REPORTED ALL MAJOR HUMAN RIGHTS STORIES AND PUBLICIZED COMMUNIQUES FROM THE URNG, LEFTIST GROUPS, AND OTHERS OPPOSED TO THE

GOVERNMENT OR ITS POLICIES. BOTH MAJOR PRESS ORGANIZATIONS DENOUNCED INCIDENTS RESTRICTING FREEDOM OF THE PRESS AND VOWED TO CONTINUE COVERAGE OF SENSITIVE TOPICS. JOURNALISTS THEMSELVES ADMIT THAT SIGNIFICANT SELF-CENSORSHIP CONTINUES TO IMPEDE FULL REPORTING ON A VARIETY OF TOPICS, INCLUDING GOVERNMENT HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, CORRUPTION OF GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND INFLUENTIAL POLITICIANS, ASPECTS OF NARCOTRAFFICKING, AND ISSUES AFFECTING THE ECONOMIC INTERESTS OF POWERFUL INDIVIDUALS.

B. FREEDOM OF PEACEFUL ASSEMBLY AND ASSOCIATION

43. THE CONSTITUTION GUARANTEES THE RIGHTS OF PEACEFUL ASSEMBLY AND ASSOCIATION: PARADES, RALLIES, MARCHES, FORUMS, DEBATES, AND SEMINARS ON VARIOUS TOPICS, INCLUDING HUMAN RIGHTS, TOOK PLACE OPENLY AND FREELY. ON OCTOBER 12, FOR EXAMPLE, NUMEROUS PROTEST RALLIES AND PARADES MARKED THE 500TH ANNIVERSARY OF COLUMBUS' ARRIVAL IN THE AMERICAS WITHOUT INCIDENT. RIOT POLICE USED EXCESSIVE FORCE ON SOME OCCASIONS IN BREAKING UP PEACEFUL DEMONSTRATIONS. ON JULY 21, RIOT POLICE FORCIBLY EXPELLED FROM THE GUATEMALA CITY CENTRAL PLAZA PROTEST MARCHERS FROM THE QUETZALTENANGO TOWN OF CAJOLA. THAT INCIDENT AND EVICTIONS OF SQUATTERS PROMPTED WIDESPREAD CRITICISM AND CONDEMNATION.

44. FREEDOM OF POLITICAL ASSOCIATION IS GUARANTEED UNDER THE CONSTITUTION, ALTHOUGH ORGANIZATIONS NOMINALLY REQUIRE LEGAL STATUS, A CUMBERSOME AND EXPENSIVE PROCEDURE. THE PEACE BRIGADES, AN INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS MONITORING

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

ORGANIZATION, HAS BEEN UNABLE TO OBTAIN RECOGNITION DESPITE PERSISTENT EFFORTS. THE ABSENCE OF LEGAL STATUS DOES NOT, HOWEVER, PREVENT PEACE BRIGADES AND OTHER HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS FROM OPERATING OPENLY.

C. FREEDOM OF RELIGION

45. NO STATE RELIGION EXISTS. RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IS CONSTITUTIONALLY GUARANTEED AND IS RESPECTED IN PRACTICE. RELIGIOUS PERSONNEL ARE SOMETIMES THREATENED FOR POLITICAL REASONS. ABOUT 70 PER CENT OF THE POPULATION IS NOMINALLY CATHOLIC, BUT MANY OTHER FAITHS OPERATE FREELY. THE PRESIDENT IS AN EVANGELICAL PROTESTANT.

D. FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT WITHIN THE COUNTRY, FOREIGN TRAVEL, EMIGRATION, AND REPATRIATION

46. THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT RESTRICT FOREIGN TRAVEL, NOR DID IT REVOKE CITIZENSHIP FOR POLITICAL REASONS. MOVEMENT INSIDE GUATEMALA WAS UNRESTRICTED EXCEPT IN SOME CONFLICT AREAS. GUERRILLAS CONTINUED TO ESTABLISH ROAD BLOCKS, ASSAULT PRIVATE CITIZENS TO DEMAND "WAR TAXES," ATTACK PETROLEUM TRUCKS, AND LIMIT TRAVEL IN CERTAIN RURAL AREAS. THE ARMY, MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, AND PAC'S ALSO LIMITED TRAVEL IN SOME AREAS.

47. NOBEL LAUREATE AND INDIGENOUS LEADER RIGOBERTA MENCHU VISITED GUATEMALA TWICE IN 1992 AND TRAVELED TO RURAL AREAS. OTHER POLITICALLY ACTIVE GUATEMALANS WHO HAD GONE.

STRIKE, BUT LABOR CODE PROCEDURES MAKE LEGAL STRIKES CUMBERSOME, FOR EXAMPLE BY REQUIRING A TWO-THIRDS VOTE. MOST STRIKES OCCUR WITHOUT LEGAL AUTHORIZATION, AND IN PRACTICE THE GOVERNMENT MAKES NO EFFORT TO INTERVENE ON THE BASIS OF ILLEGALITY. HOWEVER, THE LACK OF LEGAL SANCTION FOR A STRIKE CAN BE USED AS A THREAT AGAINST STRIKERS. FOR EXAMPLE, DURING A SERIES OF WORK STOPPAGES BY CIVIL SERVANTS IN JULY, SOME GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS THREATENED TO TAKE LEGAL ACTION AGAINST UNION LEADERS FOR PURSUING AN ILLEGAL STRIKE. ORGANIZED LABOR'S STRUCTURAL WEAKNESSES, A PAUCITY OF MEMBERSHIP FUNDS, AND A POOR OVERALL ECONOMIC SITUATION WITH HIGH UNEMPLOYMENT AND UNDEREMPLOYMENT LIMIT THE DURATION OF VIRTUALLY ALL STRIKES.

58. BY LAW, UNION LEADERS MAY SERVE ONLY ONE TERM IN A PARTICULAR UNION OFFICE, BUT, BY ROTATING UNION POSITIONS,

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

THE SAME PERSONS CAN STAY ON UNION EXECUTIVE BOARDS FOR EXTENDED PERIODS OF TIME. THE CONSTITUTION AND THE 1992 LAW PROTECT THE RIGHT OF POLITICAL PARTICIPATION FOR INDIVIDUALS, INCLUDING TRADE UNION LEADERS. UNIONS MAY AND DO FORM FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS AND JOIN INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS. WITH VERY FEW EXCEPTIONS, TRADE UNIONS DEPEND ON ASSISTANCE RECEIVED FROM INTERNATIONAL CONTACTS.

59. A "SOLIDARITY" MOVEMENT IS ACTIVE, CLAIMING APPROXIMATELY 100,000 MEMBERS IN OVER 350 COMPANIES. UNIONS MAY LEGALLY CONTINUE TO OPERATE IN WORKPLACES WHICH HAVE SOLIDARITY ASSOCIATIONS, AND WORKERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO CHOOSE BETWEEN THE TWO OR BELONG TO BOTH. THE GOVERNMENT VIEWS THESE ASSOCIATIONS AS CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS WHICH NEED NOT INTERFERE WITH THE FUNCTIONING OF TRADE UNIONS. ARTICLE 214 OF THE AMENDED LABOR CODE STIPULATES THAT TRADE UNIONS HAVE THE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT TO BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY OVER WORK CONDITIONS ON BEHALF OF WORKERS. CRITICS CHARGE THAT SOLIDARITY ASSOCIATIONS ARE PROMOTED BY MANAGEMENT TO RIVAL LABOR UNIONS. THERE ARE CREDIBLE REPORTS THAT, AT TIMES, DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES ARE NOT ADHERED TO IN THE FORMATION AND MANAGEMENT OF SOME OF THESE ASSOCIATIONS, AND WORKERS ARE UNABLE TO PARTICIPATE FULLY AND FREELY IN DECISION MAKING. SIMILAR CREDIBLE CHARGES ARE MADE AGAINST SOME TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS.

60. THERE WERE CREDIBLE REPORTS DURING THE YEAR OF THREATS OF VIOLENCE AGAINST UNION LEADERS OR MEMBERS, INCLUDING IN THE HIGH-PROFILE "MAQUILA" (DRAWBACK, OR IN-BOND EXPORT) SECTOR. PUBLIC SECTOR UNION LEADERS ALSO

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 009516

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

REPORTED RECEIVING THREATS AGAINST THEMSELVES AND THEIR FAMILIES, COINCIDING WITH UNION DEMANDS FOR IMPROVED BENEFITS.

61. AT THE REQUEST OF TRADE UNION LEADERS, THE INDEPENDENT HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, THROUGH HIS OFFICE FOR ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL ISSUES, FOLLOWS COMPLAINTS RELATED TO TRADE UNION ACTIVITIES. UNION LEADERS AND WORKERS FILED A NUMBER OF COMPLAINTS WITH THE OMBUDSMAN DURING THE YEAR, AND THE OMBUDSMAN SPOKE OUT PUBLICLY TO CONDEMN THE USE OF VIOLENCE OR THREATS AGAINST THOSE SEEKING SOCIAL JUSTICE. THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION'S (ILO) COMMITTEE ON FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION REGRETTED IN NOVEMBER THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD FAILED TO REPLY TO NEW ALLEGATIONS REGARDING 15 MURDERS, AS WELL AS PHYSICAL ATTACKS, ABDUCTIONS, DEATH THREATS, AND 58 ARRESTS OF TRADE UNIONISTS IN 1991. THERE WERE NO REPORTS OF MURDERS OF UNION LEADERS IN 1992.

B. THE RIGHT TO ORGANIZE AND BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY

62. WORKERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO ORGANIZE AND BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY, BUT OFTEN FACE DISCRIMINATORY ANTIUNION ACTIONS BY EMPLOYERS. THE NEW LABOR AMENDMENTS PROVIDE THAT WORKERS CANNOT BE DISMISSED FOR PARTICIPATING IN THE FORMATION OF A TRADE UNION. ARTICLE 78 OF THE LABOR CODE, ONE OF THE MORE HOTLY CONTESTED CHANGES, ESTABLISHES THE RIGHT OF EMPLOYERS TO FIRE WORKERS FOR CAUSE AND PERMITS WORKERS TO APPEAL THEIR DISMISSAL TO THE LABOR COURTS, BUT DOES NOT REQUIRE THE REINSTATEMENT OF ANY WORKER FIRED WITHOUT CAUSE. LABOR COURTS RESPONSIBLE FOR ENFORCING

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LABOR LAWS CONTINUED GENERALLY TO BE INEFFECTIVE. IN AN EFFORT TO RELIEVE THE OVERWHELMING WORKLOAD OF THE LABOR COURTS, SEVEN NEW COURTS WERE CREATED IN 1992. FOR BUDGET REASONS, THEY ARE NOT YET FUNCTIONING. RESTRUCTURING AND MODERNIZING THE LABOR COURT SYSTEM THUS MADE LITTLE HEADWAY, AND A HEAVY BACKLOG OF CASES CONTINUES TO CLOG THE COURTS.

63. ENFORCEMENT OF THE LABOR CODE IS SPOTTY, DUE IN PART TO THE SCARCITY OF LABOR INSPECTORS AND A LACK OF ADEQUATE TRAINING. PLANS ARE PENDING TO HIRE AND TRAIN ADDITIONAL LABOR INSPECTORS. THE SALARY OF ALL LABOR INSPECTORS WAS DOUBLED IN 1992, ALONG WITH ALL OTHER TECHNICAL EMPLOYEES IN THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT.

64. LABOR LAWS AND REGULATIONS APPLY THROUGHOUT

GUATEMALA, INCLUDING IN THE FEW EXPORT PROCESSING ZONES UNDER DEVELOPMENT IN THE COUNTRY. UNION LEADERS OFTEN BLAME EMPLOYER PRESSURES AND RESTRICTED ACCESS TO THE ZONES FOR THEIR VIRTUAL INABILITY TO ORGANIZE THERE. CREDIBLE REPORTS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED ABOUT THESE ZONES, ALLEGING LOW WAGES, LONG HOURS WITHOUT LEGALLY REQUIRED OVERTIME PAY, EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS, AND POOR WORKING CONDITIONS. LABOR MINISTRY INSPECTORS FILED NUMEROUS COMPLAINTS BEFORE THE LABOR COURTS ON THESE CHARGES. FEW OF THESE CASES WERE RESOLVED, HOWEVER, DUE TO INEFFICIENCIES WITHIN THE COURT SYSTEM AND TO LEGAL MANEUVERING WHICH EMPLOYERS CAN USE TO PROLONG THE HEARING PROCESS.

C. PROHIBITION OF FORCED OR COMPULSORY LABOR

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

65. THE CONSTITUTION BARS FORCED LABOR, AND THE PRACTICE GENERALLY DOES NOT EXIST. HOWEVER, SOME GROUPS CHARGE THAT COERCED PARTICIPATION OF INDIGENOUS PEOPLES IN THE PAC'S VIOLATES PROHIBITIONS AGAINST FORCED LABOR. THERE WERE CREDIBLE REPORTS OF ISOLATED INSTANCES OF UNPAID PAC MEMBERS BEING USED TO PROVIDE FREE MANUAL LABOR, BUT NO SYSTEMATIC PATTERN OF SUCH ABUSE WAS ESTABLISHED.

D. MINIMUM AGE FOR THE EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN

66. ALTHOUGH THE CONSTITUTION BARS EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS UNDER THE AGE OF 14, THE GOVERNMENT'S NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF STATISTICS REPORTS THAT SOME 50,000 CHILDREN BELOW THIS MINIMUM AGE ARE REGULARLY EMPLOYED IN THE FORMAL SECTOR; AN UNTOLD NUMBER REPORTEDLY WORK IN THE INFORMAL SECTOR. ONLY 5,000 OF THESE MINORS HAVE LEGAL PERMISSION FROM THE LABOR MINISTRY TO WORK. THOSE WORKING WITHOUT LEGAL PERMISSION ARE OPEN TO EXPLOITATION, GENERALLY RECEIVING NO SOCIAL BENEFITS, NO SOCIAL INSURANCE, NO PENSION OR VACATIONS, NO SEVERANCE PAY, AND ARE PAID AT BELOW THE MINIMUM WAGE LEVEL. THE LABOR MINISTRY HAS A PROGRAM TO EDUCATE MINORS, THEIR PARENTS, AND EMPLOYERS ON THE RIGHTS OF MINORS IN THE LABOR MARKET. ECONOMIC NECESSITY, HOWEVER, FORCES MOST FAMILIES TO HAVE THEIR CHILDREN SEEK SOME TYPE OF EMPLOYMENT TO SUPPLEMENT THE FAMILY INCOME.

E. ACCEPTABLE CONDITIONS OF WORK

67. MINIMUM WAGES ARE SET BY LAW. DUE TO A VARIETY OF FACTORS, MOST IMPORTANTLY THE SHARP VARIANCE BETWEEN THE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

OVERSUPPLY OF LABOR AND THE VERY LIMITED DEMAND FOR IT, THE MINIMUM WAGE BECOMES THE PREVAILING WAGE CEILING, AND NOT THE MORE COMMONLY ACCEPTED WAGE FLOOR, FOR MOST UNSKILLED AND SEMISKILLED WORKERS. WIDESPREAD, CREDIBLE REPORTS INDICATED THE MINIMUM WAGE IS COMMONLY, IF ILLEGALLY, NOT PAID TO SIGNIFICANT NUMBERS OF RURAL AND URBAN WORKERS. THE CURRENT MINIMUM WAGE DOES NOT PROVIDE A DECENT STANDARD OF LIVING; GOVERNMENT STATISTICS INDICATE THAT AN ESTIMATED 80 PERCENT OF THE POPULATION LIVES BELOW THE GUATEMALAN POVERTY LINE, INCLUDING APPROXIMATELY 70 PERCENT OF THOSE EMPLOYED. A BILATERAL COMMITTEE REPRESENTING LABOR AND MANAGEMENT IS NAMED EACH YEAR TO MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR INCREASES IN THE MINIMUM WAGE. IN THE EVENT THAT AGREEMENT IS NOT POSSIBLE, THE GOVERNMENT MAY DECREE SUCH INCREASES. THE MINIMUM WAGE WAS INCREASED IN LATE 1991 BY 78.5 PERCENT. ALTHOUGH THE MINIMUM WAGE WAS NOT INCREASED IN 1992, WHEN INFLATION WAS APPROXIMATELY 12 PERCENT, THE GOVERNMENT DID AUGMENT WORKER INCOMES BY 8.3 PERCENT WHEN IT PASSED A LAW REQUIRING PAYMENT OF AN ADDITIONAL ANNUAL 1-MONTH BONUS IN JULY OF EACH YEAR. ORGANIZED LABOR OPPOSED THIS DECISION SINCE BONUS PAYMENTS ARE NOT CONSIDERED IN CALCULATING OTHER BENEFIT PAYMENTS BASED ON WAGES.

68. THE LEGAL WORKDAY IS 8 HOURS AND THE WORKWEEK IS 44 HOURS, BUT A TRADITION OF MUCH LONGER HOURS REMAINS IN PLACE DUE TO ECONOMIC CONDITIONS. THE NEWLY AMENDED LABOR CODE CONTINUES THE TRADITION OF PROVIDING ALL WORKERS A REQUIRED WEEKLY REST PERIOD OF AT LEAST 24 HOURS. TRADE UNION LEADERS AND HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS CHARGE THAT WORKERS ARE COMMONLY FORCED TO WORK OVERTIME, OFTEN WITHOUT

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

OVERTIME PAY, TO MEET WORK REQUIREMENTS. LABOR INSPECTORS REPORT THAT NUMEROUS INSTANCES WERE UNCOVERED OF SUCH ABUSES, BUT INEFFICIENCIES IN THE LABOR COURT SYSTEM INHIBIT ADEQUATE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAW.

69. OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY STANDARDS ARE INADEQUATE. AS WITH OTHER ASPECTS OF THE LABOR LAW, ENFORCEMENT OF THE STANDARDS THAT DO EXIST IS ALSO GENERALLY INADEQUATE. TRAINING COURSES FOR LABOR INSPECTORS IN HEALTH AND SAFETY STANDARDS WERE PROVIDED, BUT THIS AREA IS NOT PERCEIVED AS A HIGH PRIORITY FOR THE RESOURCE-POOR MINISTRY. IN 1991 LEGISLATION WAS ENACTED REQUIRING COMPANIES WITH MORE THAN 50 EMPLOYEES TO PROVIDE ON-SITE MEDICAL FACILITIES FOR THEIR WORKERS. ACCORDING TO TRADE UNION REPRESENTATIVES, THE DECREE WAS NOT EFFECTIVELY ENFORCED, EVEN THOUGH MANY LARGE EMPLOYERS DO PROVIDE SUCH FACILITIES.

SUBJECT: REARREST ORDERED FOR DEVINE'S ALLEGED KILLER

REF: GUATEMALA 13428

1. ON JANUARY 17TH, THE FOURTH COURT OF APPEALS, SITTING AS A SPECIALLY CONSTITUTED COURT MARTIAL WITH TWO MILITARY MEMBERS, UNANIMOUSLY ORDERED THE REARREST OF ARMY CAPTAIN HUGO CONTRERAS. CAPTAIN CONTRERAS HAD BEEN RELEASED BY A MILITARY TRIBUNAL WHICH CLAIMED THAT NO EVIDENCE EXISTED LINKING HIM TO THE MURDER OF MICHAEL DEVINE.

2. DEVINE'S WIDOW APPEALED THE RELEASE ORDER TO THE FOURTH COURT OF APPEALS WHICH, WITH THE ADDITION OF TWO MILITARY OFFICERS, SITS AS A SPECIALLY CONSTITUTED COURT MARTIAL IN APPEALS INVOLVING ACTIVE DUTY PERSONNEL.

3. IN COMMENTS TO THE PRESS, THE PRESIDING JUDGE SAID THE COURT HAD CAREFULLY ANALYZED THE CASE FILE AND DETERMINED THAT THE MILITARY TRIBUNAL'S RELEASE ORDER WAS NOT IN CONFORMITY WITH THE LAW, THEREFORE, THE COURT REVOKED THE MILITARY'S RELEASE ORDER AND DIRECTED THAT CONTRERAS BE REARRESTED.

4. THE APPEALS COURT LET STAND THE RELEASE ORDERS IN FAVOR OF CONTRERAS' SUPERIORS, COLONEL MARIO ROBERTO GARCIA CATALAN AND COLONEL GUILLERMO PORTILLO GOMEZ, FINDING NO EVIDENCE OF CRIMINALITY ON THEIR PART IN THE COURT FILE.

5. COMMENT: BY AGAIN PUTTING CONTRERAS IN THE HOT SEAT, THIS DECISION INCREASES THE POSSIBILITY THAT HE MIGHT DECIDE TO IMPLICATE OTHERS. THE COURT'S ACTION AGAINST CONTRERAS, WHICH REQUIRED THE CONCURRENCE OF ITS TWO MILITARY MEMBERS, (A NAVY CAPTAIN AND AN ARMY LT. COLONEL) COULD BE INTERPRETED TO MEAN THAT THE RECENT CHANGES IN THE DEFENSE MINISTRY HAVE PRODUCED A NEW WILLINGNESS TO PURSUE CASES AGAINST MILITARY DEFENDANTS. STROOCK##

I. INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: THE GETTING OF (SOME) WISDOM

2. REF A PROVIDED EMBASSY'S "REPORT CARD" FOR SERRANO'S FIRST EIGHT MONTHS; THIS MESSAGE GIVES "FINAL GRADES" FOR 1991. WE SEE IMPROVEMENT IN SOME AREAS: SERRANO CONTINUES TO RUN AN HONEST ADMINISTRATION WITH GOOD INTENTIONS AND STARTS TO SHOW PROMISE IN SOME PREVIOUS "TROUBLE" AREAS, IN PARTICULAR HUMAN RIGHTS. HE HAS KEPT UP A STRONG PERFORMANCE WITH THE MILITARY AND HAS

STABILIZED THE ECONOMY WELL. THE BASIC PROBLEM REMAINS PER REF A: FAILING TO WIN CONGRESS AND THE PEOPLE TO HIS VISION OF THE FUTURE FOR GUATEMALA.

3. HUMAN RIGHTS PICTURE LOOKS MARGINALLY BETTER, WITH GOOD INTENTIONS SHOWING RESULTS. DESPITE CONTINUING PROBLEMS IN THIS AREA AND A RISE IN CRIMINAL VIOLENCE, THE NUMBER OF POLITICALLY-MOTIVATED KILLINGS AND DISAPPEARANCES DECLINED FROM 1990. IN FOREIGN POLICY, SERRANO HAS NEAR-TOTAL CONTROL, WITH FORMIN MENENDEZ NOT A BIG PLAYER. HE HAS MADE GAINS WITH MUCH OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY (INCLUDING SOME ARDENT CRITICS); THERE IS A RECOGNITION THAT, WHATEVER SERRANO'S FLAWS, HE IS A SERIOUS PRESIDENT RUNNING A SERIOUS GOVERNMENT AND TRYING TO WRESTLE WITH PROBLEMS IN A RESPONSIBLE WAY.

CONFIDENTIAL

4. HE SEEMS TO DOMINATE THE TRADITIONALLY DIFFICULT MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT AND IS THE MAN WHO DECIDES THE FATE OF ARMY CAREERS; HE HAS NOT HESITATED TO DUMP TOP OFFICERS, AMONG OTHERS, TWO MINISTERS OF DEFENSE, TWO ARMY CHIEFS-OF-STAFF, AND THE AIR FORCE CHIEF. IN THE WAKE OF SUCCESSFUL ECONOMIC STABILIZATION, HIS ECONOMIC POLICES HAVE BEGUN TO TAKE SHAPE AND TO DRAW SUPPORT FROM MUCH OF THE USUALLY SUSPICIOUS PRIVATE SECTOR.

5. SERRANO WASTED HIS HONEYMOON WITH CONGRESS. NOW HE HAS BEGUN TO RECOGNIZE THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCH, BUT HIS EFFORTS TO WOO IT REMAIN AMATEURISH AND INEFFECTIVE. HE CONTINUES HAVING TROUBLE EVEN WITH POLITICIANS WELL-DISPOSED TOWARDS HIM. HE HAS LOST MAJOR PERSONNEL BATTLES IN CONGRESS, AND, FOR NOW, HAS LITTLE INFLUENCE THERE. NONETHELESS, HIS BALANCED 1992 BUDGET, BOND LAW, AND TAX AMNESTY WERE ENACTED IN 1991 AND MUCH OF THE LEGISLATION HE BACKS--OF PARTICULAR INTEREST TO US--IS SLOWLY WENDING ITS WAY THROUGH THE PROCESS. HIS PROBLEMS WITH THE PUBLIC CONTINUE; OPINION POLLS SHOW A SLIDE IN POPULARITY. HE REMAINS ALOOF, ARROGANT, AND OFTEN UNWILLING TO EXPLAIN POLICIES OR RESPOND CALMLY TO CRITICISM.

MORAL CODE. HE IS GENUINELY COMMITTED TO RUNNING A STABLE, PROSPEROUS, MODERN, AND, ABOVE ALL, HONEST GOVERNMENT. WE FIND HIM AND HIS CLOSEST ADVISORS GENUINE IN OPPOSING DRUG TRAFFICKING AND OTHER FORMS OF CORRUPTION AND IN TRYING TO BETTER GUATEMALA'S HUMAN RIGHTS RECORD. SERRANO AND HIS GOVERNMENT, INCLUDING THE ARMY, REMAIN COMMITTED TO FINDING A SOLUTION TO THE 31-YEAR-OLD INTERNAL ARMED CONFLICT. HIS GOG SEEMS SINCERE IN PUSHING GUATEMALA'S ECONOMIC AND FISCAL SYSTEMS INTO THE MODERN ERA AND TO ADDRESSING ITS SERIOUS SOCIAL PROBLEMS.

8. SERRANO'S GOOD INTENTIONS, HOWEVER, ARE OFTEN

UNDERMINED, NOT ONLY BY HIS ENEMIES BUT ALSO BY HIS WAY OF DOING BUSINESS. HE REMAINS HIGH-HANDED, ALOOF, ARROGANT, SECRETIVE, AND ABUSIVE OF THOSE AROUND HIM, IN PARTICULAR THOSE WHO GIVE HIM BAD NEWS. HE HAS BOASTED TO ONE EVANGELICAL CONGRESSMAN THAT ON MAJOR ISSUES HE HAS NO "EARTHLY ADVISORS" AS HE IS "A PROPHET" (SEPTEL) AND OPPOSITION TO HIM EQUALS "OPPOSITION TO GOD'S WORD." HE CONSISTENTLY FAILS TO DEVELOP TIMELY PLANS TO GET WHAT HE WANTS--E.G., ENDORSEMENT BY CONGRESS OF HIS BELIZE POLICY, ELECTION OF HIS MAN AS HEAD OF CONGRESS--AND HAS NO PATIENCE FOR LOBBYING AND BUILDING COALITIONS. FOR EXAMPLE, OUT OF PERSONAL PIQUE WITH UCN SECGEN CARPIO, SERRANO SOUGHT TO ISOLATE THE UCN IN CONGRESS DURING 1991; THIS HAS BACKFIRED: UCN HAS ALLIED WITH THE DC AND THIS COALITION NOW LARGELY CONTROLS CONGRESS.

III. POL-MIL 101: IMPRESSIVE PERFORMANCE

9. SERRANO HAS ACHIEVED A REVOLUTIONARY CHANGE IN THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN CIVILIAN GOVERNMENT AND THE MILITARY, ONCE ACCUSTOMED TO OVERTHROWING GOVERNMENTS THAT QUESTIONED ITS PREROGATIVES. HE SEEMS TO HAVE THE TRUST OF THAT INSTITUTION--CEREZO DID NOT. HE HAS DEFENDED THE INTERESTS OF THE ARMY, E.G., "STANDING UP" TO "U.S. PRESSURE" TO DEMILITARIZE, HAS GOTTEN OFFICERS A PAY RAISE AND, IN CONTRAST TO HIS BEHAVIOR WITH OTHER INSTITUTIONS, GOES OUT OF HIS WAY TO KEEP SENIOR OFFICERS BRIEFED ON POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS. AT TIMES HIS CONCERN FOR THE ARMY HAS GOTTEN HIM INTO TROUBLE ELSEWHERE. FOR EXAMPLE, HIS PUBLICIZED DECEMBER 11 HARANGUE OF CERJ LEADER AMILCAR MENDEZ PLAYED WELL WITH THE ARMY (AND THE RIGHT), BUT COST SERRANO WITH THE OUTSIDE WORLD, ESPECIALLY OUR CONGRESS.

10. IN RETURN FOR HIS DEFENSE OF THE ARMY AND ITS MEMBERS, HE HAS NOT ONLY GOTTEN IT TO TOLERATE BUT TO SUPPORT ACTIVELY ONGOING DIRECT TALKS WITH THE URNG--A MAJOR ACHIEVEMENT WHICH CANNOT BE STRESSED TOO MUCH. THE ARMY TAKES HIM SERIOUSLY AS COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF (CEREZO WAS A JOKE FOR MOST). HE HAS VISIBLY EXERCISED HIS POWER: HE HAS DUMPED TWO MINISTERS OF DEFENSE, TWO ARMY CHIEFS-OF-STAFF, ONE AIR FORCE COMMANDER, AND A VICE MINISTER OF DEFENSE, AND TAKES A DIRECT ROLE IN DECIDING WHICH OFFICERS RISE INTO SENIOR RANKS AND THE ASSIGNMENTS THEY HOLD. ACCORDING TO THE OFTEN CRITICAL

CONFIDENTIAL

HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, RAMIRO DE LEON, UNDER SERRANO THERE HAS BEEN A CHANGE IN ATTITUDE BY THE SENIOR COMMAND ON HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES WITH PROGRESS NOW VISIBLE ON PROMINENT CASES: E.G., MYRNA MACK, MICHAEL DEVINE, ESCUINTLA MASSACRE OF JULY, AND "PERONIA MASSACRE" OF THIS MONTH. COUP RUMORS COMMON UNDER CEREZO ARE ALMOST NON-EXISTENT. WE KNOW OF NO ACTIVE DUTY OFFICER WHO THINKS SERRANO A "COMMUNIST." HE FEELS COMFORTABLE WITH HIS ARMY AND IT--IT SEEMS--WITH HIM.

11. MAJOR PROBLEMS STILL EXIST IN THE ARMY AND THERE ARE LIMITS TO HOW FAR AND FAST SERRANO CAN PUSH. WHILE COMMUNICATION WITH THE SENIOR LEVELS IS GOOD, CONFUSION REMAINS IN THE LOWER RANKS. NOT WANTING TO REPEAT WHAT WE HAVE STATED REF A AND ELSEWHERE, DISCIPLINARY PROBLEMS CONTINUE AS DOES UNCERTAINTY ABOUT ITS FUTURE

IN A REGION RUNNING OUT OF ARMED CONFLICTS. SECURITY FORCE PERSONNEL REMAIN INVOLVED IN EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, DISAPPEARANCES, AND OTHER ABUSES OF BOTH POLITICAL AND CRIMINAL TYPES. SERRANO HAS HIS WORK CUT OUT GUIDING THE INSTITUTION INTO THE FUTURE, BUT HE HAS MORE CHANCE OF SUCCESS THAN WE WOULD HAVE GIVEN HIM A YEAR AGO.

IV. HUMAN RIGHTS: IMPROVEMENT, BUT A LONG WAY TO GO

12. SERIOUS PROBLEMS REMAIN IN THE AREA OF HUMAN RIGHTS. MOST ARE CLEARLY OF A SYSTEMIC NATURE, BUT SOME (AS PER REF A) ORIGINATE WITH SERRANO. WHILE WE THINK

HE GENUINELY WANTS TO IMPROVE THE HUMAN RIGHTS PERFORMANCE OF GUATEMALA, HE STILL OCCASIONALLY EMITS MIXED SIGNALS. ONE EXAMPLE, THAT OF HIS DECEMBER 11 MEETING WITH MENDEZ, HAS BEEN CITED ABOVE. THERE ARE OTHERS. HIS CONFRONTATIONAL STANCE WITH U.S. HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS DURING HIS VISIT TO WASHINGTON HAS HURT HIS REPUTATION WITH THE SENSITIVE BUT INFLUENTIAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMUNITY. AFTER A YEAR IN OFFICE, HE HAS YET TO LEARN TO CONTROL HIS OUTBURSTS AND TO STIFLE HIS (OFTEN JUSTIFIED) IRRITATION WITH (OFTEN UNFAIR) CRITICISM.

13. ON THE OTHER HAND, HIS PREVIOUSLY TENSE RELATIONS WITH THE OFFICE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN SEEM ON THE MEND. HE IS LESS PRONE TO SEE DE LEON AND HIS STAFF AS ENEMIES OF THE GOG. HE HAS MODERATED HIS CRITICISM

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

OF THE OMBUDSMAN AND, ON OCCASION, TAKES THE OFFICE SERIOUSLY. HE APPARENLY HAS CONVINCED NEW MINISTER OF DEFENSE GARCIA SAMAYOA THAT HIS HUMAN RIGHTS CONCERNS ARE GENUINE, AND THE MOD, IN TURN, LOOKS INTENT ON SPREADING THE HUMAN RIGHTS GOSPEL AMONG THE RANKS--A MAJOR ADVANCE IN THE GUATEMALAN CONTEXT. IN NEARLY EVERY PUBLIC STATEMENT WE CAN RECALL, SERRANO AT LEAST TOUCHES UPON THE NEED FOR RESPECT OF HUMAN RIGHTS. HE IS WORKING TO ENSURE HUMAN RIGHTS IS AN ACCEPTABLE MAINSTREAM CONCERN.

14. THERE LOOKS TO BE A GRADUAL IMPROVEMENT ON THE GROUND. THE NUMBER OF SERIOUS VIOLATIONS, I.E., POLITICALLY MOTIVATED KILLINGS AND DISAPPEARANCES, IS LESS IN 1991 THAN IN 1990, DESPITE A GENERAL RISE IN CRIMINAL VIOLENCE. WE HAVE BEGUN TO SEE PROGRESS IN SOME SPECIFIC CASES, SLOW AND HALTING AS BEFITS THE DECAYED JUDICIAL SYSTEM, BUT PROGRESS NONETHELESS.

V. THE P.R. ANGLE: SLIPPING AND SLIDING

15. RECENT POLLS SHOW SERRANO WITH AN APPROVAL RATING IN THE 30 PLUS PERCENT RANGE. PER REF A, SERRANO CONTINUES TO HAVE TROUBLE WITH THE PUBLIC AND THE MEDIA IN GETTING ACROSS HIS MESSAGE, HIS VISION FOR GUATEMALA. HE REMAINS COMMITTED TO ENDING THE INTERNAL ARMED CONFLICT, BUT THE SECRETIVE NATURE OF THE PEACE TALKS HAS LEFT MOST GUATEMALANS APPARENTLY ALMOST UNAWARE THAT A PEACE EFFORT IS UNDERWAY. HIS GOVERNMENT HAS DONE LITTLE TO EXPLAIN ITS POSITIONS AND ITS PROBLEMS WITH GUERRILLA DEMANDS TO THE PUBLIC, RELYING

CONFIDENTIAL

ON AN OCCASIONAL PRESS STATEMENT--NOW BANISHED TO THE INSIDE PAGES. HE HAS FAILED TO GET ACROSS HIS PERCEPTION--ACCURATE IN OUR VIEW--THAT THE INTERNAL ARMED CONFLICT REMAINS THE SINGLE GREATEST SOURCE OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS AND A DETERRENT TO INVESTMENT IN RURAL AREAS. HE HAS ONLY RECENTLY BEGUN TO DEFEND IN ANY SUSTAINED MANNER HIS GOVERNMENT'S NOT INCONSIDERABLE ACHIEVEMENTS IN THE AREA OF ECONOMIC STABILIZATION, ANTI-CORRUPTION, AND ANTI-ILLICIT DRUGS. EVEN THEN THE OPPOSITION HAS HAD SOME SUCCESS IN TURNING THE ECONOMIC DEBATE INTO ONE OVER WHETHER TO SUBSIDIZE URBAN BUSES.

16. HIS RELATIONS WITH CONGRESS ARE POOR; HE IS NOW PAYING THE PRICE. THE OPPOSITION HAS TAKEN THE LEADERSHIP NOT ONLY OF THAT BRANCH BUT OF THE JUDICIAL BRANCH AS WELL. SERRANO'S EFFORTS TO RALLY A COALITION

TO PREVENT UCN-DC DOMINANCE OF THE OTHER BRANCHES OF GOVERNMENT WERE BELATED AND CHARACTERIZED BY INDECISIVENESS. HE ALIENATED EVEN THOSE WHO COULD HAVE BACKED HIS EFFORTS. TO GIVE HIS DUE, HOWEVER, AT LEAST SOME OF HIS PROBLEMS WITH CONGRESS RESULT FROM HIS PRINCIPLED REFUSAL TO BRIBE CONGRESSMEN INTO SUPPORTING HIM, A PRACTICE WIDELY USED BY THE PREVIOUS GOG.

17. SERRANO MADE A MAJOR EFFORT IN HIS STATE OF THE NATION SPEECH TO BE CONCILIATORY TO CONGRESS AND ITS NEW LEADERSHIP, CALLING FOR A SPIRIT OF COMPROMISE AND COOPERATION WHICH WAS RECIPROCATED IN THE RESPONSE BY THE NEW PRESIDENT OF THE CONGRESS. THIS MAY BE PURELY LIPSERVICE OR SERRANO MAY BE LEARNING FROM EARLIER MISTAKES. WE HOPE IT IS THE LATTER. EVEN WITH THE BEST WILL IN THE WORLD, HOWEVER, IT WILL BE DIFFICULT TO DEAL WITH THE FRACTIOUS OPPOSITION CONGRESS.

VI. ECONOMIC POLICY: GETTING BETTER

18. PER REF B, SERRANO CAN TAKE PRIDE IN HIS TEAM'S IMPRESSIVE RECORD ON ECONOMIC STABILIZATION. THE NUMBERS TELL IT ALL: INFLATION DROPPED FROM 60 TO 10 PERCENT WHILE RESERVES ROSE FROM USD 50 MILLION TO 570 MILLION; THE BUDGET DEFICIT VIRTUALLY DISAPPEARED WHILE MODEST GROWTH CONTINUED (2.5 - 3 PERCENT). THE GOG BORROWED COMMERCIALLY, KEPT A STABLE, CONVERTIBLE CURRENCY AND REDUCED FOREIGN DEBT ARREARS TO USD 75

MILLION. A HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL, SPECIAL BOND/TAX ASSESSMENT RAISED USD 140 MILLION, PRIMARILY FOR INFRASTRUCTURE AND SOCIAL SERVICES. NON-TRADITIONAL EXPORTS OUTSHOWN EVEN THEIR RECENT GOOD YEARS, WITH A 34.8 PERCENT INCREASE OVER 1990.

19. IMPORTANT POLICY REFORMS ALSO BEGAN, BUT PROGRESS WAS SLOWER THAN NECESSARY, DUE PARTIALLY TO SERRANO'S INEPTNESS WITH CONGRESS. HIS MAJOR ECONOMIC INITIATIVE -- SIGNIFICANT FISCAL REFORM -- STILL LANGUISHES THERE, DELAYING AN IMF AGREEMENT, DISBURSEMENT OF USD 50 MILLION IN ESF, PAYMENT OF WORLD BANK ARREARS, AND REINITIATION OF WORLD BANK LENDING. BUT UNLIKE EARLIER ATTEMPTS TO FORCE THE WEALTHY TO BEGIN TO PAY THEIR WAY, THIS EFFORT AT FISCAL REFORM HAS A REASONABLE SHOT AT ENACTMENT. MORE IMPORTANT, THE 1988 COUP ATTEMPT--PARTLY SPURRED BY CEREZO'S UNSUCCESSFUL EFFORT AT FISCAL REFORM--IS UNTHINKABLE NOW.

20. NEW POLICY DIRECTIONS ARE ALSO EMERGING. EARLY ON SERRANO'S ADMINISTRATION ACCEPTED OUR "OPEN SKIES' CIVIL AVIATION POLICY, WHICH WE HAD LONG WANTED IN GUATEMALA. IN CONTINUING TRADE LIBERALIZATION, THE PENDING FISCAL REFORM WOULD LOWER TARIFFS. AFTER SOME HESTITATION, WE CONCLUDED AN EAI TRADE AND INVESTMENT FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT IN OCTOBER. WHILE PRIVATIZATION OF KEY PARTS OF THE SMALL PUBLIC SECTOR REMAINS ON THE BACK BURNER, SERRANO SENT A STRONG, POSITIVE SIGNAL TO BUSINESS WITH CONCLUSION OF A DEAL TO BUY 110 MW OF NEW, PRIVATELY GENERATED POWER BY THE END OF THE YEAR. AS OFTEN, THE PUBLIC RELATIONS ASPECTS OF THE MAINLY RAIN-INDUCED

SEPTEMBER POWER OUTAGES WERE BUNGLED; MORE IMPORTANTLY, HOWEVER, THE GOVERNMENT DID ACT DECISIVELY AND WISELY TO PRECLUDE A REPEAT OF THE POWER SHORTAGE.

VII. THE AMERICANS: STUCK WITH US

20. SERRANO CLEARLY STILL FEELS UNFAIRLY UNDER ATTACK FROM THE U.S. HE CONSIDERS OUR STATED CONCERNS ABOUT HUMAN RIGHTS, IN PARTICULAR OUR SUSPENSION OF MILITARY ASSISTANCE (FMF), AS A PERSONAL AFFRONT TO HIM. HE IS UNHAPPY ABOUT OUR (IN HIS MIND) INADEQUATE LEVEL OF APPRECIATION OF GOG ANTI-DRUG EFFORTS. HE HAS MADE CLEAR HE BELIEVES HE HAS ACHIEVED A GREAT DEAL IN HIS FIRST YEAR IN OFFICE AND WE ARE UNWILLING TO ACKNOWLEDGE IT. HE HAS LEARNED, HOWEVER, NOT TO EXPRESS HIS IRRITATION WITH THE U.S. OPENLY AND DIRECTLY AS HE DID

IN THE FIRST PART OF HIS TENURE. HE HAS INSTEAD RESORTED AT TIMES TO RATHER ODD "NORTH-SOUTH CONFRONTATION" RHETORIC, THE LIKES OF WHICH WENT OUT OF VOGUE SOME FIFTEEN YEARS AGO, AND HAS SUCCESSFULLY SOUGHT OBSERVER STATUS WITH THE NON-ALIGNED MOVEMENT.

21. HE HAS CHOSEN TO "DEFY" OUR ALLEGED ARMS REDUCTION PLANS FOR CENTRAL AMERICA BY TAKING A VERY PUBLIC AND VOCAL STANCE AGAINST "DEMILITARIZATION," WHILE BEING CAREFUL TO QUALIFY BY SAYING REDUCTIONS ARE NOT POSSIBLE WHILE THE GUERRILLA CONFLICT CONTINUES. HE HAS, HOWEVER, MADE EFFORTS TO BETTER RELATIONS WITH THE EMBASSY AND EMBOFFS HAVE REGULAR AND GENERALLY SPEEDY

ACCESS TO SENIOR GOG OFFICIALS--ALL WELL-DISPOSED TOWARDS US.

22. SERRANO IS SURE HE DID VERY WELL IN HIS VISIT LAST FALL TO THE U.S. IN FACT, HIS BRASH, ARROGANT, CONFRONTATIONAL STYLE, PARTICULARLY WITH HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS AND CONGRESSIONAL STAFF, WON HIM FEW IF ANY FRIENDS. HE, NEVERTHELESS, DID SEEM TO RETURN WITH A GREATER UNDERSTANDING OF THE SCOPE AND DEPTH OF U.S. HUMAN RIGHTS CONCERNS ABOUT GUATEMALA, AND WE HAVE SEEN PROGRESS ON SOME IMPORTANT CASES SINCE THEN.

23. IN SOME AREAS, SERRANO HAS SHINED; IN OTHERS HE HAS SHOWN HE CAN LEARN AND IMPROVE. HE HAS MAINTAINED A LEVEL OF HONESTY IN GOVERNMENT FEW WOULD HAVE EXPECTED FROM A GOG; HE HAS DONE REMARKABLY WELL WITH HIS ARMY, KEPT PEACE NEGOTIATIONS GOING AND, IT SEEMS, GRADUALLY BEGUN TO TURN THE CORNER ON HUMAN RIGHTS. ECONOMIC POLICY WAS A SUCCESS. IN OTHER AREAS, HOWEVER, HE REMAINS DEFICIENT. STILL HIS MAJOR FLAW IS HIS DIFFICULTY IN PLAYING THE ROLE OF A DEMOCRATIC LEADER: PRESENTING GOALS AND THEN ENGAGING IN THE VITAL LEADING, CAJOLING AND ENCOURAGING OF OTHERS TO SHARE AND WORK TOWARDS THOSE GOALS.

24. YEAR ONE WAS TOUGH. HE INHERITED A MESS OF HUGE DIMENSIONS FROM THE CORRUPT CEREZO ADMINISTRATION. HE HAS FACED TURMOIL IN HIS OWN RANKS, CHANGING, ASIDE FROM TWO MINISTERS OF DEFENSE, THE MINISTERS OF INTERIOR, FOREIGN AFAIRS, FINANCE, AND ECONOMY, AS WELL AS TWO ARMY CHIEFS-OF-STAFF, ALONG WITH CHIEFS OF BOTH POLICE FORCES AND A HOST OF VICE-MINISTERS. NOW, HOWEVER, THE GOG SEEMS TO HAVE STABILIZED AND BEGUN TO ADDRESS SERIOUS SOCIAL-ECONOMIC PROBLEMS. BUT SUCCESS NEEDS MORE THAN GOOD INTENTIONS. SERRANO HAS TO REPAIR RELATIONS WITH CONGRESS AND DEAL GINGERLY WITH THE JUDICIARY. ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS, HE IS BECOMING SOPHISTICATED; HE NEEDS TO CONTINUE IN THIS VEIN.

25. THE BOTTOM LINE: SINCE OUR LAST EVALUATION, WE ARE MORE OPTIMISTIC ABOUT HIS RECORD. HE HAS A CHANCE TO MAKE A REAL AND POSITIVE DIFFERENCE IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF GUATEMALA INTO A MODERN NATION. THE GREATEST

THE CONSTITUTION CALLS FOR ELECTION BY UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE OF A ONE-TERM PRESIDENT, A UNICAMERAL CONGRESS, AND MUNICIPAL OFFICERS; IT MANDATES AN INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY AND A HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, WHO REPORTS TO CONGRESS. JORGE SERRANO WON THE 1991 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS WITH 68

PERCENT OF THE VOTE, TAKING OFFICE ON JANUARY 14. SEVERAL HUNDRED FOREIGN OBSERVERS AND JOURNALISTS MONITORED THE ELECTIONS AND FOUND THEM TO BE FREE AND FAIR.

THE ARMED FORCES OPERATE WITH SIGNIFICANT INSTITUTIONAL AND LEGAL AUTONOMY, PARTICULARLY IN SECURITY AND MILITARY MATTERS. THE ARMY, WHICH HAS RESPONSIBILITY FOR NATIONAL SECURITY, HAS BEEN FIGHTING A LEFTIST INSURGENCY FOR 31 YEARS; IT INCLUDES A MOBILE MILITARY POLICE (PMA) THAT GUARDS KEY FACILITIES AND HAS A LIMITED ANTICRIME ROLE. THE NATIONAL POLICE AND THE TREASURY POLICE REPORT TO THE INTERIOR MINISTER, A CIVILIAN. ABOUT 500,000 MEN IN VOLUNTARY CIVIL DEFENSE COMMITTEES (CVDC), MORE COMMONLY CALLED CIVIL SELF-DEFENSE PATROLS (PAC), PERFORM COUNTERINSURGENCY OPERATIONS IN RURAL AREAS. DESPITE A CONSTITUTIONAL PROHIBITION, MEMBERSHIP IN THE PAC'S IN CONFLICT ZONES IS OFTEN INVOLUNTARY. THE SECURITY FORCES AND THE PAC'S COMMITTED NUMEROUS AND SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS DURING 1991.

AGRICULTURE AND COMMERCE DOMINATE THE LARGELY PRIVATE ENTERPRISE ECONOMY, WITH COFFEE, COTTON, SUGAR, AND BANANAS ACCOUNTING FOR THE BULK OF EXPORT EARNINGS. DURING ITS FIRST MONTHS, THE SERRANO GOVERNMENT TOOK STEPS TO COMBAT INFLATION, STABILIZE EXCHANGE RATES, LOWER INTEREST RATES, AND CARRY OUT OTHER ECONOMIC AND FISCAL REFORMS. THE ECONOMY GREW AT A REAL RATE OF 3.2 PERCENT.

IN 1991 THE MILITARY, CIVIL PATROLS, AND THE POLICE CONTINUED TO COMMIT A MAJORITY OF THE MAJOR HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, INCLUDING EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, TORTURE, AND DISAPPEARANCES OF, AMONG OTHERS, HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS, UNIONISTS, INDIGENOUS PEOPLE, AND STREET CHILDREN. THE MOTIVE BEHIND MANY OF THE ABUSES APPEARS TO BE THE BELIEF, WHETHER FACTUAL OR BASED ON SPURIOUS INFORMATION, THAT THE VICTIMS WERE IN SOME WAY SUPPORTIVE OF OR SYMPATHETIC TO THE GUERRILLAS. GUERRILLAS ALSO COMMITTED HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, INCLUDING KILLINGS OF POLICEMEN AND OTHERS, KIDNAPINGS, FORCED LABOR AND RECRUITMENT, WIDE USE OF MINES AND OTHER EXPLOSIVES, AND THE USE OF CHILDREN IN COMBAT.

MANY HUMAN RIGHTS CASES IN WHICH THE UNITED STATES HAD OFFICIALLY EXPRESSED INTEREST REMAINED UNSOLVED, SUCH AS: THE 1985 DISAPPEARANCES OF U.S. CITIZENS BLAKE AND DAVIS, THE 1989 KIDNAPINGS OF SEVERAL RUNUNEL JUNAM COUNCIL OF ETHNIC COMMUNITIES (CERJ) MEMBERS, THE DISAPPEARANCE AND

MURDER OF UNIVERSITY STUDENTS, THE KIDNAPING AND ABUSE OF AMERICAN NUN DIANA ORTIZ, THE KNIFE ATTACK ON MEMBERS OF THE PEACE BRIGADES (PBI), THE MURDERS OF HECTOR OQUELI, GILDA FLORES, GONZALEZ GAMARRA, AND VILLANUEVA DE BARRERA IN 1990, AND THE DISAPPEARANCES OF MARIA TIU TOJIN AND HER DAUGHTER FROM A RELOCATION CENTER IN 1990. THE ARMY HIGH COMMAND CONTINUED TO IMPEDE A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION INTO THE MURDER BY ARMY PERSONNEL OF AMERICAN CITIZEN MICHAEL DEVINE IN 1990. BECAUSE OF A LACK OF SUFFICIENT PROGRESS ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN GUATEMALA, THE UNITED STATES HAS NOT RESUMED ITS MILITARY AID PROGRAM, SUSPENDED SINCE DECEMBER 1990.

DESPITE CONTINUING SERIOUS ABUSES AND LACK OF PROGRESS ON MANY CASES, THE CURRENT GOVERNMENT HAS SHOWN MORE POLITICAL WILL
THAN ITS PREDECESSOR IN PROMOTING RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND IN PURSUING VIOLATORS. PRESIDENT SERRANO HAS DEMONSTRATED A COMMITMENT TO CONTROL THE MILITARY AND TO END THE IMPUNITY OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATORS. TWO ARMY PERSONNEL, INCLUDING AN OFFICER, WERE ARRESTED FOR THE 1990 SANTIAGO ATITLAN MASSACRE AND WERE CONVICTED AND SENTENCED TO PRISON, AND A SUSPECT TIED TO THE MILITARY STAFF OF FORMER PRESIDENT CEREZO WAS ARRESTED IN THE 1990 MYRNA MACK MURDER CASE (SEE SECTION 1.A.). A FEW PAC MEMBERS WERE ARRESTED FOR THE MURDERS OF SOME HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS. IN AUGUST THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCED THE CREATION OF A CABINET-LEVEL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION TO ADVISE HIM AND RESPOND TO REPORTS OF VIOLATIONS. THE MILITARY AGREED TO PARTICIPATE IN PEACE NEGOTIATIONS LED BY PRESIDENT SERRANO WITH THE GUATEMALA NATIONAL REVOLUTIONARY UNITY (URNG) GUERRILLA COALITION. OVERALL, THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IMPROVED FROM 1990, WITH THE GREATEST IMPROVEMENT SEEN IN THE WILLINGNESS OF INCREASING NUMBERS OF GUATEMALAN ORGANIZATIONS AND INDIVIDUALS TO ADDRESS PUBLICLY AND OPENLY SENSITIVE HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES.

RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

SECTION 1 RESPECT FOR THE INTEGRITY OF THE PERSON, INCLUDING FREEDOM FROM:

A. POLITICAL AND OTHER EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLING

MEDIA AND OTHER REPORTS INDICATED THE 1991 MURDER TOLL TO BE HIGHER THAN THE OFFICIAL FIGURES OF 1,800 TO 2,000. WHILE COMMON CRIME CAUSED THE VAST MAJORITY OF VIOLENT DEATHS, THE NUMBER OF POLITICALLY MOTIVATED KILLINGS, THOUGH FEWER THAN IN 1990, WAS VERY HIGH. PRELIMINARY REPORTING FROM THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN LISTED 258 COMPLAINTS OF POLITICAL KILLINGS (COMPARED TO 304 FOR ALL OF 1990). THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE REPORTED 575 POLITICAL EXECUTIONS FOR THE SAME

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

PERIOD; A LOCAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUP, THE MUTUAL SUPPORT GROUP (GAM), REPORTED 796 "POLITICAL KILLINGS" BUT DID NOT DEFINE THE TERM.

MOST OF THESE KILLINGS ARE CREDIBLY BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN COMMITTED BY THE ARMED FORCES AND PERSONS ASSOCIATED WITH OR PROTECTED BY THE ARMY, SUCH AS THE CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS. MOST OF THEM TOOK PLACE IN AREAS OF MILITARY-GUERRILLA CONFLICT, WHERE THE MILITARY OFTEN FAILS TO DISTINGUISH BETWEEN GUERRILLAS AND NONCOMBATANTS. THE SECURITY FORCES WERE PROBABLY INVOLVED IN MANY VIGILANTE KILLINGS OF CRIMINALS OR CRIMINAL SUSPECTS. THE CRIMINAL BACKGROUNDS OF MANY OF THESE VICTIMS SUGGESTS THAT THE KILLERS HAD ACCESS TO POLICE, COURT, AND PRISON DATA.

THE SECURITY FORCES ARE VIRTUALLY NEVER HELD ACCOUNTABLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. WITH FEW EXCEPTIONS, THE GOVERNMENT FAILED PROPERLY TO INVESTIGATE, DETAIN, AND PROSECUTE PERPETRATORS OF EXTRAJUDICIAL AND POLITICALLY MOTIVATED KILLINGS. OFTEN THE ARMY FAILS TO COOPERATE WITH POLICE, COURTS, AND PROSECUTORS TO BRING TO JUSTICE ARMY PERSONNEL INVOLVED IN ABUSES. THIS WAS PARTICULARLY EVIDENT THROUGHOUT 1991 IN THE STALLED INVESTIGATION OF THE MURDER OF AMERICAN CITIZEN MICHAEL DEVINE IN 1990. THE OMBUDSMAN, THE ATTORNEY GENERAL, AND HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS HAVE ALSO FOUND UNAMBIGUOUS EYEWITNESS AND PHYSICAL EVIDENCE OF KILLINGS BY THE PAC'S; SEVERAL CLANDESTINE CEMETERIES WERE FOUND CONTAINING SUMMARILY EXECUTED VICTIMS, SOME SHOWING SIGNS OF TORTURE. PAC LEADERS ENJOY ARMY BACKING AND VIRTUAL DE FACTO IMMUNITY FROM PROSECUTION, AND THEY ARE FEARED IN MANY RURAL COMMUNITIES.

THE ARMED FORCES AND PAC'S FREQUENTLY THREATENED AND SOMETIMES KILLED HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS. CERJ IS A RURAL-BASED HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION DEDICATED MAINLY TO OPPOSING INVOLUNTARY SERVICE IN THE CIVIL PATROLS. JUAN PEREBAL AND ONE SON, MEMBERS OF CERJ, WERE SHOT DEAD NEAR CHUNIMA (QUICHE DEPARTMENT) ON FEBRUARY 17. ANOTHER SON SURVIVED THE SHOOTING AND IDENTIFIED THE ATTACKERS AS MANUEL PEREBAL AJTZALAM AND MANUEL XON LARES, FORMER PAC LEADERS. THE VICTIMS HAD PREVIOUSLY IMPLICATED THE TWO ATTACKERS IN THE 1990 KIDNAPING OF SEBASTIAN VELASQUEZ MEJIA, ANOTHER CERJ MEMBER WHO WAS LATER FOUND DEAD. THE TWO EX-PAC LEADERS HAD MORE THAN 10 OUTSTANDING ARREST WARRANTS, AND EFFORTS BY POLICE TO ARREST

THEM FAILED WHEN ARMED CIVIL PATROL MEMBERS INTERVENED. HOWEVER, DUE TO THE INTERVENTION OF PRESIDENT SERRANO, IN JULY

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

BOTH SURRENDERED, AND JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS WERE UNDER WAY AT YEAR'S END. OTHER SUCH KILLINGS INCLUDED CERJ MEMBERS MIGUEL TZOY COLEL, WHO HAD RECEIVED DEATH THREATS FOR REFUSING TO JOIN A PAC; TOMAN VENTURA XON; CELESTINO VICENTE JULAY; AND CAMILO AJQUI JIMON WHO, ACCORDING TO ONE CREDIBLE REPORT, WAS ATTACKED WITH KNIVES AND NEARLY DECAPITATED BY THREE MEN WHO ALSO THREATENED HIS WIFE.

THERE WERE SEVERAL NOTABLE EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS OF POLITICAL PARTY MEMBERS, AN ARMY GENERAL, AND A POLICE INVESTIGATOR. IN APRIL, TWO MEN IN GUATEMALA CITY KILLED DINORA PEREZ, A YOUNG WOMAN INVOLVED IN FORMING A NEW LEFTIST POLITICAL PARTY, THE UNITED GUATEMALA PARTY (PGU). IN 1991 MOST PGU MEMBERS, INCLUDING 1985 SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY VICE-PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE LUIS ZURITA, FLED ABROAD. THE KILLERS CLEARLY MEANT TO ABORT THE PGU. IN JANUARY GUNMEN KILLED ESCUINTLA MAYOR MARCO TULIO COLLADO, FOLLOWING A PERIOD DURING WHICH HE HAD RECEIVED THREATS. RELATIVES BLAMED "RIGHT-WING EXTREMISTS." A CRIME WHICH MIGHT BE LINKED TO THE 1990 MURDER CASE OF MYRNA MACK WAS THE MURDER IN AUGUST OF POLICE HOMICIDES INVESTIGATION CHIEF JOSE LUIS MERIDA, WHO HANDLED--AMONG OTHER SENSITIVE TASKS--THE INVESTIGATION INTO MACK'S DEATH. IN MAY TWO MEN KILLED ACTIVE-DUTY GENERAL AND FORMER DEFENSE ATTACHE TO THE UNITED STATES ANACLETO MAZA. REPORTS INDICATE MAZA WAS ABOUT TO REVEAL INFORMATION CONCERNING CORRUPTION IN THE ARMY COMMISSARY AND CORRUPT ACTS BY GOVERNMENT OFFICERS INVOLVED WITH THE NATIONAL AIRLINE.

IN JUNE ARMED MEN KILLED OSCAR OSWALDO LUNA, A MEMBER OF THE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

SAN CARLOS UNIVERSITY (USAC) MAINTENANCE WORKERS' UNION WHO HAD TAKEN PART IN A BITTER STRIKE IN WHICH USAC OFFICIALS WERE HELD HOSTAGE. ALTHOUGH PRESIDENT SERRANO ORDERED THAT THE KILLING BE THOROUGHLY INVESTIGATED, THERE WERE NO RESULTS BY YEAR'S END. THERE CONTINUED TO BE CREDIBLE REPORTS THAT POLICEMEN AND PRIVATE SECURITY GUARDS TORTURED AND KILLED STREET CHILDREN, ALTHOUGH THERE WERE FEWER SUCH REPORTS IN 1991. A COURT IN MARCH SENTENCED FOUR POLICEMEN TO LONG PRISON TERMS FOR THE BEATING DEATH OF "STREET CHILD" MAHAMON CARMONA LOPEZ IN 1990. HOWEVER, A HIGHER COURT FOUND ERRORS IN SENTENCING, AND, AS 1991 ENDED, THE CASE WAS REMANDED TO THE LOWER COURT. THE CASE AGAINST TWO OTHER POLICEMEN ACCUSED OF INVOLVEMENT IN THE DEATHS OF FOUR OTHER STREET CHILDREN IN 1990 CONTINUED IN COURT.

GUERRILLAS WERE ALSO RESPONSIBLE FOR EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS IN 1991. IN JUNE, GENARO CABRERA GOMEZ, A GUERRILLA WHO ACCEPTED AMNESTY, WAS TORTURED AND KILLED; A NOTE STATED THAT GUERRILLAS KILLED HIM FOR "TREASON." RELATIVES OF LORENZO PEREBAL AND ANDRES LOPIX, SOLOLA MILITARY COMMISSIONERS (CIVILIAN ARMY EMPLOYEES WHOSE MAIN JOB IS TO ENSURE COMPLIANCE WITH THE DRAFT), SAID GUERRILLAS KIDNAPED AND MURDERED BOTH MEN IN OCTOBER.

IN JUNE POLICE ARRESTED FIVE PAC MEMBERS IN ALTA VERAPAZ FOR THE DEATH THAT MONTH OF DOMINGO XE. NOEL BETETA ALVAREZ, SUSPECTED OF STABBING MYRNA MACK, WAS ARRESTED FOLLOWING DEPORTATION FROM THE UNITED STATES. AT THE TIME OF MACK'S DEATH, BETETA WAS WORKING FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL MILITARY STAFF OF THE PRIOR ADMINISTRATION. IN DECEMBER A COURT FOUND SUFFICIENT PRIMA FACIE EVIDENCE AGAINST BETETA TO JUSTIFY JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS. THESE WERE UNDER WAY AS 1991 ENDED. THE DISCOVERY OF ELEVEN TORTURE AND MURDER VICTIMS IN AUGUST LED TO THE QUICK ARREST OF SEVEN NAVY PERSONNEL, INCLUDING THE COMMANDER OF THE PACIFIC NAVAL BASE. IN MARCH THE SUPREME COURT DISMISSED THE GOVERNMENT'S APPEAL OF THE 1990 DISMISSAL BY AN APPEALS COURT OF THE CONVICTIONS OF SIX QUETZALTENANGO POLICEMEN FOR THE KIDNAPING AND MURDER OF TWO STUDENTS IN 1986.

THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE'S PRELIMINARY REPORT FOR 1991 INDICATED THAT HE HAD RECEIVED 182 COMPLAINTS OF DISAPPEARANCES (COMPARED TO 233 FOR ALL 1990). THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE REPORTED 144 DISAPPEARANCES FOR THE PERIOD, WHILE THE GAM REPORTED 126 KIDNAPINGS. MOST POLITICAL DISAPPEARANCES WERE CREDIBLY BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN COMMITTED BY PERSONS LINKED TO THE ARMED FORCES; THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT IDENTIFY AND PROSECUTE THESE PERSONS.

ACCORDING TO WITNESSES, A REPORTED MEMBER OF CERJ, FELIPE LOPEZ MENDOZA, WAS ABDUCTED IN JUNE BY TWO MEN NEAR SANTA CRUZ DEL QUICHE; NO RECORD OF HIS ARREST OR DETENTION WAS EVER FOUND. IN JUNE YOLANDA FIGUEROA, A LEADER IN THE CUSTOM WORKERS UNION, WAS THE INTENDED VICTIM OF A KIDNAPING. A TREASURY POLICEMAN FOILED THE CRIME, WOUNDING TWO ASSAILANTS. IN APRIL CERJ LEADER ANILCAR MENDEZ REPORTED A KIDNAPING ATTEMPT IN GUATEMALA CITY IN WHICH MEN TRIED TO DRAG HIM FROM HIS CAR INTO ANOTHER VEHICLE, DESISTING ONLY WHEN A CROWD GATHERED. IN MAY CERJ MEMBER MIGUEL SUCUQUI CHARGED THAT HE WAS THE VICTIM OF AN ABORTED KIDNAPING ATTEMPT BY A LOCAL PAC.

C. TORTURE AND OTHER CRUEL, INHUMAN, OR DEGRADING TREATMENT OR PUNISHMENT

AS IN PAST YEARS, MANY BODIES FOUND THROUGHOUT GUATEMALA BORE SIGNS OF TORTURE OR POSTMORTEM MUTILATION. SUCH TREATMENT,

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

HOWEVER, IS NOT NECESSARILY EVIDENCE OF SECURITY FORCE INVOLVEMENT: GANGS AND OTHER CRIMINALS, AS WELL AS GUERRILLAS, ALL USE TORTURE. THERE WERE, NEVERTHELESS, MANY CREDIBLE REPORTS OF TORTURE AND MISTREATMENT BY SECURITY FORCES. THERE WERE ALSO CREDIBLE REPORTS OF THE USE OF EXCESSIVE FORCE BY POLICE AT THE TIME OF ARREST AND OF ABUSIVE TREATMENT BY ARMY PERSONNEL, CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS, MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, AND POLICE OF PERSONS IN RURAL AREAS.

IN APRIL POLICE IN CHIQUIMULA ARRESTED THE EX-SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE ELECTRIC WORKERS' UNION, OTTO IVAN RODRIGUEZ, CLAIMING THAT HE BELONGED TO A CAR THEFT RING. THEY BEAT HIM, NEARLY BLINDING HIM IN ONE EYE. THE ABUSE ENDED WHEN A JUDGE HAD RODRIGUEZ TAKEN FROM THE LOCAL JAIL TO ONE IN GUATEMALA CITY WHERE HE RECEIVED MEDICAL TREATMENT. HE WAS FREED ON APRIL 25 AND LEFT THE COUNTRY. ANOTHER REPORTED CASE OF ABUSE IN OFFICIAL DETENTION WAS THAT OF MESSRS. ROSALES, TRUJILLO, AND CASTILLO WHO WERE ARRESTED IN AUGUST. REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE VISITED THE THREE PRISONERS AND CONFIRMED THAT THEY WERE ABUSED BY THE NATIONAL POLICE. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, REPORTING ON THE CASE, DENOUNCED THE POLICE AND DEMANDED THE RESIGNATION OF THE NATIONAL POLICE DIRECTOR, A RETIRED ARMY COLONEL. HE WAS REPLACED BY A CIVILIAN, THE FIRST TO HEAD THE POLICE IN MANY YEARS. JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS WERE BEGUN AGAINST THE POLICE OFFICERS THOUGHT TO BE INVOLVED IN THE TORTURE. JULIO CHUALCUBEN, WHO WAS KIDNAPED ON DECEMBER 16, 1990, WAS FOUND NEAR DEATH ON A RURAL HIGHWAY

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

10 DAYS LATER AND TAKEN TO A HOSPITAL, WHERE HE REMAINED SEMICOMATOSE UNTIL JUNE. AFTER REGAINING CONSCIOUSNESS, HE DID NOT HAVE THE USE OF HIS VOICE, LEGS, AND RIGHT ARM, BUT HE DESCRIBED HIS ORDEAL BY WRITING WITH HIS LEFT HAND. ACCORDING TO HIS ACCOUNT, MILITARY COMMISSIONERS ACCUSED HIM OF BEING A GUERRILLA AND TOOK HIM TO SOLOLA'S ARMY BASE, WHERE HE WAS INTERROGATED, TORTURED, AND LEFT FOR DEAD. DURING HIS ORDEAL, BASE OFFICERS HAD IGNORED WRITS OF HABEAS CORPUS PRESENTED ON HIS BEHALF. THE CASE HAS NOT BEEN INVESTIGATED. IN MARCH THE OMBUDSMAN CHARGED ABUSE AT AN ARMY BASE NEAR IZABAL WHERE VICTIMS AND OTHER PEOPLE IN THE AREA SAID THAT THE BASE COMMANDER AND MILITARY COMMISSIONERS SOUGHT TO PUSH THEM OFF LAND WANTED BY A LOCAL FIRM. THE OMBUDSMAN ASKED THE DEFENSE MINISTER TO INVESTIGATE; THE COMMANDER WAS PUT AT THE "DISPOSAL" OF A MILITARY JUDGE. NOTHING FURTHER WAS HEARD ABOUT THE INCIDENT BY YEAR'S END.

THE GOVERNMENT UNDERTOOK EFFORTS TO END POLICE ABUSE OF STREET CHILDREN; THE NEW POLICE DIRECTOR ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS MADE CLEAR HE WOULD NOT TOLERATE ABUSE OF STREET CHILDREN, AND REPORTS OF SUCH INCIDENTS DECLINED IN 1991. HOWEVER, ON OCTOBER 23 TWO POLICE CADETS STOPPED AND BEAT 17-YEAR OLD WALTER FEDERICO FLORES, LEAVING HIM IN THE STREET UNCONSCIOUS,

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

WHEN FLORES OBJECTED TO TURNING OVER HIS IDENTIFICATION PAPERS. THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR PROMISED TO LOOK INTO THE MATTER BUT, AS OF THE END OF THE YEAR, NO RESULTS HAD BEEN ANNOUNCED. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL APPOINTED A SPECIAL PROSECUTOR AND A SPECIAL INVESTIGATOR TO LOOK INTO THE CASE OF SISTER DIANA ORTIZ, AN AMERICAN NUN WHO REPORTED BEING KIDNAPED, RAPED, AND TORTURED IN NOVEMBER 1989.

D. ARBITRARY ARREST, DETENTION, OR EXILE

A COURT-ISSUED ARREST WARRANT IS REQUIRED UNLESS A PERSON IS CAUGHT COMMITTING A CRIME. POLICE MAY NOT KEEP A SUSPECT FOR OVER 6 HOURS WITHOUT BRINGING HIM TO A JUDGE. THE LAW PROVIDES FOR BAIL, ACCESS TO LAWYERS, AND LIMITS TO 20 DAYS THE TIME ANYONE MAY BE HELD, AFTER WHICH HE MUST BE CHARGED OR FREED. AUTHORITIES MUST PRODUCE DETAINEES ON REQUEST.

DESPITE THESE SAFEGUARDS, THERE ARE FREQUENT CREDIBLE REPORTS OF ARBITRARY ARREST AND INCOMMUNICADO DETENTION BY SECURITY FORCES. THOSE ENGAGED IN SUCH DETENTIONS ROUTINELY IGNORE WRITS OF HABEAS CORPUS. A PRELIMINARY REPORT BY THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN INDICATED THAT HIS OFFICE WAS INVESTIGATING 10 CREDIBLE COMPLAINTS OF ILLEGAL ARREST IN THE CAPITAL. THERE WAS RELIABLE EVIDENCE OF DETENTIONS BY GUERRILLAS. GUERRILLAS FORCED SOME RURAL RESIDENTS TO TAKE PART IN PATROLS SIMILAR TO PAC PATROLS. GUERRILLAS OPERATING NEAR THE CAPITAL WERE ALSO REPORTED TO HAVE TAKEN SEVERAL CIVILIAN HOSTAGES IN OCTOBER.

EXILE IS NOT USED.

E. DENIAL OF FAIR PUBLIC TRIAL

THE CONSTITUTION PROVIDES FOR AN INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY COMPRISED OF A COURT OF CONSTITUTIONALITY, A SUPREME COURT, APPEALS COURTS, AND SEVERAL COURTS OF SPECIAL JURISDICTION, SUCH AS LABOR COURTS. MILITARY COURTS HAVE JURISDICTION OVER MILITARY PERSONNEL, INCLUDING MILITARY COMMISSIONERS BUT NOT MEMBERS OF THE PAC, THEREBY LIMITING THE ABILITY OF CIVILIAN COURTS TO PROSECUTE MILITARY PERSONNEL IN HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSE

CASES. CIVILIAN TRIALS ARE PUBLIC; DEFENDANTS HAVE THE RIGHT TO BE PRESENT AND TO LEGAL REPRESENTATION. AN APPEALS COURT AUTOMATICALLY REVIEWS CONVICTIONS.

THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM IS VIRTUALLY INEFFECTIVE IN HUMAN RIGHTS CASES. MOST HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS ARE NEVER INVESTIGATED;

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

SECURITY FORCES ARE RELUCTANT TO INVESTIGATE CASES IN WHICH THEIR COLLEAGUES ARE IMPLICATED. JUDGES ARE SUSCEPTIBLE TO INTIMIDATION AND CORRUPTION, SUFFER LOW PAY, BAD WORKING CONDITIONS, AND LOW MORALE. IN OCTOBER THE CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT DENOUNCED PRESSURE ON JUDGES BY ARMY OFFICERS IN RURAL AREAS, AND U.N. HUMAN RIGHTS EXPERT CHRISTIAN TOMUSCHAT ECHOED THOSE CHARGES.

THERE ARE NO KNOWN POLITICAL PRISONERS.

F. ARBITRARY INTERFERENCE WITH PRIVACY, FAMILY, HOME, OR CORRESPONDENCE

THE CONSTITUTION PROVIDES FOR THE INVIOLABILITY OF HOME, CORRESPONDENCE, AND PRIVATE DOCUMENTS, PROVISIONS THAT ARE NOT ALWAYS RESPECTED. ARMY INTELLIGENCE UNITS MONITOR PRIVATE COMMUNICATIONS. IN ADDITION, OFFICIALS ENFORCING THE MILITARY DRAFT FREQUENTLY ENTERED HOMES AND PLACES OF BUSINESS WITHOUT THE LEGALLY REQUIRED COURT ORDERS.

THE CONSTITUTION REQUIRES THAT PAC SERVICE BE VOLUNTARY. HOWEVER, ARMY OFFICERS, MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, AND PAC LEADERS OFTEN PRESSURE MEN IN CONFLICT ZONES TO BECOME PAC MEMBERS. THERE ARE CREDIBLE REPORTS THAT THOSE WHO REFUSE TO SERVE HAVE SUFFERED SERIOUS ABUSE, INCLUDING DEATH.

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

G. USE OF EXCESSIVE FORCE AND VIOLATIONS OF HUMANITARIAN LAW IN INTERNAL CONFLICTS

DESPITE THE EFFORTS OF PRESIDENT SERRANO, THE INTERNAL ARMED CONFLICT ENTERED ITS 31ST YEAR IN 1991 AND CONTINUED TO BE A CAUSE OF MAJOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. THERE CONTINUED TO BE CHARGES OF INDISCRIMINATE ARMY "CARPET BOMBINGS" AND ARTILLERY BARRAGES; GIVEN THE SMALL, TIGHTLY CONTROLLED AERIAL AND ARTILLERY ASSETS OF THE ARMY, THESE CHARGES ARE NOT CREDIBLE. IN OCTOBER THE PRESS REPORTED AN AERIAL ATTACK ON A GUERRILLA-CONTROLLED POPULAR COMMUNITY IN RESISTANCE (CPR) NAMED CABA JUST PRIOR TO THE SCHEDULED VISIT OF U.N. HUMAN RIGHTS EXPERT TOMUSCHAT. SUBSEQUENT INFORMATION, HOWEVER, SHOWED THE FIRING WAS NOT AIMED AT CABA, BUT WAS IN RESPONSE TO GUERRILLAS 3 KILOMETERS AWAY WHO HAD FIRED ON AN ARMY HELICOPTER. LITTLE INFORMATION EXISTS ON THE FATE OF MANY CAPTURED GUERRILLAS. INFORMATION FROM PREVIOUS YEARS, HOWEVER, LEADS TO THE CONCLUSION THAT SUCH PERSONS OFTEN FACED TORTURE AND DEATH AT THE HANDS OF THEIR MILITARY CAPTORS. THERE WERE SOME DOCUMENTED CASES, HOWEVER, OF GUERRILLAS WHO APPLIED FOR AND RECEIVED AMNESTY AND WERE WELL TREATED.

IN OCTOBER THE ARMY CHARGED THAT GUERRILLAS SUMMARILY EXECUTED FOUR WOUNDED SOLDIERS; THE REPORT WAS PLAUSIBLE BUT WITHOUT

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

INDEPENDENT CONFIRMATION. GUERRILLAS USED CHILDREN AS YOUNG AS 12 YEARS OF AGE IN COMBAT AND AS YOUNG AS 7 IN SUCH NONCOMBAT ROLES AS LOOKOUTS AND COURIERS. THEY ALSO MADE WIDE USE OF LANDMINES AND OTHER EXPLOSIVES, INCLUDING "PAMPHLET BOMBS," ONE OF WHICH INJURED A GIRL AT THE CAPITAL'S ZOO. IN FEBRUARY THE GUERRILLA ARMY OF THE POOR (EGP) IN NORTHERN QUICHE ATTACKED A 13-MAN PAC, KILLING 10 AND WOUNDING 3. WITNESSES SAID THE EGP HAD CAUGHT THE LIGHTLY ARMED PAC IN A WELL-LAID AMBUSH AND SUMMARILY EXECUTED SOME OF THE WOUNDED. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, WHO BARELY ESCAPED INJURY WHEN HIS HELICOPTER TOOK GUERRILLA FIRE, FOUND THAT THE EGP VIOLATED INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW. IN MARCH GUERRILLAS AMBUSHED A POLICE CAR ESCORTING A BICYCLE RACE IN SOLOLA; TWO POLICEMEN DIED AND THE CAR WAS SET AFIRE. GUERRILLAS KILLED TWO MORE POLICEMEN IN NUEVA VINAS IN JULY. THIS INCIDENT LED TO A PUBLIC OUTCRY, AND IN AUGUST GUERRILLAS PROMISED THEY WOULD NO LONGER TARGET POLICEMEN. SINCE THEN, NO MORE ATTACKS HAVE TAKEN PLACE.

IN MARCH POLICE DISLODGED SQUATTERS ON A PACIFIC COAST ESTATE, FINCA OLGA MARIA. A WOMAN WAS KILLED AND SEVERAL OTHER PERSONS, INCLUDING POLICE, WERE HURT. THREE FOREIGNERS OF THE PEACE BRIGADES WERE ARRESTED AND REQUIRED TO LEAVE GUATEMALA. THE OMBUDSMAN CHARGED THAT THE POLICE USED PREMEDITATED LETHAL FORCE AND ACTED WITHOUT A JUDICIAL ORDER. A POLICE OFFICIAL WAS REMOVED FROM HIS POST BY THE INTERIOR MINISTER, AND MURDER CHARGES WERE FILED AGAINST HIM.

AN ARMY LIEUTENANT AND A SERGEANT WERE ARRESTED, CONVICTED, AND SENTENCED TO 4 YEARS AND 16 YEARS RESPECTIVELY FOR THE 1990 SANTIAGO DE ATITLAN MASSACRE IN WHICH 14 PEOPLE WERE KILLED, INCLUDING TWO CHILDREN, DURING A PEACEFUL DEMONSTRATION AGAINST ARMY ABUSES. ARMED ARMY PERSONNEL ON PATROL APPROACHED THE TOWN OF SANTIAGO DE ATITLAN IN MID-1991 BUT WERE CONFRONTED BY LOCAL RESIDENTS AND TURNED AWAY.

SECTION 2 RESPECT FOR CIVIL LIBERTIES, INCLUDING:

A. FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND PRESS

THE CONSTITUTION PROVIDES FOR FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION, AND CRITICS OF THE GOVERNMENT, INCLUDING GUERRILLA LEADERS, HAD ACCESS TO THE MEDIA--NEARLY ALL OF WHICH, INCLUDING TELEVISION, IS PRIVATELY OWNED. A RANGE OF ORGANIZATIONS, MANY CRITICAL OF THE GOVERNMENT, HAVE THEIR OWN PUBLICATIONS, INCLUDING THE OMBUDSMAN, WHO BEGAN A MONTHLY NEWSLETTER DURING THE YEAR.

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

HOWEVER, A SERIES OF ATTEMPTS OF UNDETERMINED ORIGIN TO INTIMIDATE THE MEDIA OCCURRED IN AUGUST AND SEPTEMBER. THESE INCLUDED ANONYMOUS TELEPHONE THREATS AND THE PLACING OF A POWERFUL BOMB (DEACTIVATED BY SECURITY FORCES) IN A LARGE OFFICE BUILDING WHERE MANY FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC PRESS AGENCIES ARE LOCATED. TWO MEN ENTERED THE OFFICES OF THE PRESS AGENCY NOTIMEX, THREATENED THE SECRETARY, AND RIFLED THROUGH FILES. TWO DAYS LATER, THE HOME OF THE NOTIMEX CORRESPONDENT WAS ENTERED AND RANSACKED. THE LOCAL INTERNATIONAL PRESS SERVICE (IPS) CORRESPONDENT HAD TO LEAVE GUATEMALA AFTER RECEIVING THREATS, BUT THE OFFICE REMAINED OPEN. THE GOVERNMENT DID LITTLE TO INVESTIGATE THESE INCIDENTS.

THERE WERE NUMEROUS WARNINGS TO JOURNALISTS NOT TO PUBLISH ARTICLES ON THE CASES OF MICHAEL DEVINE, MYRNA MACK, THE ATTEMPTED MURDER OF JOURNALIST BYRON BARRERA (HIS WIFE DIED IN THE ATTACK) IN 1990, AND ON SEVERAL U.S. NARCOTICS-RELATED EXTRADITION REQUESTS. MANY JOURNALISTS COMPLAINED THAT THE SERRANO ADMINISTRATION SHOWED LITTLE SYMPATHY OR CONCERN FOR THREATENED NEWSMEN. MEDIA REPRESENTATIVES OPENLY DENOUNCED THE THREATS AND VOWED TO CONTINUE THEIR WORK ON HUMAN RIGHTS CASES AND OTHER SENSITIVE TOPICS. NEVERTHELESS, THERE CONTINUED TO BE SELF-CENSORSHIP ON CERTAIN TOPICS, SUCH AS

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

INVESTIGATIVE REPORTING INTO CORRUPTION IN THE MILITARY OR INTO ILLEGAL ACTIONS BY POWERFUL POLITICIANS.

B. FREEDOM OF PEACEFUL ASSEMBLY AND ASSOCIATION

THE CONSTITUTION RECOGNIZES THE RIGHTS OF PEACEFUL ASSEMBLY AND ASSOCIATION: PARADES, RALLIES, MARCHES, FORUMS, DEBATES, AND SEMINARS ON VARIOUS TOPICS, INCLUDING HUMAN RIGHTS, TOOK PLACE OPENLY AND FREELY. ORGANIZATIONS REQUIRE LEGAL ASSOCIATION STATUS, A CUMBERSOME AND EXPENSIVE PROCEDURE WHICH WORKS AGAINST ORGANIZATIONS WITHOUT GOOD FUNDING OR LEGAL COUNSEL. WHILE LEGALLY ORGANIZATIONS MUST HAVE ASSOCIATION STATUS, NOT HAVING IT DID NOT STOP GROUPS, INCLUDING SOME WITH FOREIGN TIES, FROM OPERATING OPENLY. IN OCTOBER GUATEMALA PLAYED HOST TO AN INTERNATIONAL INDIGENOUS PEOPLES' GATHERING ENTITLED "500 YEAR STRUGGLE AGAINST OPPRESSION" TO MARK THE ANNIVERSARY OF CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS' ARRIVAL IN AMERICA.

C. FREEDOM OF RELIGION

NO STATE RELIGION EXISTS. RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IS CONSTITUTIONALLY GUARANTEED AND IS GENERALLY RESPECTED IN PRACTICE. RELIGIOUS PERSONNEL ARE SOMETIMES THREATENED, ABUSED, OR KILLED FOR POLITICAL REASONS. ABOUT 70 PERCENT OF GUATEMALA IS NOMINALLY CATHOLIC, BUT MANY OTHER FAITHS OPENLY EXIST.

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

D. FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT WITHIN THE COUNTRY, FOREIGN TRAVEL, EMIGRATION, AND REPATRIATION

THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT RESTRICT FOREIGN TRAVEL, NOR DID IT

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

REVOKE CITIZENSHIP FOR POLITICAL REASONS. MOVEMENT INSIDE GUATEMALA WAS UNRESTRICTED EXCEPT IN SOME CONFLICT AREAS. THE EGP CONTINUED TO LIMIT TRAVEL IN AREAS UNDER THEIR CONTROL. THE ARMY, MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, AND THE PAC ALSO LIMITED TRAVEL IN SOME AREAS.

REPATRIATION OF REFUGEES CONTINUED; 1,200 TO 1,300 RETURNED DURING 1991 AND PLANS WERE UNDER WAY FOR REPATRIATION OF MANY OF THE 40,000 TO 45,000 REFUGEES IN MEXICO.

SECTION 3 RESPECT FOR POLITICAL RIGHTS: THE RIGHT OF CITIZENS TO CHANGE THEIR GOVERNMENT

GUATEMALANS HAVE THE RIGHT TO CHANGE THEIR GOVERNMENT BY PEACEFUL AND DEMOCRATIC MEANS. UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE BY SECRET BALLOT EXISTS FOR THOSE 18 YEARS OF AGE OR OLDER; THERE ARE NO PROPERTY OR LITERACY REQUIREMENTS. VOTING IS NOT MANDATORY. NATIONAL ELECTIONS WERE HELD ON NOVEMBER 11, 1990, AND, FOLLOWING A RUN-OFF ON JANUARY 6, JORGE SERRANO TOOK OFFICE AS PRESIDENT ON JANUARY 14. INTERNATIONAL OBSERVERS FOUND THE ELECTIONS TO BE FREE AND FAIR. EIGHT PARTIES OR GROUPINGS FROM CENTER-LEFT TO FAR-RIGHT HAVE SEATS IN THE CONGRESS AS DO SEVERAL INDEPENDENTS.

SECTION 4 GOVERNMENTAL ATTITUDE REGARDING INTERNATIONAL AND NONGOVERNMENTAL INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS

THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT HINDER INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS. LOCAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS AND ORGANIZATIONS ARE PERMITTED TO OPERATE IN GUATEMALA, BUT MEMBERS OF SOME OF THESE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

GROUPS CONTINUE TO SUFFER THREATS AND VIOLENCE AT THE HANDS OF THE SECURITY FORCES OR THE PAC'S (SEE SECTION 1.A.).

THE OFFICE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN EXPANDED IN SIZE AND ACTIVITY. IT ISSUED MANY REPORTS AND CRITICIZED BOTH THE GOVERNMENT AND GUERRILLAS FOR ABUSES. THE OFFICE REMAINED THE MOST RELIABLE SOURCE OF OBJECTIVE INFORMATION ON HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES. THE GOVERNMENT'S RELATIONS WITH THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN WERE OFTEN TENSE; OFFICIALS OFTEN IMPUTED POLITICAL MOTIVES TO HIS CRITICISMS. HOWEVER, THE GOVERNMENT RESPONDED

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

TO SOME CRITICISM BY NAMING SPECIAL PROSECUTORS TO HANDLE PARTICULARLY NOTORIOUS CASES AND CREATING A CABINET-LEVEL HUMAN RIGHTS ADVISORY COMMITTEE. WHEN CERJ LEADER ANILCAR MENDEZ REPORTED THREATS, HE QUICKLY RECEIVED A POLICE ESCORT. HOWEVER, MR. MENDEZ REPORTED THAT PRESIDENT SERRANO MADE STATEMENTS THAT UNFAIRLY ASSOCIATED HIM WITH GUERRILLA ACTIVITIES.

SENIOR OFFICIALS MET REPRESENTATIVES OF NUMEROUS FOREIGN AND INTERNATIONAL NONGOVERNMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS, SEVERAL OF WHICH HAVE LOCAL OFFICES. THE U.N. HUMAN RIGHTS EXPERT VISITED GUATEMALA AND RECEIVED WIDE PRESS COVERAGE FOR HIS OFTEN CRITICAL COMMENTS. SOME FOREIGN GROUPS TOOK PART IN THE LOCATION AND EXHUMATION OF CLANDESTINE CEMETERIES. THE INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE RED CROSS OPERATED OPENLY AND VISITED VILLAGES CONTROLLED BY THE GUERRILLAS.

SECTION 5 DISCRIMINATION BASED ON RACE, SEX, RELIGION, LANGUAGE, OR SOCIAL STATUS

OVER ONE HALF OF THE POPULATION IS CULTURALLY INDIGENOUS AND

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

THE REST CULTURALLY EUROPEAN. WHILE HAVING EQUAL LEGAL RIGHTS, MANY INDIGENOUS PEOPLE STILL REMAINED OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY'S PREDOMINANT CULTURE, LANGUAGE, AND ECONOMY. RURAL INDIGENOUS MEN WERE MORE LIKELY THAN URBAN COUNTERPARTS TO BE DRAFTED BY THE ARMY OR FORCIBLY RECRUITED BY GUERRILLA GROUPS. INDIGENOUS PEOPLE SUFFERED MOST OF THE SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES (SEE SECTIONS 1.A. AND 1.B.). ALTHOUGH THERE ARE SOME INDIGENOUS ARMY OFFICERS, CONGRESSMEN, AND JUDGES, THERE IS WIDESPREAD AND PERVASIVE DISCRIMINATION AGAINST INDIGENOUS PEOPLE, WHO HAVE LIMITED EDUCATIONAL AND EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES. ILLITERACY AMONG INDIGENOUS PEOPLE IS PREVALENT. OVER HALF OF THE POPULATION ARE NOT NATIVE SPANISH SPEAKERS AND FACE MYRIAD DIFFICULTIES IN INTERACTIONS WITH OFFICIALS, FEW OF WHOM SPEAK INDIGENOUS LANGUAGES, THEREBY LIMITING ACCESS TO A VARIETY OF PUBLIC SERVICES, INCLUDING THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM.

WOMEN ARE ACTIVE IN THE LABOR FORCE, ESPECIALLY IN THE TEXTILE INDUSTRY, AGRICULTURE, RETAIL BUSINESS, AND IN LOWER PAYING PUBLIC SECTOR JOBS. SEVERAL WOMEN HOLD PROMINENT POLITICAL POSITIONS, INCLUDING AT THE CABINET LEVEL. DESPITE LEGAL PROTECTION, WOMEN FACE JOB DISCRIMINATION AND RECEIVE LOWER PAY THAN MEN. THERE ARE NO MAJOR ORGANIZATIONS DEVOTED TO WOMEN'S ISSUES. VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN, INCLUDING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, REMAINS COMMON BUT RECEIVES LITTLE ATTENTION. CRIMINAL SEXUAL VIOLENCE OFTEN GOES UNREPORTED BY VICTIMS, AND RELATIVELY FEW RAPE CASES CAME TO COURT. THE OMBUDSMAN NAMED A WOMAN AS A DEPUTY WITH PARTICULAR RESPONSIBILITY FOR VIOLATIONS OF WOMEN'S RIGHTS.

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

ASIDE FROM PRIVATE CLUBS THAT BAR MEMBERSHIP TO PERSONS OF CERTAIN RELIGIONS, GUATEMALA IS VERY TOLERANT OF RELIGIOUS DIVERSITY. GOVERNMENT AND BUSINESS HAS SENIOR PERSONNEL FROM MANY FAITHS.

SECTION 6 WORKER RIGHTS

A. THE RIGHT OF ASSOCIATION

WORKERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO JOIN OR FORM UNIONS. ABOUT 8 PERCENT OF THE WORK FORCE IS ORGANIZED, INCLUDING MUCH OF THE PUBLIC SECTOR. DUE TO THEIR COMPLEXITY, PROVISIONS OF THE LABOR CODE SERVE TO HINDER BOTH THE ABILITY TO ORGANIZE UNIONS AND TO OBTAIN THE NECESSARY LEGAL RECOGNITION. DURING 1991 THE GOVERNMENT USED ADMINISTRATIVE POWERS TO SIMPLIFY RULES FOR UNION RECOGNITION. UNIONS MUST HAVE AT LEAST 20 MEMBERS, BUT CRAFT UNIONS OF SKILLED WORKERS EMPLOYED BY SEVERAL COMPANIES ARE PERMITTED. SOME EMPLOYERS, HOWEVER, SEEK TO AVOID UNIONIZATION BY FORMING SEVERAL ENTITIES OF FEWER THAN 20 WORKERS EACH. A COURT RULING IN 1990 OPENED THE POSSIBILITY THAT UNIONS COULD ORGANIZE THESE SEPARATE ENTITIES INTO A SINGLE UNION. WORKERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO STRIKE, BUT PROCEDURES INVOLVED MADE LEGAL STRIKES CUMBERSOME; MOST OCCUR WITHOUT PERMISSION. IN PRACTICE, THE GOVERNMENT MADE NO EFFORT TO DETERMINE THEIR LEGALITY. THE STRUCTURAL WEAKNESS OF ORGANIZED LABOR AND THE LACK OF FUNDS LIMIT THE DURATION OF MOST STRIKES.

UNION LEADERS MAY SERVE ONLY ONE TERM IN A UNION OFFICE, BUT BY ROTATING OFFICES THE SAME PERSONS STAY ON UNIONS' BOARDS OF DIRECTORS. THE CONSTITUTION PROTECTS THE RIGHT OF POLITICAL PARTICIPATION FOR INDIVIDUALS AND DROPS PREVIOUS PROHIBITIONS RESTRICTING PARTICIPATION BY UNIONS AND THEIR LEADERS. ONE PROMINENT UNION LEADER WAS ELECTED TO CONGRESS IN 1990; TWO

OTHERS ARE ALTERNATES. UNIONS MAY FORM FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS, AND JOIN INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS.

A "SOLIDARITY" MOVEMENT WAS ACTIVE; CRITICS CHARGED IT WAS PROMOTED BY MANAGEMENT TO RIVAL GENUINE UNIONS. UNIONS CONTINUED TO OPERATE IN WORKPLACES WHICH HAVE "SOLIDARITY" ASSOCIATIONS. THE GOVERNMENT MADE CLEAR THESE ASSOCIATIONS EXIST AS CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS, AND, AS SUCH, NEED NOT LIMIT THE ABILITY OF LEGAL TRADE UNIONS TO FUNCTION.

A DRAFT LABOR CODE, DRAWN UP WITH HELP FROM THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION (ILO), REMAINED UNDER CONSIDERATION BY THE

LABOR COMMITTEE IN CONGRESS. THE COMMITTEE GAVE A FAVORABLE RECOMMENDATION OR JULY 10 IN THE FIRST OF THREE REQUIRED READINGS.

LOCAL AND INTERNATIONAL LABOR AND HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS, INCLUDING THE INTERNATIONAL CONFEDERATION OF FREE TRADE UNIONS, CHARGED THAT UNIONISTS WERE "PARTICULAR TARGETS OF DEATH SQUADS." THERE HAVE BEEN THREATS AND VIOLENCE AGAINST UNIONISTS BY MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY FORCES (SEE SECTIONS 1.A. AND 1.C.). HOWEVER, LABOR VIOLENCE GENERALLY INVOLVED "THUGS" USED ON AN AD HOC BASIS BY EMPLOYERS OPPOSED TO UNIONS. PERPETRATORS OF THESE CRIMINAL ACTS ARE SELDOM PROSECUTED.

AT ITS MAY-JUNE 1991 SESSION, THE ILO'S COMMITTEE ON FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION (CFA) NOTED WITH DEEP REGRET THAT, OTHER THAN INDICATING THE POSSIBILITY OF ADOPTING A POLICY OF GUARANTEEING THE PROTECTION, SAFETY, AND FREEDOM OF ACTION OF TRADE UNION LEADERS ENABLING THEM TO CARRY OUT THEIR FUNCTIONS, THE GOVERNMENT FAILED TO PROVIDE ANY SPECIFIC INFORMATION ON

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

MEASURES TAKEN EITHER IN THIS REGARD OR ON THE OUTCOME OF JUDICIAL INQUIRIES INTO THE DEATH AND TORTURE OF A LARGE NUMBER OF TRADE UNION LEADERS. THE CFA AGAIN URGED THE GOVERNMENT TO SET UP INDEPENDENT JUDICIAL INQUIRIES TO ASCERTAIN THE FACTS IN THESE CASES. IN A RELATED DEVELOPMENT, THE ICFTU CALLED FOR A FULL INVESTIGATION OF REPORTS THAT FORMER UNION LEADER OTTO RODRIGUEZ WAS TORTURED FOLLOWING HIS ARREST FOR ALLEGED CAR THEFT. THE NATIONAL OMBUDSMAN FOR HUMAN RIGHTS MET WITH TRADE UNION LEADERS IN EARLY DECEMBER TO HEAR COMPLAINTS RELATED TO THREATS AGAINST THEM OR OTHER UNION ACTIVISTS. FOLLOWING THIS SESSION, THE OMBUDSMAN COMMITTED HIS ORGANIZATION TO ESTABLISH A SPECIAL OFFICE, HEADED BY A UNION LEADER, TO HANDLE COMPLAINTS RELATED TO TRADE UNION ACTIVITIES.

B. THE RIGHT TO ORGANIZE AND BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY

WORKERS HAVE THE LEGAL RIGHT TO ORGANIZE AND BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY BUT OFTEN FACE DISCRIMINATORY ANTIUNION ACTIONS BY EMPLOYERS. LABOR COURTS, RESPONSIBLE FOR ENFORCING LAWS PROHIBITING SUCH DISCRIMINATION, ARE INEFFECTIVE. THE LABOR MINISTRY INDICATED ITS INTENTION TO CONCENTRATE ON IMPROVING THE ADMINISTRATION OF LABOR LAWS.

LABOR LAWS AND REGULATIONS APPLY THROUGHOUT GUATEMALA. THE LAW AUTHORIZING ESTABLISHMENT OF EXPORT PROCESSING ZONES SPECIFIES THAT ALL LABOR CODE PROVISIONS BE APPLIED. HOWEVER, IN APRIL THE MINISTRY OF LABOR AND SOCIAL WELFARE, WITH THE ASSISTANCE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, ISSUED A REPORT ON THE TEXTILE PLANTS IN THE EXPORT ZONE SECTOR. THE REPORT DOCUMENTED WORKER RIGHTS ABUSES IN SOME PLANTS, INCLUDING MISTREATMENT OF WORKERS, LOW WAGES, LONG HOURS, AND POOR WORKING CONDITIONS.

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

THE REPORT PUT FORWARD PROPOSALS TO PROTECT WORKERS, AND THE GOVERNMENT CREATED A COMMISSION TO PROPOSE REFORMS TO THE 1989 EXPORT PROCESSING ZONE LAW.

C. PROHIBITION OF FORCED OR COMPULSORY LABOR

THE CONSTITUTION BARS FORCED LABOR, AND THE PRACTICE GENERALLY DOES NOT EXIST. HOWEVER, SOME GROUPS CHARGE THAT FORCED PARTICIPATION IN THE PAC VIOLATED PROHIBITIONS AGAINST FORCED LABOR. THERE HAVE BEEN CREDIBLE REPORTS OF ISOLATED INSTANCES OF UNPAID PAC MEMBERS BEING USED TO PROVIDE FREE MANUAL LABOR, BUT NO SYSTEMATIC PATTERN OF SUCH ABUSE WAS ESTABLISHED.

D. MINIMUM AGE FOR THE EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN

THE CONSTITUTION BARS EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS UNDER THE AGE OF 14. IN THE INDUSTRIAL SECTOR WHERE THE LABOR CODE IS FAIRLY EASY TO ENFORCE, CHILD LABOR IS UNCOMMON BUT NOT, HOWEVER, IN THE INFORMAL AND AGRICULTURAL SECTORS. CHILDREN OFTEN HELP RUN FAMILY BUSINESSES, WORK AS DOMESTIC HELP, ENGAGE IN BEGGING, AND WASH AUTOMOBILES. A LOCAL ORGANIZATION, CASA ALIANZA, WHICH PROMOTES THE RIGHTS OF STREET CHILDREN, ESTIMATED THAT OVER 5,000 CHILDREN LIVE IN THE CAPITAL CITY'S STREETS; THEY ARE OFTEN INVOLVED IN PROSTITUTION AND OTHER CRIMES.

E. ACCEPTABLE CONDITIONS OF WORK

THE WORKDAY IS LEGALLY 8 HOURS AND THE WORKWEEK 44 HOURS, BUT A TRADITION OF MUCH LONGER HOURS REMAINS. AS NOTED IN THE APRIL REPORT ON THE EXPORT PROCESSING ZONE INDUSTRY, MOST OWNERS OF TEXTILE PLANTS PAID MINIMUM WAGES FOR A 12-HOUR DAY, VIOLATING

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

BOTH THE CONSTITUTION AND THE LABOR CODE. SEVERAL COMPLAINTS OF BEATINGS AND FIRINGS OF TEXTILE WORKERS ACCUSED OF FAILING TO MEET WORK REQUIREMENTS WERE MADE TO THE LABOR MINISTRY. LABOR INSPECTORS, WHO REPORT TO THE LABOR COURTS, WERE ACCUSED OF A LACK OF DILIGENCE IN ENFORCING THE 8-HOUR DAY, IN PART BECAUSE THE HIGHLY MOBILE THIRD-COUNTRY TEXTILE PLANTS MOVE WHEN THEY FIND CONDITIONS MORE ATTRACTIVE ELSEWHERE.

LITTLE WAS DONE TO EDUCATE WORKERS AND EMPLOYERS ABOUT THE POTENTIAL HARMFUL EFFECTS OF CERTAIN CHEMICALS AND PROCEDURES. EVEN SIMPLE PRECAUTIONS, SUCH AS THE USE OF HELMETS AND HEARING PROTECTION ON CONSTRUCTION SITES, WERE RARELY TAKEN. IN NOVEMBER THE GOVERNMENT ISSUED A DECREE REQUIRING ALL EMPLOYERS TO PROVIDE MEDICAL FACILITIES ON WORK SITES, A DECREE TO WHICH

EMPLOYERS HAVE OBJECTED. A SIMILAR REACTION WAS NOTED TO AN EARLIER DECREE THAT REQUIRED PAYMENT OF A BONUS BASED ON YEARS OF SERVICE TO ALL WORKERS WHO RETIRE OR WHO ARE NO LONGER REQUIRED BY EMPLOYERS. INSUFFICIENT TIME HAS PASSED TO JUDGE IF THESE DECREES WILL BE ENFORCED.

MINIMUM WAGES ARE SET BY LAW AND ARE THE DE FACTO WAGES FOR MOST RURAL AND URBAN WORKERS. A BILATERAL COMMITTEE REPRESENTING LABOR AND MANAGEMENT IS NAMED EACH YEAR FROM EACH ECONOMIC SECTOR TO REVIEW MINIMUM WAGE LEVELS AND TO MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR INCREASES. IN THE EVENT AGREEMENT IS NOT POSSIBLE, THE GOVERNMENT MAY DECREE SUCH INCREASES. IN LATE 1991 THE GOVERNMENT DECREED INCREASE IN THE MINIMUM WAGE FOR SEVERAL INDUSTRIAL SECTORS. RURAL WORKERS HAD THEIR MINIMUM WAGE INCREASED IN 1990 AT A SLIGHTLY LOWER MONTHLY RATE. THE MINISTER OF LABOR IN LATE NOVEMBER PUBLICLY ANNOUNCED THAT MANY RURAL AND URBAN WORKERS ARE NOT RECEIVING THE MINIMUM WAGE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

ESTABLISHED FOR THEIR SECTOR. WHILE SOME SKILLED WORKERS EARNED WAGES HIGHER THAN THE MINIMUM, MOST ARE PAID BELOW THE LEGAL MINIMUM. LABOR MINISTRY INSPECTORS HAVE BEEN UNABLE TO ENFORCE THE MINIMUM WAGE LAW. THESE WAGES DO NOT PROVIDE A DECENT STANDARD OF LIVING; OVER 75 PER CENT OF THE POPULATION LIVES BELOW THE GUATEMALAN POVERTY LINE.

IT WAS NOT FOR LACK OF TRYING THAT THE SEMI-HOLIDAY MONNH OF JANUARY LACKED CHARACTER. ATTEMPTS TO CREATE POLITICAL SCANDALS FAILED TO EXCITE MUCH INTEREST AND EVEN A CHOLERA SCARE WAS QUICKLY

PAGE 03 SAN JO 00965 01 OF 05 311927Z
FORGOTTEN. THE PAUCITY OF HIGH-PROFILE POLITICAL ACTIVITY AND THE FAILURE OF ANY OF THE POTENTIAL SCANDALS TO STICK (AT LEAST FOR NOW) GAVE THE GOCR THE OPPORTUNITY TO CONTINUE PROMOTING THE IDEA (IN INTERVIEWS AND PAID ADS) THAT IT IS MAKING PROGRESS ON THE ECONOMIC FRONT. CHIEF POLICY EVENTS WERE THE OTTAWA PDD PLENARY, THE GOES - FMLN MEXICAN SIGNING CEREMONY AND FM NIEHAUS ATTENDING THE SAN PEDRO SULA CARICOM MEETING. AT MONTH'S END, THE EMBASSY RESPONDED PUBLICLY TO PUBLIC CRITICISM FROM GOVERNMENT/PUBLIC SECURITY MINISTER FISHMAN THAT WE'RE NOT DOING ENOUGH BY WAY OF ANTI-NARCOTICS ASSISTANCE.

---

4. COSTA RICANS LAUD SALVADOR PEACE ACCORDS

---

COSTA RICANS WELCOMED THE SALVADOR ACCORD, THE GOCR ISSUING A JANUARY 2 COMMUNIQUE OFFERING TO ASSIST IN AGGEEMENT VERIFICATION AND CALLING F0R RECONSTRUCTION AID. MAJOR DAILIES PRAISED THE CEASE-FIRE C0MMITMENT, WITH LA REPUBLICA ADDING THAT THE TRANSFORMING ROLES PLAYED BY OSCAR ARIAS AND JOSE NAPOLEON DUARTE IN THE 198G'S SHOULD NOT BE FORGOTTEN. ARIAS EXPRESSED PLEASURE, WHILE PLUGGING REQUIRED FURTHER DEMILITARIZATION. TRANSITING SAN JOSE TO MANAGUA, FMLN LEADER JOAQUIN VILLALOBOS SAID THAT "THE MOMENT WILL SOON ARRIVE FOR OUR MOVEMENT TO LEGALIZE ITSELF AND TO BE PART OF THE POLITICAL LIFE OF EL SALVADOR SO AS TO PARTICIPATE IN THE NEXT

5. NO QUICK EXIT FOR MOST SALVADORAN REFUGEES

---

LOCAL RELIEF ORGANIZATIONS EXPECT ONLY A FEW HUNDRED OF THE ROUGHLY 6,000 OFFICIAL SALVADORAN REFUGEES HERE TO REPATRIATE QUICKLY. ABOUT 90 PERCENT ARRIVED BEFORE 1982 AND HAVE ESTABLISHED STRONG LOCAL TIES. OVER THE MID- TO LONG-TERM, HOWEVER, WE EXPECT A CONTINUING TRICKLE BACK TO EL SALVADOR AS A LASTING PEACE AND ECONOMIC GROWTH TAKE HOLD-

6. CIS FALLOUT

EX-SOVIET AMBASSADOR VALERIA KALMIK, NOW THE RUSSIAN ENVOY, WAS MUCH IN THE NEWS, PORTRAYING HERSELF AS A CHAMPION OF DEMOCRACY AND THE FREE MARKET. KALMIK ALSO EXPLAINED THAT SHE NOW HAS RESPONSILILITY FOR CARRYING OUT REQUESTS BY NON-RUSSIAN CIS MEMBERS. IN THIS CAPACITY, SHE WAS COORDINATING A TICO CHILDREN'S CHOIR TOUR OF UKRAINE AND NOTIFYING SAN JOSE THAT ALMA-ATA WAS ABROGATING ITS SISTER CITY ACCORD. ON ANOTHER FRONT, GOCR OFFICIALS SAID THAT SIXTY COSTA RICANS HAVE ALREADY GIVEN UP THEIR STUDIES IN THE FORMER SOVIET UNION DUE TO STIPEND CUTOFFS AND THAT AS MANY AS 200 MORE MAY RETURN SHORTLY.

7. FIRST CHOLERA CASE APPEARS, SORT OF

ON JANUARY 7, HEALTH AUTHORITIES ANNOUNCED THE FIRST COSTA RICAN CHOLERA CASE. ALAJUELA RESIDENT MARTHA CHAVES GAINED THIS DUBIOUS DISTINCTION, CONTRACTING THE DISEASE WHILE VACATIONING IN ECUADOR. THOUGH SHE WAS NOT INFECTED HERE, HEALTH OFFICIALS AND THE PRESS STRESSED THE NEED FOR REDOUBLED VIGILANCE, AND SOME POINTED OUT THAT ALAJUELA'S WATER SUPPLY IS OF DOUBTFUL QUALITY. CHAVES, PERHAPS MOTIVATED BY THREATENING PHONE CALLS BLAMING HER FOR BRINGING THE DISEASE TO COSTA RICA, DENIED SHE HAD CHOLERA. PLN CONGNESSWOMAN DAISY SERRANO BACKED HER, SAYING THE GOCR CONCOCTED THE CASE TO TAKE THE SPOTLIGHT OFF ITS FAILURE TO CONTROL A MEASLES OUTBREAK.

8. NARCO LAZARO ABEL: BRING HIM BACK

THE SALA IV RULED JANUARY 15 THAT THE JUNE 1991 DEPORTATION TO THE U.S. OF CUBAN-BORN U.S. CITIZEN LAZARO ABEL (SEE 91 SAN JOSE 6822) VIOLATED THE CONSTITUTION. THE COURT ORDERED ABEL, ACCUSED OF BEING A NARCOTICS TRAFFICKER, RETURNED TO COSTA RICA AND SET FREE. IT ALSO CALLED FOR THE GOCR TO PAY COMPENSATION. PUBLIC SECURITY/GOVERNMENT MINISTER FISHMAN RESPONDED THAT, WHILE HE RESPECTS THE COURT, HE DISAGREES WITH IT SINCE THE LAW UNDER WHICH ABEL WAS DEPORTED WAS RULED UNCONSTITUTIONAL ONLY AFTER HE WAS SENT TO THE U.S. CALDERON CALLED THE RULING "STRANGE," BUT SAID HE WOULD COMPLY WITH IT DESPITE BELIEVING THAT "NO ONE WILL RETURN" ABEL. SINCE THE COURT FINDING, ABEL'S ATTORNEY HAS FILED FOR 45 MILLION COLONS LN DAMAGES AGAINST THE GOCR AND USD 10 MILLLON FROM U.S. EMBASSY CONSULAR OFFICIALS WHO AUTHENTICATED DOCUMENTS USED IN THE DEPORTATION. ON ANOTHER NARCO FRONT (SEE DECEMBER MONTHLY), MARIO VALVERDE MADE BAIL.

INCREASING ATTENTION WAS PAID TO CUBA DURING JANUARY. COMING ON THE HEELS OF A NOVEMBER 28 LETTER (91 SAN JOSE 12073/NOTAL) TO CASTHO FROM FIVE FORMER PRESIDENTS CALLING FOR HUMAN RIGHTS ON THE ISLAND, 48 (OF 57) CONGRESSMEN PRODUCED A JANUARY 18 DECLARATION CALLING FOR HUMAN RIGHTS/FREE ELECTIONS AND ASKING THAT THE DEATH PENALTY NOT BE APPLIED AGAINST THREE ARRESTED EXILES. OSCAR ARIAS, ONE OF THE FIVE PRESIDENTIAL SIGNERS, LAMBASTED CASTRO ON JANUARY 16 SAYING THAT "COMANDANTE FIDEL CASTRO CONTINUES (LIVING) IN 1959, HAVING LOST THE NOTION OF TIME." FOLLOWING THE TRAGIC EXECUTION OF ONE OF THE THREE CUBANS, FM NIEHAUS CALLED FOR INTERNATIONAL CONDEMNATION OF THE ACT AND A "COMPLETE CHANGE" IN THE CASTRO REGIME. THE MUTED RESPONSE OF FIDEL'S LOCAL CHAMPIONS WAS LEFT TO LONG-TIME COMMUNIST ARNOLDO FERRETO, WHO CONCLUDED THAT "THE CONDUCT OF FIDEL CASTRO IS THE PRIDE OF THE AMERICAS." MEANWHILE, THE MFA PRIVATELY SOUGHT OUR VIEWS ON AN IDEA IT HAS TO CONVENE HERE A CONFERENCE OF CUBAN EXILE GROUPS.

A CONTROVERSY BROKE OUT THIS MONTH OVER THE DECEMBER

ACQUISITION OF A NEW BUILDING FOR THE FINANCE MINISTRY FROM THE EXECUTOR FOR THE BANKRUPT YAZDANI GROUP. THE IRANIAN YAZDANI FAMILY, OPERATING UNDER THE IBESA NAME, RAN A NUMBER OF CONCERNS PRIOR TO DECLARING BANKRUPTCY IN 1988. CRITICS CHARGED THAT THE BUILDING WAS ILLEGALLY BOUGHT, IS INADEQUATE FOR THE MINISTRY OR ITS BRANCHES AND WAS PURCHASED AS A POLITICAL FAVOR. PLN CONGRESSMEN NOTE THE IRANIANS HAVE TIES TO THE PUSC, THOUGH IT HAS NOT YET BEEN PUBLISHED THAT CALDERON WAS THEIR ATTORNEY FOR MANY YEARS. THE PLN DEPUTIES ALSO THREATEN LEGAL ACTION TO BLOCK THE PURCHASE. THE PRESIDENT (WHO ADMITTED MEETING THE EXECUTOR -- PUSC POLLSTER AND CENTRAL BANK OFFICIAL MAGGIE BREEDY -- TWICE BEFORE THE GOCR CLOSED THE DEAL), REPLIED THAT THE TRANSACTION WAS LEGAL AND, IN ANY CASE, THE MONEY SPENT WAS GOING TO CREDITORS AND NOT TO THE YAZDANI'S.

12. NARCO COMMISSION INTERVIEWS CALDERON/ARIAS

PRESLDENT CALDERON SPOKE TO A PUBLIC SESSION OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY'S SPECIAL NARCOTICS COMMISSION FOR ALMOST THREE HOURS JANUARY 20. AS HE HAS BEFORE, CALDERON DENIED KNOWINGLY RECEIVING ANY CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS FROM TRAFFICKERS. HE ALSO REJECTED CHARGES BY JOSE BLANDON THAT HE RECEIVED $500,000 FROM NORIEGA FOR THE 1986 RACE, PROVIDING THE COMMISSION A TELEX FROM EX-PANAMANIAN PRESIDENT DELVALLE BACKING HIM UP.

ON JANUARY 30, THE COMMISSION MET WITH OSCAR ARIAS FOR FIVE AND ONE-HALF HOURS IN A CONTENTIOUS, WELL-PUBLICIZED SESSION. ARIAS ADMITTED RECEIVING 20,000 THOUSANDS FROM THE U.S. FIRM OCEAN HUNTER BUT CLAIMED THAT THE FIRM IS NOT INVOLVED WITH NARCOTICS. HE ALSO ADMITTED RECEIVING MONEY FROM THE PANAMANIAN PRD BUT POINTED OUT THAT NORIEGA'S INVOLVEMENT IN DRUG TRAFFICKING WAS NOT KNOWN AT THAT TIME. ONE PAPER HAS ARIAS ASCRIBING THE EFFORT TO DISCREDIT HIM TO HIS OPPOSITION TO "CIA-RUN" U.S. SUPPORT OF THE NICARAGUAN CONTRAS, BUT HIS WRITTEN STATEMENT, PUBLISHED JANUARY 31, IS A STRAIGHTFORWARD STATEMENT OF WHAT HE DID AND DID NOT DO.

NEVER THE BEST OF BUDDIES, THE PLN AND LEADING DAILY LA NACION HAD A STRIDENT MONTH. LIBERATION'S POLITICAL DIRECTORATE CHARGED THAT LA NACION WAS OUT TO "DISCREDIT" THE PARTY. THE NEWSPAPER, THE PLN SAID, HAD SEEKING THIS SINCE THE PARTY'S FOUNDING FORTY YEARS AGO. THE MOTIVE? THE PLN FIGHTS FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE, WHEREAS LA NACION IS A TOOL OF THE "POWERFUL." UNSURPRISINGLY, LA NACION REJECTED THE CHARGES, ADDING THAT THE PLN SHOULD CONCERN ITSELF LESS WITH THE INDEPENDENT MEDIA THAN WITH ITS OWN INTERNAL CORRUPTION AND TIES TO NARCOTRAFFICKERS. OVERLAID ON THIS PARTY - PAPER BATTLE WAS A WRITTEN SHOUTING MATCH BETWEEN PLN SECGEN COTO ("COLORLESS, BORING AND SHRILL") AND LA NACION CHIEF COLUMNIST JULIO RODRIGUEZ ("VENOMOUS").

14. CALDERON'S FUTURE TRAVELS

THOUGH CRITICIZED FOR TRAVELING TOO MUCH, THE PRESIDENT IS PLANNING A BUSY 1992 FOREIGN SCHEDULE. HE WILL VISIT HONDURAS FEBRUARY 10-11. LESS THAN A MONTH LATER, HE MAKES A SOUTH AMERICA SWING, VISITING COLOMBIA (MARCH 2-4), CHILE (MARCH 4-7) AND POSSIBLY ARGENTINA. JUNE 4-5, CALDERON ATTENDS THE MANAGUA PRESIDENTIAL SUMMIT AND IS OFF LATER THAT MONTH TO TO RIO FOR THE UN ENVIRONMENT CONFERENCE. IN JULY, CALDERON WILL ATTEND THE MADRID IBERO-AMERICAN

SUMMIT. THE FINAL TRIP SO FAR SCHEDULED WILL TAKE CALDERON TO GUATEMALA IN DECEMBER FOR THE 13TH REGIONAL "CUMBRE." FM NIEHUAS WILL ACCOMPANY THE PRESIDENT ON MANY OF THESE JOURNEYS, ALSO GOING TO LISBON FEBRUARY 27-28 FOR SAN JOSE VIII AND TO THE UNHRC GENEVA MEETING FEBRUARY 24-25. NIEHAUS ALSO WILL ATTEND THE OAS GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN THE BAHAMAS MAY 26-29.

15. LABOR: THE EMPTY CHAIR

UNIONISTS GATHERED IN PLAZA DE LA CULTURA JANUARY 22 TO CRITICIZE PALTRY PUBLIC SECTOR WAGE INCREASES AND RISING PRICES. PRESIDENT CALDERON DECLINED AN INVITATION TO ATTEND AND HEAR WORKERS' COMPLAINTS. IN HIS ABSENCE, DEMONSTRATORS DIRECTED QUESTIONS AND CRITICISMS TO AN EMPTY CHAIR. "THE PRESIDENT WON'T SIT DOWN WITH THE PEOPLE," DECLARED ONE OF THE RALLY'S LEADERS, "BUT HE'LL SURE SIT DOWN WITH THE IMF." UNION ESTIMATES PUT THE CROWD AT 1500; OUR ESTIMATE IS 300. LABOR IS THREATENING A MARCH FOR MID-FEBRUARY AND A GENERAL STRIKE "IF NECESSARY" SOME

TWO WEEKS LATER BUT IS CLEARLY HAVING TROUBLE GINNING UP ENTHUSIASM FOR PRESSURING THE GOVERNMENT IN THIS WAY.

UNTIL NOW AND TO AVOID A PUBLIC DISPUTE, THE EMBASSY HAD NOT RESPONDED. BUT IN LIGHT OF FISHMAN'S PERSISTANCE AND GROWING PUBLIC INTEREST, THE EMBASSY PUBLISHED AN EXPLANATION OF OUR PROGRAM SIGNED BY THE AMBASSADOR IN LEADING LA NACION JANUARY 30. WITH ONLY A HINT OF POLEMICS, IT EMPHASIZES OUR COMMITMENT TO COSTA RICA'S COUNTERDRUG EFFORTS AND DESCRIBES BILATERAL AID IN DETAIL -- A NOT UNIMPRESSIVE LIST WHEN THE CBRN RADAR, TWO PATROL BOATS, DEA TRAINING COURSES, AID-FUNDED PUBLIC EDUCATION PROGRAMS AND OTHER SUCH AID IS ADDED TO INM-FUNDED ASSISTANCE. SUBJECT: GROUP OF 100 OPPOSES BORDER DUMP SITES.

1. SUMMARY. ON TUESDAY, JANUARY 28, HOMERO ARIDJIS, HEAD OF THE GROUP OF 100, DECLARED THE ORGANIZATION'S OPPOSITION TO A LOW-LEVEL RADIOACTIVE WASTE SITE,

UNCLASSIFIED

PROPOSED BY THE STATE OF TEXAS, THAT WOULD BE LOCATED NEAR THE BORDER. THE STORY WAS CARRIED BY SEVERAL OF THE MAJOR MEXICO CITY DAILIES, REFLECTING THE GROUP OF LOO'S STATURE AS ONE OF MEXICO'S MOST PRESTIGIOUS ENVIRONMENTAL GROUPS. THEIR DECLARATION PROMPTED SEDUE'S UNDERSECRETARY FOR ECOLOGY, SERGIO REYES LUJAN, TO RESPOND BY PROMISING TO PROTEST, SHOULD THE WASTE SITE BE DEEMED UNSAFE. ONE BRIGHT SPOT IS THAT THE FOLLOWING DAY SEDUE'S DIRECTOR GENERAL FOR PREVENTION AND CONTROL DECLARED THAT THE DECISION TO ESTABLISH

WASTE FACILITIES CAN BE MADE INDEPENDENTLY BY EITHER COUNTRY. END SUMMARY.

2. HOMERO ARIDJIS, HEAD OF THE GROUP OF 100, ALONG WITH LINDA LYNCH, MEMBER OF THE TEXAS-BASED ALERT CITIZENS FOR ENVIRONMENTAL SAFETY, MADE PUBLIC A JOINT DECLARATION OPPOSING THE CONSTRUCTION OF A NUCLEAR DUMPSITE BEING PLANNED FOR HUDSPETH COUNTY. THE GROUP OF 100, ONE OF MEXICO'S MOST WELL-KNOWN AND PRESTIGIOUS ENVIRONMENTAL GROUPS, IS COMPOSED OF ARTISTS, WRITERS, AND INTELLECTUALS.

3. THE PROPOSED 7,125 HECTACRE SITE IS TO BE LOCATED IN HUDSPETH COUNTY, ABOUT 80 MILES EAST OF EL PASO, AND LESS THAN 20 MILES FROM THE RIO GRANDE. IT WILL ACCEPT LOW-LEVEL RADIOACTIVE WASTE. ACCORDING TO THE DIRECTOR OF THE TEXAS LOW-LEVEL RADIOACTIVE WASTE AUTHORITY, THIS WOULD INCLUDE WASTE FROM TEXAS' NUCLEAR POWER PLANTS, AS WELL AS INDUSTRIAL AND MEDICAL WASTE. UNLIKE THE SITES DISCUSSED IN REFTEL, WHICH ARE PRIVATE, THE HUDSPETH DUMP IS TO BE OWNED AND OPERATED

BY THE STATE OF TEXAS. FINDING AN ACCEPTABLE SITE IS REQUIRED BY FEDERAL LAW AND HAS TAKEN A NUMBER OF YEARS. TEXAS AUTHORITIES ARE CONCERNED THAT AN INTERNATIONAL UPROAR COULD DERAIL THE PROJECT YET AGAIN.

4. THE ENVIRONMENTAL GROUPS OBJECT TO THE PROJECT FOR NUMEROUS REASONS. THEY CLAIM THAT THE PROPOSED LOCATION IS ONE OF THE MOST ACTIVE AND COMPLEX IN TEXAS, WITH SEISMIC ACTIVITY, WIND STORMS, AND FLOODING, AND IS CENTERED OVER AN IMPORTANT AQUIFER. THE STATE OF TEXAS, THEY FEEL, HAS NOT PROPERLY STUDIED THE ENVIRONMENTAL RAMIFICATIONS OF LOCATING A WASTE SITE IN SUCH AN AREA. THEY ALSO NOTE THAT ARRIVING WASTE WOULD HAVE TO BE TRANSPORTED OVER BUSY HIGHWAYS, INCREASING THE POSSIBILITY OF AN ACCIDENT.

5. THE BIGGEST FEAR SEEMS TO BE THE IMPENDING CLOSING OF OTHER NUCLEAR DUMP SITES AND THE LACK OF DEPOSITORIES FOR RADIOACTIVE WASTE. THE GROUPS NOTED THAT THREE OTHER RADIOACTIVE WASTE DEPOSITORIES, IN SOUTH CAROLINA, WASHINGTON STATE, AND NEVADA, ARE DUE TO CLOSE BY 1993. THE OPPONENTS ARE CONCERNED THAT THE

HUDSPETH SITE WILL ACCEPT WASTE FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTRY, NOT JUST FROM TEXAS.

6. BRIEFING PAPERS BY THE TEXAS LOW-LEVEL RADIOACTIVE WASTE AUTHORITY ADDRESS MANY OF THE CONCERNS RAISED BY ENVIRONMENTALISTS. THE FACILITY WILL USE STATE -OF-THE-ART ENVIRONMENTAL MONITORING EQUIPMENT AND AN INSPECTOR EMPLOYED BY THE TEXAS NATURAL RESOURCES CONSERVATION COMMISSION WILL BE PRESENT AT ALL TIMES.

SQUARE INCH. THE TRENCH WILL BE FILLED WITH A SPECIALLY-GRADED SOIL MIXTURE DESIGNED TO DRAIN MOISTURE AWAY FROM THE SITE AND THEN COVERED WITH A 16

POOT THICK ENGINEERED CAP THAT PREVENTS RAINFALL FROM ENTERING THE TRENCH.

7. WHILE IT IS TRUE THAT THE THREE EXISTING SITES HAVE THE OPTION OF CLOSING IN 1993, IT IS POSSIBLE THAT SOUTH CAROLINA WILL STAY OPEN. MOST IMPORTANTLY, TEXAS IS ESTABLISHING A FACILITY IN ORDER TO COMPLY WITH A FEDERAL LAW WHICH REQUIRES EVERY STATE TO EITHER DEVELOP A SITE OR JOIN WITH OTHER SITES FOR REGIONAL DISPOSAL. THUS, EVERY STATE IN THE UNION IS WORKING ON FINDING A FACILITY FOR DISPOSAL OF LOW-LEVEL RADIOACTIVE WASTE. TEXAS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTING SUCH WASTE FROM ALL OVER THE NATION. INDEED, EVEN IF ALL GOES SMOOTHLY, THE HUDSPETH SITE WON'T BE OPERATING UNTIL 1996.

8. COMMENTS BY VARIOUS ORGANIZATIONS AND INDIVIDUALS ON OTHER HAZARDOUS WASTE SITES, PROPOSED FOR THE TOWNS OF SPOFFORD AND DRYDEN, HAVE INCORRECTLY STATED THAT SUCH SITES WOULD VIOLATE THE 1983 LA PAZ AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND MEXICO. IN CONTRAST, HOMERO ARIDJIS REMARKED THAT THE CONSTRUCTION OF A RADIOACTIVE WASTE SITE NEAR THE BORDER IS EVIDENCE OF THE INABILITY OF THAT AGREEMENT--AND OF THE BORDER ENVIRONMENTAL PLAN--TO PROTECT THE BORDER AREA.

9. ATTENTION ON THE VARIOUS TEXAS WASTE SITES HAS BEEN STEADILY MOUNTING. WHEN THE WELL-KNOWN GROUP OF 100 ENTERED THE FRAY, SEDUE OFFICIALS WERE COMPELLED TO RESPOND. ON THURSDAY, JANUARY 31, SEDUE'S UNDERSECRETARY FOR ECOLOGY STATED THAT "UPON PROVING THAT IT (THE SITE) IS UNSAFE AND THAT NATIONAL INTERESTS ARE AFFECTED, A PROTEST WILL BE UNDERTAKEN THROUGH THE APPROPRIATE CHANNELS."

10. THE NEXT DAY, JANUARY 31, THE SEDUE'S DIRECTOR GENERAL FOR PREVENTION AND CONTROL, RENE ALTAMIRANO PEREZ, NOTED THAT EXISTING ENVIRONMENTAL AGREEMENTS REQUIRE BOTH COUNTRIES TO NOTIFY EACH OTHER ABOUT ANY PROJECT THAT COULD HAVE AN IMPACT ON THE POPULATION AND THE ECOSYSTEMS WITHIN A 100 KILOMETERS STRIP ON BOTH SIDES OF THE BORDER. BUT HE WENT ON TO NOTE THAT "INSOFAR AS THE TECHNOLOGICAL AND SCIENTIFIC REQUIREMENTS NECESSARY TO SAFEGUARD THE INTEGRITY OF THE INHABITANTS AND THE ENVIRONMENT ARE FULFILLED, THE DECISION TO INSTALL WHATEVER TYPE OF CONTROLLED CONFINEMENT FOR DANGEROUS WASTES IS A SOVEREIGN DECISION OF EACH COUNTRY." ALTAMIRANO WENT SO FAR AS TO NOTE THAT MEXICO HAD ESTABLISHED A SITE FOR THE DISPOSAL OF CONTAMINATED CONSTRUCTION RODS THAT WAS ALSO NEAR THE BORDER. THIS WOULD SEEM TO CORRECT THE POSITION MADE BY SEDUE SECRETARY CHIRINOS (SEE REFTEL), WHO STATED THAT SUCH FACILITIES WOULD VIOLATE THE 1983 LA PAZ AGREEMENT. ENVIRONMENTAL ATTACHE ANNE ALONZO DISCUSSED SEDUE'S POSITION WITH THE SEDUE UNDERSECRETARY FOR ECOLOGY, SERGIO REYES LUJAN, WHO CONFIRMED THAT THIS MISSTATEMENT "HAD BEEN CORRECTED."

11. DESPITE SEDUE'S PUBLIC STANCE THAT THIS IS A INTERNAL POLICY DECISION FOR THE U.S., MOUNTING PUBLIC PRESSURE MAY FORCE THEM TO TAKE A MORE ACTIVE ROLE. THE DIRECTOR GENERAL FOR THE TEXAS LOW-LEVEL

RADIOACTIVE WASTE AUTHORITY INFORMED SCIOFF THAT THE MEXICAN CONSUL FROM EL PASO HAS REQUESTED A MEETING FOR FEBRUARY 5. THE CONSUL ALSO PLANS TO ASK THE SEDUE REPRESENTATIVE FROM CIUDAD JUAREZ AND A REPRESENTATIVE FROM THE INTERNATIONAL BOUNDARY AND WATER COMMISSION. IN ADDITION, SEDUE HAS SOUGHT INFORMATION FROM THE EMBASSY ON THE SPOFFORD SITE PROPOSED BY TEXCOR (REFTEL).

REF: GUATEMALA 0720

1. ON FEBRUARY 10, THE FOURTH APPEALS COURT CONSTITUTED AS A MILITARY APPEALS COURT FINALLY RULED ON ALL THE PENDING MATTERS IN THE DEVINE CASE WHICH HAD BEEN APPEALED. (CHIEF AMONG THEM WAS ORDERING THE RE-ARREST OF CAPTAIN HUGO CONTRERAS, REPORTED REFTEL. WE BELIEVE THE CAPTAIN HAS IN FACT BEEN DETAINED, BUT IT IS NOT YET REFLECTED IN THE JUDICIAL PROCESS.) IN MOST OF THE REMAINING ITEMS, SUCH AS WHETHER OR NOT THE FIRST AND SECOND GROUPS OF ARRESTED ENLISTED MEN WOULD BE FREED, THE COURT PUNTED, RULING THAT THERE WERE PROCEDURAL INADEQUACIES IN THE LOWER MILITARY COURT AND RETURNING THOSE MATTERS FOR THE LOWER COURT TO DECIDE. THE FILE WILL NOW BE RETURNED TO THE LOWER COURT AND IS EXPECTED TO REACH IT FEBRUARY 12.

2. THERE IS ONLY ONE SIGNIFICANT ITEM WHICH CANNOT BE RE-ADDRESSED BY THE MILITARY COURT -- THE PHYSICAL IDENTIFICATION OF SEVERAL MEMBERS OF THE SECOND GROUP OF DETAINEES IN A LINE-UP, IDENTIFIED BY FOUR FEMALE WITNESSES AS PERSONS SEEN IN AND AROUND POPTUN AND THE DEVINE FARM THE DAY OF THE MURDER.

3. COMMENT: WHILE THE ADDITIONAL DELAY CAUSED BY THE APPEALS COURT'S DECISION IS DISAPPOINTING, IT MAY NOT MAKE MUCH MATERIAL DIFFERENCE IN THE OUTCOME. IF THE MINISTRY OF DEFENSE HAS INDEED DECIDED TO SOLVE THE DEVINE CASE EXPEDITIOUSLY, HAVING THE CASE BACK IN THE MILITARY COURT COULD EVEN BE ADVANTAGEOUS.

SUBJECT: Welcome Home

Human Rights Report

The release of the Department's 1991 human rights report on Guatemala led to a mini-crisis in our relations with Serrano. The President took the report badly, seeing it as a personal affront, unfair, unbalanced, and much too harsh. He and others in the GoG, such as Menendez Park and Garcia Samayoa, claimed the report dealt with events that occurred prior to the Serrano administration's advent to power. Bernardo Neumann orally gave the Ambassador a list of criticisms of the report. During that meeting, the Ambassador said we would be prepared to issue an addendum to our human rights report should the GoG be able to show serious substantive errors in it. We drafted a memo to the Ambassador commenting on the criticisms, most of which were general and easy to respond to. We subsequently received a four-page typed "non-paper" with additional vague criticisms.

On February 10, Ambassador Caso turned over a letter to the Department for President Bush from Serrano complaining about the report. We have not yet seen a copy of the letter, but John Arndt says it is moderate in tone and also not very specific. Serrano's public statements, moreover, over the past two or three days have been fairly moderate, stressing that the report also mentions advances made by the current GoG. ARA is drafting a letter in response proposing that A/S Schifter come to Guatemala to discuss human rights with Serrano. We think that we should let this be the USG response to GoG concerns, and not reply in writing to the non-paper.

Human Rights In General: Another Santiago Atitlan Massacre? Another Mack Case?

On February 9, armed men near Patulul boarded a bus, robbed the passengers and then randomly shot six of them to death, wounding several others. The Mayor of Santiago (UCN), the same one involved in the doings around the massacre in December 1990, claims to have evidence that the killers were military. The MoD has in turn attributed the killings to the guerrillas, but we do not know on what basis. Hurtado has issued a statement saying the police are investigating.

The following day, USAC history Professor Manuel Estuardo Pena was shot to death near his home in Zone 21. He had been involved with repatriation issues and with advising cooperatives in the Solola area, was an advisor to UASP, a former leader of AEU, and had close relations with Spanish NGOs. Gonzalo Asturias has promised the GoG will investigate the case. It strikes us that these cases would be naturals for Neumann's Human Rights Committee--if it ever gets funding and gets off the ground. Lewis and I would like to talk to you further about these two cases..

Human Rights Groups

Fenasteg leader Armando Sanchez recently received a letter threatening death to himself and six other human rights activists, including Amilcar Mendez and Ninth de Garcia. The Ambassador met the threatened individuals, at their request, on February 12 (Amilcar Mendez and Nienth de Garcia were invited to the meeting, but failed to appear). Ambassador promised to try to arrange appointments for them with the Interior Minister and the Director of the National Police (We need to talk about this). He also agreed to meet them after he returns from the U.S. for a group photo to be followed by a press release in support of their rights to voice their political views. By the way, on February 12 Hurtado issued a press release confirming that police protection had been offered to Amilcar if he wishes it.

UNHRC Expert in Town

UNHRC human rights "expert" Christian Tomuschat is in Guatemala. He is host for breakfast at the El Dorado on Sunday. He will brief the dip corps on his findings. Lewis will attend.

Levitsky Visit

The visit of INM A/S Levistsky went very well, with Levitsky meeting the President, Vice President and Minister of Interior, as well as key Congressmen (see Narcotics Legislation, below). He seemed impressed by the commitment on the part of the Guatemalans to fight narcotrafficking. Serrano made a point of stressing to Levitsky the improved nature of Guatemala-Mexico relations (Salinas comes here this month).

Narcotics Legislation

While Levitsky was in town, he had lunch with Jorge Skinner-Klee, Oliverio Garcia Rodas, Juan Carlos Simons, Juan Jose Alfaro Lemus and Arturo Soto Aguirre at my home (Mulet was out of town). The meeting went well: Levitsky was forceful in advocating new narcotics legislation, and the Congressmen appeared receptive. We also passed to the Congressmen a non-paper outline in Spanish of provisions we suggest including in narcotics legislation. The following week, two lawyers visiting Fred Brugger from Washington prepared an analysis of the pros and cons of the AID and Serrano drug bills. Those analyses were translated into Spanish and submitted as non-papers to Mulet when the Ambassador made a courtesy call on February 12.

Levitsky Congressional Testimony

In preparation for upcoming Congressional hearings on narcotics, Levitsky has asked most posts with anti-narcotics programs for a brief list of 1991 host government achievements and points of controversy. Jeff Moon is preparing a response, which is due in Washington COB February 14.

Peace Talks

We had a good meeting with Mario Permuth who remains cautiously optimistic something can be worked out in fairly short order. He believes, as does Serrano, that the key to a solution will be the Mexicans. The GoG and the CNR are confident the GOM is about to hike up the pressure on the URNG to sign an accord. Serrano, in his meeting with Levitsky, was upbeat on relations with Mexico and said Salinas clearly wants to help end the guerrilla war in Guatemala. We should discuss this further.

C-47s

Basler Aviation - GoG C-47 deal is bigger than we had intially thought. The deal involves six C-47s vice two. The GAF will purchase two planes due off the assembly line in June and ship four currently grounded GAF C-47s to Wisconsin for upgrading. The deal is worth over $21 million and means fifty new job openings at Basler. We have heard informally that the lawyers in the Department have determined there is no problem with the four GAF planes being modified but the purchase of the two others requires Congressional notification. We are a little unclear as to why. C-47s are no longer on the munitions control list, but suspect the real reasons are political, not legal.

Cheney Visit

Everything seems on track. Cheney has meetings with the President, MoD, and Ombudsman. "Americas Watch," as expected, has come out against the visit, but the Ombudsman has issued a press release welcoming it.

Ortiz Case

Soreff, et al, called on the Ambassador February 5 to make plans for the return of Ortiz to Guatemala to provide a deposition. The Ambassador has offered his residence to Ortiz, her therapist, and Sr. Fran Wilhelm of the Ursulines, for three days in April (probably around the 5th). Linares has agreed to interview Ortiz in the residence but has said the judge may have problems.

1. CONFIDENTIAL -- ENTIRE TEXT

2. DURING THE MORNING OF 17 FEB 92, SECRETARY OF DEFENSE DICK CHENEY MET FOR AN HOUR WITH PRESIDENT JORGE ((SERRANO)) ELIAS. THE SECRETARY WAS ACCOMPANIED BY THE AMBASSADOR, ASD LILLEY, ASD WILLIAMS, DATT COL CORNELL AND POLITICAL OFFICER AMSELEM. SERRANO STARTED THE MEETING UNACCOMPANIED BUT WAS LATER JOINED BY THE CHIEF-OF-STAFF OF THE PRESIDENCY, BG LUIS ORTEGA MENALDO AND BG GUSTAVO POSSITO, GUATEMALA'S AIDE-DE-CAMP TO SECRETARY CHENEY DURING HIS GUATEMALAN VISIT.

WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT GUATEMALA?

3. SERRANO FIRST ASKED OF SECRETARY CHENEY HIS IMPRESSIONS CONCERNING GUATEMALA AND SUCH ISSUES AS THE COUNTERINSURGENCY AND PEACE NEGOTIATIONS. THE SECRETARY RESPONDED THAT THE COUNTERINSURGENCY EFFORTS HAD APPARENTLY GONE WELL FOR GUATEMALA AND THAT THE CURRENT PEACE TALKS WERE ESPECIALLY IMPORTANT IN LIGHT OF RECENT EVENTS SUCH AS THE COLLAPSE OF THE SOVIET UNION AND THE SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR. THE SECDEF ADDED THAT HOPEFULLY THE STAGE HAD NOW BEEN SET FOR GUATEMALA, AND ASKED SERRANO IF HE FELT THE PEACE PROCESS WAS ON TRACK.

THE INSURGENTS AND DRUGS:

4. SERRANO REMARKED THEY WERE DOING THEIR BEST, THEN LAUNCHED INTO A COMMENTARY ABOUT GUATEMALAN GUERRILLAS

UNCLASSIFIED

HAVING DEVELOPED TIES TO NARCOTRAFFICKERS AND THAT THESE TIES WERE PROBABLY CAUSING THE PEACE TALKS SOME DIFFICULTY. SERRANO EXPRESSED CONVICTION THAT CUBA WAS NO LONGER PROVIDING HELP TO THE INSURGENTS, AND THAT ALTHOUGH THE INSURGENTS MAY NOW BE GETTING SOME ARMAMENT FROM THE EMLN, THEY NO LONGER ENJOYED IMPORTANT EXTERNAL SUPPORT. SERRANO CLAIMED THE GUERRILLAS NOW GET MONEY FROM DRUGS; THIS IS THE ONLY RATIONALE -- THE ONLY MOTIVE -- TO EXPLAIN THEIR TURNAROUND FROM THEIR POSITION IN OSLO, WHERE THEY HAD DEMONSTRATED A WILLINGNESS TO PRESS FOR PEACE. TODAY, ACCORDING TO SERRANO, THE GUERRILLAS ARE COMPLICATING THE TALKS, POSSIBLY IN AN EFFORT TO BUY TIME AND MAKE MORE MONEY FROM THEIR DRUG TRADE.

5. PRESIDENT SERRANO THEN UNDERTOOK A LENGTHY COMMENTARY ABOUT THIS GUERRILLA-DRUG CONNECTION. HE TOLD THE SECDEF OF INFORMATION [redacted] WHICH LINKED THE PRO-GUERRILLA IGE (GUATEMALAN CHURCH IN EXILE) WITH OPIUM POPPY PRODUCTION. HE MENTIONED THAT THE REBEL ARMED FORCES (FAR) COLLECT PROTECTION MONEY FROM COCAINE TRAFFICKERS AND MARIJUANA GROWERS IN THE PETEN DEPARTMENT, AND THAT WITHIN EGP (GUERRILLA ARMY OF THE POOR) AREAS OF OPERATION, MEXICAN DEALERS CONDUCT PURCHASES OF OPIUM GUM. SERRANO SAID THE DRUG PRODUCERS AND TRAFFICKERS HAVE THE INFRASTRUCTURE TO CONDUCT THEIR ACTIVITIES, WHEREAS THE GOG LACKS SUFFICIENT INFRASTRUCTURE OR EQUIPMENT SUCH AS HELICOPTERS TO FIGHT THEM. B1

THE ROLE OF MEXICO:

6. SERRANO EXPRESSED TO THE SECDEF HIS OPTIMISM ABOUT MEXICO'S ROLE IN THE GUATEMALA PEACE PROCESS. HE MENTIONED THE UPCOMING VISIT TO GUATEMALA OF PRESIDENT SALINAS, INDICATING CHANCES OF A STRONGER COMMITMENT BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES IN THE AREAS OF INSURGENTS AND DRUGS. SERRANO FELT THAT STRONGER MEXICAN AND GUATEMALAN PRESSURE ON THE INSURGENTS WOULD LEAD TO AN AGREEMENT IN THE PEACE PROCESS, AND CLAIMED THAT FOR THE FIRST TIME IN HISTORY, MEXICAN AND GUATEMALAN AUTHORITIES COORDINATE ACTIVITIES ALONG THE BORDER. SERRANO REMARKED "WE MUST RELY ON MEXICO'S HELP AS SALINAS UNDERSTANDS THE PROBLEM." SERRANO EXPLAINED THAT GUATEMALA HAS BEEN ATTEMPTING TO CUT ALL SUPPORT TO THE GUERRILLAS; HIS ADMINISTRATION HAS TALKED TO CUBA, MEXICO, BELIZE, HONDURAS, EL SALVADOR, AND EVEN THE SANDINISTAS, THUS IN

CONFIDENTIAL SECTION 02 OF 03 GUATEMALA 01707

EFFECT ISOLATING THE GUERRILLAS.

HUMAN RIGHTS:

7. SERRANO THEN SHIFTED HIS ATTENTION TO THE U.S. HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT, FIRST EXPRESSING HIS DISPLEASURE WITH THE SPECIFIC MENTION OF TELEPHONE INTERCEPTS AS A "VIOLATION" BY THE GOG. SERRANO REMARKED THAT THEY USE U.S. EQUIPMENT IN SUPPORT OF U.S. INTERESTS (I.E., FIGHTING DRUG TRAFFICKERS), BUT INSTEAD OF BEING THANKED, GUATEMALA IS "KNIFED IN THE BACK." SERRANO ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT GUATEMALA WOULD CONTINUE TO COOPERATE. SECDEF EXPRESSED APPRECIATION FOR GUATEMALA'S COOPERATION, STATING THAT IT IS IN OUR MUTUAL INTEREST TO FIGHT DRUGS. THE SECRETARY REMINDED SERRANO THE HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT ALSO REFLECTS SIGNIFICANT PROGRESS HAS BEEN MADE BY THE SERRANO ADMINISTRATION IN HUMAN RIGHTS, BUT THAT IN OUR VIEW AN IMPORTANT PROBLEM CONTINUES: THE DEVINE CASE. SERRANO RESPONDED THAT ALL THE ACCUSED IN THE CASE ARE UNDER ARREST AND THAT THERE IS A TRAIL IMPLICATING A CAPTAIN CONTRERAS. THE PRESIDENT STATED THAT AS SUCH, THE DEVINE CASE IS NOW NO LONGER A HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEM BUT A PROBLEM OF THE JUSTICE SYSTEM. SERRANO ATTEMPTED TO MAKE A COMPARISON OF THE DEVINE CASE WITH U.S. CASES SUCH AS THE ONES AGAINST NORIEGA AND A FORMER MAYOR OF WASHINGTON DC, ATTEMPTING TO CITE THEM AS EXAMPLES OF HOW IT SHOULD NOT BE THE ROLE OF THE U.S. TO JUDGE GUATEMALA'S JUDICIAL SYSTEM, AND THAT GUATEMALAN JUSTICE SHOULD BE VIEWED WITH THE SAME MEASURING STICK AS THAT USED TO JUDGE U.S. JUSTICE.

8. SERRANO TOLD THE SECDEF HOW HE HAD EXPRESSED TO PRESIDENT BUSH WHEN THEY MET THAT HE DID NOT UNDERSTAND HOW THE U.S. COULD FOCUS ON ONE CASE, AND THAT THE DEVINE CASE SHOULD NO LONGER INTERFERE WITH THE RELATIONSHIP. THE SECDEF IN TURN EMPHASIZED TO THE PRESIDENT THAT WHEN THE DEVINE CASE IS RESOLVED IT WOULD BE GOOD NEWS; THAT THIS COULD HELP IN DEALINGS WITH THE U.S. CONGRESS CONCERNING GUATEMALA.

THE PRESS AND THE SECDEF:

9. SERRANO RESPONDED THAT GUATEMALA WAS MORE INTERESTED IN HAVING THE FRIENDSHIP AND UNDERSTANDING OF THE U.S. THAN ITS ASSISTANCE, AND HE DID NOT LIKE SUGGESTIONS IN THE PRESS THAT THE SECDEF HAD COME TO GUATEMALA TO ACCUSE THE GOG. SERRANO SPOKE OF THE SUBSTANTIAL CHANGES HE HAS IMPLEMENTED, THE INSTITUTIONS HE HAS CHANGED, AND THAT WHAT GUATEMALA WANTS IS OBJECTIVITY; THAT IT IS EASY TO COME TO GUATEMALA TO BLAME AND ACCUSE. SECRETARY CHENEY TOLD PRESIDENT SERRANO THAT IT WOULD HAVE BEEN EASY FOR HIM NOT TO HAVE COME TO GUATEMALA — THERE WERE THOSE WHO URGED HIM NOT TO -- BUT THAT HE HAD COME OUT OF RESPECT FOR BOTH SERRANO AND THE AMBASSADOR. HE DID NOT COME TO BERATE THE PRESIDENT. THE SECDEF REMARKED THAT ON THE OTHER HAND, HOWEVER, THEY HAD TO DISCUSS THESE ISSUES.

THE SECRETARY THEN REPEATED TO SERRANO THAT HE HAD NOT COME HERE TO BLAME GUATEMALA. SERRANO ASKED THE SECRETARY IF HE WOULD TELL THIS TO THE PRESS AND SAID AGAIN HE COULD NOT UNDERSTAND WHY THE U.S. AND GUATEMALA DO NOT HAVE THE BEST RELATIONS.

10. SERRANO THEN GAVE THE SECDEF A BRIEF ACCOUNT OF HIS ECONOMIC SUCCESSES, SUCH AS CUTTING INFLATION, CUTTING EXPENDITURES, BALANCING THE BUDGET, AND IMPROVING THE TAX SYSTEM. HE SPOKE OF IMPROVEMENTS WITHIN THE MILITARY SUCH AS ITS EDUCATION SYSTEM WHICH NOW INCLUDES HUMAN RIGHTS CLASSES IN ALL COURSES. SERRANO REFLECTED THAT 18 MONTHS AGO, THE ARMY WOULD HAVE REJECTED PEACE TALKS, BUT THAT TODAY ITS HIGHEST RANKING OFFICERS PARTICIPATE IN THE PROCESS. SERRANO ALSO BOASTED THE CHANGES IN LEADERSHIP OF THE ARMY HAVE BEEN ACCEPTED BY THE INSTITUTION, SUCH AS THE REMOVAL OF THE AIR FORCE COMMANDER AND THE COMMANDER OF THE PACIFIC NAVAL BASE. "WE WANT YOU TO SEE THE GOOD", THE PRESIDENT TOLD SECRETARY CHENEY. SERRANO THEN ADMITTED THAT GUATEMALA'S REPUTATION IN HISTORY HAD BEEN BAD, BUT HE CLAIMED IT IS CHANGING.

EL SALVADOR:

11. THE PRESIDENT THEN SIDETRACKED FOR A MOMENT ON EL SALVADOR, STATING HE WAS GOING TO BE VISITING PRESIDENT CRISTIANI AND WOULD BE SIGNING WITH HIM A FREE TRADE AGREEMENT. HE MENTIONED THE CONVERSION TAKING PLACE IN NICARAGUA, STATING THAT IT IS KEY ISSUES SUCH AS THESE THAT ARE IMPORTANT, NOT THESE LITTLE CASES (READ - DEVINE) HERE IN GUATEMALA.

12. SERRANO, REPEATING ONCE AGAIN HIS PLEA FOR U.S. UNDERSTANDING AND FRIENDSHIP, EXPRESSED HIS APPRECIATION TO THE SECDEF FOR VISITING GUATEMALA, AGAIN REITERATING HIS ADMINISTRATION'S WILLINGNESS TO COOPERATE WITH THE U.S.

COMMENT:

13. SERRANO WAS CLEARLY IN TRANSMIT MODE THROUGHOUT THE MEETING HARDLY PAUSING FOR A BREATH. HE CLEARLY WANTED TO TAKE THE OPPORTUNITY OF THE SECDEF'S VISIT, THE MOST SENIOR USG VISITOR TO GUATEMALA SINCE SERRANO TOOK OFFICE, TO GET A LOT OFF OF HIS CHEST. HE CONTINUES TO FEEL THAT THE US DOES NOT APPRECIATE HIM AND THAT THE U.S. HAS WRONGED A TRUE FRIEND OF AMERICA. HE REPEATED SEVERAL TIMES THAT HE IS NOT ASKING FOR U.S. AID AND THAT GUATEMALA IS DETERMINED TO CONTINUE CARRYING ON ALONE. HIS CONSIDERABLE NATIONAL PRIDE IS CLEARLY HURT BY THE CURRENT SUSPENSION OF U.S. FMF TO GUATEMALA AND BY USG CRITICISM OF GUATEMALA'S HUMAN RIGHTS RECORD. HE IS STILL CONVINCED THAT WE ARE PUTTING THE FATE OF THE ENTIRE BILATERAL RELATIONSHIP ON THE RESOLUTION OF THE DEVINE CASE.

14. ON THE MORE POSITIVE SIDE, HOWEVER, SERRANO SEEMS GENUINELY COMMITTED TO FIGHTING DRUG TRAFFICKING WITH OR WITHOUT USG AID. HE ALSO VERY INTERESTINGLY TOLD THE PRESS AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE MEETING, THAT SECDEF'S VISIT IS TURNING POINT IN U.S.--GUATEMALA RELATIONS. HE SEEMS RESIGNED TO NOT GETTING FUTURE MILITARY AID FROM THE U.S. BUT REMAINS HOPEFUL THAT THE OVERALL RELATIONSHIP WILL REMAIN POSITIVE.

SUBJECT: PATULUL BUS MASSACRE: VERSIONS DIVERGE

REF: (A) GUATEMALA 1557, (B) GUATEMALA 1654 (ALL NOTAL)

1. CONFIDENTIAL — ENTIRE TEXT.

2. REF A REPORTS FEBRUARY 9 MASSACRE OF SIX BUS PASSENGERS IN CONFLICTIVE PATULUL (SUCHITEPEQUEZ), NOT FAR FROM ALSO VIOLENT SANTIAGO ATITLAN. SOME LOCAL RIGHTS ACTIVISTS BLAME THE ARMY FOR THE KILLINGS (REF B). THE MAYOR OF SANTIAGO WAS SAID HE WAS "PROOF" THE ARMY IS BEHIND THE DEATHS, APPARENTLY AS RETALIATION FOR SUCCESSFUL EFFORTS BY SANTIAGO RESIDENTS TO REMOVE AN ARMY DETACHMENT FROM THE MUNICIPALITY. PER PUBLIC STATEMENTS BY THIS MAYOR, THOSE KILLED WERE SELECTED FOR EXECUTION ONLY BECAUSE THEY CAME FROM SANTIAGO. THE MINISTER OF DEFENSE HAS BLAMED GUERRILLAS.

3. POLOFFS VISITED PATULUL, FEBRUARY 19, CALLING ON THE MAYOR OF PATULUL AND ANCIT FINCA OWNER, ANDY BURGE, ON WHOSE PROPERTY NEWS ACCOUNTS STATED THE CRIME OCCURRED. PATULUL MAYOR FRANCISCO MONTERROSO (DCH) ACKNOWLEDGED RELATIONS BETWEEN ARMY AND RESIDENTS TRADITIONALLY HAVE NOT BEEN GOOD, WITH LOCAL PEOPLE SUSPICIOUS AND AFRAID OF THE SOLDIERS IN THE SMALL DETACHMENT OUTSIDE OF TOWN. HE SAID, HOWEVER, WITHIN THE PAST YEAR RELATIONS HAVE IMPROVED. THE DETACHMENT COMMANDER HAS SOUGHT TO BE HELPFUL TO CIVILIAN AUTHORITIES AND TO TAKE PART IN LOCAL ACTIVITIES.

4. MONTERROSO SAID THE INCIDENT APPEARS CRIMINAL IN NATURE WITH ROBBERY THE ONLY MOTIVE. THE CRIME TOOK PLACE ON A SUNDAY, MARKET DAY, WHEN VENDORS RETURN

HOME. CRIMINALS WOULD KNOW, HE SAID, PASSENGERS HAD LARGE SUMS OF MONEY. HE SAID IT DOES NOT SEEM THE

GUATEM 02057 00 OF 02 2620332Z 029268 S038518

ROBBERS SOUGHT TO KILL ANYONE UNTIL A PASSENGER RESISTED. THIS LED TO SHOOTING WHICH KILLED SIX PERSONS AND WOUNDED ANOTHER 10-12. ACCORDING TO THE MAYOR, THE AREA SUFFERS A HIGH RATE OF VIOLENT CRIME. THE ABILITY TO FIGHT CRIME, HE SAID, IS HINDERED BY THE SMALL NUMBER OF POLICE AND EXCESSIVE CONCERN FOR SUSPECTS' RIGHTS. GUERRILLA ACTION IN THE AREA, HE SAID, HAS GROWN IN THE PAST FEW MONTHS WITH AMBUSHES ALONG THE PACIFIC HIGHWAY.

5. BURGE TOLD POLOFFS THAT, BASED ON CONVERSATIONS WITH NEIGHBORS WHO HAD RELATIVES OR WORKERS ON THE BUS, THE ATTACKERS KNEW PASSENGERS HAD MONEY AS MOST WERE RETURNING HOME AFTER SELLING THEIR WARES AT THE MARKET IN PATULUL. TWO ROBBERS REPORTEDLY BOARDED THE BUS AT COCOLES AND TWO AT THE BUS STOP OPPOSITE THE ARMY DETACHMENT IN PATULUL. THEY HAD AN AUTOMATIC WEAPON CONCEALED IN A SUITCASE. SHORTLY AFTER THE STOP AT THE DETACHMENT, THE ASSAILANTS ORDERED THE DRIVER TO PULL THE BUS INTO A DIRT ROAD NEAR BURGE'S FINCA AND HAD THE PASSENGERS GET OFF. THEY WERE COLLECTING PASSENGERS' MONEY AND VALUABLES WHEN A MALE VICTIM BEGAN TO ARGUE AND STRUCK A ROBBER. WHEN ANOTHER ALSO RESISTED, THE ROBBERS APPARENTLY PANICKED AND SHOT. NO PERSONS WERE SINGLED OUT. THE KILLERS FLED ON FOOT, APPARENTLY DOWN A RAVINE LEADING BACK TO PATULUL.

6. ACCORDING TO BURGE, THOSE HE TALKED TO HAVE NO DOUBT "THE ARMY" IS RESPONSIBLE. THE ASSAILANTS DID NOT HAVE THE UNKEMPT LOOK OF GUERRILLAS AND WORE "ARMY" BOOTS.

HE DOUBTED THE ATTACK WAS ORDERED FROM ABOVE OR HAD A POLITICAL MOTIVE; RATHER IT LOOKED LIKE RENEGADE SOLDIERS TAKING ADVANTAGE OF ACCESS TO FIREARMS TO ENRICH THEMSELVES WITH MATTERS GETTING OUT OF HAND.

7. ON THE MARGINS OF SECDEF CHENEY'S FEBRUARY 17 CALL ON HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN DE LEON, THE OMBUDSMAN TOLD THE AMBASSADOR THAT AT LEAST FOR NOW HE ALSO CONCLUDES THERE WAS NO POLITICAL MOTIVE BEHIND THE INCIDENT.

8. IN A FEBRUARY 18 CONVERSATION WITH AN ANCIT ATTORNEY WORKING WITH THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE, POLOFF LEARNED THAT OFFICE, TOO, FINDS NO POLITICAL MOTIVATION. ACCORDING TO THE LAWYER, WHO INTERVIEWED SURVIVORS, THE GUNMEN WERE LADINOS IN THEIR 40'S OR 50'S. PASSENGERS WERE FORCED TO GET OFF THE BUS AND LIE ON THE GROUND. THE GUNMEN SHOT PEOPLE RANDOMLY, MAKING NO POLITICAL STATEMENTS. THE ATTORNEY SAID THE MAYOR OF SANTIAGO CLAIMS TO HAVE GIVEN A LIST OF 4 SUSPECTS TO MINISTER OF INTERIOR HURTADO AND TO ATTORNEY GENERAL VALLADARES. THE MAYOR REFUSED TO HAND THE NAMES TO THE ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE, REPORTEDLY BECAUSE THE MAYOR IS PROTESTANT AND DOES NOT WANT TO SEEM COOPERATING WITH THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

COMMENT: THE USUAL CONFUSION

10. AS STATED REFTEL, THIS IS A VERY VIOLENT AREA IN WHICH THE EGG HAS ONLY A LIMITED PRESENCE. IN FACT, ON THE DAY POLOFFS VISITED PATULUL, THERE WERE CLASHES BETWEEN ARMY AND GUERRILLAS ALONG THE PACIFIC HIGHWAY

AND WITHIN THE MUNICIPAL BOUNDARIES OF PATULUL: FOUR GUERRILLAS WERE REPORTED KILLED AND A WOUNDED GUERRILLA CAPTURED AND SUBSEQUENTLY TURNED OVER TO THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN IN THE PRESENCE OF THE PRESS.

11. THIS INCIDENT STRUCK A PARTICULARLY RAW NERVE IN GUATEMALA AS THE SIX DEAD WERE FROM THE LAKE ATITLAN TOWN OF SANTIAGO, SITE OF A DECEMBER 1990 SHOOTING

2. SUMMARY/INTRODUCTION. THIS CABLE, THE SECOND INSTALLMENT OF A TWO-PART EMBASSY SERIES ON CHILE'S INDUSTRIAL GROUPS, FOCUSES ON SIX GROUPS THAT, BECAUSE OF THE VASTNESS OF THEIR BUSINESS EMPIRES (THE ANGELINI, LUKSIC AND MATTE GROUPS) OR THE POLITICAL PROMINENCE OF THEIR LEADERS (THE CLARO, CARDOEN AND ERRAZURIZ GROUPS), PLAY IMPORTANT ROLES IN CHILEAN SOCIETY. THE CABLE ALSO PROFILES OTHER SIGNIFICANT FAMILY-BASED GROUPS AND DISCUSSES SOME EXAMPLES OF A NEW TYPE OF CONGLOMERATE THAT IS LIKELY TO PROLIFERATE THROUGHOUT LATIN AMERICA IN THE NEXT FEW YEARS -- INDUSTRIAL GROUPS CREATED BY PRIVATIZATION. END SUMMARY/INTRODUCTION.

THESE VAST CONGLOMERATES ARE HETEROGENOUS ENTITIES, THEY SHARE CERTAIN FUNDAMENTAL CHARACTERISTICS. EACH GROUP CONTROLS ASSETS OF AT LEAST SEVERAL HUNDRED MILLIONS OF DOLLARS; EACH IS A MAJOR PLAYER IN AT LEAST TWO SECTORS OF THE ECONOMY; EACH CONTROLS A LARGE NUMBER OF FIRMS; AND, MOST IMPORTANTLY, EACH ARRIVED AT ITS CURRENT POSITION OF POWER THROUGH AN OPPORTUNISTIC YET MEASURED PROCESS OF EXPANSION THAT ENABLED IT TO WEATHER THE ECONOMIC SHOCKS THAT TOLLED THE DEATH KNELL FOR LESS PRUDENT GROUPS.

4. CHILE'S LARGEST INDUSTRIAL GROUP IS HEADED BY ANACLETO ANGELINI, A 77-YEAR OLD VETERAN OF ITALY'S ERITREA CAMPAIGN WHO HAS AMASSED A PERSONAL FORTUNE ESTIMATED BY FORBES MAGAZINE AT USD 950 MILLION OVER HIS 43 YEARS OF RESIDENCE IN CHILE. ANGELINI PRESIDES OVER A NETWORK OF SOME 80 FIRMS, INCLUDING COPEC, THE COUNTRY'S MAIN PETROLEUM REFINER AND DISTRIBUTOR, SEVERAL OF THE COUNTRY'S MAIN FISHING FLEETS AND PROCESSING PLANTS, AND FORESTRY AND CELLULOSE COMPANIES. THE ANGELINI GROUP ALSO OWNS AN INSURANCE COMPANY, A COAL COMPANY, AND A CHAIN OF HOME APPLIANCE STORES. ONE SANTIAGO FINANCIAL DAILY ESTIMATES THE VALUE OF THE GROUP'S MAIN HOLDINGS AT MORE THAN USD THREE BILLION.
5. BORN IN FERRERA, ITALY IN 1914, ANGELINI MOVED TO CHILE TO SUPERVISE THE CONSTRUCTION OF A LOCK FACTORY. USING MONEY OBTAINED FROM COMRADES IN ARMS FROM ERITREA, HE BEGAN TO INVEST IN AGRICULTURAL PROPERTIES NEAR THE FACTORY. IN 1956, HE BOUGHT EPERVA, A MORIBUND FISHING FLEET BASED IN NORTHERN CHILE. UNDER ANGELINI'S GUIDANCE, THE SMALL FLEET PROSPERED, ENABLING HIM TO BUY OTHER FLEETS AND LARGE FORESTED TRACTS IN THE SOUTH. ANGELINI BOUGHT OUT HIS ABSENTEE PARTNERS IN THE 1960'S. BY THE END OF THAT DECADE, HE CONTROLLED A DIVERSIFIED BUSINESS EMPIRE.
6. ANGELINI REACHED THE PINNACLE OF THE CHILEAN BUSINESS

WORLD BY RESISTING THE STAMPEDE COMPLEX THAT CHARACTERIZES MANY LOCAL BUSINESSMEN. IN THE 1970S, CHILE'S DOMINANT GROUPS RESPONDED TO THE ECONOMY'S RAPID GROWTH IN THE POST-ALLENDE PERIOD WITH DEBT-FINANCED EXPANSION SPREES. ANGELINI'S FIRMS GREW AT A MORE MEASURED PACE, AND HE INCURRED LITTLE DEBT. AS A RESULT, HIS GROUP HAD THE LIQUIDITY TO TURN THE ECONOMIC CRASH OF 1982-83 TO ITS ADVANTAGE. WHEN LARGER, LESS PRUDENTLY MANAGED GROUPS COLLAPSED, ANGELINI SNATCHED UP THEIR ASSETS AT BARGAIN-BASEMENT PRICES.
7. HIS MOST SPECTACULAR ACQUISITION WAS THE COMPANIA

EMPIRE. CRUZAT-LARRAIN'S DEMISE LEFT THE STATE HOLDING COMPANY (CORFO) WITH CONTROL OF COPEC. THE FREE MARKETEERS WHO RAN CORFO IN THOSE DAYS WERE EAGER TO DIVEST THE HOLDING. WITH MOST OF THE SURVIVING GROUPS SKITTISH AND CASH-POOR IN THE WAKE OF THE CRASH, ANGELINI WAS THE ONLY CHILEAN BUSINESSMAN WITH THE WHEREWITHAL AND GUMPTION TO BUY THE FIRM. IN 1985, HE BOUGHT 17 PCT OF COPEC'S SHARES FROM CORFO, AND LATER ACQUIRED DE FACTO CONTROL OF ANOTHER 43 PCT THROUGH HIS PARTNERSHIP WITH THE NEW ZEALAND FORESTRY GIANT CARTER HOLT HARVEY (CHH), WHICH CEDED OPERATING CONTROL OF THE COMPANY TO ANGELINI. UPON OBTAINING CONTROL, HE USED CHH'S INFUSION OF USD 215 MILLION AND HIS OWN RESOURCES TO RECAPITALIZE THE DEBT-RIDDEN COMPANY SO THAT IT COULD INITIATE AN AMBITIOUS USD 1.2 BILLION INVESTMENT PROGRAM. ANXIOUS TO ORIENT COPEC TOWARDS AREAS IN WHICH HE AND HIS MANAGERS HAD EXPERIENCE, ANGELINI USED THE BULK OF THIS MONEY (USD 720 MILLION) TO TRANSFORM COPEC INTO A MAJOR PLAYER IN THE FORESTRY BUSINESS.

UNCLASSIFIED

8. COPEC IS NOW A HEALTHY, RAPIDLY EXPANDING CONGLOMERATE IN ITS OWN RIGHT. IN DOLLAR TERMS, ITS SHARES TRADE FOR TEN TIMES WHAT ANGELINI PAID FOR THEM IN 1985. IT POSTED THIRD QUARTER PROFITS OF USD 120 MILLION IN 1991, SECOND ONLY TO THE ELECTRIC UTILITY ENDESA. ANGELINI'S DIVERSIFICATION STRATEGY SEEMS TO HAVE PAID OFF -- COPEC EARNED MORE PROFITS FROM FORESTRY (41 PCT) THAN FROM ENERGY-RELATED ACTIVITIES (37 PCT) LAST YEAR.

9. MUCH OF ANGELINI'S SUCCESS LIES IN HIS WILLINGNESS TO SEEK OUT FOREIGN PARTNERS. IN ORDER TO FINANCE CAPITAL-INTENSIVE PROJECTS, ANGELINI IDENTIFIES FOREIGN COMPANIES WITH RELEVANT MARKETING EXPERIENCE AND COURTS THEM ASSIDUOUSLY. ALTHOUGH WILLING TO ENTER INTO 50-50 JOINT VENTURES, HE USUALLY INSISTS ON RETAINING OPERATIONAL CONTROL OF PROJECTS IN CHILE. FOR EXAMPLE, HIS SECOND LARGEST FIRM, CELULOSA ARAUCO Y CONSTITUCION, IS ENGAGED IN A PARTNERSHIP WITH THE SWEDISH FORESTRY FIRM STORA KOPPARBERGS BERGSLAGS ON A USD ONE BILLION CELLULOSE PLANT IN THE SOUTHERN CITY OF VALDIVIA. ANGELINI HAS THE SAME KIND OF ARRANGEMENT WITH CHH, BUT HIS AUTONOMY MAY DIMINISH AS A RESULT OF ITS TAKEOVER BY INTERNATIONAL PAPER (U.S.), THE LARGEST FORESTRY COMPANY IN THE WORLD, AND BRIERLEY INVESTMENTS, NEW ZEALAND'S BIGGEST HOLDING COMPANY.

10. ALTHOUGH ANGELINI MAINTAINS A LOW-KEY POLITICAL PROFILE, HE WILL ENGAGE THE POLITICAL ESTABLISHMENT TO DEFEND CORE INTERESTS. DURING 1991, THE GOC'S PROMULGATION OF A CONSERVATION-ORIENTED FISHING LAW FORCED ANGELINI TO MOBILIZE ON THE POLITICAL FRONT (91 SANTIAGO 7831). ANGELINI CONTROLS ALMOST HALF OF THE TOTAL CATCH IN NORTHERN CHILE, WHERE CHILE'S RICHEST FISHERIES ARE LOCATED, AND HAD INTENDED TO CONTINUE EXPANDING. BECAUSE IT IMPOSED QUOTAS ON CATCHES IN THE COUNTRY'S RICHEST FISHERIES, THE LEGISLATION IMPERILED HIS PLANS. WHEN ASKED ABOUT IT LAST YEAR, HE SAID "THE LEGISLATION RESTRICTS THINGS. IF THEY PUT TIGHT SHOES ON YOU, YOU'RE NOT GOING TO WALK VERY WELL, ARE YOU?" ANGELINI'S LOBBYING EFFORTS KEPT THE LEGISLATION PINNED DOWN IN CONGRESS FOR MORE THAN A YEAR, BUT THE GOVERNMENT FINALLY OBTAINED CONGRESSIONAL APPROVAL AND THE LAW TOOK EFFECT IN SEPTEMBER 1991.

11. ANGELINI'S FAILURE TO PREVENT A CHANGE IN THE FISHING SECTOR'S REGULATORY ENVIRONMENT SEEMED TO SOUR HIM ON THE GOVERNMENT. A FEW WEEKS AFTER THE LAW TOOK EFFECT, COPEC

12. LUKSIC: CHILE'S THIRD LARGEST INDUSTRIAL GROUP.

HEADED BY CROATIAN-CHILEAN ANDRONICO LUKSIC ABAROA, OWNS A PORTFOLIO OF 34 COMPANIES, INCLUDING SUCH HIGH PROFILE FIRMS AS COMPANIA CERVECERIAS UNIDAS (CCU), A BREWERY CONTROLLING 95 PCT OF THE DOMESTIC BEER MARKET, THE VENERABLE HOTEL CARRERA IN SANTIAGO, AND THE LUCHETTI FOOD PROCESSING COMPANY. THE GROUP IS ALSO A KEY PLAYER IN THE MINING, TELECOM, AND FINANCIAL SECTORS. IT CONTROLS CHILE'S SEVENTH LARGEST BANK (BANCO O'HIGGINS) AND HOLDS A 20 PCT STAKE IN CHILE'S SECOND LARGEST PRIVATE BANK (BANCO DE SANTIAGO). BANKING SOURCES INDICATE THAT THE LUKSICS' OFFSHORE HOLDINGS IN ENGLAND AND LUXEMBOURG AMOUNT TO SEVERAL HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS.

13. OF THE THREE BIG CONGLOMERATES, THE LUKSIC GROUP HAS THE MOST AMBITIOUS PLANS. DOMESTICALLY AND INTERNATIONALLY, THE GROUP IS IN THE THROES OF EXPANSION. ITS ABILITY TO MAINTAIN LARGE OFFSHORE ACCOUNTS HAS ENABLED IT TO BECOME MORE EXTERNALLY ORIENTED THAN ITS CHILEAN COUNTERPARTS, WITH SIGNIFICANT INVESTMENTS IN ARGENTINA, PERU, VENEZUELA AND MEXICO. ITS ACTIVITIES ARE PARTICULARLY INTENSE IN ARGENTINA, WHERE IT RECENTLY PURCHASED INDELQUI, A TELEPHONE CABLE FACTORY IN BUENOS AIRES WITH SALES OF USD 20 MILLION IN 1991. LUKSIC EXECUTIVES HOPE TO PURCHASE SOON-TO-BE-PRIVATIZED ARGENTINE UTILITIES, AND CCU WILL OPEN A BREWERY IN SALTA IN 1992.

14. THE MOST TELLING SIGN OF THE GROUP'S AMBITION IS ITS OFFENSIVE IN THE DOMESTIC BANKING INDUSTRY. IT RECENTLY PURCHASED TWENTY PERCENT OF THE BANCO DE SANTIAGO, A LARGE BUT TROUBLED COMMERCIAL BANK. IF IT WERE TO MERGE BANCO

DE SANTIAGO WITH THE BANCO O'HIGGINS, THE GROUP WOULD CONTROL CHILE'S LARGEST PRIVATE BANK. SUCH A BANK WOULD HAVE MANY ATTRACTIONS: MODERN FACILITIES IN SANTIAGO, BRANCHES IN ALMOST EVERY REGION OF THE COUNTRY, A HEALTHY SHARE OF THE COMMERCIAL LOAN MARKET, AND FINANCIAL EXPERIENCE IN EVERY SECTOR OF INTEREST TO THE LUKSIC GROUP

15. BEFORE SUCH A MERGER CAN OCCUR, HOWEVER, THE GROUP MUST PUT THE BANCO DE SANTIAGO ON A SOUND FINANCIAL FOOTING. FOR ALL OF ITS ALLURE, THE BANK POSSESSES A SUBORDINATED DEBT TO THE CENTRAL BANK THAT EXCEEDS CAPITAL BY A FACTOR OF FIVE. WITHOUT FRESH INFUSIONS OF CAPITAL, THE BANK WILL REQUIRE ALMOST A CENTURY TO PAY OFF ITS USD 1.1 BILLION DEBT, A LEGACY OF THE NEAR-COLLAPSE OF THE

BANKING SYSTEM IN 1982-83. WHY IS THE LUKSIC GROUP POURING MONEY INTO WHAT LOOKS LIKE A LOSER? FINANCIAL OBSERVERS SPECULATE THAT THE GROUP WILL USE THE GOVERNMENT-SPONSORED "RENEGOTIATION" OF THE BANKING SYSTEM'S SUBORDINATED DEBT (91 SANTIAGO 7815) TO PROPOSE A DEAL WHEREBY IT WOULD RECAPITALIZE THE BANK AND FRONTLOAD ITS AMORTIZATIONS TO THE CENTRAL BANK IN EXCHANGE FOR A DEBT WRITEDOWN. SUCH A DEAL WOULD ENABLE IT TO PROCEED WITH A BANK MERGER THAT WOULD GIVE THE LUKSICS A PRESENCE IN THE FINANCIAL SECTOR THAT NO OTHER GROUP COULD MATCH.

16. BECAUSE OF THESE SENSITIVE NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE GOC, LUKSIC EXECUTIVES HAVE CULTIVATED A FRIENDLY RELATIONSHIP WITH THE AYLWIN GOVERNMENT. IN PUBLIC, THEY PRAISE AND DEFEND THE GOVERNMENT'S ECONOMIC POLICIES. FOR EXAMPLE, ANDRONICO LUKSIC'S SON GUILLERMO RECENTLY COMPARED THE AYLWIN GOVERNMENT'S PERFORMANCE FAVORABLY TO THE PINOCHET REGIME'S. THE NEW GOVERNMENT'S EMPHASIS ON SOCIAL PROGRAMS, HE OPINED, "IS GOING TO HELP TO OVERCOME THE

17. MATTE: WITH 70 YEARS OF EXISTENCE AND FOUR DECADES IN THE RANKS OF THE COUNTRY'S FIVE LARGEST CONGLOMERATES, THE MATTE GROUP IS CHILE'S MOST DURABLE BUSINESS EMPIRE. IT CURRENTLY RANKS AS THE COUNTRY'S SECOND LARGEST GROUP, WITH EXTENSIVE INTERESTS IN FORESTRY, MINING, PETROCHEMICALS, TRANSPORTATION AND FINANCE. THE CONGLOMERATE'S FORESTRY INTERESTS ARE MANAGED THROUGH COMPANIA MANUFACTURERA DE PAPELES Y CARTONES (CMPC), ONE OF THE COUNTRY'S LARGEST AND OLDEST FORESTRY FIRMS. CMPC HAS A LONG-STANDING RELATIONSHIP WITH CHICAGO-BASED SIMPSON PAPER COMPANY. THEIR MOST RECENT COLLABORATION INVOLVED THE CONSTRUCTION OF A USD 587 MILLION PULP MILL

THAT WENT ON LINE IN JANUARY 1992. THE MATTE GROUP IS ALSO A MAJOR PLAYER IN FINANCE. IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE UNITED KINGDOM'S ROTHSCHILD GROUP, IT CONTROLS CHILE'S MOST RESPECTED BANK, BANCO BICE.

18. BECAUSE OF ITS LONGEVITY, THE GROUP LACKS A DOMINANT PATRIARCHAL FIGURE WHOSE FINGERPRINTS ARE ON EVERY MAJOR DECISION. ITS FOUNDER, LUIS MATTE LARRAIN, DIED SEVERAL YEARS AGO, BUT THE CONGLOMERATE CONTINUES TO PROSPER. THE GROUP'S STAYING POWER STEMS FROM A WILLINGNESS TO ALLOW EXPERIENCED PROFESSIONALS TO FOCUS ON A FEW PROMISING OPPORTUNITIES. EXECUTIVES AT MATTE-ASSOCIATED FIRMS WORRY

IN THE 1970'S, WHOSE FRENZIED PACE OF LEVERAGED ACQUISITIONS ULTIMATELY SPELLED THEIR DOOM. LIKE THE ANGELINI GROUP, THE MATTES EMERGED FROM THE 1982-83 CRISIS
WITH THEIR PRINCIPAL ASSETS INTACT.
19. THE MATTE'S MANAGEMENT OF THE BANCO BICE IS A CASE IN POINT. WHILE OTHER INDUSTRIAL GROUPS MILKED THEIR BANKS FOR CREDIT IN THE LATE SEVENTIES AND EARLY EIGHTIES, THE MATTE GROUP QUIETLY TRANSFORMED BICE INTO ONE OF LATIN
AMERICA'S BEST-RUN BANKS. BECAUSE OF ITS SMALL,
HIGH-QUALITY LOAN PORTFOLIO, BANCO BICE WAS THE ONLY PRIVATELY-HELD CHILEAN BANK TO ESCAPE CENTRAL BANK INTERVENTION DURING THE NEAR-COLLAPSE OF THE BANKING SYSTEM. AS A RESULT, BICE HAS OPERATED DURING THE POST-CRISIS BOOM WITHOUT THE MASSIVE DEBTS THAT CONSUME
THE PROFITS OF MOST PRIVATE BANKS. THIS HAS ENABLED IT TO CONSOLIDATE ITS POSITION AS CHILE'S MOST PROFITABLE BANK.

GOVERNMENT ECONOMIC POLICY. AT A RECENT GOVERNMENT-BUSINESS SUMMIT THAT WAS ATTENDED BY FINANCE MINISTER FOXLEY, CMPC PRESIDENT ERNESTO AYALA REPORTEDLY COMPLAINED TO PRESIDENT AYLWIN THAT FOXLEY WAS TECHNICALLY SOUND BUT COULDN'T HANDLE CONSTRUCTIVE CRITICISM. CMPC VICE PRESIDENT ELEODORO MATTE, THE INDUSTRIAL GROUP'S MOST VISIBLE SPOKESMAN, IS ONE OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR'S MOST

AGGRESSIVE PROPONENTS OF THE "SILENT COUNTER-REVOLUTION" HYPOTHESIS. IN MATTE'S VIEW, "THE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC AND ALL OF THE MINISTERS ARE DEDICATED TO A SYSTEM OF FREE ENTERPRISE," BUT AT THE SUB-MINISTERIAL AND REGIONAL LEVEL "THINGS AREN'T GOING WELL; IT'S DIFFICULT TO GET THINGS DONE. ...SILENTLY -- BECAUSE THESE THINGS DON'T MAKE THE HEADLINES -- A SERIES OF EVENTS ARE TAKING PLACE THAT, IN SUM, AND IF THEY ARE ALLOWED TO CONTINUE, COULD HAVE A GRAVE IMPACT."

21. ALTHOUGH THE MATTE GROUP HAS LESS EXPERIENCE IN FOREIGN INVESTMENT THAN THE ANGELINIS AND THE LUKSICS, IT IS LOOKING ABROAD AS WELL. CMPC OWNS A CHEMICAL PLANT IN ARGENTINA AND IS SEEKING TO OBTAIN A PAPER PRODUCTS FACTORY THERE AS WELL. CMPC IS ALSO LOOKING AT INVESTMENT PROJECTS IN BRAZIL, MEXICO AND VENEZUELA. BECAUSE OF HIS FIRM'S INCREASINGLY INTERNATIONAL ORIENTATION, ELEODORO MATTE HAS BECOME A PROPONENT OF THE GOC'S TRADE LIBERALIZATION STRATEGY AND HAS URGED THE GOVERNMENT TO TAKE FURTHER STEPS TO FACILITATE CHILEAN INVESTMENT ABROAD.

SUBJECT: CHILE'S INDUSTRIAL GROUPS: WHO'S WHO

THE LIMELIGHT LOVERS: CLARO, CARDOEN, AND ERRAZURIZ

---

22. THE THREE INDUSTRIAL GROUPS CONSIDERED IN THIS SECTION ARE EVEN MORE DIVERSE THAN THE "BIG THREE," BUT THEY SHARE ONE IMPORTANT TRAIT. UNLIKE THEIR INDUSTRIALIST PEERS, WHO TEND TO SHUN PUBLICITY EVEN AS THEY EXERT INFLUENCE, THE TYCOONS AT THE HELM OF THESE GROUPS CRAVE THE LIMELIGHT. BECAUSE THEY HAVE USED THEIR MILLIONS TO GAIN MEDIA ACCESS AND EVEN (IN THE CASE OF FRANCISCO JAVIER ERRAZURIZ) TO LAUNCH POLITICAL CAREERS, THEY ARE INFLUENTIAL (IF NOT UNIVERSALLY ADMIRED) FIGURES WHOSE NAME RECOGNITION IN CHILE FAR EXCEEDS THAT OF WEALTHIER MEN LIKE ANACLETO ANGELINI AND ANDRONICO LUKSIC.
23. CLARO: A LAWYER BY TRAINING, RICARDO CLARO VALDES SERVED AS LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE FOR SEVERAL LARGE CHILEAN AND AMERICAN COMPANIES. BY THE 1960S, HE HAD GONE INTO PARTNERSHIP WITH THREE PROMINENT SANTIAGO BUSINESSMEN --

UNCLASSIFIED DECLASSIFIED

FERNANDO LARRAIN, JAVIER VIAL AND MANUEL CRUZAT. KNOWN COLLECTIVELY AS "THE PIRANHAS" BECAUSE OF THEIR SUCCESS IN WRESTING CONTROL OF LARGE, LONG-ESTABLISHED FIRMS, THIS FOURSOME CONTROLLED CHILE'S LARGEST INDUSTRIAL GROUP IN THE LATE 1960'S. CLARO MOVED TO SPAIN AFTER SALVADOR ALLENDE'S ELECTION TO THE CHILEAN PRESIDENCY, BUT RETURNED IN 1972 AND ENDED HIS BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP WITH THE OTHER

PIRANHAS.

24. UNLIKE HIS FORMER PARTNERS, CLARO SURVIVED THE 1982-83 ECONOMIC CRISIS, AND HE NOW CONTROLS A BUSINESS EMPIRE THAT INCLUDES A USD 600 MILLION SHIPPING COMPANY, COMPANIA SUDAMERICANA DE VAPORES, LARGE STEEL AND METAL PROCESSING PLANTS, TWO WINERIES, A LAW FIRM, AND A NATIONAL TELEVISION NETWORK, MEGAVISION. WHAT DISTINGUISHES CLARO FROM OTHER DONS OF INDUSTRY IS HIS FONDNESS FOR PUBLICITY. CLARO HAS HIS OWN PROGRAM ON THE NATIONAL RADIO NETWORK "RADIO CHILENA" (MADE POSSIBLE BY HIS FRIENDSHIP WITH THE NETWORK'S OWNER AND THE FACT THAT HE IS CHILENA'S BIGGEST ADVERTISER), AND MAKES FREQUENT APPEARANCES IN THE MEDIA, INCLUDING THOSE ON HIS OWN TELEVISION NETWORK.

25. ALL OF CLARO'S MAIN HOLDINGS EARN HIM MILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN PROFITS EXCEPT FOR MEGAVISION, WHICH WENT ON THE AIR IN LATE 1990. IN THE THIRD QUARTER OF 1991, MEGAVISION LOST THE EQUIVALENT OF MORE THAN USD THREE MILLION. YET THIS FORAY INTO MASS MEDIA HAS INCREASED CLARO'S INFLUENCE IN SHAPING PUBLIC OPINION. THIS IS IMPORTANT BECAUSE OF CLARO'S DEEP ENMITY FOR THE U.S. GOVERNMENT. HIS HATRED STEMS FROM THE "POISONED GRAPES" INCIDENT, IN WHICH HIS SHIPPING COMPANY LOST SOME MONEY. CLARO RESIGNED HIS POSITION AS PRESIDENT OF THE U.S.-CHILE BINATIONAL CENTER AND USED HIS MEDIA ACCESS TO WAGE A VITUPERATIVE PUBLIC CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE UNITED STATES THAT FEATURED PERSONAL ATTACKS AGAINST TWO RECENT U.S. AMBASSADORS TO CHILE. [illegible]ICATING EMBASSY OFFICERS WHOM HE HAD [illegible]ATED AS FRIENDS, CLARO CLAIMED THAT USG

OFFICIALS ENGINEERED THE INCIDENT TO EMBARRASS THE PINOCHET REGIME. HE PERIODICALLY DENOUNCES GOC OFFICIALS (DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER EDMUNDO VARGAS IS THE LATEST VICTIM) WHO HE DEEMS TO LACK A SATISFACTORY LEVEL OF COMMITMENT TO HIS CAUSE.

[illegible] CLARO'S ANTIPATHY IS SUCH THAT HE NOW DENOUNCES VIRTUALLY ANY EXPRESSION OF INTEREST BY THE USG IN CHILEAN AFFAIRS. DESPITE THE FACT THAT HE WOULD PROFIT FROM A GROWING VOLUME OF U.S.-CHILEAN TRADE, HE HAS DENOUNCED THE

HE ALSO CLAIMED LAST YEAR THAT THE USG BLACKMAILED THE GOC INTO PROMULGATING A PHARMACEUTICAL PATENT LAW BY THREATENING TO RESTRICT CHILEAN FRUIT EXPORTS.

27. DESPITE MEGAVISION'S LOSSES (WHICH PROBABLY REFLECT HIGH START-UP COSTS IN A COMPETITIVE SECTOR), MEGAVISION'S PROSPECTS ARE EXCELLENT, AND CLARO'S INFLUENCE IN THE MEDIA IS LIKELY TO GROW. CLARO SUCCEEDED IN SELLING 49 PCT OF THE COMPANY TO ONE OF LATIN AMERICA'S MOST WIDELY RESPECTED MEDIA FIRMS, TELEVISA OF MEXICO. UNDER THE TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT, CLARO RETAINS MAJORITY CONTROL OF THE COMPANY WHILE OBTAINING USD 8.5 MILLION. THIS MONEY WILL ENABLE MEGAVISION TO CONTINUE ITS AGGRESSIVE PUSH FOR DOMINANCE OF THE AIRWAVES (IT CURRENTLY LAGS BEHIND TWO MORE ESTABLISHED NETWORKS IN NATIONAL RATINGS).

28. CARDOEN: BECAUSE OF HIS ROLE AS ONE OF THE DEVELOPING WORLD'S LEADING ARMS SUPPLIERS, CARLOS CARDOEN CORNEJO HAS BECOME CHILE'S MOST CONTROVERSIAL BUSINESSMAN. AFTER OBTAINING A PH.D. IN MINING ENGINEERING FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH, CARDOEN WORKED FOR SEVERAL MULTINATIONAL MINING AND CHEMICAL FIRMS, INCLUDING KENNECOTT COPPER AND UTAH-BASED IRECO CHEMICALS, WHERE HE WORKED FOR TEN YEARS. HE OPENED HIS OWN EXPLOSIVES BUSINESS IN THE MID-1970'S, AND USED IT AS A PLATFORM TO DEVELOP A NETWORK OF PRODUCTION FACILITIES AND TRADING FIRMS THAT SUPPLIED CLUSTER BOMBS, HOWITZERS AND OTHER WEAPONS TO THE PINOCHET MILITARY REGIME AND LATER TO OTHER PARIAH STATES SUCH AS SOUTH AFRICA, ETHIOPIA, AND IRAQ. IN THE PROCESS, HE BECAME ONE OF CHILE'S RICHEST MEN.

29. CARDOEN'S PARTICIPATION IN THE INTERNATIONAL ARMS MARKET IS A SUBJECT OF VOLUMINOUS REPORTING AND WILL NOT BE DEALT WITH HERE, EXCEPT AS IT PERTAINS TO HIS MORE

CONVENTIONAL HOLDINGS. HE IS MENTIONED IN THIS REPORT BECAUSE HE CONTROLS ONE OF CHILE'S LARGEST INDUSTRIAL GROUPS. HIS PROFITS FROM THE ARMS TRADE HAVE ENABLED HIM TO BUILD A NETWORK OF FIRMS WHOSE NET VALUE IS ESTIMATED BY THE CHILEAN PRESS AT USD 300-400 MILLION. SOME OF CARDOEN'S FIRMS, LIKE THE COMPANIA CHILENA DE FOSFOROS (A THRIVING, PUBLICLY TRADED PRODUCER OF MATCHSTICKS AND OTHER WOOD-BASED PRODUCTS THAT IS CARDOEN'S LARGEST MANUFACTURING COMPANY) AND HIS MINING COMPANIES (WHICH ARE INTENSIVE USERS OF EXPLOSIVES) ARE NATURAL EXTENSIONS OF HIS MORE INFAMOUS BUSINESSES; MANY MORE ARE NOT. AMONG OTHER THINGS, CARDOEN OWNS A TRAVEL AGENCY, AN AIR TAXI SERVICE, A SANTIAGO HOTEL, A BLUE JEANS MANUFACTURER, SMALL COMMERCIAL BANK (BANCO DEL PACIFICO) THAT HE REPUTEDLY BOUGHT WITH USD TEN MILLION IN CASH.

30. BECAUSE OF CARDOEN'S INVOLVEMENT IN THE ARMS TRADE, HIS FOREIGN HOLDINGS ARE MORE VARIED (AND POSSIBLY LARGER) THAN THOSE OF ANY OTHER CHILEAN GROUP. ACCORDING TO THE CHILEAN FINANCIAL PRESS, HE OWNS SEVERAL COMPANIES IN THE UNITED STATES, AS WELL AS COMPANIES IN GREECE, ITALY, SPAIN, ECUADOR, VENEZUELA, AND ARGENTINA. IN HIS FREQUENT PRESS INTERVIEWS, CARDOEN LIKES TO EXPOUND ON HIS AMBITIOUS EXPANSION PLANS ABROAD. IN CHILE, HOWEVER, CARDOEN SEEMS TO BE RETRENCHING. HE SOLD OFF ONE OF HIS MAIN COMPANIES, EXPLOSIVAS MINERIAS, TO THE UK'S IMPERIAL CHEMICAL INDUSTRIES LAST EAR DESPITE THE FACT THAT IT REMAINS HIGHLY PROFITABLE. THIS SALE WAS FOLLOWED CLOSELY BY HIS SALE OF THE DEBT-RIDDEN BANCO DEL PACIFICO TO SPAIN'S BANCO ESPANOL DE CREDITO (BANESTO).

TAILORED SILK SUITS FROM ITALY. ONE MIGHT GUESS THAT THE LATIN AMERICAN LEFT VIEWS CARDOEN AS ANOTHER NATIVE-BORN CAPITALIST RUNNING DOG. IN FACT, HE HAS DEVELOPED SOMETHING OF A FOLLOWING ON THE RADICAL FRINGE. TO BUILD SUPPORT, CARDOEN PORTRAYS HIMSELF AS A CHAMPION OF THE THIRD WORLD WHO STRIVES TO SMASH THE INDUSTRIALIZED COUNTRIES' DOMINATION OF THE GLOBAL TRADE IN

MANUFACTURES. HE ATTRIBUTES HIS UNSAVORY REPUTATION TO CALUMNIES FROM RESENTFUL COMPETITORS AND THEIR ALLIES IN THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE DEVELOPED COUNTRIES. THIS VARIANT ON THE DEPENDENCY THEORY OF POLITICAL ECONOMY HAS ATTRACTED FAVORABLE COVERAGE IN CHILE'S CONSERVATIVE PRESS AND THE ATTENTION OF PROMINENT LEFTISTS IN SUCH DISTANT LANDS AS CUBA.

32. INDEED, CARDOEN HAS BEEN A FREQUENT VISITOR TO HAVANA SINCE 1989 (OSTENSIBLY FOR TREATMENT OF HIS WIFE'S NEUROLOGICAL DISORDER). BY HIS OWN ADMISSION, HE HAS MET WITH CUBAN GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ON MANY OCCASIONS, AND NOW WORKS IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE COMMUNIST REGIME IN PRODUCING AND MARKETING TROPICAL FRUIT GROWN ON THE ISLAND. IN CHILE, HE DEFENDS THE VENTURE BY CLAIMING THAT IT WILL "ENABLE US TO MARKET FRUIT 365 DAYS A YEAR. ... THIS WILL ENABLE US TO COMPETE ON EVEN GROUND WITH THE MULTINATIONALS." HE WARNS DARKLY OF UNSPECIFIED SABOTEURS (PRESUMABLY THE USG) WHO MAY SEEK TO FRUSTRATE HIS NOBLE PLANS. "THERE ARE THOSE WHO WANT TO SUBMIT THE CUBAN PEOPLE TO HUNGER, AND THEY MAY REACT VIOLENTLY AGAINST THESE EFFORTS. IT WILL BE INTERESTING TO SEE WHETHER WE CAN, AS A DEVELOPING COUNTRY, TAKE INDEPENDENT POSITIONS."

33. CARDOEN CLAIMS THAT HE IS NO LONGER INVOLVED IN THE PRODUCTION OF WEAPONS. PLAYING THE NATIONALISTIC ANGLE, HOWEVER, CARDOEN ADDS THAT HE COULD RECONVERT HIS FACTORIES TO ARMS PRODUCTION "AT ANY TIME" IF CHILE'S NATIONAL SECURITY INTEREST REQUIRED IT.

34. ERRAZURIZ: BY LAUNCHING AN INDEPENDENT CANDIDACY IN

THE 1990 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS AND FOUNDING HIS OWN POLITICAL PARTY (THE "UNION DE CENTRO CENTRO"), FRANCISCO JAVIER ("FRA FRA") ERRAZURIZ TALAVERA MADE HIMSELF CHILE'S MOST WIDELY RECOGNIZED (IF NOT ADMIRED) BUSINESSMEN. BORN TO ONE OF CHILE'S LEADING POLITICAL FAMILIES IN 1942, ERRAZURIZ MANAGED TO RUN FOR PRESIDENT WITHOUT THE ASSISTANCE OF ANY ESTABLISHED POLITICAL GROUP BECAUSE OF HIS WEALTH. HIS HOLDINGS INCLUDE A SUPERMARKET CHAIN, A NISSAN DISTRIBUTORSHIP, A SALMON HATCHERY, A FISHING FLEET, A LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, TWO PENSION FUNDS, FRUIT

AND VEGETABLE FARMS AND PACKING PLANTS, AND DIVERSE MINING INTERESTS. THE ERRAZURIZ HOLDING COMPANY ESTIMATES THE COMBINED VALUE OF HIS THREE LARGEST FIRMS AT USD 167 MILLION.

35. MANY FINANCIAL OBSERVERS ATTRIBUTE ERRAZURIZ'S SUCCESS TO A PREDILECTION FOR UNSAVORY BUSINESS PRACTICES. HIS WHEELING AND DEALING HAS REPEATEDLY LANDED HIM IN HOT WATER WITH THE FINANCIAL AUTHORITIES OF BOTH THE PINOCHET AND AYLWIN GOVERNMENTS. IN 1988, THE GOC'S BANKING SUPERINTENDENCY INTERVENED IN ERRAZURIZ'S BANCO NACIONAL AFTER IT DISCOVERED THAT THE BANK WAS MAKING SCORES OF UNSECURED LOANS TO MANY OF HIS GROUP'S COMPANIES. ERRAZURIZ CLAIMED THAT THE CHARGES WERE POLITICALLY MOTIVATED, BUT HE WAS EVENTUALLY FORCED TO SELL THE BANK (89 SANTIAGO 4571). IN JUNE 1991, ERRAZURIZ SPENT 14 DAYS IN PRISON ON CHARGES OF FOREIGN EXCHANGE FRAUD DATING FROM 1988. THE REPUTEDLY CORRUPT THIRD CHAMBER OF THE SUPREME COURT EXONERATED HIM AMIDST WIDESPREAD ALLEGATIONS OF BRIBERY (91 SANTIAGO 4992).
36. HIS EXPANSION INTO MINING HAS ALSO PROVOKED CONTROVERSY. ERRAZURIZ IS AN ENTHUSIASTIC PARTICIPANT IN THE CHILEAN SPORT OF "OVERSTAKING," IN WHICH SOMEBODY

FILES CLAIMS ON MINING PROPERTIES THAT SOMEONE ELSE HAS ALREADY CLAIMED. THE NEW CLAIMANT THEN FILES LEGAL ACTIONS CHALLENGING THE VALIDITY OF THE EARLIER CLAIM. IF HE IS SUCCESSFUL, HE ACQUIRES THE RIGHTS. ALTERNATIVELY, HE CAN WITHDRAW HIS CLAIM IN EXCHANGE FOR AN "APPROPRIATE CONSIDERATION" -- THAT IS, MONEY. BECAUSE EVEN A WEAK CASE CAN SUFFICE TO DELAY A PROJECT, THERE IS A STRONG INCENTIVE TO PAY THE CLAIMS JUMPER TO RENOUNCE HIS CLAIM.

37. WHILE SOME CALL THIS BLACKMAIL, OTHERS RUEFULLY ADMIT THAT ERRAZURIZ HAS A NOSE FOR FINDING WEAKNESSES IN OTHERS' MINING TITLES (CHILEAN LAW IS FULL OF ARCHAIC FORMALISMS THAT MAKE IT EASY TO REGISTER A CLAIM IMPROPERLY). IN ANY EVENT, HE HAS DEEP POCKETS THAT ENABLE HIM TO HIRE TOP-NOTCH LEGAL TALENT. DESPITE THEIR DISTASTE FOR HIS METHODS, REPRESENTATIVES OF THE LOCAL MINING SECTOR DO NOT LIKE TO TANGLE WITH HIM.
38. UNLIKE CLARO AND CARDOEN, ERRAZURIZ DOES NOT SEEM TO CARRY A GRUDGE AGAINST THE UNITED STATES. [redacted] B1

[redacted] TO ELIMINATE "THE DISEQUILIBRIA THAT CHARACTERIZE THE PRICES OF OUR NATURAL RESOURCES," ERRAZURIZ CALLED FOR LATIN AMERICA TO DEFY THE "POWERFUL NATIONS THAT WANT TO KEEP US APART" BY CREATING THE "UNITED REPUBLICS OF LATIN AMERICA." HE CRITICIZED THE PINOCHET REGIME FOR STAYING CURRENT ON ITS EXTERNAL DEBT, AND URGED THE GOC TO FREE UP MONEY FOR GOVERNMENT HEALTH PROGRAMS BY SUSPENDING DEBT SERVICE. HE ALSO CONDEMNED THE CHAPTER XIX DEBT-SWAP PROGRAM THAT ENABLED CHILE TO RESOLVE ITS DEBT PROBLEM AND INTRODUCED MANY LARGE FOREIGN INVESTORS TO CHILE. HE TOLD AN INTERVIEWER

DURING THE CAMPAIGN THAT "CHILEAN DEBTORS -- THE POOR, THE MIDDLE CLASS -- THEY'RE THE ONES WHO PAY THE MONEY THAT THE LUCKY GRINGOS GET WHEN THEY ACQUIRE CHILEAN SHARES" THROUGH THE SWAPS.
39. ERRAZURIZ IS IN THE PROCESS OF REGISTERING SEVERAL OF HIS BIGGEST HOLDINGS ON THE SANTIAGO STOCK EXCHANGE. SOME FINANCIAL OBSERVERS INTERPRET THIS MOVE AS EVIDENCE THAT ERRAZURIZ IS DISTRACTED BY POLITICS AND BORED WITH THE BUSINESS WORLD. WE ARE UNPERSUADED BY SUCH ANALYSIS.

SUBJECT: CHILE'S INDUSTRIAL GROUPS: WHO'S WHO

DEMONSTRATES HIS DETERMINATION TO MAINTAIN HIS GROUP'S AMBITIOUS EXPANSION PLANS, WHICH WILL COST MORE THAN USD 200 MILLION.

---

GROUPS CREATED BY PRIVATIZATION

---

40. THE EXTENSIVE PRIVATIZATIONS CARRIED OUT BY THE PINOCHET REGIME CREATED A NEW TYPE OF CONGLOMERATE. TYPICALLY, PRIVATIZED FIRMS ARE CONTROLLED NOT BY A SINGLE FAMILY, BUT RATHER BY A GROUP OF WELL-CAPITALIZED SHAREHOLDERS. THESE GROUPS OFTEN FEATURE SIGNIFICANT PARTICIPATION FROM FOREIGN INSTITUTIONAL INVESTORS. AIDED BY THE MILITARY REGIME'S ASSUMPTION OF THEIR DEBTS (WHICH MADE THEM EASIER TO SELL), MANY OF THE LARGER PRIVATIZED FIRMS SOON BECAME MAJOR PLAYERS IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR.

41. SIGDO KOPPERS: IN 1974, THE PINOCHET REGIME AUTHORIZED SOME ENGINEERS AND ADMINISTRATORS AT THE STATE-OWNED STEEL ENTERPRISE CAP TO BUY THE METALLURGICAL

UNCLASSIFIED

DIVISION WHERE THEY WORKED. THIS EARLY PRIVATIZATION SPAWNED THE SIGDO KOPPERS GROUP (SK). IN THE ENSUING YEARS, SK DEVELOPED A NUCLEUS OF HIGH-TECH FIRMS, INCLUDING A PROFITABLE AND RAPIDLY EXPANDING ARMS FIRM CALLED EMPRESA NACIONAL DE EXPLOSIVOS (ENAEX). THE GROUP PLANS TO SPEND USD 17 MILLION ON AN EXPANSION OF ENAEX'S

AMMOUNIUM NITRATE PLANT IN 1992. SIGDO KOPPERS ALSO OWNS FACTORIES PRODUCING CHEMICAL GOODS AND KITCHEN APPLIANCES, AN INDUSTRIAL CONSTRUCTION FIRM, AN ENGINEERING CONSULTANCY, AND AN ELECTRIC UTILITY.

42. COMPANIA DE ACERO DEL PACIFICO (CAP): CHILE'S LARGEST STEEL FIRM WAS CREATED AS A JOINT VENTURE BY PRIVATE INVESTORS AND THE GOVERNMENT IN 1946. THE FREI GOVERNMENT NATIONALIZED CAP IN THE LATE 1960S, AND THE FIRM REMAINED IN STATE HANDS UNTIL 1985. ITS PRIVATIZATION BROUGHT SEVERAL YEARS OF WRENCHING ADJUSTMENTS INVOLVING LAYOFFS AND AN OVERHAUL OF PRODUCTION FACILITIES. CAP EMERGED FROM ITS RESTRUCTURING AS A LOW-COST PRODUCER OF SPECIALTY STEEL PRODUCTS. UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF ITS PRESIDENT ROBERTO DE ANDRACA, IT HAS BRANCHED INTO OTHER AREAS OF THE CHILEAN ECONOMY AND IS NOW ONE OF CHILE'S MOST IMPORTANT INDUSTRIAL GROUPS. THE CONGLOMERATE CONTROLS TWENTY COMPANIES, INCLUDING A WOOD FURNITURE AND BOARD MANUFACTURER, A LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, A PRIVATE PENSION FUND, AND A MINING FIRM. THE GROUP'S 1990-94 INVESTMENT PLAN ENVISIONS EXPENDITURES OF USD 850 MILLION.

43. EMPRESA NACIONAL DE ELECTRICIDAD (ENDESA): THE ELECTRICAL UTILITY ENDESA WAS ONLY PRIVATIZED IN 1987, BUT UNDER THE TUTELAGE OF 34-YEAR OLD RODRIGO MANUBENS IT HAS BECOME CHILE'S LARGEST AND MOST PROFITABLE PUBLICLY TRADED FIRM (AND THE EIGHTH BIGGEST SUCH COMPANY IN LATIN AMERICA). ITS FIVE UTILITIES AND ENGINEERING FIRMS EARNED USD 143 MILLION IN PROFITS IN THE THIRD QUARTER OF 1991, UP 61 PCT FROM THE SAME PERIOD IN 1990. EAGER TO EXPLOIT

THE RISING DEMAND FOR ENERGY IN THE BURGEONING DOMESTIC ECONOMY, THE FIRM HAS OPENED TWO HYDROELECTRICAL PLANTS IN THE LAST TWO YEARS AND WILL DEVELOP TWO MORE IN THE NEXT FIVE YEARS. ONE OF THESE, PANGUE, HAS ENCOUNTERED STIFF OPPOSITION FROM ENVIRONMENTAL GROUPS INSIDE AND OUTSIDE OF CHILE BECAUSE IT INVOLVES THE DAMMING OF THE BIO BIO RIVER, A MAJOR WATERWAY OF HISTORICAL AND CULTURAL SIGNIFICANCE THAT ALSO HAPPENS TO BE A MECCA FOR WEALTHY FIRST-WORLD WHITE WATER RAFTERS (SANTIAGO 1298). THE TWO NEW PROJECTS WILL INVOLVE A TOTAL INVESTMENT OF USD 570

44. THERE ARE A HOST OF SMALLER FAMILY-BASED GROUPS THAT MAY RANK WITH THE ANGELINIS AND THE MATTES SOMEDAY. THE ACTIVITIES OF THE FASTEST GROWING AND MOST INFLUENTIAL OF THESE CONGLOMERATES ARE DISCUSSED BELOW.
45. BOHER: THE FOUR BOHER BROTHERS RUN CHILE'S MOST FAMILY-ORIENTED INDUSTRIAL GROUP. UNLIKE OTHER GROUPS, THE BOHERS MADE THEIR FORTUNE IN A FOREIGN COUNTRY (ARGENTINA) AND THEN ESTABLISHED A PRESENCE IN THEIR NATIVE LAND. THEIR GROUP IS NOW GROWING FASTER THAN ALMOST ANY OTHER IN CHILE. LAST YEAR, BOHER COMPANIES REGISTERED SALES OF MORE THAN USD 220 MILLION.

46. IN THE 1960S, THE BOHER FAMILY RAN A CORN MILLING PLANT IN CENTRAL CHILE. WHEN ALLENDE CAME TO POWER IN 1970, THE BOHERS MOVED TO BRAZIL, WHERE THEY WORKED IN THE SAME BUSINESS. THEY USED THE PROCEEDS FROM THE SALE OF THEIR INTERESTS THERE TO BUY A CORN MILLING PLANT IN ARGENTINA. THAT PLANT, IMASA, PROSPERED, ENABLING THE BOHERS TO ENGAGE IN OTHER LUCRATIVE PROJECTS, INCLUDING THE CONSTRUCTION OF LATIN AMERICA'S FIRST HIGH FRUCTOSE CORN SYRUP PLANT, AND TO OBTAIN ARGENTINE DISTRIBUTORSHIP RIGHTS FOR FUJI FILM AND CANON CAMERAS. BY 1977, THE GROUP WAS INVESTING IN CHILE AGAIN, FOCUSING ON THE FISHERIES SECTOR. THE BOHERS NOW OWN A FISHING FLEET AND SEVERAL TROUT AND SALMON HATCHERIES.

47. IN THE LAST THREE YEARS, THE BOHER GROUP'S EXPANSION HAS ACCELERATED, USUALLY IN ASSOCIATION WITH HIGH-PROFILE FOREIGN PARTNERS. THE BOHERS BOUGHT A LARGE PRODUCER OF LAMINATED WOOD BOARDS (BOMASA) THAT EXPORTS 80 PCT OF ITS PRODUCTION. TO FINANCE THE COMPANY'S EXPANSION, THE GROUP RECENTLY SOLD 128 PCT OF BOMASA'S SHARES TO THE WORLD BANK'S INTERNATIONAL FINANCE CORPORATION (IFC). THE BOHER GROUP IS ALSO THE LOCAL PARTNER OF THE U.S. VIDEO RENTAL CHAIN BLOCKBUSTER, WHICH RECENTLY INITIATED AN ASSAULT ON THE CHILEAN MARKET BY BUYING OUT CHILE'S DOMINANT VIDEO FIRM, EROL'S. FINALLY, THE BOHER GROUP SPENT USD THREE MILLION LAST YEAR TO OBTAIN CHILEAN MARKETING AND PRODUCTION RIGHTS FOR LEE JEANS.

48. ABUMOHOR: THE THREE ABUMOHOR BROTHERS INVESTED MUCH OF THEIR PROFITS FROM THE TEXTILE AND APPAREL INDUSTRY

INTO THE FINANCIAL SECTOR AND MASS MEDIA. IN PARTNERSHIP WITH SEVERAL OTHER BUSINESSMEN OF PALESTINEAN HERITAGE, THEY OWN ONE OF THE COUNTRY'S LARGEST COMMERCIAL BANKS, THE BANCO DE OSORNO (ONE OF THE BROTHERS, CARLOS, IS THE BANK'S PRESIDENT). ALONG WITH THE MEDIA MOGUL ALVARO SAIEH, THEY ALSO OWN COPESA, WHICH PUBLISHES TWO POPULAR SANTIAGO TABLOIDS (LA TERCERA AND LA CUARTA) AND A NEWS MAGAZINE (QUE PASA), AND IS IN THE PROCESS OF PURCHASING LA EPOCA, A SANTIAGO DAILY THAT NEWS TO THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC LINE.

SUBJECT: CHILE'S INDUSTRIAL GROUPS: LEADING EDGE OR IMPEDIMENT TO MODERNIZATION?

1. CONFIDENTIAL -- ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY/INTRODUCTION. TEN FAMILY-CONTROLLED CONGLOMERATES PLAY A PREEMINENT ROLE IN CHILE'S ECONOMY. THESE INDUSTRIAL-FINANCIAL EMPIRES, CALLED "GROUPS" IN CHILE, DOMINATE MANY OF THE ECONOMY'S KEY SECTORS, INCLUDING FORESTRY, FISHING, SHIPPING, AND FOOD PROCESSING. THE VALUE OF THEIR DOMESTIC HOLDINGS IN PUBLICLY TRADED COMPANIES IS MORE THAN HALF OF THE MARKET CAPITALIZATION OF ALL TRADED SHARES ON THE SANTIAGO STOCK EXCHANGE. THE FORMER FIGURE DOES NOT INCLUDE THE VALUE OF THEIR EXTENSIVE PRIVATE HOLDINGS. ALTHOUGH THEY REFRAIN FROM CUT-THROAT COMPETITION WITH EACH OTHER, CHILEAN GROUPS DIFFER FROM THE REGION'S OTHER CONGLOMERATES AND QUASI-FEUDAL OLIGARCHIES BECAUSE THEY THRIVE IN A MORE OPEN ENVIRONMENT. USUALLY CONTROLLED BY AN INDIVIDUAL OR FAMILY, THE GROUPS USE THE STOCK MARKET AND OTHER MODES OF PUBLIC FINANCE TO FUND EXPANSION. IN SPITE OF THE SIZE OF THEIR EMPIRES, THE GROUPS' MANAGEMENT TEAMS HAVE PROVEN THEMSELVES NIMBLE AND OPPORTUNISTIC. ALTHOUGH THEY EMPHASIZE THEIR NATIONAL IDENTITY WHEN EXPEDIENT, THEY ARE INVOLVED IN SCORES OF PROJECTS WITH FOREIGN INVESTORS. DESPITE THE POLITICAL CONSERVATIVISM OF THEIR TOP MANAGEMENT, THE GROUPS MAINTAIN SOLID WORKING RELATIONS WITH THE CENTER-LEFT GOVERNMENT. IN OUR JUDGMENT, THE FAMILY-BASED CONGLOMERATES ARE WELL-POSITIONED TO MAINTAIN A LEADING ROLE IN THE CHILEAN ECONOMY FOR MANY YEARS. AS OTHER LATIN AMERICAN GOVERNMENTS EMBRACE THE ECONOMIC REFORMS PIONEERED BY CHILE, THE TRAITS OF CHILEAN GROUPS MAY MANIFEST THEMSELVES IN LARGE FIRMS THROUGHOUT THE REGION. THIS CABLE IS THE FIRST INSTALLMENT OF A TWO-PART EMBASSY SERIES ON CHILE'S CONGLOMERATES; THE SECOND CABLE WILL PROFILE THE COUNTRY'S LEADING GROUPS. END SUMMARY/INTRODUCTION.

---

WHAT CONSTITUTES A GROUP -- AND WHY IT MATTERS

3. HIGH OWNERSHIP CONCENTRATION IS A STANDARD FEATURE OF THE MODERN CHILEAN FIRM. FOR EXAMPLE, A LOCAL INVESTMENT ADVISORY SERVICE TRACKS 65 PUBLICLY TRADED COMPANIES. FOR ONLY SEVEN OF THESE DO THE TWELVE LARGEST SHAREHOLDERS CONTROL LESS THAN HALF OF THE FIRM. THIS OWNERSHIP STRUCTURE REFLECTS THE DOMINANCE OF "GROUPS," MANUFACTURING-FINANCIAL CONGLOMERATES WITH CONCENTRATED OWNERSHIP STRUCTURES. TYPICALLY, A SINGLE INDIVIDUAL OR FAMILY CONTROLS THE FIRM, AND THE OWNERS PLAY AN ACTIVE MANAGERIAL ROLE. GROUPS BECAME A FEATURE OF THE CHILEAN ECONOMIC LANDSCAPE IN THE 1950S, BUT THEIR NAMES, BUSINESS INTERESTS AND BEHAVIOR CHANGED OVER THE ENSUING THREE DECADES. MANY OF THEM WENT BANKRUPT AS A RESULT OF THE 1982-83 ECONOMIC CRASH AND THE RAPID LIBERALIZATION OF THE ECONOMY.

4. TODAY'S DOMINANT GROUPS ARE SURVIVORS THAT MANAGED TO TURN THE ECONOMIC TURMOIL OF THE LAST DECADE TO THEIR ADVANTAGE. THE MILITARY REGIME'S AMBITIOUS PRIVATIZATION PROGRAM, PERMISSIVE REGULATORY PHILOSOPHY, AND ACHIEVEMENT OF VIGOROUS ECONOMIC GROWTH WERE VITAL FACTORS IN THE SUCCESS OF THESE CONGLOMERATES. IN THE VIEW OF GOC ECONOMIC POLICYMAKERS SUCH AS CENTRAL BANK PRESIDENT ROBERTO ZAHLER, THE GROUPS AS A WHOLE ARE STRONGER THAN EVER AS A RESULT OF THESE POLICIES. FINANCIAL DATA BEAR HIM OUT. THE VALUE OF THEIR DOMESTIC HOLDINGS IN PUBLICLY TRADED COMPANIES IS MORE THAN HALF OF THE MARKET CAPITALIZATION OF ALL TRADED SHARES ON THE SANTIAGO STOCK EXCHANGE. THE FORMER FIGURE DOES NOT INCLUDE THE VALUE OF THEIR EXTENSIVE PRIVATE HOLDINGS.

5. EXPLANATIONS FOR THE GROUPS' EXISTENCE ABOUND. ONE SCHOOL OF THOUGHT MAINTAINS THAT CHILE'S CONCENTRATED OWNERSHIP STRUCTURE IS A CONSEQUENCE OF THE ECONOMY'S SMALL SIZE, WHICH FOSTERS MONOPOLIES AND OLIGOPOLIES. ADHERENTS OF THIS SCHOOL ADD THAT THE ECONOMY'S TRANSITION TO EXPORT-ORIENTATION ENHANCED THE GROUP'S POWER BECAUSE OF THE ECONOMIES OF SCALE INVOLVED IN CRACKING COMPETITIVE FOREIGN MARKETS. A LESS DETERMINISTIC VIEW POSITS THAT TODAY'S DOMINANT GROUPS MADE IT TO THE TOP BECAUSE THEY WERE THE ONLY ONES WITH THE FINANCIAL RESOURCES AND AMBITION TO EXPAND IN THE POST-CRASH YEARS, WHEN THE BULK OF THE STATE'S MOST VALUABLE ASSETS WERE PRIVATIZED. STATED IN MORE GENERAL TERMS, THE GROUPS' POWER LIES IN THE UNIQUE ABILITY OF LARGE, WELL-CAPITALIZED FIRMS WITH HIGHLY CONCENTRATED OWNERSHIP STRUCTURES TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF OPPORTUNITIES AND TO TRANSCEND THE DIFFICULTIES (I.E., THIN FINANCIAL MARKETS, INSTABILITY, AND A RAPIDLY CHANGING ECONOMIC POLICY ENVIRONMENT) OF DOING BUSINESS IN CHILE OVER THE LAST TWENTY YEARS.

6. IN SPITE OF THEIR MULTIPLE ADVANTAGES, THE POWER OF THE INDUSTRIAL GROUPS IS FAR FROM ABSOLUTE. THE LIBERALIZATION OF THE CHILEAN ECONOMY OVER THE LAST 18 YEARS SPAWNED THOUSANDS OF AUTONOMOUS, WELL-MANAGED FIRMS. EVEN AMONG CONGLOMERATES, POWER IS DIFFUSE. THE SUPERINTENDENCY OF STOCKS AND INSURANCE LISTS 30 DIFFERENT

GROUPS CONTROLLING COMPANIES LISTED ON THE SANTIAGO STOCK EXCHANGE, AND THERE ARE OTHER GROUPS WITHOUT PUBLICLY TRADED HOLDINGS. ALTHOUGH THE DOMESTIC MARKET'S SMALL SIZE AND THE LAX ENFORCEMENT OF ANTI-TRUST LAWS ENABLE GROUPS TO MAINTAIN AN IRON GRIP OVER SUCH INDUSTRIES AS BREWERIES, STEEL, AND POWER GENERATION, JUST COUNTRY'S WEALTH IN RESOURCES AND ITS OPENNESS TO FOREIGN INVESTMENT MEAN THAT THERE ARE OFTEN DOZENS OF COMPETING FIRMS ENGAGED IN THE MOST REMUNERATIVE SECTORS.

7. WHY THEN ARE THE GROUPS WORTH EXAMINING? FIRST OF ALL, THE GROUPS REMAIN THE MOST IMPORTANT PRIVATE LOCUS OF POWER IN CHILEAN SOCIETY. AS THE ELECTION OF THE CONCERTACION COALITION PROVES, THEIR ATTITUDES DO NOT ALWAYS PREVAIL, BUT THEIR HOLD ON MEDIA FIRMS, FINANCE AND INDUSTRY MAKES THEM A FORCE TO BE RECKONED WITH, ESPECIALLY IN ECONOMIC AND COMMERCIAL MATTERS.

8. THE GROUPS' CAPACITY FOR SURVIVAL CONSTITUTES A SECOND, AND MORE COMPELLING, REASON TO STUDY THEM. AS OTHER LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES EMBRACE THE REFORMS PIONEERED BY CHILE, THE TRAITS OF CHILEAN GROUPS MAY MANIFEST THEMSELVES IN LARGE FIRMS THROUGHOUT THE REGION. THE CONDITIONS THAT CONTRIBUTED TO THE RESTRUCTURING OF CHILEAN CONGLOMERATES ALREADY EXIST THROUGHOUT THE REGION. IN MANY LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES, THE EXISTENCE OF SPRAWLING BUSINESS EMPIRES PREDATES THE ECONOMIC LIBERALIZATION PROCESS; BECAUSE OF THEIR SIZE AND THE LIMITATIONS OF THE DOMESTIC BANKING SYSTEM, THESE EMPIRES HAVE INHERENT ORGANIZATIONAL AND FINANCIAL ADVANTAGES OVER THEIR SMALLER COMPETITORS. THE COMPREHENSIVE ECONOMIC REFORM PROGRAMS (INCLUDING PRIVATIZATIONS) SWEEPING THE HEMISPHERE GIVE THEM THE OPPORTUNITY TO CAPITALIZE ON THESE ADVANTAGES.

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE FAMILY

9. AS IN OTHER LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES, CHILEAN GROUPS ARE OFTEN CORPORATE EXTENSIONS OF FAMILIES. MOST OF THE LARGEST CONGLOMERATES WERE FOUNDED BY INDIVIDUALS WITH HUMBLE ORIGINS WHO ASSIGNED RELATIVES TO TOP MANAGEMENT JOBS. THIS TENDENCY HAS BEEN ESPECIALLY PREVALENT IN THE

CONGLOMERATES FOUNDED BY "ETHNIC" (I.E., NON-HISPANIC) GROUPS LIKE THE ANGELINIS (ITALIAN), LUKSICS (CROATIAN) AND ABUMOHORS (PALESTINEAN). RELIANCE ON THE FAMILY ENABLED GROUP LEADERS TO MAXIMIZE MANAGERIAL CONTROL AND SURROUND THEMSELVES WITH A GROUP OF INDIVIDUALS WHO SHARED SIMILAR BACKGROUNDS AND BELIEFS.

10. DESPITE THEIR INCREASING ORGANIZATIONAL COMPLEXITY, MANY OF THE FAMILY-BASED GROUPS REMAIN DYNASTIC. FOR EXAMPLE, ANACLETO ANGELINI, AN ITALIAN IMMIGRANT WHO FOUNDED CHILE'S LARGEST GROUP, RUNS HIS SPRAWLING FORESTRY/ENERGY/FISHING EMPIRE LIKE A FAMILY FIRM. ANGELINI'S BROTHER RUNS MANY OF THE GROUP'S HOLDINGS, AND HIS NEPHEW IS BEING GROOMED TO ASSUME CONTROL OF THE GROUP (THE ELDER ANGELINI HAS NO CHILDREN).

11. THE CULT OF THE FAMILY IS BY NO MEANS UNIVERSAL OR ABSOLUTE. PRIVATIZED CONGLOMERATES LIKE THE STEEL FIRM COMPANIA DE ACERO DEL PACIFICO (CAP) AND THE UTILITY EMPRESA NACIONAL DE ELECTRICIDAD (ENDESA) ARE PUBLICLY TRADED COMPANIES WITH DIFFUSE OWNERSHIP AND PROFESSIONAL MANAGEMENT TEAMS. EVEN FAMILY-BASED GROUPS TEND TO PLACE LESS EMPHASIS ON BLOODLINES AS THE YEARS PASS. ONLY A HANDFUL OF THE EXECUTIVES WHO ADMINISTER THE COUNTRY'S LONGEST-LIVED BUSINESS EMPIRE, THE MATTE CONGLOMERATE, CAN CLAIM A DISTANT RELATIONSHIP TO THE GROUP'S FOUNDER.

HOW EXTERNALLY ORIENTED ARE THE GROUPS?

12. OUT OF NECESSITY, THE GROUPS HAVE ADAPTED TO THE EXIGENCIES OF THE OPEN MARKET. THIS MEANS THAT THEY HAVE

SHED THE XENOPHOBIA AND RELIANCE ON PROTECTIONISM THAT PREVAIL AMONG THE DOMINANT GROUPS IN OTHER LATIN COUNTRIES. CHILE'S TWO LARGEST GROUPS OWE MUCH OF THEIR CURRENT SUCCESS TO THEIR ASSOCIATIONS WITH VIGOROUS FOREIGN PARTNERS. HALF OF THE ANGELINI GROUP'S LARGEST HOLDING, AN ENERGY-FORESTRY FIRM CALLED COMPANIA DE PETROLEOS DE CHILE (COPEC), IS OWNED BY THE NEW ZEALAND-BASED CARTER HOLT HARVEY (CHH) GROUP, WHICH IN TURN IS PARTLY CONTROLLED BY INTERNATIONAL PAPER, A LARGE U.S. FORESTRY FIRM. THE UK'S ROTHSCHILD GROUP OWNS 49 PCT OF BANCO BICE, THE MATTE GROUP'S FINANCIAL FLAGSHIP, AND THE CHICAGO-BASED SIMPSON PAPER COMPANY RECENTLY TEAMED WITH THE MATTES' COMPANIA MANUFACTURERA DE PAPELES Y CARTONES (CMPC) TO BUILD A USD 587 MILLION PULP MILL IN THE LAKE DISTRICT.

13. ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF THE RELATIVE OPENNESS IS THEIR WILLINGNESS TO OPEN THEIR FIRMS TO PUBLIC TRADING. IN MANY DEVELOPING ECONOMIES, FAMILY-OWNED BUSINESS GROUPS SHUN PUBLIC TRADING ARRANGEMENTS FOR FEAR THAT STOCKHOLDERS WILL DILUTE THEIR HOLD ON THEIR COMPANIES. CHILEAN GROUPS ARE MORE CONFIDENT OF THEIR ABILITY TO MANAGE SUCH ARRANGEMENTS, AND BETTER INFORMED ABOUT THE

BENEFITS -- MUCH-NEEDED CAPITAL AND A WIDER NETWORK OF

ALLIES -- THAT PUBLIC TRADING CAN BRING. THE FLAGSHIP HOLDINGS OF MOST OF THE LARGEST CONGLOMERATES ARE LISTED ON THE SANTIAGO EXCHANGE, AND HOLDOUT TYCOONS LIKE SUPERMARKET KING FRANCISCO JAVIER ERRAZURIZ AND REAL ESTATE BARON JOSE SAID ARE IN THE PROCESS OF REGISTERING THEIR FIRMS ON THE EXCHANGE.

14. RAISING FUNDS ON THE STOCK MARKET IS BECOMING MORE COMMON AS LOCAL MAGNATES LEARN THAT THEY CAN MAINTAIN CONTROL OVER THEIR ENTERPRISES EVEN AS THEY DILUTE THEIR OWNERSHIP. THE REAL POWER THAT GROUPS SURRENDER BY LISTING THEIR FIRMS IS MINIMAL. GIVEN THE MASSIVE FINANCIAL AND ORGANIZATIONAL ADVANTAGES THAT GROUPS HOLD

OVER SMALLER DOMESTIC FIRMS, THE GROUPS ARE INSULATED FROM THE THREAT OF HOSTILE TAKEOVERS AS LONG AS INTER-GROUP COMPETITION REMAINS MUTED. ALTHOUGH THE BUSINESS INTERESTS OF THE VARIOUS GROUPS OVERLAP, THEY DO NOT ENGAGE IN CUT-THROAT COMPETITION FOR THE DOMESTIC MARKET, AND THE DYNAMIC GROWTH OF CHILE'S EXPORT SECTORS HAS OBVIATED THE NEED FOR AGGRESSIVE COMPETITION BETWEEN CHILEAN GROUPS FOR THE FOREIGN MARKET.

15. THE STOCK MARKET HAS BECOME ANOTHER VEHICLE FOR ASSOCIATION WITH FOREIGN CAPITAL. FOREIGN INVESTMENT FUNDS REPRESENTING LARGE INSTITUTIONAL INVESTORS FROM OECD COUNTRIES HAVE DISCOVERED THE CHILEAN STOCK MARKETS IN RECENT YEARS, AND AS A RESULT THEY NOW HAVE SIGNIFICANT SHAREHOLDINGS IN MOST PUBLICLY TRADED FIRMS. FOR EXAMPLE, ALMOST TEN PCT OF ELECMETAL, A STEEL PROCESSING FIRM OWNED BY MEDIA AND SHIPPING TYCOON RICARDO CLARO, IS OWNED BY TWO LARGE U.S.-BASED INVESTMENT FUNDS, THE GENESIS CHILE FUND AND THE INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT COMPANY OF CHILE.

16. THE GRADUAL LIBERALIZATION OF CHILEAN FOREIGN EXCHANGE RESTRICTIONS HAS ENABLED THE GROUPS TO ENGAGE IN PROJECT INVESTMENT ABROAD. FACING ARDUOUS COMPETITION FOR THE SMALL CHILEAN MARKET, SEVERAL WELL-CAPITALIZED GROUPS ARE BEGINNING TO INVEST IN NEIGHBORING COUNTRIES. CHILE'S THIRD LARGEST CONGLOMERATE, THE LUKSIC GROUP, IS THE PIONEER IN THIS REGARD, WITH SIGNIFICANT INVESTMENTS IN

ARGENTINA, PERU, VENEZUELA, MEXICO, AND (UNTIL RECENTLY) IN CHINA. ITS ACTIVITIES ARE PARTICULARLY INTENSE IN ARGENTINA, WHERE IT RECENTLY PURCHASED A TELEPHONE CABLE FACTORY AND PLANS TO OPEN A BREWERY.

RANKING THE FAMILY-OWNED GROUPS

17. BECAUSE OF THEIR RELIANCE ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE, FINANCIAL DATA ON MOST OF THE GROUPS' LARGEST CHILEAN HOLDINGS IS ON THE PUBLIC RECORD. WE HAVE USED THIS DATA TO RANK THE GROUPS BY THE SIZE OF THEIR ASSETS. THE RESULTS OF OUR ANALYSIS APPEAR IN THE TABLE BELOW. ONE CAVEAT: THE UNCERTAINTY SURROUNDING THE HOLDINGS OF A FEW GROUPS STEMS FROM THE FACT THAT THEY LIST FEW OF THEIR FIRMS ON THE SANTIAGO EXCHANGE. FOR THESE GROUPS, OUR ESTIMATES ARE BASED ON SELF-ASSESSMENTS OF WEALTH AND SPECULATION BY THE LOCAL FINANCIAL PRESS. FOR EXAMPLE, THE PRESS HAS PUT THE VALUE OF CARDOEN'S LOCAL HOLDINGS AT USD 300-400 MILLION, WHICH SEEMS HIGH GIVEN THAT THE ASSETS OF HIS LARGEST MANUFACTURING COMPAN, THE PUBLICLY TRADED COMPANIA CHILENA DE FOSFOROS, AMOUNT TO ONLY USD 40 MILLION. HENCE OUR LOW-BALL ESTIMATE OF HIS CHILEAN HOLDINGS.

CHILE'S FAMILY-OWNED GROUPS:
THE TOP TEN

| GROUP | MAIN BUSINESS INTERESTS | ESTIMATED VALUE OF CHILEAN HOLDINGS (MILLIONS OF USD'S) |
|---|---|---|
| ANGELINI | FORESTRY, ENERGY, FISHING | 3,000 |
| MATTE | FORESTRY, BANKING MINING | 2,100 |
| LUKSIC | BREWERIES, BANKING, TELECOM, MINING, FOOD PROCESSING | 1,300 |

POLITICAL ATTITUDES
---

SANTIA 01738 05 OF 08 051857Z 9610 EB0002

BECAUSE MANY OF THE LEADING ECONOMIC OFFICIALS OF THE CENTER-LEFT GOVERNMENT CRITICIZED PINOCHET'S ECONOMIC MODEL BEFORE THEY TOOK POWER, THE CAPTAINS OF CHILEAN INDUSTRY VIEW THEM WITH SUSPICION, AND ARE CONSTANTLY ON THE ALERT FOR ANY MISSTEP DOWN THE SLIPPERY SLOPE TO SOCIALISM. THEY ARE OUTSPOKEN EXPONENTS OF THE "SILENT COUNTER-REVOLUTION" HYPOTHESIS, WHICH POSITS THAT THE GOC IS WORKING AT THE SUBMINISTERIAL AND REGIONAL LEVELS TO DISMANTLE THE PINOCHET-ERA REFORMS (THE PHRASE WAS COINED BY AN ANGELINI EXECUTIVE, COPEC PRESIDENT FELIPE LAMARCA -- REFTEL).

19. THIS SUSPICION IS MUTUAL; MANY LEADING GOVERNMENT ECONOMIC OFFICIALS VIEW THE EXISTENCE OF THE GROUPS AS AN IMPEDIMENT TO CHILE'S DEVELOPMENT. IN A PRIVATE CONVERSATION WITH EMBOFFS LAST YEAR, CENTRAL BANK PRESIDENT ROBERTO ZAHLER CALLED THE GROUPS "CHILE'S ACHILLES HEEL." IN HIS VIEW, THE PINOCHET REGIME COMMITTED TWO MAJOR POLICY BLUNDERS IN DEFERENCE TO THE GROUPS. THE FIRST, THE BAILOUT OF THE PRIVATE BANKING SYSTEM DURING THE 1982-83 ECONOMIC CRISIS, LEFT THE CENTRAL BANK WITH A WEAK FINANCIAL POSITION THAT COMPROMISES ITS ABILITY TO CONDUCT MONETARY POLICY; THE SECOND, THE NON-TRANSPARENT MANNER IN WHICH MANY PRIVATIZATIONS WERE CONDUCTED, LEFT CHILE WITH AN

INORDINATE DEGREE OF INDUSTRIAL CONCENTRATION. (NOTE: PART OF THE REASON FOR THE 1982-83 EPISODE WAS THE INCESTUOUS RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN BANKS AND THEIR SISTER COMPANIES. ALTHOUGH THE PORTFOLIOS OF TODAY'S GROUPS STILL INCLUDE MANY BANKS, THIS SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN TO MEAN THAT THE CONDITIONS ARE RIPE FOR ANOTHER HOUSE-OF-CARDS STYLE COLLAPSE BY THE CONGLOMERATES. GROUP-RUN BANKS ARE BETTER MANAGED, AND TOUGHER BANKING REGULATIONS ARE IN PLACE. END NOTE.)

20. DESPITE THEIR MUTUAL SUSPICION, THE GOVERNMENT AND THE GROUPS MAINTAIN A CORDIAL WORKING RELATIONSHIP.

PRESIDENT AYLWIN AND HIS TOP ECONOMIC ADVISORS MEET REGULARLY WITH GROUP LEADERS, AND EVEN STAUNCH CONSERVATIVE LIKE RICARDO CLARO MANAGE TO OBTAIN APPOINTMENTS WITH THE PRESIDENT ON SHORT NOTICE. THE GOVERNMENT'S WILLINGNESS TO MAINTAIN A DIALOGUE HAS EARNED IT A MODICUM OF RESPECT FROM THIS SELECT GROUP. "SILENT COUNTERREVOLUTION" ADVOCATES NOTWITHSTANDING, MOST GROUP LEADERS PREFER TO EXPRESS THEIR CRITICISMS IN PRIVATE SESSIONS WITH THEIR GOC INTERLOCUTORS. REPRESENTATIVES OF A FEW IMPORTANT CONGLOMERATES HAVE EVEN BEGUN TO SING THE GOVERNMENT'S PRAISES. FOR EXAMPLE, A PROMINENT MEMBER OF THE LUKSIC FAMILY RECENTLY COMPARED THE AYLWIN GOVERNMENT'S PERFORMANCE FAVORABLY TO THAT OF THE PINOCHET REGIME, AND ENDORSED THE GOC'S EMPHASIS ON SOCIAL PROGRAMS

21. WITH THE NOTABLE EXCEPTION OF MAVERICK INDUSTRIALIST FRANCISCO JAVIER ERRAZURIZ, WHO MOUNTED AN UNSUCCESSFUL PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN IN 1989, MOST GROUP LEADERS PREFER TO EXERT INFLUENCE FROM THE WINGS. THEY BANKROLL CANDIDATES LIKE PINOCHET PROXY HERNAN BUCHI (ERRAZURIZ RECEIVED VIRTUALLY NO SUPPORT FROM THE PRIVATE SECTOR), AND THEY LOBBY THE GOVERNMENT AND CONGRESS WHEN THEIR INTERESTS ARE THREATENED. BECAUSE OF THEIR ASSOCIATION WITH THE MILITARY DICTATORSHIP, HOWEVER, THE GROUPS' FINANCIAL RESOURCES AND ACCESS TO THE GOVERNMENT DO NOT TRANSLATE INTO UNBRIDLED POLITICAL POWER. INDEED, THEIR RECENT POLITICAL FAILURES ARE EASIER TO CHRONICLE THAN

THEIR VICTORIES. BUCHI LOST THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN BY A WIDE MARGIN, AND CHILE'S WEALTHIEST MAN, ANACLETO ANGELINI, FAILED IN HIS QUEST TO DISSUADE CONGRESS FROM PASSING A CONSERVATION-ORIENTED FISHING LAW SPONSORED BY THE GOVERNMENT.

22. A FEW GROUP LEADERS HAVE REALIZED THAT SCHMOOZING WITH AN UNSYMPATHETIC GOVERNMENT IS NOT THE ONLY WAY TO CO
MOVE PUBLIC OPINION. IN FACT, THE GROUPS MOST EFFECTIVE INSTRUMENT OF POLITICAL INFLUENCE LIES IN THEIR INCREASING CONTROL OF THE MEDIA. DURING THE PINOCHET ERA, SYMPATHETIC EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS SUBSIDIZED ANTI-REGIME MEDIA OUTLETS BECAUSE THEY REPRESENTED VOICES OF DISSENT. WITH THE ADVENT OF DEMOCRACY, THE EUROPEANS WITHDREW THE SUBSIDIES, AND POOR MANAGEMENT BEGAN TO TAKE ITS TOLL. OVER THE LAST YEAR, SEVERAL CENTER-LEFT NEWSPAPERS AND MAGAZINES HAVE FOLDED, ENABLING THE GROUPS TO TIGHTEN THEIR GRIP ON THE MEDIA. TWO PALESTINEAN GROUPS (ABUMOHOR AND SAIEH) NOW OWN TWO OF CHILE'S MOST WIDELY READ DAILIES (LA TERCERA AND LA CUARTA), A NEWSMAGAZINE (QUE PASA) AND A TELEVISION STATION, AND ARE IN THE PROCESS OF PURCHASING LA EPOCA, A SANTIAGO DAILY THAT NEWS TO THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC LINE. CLARO OWNS A TELEVISION STATION, AND DEFTLY USES HIS FINANCIAL PROWESS TO GAIN ACCESS TO OTHER MEDIA OUTLETS. ONE NATIONWIDE RADIO NETWORK REWARDED CLARO FOR HIS HEAVY ADVERTISING BY GIVING HIM A DAILY FIVE-MINUTE PROGRAM, WHICH HE USES TO PROMOTE HIS CONSERVATIVE, ANTI-AMERICAN AGENDA.

GROUP ATTITUDES TOWARDS THE UNITED STATES

23. CONGLOMERATE CHIEFTAINS HOLD AMBIVALENT ATTITUDES TOWARDS THE UNITED STATES. THEIR RESENTMENT OF THE USG'S ACTIVE OPPOSITION TO THE PINOCHET DICTATORSHIP TURNED TO OUTRIGHT HOSTILITY IN 1988, WHEN THE U.S. FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION TEMPORARILY EMBARGOED IMPORTS OF CHILEAN FRUIT AFTER THE DISCOVERY OF CYANIDE-TAINTED GRAPES IN PHILADELPHIA. MANY OF THE CONGLOMERATES WERE INVOLVED IN THE FRUIT EXPORT BUSINESS, AND THEIR FINANCIAL LOSSES ONLY HEIGHTENED THEIR ANTIPATHY FOR THE UNITED STATES. THESE BUSINESS LEADERS FOUND IT FAR EASIER TO INTERPRET THE EVENT AS AN ANTI-PINOCHET CONSPIRACY THAN TO ACCEPT THAT

IT WAS A RESPONSIBLE MEASURE TAKEN TO PROTECT AMERICAN CONSUMERS. THE EVENT HAD A PARTICULARLY EXPLOSIVE EFFECT ON CLARO, WHO RESIGNED HIS POSITION AS PRESIDENT OF THE U.S.-CHILE BINATIONAL CENTER AND USED HIS MEDIA ACCESS TO WAGE A VITUPERATIVE CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE UNITED STATES THAT CONTINUES TO THIS DAY.

24. WHILE THEIR OBJECTIONS TO PAST USG POLICIES HAVE LEFT SOME SCARS, MOST GROUP LEADERS HOLD A MORE BALANCED VIEW OF THE UNITED STATES. ALTHOUGH LOCAL BUSINESSMEN GENERALLY HAVE LESS PERSONAL EXPERIENCE WITH THE UNITED STATES THAN THEIR COUNTERPARTS IN OTHER LATIN COUNTRIES, THERE IS A MODICUM OF GOODWILL STEMMING FROM PERSONAL CONTACTS WITH AMERICANS. A FEW INDUSTRIALISTS WERE EDUCATED IN THE UNITED STATES, AND MANY MORE HAVE SENT CHILDREN TO SCHOOL THERE. MORE IMPORTANTLY, MOST OF THE DOMINANT GROUP FIGURES ARE PRAGMATISTS WHO REALIZE THAT THE UNITED STATES, AS CHILE'S BIGGEST BILATERAL TRADING PARTNER AND SOURCE OF FOREIGN INVESTMENT, PLAYS A CONSTRUCTIVE ROLE IN THE COUNTRY'S DEVELOPMENT. THE CONGLOMERATES DOMINATE THE PRODUCTION OF NON-TRADITIONAL EXPORTS LIKE FRESH SALMON AND TROUT, TEXTILES AND APPAREL, WOOD FURNITURE, AND FRESH FRUIT. ALL OF THESE PRODUCT CATEGORIES HAVE ACHIEVED EXPONENTIAL SALES GROWTH IN THE LAST FEW YEARS ON THE STRENGTH OF SALES TO THE U.S. MARKET. AT THE SAME TIME, AMERICAN INVESTORS HAVE SIGNIFICANT EQUITY PARTICIPATION IN MANY OF THE GROUPS'

LARGEST FIRMS. FOR MOST OF THE GROUP CAPTAINS, REFRAINING FROM EXCESSIVE YANKEE-BASHING IS JUST GOOD BUSINESS.

25. BECAUSE OF THEIR PERSONAL INTEREST IN THE CONTINUATION OF CHILE'S SUCCESSFUL EXPORT-LED DEVELOPMENT, MOST OF THE CHILEAN GROUPS ACTIVELY SUPPORT THE GOC'S

SANTIA 01738 07 OF 08 051858Z 9617 EB0005

PURSUIT OF A COMPREHENSIVE FREE TRADE AGREEMENT WITH THE UNITED STATES (AGAIN, CLARO IS THE EXCEPTION). PROMINENT INDUSTRIALISTS LIKE HERNAN BRIONES AND ELEODORO MATTE HAVE PUBLICLY APPLAUDED THE GOVERNMENT'S TRADE STRATEGY, AND MANY OF THE LARGEST CHILEAN GROUPS ARE BANKROLLING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A PRO-FTA LOBBYING AND RESEARCH UNIT WITHIN THE CONFEDERATION OF PRODUCTION AND COMMERCE (CPC), AN UMBRELLA BUSINESS ORGANIZATION.

---
WHITHER THE GROUPS?
---

26. THE SEEMINGLY CEASELESS BOOM-AND-BUST CYCLES EXPERIENCED BY CHILEAN BUSINESS EMPIRES OVER THE LAST FOUR DECADES SUGGESTS THAT THE DOMINANCE OF TODAY'S LEADING GROUPS WILL PROVE EVANESCENT. FOR SEVERAL REASONS, HOWEVER, WE BELIEVE THAT THE GROUPS HAVE NOT EVEN HIT FULL STRIDE, AND WILL HOLD REDOUBTS IN THE COMMANDING HEIGHTS OF THE CHILEAN ECONOMY FOR MANY YEARS. FIRST OF ALL, THE SHEER SIZE OF THE GROUPS CONTINUES TO PROVIDE THEM WITH FINANCIAL AND ORGANIZATIONAL PROWESS THAT THEIR SMALLER LOCAL COMPETITORS CANNOT MATCH. FOR EXAMPLE, WHILE MOST CHILEAN FIRMS RELY ON THE EXPENSIVE SHORT-TERM CREDIT PROFFERED BY THE LOCAL BANKING SYSTEM, MEGAFIRMS LIKE

COPEC AND CMPC HAVE A MUCH BROADER RANGE OF FINANCIAL ALTERNATIVES. THESE INCLUDE THEIR OWN FORMIDABLE FINANCIAL RESOURCES, DIRECT PARTNERSHIPS WITH FOREIGN COMPANIES, DOMESTIC ISSUANCE OF CORPORATE BONDS, AND AMERICAN DEPOSITORY RIGHTS ON THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

27. MOREOVER, THE GROUPS HAVE CONCENTRATED THEIR ACTIVITIES ON DYNAMIC SECTORS IN WHICH CHILE HAS A COMPARATIVE ADVANTAGE AND THEIR MANAGERS HAVE EXPERTISE (I.E., FISHERIES, FORESTRY, WINE, AND AGRICULTURE). THEY ARE TREATING CHILE'S NEW-FOUND POPULARITY WITH FOREIGN INVESTORS AS AN OPPORTUNITY, NOT A THREAT. WHILE THEY HAVE LARGELY CEDED THE CAPITAL-INTENSIVE MINING SECTOR TO BETTER-CAPITALIZED FOREIGN INVESTORS AND STATE-OWNED CHILEAN FIRMS. THE GROUPS HAVE DEMONSTRATED A FLAIR FOR CONVINCING FOREIGNERS TO INVEST IN THEIR OWN SECTORS AS PASSIVE OR JUNIOR PARTNERS.

28. FINALLY, AND MOST IMPORTANTLY, TODAY'S GROUPS DIFFER FROM THEIR COUNTERPARTS IN PAST GENERATIONS BECAUSE THEY HAVE BEEN EXPOSED TO, AND THRIVED UPON, YEARS OF COMPETITIVE DISCIPLINE. THE KEY TO THEIR SUCCESS LIES IN GOOD MANAGEMENT AND A LONG-TERM INVESTMENT FOCUS RATHER THAN SUCCESSFUL SPECULATION OR GOVERNMENT-SPONSORED PROTECTIONISM.

29. THE FAMILY-BASED GROUPS HAVE PASSED ALL TESTS OF THEIR LONG-TERM VIABILITY SAVE FOR TWO. FIRST, THEY MUST MAINTAIN THEIR DISINCLINATION TO GO AFTER EACH OTHER. FINALLY, LIKE ALL DYNASTIES, THE GROUPS MUST PROVE THAT THEY CAN SOLVE THE CONUNDRUM OF SUCCESSION. EXCEPT FOR THE 70-YEAR OLD MATTE GROUP, EACH OF THE TEN BIGGEST GROUPS IS RUN BY ITS FOUNDER. CHILE'S FIRST (ANGELINI) AND THIRD (LUKSIC) GROUPS WILL FACE THEIR MOMENT OF TRUTH SOON, BECAUSE THEY ARE RUN BY ELDERLY (ALBEIT VIGOROUS) MEN WHO ARE BOUND TO STEP ASIDE IN THE NEXT FEW YEARS. THE EXPERIENCE OF THE MATTE FAMILY PROVES THAT SUCCESSIONS NEED NOT SPELL DECLINE. IF THE CONGLOMERATES MANAGE TO EMULATE THE MATTE EXAMPLE, THEY WILL BE WELL-EQUIPPED TO DOMINATE THE CHILEAN ECONOMY FOR MANY YEARS TO COME.

1. JAMAICA, A TRADITIONAL SOURCE OF MARIJUANA DESTINED FOR AMERICAN MARKETS, IS FAVORABLY SITUATED FOR SOUTH AMERICAN COCAINE TRANSSHIPMENTS TO THE UNITED STATES. INTELLIGENCE INDICATES THAT COCAINE TRAFFICKERS ARE TO A LIMITED EXTENT USING JAMAICA'S

WELL-ESTABLISHED MARIJUANA TRAFFICKING NETWORKS TO SHIP COCAINE NORTH. A KEY MISSION OBJECTIVE IS TO PREVENT SUCH TRANSSHIPMENT. A RELATED GOAL IS EXPANDED COOPERATION WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF JAMAICA (GOJ) IN THE ESTABLISHMENT OF FACILITIES TO MONITOR SUSPECT AIRCRAFT AND SHIPS IN THE CARIBBEAN.

U.S. COUNTER-NARCOTICS RESOURCES IN JAMAICA HAVE IN RECENT YEARS BEEN DIRECTED TO A LARGE DEGREE AT

MARIJUANA: ERADICATION, LAW ENFORCEMENT COOPERATION, AND DEMAND REDUCTION. IN KEEPING WITH THE POTENTIAL SOURCE AND TRANSIT COUNTRY STRATEGY, RESOURCES WILL INCREASINGLY TARGET COCAINE INTERDICTION, THE DISMANTLEMENT OF COCAINE SMUGGLING NETWORKS, AND THE ENHANCEMENT OF THE GOJ'S PORT SECURITY AND MARITIME PATROLS, AND ITS CAPABILITY AND WILLINGNESS TO COUNTER COCAINE TRAFFICKING. A RELATED PRIORITY WILL BE DEVELOPMENT OF A PROGRAM TO DESTROY ILLEGAL AIRSTRIPS UTILIZED PRIMARILY FOR THE EXPORT OF MARIJUANA, BUT ALSO FOR COCAINE TRANSSHIPMENT. STRONG SUPPORT WILL CONTINUE FOR GOJ MARIJUANA ERADICATION EFFORTS, FOR WHICH WE WILL CONTINUE TO URGE MORE EFFICIENT METHODS, INCLUDING PLATFORM SPRAYING. PUBLIC DIPLOMACY AND DEMAND REDUCTION EFFORTS WILL TARGET ACTIVITIES THAT ENHANCE INSTITUTIONAL CAPABILITIES AND BUILD POLITICAL SUPPORT FOR MORE AGGRESSIVE GOJ ANTI-NARCOTICS EFFORTS.

2. THERE WAS A SIGNIFICANT INCREASE IN FY 91 IN U.S.-JAMAICAN COOPERATION IN MONITORING SUSPECT SHIPS AND AIRCRAFT, INCLUDING THOSE OUTSIDE JAMAICAN TERRITORY BUT UTILIZING ADJACENT CARIBBEAN SEA AND AIR LANES. THIS INCLUDED THE EXPANSION OF THE JAMAICA - JOINT INFORMATION COORDINATION CENTER (JICC), THE DEPLOYMENT TO JAMAICA OF U.S. MILITARY RADAR UNITS, AND AN INCREASE IN JAMAICAN COAST GUARD PATROLS OFF JAMAICAN TERRITORIAL WATERS. COOPERATION IN ALL THREE AREAS WILL INCREASE FURTHER IN FY 92.

THE JAMAICA - JOINT INTELLIGENCE COORDINATION CENTER (JICC)

3. THE JICC, WHICH COLLECTS, COLLATES, STORES, AND DISSEMINATES DATA ON AIRCRAFT, VESSELS, MIGRATION, PRECURSOR CHEMICALS, CONTAINERIZED CARGO, AVIATION FUEL, FIREARMS, AND JAMAICAN DEPORTEES, EMERGED

DURING FY 91 AS A VITAL TOOL IN ANTI-NARCOTICS EFFORTS IN THE CARIBBEAN. INM AND DEA FUNDS HAVE PLAYED AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN PROVIDING EQUIPMENT, SUCH AS VEHICLES, COMPUTERS, FAX MACHINES, TYPEWRITERS, MAPS, OFFICE SUPPLIES, AND TRAINING FOR THE JICC SINCE ITS INCEPTION IN 1990. DEA HAS PUT IN CONSIDERABLE MANHOURS AS THE POINT OF CONTACT BETWEEN JICC AND EPIC. DURING FY 91, JICC HEADQUARTERS STAFF WAS BROUGHT TO FULL COMPLEMENT, AND THE NUMBER OF SIGNIFICANT INTERDICTIONS TRACEABLE TO JICC

ACTIVITIES INCREASED DRAMATICALLY. JICC COOPERATION WITH U.S. AND OTHER FOREIGN LAW ENFORCEMENT PERSONNEL HAS BEEN EXCELLENT. DURING FY 92, INM FUNDS, IN COORDINATION WITH THE JCF AND DEA, WILL BE UTILIZED TO EXPAND JICC OPERATIONS FURTHER THROUGH THE ACQUISITION OF EQUIPMENT NECESSARY TO STAFF JICC LIAISON OPERATIONS IN OTHER, HIGH PRIORITY REGIONS OF THE COUNTRY.

4. JAMAICA'S ABILITY TO MONITOR AIR AND MARITIME TRAFFIC OVER ADJACENT WATERS HAS BEEN EXTREMELY LIMITED, ESPECIALLY SINCE HURRICANE GILBERT IN 1988 DESTROYED THE MAJOR RADAR FACILITY ON MT. DENHAM IN CENTRAL JAMAICA. A U.S. NATIONAL GUARD TEMPORARY RADAR STATION WAS ESTABLISHED IN WESTERN JAMAICA IN AUGUST 1991 TO MONITOR SUSPECT AIRCRAFT. DURING ITS THREE MONTHS OF OPERATION, THE SYSTEM IDENTIFIED AND TRACKED 239 SUSPICIOUS AIRCRAFT. AS A DIRECT RESULT, LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES IN THE U.S., MEXICO, AND

GUATEMALA CONFISCATED FOUR AIRCRAFT AND NUMEROUS VEHICLES, SEIZED 3400 KILOS OF COCAINE, AND MADE NUMEROUS ARRESTS. BECAUSE OF THE SUCCESS OF THIS DEPLOYMENT AS PART OF THE REGIONAL SURVEILLANCE AND INTERDICTION SYSTEM, A MORE PERMANENT U.S. MILITARY RADAR DEPLOYMENT BEGAN IN NOVEMBER 1991. DURING THE FIRST THREE MONTHS OF OPERATION, THIS RADAR UNIT MANNED BY U.S. AIR FORCE PERSONNEL HAS TRACKED 259 SUSPECT TRACKS AND, AS A DIRECT RESULT OF THEIR EFFORTS, TWO AIRCRAFT AND TWO BOATS HAVE BEEN SEIZED, 2957 KILOS OF COCAINE AND 67 KILOS OF MARIJUANA CONFISCATED, AND EIGHT PERSONS ARRESTED. THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT HAS REPAIRED THE JAMAICAN CIVILIAN RADAR FACILITY AT MT. DENHAM, WHICH PROVIDES MEDIUM TO HIGH ALTITUDE AIR SURVEILLANCE.

SUPPORT FOR JAMAICAN COAST GUARD OPERATIONS

5. THE JAMAICAN COAST GUARD'S ABILITY TO PATROL THE COUNTRY'S EXTENSIVE COAST LINE AND TO INTERCEPT MARITIME TRAFFICKERS IN JAMAICA'S TERRITORIAL WATERS HAS BEEN LIMITED BY EQUIPMENT SHORTAGES AND INSUFFICIENT OPERATIONAL FUNDS. SOME FY 90 INM FUNDS HAVE BEEN USED TO OVERHAUL THE COAST GUARD SHIP "PAUL BOGLE" AND TO PURCHASE FUEL FOR COAST GUARD PATROLS IN AREAS USED BY SUSPECT VESSELS. THE DELIVERY IN THE SECOND AND THIRD QUARTERS OF FY 92 OF SIX SMALL PATROL BOATS, PROCURED WITH FMS AND FY 90 AND 91 INM FUNDS, SHOULD PERMIT A DOUBLING OF ANNUAL PATROL

HOURS.

FUNDING PERMITTING, THE U.S. WILL IN FUTURE YEARS SUPPORT THE FURTHER EXPANSION OF JAMAICAN COAST GUARD OPERATIONS, INCLUDING NIGHT PATROLS, AN INCREASE IN THE NUMBER OF OPERATIONAL BASES IN AREAS ALONG THE COASTLINE MOST ATTRACTIVE TO NARCOTICS TRAFFICKERS, AND THE INSTITUTION OF A COAST GUARD BOARDING PROGRAM TO INSPECT SUSPICIOUS VESSELS OPERATING IN JAMAICAN TERRITORIAL WATERS.

SUPPORT FOR JAMAICAN CONSTABULARY FORCE (JCF) NARCOTICS UNIT

6. THE JAMAICAN CONSTABULARY FORCE (JCF) NARCOTICS DIVISION IS THE MAJOR JAMAICAN LAW ENFORCEMENT UNIT INVOLVED IN THE INVESTIGATION OF TRAFFICKING AND SMUGGLING OPERATIONS. THIS UNIT, WHICH HAS IN RECENT YEARS RECEIVED INM AND DEA SUPPORT IN THE ACQUISITION OF VEHICLES, SURVEILLANCE EQUIPMENT, AND TRAINING, HAS A GOOD RECORD OF COOPERATION WITH LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES, ESPECIALLY DRUG ENFORCEMENT ADMINISTRATION (DEA) OFFICIALS BASED AT THE AMERICAN EMBASSY IN KINGSTON. SUPPORT FOR THE JCF WILL CONTINUE DURING FY 92.

7. THE JCF NARCOTICS UNIT, IN CLOSE COORDINATION

WITH DEA, SEIZED 370 KILOGRAMS OF COCAINE (COMPARED TO 460 IN FY-90), 702 PIECES OF CRACK, AND MADE MORE

THAN 1032 ARRESTS IN FY-91. THE BULK OF THE COCAINE SEIZED IN FY-90/91 WAS THE RESULT OF TWO LARGE SEIZURES: 397 KILOGRAMS ON AUGUST 6, 1990; AND 300 KILOGRAMS ON DECEMBER 4, 1990. JOINT DEA AND JCF NARCOTICS DIVISION INVESTIGATIONS RESULTED IN MORE THAN 59 ARRESTS IN FY-91 AS COMPARED TO 28 IN FY-90.

IN FY 91, THERE WERE 8 MAJOR COCAINE TRAFFICKERS BY DEA CRITERIA (TWO OF WHICH WERE CLASS I AND II COCAINE TRAFFICKERS) ARRESTED AND CHARGED IN JAMAICA. THIS COMPARES WITH 6 MAJOR COCAINE TRAFFICKERS IN FY 90 AND NONE IN FY 89. DEA ALSO JOINTLY INITIATED 6 COCAINE INVESTIGATIONS WITH THE JCF NARCOTICS DIVISION IN FY 91, COMPARED TO 7 IN FY

IN FY 91, THROUGH EFFORTS HERE AND IN SPAIN AND THE U.K., DANIEL AUGUSTUS CHARLIBOIS, A MAJOR TRAFFICKER AND FUGITIVE, WHO HAD ELUDED APPREHENSION FOR SIX YEARS, WAS ARRESTED IN SPAIN AND IS BEING HELD FOR EXTRADITION TO THE U.S. 8. IN MARCH 1991, A JAMAICAN COURT FOUND TWO PROMINENT BUSINESSMEN GUILTY OF TRAFFICKING IN COCAINE (397 KILO SEIZURE IN AUGUST 1990). ANOTHER INFLUENTIAL BUSINESSMAN IS BEING TRIED FOR COCAINE TRAFFICKING (300-KILO SEIZURE IN DECEMBER 1990). IN COOPERATION WITH DEA AND THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS' OFFICE, THE JCF NARCOTICS UNIT HAS DURING FY 91 INITIATED A RECORD NUMBER OF DRUG CONSPIRACY CASES CULMINATING IN SEVERAL SIGNIFICANT ARRESTS.

9. A SMALL, MULTI-YEAR DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE (DOJ) PROGRAM THROUGH THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIVE TRAINING ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (ICITAP) HAS PROVIDED TRAINING AND CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT SUPPORT TO INCREASE PROFESSIONAL CAPABILITIES THROUGHOUT THE JCF. THIS PROGRAM WILL BE CONTINUED DURING FY 92. IT IS FUNDED BY DOJ OUT OF WASHINGTON.

JCF/JDF MOBILE GROUND FORCE FOR ERADICATION

10. SINCE THE INCEPTION OF OPERATION BUCCANEER IN FY 86, THE U.S. HAS PROVIDED MAJOR SUPPORT FOR THE MARIJUANA ERADICATION PROGRAM CONDUCTED BY A JOINT JCF/JDF MOBILE GROUND FORCE. OVER 7957 HECTARES

(5371 METRIC TONS) OF MARIJUANA, MOST OF IT DESTINED FOR U.S. MARKETS, HAS BEEN DESTROYED IN 6 YEARS OF OPERATION. DUE TO LONG-STANDING GOJ CONCERNS ABOUT THE ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT OF AERIAL SPRAYING IN JAMAICA'S MOUNTAINOUS INTERIOR, MARIJUANA PLANTS HAVE BEEN DESTROYED THROUGH MANUAL ERADICATION (SLASH AND BURN AND BACKPACK SPRAYING).

11. GIVEN THE DEARTH OF GOJ RESOURCES, U.S.

HELICOPTER TRANSPORTATION FOR ERADICATION TEAMS HAS BEEN CRITICAL TO THE OPERATION'S SUCCESS. FOUR U.S. MILITARY HELICOPTERS HAVE BEEN PROVIDED TO THE JDF ON LONG TERM, NO COST LEASE. MAINTENANCE AND SPARE PARTS FOR THESE HELICOPTERS HAVE ALSO BEEN PROVIDED THROUGH U.S. MILITARY ASSISTANCE. A SIGNIFICANT PORTION OF INM RESOURCES HAS SUPPLEMENTED U.S. MILITARY ASSISTANCE AND JDF INTERNAL RESOURCES IN THE ANNUAL OPERATION BUCCANEER OPERATIONS.

12. IN FY 91, INM SUPPORT FOR OPERATION BUCCANEER VI INCLUDED TWO INM HELICOPTERS AND CONTRACT PILOTS FOR 4 MONTHS, AVIATION FUEL, SPARE PARTS, AND SALARIES AND MEALS FOR CIVILIAN LABORERS MANUALLY ERADICATING MARIJUANA. A TOTAL OF 988 HECTARES OF MARIJUANA WAS ERADICATED, REPRESENTING ABOUT 70 PERCENT OF THE ESTIMATED MARIJUANA UNDER CULTIVATION IN JAMAICA DURING FY 91. FOR FY 92, THE MISSION IS PROVIDING SUPPORT FOR OPERATION BUCCANEER VII THROUGH THREE U.S. ARMY BLACKHAWK HELICOPTERS WITH CREWS AND MAINTENANCE TEAMS FOR A 4-MONTH PERIOD AND LOGISTICAL SUPPORT FOR JDF HELICOPTERS AND GROUND PERSONNEL. A TDY-DEA SPECIAL AGENT HAS BEEN ASSIGNED TO ACCOMPANY THE BLACKHAWK TEAM ON DAILY OPERATIONS AND TO PROVIDE HANDS-ON ASSISTANCE AND ADVICE. THE GOAL FOR FY 92 IS FOR OPERATION BUCCANEER VII TO ERADICATE 1000 HECTARES OF MARIJUANA.

13. DURING FY 91 THE MISSION TRIED TO OVERCOME GOJ POLITICAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL RESERVATIONS ABOUT THE INTRODUCTION OF A MORE EFFECTIVE YEAR-ROUND MARIJUANA

ERADICATION PROGRAM THROUGH HELICOPTER-MOUNTED PLATFORM SPRAYING OF GLYPHOSATE (AS INTRODUCED IN HAWAII IN 1990). THE MISSION HAS PROVIDED GOJ AUTHORITIES WITH RELEVANT INFORMATION, INCLUDING ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STUDIES, ON PLATFORM SPRAYING IN HAWAII. INM ALSO SPONSORED TRAVEL BY SENIOR GOJ OFFICIALS TO HAWAII TO OBSERVE ONGOING MARIJUANA ERADICATION OPERATIONS USING PLATFORM SPRAYING. MISSION IS STILL SHOOTING FOR GOJ APPROVAL BY THE END OF FY 92 OF PLATFORM SPRAYING, WITH ACQUISITION OF THE NECESSARY EQUIPMENT IN FY 93, ALTHOUGH WE NOTE THAT GOJ RESISTANCE REMAINS HIGH.

JDF DESTRUCTION OF ILLEGAL AIRSTRIPS

14. A SECONDARY OBJECTIVE OF THE JDF HAS BEEN THE IDENTIFICATION AND DESTRUCTION OF ILLEGAL AIRSTRIPS USED FOR SHIPMENT OF NARCOTICS OUT OF JAMAICA AND OTHER ILLICIT PURPOSES. THE JDF ENGINEERING BATTALION HAS RESPONSIBILITY FOR DESTROYING ILLEGAL AIRSTRIPS IN THE COUNTRY.
OTHER JDF UNITS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR IDENTIFICATION

OF SUSPECT AIRFIELDS. IN FY 91, WITH NO DIRECT U.S. SUPPORT, THE ENGINEERING BATTALION CRATERED AND BLOCKED FIVE ILLEGAL AIRSTRIPS, A DECREASE FROM THE NINE ILLEGAL AIRSTRIPS SO INCAPACITATED IN FY 90.

15. AERIAL SURVEYS IN FY 91 IDENTIFIED 44 ILLEGAL AIRSTRIPS, THIRTY OF WHICH WERE BELIEVED TO BE NONFUNCTIONAL, INCLUDING THOSE BLOCKED AND CRATERED IN FY 90 AND 91. A MISSION PRIORITY FOR FY 92 WILL BE TO WORK WITH THE JDF IN ASSESSING JDF ENGINEERING BATTALION REQUIREMENTS NECESSARY TO QUICKLY DESTROY ILLEGAL AIRSTRIPS AND TO ENSURE THAT THE AIRSTRIPS REMAIN NONFUNCTIONAL. ONCE RESOURCE REQUIREMENTS ARE IDENTIFIED, SOME FY 92 FUNDS MAY BE UTILIZED TO SUPPORT THIS EFFORT.

ANTI-DRUG OPERATIONS AT JAMAICAN PORT FACILITIES AND AIRPORTS

16. SINCE 1989, INM FUNDS HAVE SUPPORTED TRAINING PROGRAMS AND PROVIDED EQUIPMENT FOR THE PORT SECURITY CORPS AND CONTRABAND ENFORCEMENT TEAMS (CET) RESPONSIBLE FOR ANTI-NARCOTICS OPERATIONS AT JAMAICA'S MARITIME CARGO PORTS AND TWO INTERNATIONAL AIRPORTS. SOME FY 92 INM FUNDS WILL SUPPORT

CONTINUED TRAINING OF PORT SECURITY CORPS AND CET PERSONNEL, WITH THE AIM OF INCREASING BY 10 PERCENT THE NUMBER OF TRAINED PORT SECURITY CORPS PERSONNEL AND DOUBLING THE NUMBER OF QUALIFIED CET INSPECTORS.

EVEN WITH ASSISTANCE, THE CET DO NOT POSSESS THE MANPOWER OR RESOURCES TO THOROUGHLY INSPECT THE INCREASING NUMBER OF CONTAINERS PASSING THROUGH JAMAICA'S PORTS FOR INTERDICTION PURPOSES.

17. WORKING WITH DEA, THE JICC HAS DEVELOPED A COMPUTERIZED DATA BASE, WHICH IS AVAILABLE TO CET, LISTING OVER 4700 LICENSED IMPORTERS/EXPORTERS AND SHIPPERS/CONSIGNEES TO BETTER IDENTIFY SUSPECT CARGO. IN APRIL 1991, THIS INFORMATION WAS ENTERED INTO EPIC DATA BASES. RETRIEVABLE THROUGH JICC/DEA, THE DATA HAVE ASSISTED DEA IN THE UNITED STATES TO IDENTIFY SEVERAL SUSPECTED DRUG TRANSPORTERS.

18. DURING FY 91, A LARGE NUMBER OF NARCOTICS SMUGGLERS WERE ARRESTED BY JAMAICAN AUTHORITIES AT JAMAICAN AIRPORTS. MOST APPREHENDED HAVE BEEN SMALL-TIME COURIERS OF MARIJUANA, BUT SOME HAVE CARRIED COCAINE, AS WELL. APPROXIMATELY HALF OF THOSE ARRESTED HAVE BEEN AMERICAN NATIONALS, RESULTING IN JAMAICA'S STATUS AT THE END OF FY 91 AS THE CONSULAR DISTRICT WITH THE HIGHEST NUMBER OF AMERICAN CITIZENS UNDER DETENTION WORLD-WIDE. A MAJOR EFFORT IS BEING MADE BY VARIOUS MISSION ELEMENTS IN FY 92 TO WORK WITH JAMAICAN AIRLINE, TOURIST AND LAW ENFORCEMENT PERSONNEL IN DEVISING WAYS TO BETTER INFORM VISITORS OF PENALTIES FOR NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING AND DRUG USE IN JAMAICA. THIS INCLUDES THE POSSIBLE INTRODUCTION OF WARNINGS ON POSTERS AT KEY LOCATIONS, IMMIGRATION LANDING CARDS, AND HOTEL RESERVATION CARDS, AS WELL AS TELEVISION SPOTS, AND AIRLINE ANNOUNCEMENTS UPON ARRIVAL.

19. JAMAICA'S SUCCESS IN APPREHENDING COURIERS HAS NOT EXTENDED TO AIR JAMAICA PERSONNEL INVOLVED IN SMUGGLING NARCOTICS IN THE CAVITIES OF AIRCRAFT. CONCERTED MISSION EFFORTS LED IN AUGUST 1991 TO THE NEGOTIATION OF A SUPER CARRIER AGREEMENT BETWEEN AIR JAMAICA AND U.S. CUSTOMS. THIS AGREEMENT, SIGNED ON DECEMBER
13, 1991, PLUS AIR JAMAICA'S COMMITMENT TO SPND $1 MILLION OF MITIGATED FINES A YEAR IN FY 92, 93 AND 94 ON SECURITY UPGRADES, SHOULD GREATLY DECREASE NARCOTICS SMUGGLING ON COMMERCIAL AIRLINERS FROM JAMAICA. U.S. CUSTOMS WILL PROVIDE MAJOR SUPPORT, INCLUDING SITE SURVEYS AND ANALYSIS OF

20. AN ENHANCED EXTRADITION TREATY BETWEEN THE U.S.

AND JAMAICA ENTERED INTO FORCE IN JULY 1991. IT SHOULD GREATLY INCREASE THE NUMBER OF JAMAICANS EXTRADITED TO THE U.S. DURING FY 92. CURRENT REQUESTS FOR EXTRADITION INCLUDE SEVERAL MAJOR NARCOTICS TRAFFICKERS.

21. MISSION EFFORTS DURING FY 92 WILL BE DIRECTED AT JAMAICAN RATIFICATION AND IMPLEMENTATION OF THE NEW U.S.-JAMAICA MUTUAL LEGAL ASSISTANCE TREATY AND THE 1988 UN CONVENTION AGAINST ILLICIT TRAFFIC IN NARCOTIC DRUGS AND PSYCHOTROPIC SUBSTANCES. IN ADDITION, EFFORTS WILL BE CONTINUED TO ENCOURAGE PASSAGE OF A JAMAICAN ASSETS SEIZURE AND FORFEITURE LAW MODELLED ON THAT OF THE UNITED STATES, AND ENHANCED MONEY LAUNDERING LAWS.

22. JAMAICA'S ABILITY TO FIGHT NARCOTICS WOULD ALSO BE STRENGTHENED BY LAWS OUTLAWING THE DIVERSION OF AVIATION FUEL TO AIRCRAFT ENGAGED IN DRUG SMUGGLING AND HOLDING LANDOWNERS CRIMINALLY LIABLE FOR ILLEGAL AIRSTRIPS ON THEIR PROPERTY. MISSION EFFORTS WILL BE DIRECTED AT BUILDING SUPPORT FOR SUCH LAWS.

TRAINING COURT PERSONNEL (E.G., HIGH COURT JUSTICES, RESIDENT MAGISTRATES, CLERKS OF COURT, LIBRARIANS AND COURT REPORTERS) WILL DRAW TO A CLOSE IN MARCH 1992. INTRODUCTION OF MICROFICHE CAPABILITY IN THE SUPREME COURT REGISTRY AND AUTOMATED COURT REPORTING HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO SPEEDY HEARING OF DRUG TRAFFICKING CASES. THESE EFFORTS TO STRENGTHEN THE COURTS HAVE RESULTED IN REDUCED INSTANCES IN WHICH TRAFFICKERS (NUMBERS ARE NOT AVAILABLE) ARE RELEASED FROM DETENTION DUE TO JUDICIAL ERRORS OR INADEQUATE DOCUMENTATION IN THE APPEAL PROCESS. A FOLLOW-ON FIVE-YEAR PROJECT, PLANNED FOR FY 92, WILL BUILD ON THE SUCCESS OF THE FIRST PROJECT AND WILL INCLUDE CREATION OF A COMPUTERIZED JUSTICE RESEARCH UNIT WHICH WILL CENTRALIZE INFORMATION ON CRIMES AND SENTENCING, MAKING IT EASIER FOR THE COURTS TO DETERMINE CRIMINAL/DRUG ACTIVITY PATTERNS.

DEMAND REDUCTION

24. DURING FY 91 THE JAMAICAN NATIONAL COUNCIL ON DRUG ABUSE WAS EXCEPTIONALLY ACTIVE IN DEVELOPING A BROAD RANGE OF PUBLIC EDUCATION PROGRAMS ON THE DANGERS OF DRUG ABUSE. IN 1991 USAID'S DRUG ABUSE PREVENTION AND AWARENESS PROJECT TRAINED 170 YOUTH IN TEEN LEADERSHIP PROGRAMS. TEEN LEADERS PARTICIPATING IN THE PROGRAM HAVE BEEN FEATURED IN DRUG AWARENESS PREVENTION T.V. SPOTS. SINCE THE AIRING OF THESE SPOTS, YOUTH INQUIRIES ABOUT ESTABLISHING DRUG FREE ENVIRONMENTS HAVE INCREASED CONSIDERABLY. USIS, COORDINATION WITH FOREIGN DONORS

26. COOPERATION HAS BEEN EXCELLENT BETWEEN DEA AGENTS AND CANADIAN, BRITISH AND FRENCH LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS ASSIGNED TO FOREIGN MISSIONS IN JAMAICA. SEVERAL SUCCESSFUL JOINT OPERATIONS IN THE INVESTIGATION AND ARREST OF NARCOTICS TRAFFICKERS HAVE BEEN UNDERTAKEN. FOREIGN DONORS HAVE ALSO ASSISTED IN THE TRAINING OF POLICE AND CUSTOMS PERSONNEL, A CROP SUBSTITUTION PROJECT, NARCOTICS TREATMENT PROGRAMS, AND DEMAND REDUCTION EFFORTS. THE UNITED KINGDOM ALSO PROVIDED IN FY 91 THE WHITE HAT SENTRY COMPUTER PROGRAM TO THE JAMAICAN NATIONAL FIREARM AND DRUGS INTELLIGENCE CENTRE (NFDIC). THIS AGENCY ENCOMPASSED THE JICC AND, THROUGH JICC/DEA, PROVIDES RAPID RETRIEVAL OF DATA ON INDIVIDUALS, VESSELS, AND AIRCRAFT SUSPECTED OF ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES.

27. THE UNITED NATIONS DRUG CONTROL PROGRAM (UNDCP) IS CONSIDERING FUNDING IN FY 92 DEVELOPMENT OF A REGIONAL DRUG LAW ENFORCEMENT TRAINING CENTER IN KINGSTON. THE U.K. HAS AGREED TO DETAIL A BRITISH POLICE OFFICER TO THE CENTER, SHOULD IT BE ESTABLISHED. FRANCE AND CANADA HAVE ALSO GIVEN TENTATIVE INDICATIONS THAT THEY WILL SUPPORT THE PROJECT.

28. IN OCTOBER 1991, FOREIGN ANTI-NARCOTICS DONORS ESTABLISHED A LOCAL "DUBLIN GROUP" TO IMPROVE COORDINATION. A MISSION PRIORITY DURING FY 92 IS BETTER TARGETING OF RESOURCES AND THE ELIMINATION OF

30. PROJECT I: NARCOTICS CONTROL - INTERDICTION, COCAINE AND MARIJUANA

A) VEHICLES: FOR THE PURCHASE OF TEN VEHICLES FOR THE JCF NARCOTICS DIVISION.

-- RESOURCE JUSTIFICATION: DUE TO LACK OF RESOURCES, THE JCF NARCOTICS DIVISION IS CHRONICALLY SHORT OF VEHICLES. PURCHASE OF TEN VEHICLES (FIVE EACH IN FY-92/93) WOULD SATISFY NARCOTICS DIVISION NEEDS AND IMPROVE ITS INTERDICTION CAPABILITIES.
B) AVIATION SUPPORT: PROVIDES FOR PROCUREMENT OF SPARE PARTS, TOOLS, TRAINING MANUALS, AND SPECIALIZED MAINTENANCE SERVICES.

-- RESOURCE JUSTIFICATION: THE GOJ/JDF HAS INADEQUATE RESOURCES TO MAINTAIN ITS HELICOPTER FLEET

PROPERLY AT EVEN RELATIVELY LOW LEVELS OF OPERATIONAL USE, MUCH LESS AT THE HEAVY USE LEVELS ESSENTIAL TO SUPPORT A SUCCESSFUL NARCOTICS CONTROL PROGRAM. THIS ACCOUNT PROVIDES FUNDING FOR THE PURCHASE OF ITEMS THAT OTHERWISE WOULD NOT BE AVAILABLE, IN THE CURRENT GOJ ECONOMIC CLIMATE, IN A TIMELY MANNER AND WOULD THREATEN TO DOWN THE AIRCRAFT UNLESS REPLACED QUICKLY.

C) PATROL BOATS: PURCHASE OF TWO ADDITIONAL 33' PATROL BOATS FOR THE JDF COAST GUARD.

-- RESOURCE JUSTIFICATION: PURCHASE OF TWO ADDITIONAL 33' PATROL BOATS, WITH SPARE PARTS SUPPORT PACKAGE, ONE EACH IN FY/92/93, WILL ALLOW THE COAST

GUARD TO ESTABLISH BASES OF OPERATIONS AT STRATEGIC POINTS ALONG JAMAICA'S COASTLINE. IT WILL ALSO INCREASE COAST GUARD PATROL PRESENCE TO COUNTER MARITIME NARCOTICS SMUGGLING.

D) LAW ENFORCEMENT TRAINING: PROVIDES FOR TRAINING OF JAMAICAN COUNTERNARCOTICS PERSONNEL IN CONTRABAND ENFORCEMENT AND BASIC LAW ENFORCEMENT, WHICH INCLUDES TRAINING IN INTERDICTION, INTELLIGENCE GATHERING, AND SURVEILLANCE TECHNIQUES.

-- RESOURCE JUSTIFICATION: INCREASED TRAINING IN CONTRABAND ENFORCEMENT AND BASIC LAW ENFORCEMENT IN

INTERDICTION, INTELLIGENCE GATHERING, AND SURVEILLANCE TECHNIQUES ARE ESSENTIAL COMPONENTS FOR MAINTAINING AN EFFECTIVE NARCOTICS INTERDICTION PROGRAM.

MISSION WILL SUPPORT A CONTRABAND ENFORCEMENT TRAINING PROGRAM FOR THE PORT SECURITY CORPS AND A BASIC LAW ENFORCEMENT, INTELLIGENCE GATHERING, AND SURVEILLANCE COURSE FOR JICC AND

THE NARCOTICS DIVISION FROM COUNTRY FUNDS IN FY 92, 93 AND 94. MISSION WILL DRAW ON INM CENTRALLY-FUNDED PROGRAMS ADMINISTERED BY U.S. CUSTOMS TO PROVIDE ADDITIONAL CONTRABAND ENFORCEMENT TRAINING FOR THE CONTRABAND ENFORCEMENT TEAM AND THE CUSTOMS ENFORCEMENT TEAMS ASSIGNED TO BOTH AIR AND SEA PORTS IN FY 92, 93 AND 94.

E) MARITIME FUEL SUPPORT: PROVIDE FUEL TO THE JDF COAST GUARD FOR MARITIME INTERDICTION.

-- RESOURCE JUSTIFICATION: THE GOJ DOES NOT HAVE THE RESOURCES TO PAY FOR FUEL USED IN ITS MARITIME INTERDICTION PROGRAM.

F) SURVEILLANCE EQUIPMENT: PROVIDE SURVEILLANCE EQUIPMENT TO THE NARCOTICS DIVISION FOR ITS DRUG INTERDICTION PROGRAM.

-- RESOURCE JUSTIFICATION: THE NARCOTICS DIVISION IS JAMAICA'S PRIMARY FORCE FOR INTERDICTION OF NARCOTICS. THE NARCOTICS DIVISION IS RESPONSIBLE FOR CONDUCTING COUNTERNARCOTICS INVESTIGATIONS, AND TRAFFICKING AND SMUGGLING OPERATIONS, WHICH INCLUDE INTELLIGENCE GATHERING AND MAKING ARRESTS IN JAMAICA. THE NARCOTICS DIVISION HAS A GOOD RECORD OF COOPERATION WITH LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES, ESPICIALLY DRUG ENFORCEMENT ADMINISTRATION (DEA) OFFICIALS BASED

AT THE AMERICAN EMBASSY IN KINGSTON.

IT IS ALSO UNABLE TO PROVIDE SALARIES AND MEAL MONEY TO THE CIVILIAN LABORERS WHO MAKE UP THE CUTTING TEAMS. WITHOUT OUR CONTINUED HELP, ERADICATION ACTIVITIES WOULD HAVE TO BE SCALED BACK DRAMATICALLY AND THE CIVILIAN CUTTING TEAMS, WHICH HAVE COMPILED SUCH AN EXCELLENT RECORD UNDER JCF/JDF LEADERSHIP, WOULD HAVE TO BE DISBANDED. 32. PROJECT III: PUBLIC DIPLOMACY

A) THE PURPOSE OF THIS PROJECT IS TO PROVIDE RESOURCE SUPPORT TO THE GOJ AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS, SUCH AS THE NATIONAL COUNCIL ON DRUG ABUSE (NCDA), COMMUNITY BASED ORGANIZATIONS, AND THE JAMAICA INFORMATION SERVICE (JIS), IN ORDER TO INCREASE PUBLIC AWARENESS OF THE OVERALL DRUG PROBLEM IN JAMAICA AND ITS EFFECTS AS WELL AS TO EXPAND THE GOJ'S PUBLIC AWARENESS/DEMAND REDUCTION ACTIVITIES. THE NCDA IS THE MAIN COORDINATING BODY FOR PUBLIC INFORMATION AND EDUCATION EFFORTS ON NARCOTICS IN

JAMAICA. IT INCLUDES AMONG ITS MEMBERS A BROAD CROSS SECTION OF GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, PUBLIC SECTOR AND RELIGIOUS LEADERS, AND REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TWO MAJOR POLITICAL PARTIES. THE JIS IS THE GOVERNMENT'S PRINCIPAL PUBLIC INFORMATION ARM. THE CURRENT PUBLIC INFORMATION EFFORT OF THE GOJ IS INADEQUATE, MAINLY BECAUSE OF BUDGET STRINGENCIES. THE JAMAICAN PUBLIC IS POORLY INFORMED ABOUT DRUG DANGERS, ABOUT WHAT THEIR GOVERNMENT IS DOING ABOUT DRUGS AND WHY, AND ABOUT THE INTERNATIONAL DIMENSIONS OF THE NARCOTICS PROBLEM. THERE IS ALSO WIDESPREAD MISUNDERSTANDING OF THE SERIOUSNESS WITH WHICH THE U.S. IS APPROACHING ITS OWN DRUG PROBLEM AND OF THE USG ROLE IN THE GOJ'S COUNTER-NARCOTICS PROGRAM.

INCREASED EMPHASIS WILL BE PLACED ON BUILDING POLITICAL SUPPORT FOR A MORE ASSERTIVE GOJ COUNTERNARCOTICS POLICY, ESPECIALLY IN THE ADOPTION AND ENFORCEMENT OF LEGISLATION TARGETED AT DRUG TRAFFICKERS. FUNDS WILL ALSO CONTINUE TO SUPPORT THE COLLECTION OF DATA NECESSARY TO ENCOURAGE PUBLIC SUPPORT FOR COUNTERNARCOTICS EFFORTS. FURTHER, MISSION ENDEAVORS TO REMAIN FLEXIBLE IN ITS PUBLIC DIPLOMACY FUNDING SO THAT WE MAY TAKE ADVANTAGE OF OPPORTUNITIES AS THEY OCCUR.

SUBJECT: BROTHER OF WORKER IN STREET CHILDREN REFUGE KIDNAPED

1. CONFIDENTIAL -- ENTIRE TEXT.

2. AT 10:15 A.M. ON MARCH 13, THE AMBASSADOR RECEIVED A FAX FROM CASA ALIANZA EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR BRUCE HARRIS CONCERNING THE KIDNAPPING OF 17-YEAR-OLD DAVID ESTUARDO MEJIA PAIZ, THE BROTHER OF CASA ALIANZA WORKER ALEX MEJIA. POLOFF CONTACTED HARRIS, WHO ASKED THE EMBASSY TO CONTACT THE PRESIDENT AND THE INTERIOR MINISTER. THOSE OFFICIALS WERE OUT OF TOWN, BUT WHILE EFFORTS WERE UNDERWAY TO CONTACT OTHER HIGH-RANKING OFFICIALS, HARRIS CALLED AT APPROXIMATELY 12:05 P.M. TO SAY DAVID ESTUARDO MEJIA PAIZ HAD BEEN RELEASED. HARRIS SAID THE BOY WAS THREATENED AND MISTREATED, BUT IS NOW SAFE AND UNHARMED.

3. THE CAPTORS REPORTEDLY TOLD DAVID ESTUARDO MEJIA THAT HIS BROTHER ALEX'S WORK WITH CASA ALIANZA WAS THE MOTIVE FOR THE KIDNAPPING. ACCORDING TO THE FAX HARRIS SENT THE AMBASSADOR, ALEX WAS THE SUPERVISOR OF A CASA ALIANZA CRISIS CENTER WHEN ON NOVEMBER 7, 1990, HE INTERVENED TO STOP A "SIPROCI" TEAM'S BEATING OF THREE CHILDREN IN FRONT OF THE CENTER. (NOTE: "SIPROCI" UNITS CONSISTING OF NATIONAL POLICE, GUARDIA DE HACIENDA, AND MOBILE MILITARY POLICE ELEMENTS WERE ESTABLISHED DURING VINICIO CEREZO'S FINAL YEAR AS PRESIDENT.) ACCORDING TO HARRIS, ALEX BELIEVES THAT INCIDENT PROMPTED AN UNSUCCESSFUL DECEMBER 4, 1990 KIDNAP ATTEMPT AND THREATS AGAINST HIM, FORCING HIM TO FLEE TO MEXICO IN MID-1991. ACCORDING TO HARRIS, "SIPROCI" PERSONNEL WERE CHARGED SUBSEQUENTLY FOR BOTH THE NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER 1990 INCIDENTS. THOSE ARE THE ONLY PENDING COURT CASES AGAINST GOG OFFICIALS IN WHICH CASA ALIANZA HAS A DIRECT INTEREST. HARRIS TOLD POLOFF HE BELIEVES THE MARCH 12 KIDNAPPING OF ALEX' BROTHER WAS A "MESSAGE OF INTIMIDATION" TO CASA ALIANZA AND ITS SUPPORTERS. HARRIS HAS CONTACTED AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL, AMERICA'S WATCH, AND OTHER HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS TO MARSHALL INTERNATIONAL CONCERN AND SUPPORT.

4. COMMENT: WE ARE, OF COURSE, RELIEVED TO HEAR THAT DAVID WAS RELEASED UNHARMED. HARRIS MAY WELL BE CORRECT THAT PENDING COURT CASES AND THE MARCH 12 ABDUCTION ARE RELATED, BUT WE FIND SEVERAL ADDITIONAL ASPECTS OF THE CASE WORTHY OF COMMENT. FIRST, DESPITE HARRIS' REFERENCE TO "SIPROCI," UNDER THE FACTS MADE AVAILABLE TO US BY CASA ALIANZA CONCERNING THE COURT CASES, ONLY CIVILIAN POLICE (NO MILITARY) PERSONNEL WERE INVOLVED. SECOND, DAVID WAS PERMITTED TO CALL A FRIEND AFTER THE KIDNAPPING TO EXPLAIN THAT ALEX'S CASA ALIANZA WORK WAS THE MOTIVE FOR THE CRIME. WE HAVE NEVER HEARD OF "DISAPPEARANCE" VICTIMS PLACING SUCH TELEPHONE CALLS, LEADING US TO BELIEVE THE ABDUCTORS INTENDED FROM THE START TO FRIGHTEN -- BUT NOT KILL -- THE BOY. FINALLY, DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL REACTIONS TO THE INCIDENT MAY BE QUITE DIFFERENT. REFTEL REPORTS THAT INCREASED CRIME HAS LED TO A HUMAN RIGHTS "BACKLASH" AGAINST STREET CHILDREN (AND PERHAPS CASA ALIANZA). HARRIS' INTERNATIONAL SUPPORTERS COULD FIND A LACK OF LOCAL SYMPATHY. END COMMENT.

SCENE HAS IMPROVED NOTICEABLY OVER THE PAST THREE YEARS. THE SERRANO GOG HAS CLEARLY SHOWN CONSIDERABLY MORE WILL THAN ITS PREDECESSOR IN TACKLING HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES. THE USG HAS PLAYED A MAJOR ROLE IN OBTAINING IMPROVEMENTS; IN PARTICULAR, WE HAVE BEEN ESSENTIAL IN LEGITIMIZING HUMAN RIGHTS AS A MAINSTREAM SOCIAL AND POLITICAL CONCERN. WITH A CONTINUING BLEND OF PUBLIC AND PRIVATE DIPLOMACY, WE HOPE TO HELP THE GOG ACHIEVE EVEN MORE. END SUMMARY.

3. IN LOOKING BACK ON MY TWO-AND-A-HALF YEARS HERE, IT SEEMS USEFUL FOR WASHINGTON TO HAVE AN EVALUATION OF HOW WE ARE DOING ON OUR FOUR KEY AREAS OF CONCERN: HUMAN RIGHTS, DRUGS, DEMOCRACY, AND DEVELOPMENT. THIS CABLE DEALS WITH THE FIRST--WHICH IS THE TOUGHEST AND MOST SENSITIVE (SEPTELS DEALING WITH OTHER THEMES WILL FOLLOW). IT OPENS WITH A GENERAL LOOK AT THE CURRENT HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION AND MAKES COMPARISON WITH HOW IT LOOKED IN SEPTEMBER 1989. IT REVIEWS WHAT THE DEPARTMENT AND THE EMBASSY HAVE DONE ON HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE EFFECT IT HAS HAD.

WRITING ABOUT RIGHTING WRONGS

4. AS OUR 1991 REPORT ON HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES SHOWS, GUATEMALA REMAINS A TROUBLED COUNTRY. MANY SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS CONTINUE TO BE COMMITTED, MOSTLY AS A RESULT OF THE ONGOING INTERNAL ARMED CONFLICT. THERE ARE ENORMOUS DEFICIENCIES IN THE LEGAL SYSTEM [redacted]

[redacted]

HAMPERING DELIVERY OF JUSTICE. ACCORDING TO THE RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, 1991 SAW A CONFIRMED 228 EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS--A THIRD COMMITTED BY THE URNG, AND MOST OF THE REST BY MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY APPARATUS.

5. NEVERTHELESS, THE OVERALL HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IS UNDENIABLY BETTER NOW THAN THREE YEARS AGO. THERE IS MUCH GREATER WILLINGNESS TO DEAL WITH HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES. THE OFFICE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, AFTER A SLOW START, IS NOW A VIGOROUS AND IMPORTANT INSTITUTION. HUMAN RIGHTS IS A LEGITIMATE TOPIC FOR DISCUSSION; IT IS A MAINSTREAM POLITICAL ISSUE AND ALL OF GUATEMALA'S POLITICIANS, WHETHER IN MUFTI OR IN UNIFORM, MUST PAY AT LEAST LIP SERVICE TO IT. IN FACT, THE OMBUDSMAN HOSTED A TELEVISED DECEMBER 1990 HUMAN RIGHTS DEBATE BETWEEN PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES SERRANO AND CARPIO; FOR OVER TWO HOURS, THEY TRIED TO OUTDO EACH OTHER IN COMMITMENT TO HUMAN RIGHTS--AN EXTRAORDINARY DEVELOPMENT FOR GUATEMALA.

6. HUMAN RIGHTS IS OPENLY DEBATED IN THE NATIONAL ELECTRONIC AND PRINT MEDIA. THERE HAS BEEN AN EXPLOSION OF "POPULAR" ORGANIZATIONS AVAILING THEMSELVES OF A CLEARLY GREATER POLITICAL SPACE: THEY SPONSOR HUMAN RIGHTS DEMONSTRATIONS, MARCHES, FORA, SEMINARS, AND

DEBATES ON A DAILY BASIS--AND THE MEDIA GIVES THEM WIDE COVERAGE. CRITICISM OF THE POLITICAL ELITES, INCLUDING THE ARMY, IS OPEN AND VOCIFEROUS. SENIOR OFFICIALS, INCLUDING IN THE MILITARY, MUST REGULARLY DEFEND THE GENUINENESS OF THEIR INSTITUTIONAL AND PERSONAL COMMITMENTS TO HUMAN RIGHTS. THE TOPIC IS NO LONGER THE EXCLUSIVE PRESERVE OF "COMMUNISTS." IT IS NOW O.K. TO BE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS.

A GOOD BEGINNING

7. FOLLOWING FREE AND FAIR ELECTIONS, MONITORED BY HUNDREDS OF FOREIGN OBSERVERS, THE SERRANO ADMINISTRATION TOOK OFFICE ON JANUARY 14, 1991. IN HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS, SERRANO MADE A POINT OF STRESSING THE IMPORTANCE HE ATTACHED TO BETTERING THE COUNTRY'S HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION. IN PARTICULAR HE UNDERLINED HIS COMMITMENT TO ENDING IMPUNITY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATORS. HE MADE ENDING THE 30-YEAR-OLD INTERNAL ARMED CONFLICT HIS TOP PRIORITY, HOPING THEREBY TO PUT

AN END TO THE PRINCIPAL EXCUSE FOR THE SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS PLAGUING THE COUNTRY. HE BEGAN DIRECT TALKS WITH THE URNG COMANDANTES: THERE IS GUARDED OPTIMISM A PEACE ACCORD CAN BE REACHED THIS YEAR. HE MADE SEVERAL GOOD APPOINTMENTS, INCLUDING AN ENERGETIC [redacted]

[redacted]

ATTORNEY GENERAL, AND EXHIBITED MUCH MORE POLITICAL WILL TO DEAL WITH HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES THAN HIS PREDECESSOR. HE CREATED AN EXECUTIVE BRANCH, CABINET-LEVEL "HUMAN RIGHTS COORDINATING COMMISSION" TO BE RUN BY THE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENCY AND TO ACT AS AN EXECUTIVE BRANCH HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN. HE SHOWED COMMITMENT TO CIVILIAN CONTROL OF THE ARMY AND QUICKLY PROVED HIMSELF A TRUE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THAT OFTEN DIFFICULT INSTITUTION. HE HAS FIRED TWO MINISTERS OF DEFENSE, TWO ARMY CHIEFS-OF-STAFF, AND THE AIR FORCE COMMANDER.

MUSICAL CHAIRS

8. AFTER A PERIOD OF INITIALLY ROCKY RELATIONS WITH THE CONGRESSIONALLY APPOINTED HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, THE SERRANO ADMINISTRATION HAS DEVELOPED A GOOD WORKING RELATIONSHIP WITH THAT OFFICE AND, IN FACT, HAS RESPONDED TO CRITICISMS WITH ACTIONS, E.G., REMOVAL OF NATIONAL POLICE CHIEF PAIZ BOLANOS TO BE REPLACED BY A CIVILIAN. THIS GOVERNMENT ALSO HAS ACTED IN CONGRESS TO PUSH LEGISLATION THAT WILL RADICALLY ALTER LEGAL PROCEDURES IN THE COUNTRY, A KEY RECOMMENDATION OF, AMONG OTHERS, THE UN'S HUMAN RIGHTS EXPERT. THIS

LEGISLATION IS EXPECTED TO BE APPROVED SHORTLY ALONG WITH OTHERS THAT WILL ENABLE THE GOG TO COLLECT TAX REVENUES TO MAKE POSSIBLE AN AMBITIOUS SOCIAL INVESTMENT PROGRAM. SERRANO REMOVED HIS FIRST CHOICE AS MINISTER OF INTERIOR, RETIRED COL MENDEZ RUIZ, FOLLOWING CONTROVERSIAL POLICE ACTIONS AT THE FINCA OLGA MARIA (DETAILED IN OUR 1991 HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT) AND REMOVED NATIONAL POLICE CHIEF RETIRED COL. PAIZ BOLANOS

FOLLOWING ALLEGATIONS THAT POLICE TORTURED THREE SUSPECTS. CURRENTLY, THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR AND THE POLICE ARE RUN BY CIVILIANS--THE FIRST TIME IN MEMORY. FOR THE FIRST TIME IN GUATEMALAN HISTORY, THE GOG HAS APPOINTED A "SPECIAL PROSECUTOR" TO INVESTIGATE A CASE OF ALLEGED HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, TO WIT, THAT OF AMCIT NUN DIANA ORTIZ. THERE HAS BEEN A NOTABLE TURN-AROUND IN CORRUPTION--THE CURRENT GOG IS CONSIDERABLY MORE HONEST THAN ITS PREDECESSOR.

TRICKLE DOWN THEORY

9. MANY OF THESE CHANGES IN ATTITUDE AT THE TOP HAVE YET TO FILTER DOWN THROUGH THE ENTIRE SYSTEM. BUT THE PROCESS HAS BEGUN. THERE WERE CONVICTIONS AND SENTENCINGS OF TWO MILITARY PERSONNEL, INCLUDING ONE OFFICER, IN THE SANTIAGO MASSACRE CASE. NAVAL CAPTAIN GIRON, COMMANDER OF THE IMPORTANT PACIFIC BASE, WAS REMOVED FROM COMMAND AND IS ABOUT TO BE BOUNCED FROM THE MILITARY FOR HIS ROLE IN THE DEATHS OF ELEVEN SMUGGLERS LAST AUGUST; SEVEN OTHER MILITARY PERSONNEL ARE UNDER ARREST AND UNDERGOING TRIAL. IN A CASE NOW UNDER APPEAL, TWO SOLDIERS WERE CONVICTED FOR KILLING FOUR PERSONS IN A GUATEMLAN CITY SUBURB KNOWN AS "PERONIA." WHEN CERJ LEADER AMILCAR MENDEZ REPORTED RECEIVING SERIOUS THREATS, THE NEW MINISTER OF INTERIOR, HIMSELF A FORMER DEPUTY HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, APPEARED ON T.V. WITH HIM AND PROVIDED MENDEZ POLICE PROTECTION. SUCH PROTECTION WAS ALSO PROVIDED TO A THREATENED LABOR LEADER, AND, AS DETAILED IN OUR 1991 REPORT ON HUMAN RIGHTS, THE GOG BODYGUARDS FOILED AN ARMED KIDNAP

ATTEMPT ON THAT LEADER. AS ARDENT A CRITIC OF THE GOG AS THE BISHOP OF QUICHE PRIVATELY HAS SAID THE SITUATION IN THE COUNTRYSIDE IS IMPROVING AS THE ARMY RESPONDS TO A CHANGED ATTITUDE BY SUPERIORS. EVEN CERJ'S MENDEZ HAS RECOGNIZED THIS, ALBEIT RELUCTANTLY, TO POLOFFS.

10. THESE CHANGES ARE QUITE REMARKABLE WHEN ONE THINKS BACK TO HOW HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES LOOKED IN THE LAST YEAR OR SO OF THE CEREZO ADMINISTRATION. THAT GOVERNMENT CLEARLY HAD NO GENUINE COMMITMENT TO HUMAN RIGHTS, AND WHILE ONE COULD NOT ACCUSE IT OF PROMOTING VIOLATIONS, IT CERTAINLY MADE NO EFFORT TO PREVENT THEM OR PUNISH THEIR AUTHORS. POLITICALLY MOTIVATED KIDNAPINGS, SUCH AS THOSE OF AUGUST-SEPTEMBER 1989 ON THE SAN CARLOS UNIVERSITY (USAC) CAMPUS, AND KILLINGS WERE A REGULAR FEATURE. CEREZO HAD NO INTEREST IN TAKING ON THE SECURITY FORCES ON HUMAN RIGHTS.

UNCLE SAM: DO THE RIGHTS THING

11. THE US GOVERNMENT HAS PLAYED A MAJOR ROLE IN HELPING BEGIN THE HUMAN RIGHTS TRANSFORMATION OF GUATEMALA. WE HAVE AIDED WITH FUNDING THE HUMAN RIGHTS [redacted]

[redacted]

OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE--NOW THE SINGLE BEST LOCAL SOURCE OF HUMAN RIGHTS INFORMATION--THE SUPREME ELECTORAL TRIBUNAL (TSE), AND A MODERNIZATION PROGRAM IN THE CONGRESS AND THE COURTS. WITH OUR STRUGGLING IMET PROGRAM WE HAVE SOUGHT TO GIVE ARMY OFFICERS A GLIMPSE OF A DIFFERENT WAY OF DOING THINGS. THESE (AND OTHER) FACTORS WILL BE DISCUSSED IN DETAIL IN SEPTEL ON "DEMOCRACY."

12. OUR GREATEST CONTRIBUTION, HOWEVER, HAS BEEN IN TERMS OF OUR PUBLIC STANCE. TO A GREAT EXTENT WE LEGITIMIZED "HUMAN RIGHTS" AS A MAINSTREAM TOPIC. ONE HAS TO UNDERSTAND THE AMERICAN EMBASSY HERE (POPULARLY REFERRED TO AS "LA EMBAJADA," AS THOUGH NO OTHERS EXIST) IS AN INTEGRAL PART OF THE LOCAL POLITICAL, ECONOMIC, AND CULTURAL SCENE. IT IS WIDELY SEEN AS PERHAPS THE ONLY HONEST INSTITUTION IN THE COUNTRY. ITS PRONOUNCEMENTS HAVE TREMENDOUS CREDIBILITY THROUGHOUT GUATEMALAN SOCIETY. ONCE WE WENT PUBLIC IN A FORCEFUL WAY ON HUMAN RIGHTS, IT SERVED AS A GREEN LIGHT FOR MANY OTHERS TO DO SO. THE THINKING WENT SOMETHING LIKE THIS, "THE GRINGOS ARE NOT COMMUNISTS; THEY ARE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS; IT MUST BE O.K. TO ADVOCATE HUMAN RIGHTS."

GLOBAL WARMING

13. THE SITUATION ON MY ARRIVAL HERE WAS MARKEDLY DIFFERENT FROM THAT OF MY PREDECESSORS, WHO HAD TO BE MUCH MORE CONCERNED WITH THE CARE AND NURTURING OF BASIC DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS AND FORMAL PRACTICES. IN ADDITION, THEY HAD TO GIVE THE MOST SERIOUS ATTENTION TO THE THREATS TO SUBVERT THIS SOCIETY AND ITS NEIGHBORS [redacted]

POSED BY THE SOVIET UNION AND ITS SATELLITES. HOWEVER, BY NOVEMBER 1989, THE BERLIN WALL WAS DOWN; EASTERN EUROPE WAS NO LONGER UNDER SOVIET HEGEMONY; THE SOVIET UNION ITSELF WAS COMING APART. BY THE AUTUMN OF THAT YEAR, THE GOG HAD HAD ENOUGH TIME TO GET ITS ADMINISTRATIVE ACT IN ORDER. IT HAD BEEN THE RECIPIENT OF INCREDIBLY GENEROUS AMERICAN LARGESSE, HAD OVERCOME TWO COUP ATTEMPTS, AND THE FORMAL DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM HAD BEGUN TO TAKE ROOT. IT WAS NOW TIME TO FACE UP TO RESPONSIBILITIES IN THE AREA OF HUMAN RIGHTS. A HIGH-VISIBILITY APPROACH SEEMED THE WAY TO GO. BY OCTOBER 1989, THE COUNTRY TEAM HAD COME TO THE SAME CONCLUSION. IN FACT, THE PUBLIC APPROACH WAS KICKED OFF BY CHARGE PHIL TAYLOR WHEN AT A SEPTEMBER 1989 AID-SIGNING CEREMONY HE PUBLICLY DEPLORED AND CALLED FOR CLARIFICATION OF THE USAC KIDNAPINGS. THIS WAS FOLLOWED BY A TENSE, NO-NONSENSE MEETING WITH PRESIDENT CEREZO IN WHICH THE CHARGE MADE CLEAR WE WERE FED UP WITH THE GOG'S NONPERFORMANCE ON HUMAN RIGHTS.

14. TWO IMMEDIATE STEPS WERE TAKEN TO DRIVE HOME TO THE GOG THAT HUMAN RIGHTS WOULD NOW BE AN OPEN AND PUBLIC ISSUE HERE AND THAT THE CHARGE'S STATEMENT HAD NOT BEEN A FLUKE: (1) IN MY AIRPORT ARRIVAL STATEMENT I STRESSED THE IMPORTANCE PRESIDENT BUSH ATTACHED TO HUMAN RIGHTS, AND (2) OUR 1989 HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES REPORT WAS TOUGH. WE MADE SURE IT GOT WIDE PUBLICITY. THAT REPORT GOT TO CEREZO. HE AND HIS GOVERNMENT TOOK STRONG EXCEPTION, BUT COULD NOT REFUTE IT. THE REPORT SERVED AS A SIGNAL THE EMBASSY WAS NOW A MAJOR PLAYER IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS ARENA, AND THAT THE FIELD WOULD NO LONGER

BELONG JUST TO LOCAL AND FOREIGN HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS, MANY WITH ANTI-AMERICAN POLITICAL AGENDAS.

15. OUR PUBLIC APPROACH INCLUDED MEETINGS WITH HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS, INCLUDING SOME TRADITIONALLY NOT WELL-DISPOSED TO THE EMBASSY OR THE USG. THESE MEETINGS DID NOT SIT WELL WITH THE GOVERNMENT OR THE MILITARY BUT OUR ATTITUDE WAS THAT AS LONG AS THESE GROUPS WERE INVOLVED IN LEGAL ACTIVITIES, THE EMBASSY HAD THE RIGHT

AND OBLIGATION TO MEET THEM. WE SOUGHT OUT AND MET THE NEW HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN AND, ON THE OCCASION OF INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS DAY IN DECEMBER 1989, I JOINED HIM IN A TELEVISED STATEMENT FROM HIS OFFICE AFFIRMING USG SUPPORT FOR THE OMBUDSMAN AND FOR PROGRESS ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN GUATEMALA. BOTH MY STAFF AND I HAVE HAD REPEATED PUBLIC AND PRIVATE MEETINGS WITH THE PRESIDENT, THE MINISTER OF DEFENSE, THE MINISTER OF

A NEW DEAL

16. IN THE SAME VEIN, WHEN IN DECEMBER 1989, TWO AMCIT MEMBERS OF THE PEACE BRIGADES INTERNATIONAL (PBI) WERE ATTACKED BY KNIFE-WIELDING ASSAILANTS, THE EMBASSY TOOK A VERY HIGH PROFILE IN ENSURING THE PROTECTION OF THE PBI MEMBERS; I CALLED ON THOSE WHO HAD BEEN INJURED AND LET THE PRESS KNOW THAT THE USG WAS ACTIVELY INTERESTED IN THE WELFARE OF ALL PBI ACTIVISTS. WE DEVELOPED A CLOSE RELATIONSHIP WITH THE GROUP--ONE NOT TRADITIONALLY FRIENDLY TO U.S. EMBASSIES--AND PROVIDE PBI VOLUNTEERS REGULAR POLITICAL AND SECURITY BRIEFINGS. WE ARE NOW INVITED TO ATTEND THEIR FUNCTIONS. WE HAVE RECENTLY CARRIED OUT A DEMARCHE SUPPORTING PBI EFFORTS TO BECOME A LEGALLY REGISTERED ORGANIZATION IN GUATEMALA.

WIELDING A (ROTARY) CLUB

17. BUT THE EVENT THAT RECEIVED THE MOST ATTENTION WAS A SPEECH TO THE ROTARY CLUB IN FEBRUARY 1990. THIS SPEECH CAME ON THE HEELS OF THE KIDNAPING AND MURDER IN GUATEMALA OF SALVADORAN LEFTIST POLITICIAN HECTOR OQUELI. A/S ARONSON INSTRUCTED US TO MAKE A VEHEMENT PRIVATE APPROACH TO PRESIDENT CEREZO ON THE IMPORTANCE OF RESOLVING THIS CASE IN A CREDIBLE MANNER (SOMETHING HIS GOG NEVER DID). WHEN IT BECAME CLEAR THE GOG WOULD TAKE NO ACTION, WE PUT TOGETHER A STRONG STATEMENT IN THE SPEECH MAKING CLEAR THE UNITED STATES COULD NOT MAINTAIN CORDIAL RELATIONS WITH ANY STATE THAT SYSTEMATICALLY VIOLATED HUMAN RIGHTS OR FAILED TO PROTECT THEM. WE SAID THAT THE INABILITY OF THE GOG TO

PROTECT ITS CITIZENS FROM HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, IF CONTINUED, WOULD INEVITABLY DAMAGE THE BILATERAL RELATIONSHIP. WE CALLED FOR AN END TO IMPUNITY. CEREZO EXPLODED. HE OPENLY ACCUSED US OF TRYING TO HURT HIM IN RETALIATION FOR HIS "PRINCIPLED" OPPOSITION TO OUR SUPPORT FOR THE FREEDOM FIGHTERS IN NICARAGUA AND FOR GUATEMALA'S OPPOSITION TO "OPERATION JUST CAUSE" IN PANAMA. HE LET IT BE PUBLICLY "UNDERSTOOD" I DID NOT SPEAK FOR THE USG; HE PRIVATELY HINTED I WOULD BE PNG'D.

18. THE DEPARTMENT PROMPTLY RECALLED ME "FOR CONSULTATIONS" IN WASHINGTON AND A MEETING WITH THE PRESIDENT. I RETURNED TO GUATEMALA WITH A CAREFULLY DRAFTED LETTER FOR CEREZO IN WHICH THE DEPARTMENT MADE CLEAR THAT THE HUMAN RIGHTS LINE OF THE EMBASSY WAS, INDEED, THE HUMAN RIGHTS POLICY OF THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION. THE LETTER WAS PERSONALLY DELIVERED TO CEREZO. SUBSEQUENT PRESS STATEMENTS BY THE EMBASSY EMPHASIZED WE WOULD CONTINUE OUR HIGH PROFILE ON HUMAN RIGHTS AND THAT CONCERN FOR HUMAN RIGHTS WAS AN INTEGRAL PART OF THE U.S. FOREIGN POLICY TOWARDS THE GOG.

DEVINE JUSTICE

19. IN JUNE OF 1990, LONG-TIME GUATEMALA RESIDENT AMERICAN BUSINESSMAN MICHAEL DEVINE WAS KIDNAPED AND BRUTALLY MURDERED. IT SOON BECAME CLEAR HIS KILLERS WERE MILITARY PERSONNEL. IT ALSO BECAME CLEAR THAT THE MILITARY AND THE CEREZO GOVERNMENT HAD NO INTEREST IN SOLVING THIS CRIME AND PUNISHING ITS AUTHORS. FROM THE START, WE LET CEREZO AND HIS GOVERNMENT, MILITARY AND [redacted]

[redacted]

CIVILIAN, KNOW THAT THIS WAS A TEST CASE. THE U.S. COULD NOT GO ON WITH BUSINESS AS USUAL WITH A GOVERNMENT THAT ALLOWED MEMBERS OF ITS SECURITY APPARATUS TO KILL AMERICAN CITIZENS. EVEN MORE, WE COULD NOT AND WOULD NOT TOLERATE ANY COVER-UP OF SUCH AN ACT. WORKING CLOSELY WITH THE DEVINE FAMILY, WE DEVELOPED A LARGE BODY OF EVIDENCE THAT POINTED TO MILITARY INVOLVEMENT IN THE KILLING. WE PRESENTED THIS INFORMATION TO CEREZO AND GOT VERY LITTLE ACTION, WITH BUT ONE NOTABLE EXCEPTION. IN AN UNPRECEDENTED DEVELOPMENT, CEREZO FELT COMPELLED BY THE OVERWHELMING WEIGHT OF OUR EVIDENCE AND OUR CONSTANT REFERENCES TO THE CASE TO ACKNOWLEDGE OPENLY AND IN WRITING THAT THE CRIME SEEMED COMMITTED BY ARMY PERSONNEL. SEVERAL LOW-RANKING MILITARY WERE ARRESTED; BUT LEGAL PROCEEDINGS SEEMED TO GO NOWHERE.

20. WHILE WE HAD LONG ARGUED THAT SOME LEVEL OF MILITARY ASSISTANCE WAS NEEDED TO PROVIDE US LEVERAGE WITH THE ARMY, IT BECAME INCREASINGLY OBVIOUS THAT THERE WAS GOING TO BE NO FURTHER MOVEMENT ON DEVINE UNLESS WE

[redacted] UNCLASSIFIED

ENGAGED IN ANOTHER BIT OF PUBLIC DIPLOMACY. IN DECEMBER 1990, WE RECOMMENDED AND THE DEPARTMENT AGREED TO SUSPEND CURRENT AS WELL AS FUTURE PIPELINE FMF ASSISTANCE (FOR A VALUE OF OVER DOLS 11 MILLION). THIS SUSPENSION, OF COURSE, UNLEASHED MORE ABUSE FROM CEREZO AND THEN-MINISTER OF DEFENSE BOLANOS. IT PUT US INTO AN AWKWARD POSITION WITH THE INCOMING PRESIDENT. WE FACED AN IMMEDIATE PROBLEM WITH THE NEW PRESIDENT WHEN WE INFORMED SERRANO OF OUR TERMS FOR RESUMING MILITARY AID: THE DEVINE CASE WOULD HAVE TO BE RESOLVED, THERE WOULD HAVE TO BE CONVICTIONS IN THE SANTIAGO MASSACRE, AND THERE WOULD HAVE TO BE OVERALL PROGRESS IN THE GOG'S HUMAN RIGHTS PERFORMANCE. HE JUST ABOUT THREW ME OUT OF HIS OFFICE WHEN I GAVE HIM OUR NON-PAPER| BUT WE MADE AN IMPORTANT POINT: WE WOULD NOT PURSUE THE OTHER IMPORTANT GOALS WE HAVE BY IGNORING HUMAN RIGHTS.

21. THE SUSPENSION (NOT A COMPLETE CUT-OFF AS HAD BEEN DONE PREVIOUSLY) HAD THE INTENTION OF HOLDING OUT A CARROT FOR IMPROVED PERFORMANCE IN THE AREA OF HUMAN RIGHTS. WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE STILL SLOW-MOVING DEVINE CASE, WE HAVE INDEED SEEN PROGRESS ON HUMAN RIGHTS. WE CERTAINLY SEE A GROWING WISH ON THE PART OF THE GUATEMALAN MILITARY TO IMPROVE THE BILATERAL MILITARY RELATIONSHIP, AND THERE IS A GROWING UNDERSTANDING IN THE GUATEMALAN ARMY THAT RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS WILL TO A VERY CONSIDERABLE DEGREE DRIVE THAT RELATIONSHIP AND DETERMINE ITS FUTURE. THIS WAS THE MESSAGE DELIVERED, VERY CLEARLY, DURING THE 1991 VISIT OF ARMY SECRETARY MIKE STONE AND THE RECENT VISIT OF U.S. SECDEF CHENEY--THE MOST SENIOR US OFFICIAL TO

VISIT GUATEMALA SINCE THE INAUGURATION OF PRESIDENT SERRANO. WE BELIEVE THE GOG AND ITS ARMY UNDERSTAND THESE MESSAGES VERY WELL.

THE BIG MACK CASE

22. DURING THE SERRANO ADMINISTRATION, WE HAVE KEPT UP OUR CONSULTATIONS WITH LOCAL HUMAN RIGHTS AND LABOR ACTIVISTS. WE WERE VERY ACTIVE IN OBTAINING THE ARREST IN LOS ANGELES OF THE MAN SUSPECTED OF HAVING MURDERED GUATEMALAN ANTHROPOLOGIST AND SOCIAL RESEARCHER MYRNA MACK CHANG (A MURDER WHICH TOOK PLACE UNDER THE CEREZO ADMINISTRATION). WE HAVE BEEN FOLLOWING THIS KEY HUMAN RIGHTS CASE VERY CLOSELY. IN FACT, I VISITED THE MACK FAMILY WHEN THEY TOLD US OF THREATS TO THEIR SAFETY AND HAVE ATTENDED TWO PUBLIC CATHOLIC MASSES FOR HELEN MACK (ALONG WITH OTHER MEMBERS OF THE STAFF, I HAVE ALSO ATTENDED MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR SLAIN STREET CHILDREN). THE VISIT TO THE MACK FAMILY GOT CONSIDERABLE LOCAL PUBLICITY AND IRRITATED SERRANO.

DIGGING UP THE PAST

23. OUR POLITICAL OFFICERS HAVE PARTICIPATED IN THE LOCATING AND EXHUMATION OF VICTIMS OF PAST POLITICAL VIOLENCE IN SOME OF THE MOST CONFLICTIVE AREAS OF GUATEMALA. THEY HAVE VISITED REMOTE AND VIOLENT AREAS OF GUATEMALA TO PROVIDE A MORE COMPLETE AND ACCURATE PICTURE OF THE NATION'S HUMAN RIGHTS SCENE. POLITICAL AND CONSULAR OFFICERS HAVE ACCOMPANIED "CASA ALIANZA" STAFF ON ROUNDS TO STREET CHILDREN HAUNTS; WE HAVE [redacted]

[redacted]

SPOKEN OUT AGAINST EFFORTS TO INTIMIDATE THOSE WHO WORK WITH THESE CHILDREN. IN FACT, WE HAVE EXCELLENT RELATIONS WITH "CASA ALIANZA" AND MAINTAIN REGULAR CONTACT WITH THEM. WE RECENTLY MET AN INJURED SURVIVOR OF THE SANTIAGO MASSACRE, BACK IN GUATEMALA AFTER TREATMENT IN THE U.S.

PROTECTING THE PRESENT

24. THE EMBASSY HAS EXTENDED PROTECTION TO THE DEPUTY HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN AND TO POLITICIANS (SUCH AS LUIS ZURITA) WHEN THEY SUFFERED THREATS. WE ARE HELPING PROTECT THE ACTIVIST ATTORNEY GENERAL, PROVIDING HIM A BULLET-PROOF CAR AND A CELLULAR PHONE. WE HAVE VISITED THE USAC RECTOR AND MET LEADERS OF THE STUDENT MOVEMENT WHEN THEY, TOO, FELT THEY UNDER THREAT. OUR ACTIVE USIS OFFICE, WHICH HAS SUPERB RELATIONS WITH THE PRESS AND

THE ELUSIVE TRUTH

25. WE HAVE NOT LET UP ON THE SR. DIANA ORTIZ MATTER. FROM DAY ONE, WE HAVE INSISTED ALL PARTIES COOPERATE TO FIND THE TRUTH OF WHAT HAPPENED TO ORTIZ NOVEMBER 2-3, 1989. WE NIPPED IN THE BUD EFFORTS BY SOME AROUND ORTIZ TO PORTRAY THE EMBASSY AS A VILLAIN AND AN ACCOMPLICE IN WHAT HAPPENED. ORTIZ IS NOW DUE TO ARRIVE IN GUATEMALA NEXT MONTH TO TESTIFY AND WILL, FOR HER PROTECTION AND EASE OF MIND, STAY AT MY RESIDENCE--A DEVELOPMENT UNTHINKABLE AT THE OUTSET OF THIS CASE WHEN OUR OFFICERS WERE ACCUSED EITHER OF HAVING TAKEN PART IN HER ALLEGED TORTURE OR TRYING TO COVER IT UP.

26. WE HAVE ALSO CONTINUED WITH THE PRECEDENT ESTABLISHED BY THE 1989 HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT. BOTH OUR 1990 AND 1991 REPORTS, WERE ACCURATE, FACTUAL, DETAILED, AND HARD-HITTING ACCOUNTS OF THE GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS SCENE. IN FACT, WE HAVE HAD THE ONCE ANTI-US HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP TELL US OUR REPORTS ARE THE BEST ONES ON GUATEMALA--AND THAT INCLUDES REPORTS BY THEIR OWN PEOPLE. WE HAVE RECEIVED PRAISE FROM ORGANIZATIONS AS TRADITIONALLY CRITICAL OF DEPARTMENT REPORTING AS THE WASHINGTON OFFICE ON LATIN AMERICA AND AMERICA'S WATCH. THE GOG HAS REACTED NEGATIVELY TO THE REPORTS, TO THE EXTENT OF DEMANDING REVISIONS. HOWEVER, LOCAL REACTION FROM PRESS, PUBLIC, HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, AND ACTIVISTS HAS BEEN UNIFORMLY FAVORABLE.

PEACE AND QUIET

27. WE HAVE ALSO WORKED CLOSELY WITH THE GOG TO HELP END THE 31-YEAR-OLD INTERNAL ARMED CONFLICT. OUR QUIET SUPPORT FOR THE NATIONAL RECONCILIATION COMMISSION (CNR), WHICH INCLUDES FUNDING ITS TRAVEL EXPENSES AND PER DIEM, AND OUR LOW-KEY BEHIND-THE-SCENES SUPPORT FOR THE GOG IN ITS DIFFICULT NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE GUERRILLA LEADERS IN MEXICO HAS HELPED ASSURE THE GOG THAT, DESPITE THE CRITICISMS WE LEVEL, WE WANT TO SEE IT SUCCEED IN ENDING A WAR WHICH STILL SERVES AS A PRIMARY EXCUSE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS BY BOTH SIDES AND

PREVENTS MEANINGFUL EFFORTS TO ADDRESS THE COUNTRY'S PRESSING SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC PROBLEMS.

DOING OUR BIT

SUMMARY

2. ALTHOUGH STILL TROUBLED, THE GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS SCENE HAS IMPROVED NOTICEABLY OVER THE PAST THREE YEARS. THE SERRANO GOG HAS CLEARLY SHOWN CONSIDERABLY MORE WILL THAN ITS PREDECESSOR IN TACKLING HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES. THE USG HAS PLAYED A MAJOR ROLE IN OBTAINING IMPROVEMENTS; IN PARTICULAR, WE HAVE BEEN ESSENTIAL IN LEGITIMIZING HUMAN RIGHTS AS A MAINSTREAM SOCIAL AND POLITICAL CONCERN. EVEN MORE. END SUMMARY.

FIRST IN A SERIES

3. IN LOOKING BACK ON MY TWO-AND-A-HALF YEARS HERE, IT SEEMS USEFUL FOR WASHINGTON TO HAVE AN EVALUATION OF HOW WE ARE DOING ON OUR FOUR KEY AREAS OF CONCERN: HUMAN RIGHTS, DRUGS, DEMOCRACY, AND DEVELOPMENT. THIS CABLE DEALS WITH THE FIRST--WHICH IS THE TOUGHEST AND MOST SENSITIVE (SEPTELS DEALING WITH OTHER THEMES WILL FOLLOW). IT OPENS WITH A GENERAL LOOK AT THE CURRENT HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION AND MAKES COMPARISON WITH HOW IT LOOKED IN SEPTEMBER 1989. IT REVIEWS WHAT THE DEPARTMENT AND THE EMBASSY HAVE DONE ON HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE EFFECT IT HAS HAD.

WRITING ABOUT RIGHTING WRONGS

4. AS OUR 1991 REPORT ON HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES SHOWS, GUATEMALA REMAINS A TROUBLED COUNTRY. MANY SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS CONTINUE TO BE COMMITTED, MOSTLY AS A RESULT OF THE ONGOING INTERNAL ARMED CONFLICT. THERE ARE ENORMOUS DEFICIENCIES IN THE LEGAL SYSTEM HAMPERING DELIVERY OF JUSTICE. ACCORDING TO THE RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, 1991 SAW A CONFIRMED 228 EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS--A THIRD COMMITTED BY THE URNG, AND MOST OF THE REST BY MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY APPARATUS.

5. NEVERTHELESS, THE OVERALL HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IS UNDENIABLY BETTER NOW THAN THREE YEARS AGO. THERE IS MUCH GREATER WILLINGNESS TO DEAL WITH HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES. THE OFFICE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, AFTER A SLOW START, IS NOW A VIGOROUS AND IMPORTANT INSTITUTION. HUMAN RIGHTS IS A LEGITIMATE TOPIC FOR DISCUSSION; IT IS A MAINSTREAM POLITICAL ISSUE AND ALL OF GUATEMALA'S POLITICIANS, WHETHER IN MUFTI OR IN UNIFORM, MUST PAY AT LEAST LIP SERVICE TO IT. IN FACT, THE OMBUDSMAN HOSTED A TELEVISED DECEMBER 1990 HUMAN RIGHTS DEBATE BETWEEN PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES SERRANO AND CARPIO; FOR OVER TWO HOURS, THEY TRIED TO OUTDO EACH OTHER IN COMMITMENT TO HUMAN RIGHTS--AN EXTRAORDINARY DEVELOPMENT FOR GUATEMALA.

6. HUMAN RIGHTS IS OPENLY DEBATED IN THE NATIONAL ELECTRONIC AND PRINT MEDIA. THERE HAS BEEN AN EXPLOSION OF "POPULAR" ORGANIZATIONS AVAILING THEMSELVES OF A CLEARLY GREATER POLITICAL SPACE: THEY SPONSOR HUMAN RIGHTS DEMONSTRATIONS, MARCHES, FORA, SEMINARS, AND DEBATES ON A DAILY BASIS--AND THE MEDIA GIVES THEM WIDE COVERAGE. CRITICISM OF THE POLITICAL ELITES, INCLUDING THE ARMY, IS OPEN AND VOCIFEROUS. SENIOR OFFICIALS, INCLUDING IN THE MILITARY, MUST REGULARLY DEFEND THE GENUINENESS OF THEIR INSTITUTIONAL AND PERSONAL COMMITMENTS TO HUMAN RIGHTS. THE TOPIC IS NO LONGER THE EXCLUSIVE PRESERVE OF "COMMUNISTS." IT IS NOW O.K. TO BE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

A GOOD BEGINNING

7. FOLLOWING FREE AND FAIR ELECTIONS, MONITORED BY HUNDREDS OF FOREIGN OBSERVERS, THE SERRANO ADMINISTRATION TOOK OFFICE ON JANUARY 14, 1991. IN HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS, SERRANO MADE A POINT OF STRESSING THE IMPORTANCE HE ATTACHED TO BETTERING THE COUNTRY'S HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION. IN PARTICULAR HE UNDERLINED HIS COMMITMENT TO ENDING IMPUNITY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATORS. HE MADE ENDING THE 30-YEAR-OLD INTERNAL ARMED CONFLICT HIS TOP PRIORITY, HOPING THEREBY TO PUT AN END TO THE PRINCIPAL EXCUSE FOR THE SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS PLAGUING THE COUNTRY. HE BEGAN DIRECT TALKS WITH THE URNG COMANDANTES: THERE IS GUARDED OPTIMISM A PEACE ACCORD CAN BE REACHED THIS YEAR. HE MADE SEVERAL GOOD APPOINTMENTS, INCLUDING AN ENERGETIC ATTORNEY GENERAL, AND EXHIBITED MUCH MORE POLITICAL WILL TO DEAL WITH HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES THAN HIS PREDECESSOR. HE CREATED AN EXECUTIVE BRANCH, CABINET-LEVEL "HUMAN RIGHTS COORDINATING COMMISSION" TO BE RUN BY THE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENCY AND TO ACT AS AN EXECUTIVE BRANCH

HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN. HE SHOWED COMMITMENT TO CIVILIAN CONTROL OF THE ARMY AND QUICKLY PROVED HIMSELF A TRUE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THAT OFTEN DIFFICULT INSTITUTION. HE HAS FIRED TWO MINISTERS OF DEFENSE, TWO ARMY CHIEFS-OF-STAFF, AND THE AIR FORCE COMMANDER.

MUSICAL CHAIRS

8. AFTER A PERIOD OF INITIALLY ROCKY RELATIONS WITH THE CONGRESSIONALLY APPOINTED HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, THE SERRANO ADMINISTRATION HAS DEVELOPED A GOOD WORKING RELATIONSHIP WITH THAT OFFICE AND, IN FACT, HAS RESPONDED TO CRITICISMS WITH ACTIONS, E.G., REMOVAL OF NATIONAL POLICE CHIEF PAIZ BOLANOS TO BE REPLACED BY A CIVILIAN. THIS GOVERNMENT ALSO HAS ACTED IN CONGRESS TO PUSH LEGISLATION THAT WILL RADICALLY ALTER LEGAL PROCEDURES IN THE COUNTRY, A KEY RECOMMENDATION OF, AMONG OTHERS, THE UN'S HUMAN RIGHTS EXPERT. THIS LEGISLATION IS EXPECTED TO BE APPROVED SHORTLY ALONG

WITH OTHERS THAT WILL ENABLE THE GOG TO COLLECT TAX REVENUES TO MAKE POSSIBLE AN AMBITIOUS SOCIAL INVESTMENT PROGRAM. SERRANO REMOVED HIS FIRST CHOICE AS MINISTER OF INTERIOR, RETIRED COL MENDEZ RUIZ, FOLLOWING CONTROVERSIAL POLICE ACTIONS AT THE FINCA OLGA MARIA (DETAILED IN OUR 1991 HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT) AND REMOVED NATIONAL POLICE CHIEF RETIRED COL. PAIZ BOLANOS FOLLOWING ALLEGATIONS THAT POLICE TORTURED THREE SUSPECTS. CURRENTLY, THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR AND THE POLICE ARE RUN BY CIVILIANS--THE FIRST TIME IN MEMORY. FOR THE FIRST TIME IN GUATEMALAN HISTORY, THE GOG HAS APPOINTED A "SPECIAL PROSECUTOR" TO INVESTIGATE A CASE

OF ALLEGED HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, TO WIT, THAT OF AMCIT NUN DIANA ORTIZ. THERE HAS BEEN A NOTABLE TURN-AROUND IN CORRUPTION--THE CURRENT GOG IS CONSIDERABLY MORE HONEST THAN ITS PREDECESSOR.

TRICKLE DOWN THEORY

9. MANY OF THESE CHANGES IN ATTITUDE AT THE TOP HAVE YET TO FILTER DOWN THROUGH THE ENTIRE SYSTEM. BUT THE PROCESS HAS BEGUN. THERE WERE CONVICTIONS AND SENTENCINGS OF TWO MILITARY PERSONNEL, INCLUDING ONE OFFICER, IN THE SANTIAGO MASSACRE CASE. NAVAL CAPTAIN GIRON, COMMANDER OF THE IMPORTANT PACIFIC BASE, WAS REMOVED FROM COMMAND AND IS ABOUT TO BE BOUNCED FROM THE MILITARY FOR HIS ROLE IN THE DEATHS OF ELEVEN SMUGGLERS LAST AUGUST; SEVEN OTHER MILITARY PERSONNEL ARE UNDER ARREST AND UNDERGOING TRIAL. IN A CASE NOW UNDER APPEAL, TWO SOLDIERS WERE CONVICTED FOR KILLING FOUR PERSONS IN A GUATEMLAN CITY SUBURB KNOWN AS "PERONIA." WHEN CERJ LEADER AMILCAR MENDEZ REPORTED RECEIVING SERIOUS THREATS, THE NEW MINISTER OF INTERIOR, HIMSELF A FORMER DEPUTY HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, APPEARED ON T.V. WITH HIM AND PROVIDED MENDEZ POLICE PROTECTION. SUCH PROTECTION WAS ALSO PROVIDED TO A THREATENED LABOR LEADER, AND, AS DETAILED IN OUR 1991 REPORT ON HUMAN RIGHTS, THE GOG BODYGUARDS FOILED AN ARMED KIDNAP ATTEMPT ON THAT LEADER. AS ARDENT A CRITIC OF THE GOG AS THE BISHOP OF QUICHE PRIVATELY HAS SAID THE SITUATION IN THE COUNTRYSIDE IS IMPROVING AS THE ARMY RESPONDS TO A CHANGED ATTITUDE BY SUPERIORS. EVEN CERJ'S MENDEZ HAS RECOGNIZED THIS, ALBEIT RELUCTANTLY, TO POLOFFS.

CONFIDENTIAL

10. THESE CHANGES ARE QUITE REMARKABLE WHEN ONE THINKS

BACK TO HOW HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES LOOKED IN THE LAST YEAR OR SO OF THE CEREZO ADMINISTRATION. THAT GOVERNMENT CLEARLY HAD NO GENUINE COMMITMENT TO HUMAN RIGHTS, AND WHILE ONE COULD NOT ACCUSE IT OF PROMOTING VIOLATIONS, IT CERTAINLY MADE NO EFFORT TO PREVENT THEM OR PUNISH THEIR AUTHORS. POLITICALLY MOTIVATED KIDNAPINGS, SUCH AS THOSE OF AUGUST-SEPTEMBER 1989 ON THE SAN CARLOS UNIVERSITY (USAC) CAMPUS, AND KILLINGS WERE A REGULAR FEATURE. CEREZO HAD NO INTEREST IN TAKING ON THE SECURITY FORCES ON HUMAN RIGHTS.

UNCLE SAM: DO THE RIGHTS THING

11. THE US GOVERNMENT HAS PLAYED A MAJOR ROLE IN HELPING BEGIN THE HUMAN RIGHTS TRANSFORMATION OF GUATEMALA. WE HAVE AIDED WITH FUNDING THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE--NOW THE SINGLE BEST LOCAL SOURCE OF HUMAN RIGHTS INFORMATION--THE SUPREME ELECTORAL TRIBUNAL (TSE), AND A MODERNIZATION PROGRAM IN THE CONGRESS AND THE COURTS. WITH OUR STRUGGLING IMET PROGRAM WE HAVE SOUGHT TO GIVE ARMY OFFICERS A GLIMPSE OF A DIFFERENT WAY OF DOING THINGS. THESE (AND OTHER) FACTORS WILL BE DISCUSSED IN DETAIL IN SEPTEL ON "DEMOCRACY."

12. OUR GREATEST CONTRIBUTION, HOWEVER, HAS BEEN IN TERMS OF OUR PUBLIC STANCE. TO A GREAT EXTENT WE LEGITIMIZED "HUMAN RIGHTS" AS A MAINSTREAM TOPIC. ONE HAS TO UNDERSTAND THE AMERICAN EMBASSY HERE (POPULARLY REFERRED TO AS "LA EMBAJADA," AS THOUGH NO OTHERS EXIST)

CONFIDENTIAL

IS AN INTEGRAL PART OF THE LOCAL POLITICAL, ECONOMIC, AND CULTURAL SCENE. IT IS WIDELY SEEN AS PERHAPS THE ONLY HONEST INSTITUTION IN THE COUNTRY. ITS PRONOUNCEMENTS HAVE TREMENDOUS CREDIBILITY THROUGHOUT GUATEMALAN SOCIETY. ONCE WE WENT PUBLIC IN A FORCEFUL WAY ON HUMAN RIGHTS, IT SERVED AS A GREEN LIGHT FOR MANY OTHERS TO DO SO. THE THINKING WENT SOMETHING LIKE THIS, "THE GRINGOS ARE NOT COMMUNISTS; THEY ARE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS; IT MUST BE O.K. TO ADVOCATE HUMAN RIGHTS."

GLOBAL WARMING

13. THE SITUATION ON MY ARRIVAL HERE WAS MARKEDLY DIFFERENT FROM THAT OF MY PREDECESSORS, WHO HAD TO BE MUCH MORE CONCERNED WITH THE CARE AND NURTURING OF BASIC DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS AND FORMAL PRACTICES. IN ADDITION, THEY HAD TO GIVE THE MOST SERIOUS ATTENTION TO THE THREATS TO SUBVERT THIS SOCIETY AND ITS NEIGHBORS POSED BY THE SOVIET UNION AND ITS SATELLITES. HOWEVER, BY NOVEMBER 1989, THE BERLIN WALL WAS DOWN; EASTERN EUROPE WAS NO LONGER UNDER SOVIET HEGEMONY; THE SOVIET UNION ITSELF WAS COMING APART. BY THE AUTUMN OF THAT YEAR, THE GOG HAD HAD ENOUGH TIME TO GET ITS ADMINISTRATIVE ACT IN ORDER. IT HAD BEEN THE RECIPIENT OF INCREDIBLY GENEROUS AMERICAN LARGESSE, HAD OVERCOME TWO COUP ATTEMPTS, AND THE FORMAL DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM HAD BEGUN TO TAKE ROOT. IT WAS NOW TIME TO FACE UP TO RESPONSIBILITIES IN THE AREA OF HUMAN RIGHTS. A HIGH-VISIBILITY APPROACH SEEMED THE WAY TO GO. BY OCTOBER 1989, THE COUNTRY TEAM HAD COME TO THE SAME CONCLUSION. IN FACT, THE PUBLIC APPROACH WAS KICKED OFF

BY CHARGE PHIL TAYLOR WHEN AT A SEPTEMBER 1989 AID-SIGNING CEREMONY HE PUBLICLY DEPLORED AND CALLED FOR CLARIFICATION OF THE USAC KIDNAPINGS. THIS WAS FOLLOWED BY A TENSE, NO-NONSENSE MEETING WITH PRESIDENT CEREZO IN WHICH THE CHARGE MADE CLEAR WE WERE FED UP WITH THE GOG'S NONPERFORMANCE ON HUMAN RIGHTS.

14. TWO IMMEDIATE STEPS WERE TAKEN TO DRIVE HOME TO THE GOG THAT HUMAN RIGHTS WOULD NOW BE AN OPEN AND PUBLIC ISSUE HERE AND THAT THE CHARGE'S STATEMENT HAD NOT BEEN A FLUKE: (1) IN MY AIRPORT ARRIVAL STATEMENT I STRESSED THE IMPORTANCE PRESIDENT BUSH ATTACHED TO HUMAN RIGHTS, AND (2) OUR 1989 HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES REPORT WAS TOUGH. WE MADE SURE IT GOT WIDE PUBLICITY. THAT REPORT GOT TO CEREZO. HE AND HIS GOVERNMENT TOOK STRONG EXCEPTION, BUT COULD NOT REFUTE IT. THE REPORT SERVED AS A SIGNAL THE EMBASSY WAS NOW A MAJOR PLAYER IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS ARENA, AND THAT THE FIELD WOULD NO LONGER BELONG JUST TO LOCAL AND FOREIGN HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS, MANY WITH ANTI-AMERICAN POLITICAL AGENDAS.

15. OUR PUBLIC APPROACH INCLUDED MEETINGS WITH HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS, INCLUDING SOME TRADITIONALLY NOT WELL-DISPOSED TO THE EMBASSY OR THE USG. THESE MEETINGS DID NOT SIT WELL WITH THE GOVERNMENT OR THE MILITARY BUT OUR ATTITUDE WAS THAT AS LONG AS THESE GROUPS WERE INVOLVED IN LEGAL ACTIVITIES, THE EMBASSY HAD THE RIGHT AND OBLIGATION TO MEET THEM. WE SOUGHT OUT AND MET THE NEW HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN AND, ON THE OCCASION OF INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS DAY IN DECEMBER 1989, I JOINED HIM IN A TELEVISED STATEMENT FROM HIS OFFICE

AFFIRMING USG SUPPORT FOR THE OMBUDSMAN AND FOR PROGRESS ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN GUATEMALA. BOTH MY STAFF AND I HAVE HAD REPEATED PUBLIC AND PRIVATE MEETINGS WITH THE PRESIDENT, THE MINISTER OF DEFENSE, THE MINISTER OF GOVERNMENT, THE MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS, THE CHAIRMAN OF THE CONGRESSIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION, AND VARIOUS PRESIDENTS OF CONGRESS, ALL TO PUSH OUR HUMAN RIGHTS OBJECTIVES.

A NEW DEAL

16. IN THE SAME VEIN, WHEN IN DECEMBER 1989, TWO AMCIT MEMBERS OF THE PEACE BRIGADES INTERNATIONAL (PBI) WERE ATTACKED BY KNIFE-WIELDING ASSAILANTS, THE EMBASSY TOOK A VERY HIGH PROFILE IN ENSURING THE PROTECTION OF THE PBI MEMBERS; I CALLED ON THOSE WHO HAD BEEN INJURED AND LET THE PRESS KNOW THAT THE USG WAS ACTIVELY INTERESTED IN THE WELFARE OF ALL PBI ACTIVISTS. WE DEVELOPED A CLOSE RELATIONSHIP WITH THE GROUP--ONE NOT TRADITIONALLY FRIENDLY TO U.S. EMBASSIES--AND PROVIDE PBI VOLUNTEERS REGULAR POLITICAL AND SECURITY BRIEFINGS. WE ARE NOW INVITED TO ATTEND THEIR FUNCTIONS. WE HAVE RECENTLY CARRIED OUT A DEMARCHE SUPPORTING PBI EFFORTS TO BECOME A LEGALLY REGISTERED ORGANIZATION IN GUATEMALA.

WIELDING A (ROTARY) CLUB

17. BUT THE EVENT THAT RECEIVED THE MOST ATTENTION WAS A SPEECH TO THE ROTARY CLUB IN FEBRUARY 1990. THIS SPEECH CAME ON THE HEELS OF THE KIDNAPING AND MURDER IN GUATEMALA OF SALVADORAN LEFTIST POLITICIAN HECTOR

CONFIDENTIAL

OQUELI. A/S ARONSON INSTRUCTED US TO MAKE A VEHEMENT PRIVATE APPROACH TO PRESIDENT CEREZO ON THE IMPORTANCE OF RESOLVING THIS CASE IN A CREDIBLE MANNER (SOMETHING HIS GOG NEVER DID). WHEN IT BECAME CLEAR THE GOG WOULD TAKE NO ACTION, WE PUT TOGETHER A STRONG STATEMENT IN THE SPEECH MAKING CLEAR THE UNITED STATES COULD NOT MAINTAIN CORDIAL RELATIONS WITH ANY STATE THAT SYSTEMATICALLY VIOLATED HUMAN RIGHTS OR FAILED TO PROTECT THEM. WE SAID THAT THE INABILITY OF THE GOG TO PROTECT ITS CITIZENS FROM HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, IF CONTINUED, WOULD INEVITABLY DAMAGE THE BILATERAL RELATIONSHIP. WE CALLED FOR AN END TO IMPUNITY. CEREZO EXPLODED. HE OPENLY ACCUSED US OF TRYING TO HURT HIM IN RETALIATION FOR HIS "PRINCIPLED" OPPOSITION TO OUR SUPPORT FOR THE FREEDOM FIGHTERS IN NICARAGUA AND FOR GUATEMALA'S OPPOSITION TO "OPERATION JUST CAUSE" IN PANAMA. HE LET IT BE PUBLICLY "UNDERSTOOD" I DID NOT SPEAK FOR THE USG; HE PRIVATELY HINTED I WOULD BE PNG'D.

18. THE DEPARTMENT PROMPTLY RECALLED ME "FOR CONSULTATIONS" IN WASHINGTON AND A MEETING WITH THE PRESIDENT. I RETURNED TO GUATEMALA WITH A CAREFULLY DRAFTED LETTER FOR CEREZO IN WHICH THE DEPARTMENT MADE CLEAR THAT THE HUMAN RIGHTS LINE OF THE EMBASSY WAS, INDEED, THE HUMAN RIGHTS POLICY OF THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION. THE LETTER WAS PERSONALLY DELIVERED TO CEREZO. SUBSEQUENT PRESS STATEMENTS BY THE EMBASSY EMPHASIZED WE WOULD CONTINUE OUR HIGH PROFILE ON HUMAN RIGHTS AND THAT CONCERN FOR HUMAN RIGHTS WAS AN INTEGRAL PART OF THE U.S. FOREIGN POLICY TOWARDS THE GOG.

DEVINE JUSTICE

19. IN JUNE OF 1990, LONG-TIME GUATEMALA RESIDENT AMERICAN BUSINESSMAN MICHAEL DEVINE WAS KIDNAPED AND BRUTALLY MURDERED. IT SOON BECAME CLEAR HIS KILLERS WERE MILITARY PERSONNEL. IT ALSO BECAME CLEAR THAT THE MILITARY AND THE CEREZO GOVERNMENT HAD NO INTEREST IN SOLVING THIS CRIME AND PUNISHING ITS AUTHORS. FROM THE START, WE LET CEREZO AND HIS GOVERNMENT, MILITARY AND CIVILIAN, KNOW THAT THIS WAS A TEST CASE. THE U.S. COULD NOT GO ON WITH BUSINESS AS USUAL WITH A GOVERNMENT THAT ALLOWED MEMBERS OF ITS SECURITY APPARATUS TO KILL AMERICAN CITIZENS. EVEN MORE, WE COULD NOT AND WOULD NOT TOLERATE ANY COVER-UP OF SUCH AN ACT. WORKING CLOSELY WITH THE DEVINE FAMILY, WE DEVELOPED A LARGE BODY OF EVIDENCE THAT POINTED TO MILITARY INVOLVEMENT IN THE KILLING. WE PRESENTED THIS INFORMATION TO CEREZO AND GOT VERY LITTLE ACTION, WITH BUT ONE NOTABLE EXCEPTION. IN AN UNPRECEDENTED DEVELOPMENT, CEREZO FELT COMPELLED BY THE OVERWHELMING WEIGHT OF OUR EVIDENCE AND OUR CONSTANT REFERENCES TO THE CASE TO ACKNOWLEDGE OPENLY AND IN WRITING THAT THE CRIME SEEMED COMMITTED BY ARMY PERSONNEL. SEVERAL LOW-RANKING MILITARY WERE ARRESTED; BUT LEGAL PROCEEDINGS SEEMED TO GO NOWHERE.

THE BIG CHILL

20. WHILE WE HAD LONG ARGUED THAT SOME LEVEL OF MILITARY ASSISTANCE WAS NEEDED TO PROVIDE US LEVERAGE WITH THE ARMY, IT BECAME INCREASINGLY OBVIOUS THAT THERE WAS GOING TO BE NO FURTHER MOVEMENT ON DEVINE UNLESS WE

CONFIDENTIAL

ENGAGED IN ANOTHER BIT OF PUBLIC DIPLOMACY. IN DECEMBER 1990, WE RECOMMENDED AND THE DEPARTMENT AGREED TO SUSPEND CURRENT AS WELL AS FUTURE PIPELINE FMF ASSISTANCE (FOR A VALUE OF OVER DOLS 11 MILLION). THIS SUSPENSION, OF COURSE, UNLEASHED MORE ABUSE FROM CEREZO AND THEN-MINISTER OF DEFENSE BOLANOS. IT PUT US INTO AN AWKWARD POSITION WITH THE INCOMING PRESIDENT. WE FACED AN IMMEDIATE PROBLEM WITH THE NEW PRESIDENT WHEN WE INFORMED SERRANO OF OUR TERMS FOR RESUMING MILITARY AID: THE DEVINE CASE WOULD HAVE TO BE RESOLVED, THERE WOULD HAVE TO BE CONVICTIONS IN THE SANTIAGO MASSACRE, AND THERE WOULD HAVE TO BE OVERALL PROGRESS IN THE GOG'S HUMAN RIGHTS PERFORMANCE. HE JUST ABOUT THREW ME OUT OF HIS OFFICE WHEN I GAVE HIM OUR NON-PAPER BUT WE MADE AN IMPORTANT POINT: WE WOULD NOT PURSUE THE OTHER IMPORTANT GOALS WE HAVE BY IGNORING HUMAN RIGHTS.

21. THE SUSPENSION (NOT A COMPLETE CUT-OFF AS HAD BEEN DONE PREVIOUSLY) HAD THE INTENTION OF HOLDING OUT A CARROT FOR IMPROVED PERFORMANCE IN THE AREA OF HUMAN RIGHTS. WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE STILL SLOW-MOVING DEVINE CASE, WE HAVE INDEED SEEN PROGRESS ON HUMAN RIGHTS. WE CERTAINLY SEE A GROWING WISH ON THE PART OF THE GUATEMALAN MILITARY TO IMPROVE THE BILATERAL MILITARY RELATIONSHIP, AND THERE IS A GROWING UNDERSTANDING IN THE GUATEMALAN ARMY THAT RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS WILL TO A VERY CONSIDERABLE DEGREE DRIVE THAT RELATIONSHIP AND DETERMINE ITS FUTURE. THIS WAS THE MESSAGE DELIVERED, VERY CLEARLY, DURING THE 1991 VISIT OF ARMY SECRETARY MIKE STONE AND THE RECENT VISIT OF U.S. SECDEF CHENEY--THE MOST SENIOR US OFFICIAL TO

CONFIDENTIAL

VISIT GUATEMALA SINCE THE INAUGURATION OF PRESIDENT SERRANO. WE BELIEVE THE GOG AND ITS ARMY UNDERSTAND THESE MESSAGES VERY WELL.

THE BIG MACK CASE

22. DURING THE SERRANO ADMINISTRATION, WE HAVE KEPT UP OUR CONSULTATIONS WITH LOCAL HUMAN RIGHTS AND LABOR ACTIVISTS. WE WERE VERY ACTIVE IN OBTAINING THE ARREST IN LOS ANGELES OF THE MAN SUSPECTED OF HAVING MURDERED GUATEMALAN ANTHROPOLOGIST AND SOCIAL RESEARCHER MYRNA MACK CHANG (A MURDER WHICH TOOK PLACE UNDER THE CEREZO ADMINISTRATION). WE HAVE BEEN FOLLOWING THIS KEY HUMAN RIGHTS CASE VERY CLOSELY. IN FACT, I VISITED THE MACK FAMILY WHEN THEY TOLD US OF THREATS TO THEIR SAFETY AND HAVE ATTENDED TWO PUBLIC CATHOLIC MASSES FOR HELEN MACK (ALONG WITH OTHER MEMBERS OF THE STAFF, I HAVE ALSO ATTENDED MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR SLAIN STREET CHILDREN). THE VISIT TO THE MACK FAMILY GOT CONSIDERABLE LOCAL PUBLICITY AND IRRITATED SERRANO.

DIGGING UP THE PAST

23. OUR POLITICAL OFFICERS HAVE PARTICIPATED IN THE LOCATING AND EXHUMATION OF VICTIMS OF PAST POLITICAL

VIOLENCE IN SOME OF THE MOST CONFLICTIVE AREAS OF GUATEMALA. THEY HAVE VISITED REMOTE AND VIOLENT AREAS OF GUATEMALA TO PROVIDE A MORE COMPLETE AND ACCURATE PICTURE OF THE NATION'S HUMAN RIGHTS SCENE. POLITICAL AND CONSULAR OFFICERS HAVE ACCOMPANIED "CASA ALIANZA" STAFF ON ROUNDS TO STREET CHILDREN HAUNTS; WE HAVE

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

SPOKEN OUT AGAINST EFFORTS TO INTIMIDATE THOSE WHO WORK WITH THESE CHILDREN. IN FACT, WE HAVE EXCELLENT RELATIONS WITH "CASA ALIANZA" AND MAINTAIN REGULAR CONTACT WITH THEM. WE RECENTLY MET AN INJURED SURVIVOR OF THE SANTIAGO MASSACRE, BACK IN GUATEMALA AFTER TREATMENT IN THE U.S.

PROTECTING THE PRESENT

24. THE EMBASSY HAS EXTENDED PROTECTION TO THE DEPUTY HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN AND TO POLITICIANS (SUCH AS LUIS ZURITA) WHEN THEY SUFFERED THREATS. WE ARE HELPING PROTECT THE ACTIVIST ATTORNEY GENERAL, PROVIDING HIM A BULLET-PROOF CAR AND A CELLULAR PHONE. WE HAVE VISITED THE USAC RECTOR AND MET LEADERS OF THE STUDENT MOVEMENT WHEN THEY, TOO, FELT THEY UNDER THREAT. OUR ACTIVE USIS OFFICE, WHICH HAS SUPERB RELATIONS WITH THE PRESS AND ACADEMIC COMMUNITY, HAS MANAGED TO REESTABLISH A CONSTRUCTIVE RELATIONSHIP WITH THAT ONCE ANTI-AMERICAN UNIVERSITY AND ITS STUDENT MOVEMENT. WE HAVE INTERVENED WITH THE GOG COUNTLESS TIMES TO STRESS CONCERNS FOR THE PERSONAL SAFETY OF ACTIVISTS SUCH AS AMILCAR MENDEZ. WE HAVE HAD MEETINGS WITH PROMINENT HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS AND HAVE PUBLICIZED THOSE TO DRIVE HOME THE CONCERN OF THE USG FOR THE SAFETY OF EVERYONE ENGAGED IN PEACEFUL, LEGAL PURSUITS. WE HAVE MANAGED TO DEVELOP A STEADILY EXPANDING AND EXTRAORDINARY RANGE OF CONTACTS IN THE AREA OF HUMAN RIGHTS. WE NOW HAVE BY FAR THE WIDEST RANGE OF SUCH CONTACTS OF ANY EMBASSY HERE. AN EMBASSY HUMAN RIGHTS BRIEFING IS A MUST STOP FOR COUNTLESS NUMBERS OF JOURNALISTS, HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS AND

CONFIDENTIAL

ACTIVISTS. WE CONSIDER THIS AN ESSENTIAL PART OF OUR EFFORT TO IMPROVE RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS IN GUATEMALA.

THE ELUSIVE TRUTH

25. WE HAVE NOT LET UP ON THE SR. DIANA ORTIZ MATTER. FROM DAY ONE, WE HAVE INSISTED ALL PARTIES COOPERATE TO FIND THE TRUTH OF WHAT HAPPENED TO ORTIZ NOVEMBER 2-3, 1989. WE NIPPED IN THE BUD EFFORTS BY SOME AROUND ORTIZ TO PORTRAY THE EMBASSY AS A VILLAIN AND AN ACCOMPLICE IN WHAT HAPPENED. ORTIZ IS NOW DUE TO ARRIVE IN GUATEMALA NEXT MONTH TO TESTIFY AND WILL, FOR HER PROTECTION AND EASE OF MIND, STAY AT MY RESIDENCE--A DEVELOPMENT UNTHINKABLE AT THE OUTSET OF THIS CASE WHEN OUR OFFICERS WERE ACCUSED EITHER OF HAVING TAKEN PART IN HER ALLEGED TORTURE OR TRYING TO COVER IT UP.

26. WE HAVE ALSO CONTINUED WITH THE PRECEDENT ESTABLISHED BY THE 1989 HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT. BOTH OUR 1990 AND 1991 REPORTS, WERE ACCURATE, FACTUAL, DETAILED, AND HARD-HITTING ACCOUNTS OF THE GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS SCENE. IN FACT, WE HAVE HAD THE ONCE ANTI-US HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP TELL US OUR REPORTS ARE THE BEST ONES ON GUATEMALA--AND THAT INCLUDES REPORTS BY THEIR OWN PEOPLE. WE HAVE RECEIVED PRAISE FROM ORGANIZATIONS AS TRADITIONALLY CRITICAL OF DEPARTMENT REPORTING AS THE WASHINGTON OFFICE ON LATIN AMERICA AND AMERICA'S WATCH. THE GOG HAS REACTED NEGATIVELY TO THE REPORTS, TO THE EXTENT OF DEMANDING REVISIONS. HOWEVER, LOCAL REACTION FROM PRESS, PUBLIC, HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, AND ACTIVISTS HAS BEEN UNIFORMLY FAVORABLE.

PEACE AND QUIET

27. WE HAVE ALSO WORKED CLOSELY WITH THE GOG TO HELP END THE 31-YEAR-OLD INTERNAL ARMED CONFLICT. OUR QUIET SUPPORT FOR THE NATIONAL RECONCILIATION COMMISSION (CNR), WHICH INCLUDES FUNDING ITS TRAVEL EXPENSES AND PER DIEM, AND OUR LOW-KEY BEHIND-THE-SCENES SUPPORT FOR THE GOG IN ITS DIFFICULT NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE GUERRILLA LEADERS IN MEXICO HAS HELPED ASSURE THE GOG THAT, DESPITE THE CRITICISMS WE LEVEL, WE WANT TO SEE IT SUCCEED IN ENDING A WAR WHICH STILL SERVES AS A PRIMARY EXCUSE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS BY BOTH SIDES AND PREVENTS MEANINGFUL EFFORTS TO ADDRESS THE COUNTRY'S PRESSING SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC PROBLEMS.

DOING OUR BIT

28. OUR ACTIVIST STANCE HAS CONTRIBUTED IN A REAL WAY TO THE PROCESS OF HUMAN RIGHTS IMPROVEMENT WHICH IS UNDERWAY. A GREAT DEAL OF WORK NEEDS TO BE DONE. BUT WITH A JUDICIOUS COMBINATION OF PRIVATE AND PUBLIC DIPLOMACY WE ARE POISED TO HELP GUATEMALA AND ITS WELL-MEANING CURRENT GOVERNMENT ACHIEVE MUCH MORE IN THE AREA OF RESPECT FOR FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS. THE ROLE PLAYED BY THE U.S. GOVERNMENT IN ACHIEVING PROGRESS IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS AREA IN GUATEMALA IS SOMETHING IN WHICH ALL

INVOLVED CAN FEEL A JUSTIFIABLE SENSE OF PRIDE. STROOCK

2. (U) THREE THEMES DOMINATED THE HUMAN RIGHTS SCENE IN JANUARY AND FEBRUARY: RELEASE OF ANNUAL HUMAN RIGHTS REPORTS; UNITED NATIONS HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION MEETINGS IN GENEVA; AND A NOTICEABLE INCREASE IN DOMESTIC CRIME. IN LATE JANUARY, THE USG, THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN (GT 01360; GT 0156), THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE (GT 04751), CAN (GT 0725; GT 0615), AND OTHER HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS RELEASED 1991 REPORTS. PRESIDENT SERRANO, PUBLICLY AND PRIVATELY, FUMED OVER THE "UNFAIR" TONE OF THE DEPARTMENT'S REPORT. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN REPORTED THAT SERIOUS PROBLEMS PERSIST, BUT NOTED IMPROVEMENTS. MOST OTHER ORGANIZATIONS REPORTED EITHER NO CHANGE OR AN INCREASE IN VIOLATIONS OVER THE PRIOR YEAR.

SUBJECT: GUATEMALA HUMAN RIGHTS SUMMARY: JANUARY-FEBRUARY 1992

GENEVA ATTRACTED CONSIDERABLE ATTENTION DURING BOTH MONTHS. FOREIGN MINISTRY OFFICIALS AND HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS TRAVELLED TO EUROPE PRIOR TO THE MEETINGS TO MARSHALL SUPPORT (GT 01945; GT 01337). U.N. HUMAN RIGHTS ADVISER CHRISTIAN TOMUSCHAT VISITED GUATEMALA FEBRUARY 12-15 TO FINALIZE HIS REPORT TO THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (GT 01757). THE COMMISSION RESOLUTION EXPRESSED CONCERN ABOUT THE GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION BUT CONTINUED U.N. "ADVISORY" ASSISTANCE RATHER THAN APPOINT AN ITEM 12 "RAPPORTEUR" (GT 02376).

4. (LOU) COMMON CRIME ROSE SHARPLY. THE INTERIOR MINISTER AND THE POLICE CHIEF ACKNOWLEDGED AN INCREASE, ALTHOUGH OFFICIAL STATISTICS INDICATED A DECREASE IN 1991 COMPARED TO 1990. SEVERAL SPECTACULAR ROBBERIES, INCLUDING A WAVE OF BANK HEISTS DURING THE LAST WEEK OF FEBRUARY, MAY EXPLAIN A GENERAL PERCEPTION THAT CRIME GREW BEYOND THE CONTROL OF THE GOVERNMENT (GT 01237).

5. (U) DC YOUTH LEADER IN QUICHE: ON JANUARY 16, CONGRESSMAN CLAUDIO COXAJ TSUN (DC, QUICHE) DENOUNCED TO REPORTERS THE KIDNAPPING, TORTURE AND MURDER OF ROCELIO GRAVE PALIOS, A DC

YOUTH LEADER IN QUICHE. COXAJ CLAIMED EYEWITNESSES COULD

IDENTIFY THE PERPETRATORS; THE PRESS REPORTED NO FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS.

6. (U) CIUDAD PERONIA: ON JANUARY 17, ARMED SOLDIERS KILLED FOUR PEOPLE IN CIUDAD PERONIA, A POOR SUBURB OF THE CAPITAL. ON JANUARY 21, TWO ENLISTED MEN WERE ARRESTED AND ACCUSED OF THE MURDERS. A MILITARY COURT CONVICTED BOTH MEN ON FEBRUARY 27 AND SENTENCED THEM TO 30 YEARS IN PRISON AND A 1,000 QUETZALES (APPROXIMATELY USD 300) FINE. THE ARMY, WHICH CONDUCTED THE INVESTIGATION OF THE CASE, CONSIDERS THE MATTER CLOSED. HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS BELIEVE INVESTIGATIONS SHOULD CONTINUE; THEY BELIEVE AS MANY AS EIGHT MILITARY WERE INVOLVED IN THE CRIME (GT 0723). THE ATTORNEY GENERAL HAS APPEALED THE SENTENCE, REQUESTING THE DEATH PENALTY BE IMPOSED.

7. (LOU) PATULUL MASSACRE: ON FEBRUARY 9, ARMED MEN HIJACKED A PUBLIC BUS AND SUBSEQUENTLY MURDERED SIX PASSENGERS IN CONFLICTIVE PATULUL (SUCHITEPEQUEZ). LOCAL ACTIVISTS BLAMED THE ARMY FOR THE KILLINGS, AND THE MAYOR OF NEARBY SANTIAGO ATITLAN CLAIMED TO HAVE PROOF. THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE HAS CONCLUDED THAT ROBBERY WAS THE MOTIVE FOR THE HIJACKING AND POLITICS WERE NOT BEHIND THE MURDERS; THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, THE MAYOR OF PATULUL, AND THE EMBASSY AGREE (GT 02857; GT 01557; GT 01654).

8. (U) "WAVE OF TERROR" AT SAN CARLOS UNIVERSITY: ON JANUARY 30, A BOMB EXPLODED AT THE OFFICE OF THE UNIVERSITY STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION (AEU). AEU SECRETARY GENERAL OTTO PERALTA ATTRIBUTED THE EXPLOSION TO THE ARMY, WHICH RESPONDED BY SUING FOR DEFAMATION. THE CASE WAS SETTLED OUT OF COURT. ON FEBRUARY 16, GUNMEN MURDERED 27-YEAR-OLD SAN CARLOS UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR MANUEL ESTUARDO PENA. THE MURDER OCCURRED OUTSIDE HIS GUATEMALA CITY HOME AT 22:00 HOURS AFTER UNKNOWN PERSONS SHOWED THE VICTIM'S PHOTOGRAPH TO HIS WIFE WHILE INQUIRING INTO HIS WHEREABOUTS. VARIOUS STUDENTS AND PROFESSORS ALSO RECEIVED DEATH THREATS, PROMPTING SOME TO LEAVE GUATEMALA TEMPORARILY. THE ATMOSPHERE AT SAN CARLOS BECAME TENSE, WITH MANY FEARING A REPEAT OF THE UNSOLVED AUGUST-SEPTEMBER 1989 DISAPPEARANCES AND MURDERS OF 11 STUDENTS AND FACULTY. THE UNIVERSITY RECTOR DENOUNCED A "NEW WAVE OF TERROR" AT THE CAMPUS (GT 02787; GT 02851; GT 02952; GT 01686).

SUBJECT: GUATEMALA HUMAN RIGHTS SUMMARY: JANUARY-FEBRUARY 1992

COURT ORDERED THE REARREST OF CAPT. HUGO CONTRERAS ALVARADO, THE PETEN INTELLIGENCE SECTION CHIEF AT THE TIME OF THE JUNE 1990 MURDER OF ANGLI MICHAEL DEVINE. CONTRERAS WILL FACE CHARGES IN A MILITARY COURT. HE AND 10 ENLISTED MEN ARE DETAINED IN THE CAPITAL FOR THEIR ALLEGED ROLE IN THE MURDER. IN A SEPARATE DEVELOPMENT ON JANUARY 24, POLOFFS INTERVIEWED A TRUCK DRIVER WHO SAYS HE WAS WORKING NEAR THE CRIME SCENE ON THE DAY OF THE MURDER. THE TRUCK DRIVER CLAIMS TO KNOW NOTHING OF THE MURDER, BUT SAYS HE SPENT A YEAR IN A PETEN JAIL AFTER POLICE FOUND AN OLD RECEIPT BEARING HIS NAME NEAR WHERE DEVINE'S BODY WAS FOUND.

10. (U) ESCUINTLA MASSACRE: ON FEBRUARY 1, NAVY CAPT. RUBEN ANIBAL CIROY ARRIOLA, THE PACIFIC MILITARY ZONE COMMANDER WHEN 11 CIVILIANS WERE MURDERED NEAR ESCUINTLA IN AUGUST 1991, RESIGNED HIS COMMISSION UNDER PRESSURE. IN LATE 1991, THE ATTORNEY GENERAL CLAIMED CIROY HAD CONFESSED TO INVOLVEMENT IN THE MURDERS. ON FEBRUARY 18, A CIVILIAN COURT DENIED THE REQUEST OF THREE LOWER-RANKING NAVY PERSONNEL TO DISMISS CHARGES RELATED TO THE MASSACRE. THE REQUEST WAS AN APPEAL TO A MILITARY COURT DECISION FINDING SUFFICIENT EVIDENCE EXISTED TO PROCEED WITH CRIMINAL CHARGES AGAINST SEVEN DEFENDANTS.

11. (U) MACK MURDER: IN JANUARY, INDIVIDUALS INVOLVED IN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS AGAINST NOEL DE JESUS BETETA ALVAREZ, THE ACCUSED MURDERER OF GUATEMALAN ANTHROPOLOGIST MYRNA MACK CHANG, CLAIMED TO RECEIVE DEATH THREATS. ON FEBRUARY 6, CHARGES PENDING AGAINST BETETA FOR THE MACK MURDER AND FOR INJURIES SUSTAINED BY A MINOR IN AMATITLAN WERE CONSOLIDATED INTO ONE CASE. ON FEBRUARY 28, THE CIVIL JUDGE PRESIDING OVER THOSE PROCEEDINGS ORDERED THE CASE TRANSFERRED TO A MILITARY COURT AS BETETA WAS IN THE ARMY WHEN THE MACK MURDER OCCURRED. THE ORDER CAME UNEXPECTEDLY ON THE JUDGE'S OWN MOTION. THE CASE IS TEMPORARILY STALLED PENDING AN APPEAL BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL OF THE TRANSFER ORDER (GT 02850).

12. (LOU) MERIDA ESCOBAR MURDER: ON JANUARY 3, JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS OPENED AGAINST THE ACCUSED MURDERERS OF JOSE MIGUEL MERIDA ESCOBAR, THE FORMER NATIONAL POLICE HEAD OF HOMICIDE INVESTIGATIONS MURDERED ON AUGUST 5, 1991. ONE OF THE CASES BEING INVESTIGATED BY MERIDA AT THE TIME OF HIS DEATH WAS THE MYRNA MACK CASE. THE GOG CONSIDERS THE MURDER A PERSONAL NOT POLITICAL CRIME, BUT THE DIRECTOR OF THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE TOLD POLOFF IN JANUARY HE BELIEVES THE DEFENDANTS, ALFREDO DE JESUS GUERRA CALDERO AND GONZALO CIFUENTES ESTRADA, ARE INNOCENT SCAPEGOATS.

13. (LOU) ANSON NG YONG MURDER: ON JANUARY 5, POLICE ARRESTED DAVID EDUARDO LANZA MARROQUIN, FOR THE JULY 1991 MURDER OF FREE-LANCE BRITISH JOURNALIST ANSON NG YONG. 29. (U) URNG'S 30 YEAR ANNIVERSARY: THE URNG MARKED ITS TENTH YEAR OF UNIFIED GUERRILLA INSURGENCY ON FEBRUARY 7. URNG LEADERS DISCUSSED THEIR MOVEMENT'S GOALS ON A NATIONALLY-TELEVISED INTERVIEW PROGRAM. THE LEADERS, WHO WERE INTERVIEWED IN MEXICO, WERE NOTABLY INARTICULATE, PROMPTING AT LEAST ONE GUATEMALAN COLUMNIST TO WRITE ON JANUARY 27 THAT THEY WERE OUT OF TOUCH WITH THE NATIONAL REALITY.

30. (U) ARMED CLASHES AND SOVIET WEAPONS: MEANWHILE, LOW-INTENSITY OPERATIONS AND BRIEF CLASHES CONTINUED. ON JANUARY 24, TWO BOMBS WERE DEFUSED IN ZONE 9 OF THE CAPITAL. ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS, THE GUERRILLA ARMY OF THE POOR (EGP) PLANTED THE EXPLOSIVES TO COINCIDE WITH THAT ORGANIZATION'S TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY. ON JANUARY 25, URNG PARTISANS ATTACKED A POLICE STATION IN ESCUINTLA -- DESPITE ASSURANCES IN LATE 1991 THAT ATTACKS AGAINST AGAINST POLICE STATIONS WOULD CEASE -- AND HELD A 30-MINUTE POLITICAL MEETING AFTERWARD. THERE WERE SEVERAL OTHER BRIEF CLASHES NEAR ESCUINTLA DURING THE LAST WEEK OF JANUARY AND IN MID-FEBRUARY. ON FEBRUARY 24, GUERRILLAS ATTACKED A MILITARY CONVOY IN SAN

MATEO, QUETZALTENANGO, RESULTING IN THE DEATHS OF THREE ARMY AND

TWO GUERRILLA PERSONNEL. THE DEFENSE MINISTER RESPONDED BY CRITICIZING THE REBELS, REMARKING ON JANUARY 27 THAT THE ENGAGEMENTS WERE NOT MILITARY OPERATIONS, BUT RATHER "ASSAULTS" COMMITTED BY "CRIMINAL TERRORISTS." ARMY SPOKESMAN CAPT. ALBERTO YON RIVERA OBSERVED ON JANUARY 29 THAT SOVIET ARMS ARE NOW PREDOMINANT AMONG INSURGENTS; HE SPECULATED THAT SOME WEAPONRY MAY BE ENTERING GUATEMALA FROM EL SALVADOR.

31. (U) GUERRILLA DEFECTORS: AT A TELEVISED JANUARY 24 PRESS CONFERENCE AT THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE, AN ARMY SPOKESMAN TURNED OVER TO OMBUDSMAN RAMIRO DE LEON FIVE GUERRILLA DEFECTORS AND ONE FORMER MEMBER OF A GUERRILLA-RUN CPR (COMMUNITY OF POPULAR RESISTANCE) VILLAGE. ORPA MEMBER VERONICA ORTIZ HERNANDEZ, WHOSE CAPTURE LAST OCTOBER LED TO URNG AND "AMERICAS WATCH" DEMANDS FOR HER FREEDOM, WAS AMONG THOSE RELEASED. ALL TOLD THE PRESS THEY WERE ABANDONED OR "DECEIVED" BY THE GUERRILLAS, AND WERE WELL-TREATED BY THE ARMY AFTER SURRENDERING. THEY CALLED ON THEIR EX-COMRADES TO DO LIKEWISE. THE PRESS IMPLIED SUBSEQUENTLY THAT THE "GUERRILLAS" WERE ACTUALLY "SOLDIERS", AND THAT THE ARMY STAGED THE EVENT. IN FACT, HOWEVER, IT APPEARS THE ARMY FOLLOWED ITS STANDARD PRACTICE OF USING GUERRILLA DEFECTORS TO HELP DISMANTLE GUERRILLA OPERATIONS, LOCATE WEAPONS' CACHES, AND ANALYZE GUERRILLA TACTICS AND STRATEGY. TWO GUERRILLAS APPARENTLY RECEIVED ARMY FINANCIAL AID AFTER THEIR DEFECTION, BUT THEY NEVER SERVED IN THE ARMY. (GT 00338)

32. (U) MILITARY DRAFT BOARD ESTABLISHED: IN RESPONSE TO COMPLAINTS ABOUT FORCED RECRUITMENT OF CONSCRIPTS, THE NATION'S FIRST DRAFT BOARD WAS ESTABLISHED IN QUICHE ON FEBRUARY 27.

THE NEW BOARD INCLUDES THE ZONE MILITARY COMMANDER AND A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE OMBUDSMAN'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE. THE ZONE COMMANDER, WHO EXPRESSED THE HOPE SIMILAR BOARDS WOULD BE ESTABLISHED THROUGHOUT THE NATION, EXPLAINED THAT DRAFTEES WOULD RECEIVE THREE NOTICES BEFORE MILITARY PERSONNEL WOULD LOCATE THOSE FAILING TO REPORT VOLUNTARILY.

33. (U) CHILD GUERRILLA: ON JANUARY 13, GOVERNMENT TROOPS FOUND MARIO CATUJ SALVADOR, A 12-YEAR-OLD GUERRILLA, AFTER AN ARMED ENGAGEMENT WITH GUERRILLAS AT PATULUL, SUCHITEPEQUEZ. CATUJ WAS REPORTEDLY FOUND BURIED TO THE WAIST SUFFERING FROM MALNUTRITION, DEHYDRATION, DIARRHEA, AND PNEUMONIA. MILITARY AUTHORITIES SENT HIM TO THE CAPITAL FOR MEDICAL TREATMENT, WHERE HE DIED ON JANUARY 15. ACCORDING TO A MILITARY SPOKESMAN, CATUJ WORKED ON A FARM IN ESCUINTLA, WHEN HE WAS

for Diana Ortiz file 3/24/92

Phone call from John Arndt. He wanted to let us know that he had just received a phone call from Paul Soreff's office. Soreff is concerned about the public statements made by Lic. Linares saying that the case is about to close, etc. They are concerned that because Linares has made these statements, it will look like Diana Ortiz is only coming to Guatemala under pressure from lic. Linares.

Soreff's staffer also asked about having somebody from the Senate (from a committee called something like the Congressional committee on justice in Central America or somethihg like that) be present at the Diana Ortiz meeting where she gives her testimony. They wanted assurances that such a person would be allowed into the Ambassador's residence. John said that he told Soreff's office that all parties whom both sides had agreed could be present at the session would be welcome in the Ambassador's residence, but that as far as he knew the Guatemalans had not agreed to having a Senatorial staffer present. Soreff's aide then asked what the Embassy's position was about this, and John said that we had no position - that it was entirely up to the Guatemalans. John said that the Ambassador was providing his house as a venue so that Sister Ortiz would feel safe, but that the participants in the meeting had to be agreed upon by both sides, and that offering the residence as a venue did not mean that we had any say over who would participate.

In the event that the Guatemalans do agree to have a U.S. congressional staffer present, Soreff's office is proposing that it be a staffer from the office of Senator Jeff Bingaman of New Mexico.

SUBJECT: INITIAL VENEZUELAN REACTION TO DEVELOPMENTS IN PERU

1. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ -- ENTIRE TEXT.

2. AS OF COB APRIL 6, GOV HAD STILL NOT REACTED OFFICIALLY TO ACTION TAKEN BY PRESIDENT FUJIMORI. FOREIGN MINISTER'S CHIEF OF STAFF (AMBASSADOR LOPEZ) TOLD CHARGE THAT A CONDEMNATORY "GOVERNMENT COMMUNIQUE" WOULD BE RELEASED LATER THIS EVENING. LOPEZ ADDED THAT CAP HAD INSTRUCTED VENEZUELAN OAS PERMREP TO SUPPORT CONVOKING OF MEETING OF OAS FOREIGN MINISTERS AT PERMANENT COUNCIL MEETING TO TAKE PLACE THIS EVENING IN WASHINGTON. IN ADDITION, LOPEZ INDICATED THAT REPRESENTATIVES OF RIO GROUP COUNTRIES ARE MEETING THIS AFTERNOON TO DECIDE ON OTHER MEASURES THE GROUP WILL SUPPORT.

3. COMMENT. BY VENEZUELAN STANDARDS, THIS IS A VERY SLOW REACTION. GIVEN THE SITUATION IN THIS COUNTRY, CAP HAS TO BE ESPECIALLY CONCERNED BY EVENTS IN PERU. THE DELAY MAY BE DUE TO THE VERY UNUSUAL FORM THEY HAVE TAKEN AND BY THE PERSONAL RELATIONSHIP HE HAD BUILT WITH FUJIMORI. ON THE OTHER HAND, WE HAVE BEEN TOLD (BY ALAN GARCIA'A FOREIGN MINISTER AND NOW OAS REP HERE, LUIS GONZALEZ POSADA) THAT CAP WAS ON THE PHONE EARLY TODAY WITH APRISTA LEADERS IN PERU EXPRESSING CATEGORICAL SOLIDARITY. GONZALEZ POSADA ALSO INDICATED THAT GARCIA ESCAPED BEING TAKEN PRISONER.

1. THIS STUDY WAS CONDUCTED BY A JUNIOR OFFICER ON A ONE-MONTH ROTATION THROUGH THE POLITICAL SECTION.

2. INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: JAMAICA HAS BEEN TROUBLED BY THE PERSISTENT PROBLEM OF NARCOTICS. ONE OF THE WORLD'S LEADING PRODUCERS OF MARIJUANA (BEHIND THE U.S., MEXICO, AND COLOMBIA), JAMAICA IS ESTIMATED TO SUPPLY 10 TO 15 PERCENT OF THE MARIJUANA IMPORTED INTO THE U.S. IN RECENT YEARS, THE ISLAND HAS BEEN USED AS A MINOR TRANSHIPMENT

POINT FOR COCAINE FROM SOUTH AMERICA; THE AMOUNT OF COCAINE SEIZED IN 1990 (1,672 LBS) WAS ALMOST 60 TIMES THE AMOUNT CONFISCATED IN 1989 (28 LBS.) THE PREVALENCE OF NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING HAS MIRRORED THE GROWTH OF A DRUG ABUSE CRISIS WHICH AFFECTS ALL LEVELS OF JAMAICAN SOCIETY, BUT HAS HIT HARD PARTICULARLY AMONG YOUNG MALES (AGED 15 TO 25) IN LOWER INCOME URBAN AREAS (REFTEL). SURVEYS FROM THE NATION'S MOST RESPECTED POLLSTER, CARL STONE, INDICATED IN 1990 THAT 9.6 PERCENT OF THE POPULATION (240,000 PERSONS) USED MARIJUANA REGULARLY, WHILE .89 PERCENT (22,000 PERSONS) WERE CURRENT USERS OF COCAINE. SOCIETAL SURROUNDINGS, ECONOMIC CONDITIONS, LACK OF LAW ENFORCEMENT, AS WELL AS PUBLIC AND OFFICIAL ATTITUDES ARE IMPORTANT FACTORS IN UNDERSTANDING NARCOTICS CONSUMPTION IN JAMAICA. IN PARTICULAR, THERE IS A SHARP DISTINCTION BETWEEN THE VIEW OF MARIJUANA AS AN NONTHREATENING INDIGENOUS TRADITION AND THE PERCEPTION OF COCAINE AS A DESTRUCTIVE OUTSIDE THREAT. IF DRUG ABUSE IS TO BE REDUCED, AREAS THAT MUST BE EMPHASIZED ARE ENFORCEMENT OF EXISTING NARCOTICS LAWS, NEW LEGAL STRATEGIES TO TARGET LARGE-SCALE TRAFFICKERS, PUBLIC EDUCATION AND EMPLOYMENT FOR YOUTH AT RISK, AND EXPANSION OF EXISTING REHABILITATION PROGRAMS. END INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY.

CLIMATE FOR SUBSTANCE ABUSE: AN ADDICTIVE SOCIETY

3. ATTITUDES TOWARDS NARCOTICS ARE AN IMPORTANT DETERMINANT OF THE GENERAL CLIMATE FOR SUBSTANCE ABUSE IN JAMAICA. JAMAICA COULD BE CALLED AN "ADDICTIVE SOCIETY," DUE TO THE RELATIVELY HIGH LEVELS OF CIGARETTE, ALCOHOL AND MARIJUANA CONSUMPTION. SURVEYS DONE IN 1989 INQUIRED WHETHER THE RESPONDENT USED CIGARETTES, ALCOHOL, AND MARIJUANA; ROUGHLY 40 PERCENT OF JAMAICAN MEN ANSWERED "YES" ON EACH SUBSTANCE. TWENTY PERCENT OF JAMAICAN WOMEN RESPONDED "YES" ON EACH SUBSTANCE. IT IS DIFFICULT TO CONVINCE THE MAJORITY OF JAMAICANS OF THE ADDICTIVE PROPERTIES OF SUCH SUBSTANCES. GANJA USE DATES BACK OVER 100

YEARS, WHILE USE OF 150-PROOF WHITE RUM TO THE POINT OF INEBRIATION IS COMMONPLACE AMONG RURAL MALES. THE MAJORITY OF JAMAICANS (86 PERCENT FOR ALCOHOL AND 73 PERCENT FOR MARIJUANA) DO NOT BELIEVE THESE DRUGS ARE HARMFUL IF TAKEN IN MODERATION. ALTHOUGH THE PUBLIC REACTION TOWARDS COCAINE IS MUCH LESS TOLERANT (83 PERCENT OF JAMAICANS AGREE THAT COCAINE IS DANGEROUS EVEN IN MODERATION), ALL OF THE RECOVERING COCAINE ADDICTS

AT JAMAICA'S FOUR DRUG REHABILITATION CENTERS ARE POLYABUSERS, WITH A COMMON HISTORY OF ADDICTION FROM ALCOHOL TO MARIJUANA TO COCAINE. OTHER HARD DRUGS, SUCH AS HEROIN, LYSERGIC ACID (LSD), AMPHETAMINES AND BARBITUATES, ARE NOT USED IN SIGNIFICANT QUANTITIES BY JAMAICANS.

DESTROYED IN 1990) WHICH HAVE GREATLY REDUCED SUPPLIES OF THE DRUG. GIVEN THE CULTURAL SIGNIFICANCE AND HISTORICAL USE OF MARIJUANA IN JAMAICA, NO AMOUNT OF DEMAND REDUCTION EFFORT WILL ENTIRELY ELIMINATE CASUAL USE OF THE DRUG; AS ONE OFFICIAL OF THE JAMAICAN NATIONAL COUNCIL ON DRUG ABUSE (NCDA) STATED, "IT WOULD BE LIKE CONVINCING THE FRENCH TO STOP DRINKING WINE..."

5. A NUMBER OF FACTORS HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO GENERAL PUBLIC ACCEPTANCE OF MARIJUANA USE IN JAMAICA. FOR ONE, THERE IS THE PERCEPTION THAT MARIJUANA HAS POSITIVE MEDICINAL BENEFITS, PARTICULARLY THE USE OF "GANJA TEA" AS A FOLK REMEDY. MORRIS CARGILL, A WIDELY RESPECTED NEWSPAPER COLUMNIST OF BRITISH ANCESTRY, WROTE A RECENT ARTICLE MENTIONING HIS NIGHTLY USE OF HOME-BREWED GANJA TEA AS A TRADITIONAL HEALTH DRINK. IN THE SAME COLUMN CARGILL POKED FUN AT AMERICAN INTOLERANCE FOR MARIJUANA USE, AND HE SPECULATED AS TO WHETHER HIS DECLARATION WOULD PLACE HIM AT ODDS WITH THE U.S. EMBASSY.

6. ANOTHER FACTOR WHICH HAS ADDED TO PUBLIC TOLERANCE OF MARIJUANA IS RASTAFARIANISM. AN ALTERNATIVE LIFESTYLE AS WELL AS A RELIGION, RASTAFARIANISM FIRST TOOK ROOT IN JAMAICA IN THE 1960'S. THE RELIGION ESPOUSES A BLACK NATIONALIST IDEOLOGY WHICH PROMOTES THE CULTURE OF THE AFRICAN DIASPORA AND REPATRIATION TO THE MOTHERLAND OF ETHIOPIA, WITH THE LATE ETHIOPIAN EMPEROR HAILE SELASSIE SERVING AS CENTRAL DEITY. A MAJOR ASPECT OF RASTAFARIAN CULTURE IS MARIJUANA SMOKING, WHICH IS PERCEIVED AS A RELIGIOUS RITE EVEN THOUGH SUCH USAGE IS STILL PUNISHABLE UNDER JAMAICAN LAW. ALTHOUGH ADHERENTS ARE RELATIVELY FEW (RASTAFARIANS MAKE UP UNDER 5 PERCENT OF THE JAMAICAN POPULATION) THE RELIGION HAS INCREASED THE APPEAL OF MARIJUANA PARTICULARLY THROUGH THE POPULARITY OF RASTAFARIAN REGGAE ARTISTS, SUCH AS THE LATE BOB MARLEY. AS A CONSEQUENCE, THE DREADLOCKED APPEARANCE AND SMOKING HABITS OF RASTAFARIANS ARE OFTEN IMITATED BY PERSONS WHO HAVE NO CONNECTION TO THE RELIGION. IN ADDITION, RASTAFARIANISM ENCOURAGES MARIJUANA SMOKING EQUALLY FOR BOTH MEN AND WOMEN, CHALLENGING THE TRADITIONAL JAMAICAN VIEW THAT MARIJUANA USE IS SOCIALLY UNACCEPTABLE FOR FEMALES.

7. IN ADDITION TO PROVIDING A FOCAL POINT FOR RASTAFARIAN CULTURE, MARIJUANA ACTS A SOCIAL LUBRICANT IN RURAL AREAS, AS FARM LABORERS AND CANE CUTTERS TRADITIONALLY SMOKE TOGETHER AFTER A DAY'S WORK. IN THE 1970S, RESEARCH BY AMERICAN SOCIOLOGIST MELANIE DREHER INDICATED LIFETIME MARIJUANA USAGE RATES OF OVER 90 PERCENT AMONG RURAL MALES. ALTHOUGH THE 1990 CARL STONE SURVEY SHOWS A LOWER LIFETIME USAGE IN RURAL AREAS (41 PERCENT), THE SAME STUDY INDICATES THAT 93 PERCENT OF RURAL RESIDENTS SEE NO HARM IN MARIJUANA CONSUMPTION. ACCORDING TO DR. DREHER, MARIJUANA USE AMONG RURAL WOMEN HAS INCREASED IN RECENT YEARS, AS WOMEN IN SUGAR CANE CUTTING AREAS HAVE

PAGE 04 KINGST 03437 02 OF 05 062119Z
BECOME LESS DEPENDENT ON ONE MAN FOR SUPPORT AND SMOKE AS A SIGN OF INDEPENDENCE.

8. A FINAL FACTOR WHICH HAS SOFTENED PUBLIC ATTITUDES TOWARDS MARIJUANA IS ECONOMIC HARDSHIP FACING THE JAMAICAN AGRICULTURAL SECTOR. MARIJUANA IS ONE OF THE FEW CROPS ON THE ISLAND WHICH PROVIDES GUARANTEED PRICES, SALES AND MARKETING FOR THE SMALL FARMER. IN ADDITION, MARIJUANA REQUIRES RELATIVELY LITTLE UPKEEP, AND THE NEW "INDICA" VARIETY CAN BE HARVESTED UP TO FOUR TIMES A YEAR.

THE PROFITS OBTAINED BY MARIJUANA FARMERS FAR EXCEED THE RETURNS ON TRADITIONAL CROPS SUCH AS

YAMS AND BEANS, WHICH SOME FARMERS ACTUALLY ABANDON IN KINGSTON RATHER THAN FACE THE COST OF TRANSPORTING UNSOLD GOODS BACK HOME. IN ADDITION, THE LACK OF LEGAL REPERCUSSIONS FOR MARIJUANA CULTIVATION (BEYOND THE POSSIBILITY OF ERADICATION BY THE GOVERNMENT) HAS MADE CULTIVATION DIFFICULT TO CURE.

COCAINE: A DANGEROUS OUTSIDE THREAT

9. PUBLIC ATTITUDES TOWARDS COCAINE CONTRAST SHARPLY WITH THE GENERAL TOLERANCE FOR MARIJUANA, AS THE VAST MAJORITY OF JAMAICANS PERCEIVE COCAINE TO BE A DANGEROUS OUTSIDE DRUG THREATENING JAMAICAN SOCIETY. NEVERTHELESS, RELIABLE DATA INDICATE THAT JAMAICA HAS WELL OVER 22,000 COCAINE OR CRACK ABUSERS. ALTHOUGH 1991 CARL STONE SURVEYS INDICATE THAT OVERALL USAGE HAS DROPPED SLIGHTLY SINCE 1989, COCAINE USAGE IS INCREASING IN URBAN AREAS, PARTICULARLY AMONG YOUNG MALES IN THEIR LATE TEENS AND EARLY TWENTIES.

10. SEVERAL FACTORS EXPLAIN THE DICHOTOMY BETWEEN PUBLIC INTOLERANCE FOR COCAINE AND INCREASED ABUSE OF THE DRUG. WHILE COCAINE IN THE 1970'S WAS LARGELY CONSIDERED A DRUG ONLY THE UPPER CLASS COULD AFFORD, THE INCREASED AVAILABILITY OF CRACK IN THE MID-1980'S BROUGHT COCAINE TO THE MASSES.

IN 1985, WHEN CRACK FIRST BEGAN TO APPEAR IN RURAL AND INNER CITY AREAS, THE PUBLIC WAS LARGELY UNAWARE OF ITS DANGERS AND A BASE OF HARDCORE ADDICTS WAS CREATED.

YOUTH AND COCAINE

11. IN ADDITION, SIGNIFICANT NUMBERS OF YOUNG PEOPLE ARE IGNORING PUBLIC WARNINGS ON CRACK COCAINE. A RECENT STUDY COMMISSIONED BY THE NATIONAL COUNCIL ON DRUG ABUSE (NCDA) IN A KNOWN DRUG TRAFFICKING AREA A FEW BLOCKS FROM EMBASSY HOUSING INDICATED THAT 23 PERCENT OF YOUTH UNDER 18 BELIEVE THAT WARNINGS ON CRACK ARE A DELIBERATE MISINFORMATION CAMPAIGN BY THE GOVERNMENT TO DISCOURAGE THE POOR FROM TAPPING A HIGHLY PROFITABLE SOURCE OF INCOME. YOUTH HAVE ALSO BEEN SUSCEPTIBLE TO THE APPEAL OF COCAINE TRAFFICKERS, REFERRED TO AS COCAINE "DONS," AS ROLE MODELS. HIGH UNEMPLOYMENT RATES AND LOW EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES IN KINGSTON'S INNER CITY AREAS HAVE MEANT THAT OFTEN THE ONLY PERSONS DISPLAYING THE SIGNS OF ECONOMIC SUCCESS ARE THOSE INVOLVED IN TRAFFICKING.

CRACK AND PROSTITUTION

12. WHILE THE TYPICAL JAMAICAN COCAINE USER IS A YOUNG, URBAN MALE, A SIGNIFICANT NUMBER OF FEMALE PROSTITUTES ARE CRACK ADDICTS. SUCH WOMEN HAVE TRADITIONALLY BEEN MISSED IN GENERAL STUDIES ON DRUG ABUSE, AS THEIR PRESENCE ON THE MARGINS OF SOCIETY EXCLUDES THEM FROM THE HOUSEHOLD-BASED SURVEYS UTILIZED BY CARL STONE. EPIDEMIOLOGICAL

STUDIES OF PROSTITUTES, RANGING IN AGE FROM 15 TO 40, BY THE JAMAICAN MINISTRY OF HEALTH INDICATE THAT OVER 33 PERCENT ARE CURRENT USERS OF CRACK.

MANY OF THE PROSTITUTES CLAIM THAT THEY ENTERED THE PROFESSION AS A LAST RESORT TO FINANCE THEIR CRACK ADDICTIONS, WHICH CAN EASILY COST 1,000 JAMAICAN DOLLARS (U.S. $40) PER DAY, EQUIVALENT TO FOUR TIMES THE MINIMUM WEEKLY WAGE.

LAW. THE GOVERNMENT OF JAMAICA (GOJ) HAS GENERALLY COOPERATED WITH THE U.S. ON INTERDICTION AND ERADICATION, AS WITNESSED BY THE "OPERATION BUCCANEER" PROGRAM, NOW IN ITS SEVENTH YEAR, AND JAMAICA'S SIGNING OF A BILATERAL NARCOTICS CONTROL AGREEMENT IN 1988. HOWEVER, UNTIL RECENT YEARS THE JAMAICAN GOVERNMENT GENERALLY DOWNPLAYED DOMESTIC DEMAND REDUCTION AS PART OF ITS OFFICIAL NARCOTICS POLICY.

14. IN GENERAL, THE JAMAICAN CONSTABULARY FORCE (JCF) IS PERCEIVED AS CONTRIBUTING TO THE DOMESTIC NARCOTICS PROBLEM. A RECENT SURVEY INDICATED THAT 88 PERCENT OF THE POPULATION GAVE THE POLICE THE LOWEST POSSIBLE RATING, POOR, IN ASSESSING THE JCF RESPONSE TO NARCOTICS-RELATED CRIME. CORRUPTION IS RAMPANT, AS THE LOW SALARIES OF THE JCF MAKE OFFICERS PARTICULARLY SUSCEPTIBLE; THE DIRECTOR OF A LOCAL REHABILITATION CENTER TOLD AN EMBASSY OFFICIAL DURING A RECENT INTERVIEW THAT A CONSTABLE IN WEST KINGSTON IS A KNOWN SUPPLIER TO LOCAL CRACK VENDORS, AND NO ONE IN THE JCF PAID NOTICE. THE JCF LACKS AN EFFICIENT ENFORCEMENT MECHANISM TO DISMISS OFFICERS INVOLVED IN NARCOTICS; CURRENT PRACTICE REQUIRES THAT AN OFFICER LITERALLY BE CAUGHT RED-HANDED IN THE ACT OF DRUG USE OR TRAFFICKING BEFORE ANY DISCIPLINARY ACTION CAN BE TAKEN. WHILE THE JCF NARCOTICS DIVISION ENJOYS A REPUTATION OF BEING GENERALLY CORRUPTION-FREE, THE 66-MAN UNIT IS LIMITED IN RESOURCES AND RELIES ON USG AID FOR AQUISITION OF NEW EQUIPMENT.

15. THE JAMAICA DEFENSE FORCE (JDF) MAINTAINS A REPUTATION FOR LESS CORRUPTION THAN THE GENERAL CONSTABULARY, IN PART DUE TO ITS ZERO-TOLERANCE POLICY OF IMMEDIATE DISMISSAL FOR OFFICERS FOUND TO USE NARCOTICS IN ANY AMOUNT. THE JDF ALSO MAINTAINS A MUCH STRONGER DISCIPLINARY STANDARD THAN THE JCF. JDF ACTIVITIES CONCERNING DRUGS ARE GENERALLY LIMITED TO ERADICATION AND INTERDICTION. THE USG-SPONSORED MARIJUANA ERADICATION PROGRAM MANNED BY THE JDF HAS BEEN WIDELY CRITICIZED IN JAMAICA FOR DESTROYING THE LIVELIHOOD OF MARIJUANA HARVESTERS AND "REDUCING COMPETITION" FOR GROWERS OF THE DRUG IN THE UNITED STATES. ONE NCDA OFFICIAL WENT SO FAR AS TO SAY THAT THE ERADICATION PROGRAM ACTUALLY HAS INCREASED THE TRAFFICKING OF COCAINE IN JAMAICA, AS MARIJUANA BECOMES LESS PLENTIFUL. THIS VIEW, WHILE HAVING NO FACTUAL BASIS, DEMONSTRATES A DISTURBING PERCEPTION FOR A MEMBER OF A RESPECTED GOVERNMENT ANTI-DRUG FACILITY WHICH RECEIVES SUBSTANTIAL FUNDING FROM THE USG.

16. THE NCDA, FOUNDED IN 1989, IS THE SOLE GOVERNMENT ORGANIZATION GEARED TOWARDS REDUCING DOMESTIC DRUG ABUSE. THE GROUP IS LED BY DR. WINSTON DAVIDSON, AN INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN PHYSICIAN WHO HAS MAINTAINED A HIGH PUBLIC PROFILE FOR THE ORGANIZATION. DAVIDSON DEVISED THE "INTEGRATED DEMAND REDUCTION PROGRAM," NOW THE CORNERSTONE OF NCDA OPERATIONS, WHICH CALLS FOR ATTACKING THE DRUG PROBLEM AT ALL LEVELS OF SOCIETY

AND AT EVERY STAGE OF ADDICTION. ITS PARTICULAR GOAL IS TO PRE-EMPT THE APPEAL OF NARCOTICS TO YOUNGSTERS BY EDUCATING PARENTS, TEACHERS AND STUDENTS TO THE PERILS OF DRUG ABUSE. MOST OF THE NCDA ADMINISTRATION IS MADE UP OF EDUCATORS, WITH STRONG ACADEMIC CREDENTIALS BUT LITTLE HANDS-ON NARCOTICS RELATED EXPERIENCE. LIKE JCF AND JDF NARCOTICS PROGRAMS, THE NCDA IS LARGELY DEPENDENT ON USG FUNDS FOR OPERATION. THE ORGANIZATION STILL SEEMS TO BE IN THE PLANNING RATHER THAN IMPLEMENTATION STAGE, AS LARGE-SCALE PUBLIC

ETING OUT-OF-SCHOOL YOUTH (15 TO 25-YEAR-OLDS), THOUGH INNER-CITY YOUTHS ARE A MAJOR AT-RISK CATEGORY FOR NARCOTICS ABUSE. THE NCDA HAS STATISTICAL INFORMATION WHICH CLAIMS OVERALL DRUG USAGE NATIONWIDE HAS DECLINED BY TEN PERCENT IN THE PAST TWO YEARS. HOWEVER, THE DATA SAMPLING IS QUESTIONABLE AND MAY BE THE RESULT OF EXCESSIVE OPTIMISM ON THE PART OF THE NCDA.

CONCLUSION

17. BOTH PUBLIC AND OFFICIAL ATTITUDES CONTRIBUTE TO THE GROWING PROBLEM OF DRUG ABUSE IN JAMAICA. UNTIL JAMAICANS BEGIN TO MODIFY THEIR VIEWS ON THE ADDICTIVE ASPECTS OF ALCOHOL AND MARIJUANA, THE POTENTIAL FOR AN ESCALATION OF ABUSE REMAINS, PARTICULARLY IN THE CASE OF COCAINE. IN THE CASE OF MARIJUANA, DRUG EDUCATORS NEED TO FACTOR IN THE SOCIAL ACCEPTABILITY OF THE DRUG WHEN ATTEMPTING TO CONVINCE THE PUBLIC OF ITS POTENTIAL HARMFUL EFFECTS; ATTEMPTS TO EQUATE MARIJUANA AND COCAINE ARE NOT TAKEN SERIOUSLY BY MOST JAMAICANS. GENERAL AWARENESS OF THE DANGERS OF COCAINE HAS NOT PREVENTED INCREASED USE OF THE DRUG, AS ECONOMIC HARDSHIP, THE CYCLE OF ABUSE FROM ALCOHOL TO MARIJUANA, THE PREVALENCE OF UNTREATED ADDICTS AND INCREASED SUPPLIES ENTERING THE ISLAND HAVE ENCOURAGED ABUSE. IN TERMS OF THE APPEAL OF COCAINE, MORE FAR-REACHING ATTITUDES TOWARDS SUBSTANCE ABUSE, CONSPICUOUS WEALTH AND A LACK OF ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY MUST BE TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT.

18. THE JAMAICAN GOVERNMENT'S ROLE IN REDUCING DRUG ABUSE IS KEY. AREAS WHICH DEMAND SPECIAL ATTENTION ARE ENFORCEMENT OF EXISTING NARCOTICS LAWS, FORMULATION OF NEW LEGAL STRATEGIES TO TARGET LARGE-SCALE TRAFFICKERS, DEVELOPMENT OF PUBLIC EDUCATION AND EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY PROGRAMS FOR THE YOUTH MOST AT RISK, AND EXPANSION OF EXISTING

REHABILITATION PROGRAMS FOR THE NATION'S OVER 20,000 ADDICTS.

FROM U.S. MISSION TO THE OAS

SUMMARY

1. CAPPING A DAY OF INTENSE CONSULTATIONS AMONG MEMBER COUNTRIES AND AN INFORMAL PREPARATORY MEETING AT 6:30 PM, THE PERMANENT COUNCIL CONVENED AT 10:00 PM, APRIL 6, AND CALLED AN AD HOC MEETING OF FOREIGN MINISTERS TO ADDRESS THE PERU CRISIS. THE RESOLUTION CONVOKING THE MFM (REFTEL A) PASSED BY CONSENSUS. ALL BUT PERU SUPPORTED IT.

2. TWENTY ONE MEMBER COUNTRIES SPOKE. U.S. PERMREP EINAUDI QUOTED DEPARTMENT PRESS STATEMENT THAT CALLED THE ACTIONS OF PRESIDENT FUJIMORI (SUSPENSION OF THE CONSTITUTION, DISSOLVING OF CONGRESS AND JUDICIARY) "UNJUSTIFIED" AND ANNOUNCED THAT THE U.S. WAS SUSPENDING ALL NEW AID TO PERU, EXCEPT FOR HUMANITARIAN AID THROUGH NGOS. (HIS REMARKS, NOT GISTED FURTHER HERE ARE REPORTED IN FULL IN REFTEL B).

3. THE PATH TO CONSENSUS -- IMPERILED EARLIER BY A SOUTH AMERICAN BID TO KEEP THE MATTER BEFORE THE RIO GROUP -- IS TRACED IN REFTEL C, WHICH ALSO REPORTS ON THE INFORMAL, PRIVATE MEETING OF OAS DELEGATIONS WHICH PRECEDED THE OPEN PERMANENT COUNCIL SESSION.

THE OAS SECRETARY GENERAL'S REPORT

4. OAS SECGEN JOAO CLEMENTE BAENA SOARES, INSTRUCTED UNDER RESOLUTION 1080 (THE "ANTI-COUP" MECHANISM ADOPTED BY THE SANTIAGO OASGA, JUNE 1991) TO CALL FOR A PERMANENT COUNCIL MEETING "IMMEDIATELY" UPON THE "INTERRUPTION" OF THE DEMOCRATIC POLITICAL PROCESS, OPENED THE THE PERMANENT COUNCIL MEETING ON PERU.

5. BAENA REGRETTED WHAT HE CALLED A "STEP BACKWARD" AND RECAPPED EVENTS. HE CITED, INTER ALIA, SUSPENSION OF THE CONSTITUTION, TAKEOVER OF LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY BY THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS, THE ARREST OF POLITICAL LEADERS, MEDIA CENSORSHIP, ARMED FORCES SUPPORT FOR FUJIMORI, AND THE PRESENCE OF TROOPS IN THE STREETS. NOTING THAT THE SITUATION WAS PRECISELY COVERED BY THE LANGUAGE OF OAS RESOLUTION 1080, HE COMMENTED THAT IT WAS HIS PERSONAL, PROFOUND CONVICTION THAT THE RESOLUTION OF PERU'S PROBLEMS LIES IN THE FULL RESTORATION OF THE PERUVIAN CONSTITUTION.

ACTION ON THE RESOLUTION: CALL FOR MINISTERIAL

6. BY THE TIME THE PERMANENT COUNCIL CONVENED AT 10:00 PM, AGREEMENT HAD BEEN REACHED ON A DRAFT RESOLUTION (CALLING FOR A MEETING OF FOREIGN MINISTERS. AN INFORMAL MEETING OF OAS DELEGATIONS EARLIER LED TO THE FORMATION OF DRAFTING GROUP (ARGENTINA, CHILE, MEXICO, ST. LUCIA, THE UNITED STATES, AND URUGUAY) WHICH PRODUCED A RESOLUTION

TEXT, BASED CLOSELY ON A PROPOSAL PRESENTED BY ARGENTINA IN THE INFORMAL MEETING.

7. PUTTING ADOPTION OF THE RESOLUTION FIRST, CHAIRMAN AND CANADIAN PERMREP JEAN-PAUL HUBERT ASKED FOR A VOTE BY CONSENSUS. PERU'S PERMREP, LUIS MARCHAND STENS, TOOK THE FLOOR TO SAY THAT HIS DELEGATION WOULD NOT TAKE PART IN THE CONSENSUS BECAUSE, HE SAID, HE LACKED BOTH INFORMATION ON THE SITUATION IN PERU AND INSTRUCTIONS FROM HIS GOVERNMENT.

8. THERE WAS A BRIEF EXCHANGE OF COMMENTS OVER A PROPOSAL BY PANAMA TO ADD "SELF DETERMINATION" TO PARAGRAPH 2 (AS A GUIDING PRINCIPLE), BUT NOTING NO CONSENSUS FOR THE PANAMANIAN ADDITION, HUBERT CALLED FOR APPROVAL OF THE ORIGINAL TEXT. AT 10:25 PM, THE PERMANENT COUNCIL APPROVED THE RESOLUTION BY CONSENSUS AND THE CHAIR OPENED THE FLOOR TO REMARKS.

PERU

9. PERUVIAN PERMREP MARCHAND REPEATED MUCH OF WHAT HE SAID IN THE EARLIER, INFORMAL MEETING. HE STRESSED THE "TEMPORARY" NATURE OF PRESIDENT FUJIMORI'S ACTIONS. IN THE EARLIER MEETING HE ALSO REFERRED TO FUJIMORI'S STATED INTENTION TO RATIFY HIS ACTIONS -- AND A NEW CONSTITUTION -- IN PLEBISCITES.

10. HE CONTINUED, "IN ALL HONESTY AND TRUTH (OUR POSITION) IS IN THE MESSAGE TO THE NATION OF PRESIDENT FUJIMORI . . . THE MEASURES WERE TAKEN DUE TO THE GRAVE SITUATION IN PERU (DRUG TRAFFICKING AND TERRORISM) AND THE FACT THAT HIS (FUJIMORI'S) PROGRAM WAS BEING OBSTRUCTED."

11. MARCHAND THEN CITED FOUR DECISIONS OF PRESIDENT

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
A/RPINEA-REARS

FUJIMORI: 1) TO TEMPORARILY SUSPEND THE CONSTITUTION, 2) TO COMPLETELY REORGANIZE THE JUDICIARY, 3) TO RESTRUCTURE PERU'S GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE AND REFORM PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION, AND 4) TO CONTINUE GOVERNING THROUGH EMERGENCY STRUCTURES.

COUNTRY REACTIONS, SPECIFICS

12. MOST DELEGATIONS SAID THEY DEPLORED OR WERE SADDENED BY EVENTS IN PERU, STRESSING THE SUSPENSION OF THE CONSTITUTION, THE DISSOLUTION OF THE LEGISLATURE, THE CENSORSHIP OF THE PRESS, AND THE ARREST OF CONGRESS AND JOURNALISTS. THEY EXPRESSED SUPPORT FOR THE RESOLUTION AND THE MFM IT CONVOKES. MANY DELEGATIONS OBSERVED THAT FUJIMORI HAD INHERITED VERY SEVERE PROBLEMS AT THE INITIATION OF HIS TERM, INCLUDING DRUG TRAFFICKING AND A STRONG TERRORIST MOVEMENT. HOWEVER, NEARLY ALL SAID THE MEASURES TAKEN BY PERU IN THIS SITUATION WERE NOT JUSTIFIED BY THESE PROBLEMS.

13. REMARKS OF ARGENTINA, COLOMBIA, EL SALVADOR, JAMAICA, PANAMA, MEXICO, ST. LUCIA, AND VENEZUELA WERE PARTICULARLY NOTABLE (PARAS 14 - 25). STRONG EMOTIONAL COMMITMENTS TO DEMOCRACY WERE EVIDENT IN THE PRESENTATIONS OF PERU'S NEIGHBORS, IN PARTICULAR ECUADOR, BRAZIL, BOLIVIA, AND CHILE (PARAS 27 - 38; SEE ALSO REFTEL C).

14. ARGENTINA: PERMREP PATINO MEYER MADE ONE OF THE MOST FORCEFUL STATEMENTS. HE SAID THAT FOR ARGENTINA THE SITUATION IN PERU IS THE "WORST POSSIBLE CIRCUMSTANCE" BECAUSE OF ARGENTINA'S CLOSE HISTORICAL TIES WITH PERU. HE ANNOUNCED THAT THE ARGENTINE AMBASSADOR TO PERU HAS BEEN INSTRUCTED TO RETURN TO BUENOS AIRES. HE READ THE RIO GROUP STATEMENT OF MARCH 27, 1992, ON THE STRENGTHENING OF DEMOCRACY WHICH CALLS FOR THE USE OF DEMOCRATIC MECHANISMS FOR OVERCOMING THE SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC PROBLEMS WHICH MAY ARISE. IT ALSO OBSERVES THAT NATIONAL CONFLICTS AND PROBLEMS DO NOT JUSTIFY THE TERMINATION OF A DEMOCRACY.

15. PATINO DENOUNCED CORRUPTION AS UNDERMINING MANY HEMISPHERIC COUNTRIES, NOTING THAT CORRUPTION DAMAGES DEMOCRACY AND TRUST, AND THE PEOPLE MUST BE ABLE TO TRUST THEIR LEADERS.

16. PATINO SAID THAT "SIMILAR CHALLENGES" TO THOSE MENTIONED BY PRESIDENT FUJIMORI EXIST ELSEWHERE IN THE HEMISPHERE. HE REMINDED THAT IN ARGENTINA, ALL OF THE ARGUMENTS REFERRED TO IN THE PERUVIAN PRESIDENTIAL STATEMENT HAD BEEN USED TO UNDERMINE THE RIGHTS OF THE ARGENTINE PEOPLE. HE OBSERVED THAT IT IS ALWAYS THE LEGISLATURE, THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE, THAT IS DISSOLVED. HE URGED THAT THIS SITUATION BE TRULY TRANSITORY. HE NOTED THAT EVEN IF SURVEYS SHOW POPULAR BACKING IT DOES NOT MEAN THE PEOPLE CANNOT MAKE MISTAKES. "THIS IS NOT THE WAY (TO REFORM)" HE CONCLUDED.

17. IN THE FORMAL SESSION PATINO LIMITED HIMSELF -- AND DIRECTED OTHERS -- TO THE SINGLE ISSUE OF CALLING AN MFM. THE ISSUE, HE SAID, IS ONLY WHETHER THERE HAD BEEN AN INTERRUPTION OF DEMOCRATIC PROCESS. ASIDE FROM THE COMPLEXITY OF THE EVENTS OR LACK OF INFORMATION REGARDING THEM, IT WAS CLEAR, HE ARGUED, THAT THE DEFINITION OF RESOLUTION 1080 FITS. PATINO INTRODUCED [illegible] WORKED OVER BY THE DRAFTING GROUP HE CHAIRED. BECAME THE TEXT ADOPTED BY THE PERMANENT COUNCIL. THE ARGENTINE PERFORMANCE WAS HIGHLY IMPRESSIVE.

18. COLOMBIA: DCM MONROY CABRA SPOKE BRIEFLY, AND QUOTED THE GOC STATEMENT OF "CONCERN" OVER EVENTS, AND "THE INTERRUPTION OF CONSTITUTIONAL PROCESS." COLOMBIA, HE READ, WANTED A PEACEFUL RESOLUTION OF THE PROCESS AND THE RELEASE OF ALL THOSE DETAINED, WITHIN A LEGAL FRAMEWORK. EARLIER IN THE DAY PERMREP JULIO LONDONO, SPEAKING TO U.S. PERMREP EINAUDI FROM BOGOTA, ARGUED THAT AN ALTERNATIVE TO THE MFM WOULD BE A MEETING OF RIO GROUP MINISTERS (REFTEL C). COLOMBIA'S WEAK PERFORMANCE IS NOTEWORTHY.

19. SALVADOR: PERMREP GRANILLO SAID THE EFFECTIVENESS OF THE OAS DEPENDS ON ITS ABILITY TO EXECUTE ITS DECISIONS RAPIDLY. THE GOES, HE SAID, IS CAREFULLY FOLLOWING THE SITUATION AND REJECTS THE COURSE OF ACTION SELECTED. GRANILLO WAS ONE OF THE FEW TO OPENLY EXPRESS A GROWING FEAR: THAT ANY BREACH OF THE RULE OF LAW HELPS PEOPLE LIKE SENDERO, AND HENCE THAT ALL GOVERNMENTS SHOULD "AVOID SITUATIONS EXPLOITED BY ANTIDEMOCRATIC FORCES."

20. JAMAICA: ALTREP EVADNE COYE EXPRESSED HER GOVERNMENT'S REGRET AT THE "TRUNCATING OF THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS." FUJIMORI, SHE SAID, HAD TRIED EARLIER "WITH GREAT COURAGE" TO DEAL WITH PROBLEMS, BUT HIS (ANTI-CONSTITUTIONAL) MEASURES CANNOT BE JUSTIFIED BY THOSE PROBLEMS. JAMAICA HOPES THAT THE MFM CALLED UNDER 1080 WILL FACILITATE THE PROCESS WHEREBY "PERUVIANS FIND AN AUTHENTIC SOLUTION." BUT FEARS HIS ACTIONS WOULD DAMAGE THE PROCESS NEEDED FOR EARLY RESOLUTION OF HIS NATION'S PROBLEMS. COYE ANNOUNCED THAT HER FOREIGN MINISTER WAS READY TO ATTEND THE MFM AND THAT THE PERMANENT COUNCIL SHOULD OBTAIN FULL, UP-TO-DATE INFORMATION FOR THE MFM.

21. EARLIER, WITH USOAS, COYE EXPRESSED DOUBTS ABOUT CALLING AN MFM AND UNCERTAINTY ABOUT THE CONSTITUTIONAL SITUATION AS WELL AS THE PROSPECTS FOR FUJIMORI'S PUTTING THINGS BACK ON A DEMOCRATIC TRACK. IN THE INFORMAL SESSION, COYE, KNOWN TO SPEAK OUT FRANKLY AND TO BE VERY PRACTICAL MINDED, WAS SILENT. COMMENT: COYE AND OTHER CARIBBEAN DELEGATES FELT THE LACK OF INFORMATION ABOUT THE SITUATION ON THE GROUND IN PERU AND THE LEGALITIES OF FUJIMORI'S POSITION. EXTENSIVE BRIEFING AND CONSULTATIONS SOLIDIFIED THEIR SUPPORT FOR THE PERMCOUNCIL CALL FOR AN MFM. COYE'S REMARKS SUGGEST THAT FOR JAMAICA (AND THE CARIBBEAN) A SUCCESSFUL MFM WILL BE AN INFORMED MFM. COYE'S BOTTOM LINE EARLIER: "MOVE WITH PRUDENCE."

22. MEXICO: PERMREP ONATE REAFFIRMED MEXICO'S COMMITMENT TO DEMOCRACY, NONINTERVENTION AND INTERNATIONAL LAW. HE SAID IT WAS UP TO THE PERUVIAN PEOPLE TO FIND WAYS TO RESOLVE THIS DIFFICULT SITUATION AND SAID THAT IT

DOES NOT WANT TO JUDGE THE EVENTS OR CONDEMN ACTIONS. MEXICO, HE SAID, "DOES WANT TO HELP IN IMPROVING CONDITIONS WHICH PROMOTE DEMOCRACY AND THAT IS WHY IT PARTICIPATED IN THE MEETING TO CONVENE AN MFM UNDER RESOLUTION 1080. ... WE HAVE TO FIND WAYS TO SUPPORT STABILITY AND FOR STRENGTHENING DEMOCRACY ... IT IS NOT FOR ANY NATION OR GROUP OF NATIONS TO DETERMINE OTHER NATION'S POSITIONS." IN THE INFORMAL SESSION PRECEDING THE PERMCOUNCIL MEETING, ONATE WAS A STRONG ADVOCATE FOR FURTHER STUDY OF THE PERU SITUATION BY A WORKING GROUP AS AN ALTERNATIVE TO THE MFM (SEE REFTEL 3). (COMMENT: MEXICO WAS A STRONG BACKER FOR ADDING WHAT IS NOW PARAGRAPH 2 OF 1080 WHICH INSTRUCTS THE PERMANENT COUNCIL TO DEVISE PROPOSALS FOR INCENTIVES TO DEMOCRACY, MEASURES TO PRESERVE AND STRENGTHEN DEMOCRACIES. DEBATES IN THE OAS ON INCENTIVES HAVE SHOWN MEXICO IN THE FOREFRONT OF THOSE CALLING FOR MORE "CARROTS" OVER "STICKS.")

23. PANAMA: CHARGE ENRIQUE DE OBARRIO SAID THAT PANAMA "DEPLORES EVENTS" IN PERU AND CALLED FOR AN EFFORT TO "RESCUE DEMOCRACY." CITING THE ATTEMPTED COUP IN VENEZUELA AND THE COUP IN HAITI, HE SAID PERU IS NOT ISOLATED AND THAT IT SHARES "COMMON FACTORS" WITH HAITI. HE EXPRESSED CONCERN THAT GOVERNMENTS MUST NOT GIVE A "GREEN LIGHT" TO THE MILITARY. THE REFORMS THAT FUJIMORI SEEKS COULD HAVE BEEN DONE WITHIN THE CONSTITUTION AND WITHOUT REPRESSION, HE ADDED. HE URGED IMMEDIATE RETURN TO DEMOCRACY.

24. ST. LUCIA: PERMREP EDMUNDS, DEAN OF THE CARIBBEAN AMBASSADORS, SAID THAT ST. LUCIA WAS "SADDENED BY EVENTS, BOTH FOR PERUVIANS AND FOR THE OAS" ADDING THAT "IN CHILE OAS BOASTED OF 34 MEMBERS, ALL DEMOCRACIES." EDMUNDS SAID THAT FUJIMORI ATTEMPTED TO DEAL WITH PROBLEMS WITH "NOBLE PROGRAMS" BUT IT IS NECESSARY TO "RETURN AS SOON AS POSSIBLE TO THE RULE OF LAW." THE "ROOT PROBLEM" (IN PERU AND ELSEWHERE) IS "SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC DEPRIVATION ... WE NEED TO BE VIGILANT, THERE ARE SEVERAL FESTERING SITUATIONS THAT COULD LEAD TO SITUATIONS SIMILAR TO THAT IN PERU." EDMUNDS, A KEY ADVOCATE OF THE MFM IN THE INFORMAL MEETING (SEE REFTEL C), SUGGESTED THAT THE OAS DEMOCRACY UNIT IDENTIFY THE "FRAGILITIES" IN DEVELOPING DEMOCRACIES AND UNDERTAKE A DIAGNOSTIC LEADING TO SUGGESTION OF "PREVENTATIVE MEASURES."

25. VENEZUELA: PERMREP GROOSCORS, ANNOUNCING THAT HIS FOREIGN MINISTER WOULD ATTEND THE MFM, DEPLORED THE EVENTS AND SPOKE EMOTIONALLY OF THE DEEP, UNBREAKABLE TIES SHARED BY VENEZUELA AND PERU. HE SAID HIS NATION EXPRESSES ITS DESIRE FOR THE RECOVERY OF DEMOCRACY AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AND HOPED THIS WAS ONLY AN UNFORTUNATE "PARENTHESIS" WHICH WILL QUICKLY END. HE READ A COMMUNIQUE FROM HIS GOVERNMENT EXPRESSING THE "DEEPEST" CONCERN OVER THE PERUVIAN CRISIS. IT CALLED FOR THE EXPLORATION OF COMMON WAYS TO USE PRESSURE IN THIS "DELICATE SITUATION." IT REJECTED ANY FORMULA WHICH PLACED THE RULE OF LAW OUTSIDE THE CONSTITUTION. IT URGED THE FULL RESTORATION OF CIVIL LIBERTIES AND HUMAN RIGHTS.

MORE THAN THE TEXT REVEALS

26. PERUVIAN PERMREP MARCHAND'S COUNTERPARTS FROM NEIGHBORING COUNTRIES (CHILE, BRAZIL, AND BOLIVIA) EXPRESSED A NOTABLE EMOTIONAL AND IDEOLOGICAL COMMITMENT TO DEMOCRACY IN THEIR REMARKS THAT WOULD NOT BE APPARENT IN A WRITTEN TRANSCRIPT. THIS COULD REFLECT FEAR THAT "THEY ARE NEXT" OR THAT COMMITMENT TO DEMOCRACY IS MAKING HEADWAY -- OR SOME OF EACH.

27. ECUADOR: PERMREP VASCO (WHO OFTEN PLAYS THE CONCILIATOR IN OAS DEBATES) SEEMED GENUINELY AND PERSONALLY DIVIDED BY EVENTS. "THIS IS A SPECIAL CASE," HE SAID IN THE INFORMAL SESSION. "WE HAVE CLOSE TIES TO PERU (ON THE ONE HAND) ... AND (ON THE OTHER) THE SANTIAGO COMMITMENT TO DEMOCRACY." IN THE PERMCOUNCIL SESSION LATER HE SAID "FUJIMORI IS AMONG THE PRESIDENTS CLOSEST TO US ... BUT DEMOCRACY IS A PRIORITY ISSUE (FOR ECUADOR)." AFTER READING THE GOE COMMUNIQUE ON PERU AND NOTING THAT THE AMBASSADOR TO LIMA HAD BEEN RECALLED, VASCO SAID THAT ECUADOR WOULD RESOLVE THE TENSION BETWEEN NEIGHBORHOOD AND DEMOCRACY BY TAKING NO SEPARATE POSITION AND ADHERING TO ANY RIO GROUP OR OAS CONSENSUS.

28. BOLIVIA'S PERMREP ROLON SAID BOLIVIA WOULD COORDINATE

WITH THE OTHER NATIONS TO HELP END THE CRISIS. IT STATED THAT THE TERROR PERPETUATED BY THE SHINING PATH AND THE DRUG TRAFFICKERS MUST BE TERMINATED TO PERMIT A RETURN TO DEMOCRACY. HE SAID HIS NATION NEEDED A BETTER ANALYSIS OF THE SITUATION. THE GOB SAW THE INTERVENTION OF DEMOCRACY AS "ABRUPT AND CRUEL."

29. BRAZIL'S PERMREP PERICAS SAID BRAZIL RECEIVED THE

NEWS WITH GREAT CONCERN. IT WAS DEEPLY COMMITTED TO REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRACY. IT EXPRESSED ITS FIRM BELIEF IN THE NEED TO OVERCOME DIFFERENCES AND PRESERVE INSTITUTIONS. IT SAID THERE WAS NO MORE ROOM FOR DISTORTIONS OF DEMOCRACY. PERICAS READ THE TEXT OF GOB'S OFFICIAL STATEMENT ON PERU. TEXT FOLLOWS:

"THE GOVERNMENT OF BRAZIL RECEIVED WITH PROFOUND CONCERN (APREENSAO) THE NEWS FROM LIMA THAT PRESIDENT ALBERTO FUJIMORI DISSOLVED PARLIAMENT, SUSPENDED THE CONSTITUTION, AND TRANSFERRED LEGISLATIVE FUNCTIONS TO THE CABINET OF MINISTERS.

LOYAL TO THE PRINCIPLES THAT ARE THE FOUNDATION OF THE SOLIDARITY OF THE AMERICAN STATES, THE GOVERNMENT OF BRAZIL REAFFIRMS ITS UNRENOUNCABLE COMMITMENT TO REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRACY AND FULL EFFECT OF THE RULE OF LAW.

IN THESE CIRCUMSTANCES, THE GOVERNMENT OF BRAZIL STATES ITS FIRM EXPECTATION THAT THE PERUVIAN NATION WILL KNOW HOW TO OVERCOME ITS INTERNAL DIFFICULTIES, PRESERVING ITS INSTITUTIONAL STABILITY AND AVOIDING, IN THIS WAY, MOURNING FOR DEMOCRACY (O LUTO DEMOCRATICO) IN LATIN AMERICA, WHERE THERE IS NO LONGER ROOM FOR REGIMES THAT ARE ESTRANGED FROM THE SOVEREIGN POPULAR WILL, FOR ACTS THAT ARE DESTRUCTIVE OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL ORDER AND THAT SACRIFICE PUBLIC LIBERTIES."

END TEXT

30. CHILE'S PERMREP MUNOZ EXPRESSED PROFOUND CONCERN FOR PERU AND REAFFIRMED ITS COMMITMENT TO DEMOCRACY MADE AT THE 1991 OAS GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN SANTIAGO. IT CALLED FOR THE REINSTITUTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE REINSTATEMENT OF NORMAL DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS. MUNOZ READ THE TEXT OF CHILE'S OFFICIAL STATEMENT ON PERU. MUNOZ ALSO NOTED, IN A BOW TO MEXICO, THAT THE SANTIAGO COUP MECHANISM RESOLUTION ALLOWS THE MINISTERS TO LOOK INTO EVENTS (WITHOUT NECESSARILY TAKING MEASURES). BEGIN TEXT:

"1. THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE EXPRESSES ITS PROFOUND CONCERN OVER THE SITUATION IN THE SISTER REPUBLIC OF PERU. 2. AS A BASIC PRINCIPLE, IT REJECTS ANY RUPTURE OF THE DEMOCRATIC CONSTITUTIONAL ORDER. IT CALLS UPON THE PERUVIAN AUTHORITIES TO PROTECT HUMAN RIGHTS AND TO REESTABLISH, AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, THE NORMAL OPERATION OF CONSTITUTIONAL INSTITUTIONS. 3. THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE IS UNDERTAKING CONSULTATIONS WITH THE OTHER DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES OF THE REGION TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE EARLY REESTABLISHMENT OF DEMOCRACY, THROUGH MECHANISMS OF THE RIO GROUP AND THE ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATE."

END TEXT.

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS

31. COSTA RICA: CHARGE TOLEDO, THE FIRST TO SPEAK, MADE A POWERFUL STATEMENT. FUJIMORI'S ACTS HAVE BETRAYED HIS

PEOPLE'S CONFIDENCE AND REPRESENT A STEP BACKWARD; HE IS RESPONSIBLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND DEMOCRACY. IT EXPRESSED

ITS SOLIDARITY WITH THE PERUVIAN PEOPLE IN THE NEED FOR PARTICIPATORY DEMOCRACY. IT URGED RESPECT FOR THE LAW AND END TO ALL ACTS THAT UNDERMINE THE CONSTITUTION. IT EXPRESSED THE HOPE THAT THIS RESOLUTION IS THE BASIS FOR CLEAR AND SPECIFIC ACTIONS BY PERU TO RESTORE DEMOCRACY.

32. CANADA: PERMCOUNCIL CHAIRMAN HUBERT SPOKE FOR CANADA NOTING PAINFUL AWARENESS OF THE GRAVE CHALLENGES CONFRONTING THE PERUVIAN PEOPLE HE SAID THAT CANADA WAS SADDENED AND DISTURBED BY EVENTS. HE EXPRESSED HIS NATION'S DEEP COMMITMENT TO DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS AND CALLED FOR THEIR RESTORATION IN PERU.

33. DOMINICAN REPUBLIC: PERMREP KNIPPING EXPRESSED HIS GOVERNMENT'S CONCERN OVER THESE EVENTS WHICH ARE A "STEP BACKWARD." HE REAFFIRMED HIS GOVERNMENT'S COMMITMENT TO DEMOCRACY. HE CALLED FOR A PROMPT RESTORATION OF THE PERUVIAN DEMOCRACY.

34. NICARAGUA: PERMREP TIJERINO EXPRESSED "PROFOUND CONCERN" OVER THE PERU SITUATION AND FOR THE CONSOLIDATION OF DEMOCRACY WHICH, HE SAID, IS A PRINCIPLE FOREIGN POLICY CONCERN. NICARAGUA'S FEBRUARY 25 ELECTIONS REPRESENTED A NEW CHAPTER IN DEMOCRATIC STRENGTHENING BASED ON PLURALISM, FREE PRESS EXPRESSION, AND UNLIMITED RESPECT FOR ALL HUMAN RIGHTS. ECHOING VENEZUELA'S GROSCORS, TIJERINO EXPRESSED THE HOPE THAT INTERRUPTION OF DEMOCRATIC PROCESS IN PERU WOULD ONLY BE A SHORT "PARENTHESIS." IN THE INFORMAL SESSION TIJERINO CAME DOWN STRONGLY FOR AN MFM ARGUING AGAINST THE POSITION THAT HAITI AND PERU ARE VERY DIFFERENT (AND HENCE THE ROUTE FOLLOWED IN HAITI, CALLING AN MFM, IS NOT APPLICABLE TO PERU). "IN HAITI THE MILITARY AND THE PARLIAMENT OVERTHREW THE PRESIDENT; IN PERU THE PRESIDENT AND THE MILITARY OVERTHREW THE PARLIAMENT. IN BOTH CASES, THERE WAS AN INTERRUPTION OF DEMOCRATIC PROCESS"

35. HAITI: OBSERVING THAT THESE EVENTS WERE OF "GRAVE" CONCERN TO HAITI, HAITIAN PERMREP CASIMIR SAID, IN BRIEF REMARKS THAT STRESSED HUMAN RIGHTS AND NONVIOLENCE, THAT ANY ATTACK ON PUBLIC FREEDOMS HAS A DEVASTATING EFFECT ON A NATION. HE EXPRESSED "GREAT SADNESS" AND CALLED FOR A SPIRIT OF NON-VIOLENCE IN PERU.

36. PARAGUAY: PARAGUAY'S ACTING CHIEF OF MISSION BOBADILLA SAID THAT HIS GOVERNMENT CANNOT REMAIN SILENT ON EVENTS IN PERU AND DEEPLY DEPLORES THE INTERRUPTION OF DEMOCRATIC PROCESS THERE.

37. URUGUAY: PERMREP OPERTTI SAID ITS FOREIGN MINISTER LAMENTED THE INTERRUPTION OF THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS AND SEES THE OAS AS THE VALID MULTI-NATIONAL ENTITY TO DEAL WITH THE PROBLEM.

FOR EXAMPLE, ACCORDING TO CINEP STATS, THE NUMBER OF POLITICAL ASSASSINATIONS CLIMBED TO 560 IN 1991, COMPARED TO 313 IN 1990 AND 463 IN 1989. (1991'S 180 POLITICAL OR PRESUMABLY POLITICAL DISAPPEARANCES, HOWEVER, WERE FEWER THAN THE 217 RECORDED IN 1990, BUT MORE THAN THE 137 IN 1989.)

2. ALSO RISING IN 1991, ACCORDING TO CINEP, WAS THE NUMBER OF CASUALTIES FROM THE GUERRILLA WAR. 1,364 COMBATANT AND CIVILIAN DEAD AND WOUNDED WERE RECORDED IN 1991, COMPARED TO 1,229 IN 1990, 732 IN 1989 AND

3. IN A DISTURBING TREND IN NON-POLITICAL VIOLENCE, CINEP NOTED THAT 1991 SAW THE HIGHEST TOTALS IN "SOCIAL CLEANSING" KILLINGS IN THE PAST FOUR YEARS; 389 COMPARED TO 267 IN 1990, 364 IN 1989 AND 273 IN 1988.

SUBJECT: ARA/DAS SULLIVAN MEETS GOG DEFENSE MINISTER

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: ARA/DAS SULLIVAN MET DEFENSE MINISTER GARCIA, WHO GAVE HIS VIEWS ON A VARIETY OF ISSUES, TO INCLUDE THE URNG, "MASS MOVEMENTS," STUDENTS, HUMAN RIGHTS, REFUGEES, AND RELATIONS BETWEEN THE ARMY AND THE PRESIDENT. GARCIA DESCRIBED THE GUATEMALAN ARMED FORCES AS HAVING THE SMALLEST PER CAPITA BUDGET AND MANPOWER IN ALL OF CENTRAL AMERICA AND LAMENTED THE MILITARY'S LIMITED ABILITY TO DEAL WITH NARCOTRAFFICKERS. END SUMMARY.

3. ARA/DAS SULLIVAN MET GUATEMALAN MINISTER OF DEFENSE, BRIGADIER GENERAL JOSE DOMINGO GARCIA SAMAYOA FOR OVER AN HOUR DURING THE MORNING OF 24 APRIL AT THE MOD'S OFFICIAL RESIDENCE. SULLIVAN WAS ACCOMPANIED BY POLMIL OFFICER, DEFENSE ATTACHE, AND COMMANDER OF THE USMILGP. GARCIA, WHO DID MOST OF THE TALKING, STARTED BY TELLING SULLIVAN THAT AS MINISTER HE DID NOT TOLERATE ANY ACTIONS WITHIN THE MILITARY INSTITUTION THAT ARE HIDDEN OR OUTSIDE THE LAW. HE CLAIMED HIS SUBORDINATES CLEARLY UNDERSTAND THIS. GARCIA THEN DEFENDED HIMSELF AGAINST RECENT ACCUSATIONS BY STUDENT LEADERS THAT HE ORDERED THE ARMY TO PROVOKE THE APRIL 10 INCIDENT THAT LEFT ONE STUDENT DEAD JUST BEFORE HOLY WEEK, EXPLAINING THAT THE CREATION OF SUCH TENSION BY HIM WOULD MAKE NO SENSE AT ALL. GARCIA THEN REMARKED THAT HUMAN RIGHTS, WHICH HE DESCRIBED AS EXISTING AT THE FAMILY, WORK AND POLITICAL LEVELS, SHOULD NOT BE SOMETHING MANIPULATED FOR OTHER REASONS.

THE PEACE PROCESS:

4. GARCIA SAID THAT THE URNG STILL HAD PRESSURES AND COMMITMENTS WHICH INFLUENCED ITS INTENTIONS TOWARD PEACE. HE CLAIMED THE URNG STILL RECEIVES ITS ORDERS FROM CUBA, THAT CUBA DID NOT WISH TO BE ALONE IN THE REGION, AND THAT THERE WERE OTHER EXTERNAL INFLUENCES, E.G., FROM GROUPS IN EUROPE AND WASHINGTON, ON WHICH THE URNG DEPENDS. HE ADMITTED THE URNG IS STRONG INTERNATIONALLY, USING HUMAN RIGHTS AS A SHIELD, BUT HE ALSO EXPRESSED HOPE FOR A BETTER FUTURE FOR GUATEMALA AFTER THE WAR STOPS. GARCIA STATED THAT THE URNG CHARACTERIZES ALL GOVERNMENT ATTEMPTS TO MAKE SOCIAL-ECONOMIC PROGRESS IN THE COUNTRYSIDE AS PART OF A COUNTERINSURGENCY PLAN, BUT THAT BY CLAIMING THIS THE GUERRILLAS ARE LOSING THEIR POLITICAL PLATFORM. GARCIA OPINED THAT GENEVA UNHRC DECISION NOT TO APPOINT AN ITEM 12 RAPPORTEUR FOR GUATEMALA WAS A BLOW TO GUERRILLA PLANS TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS YEAR AS THE 500TH YEAR OF INDIAN "RESISTANCE". THE GENERAL MENTIONED THAT THE CPR'S (POPULAR RESISTANCE COMMUNITIES) CURRENTLY HAVE SOME 30 CLANDESTINE COMMITTEES AND THAT THEY REPRESENT A FORM OF "HUMAN SHIELD" FOR THE URNG.

MASS MOVEMENTS AND THE GUERRILLAS:

5. GARCIA SAID THE "MASS MOVEMENTS" RESPONSIBLE FOR THE LAND SEIZURE INCIDENTS WHICH HAVE RECENTLY TAKEN PLACE IN GUATEMALA WERE DANGEROUS. HE CALLED THEM A PROVOCATION, AND MENTIONED THAT SUBVERSIVES AND FOREIGNERS ARE INVOLVED IN WHAT HE CALLED AN ATTEMPT AT ETHNIC CONFRONTATION. HE

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

REMARKED THAT STUDENTS, UNIONS, FARMERS AND RELIGIOUS PERSONS ARE ALSO INVOLVED. GARCIA THEN PAINTED A BLEAK PICTURE OF GUERRILLA FORTUNES TO SULLIVAN, CLAIMING THAT THEIR NUMBERS HAD FALLEN FROM THE EIGHT HUNDRED TO NINE HUNDRED OF LAST YEAR, THAT THEY ARE ABANDONING THEIR WOUNDED, AND THAT THEY ARE BECOMING BOTH UNDISCIPLINED AND DISILLUSIONED. GARCIA RELATED THAT THE ARMY ON THE OTHER HAND, HAS BEEN PROVIDING MEDICAL TREATMENT TO WOUNDED GUERRILLAS PRIOR TO TURNING THEM OVER TO HUMAN RIGHTS REPRESENTATIVES (I.E, THE OFFICE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN). GARCIA REPORTED THAT JUST THE DAY BEFORE, THE ARMY FOUND A GUERRILLA CAMP IN QUICHE USED FOR THE PRODUCTION OF MINES, SEIZING SOME 80 CLAYMORE MINES IN THE PROCESS. GARCIA SAW THIS AS AN EXAMPLE OF GUERRILLA INTENTIONS TO CONTINUE THE INSURGENCY. GARCIA ALSO TOOK A SHOT AT THE CUC (COMMITTEE OF CAMPESINO UNITY), LABELING IT (COMMENT: RIGHTLY SO) AS A POLITICAL ARM OF THE URNG, AS IT HAD BEEN FORMED BY EGP LEADER ROLANDO MORAN AND IS NOW LED BY RIGOBERTA MENCHU. GARCIA OPINED THAT PARTICIPATION IN URNG ACTIVITIES BY RELIGIOUS GROUPS IS ON THE DECLINE, BUT THAT CAMPESINOS AS A GROUP ARE STILL BEING SIGNIFICANTLY MANIPULATED.

THE ARMY CAN HELP:

6. GARCIA SUGGESTED THAT WITH THE END OF HOSTILITIES THE ARMY COULD CONTRIBUTE MUCH TO NOT ONLY SECURITY AND DEFENSE BUT ALSO DEVELOPMENT OF THE COUNTRY. GARCIA

EXPLAINED, HOWEVER, THAT SUSPENSION OF MATERIEL ASSISTANCE TO THE ARMY IS HURTING THE COUNTRY WHILE BENEFITING THE NARCOTRAFFICKERS. HE CONTINUED THAT DESPITE PROBLEMS WITH AVAILABILITY OF AIRCRAFT AND NAVAL VESSELS, THE ARMY HAS STILL BEEN ABLE TO ADMINISTER SOME BLOWS TO THE TRAFFICKERS.

OPERATION HUNAPU:

7. GARCIA GAVE DAS SULLIVAN A BRIEF EXPLANATION OF WHY HUNAPU (COMMENT: COMBINED ARMY-POLICE ANTI-CRIME PATROLS) WAS CREATED -- POPULAR CLAMOR DUE TO RISING CRIME -- AND THAT ARMY PERSONNEL CURRENTLY SERVING ALONG SIDE OF THE POLICE WOULD SOON BE WITHDRAWN FROM THE STREETS. HE THEN DIGRESSED AGAIN TO THE SAME APRIL 10 INCIDENT, REPEATING THAT THE SHOOTING HAD NOT BEEN ORDERED FROM ABOVE BUT THAT

IF MILITARY OR POLICE PERSONNEL WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE INCIDENT, THEY WOULD BE HELD ACCOUNTABLE. GARCIA THEN ACCUSED STUDENT LEADER OTTO PERALTA VASQUEZ OF MANIPULATION AND QUESTIONED HIS CREDIBILITY, CLAIMING VASQUEZ TRAVELS OUT OF COUNTRY "MORE THAN THE PRESIDENT" TO PLACES SUCH AS NICARAGUA AND EL SALVADOR. GARCIA SUGGESTED TO SULLIVAN THAT CERTAIN STUDENTS THEMSELVES PLANTED THE BOMBS AT SAN CARLOS UNIVERSITY A FEW MONTHS AGO, THE EVIDENCE BEING THAT STUDENTS HAD BEEN WARNED AWAY JUST PRIOR TO THE DETONATION AND THAT THE GRENADE FRAGMENTS AT THE SITE WERE SIMILAR TO FRAGMENTS FOUND AT THE SCENE OF THE BOMB ATTACK ON TWO MILITARY POLICE VEHICLES A FEW WEEKS AGO.

TIME IS ON THE SIDE OF THE GOG:

8. DAS SULLIVAN OBSERVED TO GARCIA THAT TIME AND THE INTERNATIONAL ENVIRONMENT ARE NOW ON THE SIDE OF THE GOG. GUATEMALA'S IMPROVED RELATIONS WITH MEXICO WERE ESPECIALLY HELPFUL IN THIS CONTEXT. SULLIVAN ALSO TOLD THE MOD THE U.S. WOULD HELP GUATEMALA'S EFFORTS IN SUPPORT OF LEGITIMATE EXPRESSION AND ALSO WOULD SEE WHAT COULD BE DONE TO HELP BRING THE URNG ALONG. SULLIVAN REMARKED TO GARCIA THAT THE GOG'S DEMONSTRATED COMMITMENT TO DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS AND THE ARMED FORCES' SUPPORT OF THE PRESIDENT HAVE HELPED IMPROVE THE IMAGE OF GUATEMALA.

HUMAN RIGHTS CASES:

9. COMMENTING ON SPECIFIC HUMAN RIGHTS CASES, GARCIA SAID:

-- THERE HAS BEEN FORWARD MOVEMENT IN THE DEVINE CASE. HE HAS TOLD THE DEFENSE LAWYER TO STOP INTERRUPTING THE PROCESS WITH UNNECESSARY DELAYS. GARCIA STATED HE IS CONVINCED THE DEVINE MURDER WAS NOT ORDERED FROM ABOVE. HE BELIEVES THIS BECAUSE HE HAS PERSONALLY SPOKEN WITH CAPTAIN CONTRERAS, COLONEL GARCIA CATALAN AND COLONEL PORTILLO GOMEZ.

-- IN THE ESCUINTLA KILLINGS, THOSE INVOLVED ARE UNDER DETENTION EXCEPT FOR THE COMMANDER, WHO WAS FORCED OUT OF THE SERVICE BY HIS (GARCIA'S) ORDER.

-- THE "SANTIAGO" AND "PERONIA" CASES HAVE BEEN RESOLVED. GARCIA HIGHLIGHTED THESE AS EXAMPLES OF HOW QUICKLY CASES CAN BE RESOLVED IF THERE ARE NO DISTORTIONS.

SUCH AS THE DEVINE CASE ARE IMPORTANT TO THE IMPROVEMENT OF BILATERAL RELATIONS WITH THE U.S.

REFUGEES:

10. GARCIA EXPLAINED THAT ARMY CIVIL AFFAIRS PERSONNEL HAVE BEEN WORKING WITH REFUGEES AS THEY MAKE THERE WAY BACK INTO SOCIETY. HE STRESSED THAT THE ROLE OF THE ARMY IS TO HELP THOSE GOG AGENCIES WHICH ARE WORKING THIS ISSUE. HE ADMITTED THAT LAND CONTINUES TO BE A PROBLEM, WITH SOME REFUGEES WANTING TO RETURN TO LANDS NOW OCCUPIED BY OTHERS.

THE ARMY AND THE PRESIDENT:

11. RESPONDING TO A QUESTION, GARCIA REMARKED THAT THE ARMY HAS ACCEPTED THE RECENT LEADERSHIP CHANGES BY PRESIDENT SERRANO. HE SAID THAT SERRANO MET A FEW WEEKS AGO WITH ALL THE OFFICERS AND THAT THERE IS MUCH SOLIDARITY WITH HIM. IN TURN, ACCORDING TO THE MOD, THE PRESIDENT SUPPORTS THE ARMY AND MAINTAINS DIRECT CONTACT WITH THE OFFICERS. GARCIA ALSO DESCRIBED THE RELATIONS BETWEEN THE THREE MEMBERS OF THE HIGH COMMAND, THE PRESIDENT, MOD, AND ARMY CHIEF AS GOOD.

THE REGION:

12. SULLIVAN ASKED THE MOD FOR HIS THOUGHTS ON THE REGION. GARCIA SAID CENTRAL AMERICA IS IN AN ECONOMIC DECLINE AND NEEDS A REGIONAL APPROACH TO SECURITY. TAKING NICARAGUA FIRST, HE DESCRIBED DANIEL ORTEGA AS A LEADER WITH NO CREDIBILITY DUE TO THE DISASTER HE LEFT BEHIND IN NICARAGUA. GARCIA FELT CHAMORRO COULD DO MUCH, BUT THAT SHE NEEDS TO FOCUS HER EFFORTS BETTER OR ELSE THERE WILL BE GROWING DISSATISFACTION FROM UNMET RISING EXPECTATIONS. COSTA RICA, ACCORDING TO GARCIA, ALSO FACES ECONOMIC PROBLEMS. WITH REGARD TO EL SALVADOR, THE NEXT ELECTIONS WOULD DEMONSTRATE HOW REAL DEMOCRACY IS THERE. AS FOR PANAMA, GARCIA DESCRIBED IT AS A COUNTRY WITHOUT A WELL-DEFINED POLITICAL DIRECTION.

13. GARCIA THEN SHIFTED TO THE MILITARIES, CLAIMING THAT GUATEMALA HAS THE SMALLEST MILITARY FORCE PER CAPITA, THE SMALLEST PERCENTAGE OF THE NATIONAL BUDGET OF ANY COUNTRY IN THE REGION, AND HAS NO SOPHISTICATED WEAPONS. THE MENTION OF WEAPONS THEN SHIFTED HIS LINE OF THOUGHT, AND THE MOD REMARKED AS AN ASIDE THAT MEXICO IS GOING TO HELP GUATEMALA WITH REPAIRS TO OUTMODED NAVAL VESSELS. GARCIA CLOSED BY STATING THE ARMY NEEDS TO DO BETTER WITH REGARD TO THE CONTROL OF BORDERS AND PROTECTION OF THE ENVIRONMENT BUT THAT THE MEANS DO NOT YET EXIST TO DO SO.

14. COMMENTS: GARCIA WAS IN AN UNUSUALLY STRONG TRANSMIT MODE, BUT ALL IN ALL IT WAS A GOOD MEETING. HE CAME ACROSS AS A MAN FIRM IN HIS CONVICTIONS BUT ALSO RELAXED AND SELF-CONFIDENT AS MOD. IT WAS ALSO EVIDENT THAT HE PLACES HIGH IMPORTANCE ON THE ISSUE OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND ITS IMPACT ON THE IMAGE OF THE GOVERNMENT AND THE MILITARY.

15. DAS SULLIVAN DID NOT HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY TO CLEAR THIS MESSAGE PRIOR TO HIS DEPARTURE. STROOCK##

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PHUM, PGOV, PINS, UN, ICRC, PREF, ASEC, KJUS, GT
SUBJECT: GUATEMALAN PRESIDENTIAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION: - THE FIRST REPORT

1. (U) PRESIDENT SERRANO'S COORDINATING COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS (COPREDEH), HEADED BY PRESIDENTIAL ADVISOR BERNARDO NEUMANN, ISSUED A REPORT ON HUMAN RIGHTS FOR THE PERIOD JANUARY 1 - APRIL 30, 1992. THIS IS THE FIRST REPORT BY COPREDEH, CREATED AUGUST 1991.

2. (U) THE 16-PAGE REPORT DISCUSSES (COMMENT: IN NO LOGICAL ORDER) THE PEACE PROCESS, INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS-RELATED ACTIVITIES OF THE GOG, ACTIONS BY THE GUERRILLAS, AN ATTEMPTED GOG-ICRC PUBLIC HEALTH CAMPAIGN, THE GENERAL HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN THE COUNTRY, REFUGEES, SOCIAL RIGHTS, AND SEVERAL INDIVIDUAL HUMAN RIGHTS CASES (INCLUDING TWO AMCIT CASES, DEVINE AND ORTIZ) WHICH HAVE ACHIEVED INTERNATIONAL PROMINENCE. A SUMMARY OF THE REPORT FOLLOWS.

PEACE PROCESS

3. (U) A SHORT SUMMARY OF THE PEACE PROCESS IS PROVIDED. IT ASSERTS THE GOG HAS SOUGHT TO SPEED UP THE PROCESS BUT THAT URNG HAS NOT BEEN RESPONDING TO THE GOG IN A TIMELY MANNER. THE PROCESS IS NOT PARALYZED, IT CONCLUDES, JUST MOVING SLOWLY.

INTERNATIONAL CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS

4. (U) THE REPORTS STATES THAT THE GUATEMALAN CONGRESS ON FEBRUARY 19, 1992, VIA DECREE 9-92, RATIFIED THE "INTERNATIONAL COVENANT ON CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS." THIS APPROVAL HAD BEEN SOUGHT BY THE PRESIDENCY SINCE OCTOBER 10, 1988. THE APPROVAL OF THE COVENANT, THE REPORT STATES, SATISFIES "ANOTHER OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS BY [UNCHR] EXPERT ADVISOR DR. CHRISTIAN TOMUSCHAT."

GUERRILLA ACTIONS IN THE FIRST FOUR MONTHS OF 1992

5. (U) THE REPORT ATTRIBUTES ISOLATED ACTS OF SABOTAGE AND TERRORISM TO THE URNG IN THE FIRST THIRD OF THE YEAR. IT ALSO DESCRIBES BRIEF URNG SEIZURES OF SMALL TOWNS IN VARIOUS PARTS OF THE COUNTRY AND THE URNG'S IMPOSITION OF "WAR TAXES" ON DRIVERS CAUGHT IN OCCASIONAL URNG ROADBLOCKS.

6. (U) COPREDEH ALSO ACCUSES THE GUERRILLAS OF ENGAGING IN FORCED RECRUITMENTS AND KIDNAPPINGS. IT CLAIMS THAT THE URNG KILLED OVER 40 PERSONS DURING THE PERIOD UNDER REVIEW AND INJURED MANY MORE BY PLACING CLAYMORE-TYPE MINES. THE REPORT DESCRIBES THE PLACING OF SEVERAL BOMBS THROUGHOUT GUATEMALA CITY DURING THIS PERIOD AND, WITHOUT SPECIFICALLY SAYING SO, IMPLIES THE URNG IS BEHIND THE CAMPAIGN.

GOG-ICRC VACCINATION CAMPAIGN

7. (U) THE REPORT STATES THAT THE GOG AND THE ICRC, VIA AN EXCHANGE OF NOTES ON JANUARY 30 AND FEBRUARY 2, 1992, INITIATED A "FIRST AID AND EMERGENCY MEDICAL CAMPAIGN" TO SOME VILLAGES IN QUICHE DEPARTMENT THAT FORM PART OF THE PRO-GUERRILLA "COMMUNITIES OF THE POPULATION IN RESISTANCE" (CPR). THE VACCINES WERE SUPPLIED BY THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND THE CAMPAIGN WAS TO INVOLVE JOINT PARTICIPATION BY REPRESENTATIVES OF THE MINISTRY AND THE ICRC. ON MARCH 2, HOWEVER, COPREDEH STATES, THE ICRC INFORMED THE GOG THAT IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE TO CARRY OUT THE PROGRAM DUE TO HOSTILITY FROM THE POPULATION IN AND AROUND THE CPR.

PROGRESS IN PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

8. (U) THE REPORT CLAIMS HUMAN RIGHTS COMPLAINTS HAVE DECLINED NOTABLY DURING THE FIRST FOUR MONTHS OF 1992. IT ACKNOWLEDGED COMPLAINTS BY LABOR AND POPULAR SECTOR LEADERS BUT SAID THEY "HAVE SENSATIONALIST PURPOSES." IT STATES MANY SUCH LEADERS HAVE SPENT YEARS DENOUNCING THREATS BUT HAVE YET TO PROVIDE EVIDENCE OR TO COOPERATE WITH AUTHORITIES; THEY REJECT OFFERS OF PROTECTION.

9. (U) THE REPORT POINTS OUT THAT THE REDUCTION IN

C O N F I D E N T I A L SECTION 02 OF 03 GUATEMALA 05088

EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS AND DISAPPEARANCES COINCIDES WITH A REDUCTION IN THE ABILITY OF THE URNG TO ACT DURING THESE MONTHS. IT SUPPORTS THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S THESIS THAT THE MAJORITY OF SUCH VIOLATIONS ARE DIRECTLY DUE TO THE ARMED INTERNAL CONFLICT.

10. (U) COPREDEH'S REPORT THEN DESCRIBES EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS BEING CARRIED OUT BY THE GOG IN THE AREA OF HUMAN RIGHTS. IT ALSO POINTS OUT THAT 1000 NEW POLICE CADETS ENTERED THE ACADEMY ON APRIL 1 AND WILL BE EXPOSED TO COURSE WORK IN HUMAN RIGHTS.

11. (U) THE REPORT STATES THAT IN MARCH, THE NATIONAL POLICE TURNED OVER A REPORT ON THE 1343 DISAPPEARANCES REPORTED DURING 1991. ACCORDING TO COPREDEH, THE POLICE HAVE SOLVED ALL BUT 160 CASES (13 PERCENT). OF THE REPORTED CASES, 1285 HAD TO DO WITH "NON-VIOLENT" DISAPPEARANCES, E.G., MIGRATION, EMIGRATION, ELOPEMENTS. THERE WERE 58 CONFIRMED CASES OF FORCED DISAPPEARANCE DURING 1991.

INTERNATIONALLY RENOWN CASES

12. (U) MICHAEL DEVINE: THE REPORT STATES A VERDICT IN THE AMCIT DEVINE MURDER CASE IS EXPECTED SHORTLY. IT REPORTS THAT THIRTEEN PERSONS ARE UNDER DETENTION, INCLUDING ONE OFFICER, IN THIS CASE.

13. (U) MIRNA MACK: THE REPORT BRIEFLY STATES THAT THE CASE HAS BEEN RETURNED TO THE CIVILIAN COURTS AND WILL NOT BE TRIED IN MILITARY COURTS.

14. (U) DIANA ORTIZ: THE REPORT DESCRIBES THE NAMING OF SPECIAL PROSECUTOR IN THIS AMCIT CASE AND THE RETURN TO GUATEMALA OF SR. ORTIZ. IT CONCLUDES THAT THE CASE REMAINS OPEN AND UNDER INVESTIGATION.

15. (U) AMILCAR MENDEZ: ACCORDING TO THE REPORT, MENDEZ, LEADER OF THE RURAL CERJ HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION, HAS CHARGED FOR A LONG TIME THAT HIS LIFE AND THAT OF THE MEMBERS OF CERJ ARE IN DANGER. THE REPORT POINTS OUT, HOWEVER, THE INTERAMERICAN HUMAN RIGHTS COURT IN SAN JOSE HAS FOUND THAT GUATEMALA IS IN COMPLIANCE WITH ALL COURT ORDERS AS THE PERSONS SUSPECTED OF HAVING CAUSED THE DEATH OF CERJ MEMBERS ARE UNDER ARREST AND FACING TRIAL. THE REPORT RENEWS THE GOG'S OFFER OF PROTECTION.

16. (U) STREET CHILDREN: COPREDEH CLAIMS THE NUMBER OF VIOLATIONS SUFFERED BY STREET CHILDREN DECLINED NOTABLY. IN ADDITION, THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE AND CASA ALIANZA HAVE SIGNED AN AGREEMENT TO WORK TOGETHER ON ISSUES AFFECTING STREET CHILDREN. IT ALSO REPORTS THAT 16 STREET CHILDREN WERE RELEASED FROM DETENTION WHEN IT WAS DETERMINED THE POLICE HAD NOT FOLLOWED

CORRECT LEGAL PROCEDURES IN THEIR ARRESTS.

17. (U) NAHAMAN CARMONA LOPEZ: THE REPORTS DISCUSSES THE SENTENCING OF FOUR POLICEMEN (SEPTEL) TO LONG PRISON TERMS FOR THE BEATING DEATH OF STREET CHILD CARMONA LOPEZ. THE KILLING TOOK PLACE IN 1990.

18. (U) RAMON SILVANO DE LA MORA: THE COPREDEH REPORT DISCUSSES AT SOME LENGTH THE CASE OF THE MEXICAN NATIONAL KILLED IN COMBAT WITH GUATEMALAN ARMY FORCES LAST FEBRUARY. IT SUMMARIZES INFORMATION PROVIDED BY THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT WHICH CONFIRMS THE GOG VERSION OF HOW DE LA MORA DIED AND WHAT HE WAS DOING IN GUATEMALA, I.E., SERVING WITH THE URNG IN AN ARMED CAPACITY.

19. (U) MOISES CISNEROS: TWO PERSONS WERE ARRESTED FOR KILLING THIS SPANISH CITIZEN CATHOLIC MARIST BROTHER.

20. (U) SANTIAGO ATITLAN MASSACRE: TWO MILITARY PERSONNEL, INCLUDING ONE OFFICER, HAVE BEEN SENTENCED TO PRISON TERMS FOR THEIR ROLE IN THE DECEMBER 1990 SHOOTING DEATHS OF 13 PERSONS IN SANTIAGO ATITLAN.

21. (U) JUAN PEREBAL AND SON: A JUDICIAL PROCESS HAS BEEN INITIATED AGAINST TWO EX-CIVIL PATROL LEADERS FOR THE 1989 MURDER OF CERJ MEMBER JUAN PEREBAL AND HIS SON

C O N F I D E N T I A L SECTION 03 OF 03 GUATEMALA 05088

OF THE SAME NAME. A VERDICT IS EXPECTED SHORTLY.

22. (U) UNIVERSITY STUDENTS: THE REPORT SUMMARIZES THE APRIL 10 INCIDENT IN WHICH A UNIVERSITY STUDENT WAS KILLED BY "HUNAHPU" FORCES IN GUATEMALA CITY. THE REPORT COMPLAINS THAT THE PROCESS AGAINST THE POLICE AND SOLDIERS ACCUSED OF THE KILLING HAS BEEN DELAYED BY THE FAILURE OF STUDENT EYEWITNESSES TO SHOW UP TO TESTIFY.

SOCIAL RIGHTS

23. (U) THE LONGEST PORTION OF THE REPORT DEALS WITH GOG EFFORTS TO ENSURE "SOCIAL RIGHTS" FOR ALL GUATEMALANS. IT CONTAINS A LENGTHY--AND POORLY ORGANIZED--EXPOSITION ON THE GOG "SOCIAL-INVESTMENT BUDGET" AND ON PLANS FOR A VARIETY OF SOCIO-ECONOMIC PROJECTS, SOME IN COOPERATION WITH FOREIGN DONORS. THE SECTION CONCLUDES THAT THE GOG'S ECONOMIC POLICIES ARE ON TRACK.

REFUGEES AND INTERNALLY DISPLACED

24. (U) THE GOG, ACCORDING TO THIS REPORT, PLANS ON REPATRIATING 12,000 REFUGEES FROM MEXICO DURING 1992 AND ANOTHER 30,000 IN 1993. THE REPORT SAYS THE PROCESS OF REPATRIATION IS BEING SLOWED DOWN BY THE FAILURE OF THE REFUGEES' PERMANENT COMMISSIONS TO COME TO SCHEDULED MEETINGS WITH THE GOG AND THE UNHCR. IT ALSO BRIEFLY MENTIONS THAT THE GOG'S FONAPAZ IS TRYING TO RESETTLE INTERNALLY DISPLACED PERSONS BACK TO THE AREAS WHICH HAVE BEEN THE "MOST AFFECTED BY GUERRILLA VIOLENCE."

COMMENT: THIS AIN'T GONNA CUT IT

25. (C) THE REPORT IS A DISAPPOINTING, POORLY ORGANIZED, PIECE OF FLUFF. ADMITTEDLY, OF COURSE, IT IS COPREDEH'S FIRST AND THE OFFICE WAS IN THE MIDST OF SERIOUS INTERNAL ORGANIZATIONAL AND FINANCIAL PROBLEMS DURING THE PERIOD THE REPORT COVERS. BUT IF SUBSEQUENT REPORTS ARE NOT BETTER ORGANIZED, RESEARCHED, AND MORE WILLING TO STRIKE SOME DISTANCE BETWEEN COPREDEH AND THE OFFICIAL GOG/ARMY LINE, THEN COPREDEH WILL BE NOT MUCH IF ANY BETTER THAN CEREZO'S OLD COPADH, WHICH WAS NOTHING MORE THAN A P.R. OPERATION RUN OUT OF THE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENCY.

26. (C) IN A MAY 13 LUNCH WITH POLCOUNS AND POLOFF, [redacted] (WHO WILL TRAVEL TO BAHAMAS FOR THE OAS MEETING NEXT WEEK) AND ITS [redacted] B1 ACKNOWLEDGED THE OFFICE WAS HAVING TROUBLE BEING CRITICAL AND INDEPENDENT. FOR THIS REASON, THEY SAID, COPREDEH IS SEEKING SOME OUTSIDE FUNDING THAT WOULD ENABLE IT TO SURVIVE INTERNAL GOG BUDGET BATTLES PARTICULARLY WHEN (IF?) COPREDEH FINDS IT NECESSARY TO CRITICIZE THE GOG. COPREDEH IS, AFTER ALL, SUPPOSED TO

BE MORE THAN JUST A P.R. OPERATION; IT IS SUPPOSED TO BE ABLE TO INTERVENE IN EXECUTIVE BRANCH AGENCIES AND GET ACTION TO CORRECT HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS BEING CAUSED BY AGENTS OF THAT BRANCH. WE'LL SEE. STROOCK##

2. (LOU) SECURITY CONCERNS DOMINATED THE HUMAN RIGHTS SCENE IN MARCH AND APRIL. A SERIES OF SPECTACULAR ROBBERIES BY WELL-ARMED GANGS HIGHLIGHTED A GENERAL SENSE THAT CRIME INCREASED SUBSTANTIALLY IN THE FIRST MONTHS OF 1992. THE GOG RESPONDED ON MARCH 4 BY CREATING "HUNAHPU" UNITS COMPOSED OF NATIONAL POLICE, TREASURY POLICE, MILITARY POLICE, AND REGULAR MILITARY PERSONNEL.

3. (LOU) INITIAL PUBLIC REACTION TO THE "HUNAHPU" PROGRAM WAS FAVORABLE, BUT THE EXPERIMENT LED TO TRAGIC RESULTS. SHORTLY AFTER MIDNIGHT ON APRIL 16, "HUNAHPU" PERSONNEL CONFRONTED A CROWD OF SAN CARLOS UNIVERSITY (USAC) STUDENTS PREPARING FOR ANNUAL "HUELGA DE DOLORES" CELEBRATIONS IN DOWNTOWN GUATEMALA CITY. THE INCIDENT LED TO SHOOTING, LEAVING ONE STUDENT DEAD AND SEVEN WOUNDED. THE STUDENTS CLAIMED THE SHOOTINGS WERE UNPROVOKED; THE ARMY CLAIMED STUDENTS FIRED FIRST. THE GOVERNMENT ARRESTED 28 MEMBERS OF THE UNIT INVOLVED, BUT PUBLIC OUTRAGE PROMPTED THE INTERIOR MINISTER TO ANNOUNCE ON APRIL 28 THAT HE WOULD END THE NEW PROGRAM IN MAY, WHEN SOME 1,000 CADETS WILL GRADUATE FROM THE POLICE ACADEMY. (GT #3888; GT #3825)

4. (LOU) SHORTLY AFTER THE "HUNAPU" SHOOTING CONTROVERSY DIED DOWN, A BOMBING CAMPAIGN BEGAN IN LATE APRIL. PUBLIC BUILDINGS AND OFFICES THROUGHOUT THE CAPITAL WERE TARGETTED, BUT NO GROUP CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY. THE ARMY ACCUSED THE GUERRILLAS, WHILE THE LEFT ACCUSED THE FAR RIGHT. THE ONLY CERTAINTY WAS THAT THE BOMBINGS AND FALSE ALARMS WERE INTENDED TO CREATE INSTABILITY. (GT #4483; GT #5058)

5. (C) ANGIT URSULINE SISTER DIANNA ORTIZ RETURNED TO GUATEMALA

GUATEM 05372 02 OF 08 222339Z SHB4643

ON APRIL 5-9. ORTIZ, WHO STAYED AT THE AMBASSADOR'S RESIDENCE DURING HER VISIT, WAS ACCOMPANIED BY HER ATTORNEYS, THERAPIST, AND CHURCH WORKERS. SHE PROVIDED COURT TESTIMONY IN RESPONSE TO THE JUDGE'S QUESTIONS, AND PARTICIPATED IN A PARTIAL RECONSTRUCTION OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING HER ALLEGED NOVEMBER 1989 KIDNAPPING AND TORTURE. HOWEVER, SHE PROVIDED FEW ADDITIONAL DETAILS THAT MIGHT ASSIST INVESTIGATORS, DID NOT MAKE HERSELF AVAILABLE FOR AN INTERVIEW WITH SPECIAL PROSECUTOR LINARES NOR WITH SPECIAL INVESTIGATOR CARL WEST, DID NOT TRY TO IDENTIFY PHOTOGRAPHS AT THE POLICE, AND DID NOT RETURN TO COURT TO ANSWER THE 200 QUESTIONS PREPARED BY LINARES (GT #4454). ON APRIL 9, ORTIZ GAVE A PRESS CONFERENCE IN WHICH SHE LIKENED BEING IN THE COURTROOM WITH SPECIAL PROSECUTOR LINARES TO BEING TORTURED AGAIN. SHE DECLARED SHE HAD RETURNED TO GUATEMALA BOTH TO CLEAR UP HER OWN CASE AND HIGHLIGHT THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN GUATEMALA. (GT #3823)

6. (LOU) GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO TOLD THE AMBASSADOR ON MARCH 28 THAT HE WILL SEEK RE-ELECTION WHEN HIS TERM EXPIRES THIS AUGUST. DE LEON HAS BEEN INSTRUMENTAL IN TRANSFORMING THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE FROM A

CONSTITUTIONAL EXPERIMENT INTO A MAJOR INSTITUTIONAL PLAYER ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS SCENE. MANY SEE DE LEON'S DESIRE TO REMAIN AS PART OF A RUMORED 1995 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION STRATEGY. (GT #3092)

POLITICAL AND OTHER EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS

7. (LOU) CISNEROS, NOISES: ON APRIL 29, GUATEMALAN ARCHBISHOP PROSPERO PENADOS DEL BARRIO PRESIDED OVER A MASS ON THE ONE YEAR ANNIVERSARY OF THE DEATH OF SPANISH CITIZEN MARIST BROTHER NOISES CISNEROS. THE ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE OF HUMAN RIGHTS HAS ORGANIZED AN INTERNATIONAL CAMPAIGN TO PRESSURE THE GOVERNMENT FOR A FULL RESOLUTION OF THE CASE. IN MAY, THREE SUSPECTS WERE ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH THE MURDERS, BUT LAWYERS FOR THE CISNEROS FAMILY DOUBT THE AUTHORITIES HAVE CAPTURED ALL PERSONS INVOLVED IN THE CRIME. (GT #4778)

HUGO CONTRERAS AND THE ENLISTED MEN IMPLICATED IN THE DEVINE MURDER REMAIN UNDER MILITARY DETENTION. THE EMBASSY HAS LEARNED, HOWEVER, THAT CONTRERAS HAS ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS LEFT THE MILITARY BASE WHERE HE IS SUPPOSEDLY CONFINED. DILATORY TACTICS AND VARIOUS APPEALS PREVENTED ANY FURTHER PROGRESS IN COURT PROCEEDINGS AGAINST THE DEFENDANTS.

9. (U) CIUDAD PERONIA MASSACRE: ON APRIL 8, AN APPEALS COURT OVERTURNED 30-YEAR PRISON SENTENCES ISSUED FOR TWO SOLDIERS CONVICTED FOR THE CIUDAD PERONIA MURDERS. THEY INSTEAD WERE SENTENCED TO DEATH. THE TWO CONVICTS SUBSEQUENTLY ESCAPED FROM JAIL IN MAY. (GT 03822)

12. (U) LOPEZ, NAHAMAN CARMONA: ON APRIL 28, GUATEMALAN COURTS SENTENCED FOUR POLICEMEN TO PRISON FOR THE MARCH 4, 1990 MURDER OF 13-YEAR-OLD STREET CHILD NAHAMAN CARMONA LOPEZ. 13. (U) MACK CHANG, MYRNA: ON MARCH 5, THE LAWYERS COMMITTEE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS RELEASED WHAT WE BELIEVE TO BE THE MOST COMPLETE AND IMPARTIAL REPORT PREPARED TO DATE ON THE MACK MURDER AND THE SUBSEQUENT INVESTIGATIONS. ON MARCH 27, AN ORDER TRANSFERRING CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS AGAINST NOEL DE JESUS BETETA ALVAREZ, MYRNA MACK'S ACCUSED KILLER, WAS REVERSED. 14. (LOU) MARTIN, DIEGO DOMINGO: THE EMBASSY CONTINUES TO RECEIVE INQUIRIES REGARDING THE NOVEMBER 8, 1991 KIDNAPPING OF

DIEGO DOMINGO MARTIN IN LA DEMOCRACIA, HUEHUETENANGO. ACCORDING TO THE HEAD INVESTIGATOR AT THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE, MARTIN WAS ASLEEP AT THE HOME OF HIS IN-LAWS WHEN FOUR MEN TOOK HIM AWAY. THE CRIME OCCURRED AT A REMOTE RURAL LOCALE; THE ONLY WITNESSES ARE FAMILY MEMBERS. MARTIN'S WIFE CLAIMS TO HAVE TURNED ON A FLASHLIGHT AND RECOGNIZED THE LOCAL CIVIL DEFENSE PATROL (PAC) COMMANDER AS ONE OF THE KIDNAPPERS. HIS MOTHER-IN-LAW REPORTS RECOGNIZING THE SAME INDIVIDUAL'S VOICE. THE OMBUDSMAN'S REPRESENTATIVE IN HUEHUETENANGO HAS ASKED AUTHORITIES TO QUESTION THE PAC LEADER, BUT IS NOT SURE IF SUCH QUESTIONING HAS TAKEN PLACE. THE KIDNAPPING MAY BE POLITICALLY MOTIVATED AS MARTIN WAS OUTSPOKENLY CRITICAL OF CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS AND THEIR ACTIVITIES. (GT 03936)

30. (U) GRENADE INCIDENTS: SEVERAL CRIMINAL INCIDENTS INVOLVING HAND GRENADES DEMONSTRATE HOW PERSONAL DISPUTES FREQUENTLY ESCALATE INTO VIOLENCE THAT, WERE IT NOT FOR CLEAR PERSONAL MOTIVES, MIGHT OTHERWISE BE INTERPRETED AS POLITICAL IN NATURE. THE PERPETRATOR REPORTEDLY HAD A PERSONAL DISPUTE WITH SEVERAL BAR GIRLS SHORTLY BEFORE THE INCIDENT. ON MARCH 23, ONE PERSON WAS INJURED WHEN TWO GRENADES WERE THROWN AT TWO BROTHELS. SUBJECT: HIGHLIGHTS OF REMARKS OF FOREIGN CHIEFS OF

11. HE PROPOSED EXTENDING THE MANDATE OF EXISTING OAS BODIES, FOR EXAMPLE, THAT OF THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION FOR COOPERATION ON AGRICULTURE TO INCLUDE PROTECTION OF THE ENVIRONMENT. HE FURTHER PROPOSED THE

CREATION OF AN INTER-AMERICAN FORCE FOR CONSERVATION OF THE ENVIRONMENT, TO ACT IN RESPONSE TO DISASTERS AT THE REQUEST OF THE INTERESTED STATE. THIS FORCE WOULD COOPERATE WITH THE ARMED FORCES OF EACH OAS NATION, NOT ONLY AUGMENTING THE CAPABILITIES OF THE INTER-AMERICAN FORCE, BUT PROVIDING MILITARY FORCES WITH A CONSTRUCTIVE NEW ROLE.

12. NIEHAUS ALSO PROPOSED THE CREATION OF AN OAS AGENCY FOR ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT, AS THIS IMPORTANT GOAL DEPENDS ON HEMISPHERIC "SOLIDARITY," AN OAS "GUIDING PRINCIPLE."

13. MEXICAN SRE FERNANDO SOLANA SAID THAT DEMOCRACY AND DEVELOPMENT CANNOT BE DISASSOCIATED, NOR CAN DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS BE TRANSPLANTED WITHOUT TAKING INTO ACCOUNT ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL CONDITIONS. HE EXPRESSED DISAPPOINTMENT THAT RESOLUTION 232, APPROVED IN 1976 FOR AN INTER-AMERICAN CONFERENCE FOR COOPERATION ON DEVELOPMENT, HAS NOT YET RESULTED IN SUCH A CONFERENCE TAKING PLACE, DESPITE 13 SUBSEQUENT GENERAL ASSEMBLY REITERATIONS. SOLANA FELT THIS INDICATED THAT THE OAS WAS NOT DEMONSTRATING A CAPABILITY OF DEALING WITH KEY ISSUES. HE PROPOSED THAT PREPARATORY WORK BEGIN NOW TO IDENTIFY BROAD PROJECTS IN THE SOCIAL AREA, AND HOW TO IMPLEMENT AND FUND THEM. HE EXPRESSED MEXICO'S WILLINGNESS TO HOST THIS CONFERENCE.

NASSAU 02322 02 OF 07 242051Z 023677 S0162

14. HE STATED THAT "MEXICO CONSIDERS THE INTER-AMERICAN TREATY FOR MUTUAL ASSISTANCE TO BE OBSOLETE AND THEREFORE USELESS. IN ANY EVENT, OTHER FORA FOR CONSULTATION AND EXCHANGE OF MILITARY INFORMATION, SUCH AS THE INTER-AMERICAN DEFENSE BOARD, ARE SUFFICIENT..."

15. CANADIAN MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS BARBARA MCDOUGALL EXPRESSED HER GOVERNMENT'S DETERMINATION TO SEE THE RESTORATION OF DEMOCRACY IN HAITI. SHE REITERATED CANADA'S PLEDGE TO ALLOCATE A FURTHER FIVE MILLION DOLLARS FOR HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE IN HAITI IN ACCORDANCE WITH AG/RES 1/91 AND 2/91, BRING TO 7.5 MILLION THE AMOUNT THAT CANADA HAS ALLOCATED SINCE THE COUP.

16. CONCERNING PERU, MCDOUGALL STATED THAT "CANADA, FOR ONE, WILL REFUSE TO PROVIDE THE SAME LEVEL OF ECONOMIC SUPPORT TO A REGIME THAT DEPRIVES ITS PEOPLE OF DEMOCRACY. HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE WILL CONTINUE; BUT DIRECT SUPPORT TO THE GOVERNMENT WILL BE SUSPENDED UNTIL FULL DEMOCRACY IS RESTORED. IT WILL NOT BE BUSINESS AS USUAL WITH THIS PRESIDENT." GOP PRESIDENT FUJIMORI'S VISIT TO NASSAU SHOWED THE POWER OF THE OAS, BUT THE GOC WAS DISAPPOINTED BY HIS INFLEXIBILITY.

17. MCDOUGALL PLEDGED THE GOC TO SUPPORT THE PARTNERSHIP FOR DEMOCRACY AND DEVELOPMENT (PDD) "WITH DIRECT TECHNICAL AND FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE," AND ANNOUNCED THAT CANADA "WILL ALLOCATE ONE MILLION DOLLARS IN ADDITIONAL FUNDS DIRECTLY TO THE UNIT TO GET IT STARTED ON THE WORK PLAN APPROVED LAST YEAR."

18. URUGUAYAN FOREIGN MINISTER HECTOR GROS ESPIELL STATED THAT OAS ACTIONS HAVE DEMONSTRATED THAT "THE IMPUNITY OF COUP AUTHORS IS BEHIND US NOW." HE STATED THERE CAN BE NO TRUE GUARANTEES OF HUMAN RIGHTS WHEN DEMOCRACY IS UNDER ATTACK. SIGNIFICANTLY, GROS CALLED TERRORISM THE "BIGGEST THREAT TO HUMAN RIGHTS," AND CALLED ON THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS TO STUDY TERRORISM AS A FIRST STEP TOWARD COMMISSION ACTION ON TERRORISM. HE CALLED ON OAS COUNTRIES WHICH HAVE NOT YET DONE SO TO JOIN THE SAN JOSE CONVENTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS.

19. HE ENDORSED CICAD'S WORK FOR A HEMISPHERIC RESPONSE ON TRAFFICKING, AND THE EAI AND MERCOSUR AS STEPS TOWARD HEMISPHERIC INTEGRATION. HE CALLED THE VIEW OF BORDERS AS "LIMITS" ANTIQUATED, AS THEY SHOULD BE AREAS FOR

SUBJECT: THE ARCHBISHOP SEES THE LIGHT

1. CONFIDENTIAL -- ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: GUATEMALAN ARCHBISHOP PROSPERO PENADOS DEL BARRIO TOLD THE AMBASSADOR ON JUNE 22 OF PLANS TO RELEASE A PASTORAL LETTER WITHIN TWO OR THREE WEEKS. CONTRARY TO PREVIOUS REPORTS, THE LETTER WILL NOT ACCUSE THE USG OF SUPPORTING PROTESTANT EFFORTS TO WIN GUATEMALAN CONVERTS. IN OTHER COMMENTS, THE ARCHBISHOP NOTED LITTLE CHANGE RECENTLY IN THE GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION, ESPECIALLY IN THE ATTITUDES OF MILITARY PERSONNEL BELIEVED RESPONSIBLE FOR MOST

ABUSES. HE DISMISSED AS INACCURATE RECENT REPORTS OF AN ATTACK ON THE PRESIDENT OF THE GUATEMALAN EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE, AND OBSERVED THAT A "WELL-ORGANIZED CAMPAIGN BY PERSONS WITH POWER" IS BEHIND THE THEFT OF SACRED IMAGES AT NUMEROUS CATHOLIC CHURCHES. END SUMMARY.

3. ON JUNE 22, THE AMBASSADOR, PAO AND POLOFF CALLED ON GUATEMALAN ARCHBISHOP PROSPERO PENADOS DEL BARRIO AT HIS OFFICE NEXT TO THE CATHEDRAL. THE FOLLOWING TOPICS WERE DISCUSSED.

PASTORAL LETTER

4. ACCORDING TO RUMORS THAT HAVE BEEN CIRCULATING

CONFIDENTIAL

HERE, THE ARCHBISHOP IS ABOUT TO RELEASE A PASTORAL LETTER ALLEGING USG SUPPORT FOR PROTESTANT PROSELYTIZATION EFFORTS IN GUATEMALA. THE ARCHBISHOP CONFIRMED PLANS TO PUBLISH A PASTORAL LETTER WITHIN THE NEXT MONTH, BUT DENIED THAT IT WOULD MENTION THE USG. THE LETTER WILL REPORTEDLY BE AN "HISTORICAL" DOCUMENT TRACING THE HISTORY AND DEVELOPMENT OF THE CHURCH. EVANGELICAL PROTESTANTISM WILL BE DISCUSSED, BUT WITHOUT REFERENCE TO THE USG. THE ARCHBISHOP ACCEPTED THE AMBASSADOR'S REASSURANCES THAT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT PROVIDES NO SUPPORT TO PROTESTANT CHURCHES OVERSEAS. HE AGREED TO CONTACT THE AMBASSADOR PERSONALLY IF CONCERNS EVER ARISE ABOUT THAT POSSIBILITY.

HUMAN RIGHTS

5. THE AMBASSADOR ASKED FOR THE ARCHBISHOP'S IMPRESSIONS ON THE CURRENT HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION. THE ARCHBISHOP REPLIED THAT CIVILIAN AUTHORITIES APPEARED COMMITTED TO ENDING ABUSES. THE ARCHBISHOP AND PRESIDENT SERRANO MET RECENTLY FOR A TWO-HOUR, PRIVATE BREAKFAST; HUMAN RIGHTS WAS AMONG ISSUES DISCUSSED. THE ARCHBISHOP LEFT WITH THE IMPRESSION THAT SERRANO IS "SINCERE" AND GENUINELY "WORRIED" ABOUT THE HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. THE ARCHBISHOP SHARED THE AMBASSADOR'S VIEW THAT THE MINISTERS OF INTERIOR AND DEFENSE TAKE HUMAN RIGHTS SERIOUSLY AS WELL.

6. THE ARCHBISHOP ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT MILITARY PERSONNEL REMAIN RESPONSIBLE FOR MOST HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES. IN HIS VIEW, THE OLDER GENERATION OF COLONELS

CONFIDENTIAL

AND GENERALS GENERALLY HAVE NO QUALMS ABOUT KILLING PEOPLE, MAKING IT IMPOSSIBLE TO MAINTAIN A HUMAN RIGHTS DIALOGUE WITH THEM. A DIFFERENT ATTITUDE SEEMS PREVALENT AMONG THE YOUNGER GENERATION OF OFFICERS, BUT VIOLATIONS NONETHELESS CONTINUE.

ORTIZ CASE

7. LAWYERS AT THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE REPRESENT SISTER DIANNA ORTIZ, SO THE AMBASSADOR MENTIONED HIS TESTIMONY BEFORE THE COURT HANDLING THE INVESTIGATION INTO HER ABDUCTION. THE AMBASSADOR NOTED THAT HE WILL TESTIFY TO "EVERYTHING I KNOW — WHICH IS VERY LITTLE." THE AMBASSADOR MET ONLY BRIEFLY WITH SR.

DIANNA SOME 48 HOURS AFTER HER RELEASE. SR. DIANNA TOLD THE AMBASSADOR SHE WAS KIDNAPPED AND HIT BY HER ABDUCTORS; SHE SAID NOTHING ABOUT RAPE, TORTURE, OR A PIT FULL OF CORPSES. THE DOCTOR WHO EXAMINED HER TOLD THE AMBASSADOR OF BURNS ON HER BACK AND BRUISES.

8. THE AMBASSADOR AND THE ARCHBISHOP AGREED THAT SISTER DIANNA IS A VERY SHY, EMOTIONAL PERSON. THE ARCHBISHOP RECALLED SHE WAS EXTREMELY UPSET AFTER BEING RELEASED. SHE MENTIONED BEING STRUCK ON THE FACE AND BURNED ON HER BACK. THE AMBASSADOR REPEATED THE

EMBASSY'S DESIRE TO ASSIST IN ANY WAY POSSIBLE WITH INVESTIGATIONS INTO THE INCIDENT. HE NOTED, HOWEVER, THAT SISTER DIANNA SPENT ONLY TWO DAYS TESTIFYING IN COURT DURING HER FIVE-DAY VISIT IN APRIL, WITH THE OTHER THREE DAYS DEVOTED TO PRESS CONFERENCES AND MEETINGS WITH HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS. THE AMBASSADOR HOPED SISTER DIANNA WOULD COOPERATE MORE FULLY WITH LEGAL AUTHORITIES IN SUBSEQUENT PROCEEDINGS.

ATTACK ON EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE PRESIDENT

9. THE AMBASSADOR ALSO INQUIRED INTO THE WELFARE OF EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE PRESIDENT MSGR GUILLERMO FLORES. GUATEMALAN NEWSPAPERS HAVE REPORTED THAT THREE ARMED MEN RECENTLY ATTACKED AND BEAT MSGR FLORES IN FRONT OF

HIS GUATEMALA CITY CHURCH. THE ARCHBISHOP SAID PRESS ACCOUNTS CONTAINED "VERY BIG LIES"; THE INCIDENT WAS A COMMON ROBBERY. THREE ARMED MEN ACCOSTED THE MSGR, PUT HIM INTO A CAR, DROVE HIM AROUND THE CAPITAL, AND RELEASED HIM UNHARMED AFTER STEALING HIS WATCH AND MONEY.

[redacted] B1

THEFT OF SACRED IMAGES

10. THE ARCHBISHOP MADE REFERENCE TO THE RECENT THEFT OF SACRED IMAGES AT VARIOUS CATHOLIC CHURCHES. HE HAD NO CLUES REGARDING THOSE RESPONSIBLE, BUT OBSERVED THAT THE HEISTS WERE WELL-PLANNED AND CAREFULLY-ORGANIZED, SUGGESTING THAT ROBBERY WAS NOT THE PRINCIPAL MOTIVE. THE THIEVES TOOK LARGE, BULKY IMAGES IN SEVERAL DARING RAIDS, INCLUDING ONE ON THE TUESDAY BEFORE EASTER. THE ARCHBISHOP BELIEVED THE ROBBERIES REFLECTED A "WELL-ORGANIZED CAMPAIGN BY INDIVIDUALS WITH POWER."

COMMENT

11. IN 1989, THE ARCHBISHOP RELEASED A PASTORAL LETTER ACCUSING THE USG OF SUPPORTING EVANGELICAL EFFORTS IN GUATEMALA PURSUANT TO OFFICIAL GOVERNMENT POLICY. THEN-AMBASSADOR MICHEL PROTESTED THE LETTER IN A SUBSEQUENT MEETING WITH THE ARCHBISHOP.

12. NEWS THAT THE UPCOMING PASTORAL LETTER WILL NOT CONTAIN REFERENCES TO THE USG THUS IS MOST WELCOME.

SINCE 1989, AN EVANGELICAL PROTESTANT PRESIDENT HAS TAKEN OFFICE AND INTER-DENOMINATIONAL TENSIONS HAVE BEEN ON THE RISE. RENEWED ACCUSATIONS OF USG SUPPORT FOR EVANGELICAL ACTIVITIES WOULD ONLY FURTHER INFLAME CATHOLIC-PROTESTANT TENSIONS. WE HAVE KEPT A CAREFUL DISTANCE FROM THE INTER-DENOMINATIONAL ISSUES, AND HOPE TO REMAIN UNINVOLVED.

13. THE FRIENDLY, COOPERATIVE ATMOSPHERE OF THE MEETING IS ALSO NOTEWORTHY. THIS WAS THE FOURTH TIME THE AMBASSADOR AND ARCHBISHOP MET PRIVATELY. THE ARCHBISHOP SEEMED COMFORTABLE AND GENUINELY INTERESTED IN MAINTAINING CORDIAL RELATIONS. AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE MEETING, THE ARCHBISHOP ESCORTED THE AMBASSADOR TO THE LATTER'S CAR OUTSIDE THE CATHEDRAL, WHERE THEY APPEARED TOGETHER TO ANSWER REPORTERS' QUESTIONS.

TO : CA - Ms. Elizabeth M. Tamposi

FROM : CA/OCS - Elizabeth A. Swift

SUBJECT : CA/OCS Weekly Update

Crisis Management

Jay Rini, CA/OCS/CCS, returned on June 20 from Belgrade via Budapest. The satellite phones in both embassies are up and working. Staff has been trained on their use, and Embassy Belgrade is refining its warden system. The final decision on payment of Treasury checks in Serbia-Montenegro has not yet been made.

Mexico

Lawrence Eck died shortly after being released from prison in Cuidad Juarez. The GOM investigation found no evidence that Eck was beaten or mistreated and that the cause of death was pneumonia.

The Embassy has prepared a diplomatic note in the case of Mario Amado-Hernandez, who was found hanging in a jail cell in Tijuana shortly after his arrest on June 16. Neither the arrest nor the death had been reported to the Consulate General.

Guatemala

The seven-year-old disappearance case of Blake/Davis is coming to an end. The Smithsonian Institution has positively identified the remains of the men. It is hoped that the Guatemalan government will issue presumptive reports of death on the men upon receipt of the Smithsonian's written report. Both the Embassy and the Department continue to follow this case closely.

Russia

U.S. citizen George Hinrichs died while on a cruise in the Sea of Japan and his remains were disembarked in Vladivostok,

3. AFTER AN INITIAL EXCHANGE OF PLEASANTRIES, A/S ARONSON INDICATED THAT HE HAD SOME ISSUES TO RAISE BUT ASKED THAT NEUMANN LEAD OFF. NEUMANN REPLIED THAT HIS ISSUES WERE PROBABLY THE SAME AS THOSE OF THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY. HE CITED A DRAMATICALLY IMPROVED HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION WHICH COULD ONLY BENEFIT FROM A PEACE SETTLEMENT. HE STATED THAT PEACE MUST NOT BE A MILITARY PEACE, BUT A POLITICAL PEACE. NEUMANN OPINED THAT THE PACS ARE STILL THE MAJOR OBSTACLE TO A HUMAN RIGHTS AGREEMENT, THE ISSUE OF THE "COMMISSION OF THE PAST" AND HUMANITARIAN LAW HAVING BEEN SUBSTANTIALLY WORKED OUT.

4. A/S ARONSON PICKED UP ON THE THEME OF THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS AND ASKED WHEN THE GOG WOULD HAVE AN ANSWER TO THE URNG PROPOSAL THAT WAS DELIVERED BY MONSIGNOR QUEZADA ON MAY 15. NEUMANN SAID THAT THE GOVERNMENT WISHED TO GIVE THE PROPOSAL A THOROUGH REPLY AND HAD

STATE 286195 291451Z 004629 $064261

THEREFORE DISTRIBUTED IT TO NEARLY 200 INDIVIDUALS, INSTITUTES, AND ORGANIZATIONS FOR COMMENT. THE GOG PEACE DELEGATION WAS TABULATING THE RESULTS WHEN NEUMANN LEFT GUATEMALA AND HE EXPECTED A FORMAL REPLY VERY SOON. NEUMANN SAID THAT THE ONLY REMAINING HANDICAP THEN WOULD BE THE DIFFICULTY IN ELICITING A YES OR NO FROM THE URNG.

5. A/S ARONSON TOLD NEUMANN THAT HE DID NOT DOUBT THE GOG'S SINCERE DESIRE FOR PEACE AND WAS SURE THAT PEACE WOULD ENGENDER A BENEFICIAL CLIMATE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS, BUT REGRETTED THAT THERE ARE NO PRESSURES BUILT INTO THE PROCESS TO MOVE NEGOTIATIONS ALONG. HE EXPRESSED HIS UNDERSTANDING FOR THE STRONG NATIONALIST DESIRE TO MAINTAIN THE GUATEMALAN CHARACTER OF THE TALKS AND RELUCTANCE TO ACCEPT THE SALVADORAN MODEL, BUT CONTINUED THAT IT IS IN GUATEMALA'S INTEREST TO FIND A MECHANISM TO ACCELERATE THE PROCESS TOWARD SETTLEMENT IN FACE OF INERTIA OF THE STATUS QUO. IN THE CASE OF EL SALVADOR, NO PEACE COULD HAVE BEEN ACHIEVED AND THE WAR WOULD NOT HAVE ENDED IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR THE DEADLINE THAT THE IMPENDING COMPLETION OF SYG PEREZ DE CUELLAR'S TERM REPRESENTED.

6. A/S ARONSON DID NOT WANT TO RECOMMEND ONE MECHANISM OVER ANOTHER, BUT URGED PRESIDENT SERRANO TO FIND SUCH A MECHANISM. HE CITED CHAIRMAN TORRICELLI'S INTERMEDIARY EFFORTS. HE ALSO CITED MEXICAN SUPPORT FOR THE MEDIATION OF A LATIN AMERICAN ELDER STATESMAN, BUT SECONDED UN SYG BOUTROS GHALI'S OBSERVATION THAT SUCH A FIGURE WOULD HARDLY STEP IN TO AN UNDEFINED ROLE. WARNING THAT THE RISK IS THAT THE "PROCESS" MAY NEVER END, A/S ARONSON OFFERED THAT THE USG IS, AS ALWAYS, PREPARED TO HELP WITHOUT INTRUDING. HE URGED THAT WHOEVER CAN HELP SHOULD BE CALLED UPON.

7. NEUMANN REPLIED THAT ALL THAT A/S ARONSON HAD SAID WAS TRUE. THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT TORRICELLI'S VISIT HAD BEEN A BIG HELP. THE CHAIRMAN HAD ALREADY MADE A CONTRIBUTION AND IN THE NEXT FEW DAYS, THERE SHOULD BE WORD ON PROGRESS ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS ACCORD. DECLARING THAT PRESIDENT SERRANO DOES NOT WANT TO CONTINUE THE STATUS QUO FOR THE REST OF HIS TERM, NEUMANN SAID, "WE CANNOT AFFORD TO CONTINUE THIS WAY. THE MILITARY IS IN FULL AGREEMENT REGARDING THIS POINT."

8. A/S ARONSON STRESSED AGAIN THE IMPORTANCE OF A RAPID RESPONSE TO THE URNG. CHAIRMAN TORRICELLI WAS PLEASED THAT THE URNG HAD PRODUCED THEIR DOCUMENT FAIRLY RAPIDLY. VALUABLE MOMENTUM COULD BE LOST, A/S ARONSON ENJOINED NEUMANN TO BRING THE TWO SIDES TOGETHER UNDER SOME PRESSURE AND SUGGESTED THAT THEY BE HOSTED BY SALINAS OF MEXICO, THE UN, OR TORRICELLI AND THE USG.

---

9. A/S ARONSON TURNED TO A DISCUSSION OF ADMINISTRATION EFFORTS TO BREAK THE LOGJAM IN CONGRESS ON IMET FUNDING FOR GUATEMALA. HE PERSONALLY HAD SPOKEN WITH SEVERAL MEMBERS AND HAD ALSO ENLISTED CHAIRMAN TORRICELLI'S ASSISTANCE. A/S ARONSON THEN LAID OUT THE PROPOSAL TO OFFER AN EXPANDED IMET HUMAN RIGHTS COURSE WHICH THE USG INTENDS TO OFFER THROUGHOUT THE HEMISPHERE. THE PILOT PROGRAM WOULD CONSIST OF A MOBILE TRAINING TEAM COMPOSED OF U.S. MILITARY LAWYERS TRAVELLING TO GUATEMALA TO CONDUCT A SEMINAR ON MILITARY JUSTICE. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN AND REPRESENTATIVES OF SOME OF GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS NGOS WOULD BE INVITED TO PARTICIPATE. IF SUCH A PROGRAM COULD BE WORKED OUT, THE REMAINING INET MONIES COULD BE FREED UP FOR TRADITIONAL PROFESSIONAL MILITARY EDUCATION (PME) COURSES. NEUMANN WAS ENTHUSIASTIC ABOUT THE IDEA AND INDICATED THAT THIS WAS EXACTLY THE TYPE OF PROGRAM THAT COPREDEH WAS PROMOTING. HE DID NOT FORESEE ANY PROBLEM. A/S ARONSON SUGGESTED THAT A REPRESENTATIVE FROM COPREDEH MIGHT PARTICIPATE.

---

HUMAN RIGHTS CONCERNS

---

10. A/S ARONSON THEN RAISED SOME RECENT DISTURBING DEVELOPMENTS ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS FRONT THAT WERE CAUSE FOR SERIOUS CONCERN FOR THE USG. HE NOTED THE SYSTEMATIC ATTACKS ON THE PRESS AND STRESSED THAT IT WAS ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL THAT PRESIDENT SERRANO DENOUNCE THESE ATTACKS PUBLICLY. IT IS PRECISELY BECAUSE THESE JOURNALISTS HAVE BEEN CRITICAL OF THE GOG THAT THE GOVERNMENT MUST MAKE IT CLEAR THAT PRESS FREEDOM MUST BE GUARANTEED. NEUMANN MARKED THAT THE GOG IS CONVINCED THAT THE PRESS IS BEING USED IN A CONCERTED DESTABILIZATION CAMPAIGN, BUT JOKED

THAT IF THE SERRANO ADMINISTRATION WERE ATTEMPTING TO SHUT DOWN ITS CRITICS, THERE WOULD BE NO PRESS LEFT BECAUSE PRESIDENT SERRANO IS NOT GETTING MUCH GOOD PRESS LATELY.

11. NEUMANN INDIRECTLY CONFIRMED THE INTIMIDATION WHEN HE RECOUNTED THAT A NOTED TELEVISION JOURNALIST NAMED GUTIERREZ HAD TOLD HIM THAT HIS STATION WAS BEING PRESSURED BY GOG OFFICIALS. NEUMANN SAID THAT HE REFERRED THE COMPLAINT TO THE PRESIDENT, BUT DID NOT INDICATE WHAT OUTCOME, IF ANY, THERE HAD BEEN. A/S ARONSON POINTED OUT THAT A CHIEF OF STATE MUST REALIZE HOW MUCH WEIGHT HIS WORD CARRIES. THERE MUST BE NO MISUNDERSTANDINGS; MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY FORCES MAY MISHEAR (HEAR WHAT THEY THINK HE WANTS TO SAY) AND ACT INAPPROPRIATELY. THIS ISSUE MUST BE DEALT WITH WITHOUT AMBIGUITY. IT IS AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE TO SEND INTERNALLY AND PUBLICLY.

12. NEUMANN REFERRED TO THIS AS THE HENRY II SYNDROME AND ADMITTED THAT IT CAN HAPPEN AND HAS BEEN DISCUSSED. HE WAS CERTAIN THAT SOME STATEMENTS COULD BE MISINTERPRETED. HE TOLD A/S ARONSON THAT THE MESSAGE WOULD BE CONVEYED TO PRESIDENT SERRANO IN THE FRIENDLY WAY IT HAD BEEN CONVEYED TO HIM. NEUMANN INDICATED THAT THE GOG IS FACING A NONTRADITIONAL THREAT, "NARCO POLITICS." THE RECENT SERIES OF BOMBINGS ARE A CASE IN POINT. ALTHOUGH INITIAL SUSPICION FELL ON THE URNG, THE GOG IS NOW QUITE SURE THAT THE BOMBINGS AND BOMB THREATS WERE NOT THE WORK OF THE URNG (COMMENT: NOTWITHSTANDING PUBLIC STATEMENTS TO THE CONTRARY). A/S ARONSON REPLIED THAT NARCOTRAFFICKER INFLUENCE IN POLITICS IS A REAL THREAT IN OTHER COUNTRIES OF THE REGION AS WELL. HE PRAISED GOG EFFORTS, PARTICULARLY THE EXTRADITION OF ARNOLDO VARGAS AND HIS CO-CONSPIRATORS. HE EMPHASIZED, HOWEVER, THAT IT IS CRUCIAL THAT THE DRUG THREAT BE FOUGHT WITHIN THE CONFINES OF THE LAW.

---

13. A/S ARONSON EXPRESSED HIS STRONG DESIRE THAT THE GOG LOOK INTO THE JUNE 13 ASSASSINATION OF EDGAR GALVEZ PENA TO INSURE THAT THERE HAD BEEN NO SECURITY FORCE INVOLVEMENT. THE ASSASSINATION HAD ALL THE ELEMENTS OF A PROFESSIONAL "HIT." PRESS REPORTS FROM GUATEMALA INDICATE

STATE 286195 291451Z 884629 S864261

THAT FOUR OR FIVE MEN -- ONE REPORTEDLY WEARING A CAMOUFLAGED UNIFORM -- WERE SEEN NEAR THE SPOT WHERE THE MURDER TOOK PLACE. FURTHERMORE, ONE PRESS REPORT, IN CRONICA, INDICATED THAT GALVEZ PENA HAD CHANGED HIS PLANS SOMETIME AFTER NOON THE DAY OF HIS MURDER, TRAVELLING DIRECTLY TO THE FARM INSTEAD OF TO COBAN, AS HE HAD EARLIER TOLD HIS LOVER -- DEBORA PACAY. THE CALIBER OF THE MURDER WEAPON, THE USE OF A SNIPER AS WELL AS THE ASSASSINATION TEAM'S APPARENT KNOWLEDGE OF GALVEZ PENA'S LAST-MINUTE CHANGE IN TRAVEL PLANS SUGGEST THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE "HIT" WAS CARRIED OUT EITHER BY SECURITY FORCES PERSONNEL OR WELL-TRAINED PROFESSIONAL ASSASSINS. ACTING PRESIDENT GUSTAVO ESPINA SALGUERO TOLD THE MEDIA THAT THE NATIONAL POLICE, MILITARY INTELLIGENCE AND EVEN IMMIGRATION AUTHORITIES WERE INVESTIGATING THE ASSASSINATION BECAUSE HE SUSPECTED PROFESSIONAL ASSASSINS -- PERHAPS EVEN FOREIGNERS -- WERE INVOLVED. A/S ARONSON

ASKED WHAT THESE INVESTIGATIONS HAD UNCOVERED SO FAR. GIVEN GALVEZ PENA'S INTEREST IN POLITICS, THE GOG WILL ALSO HAVE TO LOOK INTO THE POSSIBILITY THAT GALVEZ PENA'S MURDER MAY HAVE BEEN POLITICALLY MOTIVATED. THE SERIOUSNESS WITH WHICH THE GOG INVESTIGATES THIS CASE WILL DETERMINE ITS CREDIBILITY.

14. NEUMANN QUICKLY REPLIED THAT THE SECURITY FORCES WERE DEFINITELY NOT INVOLVED, BUT THAT THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR WHAT WAS AN OBVIOUSLY PROFESSIONALLY-DONE ASSASSINATION WOULD BE BROUGHT TO JUSTICE - WHOMEVER THEY MAY BE. HE INSISTED THAT THE GURKHAN MUST BE AN "IMPORT" AS SUCH EXPERTISE COULD NOT BE FOUND DOMESTICALLY. NEUMANN BELIEVES THAT GALVEZ PENA HAD PROBABLY "SPOKEN TOO MUCH" AND INSINUATED THAT OTHER NARCOS HAD BEEN THE PERPETRATORS.

15. A/S ARONSON ASKED NEUMANN WHETHER BALLISTICS AND OTHER FORENSIC ANALYSIS WAS AVAILABLE ON THE CASE. NEUMANN REPLIED NEGATIVELY. A/S ARONSON INSISTED THAT THE USG WAS VERY INTERESTED IN THE RESULTS OF THE INVESTIGATION AND OFFERED TO PROVIDE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE. NEUMANN PROMISED THAT HE WOULD SPEAK WITH THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR.

1. SUMMARY: USNRC COMMISSIONER DR. E. GAIL DE PLANQUE VISITED MEXICO JUNE 14-20, 1992, AND MET WITH SENIOR MEXICAN NUCLEAR OFFICIALS IN VERACRUZ, MEXICO CITY, AND TOLUCA. SHE TOURED THE LAGUNA VERDE NUCLEAR REACTOR SITE, THE MEXICAN NATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR NUCLEAR RESEARCH (ININ), AND THE MEXICAN NATIONAL CANCER INSTITUTE. THE U.S. VISITORS SAID THAT LAGUNA VERDE APPEARED TO BE A WELL-MANAGED OPERATION. THEY ALSO NOTED THAT THE ANS MEETING PROVIDED A USEFUL OPPORTUNITY TO INTERACT WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF LATIN AMERICAN NATIONS ON NUCLEAR ISSUES. COMMISSIONER DE PLANQUE WAS ACCOMPANIED BY HAROLD DENTON, DIRECTOR OF THE NRC OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS, AND BY HER TECHNICAL ASSISTANT, EILEEN MCKENNA. END SUMMARY.

2. THE COMMISSIONER BEGAN HER VISIT TO MEXICO BY ATTENDING THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE LATIN AMERICAN SECTION OF THE AMERICAN NUCLEAR SOCIETY IN VERACRUZ FROM JUNE 15 TO 17. THE THEME OF THE CONFERENCE WAS "MAINTENANCE AND TRAINING - THE KEY TO SUCCESS". APPROXIMATELY 150 PARTICIPANTS FROM ELEVEN COUNTRIES, INCLUDING MEXICO, U.S., ARGENTINA, BRAZIL AND CUBA, ATTENDED THE CONFERENCE.

3. ON MONDAY, JUNE 15, MR. DENTON GAVE THE KEYNOTE ADDRESS OF THE ANS CONFERENCE. IN HIS ADDRESS, HE STRESSED THE QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS OF OPERATIONAL SAFETY AND THE IMPORTANCE OF PROPER MAINTENANCE AND TRAINING.

4. ONE OF THE PAPERS ON THE FIRST DAY OF THE CONFERENCE HAS GIVEN BY MR. ANDRES GARCIA DE LA CRUZ OF CUBA. LATER THAT SAME DAY, HE HAS CALLED HOME, REPORTEDLY TO BECOME HEAD OF THE CUBAN NUCLEAR PROGRAM SUCCEEDING FIDEL CASTRO JR. OTHER MEMBERS OF THE CUBAN DELEGATION INDICATED THAT THE JURAGUA UNIT CIVIL WORKS

WERE ABOUT 92 PER CENT COMPLETE AND A START-UP DATE OF 1995 HAS PROJECTED. THE CUBANS INDICATED THAT THE COOPERATION WITH RUSSIA CONTINUED THROUGH THE BREAKUP OF THE SOVIET UNION. MEETINGS TO PLAN FOR COMPLETION AND FINANCING ARE PLANNED FOR AUGUST. THEY PROJECTED A NEED FOR ELECTRICAL GENERATION CAPACITY OF 3000 MWE BY THE END OF THE DECADE, INDICATING THAT DEMAND THAT DEMAND IS GROWING VERY SLOWLY AND THAT THE ONLY ALTERNATIVE TO THE NUCLEAR PLANT WOULD BE OIL-FIRED PLANTS.

5. ON JUNE 15, AS A PART OF HER ATTENDANCE AT THE ANS CONFERENCE, COMMISSIONER DE PLANQUE PAID A COURTESY CALL ON MR. MENDEZ DE LA LUZ, MAYOR OF XALAPA, THE CAPITAL OF THE STATE OF VERACRUZ.

6. ON JUNE 16, THE DELEGATION, ACCOMPANIED BY EMBASSY SCIATT STEVE TAYLOR, VISITED THE LAGUNA VERDE NUCLEAR POWER PLANT. THE PLANT HAS OPERATING AT A REDUCED POWER LEVEL OF ABOUT 70 PER CENT OF ITS FULL POWER RATING OF 600 MWE BECAUSE OF A PROBLEM WITH A FLOW

CONTROL VALVE IN ONE OF THE TWO REACTOR COOLANT RECIRCULATION LOOPS. A SHUTDOWN FOR REFUELING AND TO REPAIR THE MALFUNCTIONING VALVE IS SCHEDULED FOR AUGUST 15.

7. THE AREAS OF THE NUCLEAR PLANT VISITED BY THE COMMISSIONER INCLUDED THE UNIT ONE CONTROL ROOM, THE TECHNICAL SUPPORT CENTER, THE RADIOACTIVE WASTE CONTROL CENTER, THE OPERATING FLOOR AND OTHER LEVELS IN THE REACTOR BUILDING, THE ELECTRICAL GENERATOR AREA IN THE

TURBINE BUILDING, AND THE VISITOR CENTER. THE PLANT APPEARED TO BE IN EXCELLENT PHYSICAL CONDITION THROUGHOUT. THE COMMISSIONER WITNESSED AN EXERCISE IN PROGRESS AT THE FULL-SCOPE, REAL-TIME SIMULATOR FACILITY LOCATED AT THE TRAINING CENTER JUST OUTSIDE THE PLANT.

8. THE ENVIRONMENTAL MONITORING FACILITY AT LAGUNA VERDE WAS ALSO VISITED. DETAILED REPORTS OF RADIOACTIVITY IN AIR, WATER, MILK AND OTHER MEDIA FROM

COMMISSIONER DE PLANQUE DELIVERED AN ADDRESS TO THE ANS CONFERENCE. HER TOPIC WAS "CHANGES TO LICENSING PROCEDURES FOR U.S. NUCLEAR POWER PLANTS. THE PRESENTATION DISCUSSED FOUR AREAS: (1) HOW THE NRC LICENSED POWER PLANTS IN THE PAST (USING 10 CFR, PART 50); (2) THE NEW REGULATIONS DESIGNED TO RESOLVE ALL SAFETY ISSUES BEFORE CONSTRUCTION BEGINS (10 CFR, PART 52); (3) PENDING ACTION IN CONGRESS ON THE NATIONAL ENERGY LEGISLATION THAT ESSENTIALLY CODIFIES NRC'S PART 52 APPROACH; AND, (4) WHAT THE U.S. NUCLEAR INDUSTRY IS DOING ON ADVANCED REACTOR DESIGNS FOR FUTURE NUCLEAR POWER PLANTS. THERE WAS CONSIDERABLE INTEREST IN THESE TOPICS AMONG ATTENDEES AT THE CONFERENCE, PARTICULARLY REGARDING THE PROSPECTS FOR CERTIFICATION OF U.S. VENDOR DESIGNS AND FOR A NEW PLANT ORDER IN THE U.S.

10. ON THURSDAY, JUNE 16, COMMISSIONER DE PLANQUE MET IN MEXICO CITY WITH GOM SECRETARY OF ENERGY, MINES AND PARASTATAL INDUSTRIES (SEMIP), MR. FERNANDO HIRIART BALDERRAMA AND HIS TOP ADVISOR, MR. JUAN EIBENSHUTZ. THEY DISCUSSED ENERGY POLICY AND PLANNING, INCLUDING THE ROLES OF OIL, GAS AND NUCLEAR, AS WELL AS METHODS TO ENHANCE COOPERATION BETWEEN THE U.S. AND MEXICO IN THE ENERGY AREA. HIRIART INDICATED THAT MEXICO'S TOP NUCLEAR PRIORITY IS FOR LAGUNA VERDE TO BE A SUCCESS. MAINLY BECAUSE OF PUBLIC CONCERNS ABOUT ACCIDENTS, FUTURE NUCLEAR PLANTS WILL PROBABLY BE CONSIDERED ONLY AFTER THE U.S. HAS STARTED BUILDING NEW PLANTS. MEXICO'S OVERALL ENERGY APPROACH REMAINS TO KEEP OIL EXPORTS AT THEIR PRESENT LEVEL AND INCREASE PRODUCTION ONLY AS NEEDED TO MATCH DOMESTIC DEMAND.

11. THE COMMISSIONER VISITED THE MEXICAN NATIONAL CANCER INSTITUTE IN MEXICO CITY FOR DISCUSSIONS WITH DR. ARTURO BELTRAN AND OTHER INSTITUTE STAFF ON THEIR USE OF NUCLEAR MATERIALS IN CANCER TREATMENT. STAFF MEMBERS OF THE INSTITUTE ALSO DESCRIBED THE CONSIDERABLE DIFFICULTY THEY HAVE IN ATTRACTING AND RETAINING MEDICAL AND HEALTH PHYSICIST PERSONNEL BECAUSE OF THE SEVERELY NON-COMPETITIVE SALARIES THAT CAN BE OFFERED BY GOM FACILITIES.

12. THE COMMISSIONER SUBSEQUENTLY MET WITH CNSNS DIRECTOR GENERAL MIGUEL MEDINA VAILLARD AND HIS PRINCIPAL STAFF AT CNSNS HEADQUARTERS IN MEXICO CITY. DURING DISCUSSIONS THERE, MEDINA EXPRESSED A STRONG INTEREST IN RENEWING THE NRC/CNSNS COOPERATIVE RESEARCH AGREEMENT FOR ANOTHER FIVE-YEAR PERIOD (NOTE: NRC HAS PREPARED A DRAFT RENEWAL TO BE SENT TO BE SENT TO CNSNS IN THE NEAR FUTURE FOR COMMENTS AND IDENTIFICATION OF SPECIFIC AREAS OF COOPERATION). MEDINA ALSO MENTIONED CNSNS' DESIRE TO OBTAIN INFORMATION DEVELOPED UNDER THE COOPERATIVE SEVERE ACCIDENT RESEARCH PROGRAM (CSARP). HE POINTED OUT THAT MEXICO HAS ONLY ONE OPERATING NUCLEAR REACTOR AND WOULD HAVE NEED FOR ONLY A SMALL AMOUNT OF THE INFORMATION OFFERED UNDER THE CSARP. TO AVOID THE NORMAL COSTS FOR USE OF THE CODES, WHICH CNSNS COULD PROBABLY NOT AFFORD, HE STATED THAT CNSNS COULD POSSIBLY WORK DIRECTLY WITH THE CONSEJO DE SEGURIDAD NUCLEAR TO OBTAIN INFORMATION DEVELOPED THROUGH THE USE OF ONLY THOSE CODES, SUCH AS TRAC AND RELAP, RELEVANT TO CNSNS NEEDS.

ININ WAS ESTABLISHED ABOUT 30 YEARS AGO, AND NOW HAS A STAFF OF ABOUT 1200, INCLUDINQ 500 PROFESSIONALS. ITS THREE MAIN ACTIVITIES ARE RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT, TRAINING, AND TECHNICAL SERVICES. ESTABLISHED A SISTER-LAB ARRANGEMENT WITH ININ, THE COMMISSIONER SUGGESTED THAT, SINCE SOME NRC WORK IS DONE AT LOS ALAMOS UNDER NRC/DOE CONTRACTS, NRC COULD POSSIBLY ESTABLISH A SIMILAR SISTER-LABORATORY ARRANGEMENT WITH CNSNS. THIS COULD POSSIBLY TAKE THE FORM OF A TRANSFER OF FUNDS THAT WOULD ALLOW AN ININ EMPLOYEE TO PERFORM SOME NRC RESEARCH BEING DONE AT LOS ALAMOS.

15. CONCLUDING HER VISIT TO MEXICO, COMMISSIONER DE PLANQUE MET WITH AMBASSADOR NEGROPONTE AT THE U.S. EMBASSY. THE AMBASSADOR EXPRESSED HIS APPRECIATION FOR THE COMMISSIONER'S VISIT AND THE BRIEFING THAT SHE PROVIDED.

16. EMBASSY COMMENT: THE AMERICAN NUCLEAR SOCIETY MEETING AND COMMISSIONER DE PLANQUE'S VISIT GAVE MEXICAN NUCLEAR OFFICIALS AN EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITY TO SHOWCASE THE SUCCESSFUL OPERATION OF THE LAGUNA VERDE PLANT, OF WHICH THEY ARE JUSTLY PROUD. THE TWO PROBLEMS THAT HAVE BEEN EXPERIENCED AT THE PLANT - THE MALFUNCTIONING VALVE AND CORROSION - ARE RELATIVELY MINOR. THE GROUP HAS TOLD THAT WORK ON LAGUNA VERDE UNIT TWO IS 70 PER CENT COMPLETE AND THAT A REALISTIC PROJECTED START-UP DATE IS 1995. END COMMENT.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY DAILY ACTIVITY REPORT
ARA/CCA
July 6, 1992

(U) Coast Guard Rescues Exile Expedition: The Coast Guard entered Cuban waters Saturday to rescue a disabled boat which a group of armed Cuban exiles claimed to be using in an attempt to rescue two people in Cuba. Press reports link the group with "Commandos L," the reputed sponsor of last year's bungled exile attack on Cuba. Three members of the group appear to be Cuban-Americans, while the fourth--Tony Bryant--is reportedly a Black Panther who hijacked a plane to Cuba in 1969 (and served 11 years in a Cuban prison). US Customs boarded the boat after it was towed to Key West and seized three semi-automatic rifles, one shotgun, several hundred rounds of ammunition, military paraphernalia and anti-Castro propaganda. (One of the men claimed to have exchanged shots with a Cuban sailboat, at one point during the expedition.) Three of the men were released; the fourth was arrested on an outstanding warrant for driving with a suspended license. Comment: FBI headquarters is awaiting a detailed report from Miami.

(U) Alarcon Sees No Change in US Policy: While in Mexico, new GOC Foreign Minister Ricardo Alarcon told an interviewer that he did not see any possibility of a rapprochement between Havana and Washington. In order for there to be such a rapprochement, Alarcon commented, there had to be "not a change of personnel at the Cuban Foreign Ministry" but a change of policy in Washington. This, Alarcon concluded, "is not likely for the time being."

(U) Nuclear Medicine: Cuba and the Brazilian state of Rio de Janeiro signed an accord during Castro's visit last month which will allow eight Brazilian scientists and doctors to study Cuban techniques in treating radiation illness. According to press accounts, several Cuban doctors will travel to Brazil this month to select children for treatment; the patients are victims of Brazil's largest radiation accident, which occurred in 1987. Cuba also provides treatment to children affected by the Chernobyl accident.

E.O. 12356: DECL:OADR
TAGS: PHUM, PGOV, PREL, PINR, GT
SUBJECT: MARITZA URRUTIA KIDNAP CASE

REF: GUATEMALA 7935

1. CONFIDENTIAL -- ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: MARITZA URRUTIA, A STUDENT ACTIVIST IN THE LATE 1980'S AND EARLY 1990'S, WAS KIDNAPPED BY ARMED MEN ON JULY 23. SHE HAS CALLED HER FAMILY SEVERAL TIMES SINCE THE ABDUCTION. ON JULY 29, GUATEMALAN TELEVISION NEWS PROGRAMS AIRED A FIVE-MINUTE VIDEOTAPE IN WHICH SHE ADMITTED TO HAVING BEEN A GUERRILLA. THE EMBASSY HAS CONTACTED SECURITY FORCES, THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, AND PRESIDENTIAL ADVISOR BERNARDO NEUMANN TO EXPRESS CONCERN FOR HER SAFETY. EMBASSY EFFORTS TO ASSIST HER BROTHER AND HIS ANCIT FIANCEE ARE REPORTED REFTEL. END SUMMARY.

3. THE INCIDENT: ON THE MORNING OF JULY 23, MARITZA URRUTIA WAS KIDNAPPED IN GUATEMALA CITY BY THREE ARMED MEN IN A WHITE CAR WITH POLARIZED WINDOWS. THE VICTIM HAD JUST RETURNED TO HER HOME AFTER DROPPING HER CHILD OFF AT SCHOOL WHEN THE INCIDENT OCCURRED.

4. THE VICTIM: MARITZA URRUTIA WAS A STUDENT ACTIVIST AT THE UNIVERSITY OF SAN CARLOS (USAC) ANTHROPOLOGY FACULTY IN THE LATE 1970'S AND EARLY 1980'S. SHE REPORTEDLY LEFT GUATEMALA IN 1981 FOR EXILE IN MEXICO AND RETURNED IN 1987. SHE IS THE SINGLE MOTHER OF HER CHILD. HER BROTHER, EDMUNDO URRUTIA, WAS TOLD POLOFF SHE HAS NOT BEEN INVOLVED IN POLITICS SINCE HER RETURN TO GUATEMALA. SHE WAS, HOWEVER, BEEN TAKING COURSES AT THE USAC ANTHROPOLOGY FACULTY ON SATURDAY MORNINGS. HER PROFESSION IS UNKNOWN.

5. FAMILY RESPONSE: EDMUNDO URRUTIA HAS LED EFFORTS TO SECURE HER RELEASE (CONCERNS FOR THE SAFETY OF EDMUNDO AND HIS ANCIT FIANCEE, KATHERINE ANN RIKER, ARE REPORTED REFTEL). HE APPROACHED THE EMBASSY AND VARIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICES SOON AFTER THE ABDUCTION. A VISIT TO THE GUATEMALAN ARCHBISHOP'S

HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE PROMPTED AN URGENT ACTION APPEAL PUBLICIZED IN THE UNITED STATES. AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL HAS ACTED ON THE APPEAL. FOUR U.S. SENATORS HAVE ALSO SENT A LETTER TO PRESIDENT SERRANO EXPRESSING CONCERN FOR MARITZA'S WELFARE.

6. GOVERNMENT ASSISTANCE: ACCORDING TO THE ATTORNEY AT THE ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE WHO INTERVIEWED EDMUNDO, THE URRUTIA FAMILY HAS TAKEN ADVANTAGE OF CONTACTS WITHIN THE GOVERNMENT. ON THE NIGHT OF THE KIDNAPPING, TWO MEMBERS OF THE PRESIDENTIAL MILITARY GUARD (ESTADO MAYOR) REPORTEDLY VISITED THE URRUTIA HOME TO OFFER ASSISTANCE. WE UNDERSTAND THE FAMILY HAS COOPERATED FULLY WITH GOG EFFORTS TO BE HELPFUL.

7. CALLS FROM VICTIM: MARITZA HAS CONTACTED HER FAMILY SEVERAL TIMES SINCE THE KIDNAPPING. SHE CALLED THE FAMILY HOME THREE TIMES ON JULY 23, AND ONCE ON BOTH JULY 25 AND JULY 28. MARITZA REPORTEDLY TOLD FAMILY MEMBERS SHE HAD PROBLEMS WITH AN UNSPECIFIED ORGANIZATION SHE HAD TO RESOLVE. SHE SPOKE OF POSSIBLY HAVING TO TRAVEL OUTSIDE OF GUATEMALA, BUT URGED THE FAMILY TO TAKE NO ACTION. NO DEMANDS (INCLUDING REQUESTS FOR MONEY) WERE EVER RECEIVED FROM THE KIDNAPPERS. ON JULY 29, SHE CALLED THE FAMILY AT APPROXIMATELY 19:00. SHE SAID SHE WOULD BE RELEASED THE FOLLOWING DAY, BUT THAT THE FAMILY SHOULD WATCH THE TELEVISION NEWS THAT NIGHT.

8. VIDEOTAPE: JULY 29 TELEVISION NEWS PROGRAMS BROADCAST A FIVE-MINUTE TAPE DELIVERED SHORTLY BEFORE AIR TIME. MARITZA WAS SHOWN DELIVERING A STATEMENT DENYING THAT SHE HAD BEEN KIDNAPPED. SHE ADMITTED TO HAVING BEEN A GUERRILLA ASSIGNED TO PROPAGANDA AND LOGISTICS OPERATIONS. SHE CLAIMED THAT HER HUSBAND, WHO WAS ALSO A GUERRILLA, WAS INTRODUCED TO HER IN MEXICO BY HER BROTHER, EDMUNDO. MARITZA CLAIMED SHE WANTED ONLY TO LEAVE THE GUERRILLA STRUGGLE AND LIVE QUIETLY.

USG ACTION:

9. IN ADDITION TO ACTIONS REPORTED REFTEL, ADCH CONTACTED BERNARDO NEUMANN, SERRANO ADVISER AND PRESIDENT OF GOG HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION COPREDEH AND HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO JULY 30 TO SEEK TO PREVENT HARM COMING TO MARITZA URRUTIA. ADCH STRESSED TO NEUMANN THAT BECAUSE OF URRUTIA'S CONFESSION, COERCED OR NOT, THAT SHE WAS INVOLVED WITH THE GUERRILLAS, THERE WOULD BE LITTLE DOUBT ABROAD IF SHE WERE KILLED THAT THE GUATEMALAN SECURITY FORCES WERE RESPONSIBLE. THUS, WHATEVER THE TRUTH MIGHT BE, IT WAS INCUMBENT ON THE GOG TO UNDERTAKE ALL POSSIBLE STEPS TO LOCATE HER AND ASSURE HER SAFETY AND SURVIVAL. NEUMANN INDICATED HE HAD NO INFORMATION TO OFFER ON THE CASE, BUT SEEMED TO THINK THAT, IF THE SECURITY FORCES WERE IN ANY WAY INVOLVED, THEY WOULD UNDERTAKE ALL MEASURES NECESSARY TO PROTECT THE "DEFECTOR." WE ASKED THAT HE PURSUE THE MATTER URGENTLY WITHIN THE GOVERNMENT.

5. OMBUDSMAN DE LEON CARPIO WAS CAREFUL NOT TO SHARE ANY THEORIES ON WHO MAY BE INVOLVED IN THE CASE -- HE SAID HIS OFFICE WAS JUST BEGINNING ITS INVESTIGATIONS. HOWEVER HE STRONGLY DOUBTED THAT URRUTIA HAD COME VOLUNTARILY AS HER STATEMENT INDICATED. HIS INFORMATION INDICATED THAT SHE HAD BEEN FORCIBLY ABDUCTED. HE AGREED THAT WE SHOULD STAY IN CLOSE TOUCH. 1. (C) SUMMARY: MARITZA URRUTIA, HER FOUR-YEAR-OLD SON, EDMUNDO URRUTIA, AND AMCIT KATHY RIKER DEPARTED GUATEMALA FOR THE UNITED STATES AT 01:20 ON THE MORNING OF AUGUST 7. END SUMMARY.

ARCHBISHOP'S PRESS RELEASE

2. (U) THE GUATEMALAN ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE ISSUED AN AUGUST 7 PRESS RELEASE STATING THAT MARITZA URRUTIA, HER FOUR-YEAR-OLD SON, AND OTHER FAMILY MEMBERS DEPARTED GUATEMALA BY AIR EARLIER THAT MORNING. THE STATEMENT PROVIDED NO DETAILS ON FLIGHT ARRANGEMENTS OR TRAVEL DESTINATIONS.

3. (U) THE ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE ALSO RELEASED COPIES OF TWO AUGUST 6 LETTERS ADDRESSED TO ARCHBISHOP PROSPERO PENADOS DEL BARRIO. A LETTER SIGNED JOINTLY BY PRESIDENTIAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (COPREDEH) PRESIDENT BERNARDO NEUMANN AND PRESIDENTIAL POLITICAL ADVISOR JUAN DAVID ALEMAN REQUESTED A PERSONAL INTERVIEW WITH MARITZA. MARITZA'S HANDWRITTEN REPLY DECLINED THAT REQUEST, BUT ASKED THE GOVERNMENT TO PROTECT HER FAMILY.

CONFIRMATION

4. (C) THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE MADE ALL TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS INDEPENDENTLY DESPITE AN EMBASSY OFFER TO ASSIST IN ANY WAY POSSIBLE. ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE DIRECTOR RONALTH OCHAETA TOLD HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICER AT 09:00 ON AUGUST 7 THAT MARITZA URRUTIA, HER SON, EDMUNDO URRUTIA, AND AMCIT KATHY RIKER HAD LEFT GUATEMALA CITY AT 01:20 ON THE AMERICAN AIRLINES FLIGHT BOUND FOR MIAMI. OCHAETA DID NOT STATE THE TRAVELLERS' FINAL U.S. DESTINATION, BUT ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO WAS MENTIONED IN PREVIOUS CONVERSATIONS.

5. (C) ATTORNEY GENERAL ACISCLO VALLADARES TOLD CHARGE ON THE AFTERNOON OF AUGUST 7 THAT HE HAD RECEIVED SIMILAR CONFIRMATION DIRECTLY FROM THE ARCHBISHOP. JUAN DAVID ALEMAN ALSO CONFIRMED THE DEPARTURE TO JOURNALISTS.

GUATEM 00289 0723202 029387 S067938
MID-DAY TELEVISION NEWS PROGRAMS ON AUGUST 7 REPORTED THE DEPARTURE, BUT GAVE NO OTHER DETAILS.

JUST IN TIME

6. (U) MARITZA APPEARS TO HAVE DEPARTED GUATEMALA JUST AHEAD OF A JUDICIAL ORDER THAT MIGHT HAVE PREVENTED HER FROM LEAVING. AT A PRESS CONFERENCE ON THE AFTERNOON OF AUGUST 6, VALLADARES MENTIONED GOVERNMENT PLANS FOR HER TO TESTIFY ON THE CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING HER KIDNAPPING. UNDER GUATEMALAN LAW, IMMIGRATION AUTHORITIES COULD HAVE DENIED HER DEPARTURE UPON ISSUANCE OF AN "ARRAIGO" ORDER REQUIRING HER TO COMPLETE REQUISITE JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS BEFORE LEAVING. THE "ARRAIGO" CAME, EITHER TOO LATE OR NOT AT ALL.

7. (U) THE ARCHBISHOP'S PRESS RELEASE REFERS TO THE SUBPOENA, BUT DENIES MARITZA KNEW BEFORE SHE LEFT THE COUNTRY OF GOVERNMENT PLANS FOR HER TO TESTIFY. THE STATEMENT ALSO QUESTIONS THE NEED FOR ADDITIONAL TESTIMONY ONLY A WEEK AFTER MARITZA'S RELEASE, OBSERVING THAT GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ALREADY HAD AN OPPORTUNITY TO QUESTION HER AFTER SHE SOUGHT AMNESTY AT THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE.

8. (C) COMMENT: WE ARE DELIGHTED AT NEWS THAT MARITZA URRUTIA HAS DEPARTED GUATEMALA SAFELY AND THAT WE HAD A PART IN HER REMOVAL FROM DANGER. PRESIDENT SERRANO IS REPORTEDLY FURIOUS OVER OUR HAVING ISSUED HER A VISA TO GO TO THE US FROM WHERE HE IS PERSUADED SHE WILL LAUNCH A PROPAGANDA CAMPAIGN TO ASSIST THE INSURGENCY. WE HAVE PROBABLY NOT HEARD THE LAST FROM THE GOG ON MS. URRUTIA.

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT

2. SUMMARY: THE GOG HAS REQUESTED THE WITHDRAWAL "QUIETLY AND WITHOUT SCANDAL" OF POLCOUNS, ALLEGEDLY FOR HAVING INFORMED THE FOREIGN MINISTER THAT THE USG HAD INFORMATION INDICATING THAT THE GUATEMALAN SECURITY FORCES WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR ABDUCTING AND HOLDING MARITZA URRUTIA PRISONER (REFTELS). POLCOUNS IS NOT AWARE OF ANY SUCH INFORMATION AND MADE NO SUCH STATEMENT. IN OUR VIEW, THE REQUEST FOR HIS WITHDRAWAL IS IN RETALIATION FOR THE USG HAVING ISSUED A VISA TO URRUTIA OVER THE STRENUOUS OBJECTIONS OF PRESIDENT SERRANO, WHICH WERE COMMUNICATED BY THE FORMIN TO THE AMBASSADOR WED, AUG 5 (REF E). THIS CABLE PROVIDES ADDITIONAL BACKGROUND ON THE ISSUE, AS WELL AS POLCOUNS' ACCOUNT OF THE CONVERSATION WITH FORMIN AND PRESIDENTIAL ADVISOR ERNESTO VITERI. END SUMMARY.

3. REFTELS REPORT THE ORDEAL OF MARITZA URRUTIA, TO WHOM WE ISSUED A VISA (WITH 4 YEAR OLD SON) THE AFTERNOON OF AUG 6, DESPITE STRONG PRESSURE FROM THE FROM THE GOG NOT TO DO SO. THEY DEPARTED SAFELY FOR THE US IN THE EARLY MORNING OF AUG 7.

4. THE CONVERSATION WHICH THE GOG FINDS OBJECTIONABLE TOOK PLACE AT THE AMBASSADOR'S RESIDENCE EARLY AFTERNOON OF AUG 6 PRECEDING A LUNCH GIVEN BY THE AMBASSADOR IN HONOR OF THE NEWLY-ARRIVED DEPUTY CHIEF OF MISSION. THE STATE OF PLAY ON THE URRUTIA ISSUE AT THE TIME WAS THAT BOTH VICE PRESIDENT ESPINA AND FOREIGN MINISTER MENENDEZ PARK HAD THE PREVIOUS AFTERNOON DEMANDED IN THE STRONGEST TERMS THAT THE US NOT ISSUE A VISA TO URRUTIA, WITH THE VICE PRESIDENT EXPRESSING PRESIDENT SERRANO'S EXTREME ANGER OVER THE POSSIBILITY THAT WE MIGHT DO SO,

AND SAYING THE GOG WOULD LODGE A FORMAL PROTEST IF WE DID (REF E). ACCORDING TO THE AMBASSADOR'S ORAL ACCOUNT AT THE TIME, THE FORMIN HAD TAKEN AN EVEN STRONGER TONE WITH HIM, SAYING THAT MENENDEZ PARK HAD TRIED "TO THREATEN HIM" BUT THAT HE HAD "PUSHED RIGHT BACK." MENENDEZ PARK HAD ALSO TOLD THE AMBASSADOR THAT ISSUING URRUTIA A VISA WOULD BE CONSIDERED INTERFERENCE IN GUATEMALA'S INTERNAL AFFAIRS.

5. IN THE SAME MEETING, MENENDEZ PARK HAD EXPRESSED THE GOG'S CONCERN THAT MARITZA URRUTIA'S TRAVEL TO THE US WITH ENSUING PUBLICITY AGAINST THE GUATEMALAN SECURITY FORCES WOULD BE USED AS A PRETEXT BY THE URNG TO BREAK OFF THE PEACE TALKS THEN UNDERWAY IN MEXICO. OUR INITIAL INTENTION TO PUT OFF ISSUANCE OF THE VISA UNTIL THE EVENING OF FRI, AUG 7 WHILE URRUTIA REMAINED SAFELY HARBORED IN THE ARCHBISHOP'S PALACE WAS INTENDED TO SHOW OUR WILLINGNESS TO BE RESPONSIVE TO THE GOG'S CONCERNS WHILE NOT PUTTING URRUTIA AT RISK.

6. THIS WAS THE BACKDROP TO THE CONVERSATION IN QUESTION, WHICH TOOK PLACE BEFORE LUNCH AT THE AMBASSADOR'S RESIDENCE THURSDAY, AUG 6. POLCOUNS WAS TALKING TO THE FOREIGN MINISTER (JOINED BY PRESIDENTIAL ADVISOR ERNESTO VITERI) WHO WAS VISIBLY ANGRY ABOUT THE URRUTIA CASE AND OUR PLANS TO ISSUE A VISA. HE INSISTED THAT SHE WAS PERFECTLY SAFE TO REMAIN IN GUATEMALA, THAT SHE HAD BEEN GRANTED AMNESTY BY THE GOG, AND THAT, IN ANY CASE, SHE COULD GO ELSEWHERE THAN THE US IF SHE WANTED TO LEAVE. SHE DID NOT NEED TO GO TO THE US, WHERE HER SITUATION WOULD ONLY BE EXPLOITED BY THE HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS TO ATTACK GUATEMALA.

6. POLCOUNS REPLIED THAT WE WERE WILLING TO TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE GOG'S CONCERNS ABOUT THE POSSIBILITY HER DEPARTURE COULD BE USED AS A PRETEXT BY THE URNG TO BREAK OFF THE PEACE TALKS THEN UNDERWAY IN MEXICO BY HOLDING OFF ON ISSUING THE VISA FOR A COUPLE OF DAYS, SINCE THE NEGOTIATING ROUND WAS SCHEDULED TO END THE FOLLOWING DAY, FRIDAY AUG 7. HOWEVER, WE BELIEVED HER ACCOUNT THAT SHE HAD BEEN FORCIBLY ABDUCTED AND THAT SHE WAS IN FEAR FOR HER LIFE. THUS IT WAS APPROPRIATE TO ISSUE THE VISA.

7. MENENDEZ PARK REPLIED THAT IT MADE NO SENSE TO ISSUE HER A VISA AT ALL. HE ARGUED THAT THE GOG HAD OFFERED HER PROTECTION AND THEREFORE SHE HAD NOTHING TO FEAR BY STAYING. POLCOUNS RESPONDED THAT FOR SOMEONE WHO HAD BEEN FORCIBLY ABDUCTED AND HELD AGAINST HER WILL BY UNKNOWN PERSONS, SHE WOULD NOT KNOW WHOM SHE COULD REALLY TRUST. SHE HAD BEEN TERRORIZED, AND THE BEST THING FOR HER WOULD BE TO GET TOTALLY AWAY WHERE SHE COULD RECOVER. FORMIN'S RESPONSE WAS THAT URRUTIA HERSELF HAD ACKNOWLEDGED THAT SHE HAD NOT BEEN KIDNAPPED AND THAT FOR THE US TO ISSUE HER A VISA WOULD BE CONSIDERED INTERFERENCE IN GUATEMALA'S INTERNAL AFFAIRS, AND WOULD BE UNACCEPTABLE. (THIS WAS THE ESSENCE OF THE POSITION THE FORMIN HAD TAKEN WITH THE AMBASSADOR THE PREVIOUS DAY (REF E) AND THEREFORE WAS NOT MADE THE SUBJECT OF A SEPARATE REPORT AT THE TIME. OTHER THAN FORMIN'S OBVIOUS FRUSTRATION THAT WE INTENDED TO GIVE URRUTIA A VISA, HE GAVE NO INDICATION TO POLCOUNS AT THE TIME OR TO THE AMBASSADOR OR THE DCM DURING OR AFTER THE ENSUING LUNCH THAT HE CONSIDERED POLCOUNS HAD ALLEGED THAT WE HAD INFORMATION INDICATING THE SECURITY FORCES WERE RESPONSIBLE IN ANY WAY FOR THE URRUTIA ABDUCTION).

8. WE UNDERSTAND THAT THE ACCOUNT OF THE FORMIN HAS NOW EVOLVED TO THE POINT THAT PRESIDENT SERRANO HAS BEEN TOLD THAT POLCOUNS SPECIFICALLY IMPLICATED THE GENERAL STAFF OF THE PRESIDENCY IN THE URRUTIA KIDNAPPING, ALSO TOTALLY FALSE BUT CALCULATED TO ANGER THE PRESIDENT EVEN MORE. (POLCOUNS, AS ACTING DCM AT THE TIME, WAS IN A POSITION TO KNOW THAT WE HAD NO INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION IMPLICATING THE SECURITY FORCES IN THE KIDNAPPING.)

SUBJECT: MARITZA URRUTIA REPORTED SAFE IN NEW MEXICO

1. CONFIDENTIAL -- ENTIRE TEXT.

NO CONTACT WITH ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE

2. HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICER HAD LUNCH ON AUGUST 19 WITH AMCIT DAN SAXON, THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE ATTORNEY WHO HANDLED THE MARITZA URRUTIA CASE. ACCORDING TO SAXON, HIS OFFICE HAS HAD NO CONTACT WITH MARITZA URRUTIA, EDMUNDO URRUTIA, AND AMCIT KATHY RIKER SINCE THEIR DEPARTURE FROM GUATEMALA ON AUGUST 7. SAXON WAS AMONG THOSE WHO ACCOMPANIED THE URRUTIAS AND RIKER TO THEIR AIRPLANE.

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL ASSISTING

3. THE ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE HAS, HOWEVER, BEEN IN TOUCH WITH AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL REPRESENTATIVES IN BOTH NEW MEXICO AND AND BOSTON.

B6

"SANCTUARY" IN ALBUQUERQUE

4. SAXON BELIEVED MARITZA IS CURRENTLY IN ALBUQUERQUE. NEW MEXICO IS A LOGICAL DESTINATION BECAUSE EDMUNDO STUDIED THERE AND A LOCAL AMNESTY CHAPTER LED EFFORTS TO SECURE MARITZA'S RELEASE. NEW MEXICO IS ALSO A "SANCTUARY" STATE (I.E., LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT PERSONNEL MAKE NO EFFORTS TO LOCATE AND DEPORT ILLEGAL ALIENS).

FUTURE PLANS UNCLEAR

5. SAXON HAD NO DETAILS ON THE URRUTIAS FUTURE PLANS. HE DID NOT NOW IF THEY HOPE TO REMAIN INDEFINITELY IN THE U.S. HE REMARKED, HOWEVER, THAT MARITZA SPEAKS LITTLE ENGLISH, MAKING RESUMPTION OF HER TEACHING CAREER UNLIKELY. BEFORE HE LEFT GUATEMALA, EDMUNDO REPORTEDLY MENTIONED HE HOPED TO RETURN TO RESUME SCHOLARLY RESEARCH. EDMUNDO ALSO HAS A DAUGHTER IN GUATEMALA BY A PREVIOUS MARRIAGE.

ODDS & ENDS

6. SAXON REPORTEDLY ASKED MARITZA URRUTIA ON THREE SEPARATE OCCASIONS IF SHE WAS CONNECTED IN ANY WAY WITH THE URNG; SHE DENIED ANY AFFILIATION EACH TIME.

B6

COMMENT: YOU FORGOT TO SAY THANKS

7. THE EMBASSY HAS RECEIVED NO NEWS FROM THE UNITED STATES CONCERNING THE URRUTIAS. WE ARE NOT PARTICULARLY SURPRISED BY THAT LACK OF CONTACT, BUT FIND IT INTERESTING THAT THE URRUTIAS HAVE NOT BEEN IN CONTACT WITH THE ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE EITHER. THERE REMAINS THE POSSIBILITY THAT SAXON WAS NOT ENTIRELY CANDID WITH US ON THIS ISSUE, BUT WE SEE NO REASON WHY HE COULD NOT HAVE SHARED SUCH INFORMATION. POST WOULD APPRECIATE HEARING ANY NEWS THAT COMES TO THE DEPARTMENT'S ATTENTION.

E.O. 12356:DECL:OADR
TAGS: CVIS, PHUM, PGOV, PREL, PINR, GT (URRUTIA, MARITZA)
SUBJ: MARITZA URRUTIA'S STORY

REF: (A) GUATEMALA 08183; (B) GUATEMALA 8289

1. SUMMARY: ALTHOUGH DELAYED IN DRAFTING AND IN TRANSMISSION UNTIL LONG AFTER URRUTIA'S DEPARTURE FOR THE U.S. (REF B), FOR THE HISTORICAL RECORD WE SUBMIT THIS CABLE WHICH CONTAINS DETAILS OF MARITZA URRUTIA'S STORY, AS TOLD TO EMBOFFS IN IN-DEPTH INTERVIEW FOLLOWING THE AUGUST 1 URNG PRESS RELEASE ISSUED IN MEXICO. THE URNG STATED THAT MARITZA URRUTIA WAS AN ACTIVE MEMBER OF THE GUERRILLA. ALL THREE EMBOFFS WHO MET WITH URRUTIA (AS WELL AS THE [redacted] WHO INTERVIEWED HER) BELIEVE HER B1 KIDNAPPING WAS GENUINE. SHE BELIEVES SHE WAS KIDNAPPED BY MEMBERS OF THE ARMY AND HELD BY AN ESTIMATED 30 MEN WHO ROTATED THROUGH AS HER GUARDS. WITH LITTLE IDENTIFYING DETAIL, HOWEVER, IN ALL LIKELIHOOD IT WILL NOT BE DISCOVERED WHO ORGANIZED AND EXECUTED THE KIDNAPPING. END SUMMARY.

2. AN AUGUST 1 PRESS BULLETIN RELEASED IN MEXICO BY THE URNG CONFIRMED THAT MARITZA URRUTIA WAS AN ACTIVE MEMBER OF THE GUERRILLA AND ASKED GOG TO ENSURE HER SAFETY. DUE TO ADDITIONAL DOUBTS ABOUT HER STORY RAISED BY THIS COMMUNIQUE, [redacted] CG VISITED B1 MARITZA URRUTIA FOR A SECOND TIME AT THE ARCHBISHOP'S PALACE ON AUGUST 6. WE WISHED TO VERIFY SOME PARTS OF HER STORY PROVIDED TO EMBOFFS IN THE JULY 31 INTERVIEW AND GET ADDITIONAL DETAILS ABOUT HER EXPERIENCE, IN ORDER TO TRY TO EVALUATE AGAIN THE AUTHENTICITY OF HER KIDNAPPING. WITH HER AT THE INTERVIEW WAS DANIEL SAXON, THE ANCIT ATTORNEY OF THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE. THE INTERVIEW LASTED NEARLY THREE HOURS.

URRUTIA'S PAST

3. URRUTIA, LOOKING FRAIL AND GAUNT AFTER TWO WEEKS WITH VERY LITTLE SLEEP, SAID THAT SHE FIRST WENT TO MEXICO IN 1982, AND CAME AND WENT FROM 1982-88, WHEN SHE RETURNED TO GUATEMALA. SHE CLAIMED TO HAVE WORKED A SHORT TIME IN A PRINTERS (WHOSE NAME SHE COULD NOT REMEMBER) AND TO HAVE WORKED PART-TIME AS A BABYSITTER. IN 1986 SHE MET HER FUTURE HUSBAND (ALTHOUGH THE TWO WERE NEVER FORMALLY MARRIED, SHE

AND THE PRESS REFER TO SEBASTIAN AS HER HUSBAND, SO WE WILL TOO) AT A PARTY AT THE HOME OF FRIENDS, AND LIVED WITH HIM IN THEIR OWN APARTMENT IN MEXICO UNTIL 1990. SHE STUDIED ANTHROPOLOGY AT A MEXICAN UNIVERSITY, BUT WAS NOT A FULLTIME STUDENT. HER HUSBAND WORKED WITH STUDENTS' GROUPS ON PROJECTS REPAIRING EARTHQUAKE DAMAGE, AND HAD OTHER GOOD JOBS. URRUTIA DESPERATELY WANTED A CHILD BUT HAD A DIFFICULT TIME CONCEIVING, AND SUCCEEDED EVENTUALLY ONLY FOLLOWING A YEAR OF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE. THEIR SON WAS BORN IN 1987. WHEN HER HUSBAND TOOK UP WITH ANOTHER WOMAN, HE AND URRUTIA PARTED CORDIALLY, WITHOUT ANIMOSITY OR, SO FAR AS SHE KNOWS, ANY DESIRE FOR REVENGE. SHE LEFT MEXICO WITH THEIR SON. KNOWING SHE WAS A GOOD MOTHER, THERE WAS NO CUSTODY DISPUTE, NOR ANY SUBSEQUENT RECRIMINATIONS.

4. ALTHOUGH THE COUPLE WAS AFFILIATED WITH LIBERAL STUDENTS' GROUPS AND OFTEN TALKED ABOUT REPRESSION IN GUATEMALA, URRUTIA SAYS SHE WAS NOT AWARE THAT HER HUSBAND WAS INVOLVED IN ANY GUERRILLA ACTIVITIES. SHE HERSELF WAS NOT, NOR HAD SHE EVER BEEN ASKED TO JOIN THE GUERRILLAS NOR EVEN TO DO THEM A FAVOR SUCH AS BE A COURIER. SHE KNEW SOME PEOPLE IN THE UNIVERSITY SHE SUSPECTED AS GUERRILLAS. SHE HERSELF LIVED A VERY PEACEFUL LIFE, DEDICATED TO HER SON. FOLLOWING HER RETURN TO GUATEMALA, THE CHILD'S FATHER VISITED THE BOY HERE EVERY 2-3 MONTHS UNTIL ABOUT A YEAR AGO. URRUTIA HAS NOT SEEN HIM SINCE THEN.

5. WHEN ASKED ABOUT HER RECENT ACTIVITIES, URRUTIA SAID SINCE THE BEGINNING OF THIS YEAR SHE HAS WORKED TUTORING YOUNG CHILDREN IN A SCHOOL RUN BY A GUATEMALAN PSYCHOLOGIST, LIZABETH DE RUANO. THE TWO THINGS SHE MOST LOVES ARE CHILDREN AND THE MOVIES.

THE URNG PRESS RELEASE

6. URRUTIA SAID SHE WAS SHOCKED WHEN SHE SAW NEWS OF THE URNG BULLETIN SAYING SHE HAD BEEN ACTIVE IN THE GUERRILLA MOVEMENT. THE ONLY POSSIBLE EXPLANATIONS SHE HAS SURMISED ARE: (1) IF INDEED HER FORMER LOVER IS A GUERRILLA (AS HER KIDNAPPERS MAINTAINED), THE COMMUNIQUE MIGHT BE AN ATTEMPT ON HIS PART TO PROTECT HER -- SHE POINTED OUT THAT THE COMMUNIQUE STARTED OUT BY URGING THE GOG TO ENSURE URRUTIA'S SAFETY AND ONLY THEN DID IT DISCUSS HER GUERRILLA TIES; OR (2) IT COULD BE AN ATTEMPT BY THE URNG TO STIR THE POT AT THE PEACE TALKS JUST ABOUT TO BEGIN THEN AND THEREBY TRY TO GET SOME ADVANTAGE.

THE KIDNAPPING

7. WITH CONSIDERABLE DIFFICULTY AND EMOTION, URRUTIA RECOUNTED HER ORDEAL. UNTIL THE DAY PRIOR TO HER KIDNAPPING, EVERYTHING SEEMED NORMAL. THE DAY BEFORE, HOWEVER, WHEN SHE DROPPED HER LITTLE BOY OFF AT SCHOOL SHE NOTICED A MAN ON THE OPPOSITE CORNER

WHO SEEMED TO BE WATCHING HER BOTH AS SHE WENT INTO THE SCHOOL AND CAME OUT. HE FOLLOWED HER BACK DOWN THE STREET AND A BLOCK OR SO LATER WAS JOINED ANOTHER MAN, BUT THE TWO DID NOT CONTINUE AFTER HER. AS SHE PASSED BY HER HOUSE TO THE BUS STOP, SHE NOTICED A THIRD MAN ACROSS THE STREET. ALTHOUGH HE DID NOT APPEAR TO BE WATCHING HER, HER KIDNAPPERS LATER TOLD HER HE TOO WAS PART OF THE SURVEILLANCE. SHE COULD PROVIDE ONLY A GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE FIRST TWO MEN, AND NONE OF THE THIRD.

8. ON THURSDAY, JULY 23, SHE LEFT HER HOME ABOUT 8 A.M. TO WALK HER SON TO SCHOOL. SHE HAD ONLY THE HOUSE KEY AND 30 CENTS. AFTER SHE HAD LEFT THE CHILD OFF AND WAS RETURNING HOME, SUDDENLY SHE HEARD SOMEONE RUNNING BEHIND HER AND SAW A MAN RUNNING TOWARD HER. BOTH MEN GRABBED HER, PUSHED HER INTO A CAR, COVERED HER HEAD WITH A SWEATER AND COVERED HER MOUTH. (SUBSEQUENTLY, ONE OF HER SHOES WAS FOUND BY THE SPOT SHE WAS KIDNAPPED. ACCORDING TO FAMILY MEMBERS AND THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE, THERE WERE AT LEAST TWO WITNESSES TO THE KIDNAPPING, OTHER MOTHERS DROPPING THEIR KIDS OFF AT THE SCHOOL.)

9. THERE WERE TWO MEN IN THE FRONT SEAT, ONE OF WHOM NOTIFIED BY RADIO "WE'VE GOT HER. GO GET THE OTHER ONE." (THE KIDNAPPERS LATER TOLD HER "THE OTHER ONE" WAS HER SON.) SHE COULD SEE NO FACES, BUT SAID SHE WAS IN A 4-DOOR WHITE LUXURY CAR WITH CRUSHED VELVET SEATS. THEY DROVE 15-20 MINUTES, PART OF WHICH WAS ON A DIRT ROAD, BUT SHE HEARD NO IDENTIFYING SOUNDS,

NOR SMELLED ANYTHING THAT INDICATED WHERE SHE WAS. HER 4 CAPTORS WERE SILENT; THEY HELD HER TIGHT, ALTHOUGH SHE WASN'T MOVING, AND THE DRIVER DROVE QUITE FAST.

10. SHE WAS PASSED FROM THE WHITE CAR INTO ANOTHER VEHICLE, A RED VAN. HER HEAD WAS COVERED WITH A HOOD MADE FROM A NEWSPAPER (THE INSIDE OF THE HAT WAS THE FIRST PAGE OF "EL GRAFICO" NEWSPAPER OF THAT MORNING -- SHE CONTINUED TO HAVE TO WEAR THIS HAT DURING MOST OF HER CAPTIVITY.) SHE COULD SEE A BIT OUT THE BOTTOM OF THE HOOD, E.G. EXPENSIVE BRAND-NAME TENNIS SHOES WORN BY HER CAPTORS, THE COLORS OF THE CARS, CEMENT, BUT NOTHING USEFUL IN TRACKING HER CAPTORS. HER CAPTORS BEGAN QUESTIONING HER IN THIS VAN UNTIL ABOUT 11:30 A.M., EVENTUALLY TELLING HER THAT IT WAS NOT TRUE THAT THEY HAD ALSO KIDNAPPED HER SON. SHE BEGGED PERMISSION TO CALL HER FAMILY TO ASK THEM TO PICK UP THE CHILD AT SCHOOL, WHICH WAS GRANTED. THEY ALSO PERMITTED HER TO CALL A FRIEND WHO WAS INSTRUCTED TO CALL URRUTIA'S MOTHER TO TELL HER NOT TO WORRY, THAT MARITZA WAS WITH THE FRIEND.

MARITZA'S CAPTIVITY

11. HER QUESTIONING CONTINUED VIRTUALLY UNABATED FOR 2-3 DAYS. THEY ASKED MOSTLY ABOUT HER HUSBAND, ALTHOUGH THEY DID NOT SHOW HER A PHOTO OF HIM. THEY HAD 3 ALBUMS OF PHOTOS, AND SHOWED THEM OVER AND OVER, INCLUDING SOME TAKEN IN FRONT OF HER HOUSE AT LEAST 4 DAYS PRIOR TO HER KIDNAPPING (ONE OF THEM INCLUDED HER COUSIN LEAVING THE HOUSE, AND HE HAD LEFT THE CITY 4 DAYS BEFORE THE KIDNAPPING). SOME OF THE PHOTOS WERE OF DEAD BODIES -- SHE WAS TOLD HER HUSBAND WOULD END UP LIKE THESE BODIES. AT 4 P.M. THAT AFTERNOON, THEY PERMITTED HER TO MAKE ANOTHER CALL TO HER FAMILY, THE PURPOSE OF WHICH WAS TO REASSURE THE FAMILY SO THAT THEY WOULD NOT REPORT HER MISSING TO THE POLICE AND PRESS. (DESPITE THE CALLS, THE FAMILY DID PUBLICLY REPORT HER DISAPPEARANCE.) THE CALLS WERE MADE FROM A PUBLIC TELEPHONE, AND HER PART OF THE CONVERSATION WAS RECORDED BY HER CAPTORS.

12. HER CAPTORS RADIOED TO SOMEPLACE SAYING "PREPARE A ROOM." SHE WAS TAKEN TO A HOUSE, WHERE SHE

REMAINED DURING MOST OF THE REST OF HER CAPTIVITY, WITH ONE WRIST HANDCUFFED TO THE BED. SHE WAS ALWAYS FORCED TO WEAR THE NEWSPAPER HOOD, EXCEPT FOR WHEN SHE WAS BEING FILMED. HER CAPTORS WORE HOODS DURING THOSE FILMING SESSIONS, PREVENTING URRUTIA FROM IDENTIFYING THEM. HER CAPTORS ASKED ABOUT HER HUSBAND, HIS FRIENDS, HIS CHARACTER, AS WELL AS HER OWN ACTIVITIES. SHE MENTIONED HER BROTHER WHO HAD AN A.I.D. SCHOLARSHIP (HE HAD BEEN IN THE U.S. ON A FULBRIGHT), BUT HER QUESTIONERS SAID "ALL OF THESE PEOPLE ARE LEFTISTS." THEY TOOK HER OUT AGAIN THAT NIGHT TO CALL HOME -- HER KIDNAPPERS WANTED HER TO TALK TO HER FATHER, BUT HE WAS NOT AT HOME. SHE WAS SHOWN MORE PHOTOS UNTIL ABOUT 3 A.M., WHEN SHE WAS LEFT ALONE TO SLEEP. HOWEVER THEY LEFT THE MUSIC ON, FULL BLAST, AS WELL AS THE LIGHT, AND SHE GOT

VIRTUALLY NO SLEEP.

13. THE FOLLOWING DAY, SHE WAS ASKED TO WRITE A STATEMENT ABOUT HER "GUERRILLA INVOLVEMENT", FOR WHICH THEY HAD TO MOVE HER TO THE OTHER SIDE OF THE BED AND HANDCUFF HER LEFT HAND, CAREFULLY PUTTING HER SWEATER BETWEEN HER WRIST AND THE HANDCUFF SO AS NOT TO BRUISE HER. IN HER WRITTEN STATEMENT, SHE WROTE WHAT SHE THOUGHT THEY WANTED TO HEAR, INCLUDING ASKING FOR AMNESTY FROM THE GOVERNMENT. WHEN SHE SIGNED IT, HER CAPTORS CALMED DOWN. THEY ASKED IF SHE WANTED TO GO TO GENEVA IN AUGUST TO PROVIDE TESTIMONY AT THE UNITED NATIONS, TO WHICH SHE READILY AGREED. THEY OFFERED TO LET HER RETURN HOME, WITH ONE GUARD, IF SHE WOULD BEHAVE. ALTHOUGH SHE READILY AGREED TO THIS PROPOSAL, THEY DID NOT LET HER GO.

14. ON FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 24, HER CAPTORS STARTED FILMING THE VIDEO, THE TEXT OF WHICH WAS BASED ON HER WRITTEN STATEMENT. THEY CORRECTED HER OVER AND OVER, TELLING HER TO ADD THANKS TO VARIOUS INSTITUTIONS AND GROUPS. AT 1 A.M., THEY PERMITTED HER TO MAKE ANOTHER CALL TO HER FAMILY.

15. FOR THE NEXT SEVERAL DAYS, AS HER CAPTORS WERE NOT SATISFIED WITH THE QUALITY OF HER VIDEO PERFORMANCE, THEY CONTINUED FILMING HER. THEY TOLD HER SHE WAS TOO NERVOUS, HER HANDS REVEALED TOO MUCH TENSION, SHE MOVED TOO MUCH, ETC. THE VIDEO WAS GRADUALLY SHORTENED FROM 10 MINUTES TO ABOUT 5 MINUTES. SHE WAS INSTRUCTED TO INCLUDE THE NAME OF

HER BROTHER AND MOTHER, TO REMOVE HER THANKS TO THE MILITARY (WHICH SHE HAD EARLIER BEEN INSTRUCTED TO INCLUDE), AND TO ADD THANKS TO QUOTE THE U.S. EMBASSY HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE UNQUOTE. URRUTIA ESTIMATED THAT THEY MADE OVER 50 TAKES OF THE VIDEO DURING THE WEEK OF HER CAPTIVITY.

16. GIVEN HER COOPERATION, HER TREATMENT GRADUALLY IMPROVED. THE FOOD WENT FROM STONE COLD TORTILLAS TO STILL WARM FOOD BROUGHT IN FROM OUTSIDE. SHE WAS PERMITTED TO TAKE A COLD SHOWER. SOME OF HER CAPTORS WERE FRIENDLY TO HER, REASSURING HER THAT SHE WOULD BE FREED. (AT ONE POINT IN HER INTERVIEW WITH EMBOFFS, URRUTIA BROKE DOWN WHEN SHE RECOUNTED THAT SHE EVEN BEGAN THINKING OF ONE OF HER CAPTORS AS "HER FRIEND.")

17. ON SATURDAY, JULY 25, HER CAPTORS ALL LEFT TO GO ON AN "OPERATION." PRIOR TO THEIR DEPARTURE, THEY PERMITTED HER TO TAKE A BATH, AND BROUGHT HER MAKE-UP THEY HAD PURCHASED FOR HER. URRUTIA SAYS SHE

NORMALLY WEARS LITTLE IF ANY MAKE-UP. THE AMOUNT OF MAKE-UP SHE HAD ON IN THE VIDEO WAS ONE OF THE THINGS HER FAMILY COMMENTED ON AFTER SEEING IT ON TELEVISION THE EVENING PRIOR TO HER RELEASE.) SHE WAS LEFT ALONE, BUT ALWAYS WITH THE RADIO ON FULL BLAST. SHE HEARD MUSIC AND A SOCCER GAME. WHEN HER CAPTORS RETURNED, THEY CONTINUED QUESTIONING HER, THIS TIME ABOUT MYRNA MACK. URRUTIA SAID SHE DID NOT KNOW MACK.

18. DURING THE NEXT FEW DAYS, THEY CONTINUED FILMING

HER, INSTRUCTING HER TO BE MORE NATURAL. ALL THE TEXT OF WHAT SHE WAS TO SAY HAD BEEN WRITTEN OUT ON POSTER BOARD, AND SHE HAD TO READ IT BUT WITHOUT APPEARING TO READ. ONE FILMING WAS RUINED WHEN THE PERSON HOLDING THE POSTER BOARD DROPPED IT AND URRUTIA BURST OUT LAUGHING. HER TREATMENT CONTINUED TO IMPROVE -- THEY STOPPED QUESTIONING HER, PROVIDED HER CIGARETTES (ALTHOUGH SHE HAD STOPPED SMOKING SEVERAL YEARS BEFORE IN MEXICO, SHE STARTED UP AGAIN DURING HER CAPTIVITY), ALLOWED HER A HOT BATH. THEY REASSURED HER SHE WOULD SOON BE FREE, AND TOLD HER THAT HER SISTER HAD RETURNED TO GUATEMALA. BY MONDAY, JULY 27, HER FOOD WAS ARRIVING ON PORCELAIN.

19. ON TUESDAY, JULY 28, THE FILMING CONTINUED. SOMEONE CALLED HER CAPTORS LATE AT NIGHT SAYING SHE WOULD BE ALLOWED TO GO HOME THE FOLLOWING DAY. THEY PROVIDED HER A CHANGE OF CLOTHES, AND ARRIVED FOR HER IN A BIG PICK-UP TRUCK. HER CAPTORS' ATTITUDE SUDDENLY CHANGED -- THEY WERE BRUSQUE WITH HER, AND SHE COULD HEAR THEIR WEAPONS RATTLING AS THEY TOOK HER OUTSIDE. SHE HAD THE STRONG IMPRESSION SHE WAS GOING TO BE KILLED. THEY DROVE HER AROUND FOR ABOUT 25 MINUTES, AND SHE HEARD THEM COMMUNICATING VIA RADIO WITH ANOTHER CAR ACCOMPANYING THE PICK-UP. URRUTIA SAID SHE WAS PRAYING VERY HARD, LOST FOCUS ON HER SURROUNDINGS, AND HAD TO REMIND HERSELF TO PAY ATTENTION. IN THE END, THEY SIMPLY RETURNED HER TO THE HOUSE SHE HAD BEEN KEPT IN ALL WEEK, TO HER GREAT RELIEF.

20. ON WEDNESDAY, JULY 29, SHE TRIED NOT TO HOPE FOR HER RELEASE. THEY DID MORE FILMING, THIS TIME INSTRUCTING HER TO REMOVE THE WORD "AMNESTY" FROM THE TEXT. SHE INSISTED ON KEEPING IT, AS SHE FELT IT WAS A MESSAGE TO HER FAMILY THAT HER WORDS WERE UTTERED AGAINST HER WILL. THE TEXT WAS FURTHER MODIFIED, REMOVING ALL MENTION OF HER HUSBAND'S SISTERS' NAMES AND THE REFERENCE TO URRUTIA'S "SELF-KIDNAPPING". THEY FILMED HER UNTIL ABOUT 6 P.M., WHEN SOME OF HER CAPTORS LEFT TO MAKE PHONECALLS TO TV STATIONS. AS SHE FELT THEY WERE ABOUT TO LET HER GO, SHE ASKED ONE OF HER CAPTORS FOR ADVICE ON HOW TO KEEP SAFE -- SHE OFFERED AGAIN TO GO TO GENEVA TO SPEAK AT THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS REVIEW.

21. ONCE AGAIN HER CAPTORS TOOK HER OUT TO CALL HER FATHER, BUT RETURNED HER TO THE HIDEAWAY, WHERE THEY TALKED OVER IDEAS ABOUT HOW SHE WOULD SEEK GOG AMNESTY, INCLUDING DOING IT VIA THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE.

22. THE NIGHT OF JULY 29, HER LAST NIGHT IN CAPTIVITY, FOR THE FIRST TIME HER CAPTORS TURNED OUT THE LIGHT IN HER ROOM AND SILENCED THE MUSIC. NONETHELESS URRUTIA HAD A DIFFICULT TIME SLEEPING AND WOKE UP EARLY THE NEXT MORNING WITH A BAD CASE OF DIARRHEA (WHICH CAUSED HER SOME EMBARASSMENT WITH BOTH HER CAPTORS AND IN RECOUNTING IT TO EMBOFFS). THE KIDNAPPERS BROUGHT HER A BETTER BREAKFAST WITH COFFEE, AND PROVIDED HER LOMOTIL. THEY BROUGHT HER SOME NEW CLOTHES, AND GAVE HER BACK HER WATCH, HER

HOUSEKEY AND HER 38 CENTS. SHE WAS READY TO GO AT 11 A.M.

URRUTIA'S RELEASE

23. AT TWO P.M. ON JULY 30, THREE MEN TOOK HER TO A CAR. TWO SAT IN FRONT AND SHE WAS PLACED IN THE BACK WITH THE THIRD. THEY BROUGHT HER THE MAKE-UP PREVIOUSLY PURCHASED FOR THE VIDEO FILMING. THEY REMOVED HER NEWSPAPER HOOD, TOLD HER TO MAKE HERSELF UP. SHE WAS THEN DRIVEN TO A CORNER NEAR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, AND ALLOWED TO WALK AWAY DIRECTLY TO THAT OFFICE.

24. FOLLOWING HER TALK WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL, HE ACCOMPANIED HER TO JUDGE LETICIA SECAIRA'S OFFICE (FIFTH COURT OF FIRST INSTANCE), WHERE URRUTIA FORMALLY ASKED FOR GOG AMNESTY. HER FAMILY, WHOM SHE HAD CALLED IMMEDIATELY UPON HER ARRIVAL AT THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, WAS WITH HER. FOLLOWING HER JUDICIAL STATEMENT, SHE PARTICIPATED IN THE PRESS CONFERENCE, WHERE SHE RATIFIED WHAT SHE HAD SAID IN THE VIDEO AND IN HER JUDICIAL STATEMENT. ACCORDING TO URRUTIA, HER BROTHER HAD TRIED TO TALK HER OUT OF DOING THE PRESS CONFERENCE, BUT SHE INSISTED -- IT WAS PART OF THE BARGAIN SHE HAD STRUCK WITH HER KIDNAPPERS AND SHE WAS TERRIFIED SOMETHING WOULD HAPPEN TO SOMEONE IN HER FAMILY IF SHE DID NOT LIVE UP TO HER WORD -- HER KIDNAPPERS HAD TOLD HER SPECIFICALLY THAT IF SHE DID NOT KEEP HER WORD, HER FAMILY "WOULD PAY THE PRICE."

25. HER FAMILY THEN DROVE HER DIRECTLY TO THE ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE, WHERE THEY HAD MADE PREVIOUS ARRANGEMENTS FOR HER TO REMAIN. THE FAMILY HAD DEDUCED FROM THE PHONE CALLS AND THE VIDEO THAT SHE WAS BEING HELD AGAINST HER WILL, NEEDED TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY IMMEDIATELY AND TO BE PROVIDED A SAFE HOUSE UNTIL NECESSARY ARRANGEMENTS WERE CONCLUDED.

26. EMBOFFS ASKED URRUTIA SPECIFICALLY WHO SHE THOUGHT HAD KIDNAPPED HER. SHE BROKE DOWN TOTALLY, BUT AFTER COMPOSING HERSELF SAID SHE THOUGHT IT WAS THE GUATEMALAN ARMY. WHEN ASKED WHAT MADE HER THINK THAT, SHE REPLIED THAT IN ADDITION TO THAT BEING THE WAY THINGS HAPPENED IN GUATEMALA, SHE ONCE HEARD TWO OF HER CAPTORS TALKING, AND ONE SAID TO THE OTHER, "DON'T FORGET THAT YOU ARE IN THE ARMY, AND THAT MILITARY DISCIPLINE IS REQUIRED." SHE SAID ALL OF HER CAPTORS WERE MEN, ALTHOUGH OCCASIONALLY SHE HEARD A WOMAN'S VOICE -- THE WOMAN WAS THERE AS A COOK AND TO DO ERRANDS. SHE ESTIMATED THAT SOME 30 MEN ROTATED THROUGH THE HOUSE SHE WAS BEING HELD TO GUARD HER.

27. URRUTIA REVEALED THAT HER FEAR FOR HER SAFETY IN GUATEMALA STEMMED NOT ONLY FROM HER HAVING BEEN KIDNAPPED BUT THE FACT THAT HER CAPTORS WERE NOT THROUGH WITH HER -- THEY TOLD HER SHE NEEDED TO APPEAR AT A CERTAIN TIME THE FOLLOWING WEEK IN A SHOPPING MALL "TO RECEIVE FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS." SHE ASKED EMBOFFS RHETORICALLY "HOW CAN I EVER FEEL SAFE

CONFIDENTIAL

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
UNCLASSIFIED
ARAYNEA REARCS

DROPPING MY LITTLE BOY OFF AT SCHOOL UNDER SUCH CONDITIONS?"

28. ALTHOUGH BY SEEKING TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY SHE BROKE PART OF HER AGREEMENT WITH THE KIDNAPPERS, URRUTIA SAID SHE BELIEVES IF SHE REMAINS QUIET AFTER HER DEPARTURE HER CAPTORS WILL NOT RETALIATE AGAINST HER FAMILY. SHE INDICATED HER CLEAR DESIRE TO RESUME AN ANONYMOUS LIFE AND SAID SHE HAD NO INTENTIONS OF SPEAKING TO THE PRESS, HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS OR OTHER ORGANIZED SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS.

29. COMMENT: BASED ON THE FACTS, DETAILS AND EMOTIONS DISPLAYED IN THE TWO INTERVIEWS, EMBOFFS ARE CONVINCED THAT URRUTIA'S KIDNAPPING WAS GENUINE. UNFORTUNATELY, GIVEN THE PAUCITY OF USABLE INFORMATION URRUTIA WAS ABLE TO PROVIDE ABOUT HER CAPTORS, IT IS UNLIKELY WE WILL EVER BEEN CERTAIN WHO KIDNAPPED HER. END COMMENT.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE MINISTRY OF THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION FOR ATOMIC ENERGY CONCERNING THE SAFE AND SECURE TRANSPORTATION OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS AND NUCLEAR WEAPONS MATERIAL THROUGH THE PROVISION OF CARGO AND GUARD RAILCAR CONVERSION KITS

The Department of Defense of the United States of America and the Ministry of the Russian Federation for Atomic Energy, hereinafter referred to as the Parties,

Desiring to facilitate the safe and secure transportation and storage of nuclear weapons and nuclear weapons material in the Russian Federation in connection with the destruction of nuclear weapons and to assist in the prevention of weapons proliferation,

Have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I

1. In order to assist the Russian Federation in the safe and secure transportation of nuclear weapons and nuclear weapons material in connection with the expeditious destruction of nuclear weapons, the Department of Defense of the United States of America, hereinafter referred to as the DoD, shall provide at no cost to the Ministry of the Russian Federation for Atomic Energy, hereinafter referred to as the MINATOM, cargo and guard railcar conversion kits in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and conforming with technical specifications established by the DoD. In establishing these technical specifications, the DoD shall take into account the recommendations of the MINATOM and the results of technical discussions between the parties. Additional procedures, requirements, and technical specifications related to the provision of the cargo and guard railcar conversion kits shall be established by the DoD after consultation with MINATOM following review of the final engineering design.

2. The MINATOM shall use all material, training, and services provided in accordance with this Agreement for the purpose of providing protective transportation of nuclear weapons and nuclear weapons material in connection with the expeditious destruction of nuclear weapons.

3. The DoD and the United States of America shall not be responsible for ensuring either the proper use of material, training, or services provided in accordance with this Agreement or in any case where the material, training, or services fail to provide intended levels of protection.

4. This Agreement and all activities undertaken in accordance with this Agreement shall be subject to the provisions of the Agreement Between the United States of America and the Russian Federation Concerning the Safe and Secure Transportation, Storage and Destruction of Weapons and the Prevention of Weapons Proliferation of June 17, 1992, hereinafter referred to as the Weapons Destruction and Non-Proliferation Agreement.

ARTICLE II

1. Each Party to this Agreement shall have the right, upon written notification to the other Party, to delegate responsibilities for the implementation of this Agreement to other agencies, departments, or units of their respective governments.

2. Each Party to this Agreement shall have the right, upon written notification to the other Party, to designate technical liaison representatives for material, training, and services provided pursuant to this Agreement.

ARTICLE III

1. The total cost to the DoD of all material, training, and services provided pursuant to this Agreement and associated expenses, including costs related to the transportation of material and personnel to and from the Russian Federation, shall not exceed twenty million U.S. dollars.

2. The DoD shall deliver up to one-hundred cargo railcar conversion kits and fifteen guard railcar conversion kits to the MINATOM pursuant to this Agreement. The non-binding target date for completion of the delivery of these cargo and guard railcar conversion kits is April 30, 1994. The DoD may, at its discretion, change the number of cargo and guard railcar conversion kits to be delivered pursuant to this Agreement, provided that the total cost of cargo and guard railcar conversion kits does not exceed the limit of twenty million U.S. dollars which is provided in paragraph 1 of this Article.

3. The equipment to be provided pursuant to this Agreement shall be delivered at Moscow, unless the Parties otherwise agree. The DoD shall notify the MINATOM of the planned date of each shipment at least seven days in advance of the anticipated shipping date. The MINATOM shall take possession of the cargo and guard railcar conversion kits within six hours after receipt of the notification of arrival of such conversion kits.

4. The MINATOM shall examine all cargo and guard railcar conversion kits received pursuant to this Agreement and provide confirmation to the DoD within ten days of receipt that they conform with the technical specifications established by the DoD. Cargo and guard railcar conversion kits which do not conform to these specifications or which have been damaged in shipment shall be returned for replacement to the United States of America through the Embassy of the United States of America in the Russian Federation within 30 days of receipt.

ARTICLE IV

1. Within 30 days of the entry into force of this Agreement, the MINATOM shall provide to the DoD a document, in both the Russian and English languages, which fully describes all design requirements that the MINATOM recommends for the proposed cargo and guard railcar conversion. At a minimum, this document shall include the following information: vibration input environments; temperature and humidity environments; power availability to be provided by an axle generator, rectifier, and battery pack in each cargo railcar; types of detection and recording required; and other design requirements. The requirements specified within this document shall constitute only a MINATOM recommendation and the DoD shall, to the maximum extent practicable, use it in the design of conversion kits to be provided to the MINATOM.

2. Within 45 days of the date of entry into force of this Agreement, the MINATOM shall make available for transport, to and from the United States of America, one cargo railcar. This cargo railcar should be fully representative of cargo railcars used by the Russian Federation to move nuclear weapons and nuclear weapons material. The cargo railcar shall be available for use within the United States for a minimum of 160 days and the DoD shall assume all transportation expenses for the cargo railcar from the Russian port of embarkation to Albuquerque, New Mexico and return. The DoD shall not be liable for any loss of, or damage to, this cargo railcar.

3. Following development by the DoD of a system design for cargo and guard railcar conversion, the DoD shall provide to the MINATOM, for information purposes only, cost estimates and a schedule for related design, testing, training, and procurement activities. Delivery of cargo and guard railcar conversion kits pursuant to this Agreement shall be performed in accordance with a schedule to be established by the DoD. The DoD, following consultation with the MINATOM, shall establish a group of senior technical advisors, including representatives of both the DoD and the MINATOM, for the purpose of providing advice with respect to the overall design effort.

4. The DoD may, at its discretion, change components to provide equivalent or improved system technical characteristics at any time prior to completion of delivery of all conversion kits. If such a change is not compatible with kits already delivered, the DoD shall provide additional components to ensure such compatibility.

5. The DoD may, at its discretion and upon request from the MINATOM, provide technical assistance to the MINATOM to ensure the proper installation of the conversion kits and their effective operation.

ARTICLE V

Upon 30 days advance notice and no more than three times in each calendar year, representatives of the DoD shall have the right to examine the use of any material, training, or other services provided in accordance with this Agreement, if possible at sites of their location or use, and shall have the right to inspect any and all related records or documentation during the period of this Agreement and for three years thereafter.

ARTICLE VI

The Parties may, as appropriate, enter into implementing arrangements to carry out the provisions of this Agreement. In case of any inconsistency between this Agreement and any such arrangements, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail.

ARTICLE VII

This Agreement shall enter into force upon signature and shall remain in force for four years or for the duration of the Weapons Destruction and Non-Proliferation Agreement, whichever is shorter. This Agreement may be amended or extended by the written agreement of the Parties and may be terminated by either Party upon ninety days written notification to the other Party of its intention to do so.

Done at Moscow, Russian Federation, this 28th day of August, 1992, in two copies, each in the English and Russian languages, both texts being equally authentic.

SUBJECT: ALERT REPORT, FREE TRADE MEANS MORE NUKES

1. FREE TRADE MEANS MORE NUKES, THAT IS THE TITLE OF AN ARTICLE WRITTEN BY THERESE MARGOLIS, STAFF WRITER FOR MEXICO'S ENGLISH LANGUAGE DAILY, THE NEWS. THE ARTICLE IS BASED ON TWO INTERVIEWS WITH OFFICIALS OF MEXICO'S NATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR NUCLEAR RESEARCH (ININ).

2. MR. HUMBERTO MAZON RODRIGUEZ, DIRECTOR OF RADIOACTIVE REACTORS AT ININ TOLD THE NEWS THAT THE WASTE AND POLLUTION RESULTING FROM THE USE OF CONVENTIONAL FUELS FOR ENERGY GENERATION IS NOW A SERIOUS THREAT TO MEXICO'S ENVIRONMENT. ACCORDING TO MAZON, WHILE NUCLEAR ENERGY WOULD USE ABOUT 30 TONS OF URANIUM TO POWER A CITY, A NATURAL GAS PLANT WOULD REQUIRE 1.3 MILLION TONS OF FUEL AND

A CARBON PLANT WOULD NEED 2.5 MILLION TONS OF FUEL FOR THE SAME TASK. MAZON ADDED THAT EVEN THE HYDROELECTRIC FACILITIES, WHICH NOW PRODUCE 60 PERCENT OF THE NATION'S ELECTRICITY, SERIOUSLY AFFECT THE ECOLOGICAL BALANCE OF THE REGIONS WHERE THEY ARE BUILT. MAZON CONCLUBED THAT MEXICO'S PARTICIPATION IN THE NORTH AMERICAN FREE TRADE AGREEMENT (NAFTA) WILL DEMAND WORLD CLASS EFFICIENCIES AND PRODUCTIVITY LEVELS. ABUNDANT AND INEXPENSIVE ENERGY WILL BE AN ESSENTIAL FACTOR PLANT IN LAGUNA VERDE, VERACRUZ. MAZON FORESEES THE CONSTRUCTION OF SIMILAR PLANTS IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

3. MR. ADOLFO SALDANA PEDROZA, WHO OVERSEES THE ININ'S RADIATION TESTING RESEARCH, INFORMED THE NEWS THAT HIS ORGANIZATION'S 10-YEAR OLD COBALT-60 RADIATION PLANT IS NOW OPERATING AT FULL CAPACITY STERILIZING FRESH AND DRIED FOODS FOR EXPORT. MEXICO'S AGRICULTURAL SECTOR IS ALSO LIKELY TO GET A MAJOR BOOST FROM NAFTA BELATED DEVELOPMENTS AND

UNCLASSIFIED

THUS, ADDITIONAL COBALT-60 TREATMENT FACILITIES WILL BE NEEDED. SALDANA ADDED THAT WHILE THE EXISTING COBALT-60 FACILITY IS OPERATED BY THE STATE THROUGH THE ININ, NEW GOVERNMENT POLICIES SUGGEST THAT FUTURE FACILITIES SHOULD BE THE RESULT OF PRIVATE SECTOR INITIATIVES.

4. COMMENT: POST HAS AN EXCELLENT WORKING RELATIONSHIP WITH ININ. MOST OFFICIALS OF THAT ORGANIZATION ARE ACCESSIBLE TO VISITING BUSINESS PERSONS AND ARE WILLING TO DISCUSS SECTOR POLICIES, TRENDS AND PROSPECTS.

1. AMCIT KATHY RIKER, FIANCEE OF MARITZA URRUTIA'S BROTHER, STOPPED BY EMBASSY SEPTEMBER 3 TO INFORM US SHE HAS TEMPORARILY RETURNED TO GUATEMALA FOR A FEW WEEKS. SHE IS WRAPPING UP SOME PERSONAL AFFAIRS, AND WILL GO BACK TO NEW MEXICO WHEN THIS IS DONE. SHE INDICATED SHE RETURNED AFTER BEING ASSURED BY HER FIANCE'S PARENTS THAT THEY HAD SUFFERED NO THREATS OR ANYTHING ELSE SINCE THE PUBLICITY ABOUT MARITZA'S DEPARTURE. SHE ADDED THAT SHE FEELS SECURE ABOUT HER OWN SAFETY HERE, OR SHE WOULD NOT HAVE RETURNED.

2. RIKER SAID MARITZA URRUTIA AND HER SON ARE IN NEW MEXICO. SHE HAS NO INTENTION, FROM WHAT RIKER CAN TELL, OF TRAVELING ANYWHERE OUTSIDE OF THE U.S., AND CERTAINLY NOT TO MEXICO. THEY HAD NO PROBLEMS IN LEAVING GUATEMALA ON AUGUST 7, NOR IN ARRIVING IN THE U.S.

3. RIKER ADDED THAT SHE IS JUST NOW LEARNING OF THE TEMPEST CAUSED BY MARITZA'S DEPARTURE, AND SHE APOLOGIZED FOR ANY INCONVIENCE THIS ENTIRE INCIDENT MIGHT HAVE CAUSED EMBASSY STAFF. SHE EXPRESSED HER APPRECIATION FOR THE ASSISTANCE GIVEN BY HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICER JEFF MOON, AND POLCOUNS GEORGE CHESTER, DURING THE DAYS PRIOR TO MARITZA'S DEPARTURE.

4. IN REPONSE TO EMBOFF'S OFFER OF ASSISTANCE WHILE SHE IS IN GUATEMALA, RIKER RESPONDED THAT SHE WILL STAY IN TOUCH BUT SHE IS NOT EXPECTING ANY PROBLEMS. SHE IS STAYING WITH HER FIANCE'S PARENTS AND HOPES TO GET THINGS TIED UP HERE WITHIN A WEEK OR SO, AND WILL THEN RETURN TO THE U.S.

1. SUMMARY: APPROXIMATELY 20,000 COUPLES FROM 131 NATIONS WERE MARRIED BY THE REVEREND SUN MYUNG MOON OF THE UNIFICATION CHURCH IN A FESTIVE MASS CEREMONY HELD IN SEOUL'S OLYMPIC STADIUM ON AUGUST 24. AN ADDITIONAL 10,000 COUPLES RECITED THEIR VOWS VIA SIMULTANEOUS SATELLITE HOOKUPS TO BRAZIL, THE PHILIPPINES, ZAIRE, KENYA, AND NIGERIA. THE RECENT CEREMONY

WAS BY FAR THE LARGEST OF THE TWELVE MASS NUPTIALS SPONSORED BY THE CHURCH SINCE 1962, AND CHURCH SPOKESMEN CLAIM THAT IT WAS THE LARGEST WEDDING SINCE ALEXANDER THE GREAT FORCED HIS ARMIES TO INTERMARRY WITH CONQUERED PERSIANS IN 300 B.C. END SUMMARY

2. THE OLYMPIC STADIUM WAS BEDECKED WITH A COLORFUL ARRAY OF BUNTING, FLAGS, BALLOONS AND BANNERS FOR THE EVENT. NEARLY THE ENTIRE LOWER TIER OF THE STADIUM WAS FILLED WITH ROW UPON ROW OF ALMOST IDENTICALLY DRESSED BRIDES AND GROOMS. EACH GROOM WORE A DARK BLUE SUIT, WHITE SHIRT, RED TIE, AND WHITE GLOVES. EACH BRIDE WORE A WHITE FULL LENGTH WEDDING DRESS AND VEIL CHOSEN FROM PATTERNS SELECTED BY REV. MOON'S WIFE. A HANDFUL OF BRIDES IN ONE SECTION OF THE STADIUM APPEARED WITHOUT GROOMS, EACH FORLORNLY HOLDING A PHOTOGRAPH OF HER INTENDED.

3. ALTHOUGH DRESSED ALIKE, THE WEDDING PARTICIPANTS WERE A DIVERSE LOT. THE COUPLES RANGED IN AGE FROM VERY YOUNG TO QUITE ELDERLY. (ONE VERY ELDERLY GENTLEMAN WAS MARRIED IN HIS WHEELCHAIR.) THE MAJORITY OF THE PARTICIPANTS, APPROXIMATELY 30,000, WERE JAPANESE. ABOUT 4,000 SOUTH KOREANS MADE UP THE SECOND LARGEST ETHNIC GROUP. THE REMAINING COUPLES WERE DRAWN FROM OTHER AREAS OF ASIA, AFRICA, EUROPE, AUSTRALIA, AND NORTH AND SOUTH AMERICA. MOST OF THE COUPLES WERE OF THE SAME ETHNIC BACKGROUND, BUT MANY OF THE MARRIAGES WERE INTERRACIAL OR BI-NATIONAL. JAPANESE WERE MATCHED WITH AFRICANS, KOREANS WITH EUROPEANS, NORTH AMERICANS WITH SOUTH AMERICANS, AND SO ON. SOME OF THE COUPLES DO NOT EVEN SHARE A COMMON LANGUAGE.

4. A NUMBER OF WELL-KNOWN JAPANESE WERE AMONG THE WEDDING CELEBRANTS. POPULAR TELEVISION ACTRESS JUNKO SAKURADA, WHO HAD UNTIL RECENTLY KEPT SECRET HER UNIFICATION CHURCH AFFILIATION, MARRIED A MAN SELECTED FOR HER BY REV. MOON. FORMER OLYMPIC GYMNAST YAMAZAKI HIROKO AND BADMINTON STAR ATSUKO TOKUDA ALSO PARTICIPATED IN THE MASS NUPTIALS.

5. UNIFICATION CHURCH SPOKESMEN SAY THAT REV. MOON PERSONALLY MATCHED EACH OF THE COUPLES ON THE BASIS OF PHOTOGRAPHS AND PERSONAL BIOGRAPHIES. CHURCH OFFICIALS CLAIM THAT REV. MOON POSSESSES A "DIVINE GIFT" FOR MATCHMAKING. ACCORDING TO ONE ENGLISH GROOM, REV. MOON IS AN EXCELLENT JUDGE OF CHARACTER AND CAN MATCH COUPLES SIMPLY BY LOOKING AT THEIR FACES. THE ENGLISHMAN ALSO SAID THAT CHURCH MEMBERS TRUST IN REV MOON'S JUDGMENT AND BELIEVE THAT THEIR MARRIAGES ARE BASED ON GOD'S WILL RATHER THAN ON HUMAN DESIRES. AN AMERICAN GROOM, WHEN ASKED WHETHER HE WAS SATISFIED WITH REV MOON'S CHOICE OF BRIDE FOR HIM, REPLIED, "THE TRUE FATHER'S WILL MUST PREVAIL."

6 THE BRIDES AND GROOMS MATCHED BY REV. MOON HAVE KNOWN ONE ANOTHER FOR VARYING LENGTHS OF TIME. SOME WERE ACTUALLY ALREADY MARRIED AND SIMPLY ATTENDED THE CEREMONY TO RECEIVE REV. MOON'S BLESSING. OTHERS HAD KNOWN EACH OTHER FOR SEVERAL YEARS. THE VAST MAJORITY, HOWEVER, MET THEIR SPOUSES-TO-BE FOR THE FIRST TIME IN SEOUL ONLY A FEW DAYS PRIOR TO THE CEREMONY. SOME COUPLES HAD NOT MET AT ALL PRIOR TO ARRIVING AT OLYMPIC STADIUM FOR THEIR MARRIAGE. AN AMERICAN GROOM SAID THAT HE FIRST MET HIS EUROPEAN BRIDE AT SEOUL'S KIMPO AIRPORT JUST THREE DAYS BEFORE THEIR MARRIAGE. IN FACT, THE AMERICAN RELATED THAT CHURCH OFFICIALS IN CHICAGO INFORMED HIM ONLY A FEW WEEKS AGO THAT HE HAD BEEN "CHOSEN" TO BE MARRIED IN SEOUL. ANOTHER NEWLYWED EXPLAINED, HOWEVER, THAT EACH PARTICIPANT WAS FURNISHED WITH THE NAME, BIOGRAPHY, AND PHOTOGRAPH OF HIS OR HER PROSPECTIVE SPOUSE SEVERAL WEEKS PRIOR TO THE EVENT AND WAS GIVEN THE OPPORTUNITY TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE CHURCH'S CHOICE OF MATES. THE COUPLES WHO ACCEPTED REV. MOON'S MATCHES AND WERE MARRIED IN SEOUL WERE SINCERE IN THEIR FAITH IN REV. MOON AND WILLING TO ACCEPT WITHOUT QUESTION HIS DECISION ABOUT WHOM THEY WOULD MARRY.

7. THE FESTIVITIES AT OLYMPIC STADIUM RESEMBLED A CROSS BETWEEN A ROYAL CORONATION AND AN INTERNATIONAL SOCCER TOURNAMENT. LEGIONS OF VOLUNTEERS SPORTING "INTERNATIONAL HOLY WEDDING" T-SHIRTS DIRECTED THE 40,000-ODD BETROTHED AND THEIR 30,000 OR SO WEDDING GUESTS TO THEIR SEATS, HANDING EACH A PLASTIC BAG CONTAINING A BOXED WEDDING CAKE AND TWO CANNED SOFT DRINKS. (COMMENT: THE CAKE WAS DRY BUT TASTY. END COMMENT)

/ BEGINNING OF SECTION 002 ******/
A 33-PAGE GLOSSY WEDDING PROGRAM PRINTED IN THREE LANGUAGES--KOREAN, JAPANESE, AND ENGLISH--WAS PLACED ON EACH STADIUM SEAT. THE KOREAN POLICE FORCE CONCERT BAND, RESPLENDENT IN WHITE AND GOLD UNIFORMS, PLAYED A CEREMONY PRELUDE THAT MIXED CLASSICAL MUSIC WITH MODERN POP. THE MASTER OF CEREMONIES, DR. BO HI PAK OF THE UNIFICATION CHURCH, MOUNTED THE LARGE, ELABORATELY DECORATED MULTI-COLORED STAGE AND ADDRESSED THE ORDERLY CROWD IN KOREAN, JAPANESE, AND ENGLISH. A CLOSED CIRCUIT TELECAST OF THE PROCEEDINGS LOOMED OVER THE STADIUM ON AN ENORMOUS DIAMOND-VISION SCOREBOARD. SEVERAL DOZEN PHOTOGRAPHERS AND TV CAMERAMEN RECORDED THE EVENT FROM TWO FIFTEEN FOOT HIGH SCAFFOLDS ERECTED OPPOSITE THE MAIN STAGE.

8. FOLLOWING A FEW PRELIMINARY REMARKS AND PRAYERS, A REGAL FANFARE FROM THE POLICE CONCERT BAND HERALDED THE APPEARANCE OF REV. MOON AND HIS WIFE, ALSO KNOWN AS THE "TRUE PARENTS." TWENTY OR SO YOUNG MEN IN WHITE TUXEDOS AND WOMEN IN PINK TRADITIONAL KOREAN GOWNS PASSED THROUGH A LARGE ARCHWAY AT THE TOP OF THE STAGE AND TOOK UP POSITIONS ON EITHER SIDE OF A WIDE, RED-CARPETED STAIRWAY. THE MUSIC SUDDENLY STOPPED, THE CROWD ROSE, AND THE MOONS APPEARED IN THE ARCHWAY DRESSED LIKE ROYALTY IN GOLD ACCENTED WHITE FLOOR-LENGTH ROBES AND WHITE AND GOLD CROWNS. THE POLICE BAND STRUCK UP A POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE MUSICAL NUMBER, AND THE MOONS SLOWLY DESCENDED THE PLUSH RED

UNCLASSIFIED

STAIRWAY, ATTENDED BY YOUNG WOMEN CLAD IN GOLDEN GOWNS. UPON REACHING THE BOTTOM OF THE STAIRWAY THE MOONS WERE LAVISHED WITH FLOWERS AND GIFTS BY SEVERAL SOON TO BE MARRIED COUPLES.

9. THE MOONS PRESIDED OVER THE KEY PHASES OF THE WEDDING CEREMONY-- THE "HOLY WATER CEREMONY," IN WHICH DOZENS OF WHITE-ROBED CHURCH OFFICIALS ROAMED THE STADIUM SPLASHING WATER ON THE BRIDES AND GROOMS, THE "AFFIRMATION OF VOWS," THE "INVOCATION OF THE BLESSING," THE "EXCHANGE OF WEDDING RINGS" (EACH OF WHICH BORE UNIFICATION CHURCH INSIGNIA), AND, FINALLY, THE "PROCLAMATION OF THE HOLY WEDDING."

10. FOLLOWING THE WEDDING PROCLAMATION THE MOONS SEATED THEMSELVES IN GOLD-GILDED, RED VELVET CHAIRS RESEMBLING THRONES AND OBSERVED THE REMAINDER OF THE PROCEEDINGS. FORMER PRESIDENT OF COSTA RICA H.E. RODRIGO CARAZO DELIVERED SOME CONGRATULATORY REMARKS. A MESSAGE FROM FORMER PRIME MINISTER OF JAPAN YASUHIRO NAKASONE WAS READ. A POP SINGER CROONED A CONGRATULATORY SONG, TITLED "ETERNAL LOVE," THAT WAS CO-WRITTEN BY REV. MOON'S SON. THE MOONS ROSE AGAIN TO RECEIVE THREE CEREMONIAL MASS BOWS BY THE ASSEMBLED NEWLYWEDS AND TO LEAD THE CROWD IN THREE LOUD CHEERS OF "MANSEI," A KIND OF KOREAN VICTORY CHEER. THE MOONS THEN SLOWLY ASCENDED THE RED CARPETED STAIRCASE, GAVE A FINAL WAVE, AND DISAPPEARED INTO THE ARCH THROUGH WHICH THEY HAD COME.

11. AS THE CEREMONY ENDED, THOUSANDS OF MULTI-COLORED HELIUM BALLOONS AND HUNDREDS OF PIGEONS WERE RELEASED INTO THE STADIUM. THE POLICE CONCERT BAND STRUCK UP A CELEBRATORY MARCH. AIRCRAFT FLEW OVERHEAD, RELEASING RED AND BLUE SMOKE. PARACHUTISTS DESCENDED ONTO A HUGE SYMBOL OF THE UNIFICATION CHURCH PAINTED IN GOLD ON THE STADIUM GRASS. A HOT AIR BALLOON WAS LAUNCHED. THE CROWD, NOW IN A FESTIVE MOOD, CHEERED A SERIES OF ENTERTAINERS THAT INCLUDED KOREANA, A KOREAN-AMERICAN ROCK AND ROLL COMBO, TAKAMOTO YASUHIRO, A JAPANESE SYNTHESIZER ARTIST, AND A 50-ODD MEMBER AMERICAN STYLE MARCHING BAND THAT ACCOMPANIED A TROUPE OF TRADITIONAL KOREAN FOLK DANCERS. MANY OF THE NEWLYWEDS LEFT THEIR SEATS AND ROAMED THE STADIUM, CONGRATULATING ONE ANOTHER AND SNAPPING PHOTOGRAPHS. SOME HUDDLED TOGETHER TO SHARE THEIR WEDDING CAKES. OTHERS DANCED. COUPLES IN ONE SECTION OF THE STADIUM STARTED "THE WAVE," AND WITNESSES WERE SOON TREATED TO THE UNUSUAL SIGHT OF THOUSANDS OF WHITE-CLAD BRIDES AND BLUE-SUITED GROOMS SEQUENTIALLY STANDING AND THROWING THEIR HANDS IN THE AIR AS THE WAVE SPREAD AROUND THE STADIUM. COAXED BY THE CROWD, EVEN CHURCH OFFICIALS ON THE PODIUM TOOK PART AS THE WAVE SWEPT OVER THEM HALF A DOZEN TIMES.

12. SEVERAL NEWLYWED COUPLES, WHILE FRIENDLY AND ENTHUSIASTIC IN THEIR DISCUSSIONS OF THE MASS RITES, WERE SOMEWHAT RELUCTANT TO FURNISH DETAILS ABOUT THEIR PERSONAL LIVES AND FUTURE PLANS

UNCLASSIFIED

TO A NON-CHURCH MEMBER. THEY GAVE VAGUE ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS ABOUT HOW LONG THEY HAD KNOWN EACH OTHER, WHERE THEY WOULD LIVE AFTER THEIR MARRIAGE, AND WHETHER THEY WOULD TAKE A HONEYMOON. ONE GROOM EXPLAINED THAT TALKING ABOUT THE CHURCH AND THE CEREMONY TO A NON-BELIEVER WAS LIKE EXPLAINING ADVANCED PHYSICS TO SOMEONE WHO DID NOT KNOW THE BASICS.

13. IT APPEARS THAT MANY UNIFICATION CHURCH MEMBERS WILL BE ATTEMPTING TO IMMIGRATE TO THE HOME COUNTRIES OF THEIR SPOUSES,

/ BEGINNING OF SECTION 003 ******/
BUT THE RELUCTANCE OF THE COUPLES TO DISCUSS THE MATTER MAKES IT DIFFICULT TO ESTIMATE WHEN, WHERE, AND HOW MANY. A POLISH MAN WHO MARRIED A KOREAN WOMAN INDICATED THAT HE AND HIS WIFE WOULD LIVE IN EUROPE. A BRITISH MAN WHO MARRIED A MEXICAN WOMAN REFUSED TO SAY WHERE HE AND HIS WIFE WOULD LIVE. AN AMERICAN WHO MARRIED A EUROPEAN WOMAN EXPRESSED THE HOPE THAT HIS BRIDE WOULD JOIN HIM IN THE U.S. IN PERHAPS SIX MONTHS. A JAMAICAN MAN WHO MARRIED A BRAZILIAN WOMAN, WITH WHOM HE SHARED NO COMMON LANGUAGE, HOPED TO BE REUNITED WITH HER "SOMEWHERE IN THE AMERICAS" WITHIN THE NEXT TWO YEARS. A NIGERIAN WHO MARRIED A WOMAN FROM JAPAN HAD NO IDEA WHEN HE MIGHT SEE HIS BRIDE AGAIN.

14. THE LEGAL STATUS OF THE 20,000 MARRIAGES PERFORMED BY REV. MOON IS UNCLEAR. SEVERAL PARTICIPANTS INDICATED THAT THE CEREMONY WAS MORE IN THE NATURE OF A "BLESSING" THAN A LEGAL MARRIAGE, AND THAT THEY WOULD LEGALIZE THEIR UNIONS IN CIVIL CEREMONIES UPON RETURNING TO THEIR HOME COUNTRIES OR UPON BEING REUNITED WITH THEIR SPOUSES AT SOME FUTURE TIME. ALTHOUGH THEY DID NOT DIRECTLY SAY SO, THE COUPLES OBLIQUELY SUGGESTED THAT THEIR MARRIAGES WOULD REMAIN UNCONSUMMATED PENDING SOME SORT OF "GO AHEAD" FROM CHURCH AUTHORITIES.

15. "NEWLYWEDS" FROM THE UNIFICATION CHURCH BEGAN APPEARING AT EMBASSY SEOUL TO APPLY FOR NON-IMMIGRANT VISAS THE DAY AFTER THE MASS NUPTIALS. ODDLY, MOST OF THE THREE DOZEN OR SO APPLICANTS LISTED THEIR MARITAL STATUS AS "SINGLE." THEY CAME FROM ALL PARTS OF THE GLOBE--MALAYSIA, BANGLADESH, NIGERIA, ZAIRE, GUYANA, NICARAGUA, COLUMBIA, JAMAICA, AND SO ON. THEY SOUGHT TOURIST VISAS, BUSINESS VISAS, STUDENT VISAS, AND RELIGIOUS WORKER VISAS. THEY SPOKE ENTHUSIASTICALLY ABOUT REV. MOON AND THEIR EXPERIENCES AT THE MASS INTERNATIONAL HOLY WEDDING. THEY REMAINED UNIFORMLY BUOYANT AND CHEERFUL, EVEN AS THEIR VISA APPLICATIONS WERE RESPECTFULLY AND POLITELY REFUSED. (DRAFTED BY D.J. APOSTOL AND J. VAN DER WOUDE)(0174N)

U.S. House of Representatives

Dear Joel:

Will you enquire into the State Department's actions in the following case on behalf of your constituents?

Rigoberta Menchú, Guatemalan Indian woman who witnessed the torture and assassination of most of the men in her family by death squads, wrote a book about the experience entitled in the English edition I, RIGOBERTA MENCHÚ. She is at present a nominee for the Nobel Peace Prize. She was scheduled to speak in Boulder September 8, on a panel with Oscar Arias, Nobel laureate and ex-president of Costa Rica, Salomon Rushdie, author of the SATANIC VERSES, and other luminaries, in Denver September 8 and 9, and at Colorado College September 9.

The Guatemalan embassy in Mexico City, I am informed, dragged its heels in renewing her passport, and then the U.S. consulate in Mexico City took so long issuing her a visa that she could not make her commitments in the U.S., and didn't come.

Menchú had been in the U.S.--in fact in Boulder--only a few months ago. She is not politically subversive. She is certainly a VIP. Why could not the Department of State have recognized the urgency of her petition and facilitated her visit? Our nation is left with a black eye in its reputation abroad--yet once again.

I hope you will not permit Foggy Bottom to palm you off with easy meaningless explanations.

Sincerely yours,

Paul Kutsche

I will accompany you to call on Rodil.

Possible Topics:

AID to Organismo Judicial

AID will sign a $450,000 limited scope agreement with Rodil by Sep 30 for training and technical assistance after the criminal procedure reform law has passed Congress (today?). It will be conditioned on Serrano signing it into law, thus no publicity will be given to signing.

AID will control very carefully since earlier $7 million in judicial assistance did not have satisfactory results. As implementation of the limited scope agreement proceeds, we will be willing to consider (skeptically) provision of further assistance. Terms of such aid would be very carefully negotiated.

Further Legislation

The important next step toward judicial reform is the Ley Organica del Ministerio Publico. You may wish to get Rodil's ideas (as you have seen from the press, he is feuding with Acisclo Valladares on the proper relationship between the MP and the OJ).

Worker Rights

In the meeting with Congressmen yesterday, they made the point that the real failing on worker rights is due to lack of enforcement, which they traced in part to the ineffectiveness of the labor courts. They asserted that Rodil was ignoring the labor courts. You may wish to ask Rodil about them, and what steps could be made to make them more effective.

Regionalization

Apparently the Central American Supreme Courts are involved in regional cooperation concerned with administration of justice. You may wish to ask about this and mention the PDD.

Heads Up

We have been told by e mail that the Dept has rejected an export license for arms for the OJ, on the basis that commercial sales to the GOG are still barred (Devine, etc.). We are still waiting for front channel confirmation, but we basicly agree with the decision.

CONFIDENTIAL

For Assistant Secretary Bernard Aronson's Meeting with Guatemalan Foreign Minister Menendez Park at UNGA September 24

Peace Talks

Background

The Guatemalan peace talks are currently stalled, largely due to URNG intransigence. Negotiators were on the verge of a human rights breakthrough (one of eleven agenda items) in August, but the URNG backtracked at the last moment. The CNR is attempting to broker a compromise, having traveled to Mexico to meet with the URNG on September 15 and going there again on September 22. USG influence in the talks is limited and the CNR has decided, for the time being, not to start up a "friends" group that would likely involve the U.S. The GOG is interested in bringing the talks to a rapid conclusion (albeit largely on its own terms) and, to this end, is considering various options, including playing the "Cuban card."

Talking Points:

-- The USG continues interested in seeing a successful conclusion to the peace talks.

-- We are ready to help in appropriate ways, if asked, but do not seek to meddle. Have you any suggestions on additional ways in which we can help?

-- How do you see the prospects for advancement in the talks? What can be done to make them move faster?

-- I note that your government is considering asking the Cubans to play a role in pressuring the URNG. I would caution you that Havana did not play a positive role in solving the Salvadoran situation and continues to provide some assistance (largely non-military training and advice) to the URNG. Any meddling by Castro in the Guatemalan situation would be for his own purposes -- i.e., to break his diplomatic isolation.

(if asked, and assuming Luis Becker, URNG political advisor, is in the U.S.)

-- Under our visa laws, it is difficult to deny entry to anyone who does not plan to overstay his visit or present a direct security threat. We clearly do not support what Luis Becker stands for and have made that clear to those who have asked. However, we have no valid, legal reason to deny him a visa.

CONFIDENTIAL

GSP Worker Rights Issues in Guatemala

Talking Points

-- In my September 15 letter to you I stressed that the GSP worker rights issue is not a protectionist effort. I note that some GOG officials still refer to it in that light. I can assure you that this is not the case, and that this policy reflects real concerns about worker rights in Guatemala.

-- Worker rights are an issue which will remain as a major part of U.S. foreign policy, particularly as the world moves towards more open markets. This policy is intended to insure that workers share the benefits of expanded trade.

-- This policy is further designed to buttress the development of democratic institutions, such as trade unions. We believe democratic economic systems complement democratic political systems, and that worker rights are a fundamental part of both.

-- Guatemala is not being singled out in the GSP worker rights process.. Other countries are also under review this year.

-- As I noted in my letter, we do not believe the review process in itself will have a negative impact on possible new investment in Guatemala. El Salvador and Panama have been under review for two years, and we have noted no negative effects on investment in either country.

-- Our worker rights policy does not depend on any one individual in the U.S. Government. We anticipate that even if there is a change of administration in the U.S., this policy will continue to receive the highest level of attention.

-- Let me urge that your government take this matter with the utmost seriousness. We do not want to have Guatemala lose GSP or CBI benefits, but if worker rights are not given greater priority in Guatemala, this is a very clear possibility.

IMF Negotiations

Background

We understand that the Fund and the GOG's economic team have now reached agreement on a draft letter of intent for the stand-by agreement. With everyone in Washington now for the annual Fund/Bank meetings, the letter will be initialled there. When the letter is initialled, AID will extend the deadline for disbursement of the USD 50 million in ESF to allow time for IMF management to review and sign the letter. Once the USD 50 million is disbursed and the World Bank arrears cleared, Guatemala will be eligible to receive as much as USD 450 million in international lending. These negotiations have been extraordinarily difficult and the GOG deserves credit for its willingness to make hard decisions to secure this agreement.

Talking Points

-- We understand that Minister Aitkenhead and President Linares have reached agreement with the IMF on the content of the Letter of Intent, which is to be signed this week in Washington.

-- Congratulations. This agreement with the IMF is probably the single most important thing that the GOG can do right now to secure a positive economic future for Guatemala.
-- Obviously, staying in compliance with the terms of the agreement will be critical.

Airport Security

Background

A recent FAA inspection uncovered numerous security deficiencies at the airport in Guatemala city. These problems run the gamut from inadequate screening procedures, to poor air site control, to lack of visible IDs on airport personnel to insufficient lighting of air sites. Many of these problems are recurring, despite significant U.S. assistance in the past. As a result, there is some concern that additional assistance would also fail to have a lasting effect on security. The Mission has encouraged the Guatemalan's to commit their own resources to improve and maintain security at the Airport.

Talking Points

-- As Ambassador Stroock has described to you, a recent FAA inspection of La Aurora airport discovered serious problems with security.

-- Many of these problems are recurring, despite significant U.S. assistance in the past.

-- If uncorrected, these problems could cause the FAA to issue a public notification that La Aurora is unsafe. Such a notification would have a chilling effect on tourism and complicate our bilateral relationship.

-- To avoid that possibility, we urge you to ensure that current efforts to improve security are completed and maintained over the long term.

Chester Issue

Background

President Serrano and Foreign Minister Menendez Park were angered that we issued a visa to Maritza Urrutia despite their request in strongest terms that we not do so. In the wake of her safe departure from Guatemala August 7, the gog requested the quiet withdrawal of political counselor George Chester, claiming (falsely) that he had told Menendez Park and presidential attorney Ernesto Viteri that the USG had information indicating that the Guatemalan security forces had been involved in her kidnapping. We have refused to recall Chester, but he has written a letter assuring the gog that we have no such information.

We refused to accept several gog letters complaining of Chester's alleged misconduct and making charges of USG perfidy in the Urrutia case. After several confrontational meetings, the gog finally backed off. Serrano stated publicly that the matter was closed, claiming (incorrectly) to have been sent a letter of apology. In any case, we agreed with the gog that the matter was definitively closed.

On September 17, Chester accompanied the Ambassador to his first meeting with the Foreign Minister since Urrutia's departure. The Foreign Minister objected to the presence of Chester, saying he had previously made it clear to the dcm that the gog was not prepared to deal with him. Menendez Park acknowledged that we had agreed that this matter was settled and definitively behind us, but said that did not affect the gog's attitude toward our political counselor. He reluctantly permitted Chester to stay when the Ambassador made clear that either both stay or both leave. The Ambassador stressed at the time that the gog position was unfortunate and a mistake, and we would have to consider our reaction carefully.

Obviously, we cannot acquiesce in the gog's refusing to deal with our political counselor. We have gone out of our way to protect them from themselves, in view of the firestorm of criticism against the gog which would have ensued had we made the Urrutia matter public in the US.

Talking Points

-- We are very concerned to learn that you have told Ambassador Stroock that your government has issued instructions that its officials not deal with our political counselor in Guatemala.

-- This is contrary to our agreement that the matter is closed and definitively behind us. Mr. Chester has his responsibilities to carry out on behalf of our government.

-- It is also inconsistent with the major efforts the USG is undertaking to assist your government and to persuade those critical of Guatemala that President Serrano is committed to ending impunity and human rights violations.

-- I request your assurance that this matter is closed, and that no obstacles will be put in the way of Mr. Chester performing his duties in future.

Michael Devine Case

Background

We are expecting a verdict in the Michael Devine human rights case. It could come as early as September 25. We have made it clear to the MOD that a conviction and serious sentence of the perpetrators (including Captain Contreras) of this murder by the Guatemalan Army of an American citizen is key for the reopening of the FMF pipeline and resumption of commercial sales to the Guatemalan military. It is important to make this point to the Foreign Minister as well.

Talking Points

-- The litmus test on human rights for the USG is the Devine case.

-- We understand that a verdict may be imminent in that case. We expect that all those involved in his case, including the officers, will be brought to justice.

-- Such a result would have a major positive effect on our relations with your government, particularly in the matter of military assistance.

Counternarcotics Legislation

Background

The tough counternarcotics law as well as the far-reaching reform of the penal procedure code were up for final approval in the Guatemalan Congress September 22. At the last minute, independent Deputy Chinchilla Vega through a procedural move was able to prevent their passage, although theoretically all the major parties were prepared to support both pieces of legislation. Another attempt will be made tomorrow but, if it fails, we have the strong suspicion that Chincilla Vega may be just a stalking horse of vested interests (perhaps including narco influences) who would be negatively affected by this legislation. The USG has strongly supported both, including with AID funds.

Talking Points

-- I was disappointed to hear that the attempt on September 22 to pass the counternarcotics law and the reform of the penal procedure code failed in your Congress.

-- We agree with your government that both are essential items of legislation for the future of your country, and that the counternarcotics bill is key for our close cooperation in fighting drugs.

-- I would hope that your administration will do everything possible to assure the prompt passage of these two vital pieces of legislation.

BLOWS FROM GIANTS -

UNDOUBTEDLY, THE CUBAN ECONOMY HAS SUFFERED TWO BIG IMPACTS. ONE CAME FROM THE UNITED STATES IN 1962 WHEN PRESIDENT JOHN KENNEDY DECIDED TO IMPOSE A COMMERCIAL BLOCKADE ON THE ISLAND. CUBAN AUTHORITIES ESTIMATE THAT THE COST OF THAT ACTION HAS MEANT THAT CUBA HAS FAILED TO OBTAIN AN INCOME OF MORE THAN USD

20 BILLION. "WE ARE A NATURAL MARKET FOR THE UNITED STATES AND ON THAT DATE 60 PERCENT OF OUR TRADE WAS WITH THE UNITED STATES," OMAR GARCIA EXPLAINS.

THE SECOND IMPACT FOR THE DETERIORATED CUBAN ECONOMY WAS THE RECENT LOSS OF OTHER LARGE COMMERCIAL PARTNERS, THE SOVIET UNION AND EASTERN EUROPE, WITH WHICH THEY KEPT UP 85 PERCENT OF THE TRADE.

THUS, FOR THE SECOND TIME IN THE LAST THREE DECADES, CUBA HAS BEEN FORCED TO TAKE EMERGENCY MEASURES AND TURN TO NEW MARKETS. THE SHOCK TREATMENT MEANT, AMONG OTHER THINGS, REDUCING THE CONSUMPTION OF FUEL

THIS LAW (NO. 50) ATTRACTS THE INTEREST OF MANY FOREIGN INVESTORS. SINCE IT WAS PROMULGATED IN 1982, THE LEGISLATION HAS PERMITTED THE CREATION OF MORE THAN 60 JOINT VENTURES BETWEEN CUBA AND FOREIGN INVESTORS AND ANOTHER 100 ARE BEING NEGOTIATED.
TODAY, CUBAN LEGISLATION ALLOWS FOREIGN INVESTMENT IN ANY SPHERE OF THE ECONOMY, PROVIDED IT IS ADVANTAGEOUS FOR THE COUNTRY. THESE PARTNERSHIPS MAY TAKE DIFFERENT SHAPES, AMONG WHICH ARE SHARED RISK PARTNERSHIPS AND CORPORATIONS.
AMONG THE DIVERSE ALTERNATIVES FOR CREATING ENTERPRISES IN CUBA, ONE RECOMMENDED IS TO UTILIZE EXISTING CAPACITY, CONTRIBUTING IMPORTS FROM OTHER COUNTRIES TO PRODUCE NEW EXPORTS.
ANOTHER MODE IS TO FINISH INSTALLATIONS WHICH HAVE NOT BEEN COMPLETED AND HAVE AN EXPORT POTENTIAL. IN THIS CASE, INVESTORS SHOULD ALSO CONTRIBUTE THE NECESSARY IMPORTED INPUT AND THE MECHANISMS TO DEVELOP NEW REGIONAL MARKETS.
INVESTMENT IN NEW FACILITIES IS ALSO OFFERED, MOST OF THEM SMALL OR MEDIUM-SIZED, WHICH MAY INCORPORATE PROVEN RESULTS OF RESEARCH CARRIED OUT IN CUBAN SCIENTIFIC INSTITUTIONS.
LIKEWISE, JOINT INVESTMENTS MAY BE MADE OR PROMOTED IN COUNTRIES IN THE REGION, TO PRODUCE NEW PRODUCTS STARTING FROM RESULTS OBTAINED FROM RESEARCH IN WHICH

ANOTHER INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY IS THE EXPORT OF TECHNICAL SERVICES TO REGIONAL COUNTRIES, SUPPORTED BY THE BASES CREATED FOR INDUSTRIALIZATION IN CUBA.

OF THESE, 6 ARE IN THE ENERGY SECTOR, 13 IN MACHINERY AND CAPITAL GOODS, 4 IN MINING AND NON-FERROUS METALLURGY, 12 IN LIGHTER INDUSTRY, 3 IN CONSTRUCTION MATERIALS, 2 IN RUBBER, 11 IN ELECTRONICS, 6 IN PAPER, 1 IN GLASS AND 4 IN THE FOOD AREA.

IN THE ENERGY FIELD, FOR EXAMPLE, THERE ARE POSSIBILITIES FOR THE EXPLORATION AND EXTRACTION OF PETROLEUM, ON THE BASIS OF RISK CONTRACTS IN HIGH PROBABILITY ZONES, JOINT EXPLOITATION OF REFINERIES, A LUBRICANTS PLANT AND AN ENTERPRISE FOR SETTING UP AND MAINTAINING POWER PLANTS AND ELECTRICITY

NETWORKS.
IN THE RUBBER AREA, THE CREATION OF JOINT VENTURES HAS BEEN PROPOSED IN EXISTING RADIAL TIRE MANUFACTURING FACILITIES FOR MOTORIZED VEHICLES AND THE PRODUCTION OF TEXTILE-RUBBER FOOTWEAR.
OMAR GARCIA THINKS THAT PRODUCTION OF SUGAR CANE DERIVATIVES IS AN ATTRACTIVE ALTERNATIVE FOR INVESTMENT. THIRTY FIVE COMMERCIAL PRODUCTS COME FROM THIS INDUSTRY, AS DIFFERENT AS ALCOHOL, RUM, BAGASSE BOARDS (CANE FIBER), PULP AND PAPER, ENZYMES AND BIOFERTILIZERS, CANE WAX, GLUCOSE, CANDY AND A VARIETY OF LIVESTOCK FEED.
"TAKING ADVANTAGE OF CUBA'S EXPERIENCES WITH SUGAR CANE DERIVATIVES AND WASTES COULD PROMOTE LARGE INTEGRATION PROJECTS WITH OTHER COUNTRIES IN THE REGION," ACCORDING TO THE CONSUL.
AMONG THE EXISTING PROJECTS IN THIS SECTOR THERE ARE EIGHT SUGAR REFINERIES, FOR CREATING ECONOMIC PARTNERSHIPS, IMPROVING THEIR EFFICIENCY AND EQUIPMENT, WITH THE PURPOSE OF EXPORTING AND REDUCING PRODUCTION COSTS.
IN THE FOOD AREA IT IS POSSIBLE TO ESTABLISH JOINT VENTURES WITH INDUSTRIAL CITRUS PROCESSING INDUSTRIES

AND WITH COMBINED VEGETABLE PROCESSING AND PACKING INDUSTRIES.
THE INCENTIVES -

"THIS OPENING WE ARE DEVELOPING DOES NOT MEAN WE HAVE COME DOWN ON OUR KNEES BEFORE THE WORLD. WE HAVE A LOT TO OFFER: NATURAL RESOURCES, INFRASTRUCTURE AND HIGHLY QUALIFIED LABOR. WE NEED TO ADD EFFICIENCY AND INCREASE THE TECHNOLOGICAL LEVEL OF OUR INDUSTRY, BUT WE ALSO OFFER GREAT INCENTIVES FOR FOREIGN INVESTMENT AND BELIEVE WE ARE A GOOD ALTERNATIVE FOR CAPITAL IN THE INTERNATIONAL MARKET," SAYS THE CUBAN CONSUL GENERAL IN CHILE, RAMON PEREZ LLERO.

THESE INCENTIVES FOR INVESTMENT IN CUBA ARE MAINLY REGARDING TAXATION. LEGISLATION NOW IN FORCE EXEMPTS GROSS AND PERSONAL INCOME FROM TAXATION, AS WELL AS THE TRANSFER OF REAL ESTATE AND COMMERCIAL ESTABLISHMENTS. ONLY PROFITS ARE TAXED UP TO 30 PERCENT, IN ADDITION TO CUSTOMS CHARGES. FURTHERMORE, THE INVESTOR IS NOT FORCED TO RE-INVEST. IF THE INVESTOR DOES RE-INVEST TAXES PAID ON PROFITS ARE REDUCED 30 PERCENT. THE PROFIT OBTAINED BY AN INVESTOR MAY BE WITHDRAWN IMMEDIATELY AFTER IT IS PROVEN AND DEPOSITED ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD, EVEN IN U.S. DOLLARS.
OMAR GARCIA SAYS THAT, IN SPECIAL CASES AND DEPENDING ON THE AMOUNT OF THE INVESTMENT, THE STATE COMMITTEE FOR ECONOMIC COLLABORATION - ESTABLISHED LAST YEAR - CAN RECOMMEND TO THE GOVERNMENT AN ABSOLUTE TAX EXEMPTION FOR THE FIRST TWO YEARS, IN ORDER TO OBTAIN A MORE EFFECTIVE AND RAPID MANAGEMENT OF PROFITS.

BUSINESS WITH CHILE -
RECENTLY, THE CHILEAN CONSUL GENERAL IN HAVANA, BENJAMIN CONCHA, SAID THAT CUBA OFFERS A GREAT ECONOMIC POTENTIAL AND THAT A BUSINESS TRADE MISSION WOULD BE JUSTIFIED TO STUDY THE POSSIBILITIES OF THAT MARKET.
OMAR GARCIA, ON THE OTHER HAND, STATES THAT "THERE ARE CHILEAN BUSINESSMEN INVESTING IN ARGENTINA AND OTHER COUNTRIES, WHY NOT DO IT IN CUBA?"

IN HIS JUDGMENT, THIS IS A NATURAL PROCESS OF INTEGRATION WHICH IN THE FUTURE WILL CREATE THE CONNECTIONS TO MAKE POSSIBLE GREATER INTER-REGIONAL TRADE.
EVER SINCE CONSULAR RELATIONS WERE REESTABLISHED
BETWEEN BOTH COUNTRIES IN JULY, 1992, SEVERAL STEPS
UNCLASSIFIED
PAGE 02 SANTIA 07430 04 OF 06 222248Z
HAVE BEEN TAKEN TO ACHIEVE CLOSER RELATIONS BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENTS OF AYLWIN AND CASTRO. IN FACT, AT THE END OF LAST YEAR CONSUL GENERALS WERE ESTABLISHED IN SANTIAGO AND HAVANA. COMMERCIAL OFFICES WERE OPENED IN JANUARY OF THIS YEAR AND, ONLY A LITTLE LATER, CUBANA DE AVIACION COMMENCED REGULAR FLIGHTS
BETWEEN BOTH CAPITALS. SINCE THEN, ABOUT 4000
CHILEANS HAVE VISITED CUBA, ESPECIALLY FOR TOURISM, HEALTH REASONS, OR TO SEARCH FOR POTENTIAL BUSINESS.
GARCIA RAMOS SAYS THAT "THIS IS AN UNPRECEDENTED NUMBER."
HE ALSO ADDS THAT, "THERE HAS BEEN A GREAT WORLD-WIDE
EVOLUTION DURING THE LAST YEARS AND GREAT PROGRESS TOWARDS LARGE SCALE TRADE, WHICH CREATE POLES OF ATTRACTION WHICH MAY HAVE FATAL RESULTS FOR LESS DEVELOPED AND SMALL COUNTRIES. THIS MAKES COMPETITION DIFFICULT FOR PRODUCERS WHO ARE NOT PART OF THE LARGE BLOCKS. THE INVESTMENT PROCESS IN OTHER COUNTRIES IS AN OUTLET FOR LESS DEVELOPED CAPITAL.
HE WHO INVESTS IN CUBA ALSO HAS THE OPTION OF REACHING OTHER MARKETS, AS ONLY THE UNITED STATES IS LEFT OUT OF OUR TRADE, AND WE MAINTAIN VERY IMPORTANT EXCHANGE WITH EUROPEAN COUNTRIES."

CHILEAN PIONEERS -
WIRE SERVICES REPORT THAT THE CHILEAN ENTERPRISES SANTA ANA AND LATINEXIM ESTABLISHED CORPORATIONS WITH CUBAN STATE ENTERPRISES TO SUPPLY FOOD FOR THE HOTEL

INDUSTRY.
BUT THERE ARE ALSO OTHER RENOWNED CHILEANS WHO HAVE ENTERED THE CUBAN MARKET WITH SPECIAL SUCCESS. SUCH IS THE CASE OF CRISTIAN MORAN, OWNER OF MC SHOES FOOTWEAR FACTORY, AND CARLOS CARDOEN.
"I TRAVELLED TO CUBA FOR PRIVATE REASONS AND HAD THE CHANCE OF VISITING SOME SENSATIONAL SHOE FACTORIES, MUCH BETTER THAN THE ONES I OWN IN CHILE, WHICH HAD BEEN PARALYZED FOR FOUR YEARS BECAUSE OF THE LACK OF NEW MODELS, LACK OF CREATIVITY, AND NO POSSIBILITY OF GOING OUT OF THE COUNTRY," HE (MORAN) SAYS.
AFTER ESTABLISHING A JOINT ENTERPRISE, HE INSTALLED A FOOTWEAR INDUSTRY FOR MEN AND A FOOTWEAR INDUSTRY FOR WOMEN. "THIS PARTNERSHIP ISSUES SHARES OF ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS EACH, ME WITH 49 PERCENT AND THEY WITH 51 PERCENT. THE TECHNICIANS ARE CHILEAN AND BRAZILIAN, CONTRACTED BY ME, BUT LABOR IS ALL CUBAN."
THE ENTREPRENEUR THINKS THAT, FROM THE PROFITABILITY POINT OF VIEW, THE LOW COST OF LABOR IS THE MOST ATTRACTIVE, BECAUSE THE STATE GIVES ALL FOOD AND CLOTHING TO THE POPULATION, THE SALARY IS NO HIGHER THAN USD 7 PER MONTH, WHICH IS OBVIOUSLY MUCH LOWER THAN THE COST OF HUMAN RESOURCES IN ANY OTHER COUNTRY IN THE REGION.
ALSO, IT SHOWS AS A "PLUS" THE FACT THAT THE POPULATION HAS A HIGH EDUCATIONAL LEVEL. "MOST CUBANS SPEAK TWO OR THREE LANGUAGES AND ARE VERY CULTURED, SO THAT ANY TRANSFER PROCESS BECOMES VERY EASY. THEY LEARN RAPIDLY AND SURPASS ALL THE ESTABLISHED GOALS. WE HAVE SEVERAL ENGINEERS AND OTHER PROFESSIONALS WORKING ON THE PROCESS OF FOOTWEAR PRODUCTION".

UNDER THE NAME OF "CALZADOS MOLA", THIS CHILEAN EXPORTS FROM CUBA, PRINCIPALLY TO HOLLAND AND MEXICO. NEVERTHELESS, HE THINKS THERE SHOULD BE INCENTIVES FOR THE WORKERS. "IT ISN'T FAIR THAT THOSE WHO WORK EARN THE SAME AS THOSE WHO DO NOT," HE

REGARDING THE QUALITY OF THE PRODUCTS MANUFACTURED ON THE ISLAND, HE EXPLAINS THAT THE RAW MATERIALS ARE GOOD, BUT GREATER INVESTMENT IN TECHNOLOGY IS NECESSARY. "TANNERIES USE VERY OLD PROCEDURES, BUT AS LABOR IS CHEAP, THEY CAN ACHIEVE BETTER QUALITY PRODUCTS, AND THIS MAKES POSSIBLE THEIR ACCESS TO ANY MARKET."

CUBA IS ALSO TRYING TO INCREASE, THROUGH SPECIAL AGENTS, ITS TRADE WITH OTHER COUNTRIES, INCLUDING FOOTWEAR WHICH A FEW YEARS AGO ENJOYED INTERNATIONAL PRESTIGE. LIKEWISE, CRISTIAN MORAN HAS ACHIEVED THAT THE GOVERNMENT BUY THIS FOOTWEAR TO BE SOLD AT THE "DUTY FREE STORES," TO WHICH ONLY DIPLOMATS AND TOURISTS HAVE ACCESS IN CUBA.
ON HIS SIDE, CARLOS CARDOEN HAS FOCUSED HIS WORK ON CUBAN AGRICULTURE. "CUBA PRODUCES THE BEST CITRUS FRUITS IN THE WORLD AND TAKING THE POSITION OF EXPORTING THEM MEANS A BETTER PLATFORM TO OFFER CHILEAN FRUIT, AS IT CAN COMPETE BETTER WITH THE MULTINATIONALS WHICH OPERATE WITH FRUITS, AS THIS IS A PROCEDURE WHICH CHILEAN FRUIT EXPORTERS SHOULD IMITATE, TAKING UP POSITIONS IN COUNTRIES WHICH PRODUCE TROPICAL FRUITS OR DURING OPPOSITE SEASONS," HE HOLDS.
THIS IS CARLOS CARDOEN'S SECOND YEAR OF EXPERIENCE IN THIS COUNTRY. "THE BUSINESS AND PRODUCTIVE DEVELOPMENT WHICH CHILE HAS REACHED HAS GENERATED EXPERIENCE, BOTH TECHNICAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE, TO GET

ITS PRODUCTS INTO THE INTERNATIONAL MARKET. IT IS TIME FOR CHILE TO BEGIN EXPORTING ITS EXPERIENCE AND INTELLIGENCE, TOGETHER WITH ITS PRODUCTS. IT IS LOGICAL TO THINK THAT OUR EXPERIENCE, TECHNOLOGY AND ABILITIES ARE GOING TO FIND BETTER SALES

OPPORTUNITIES IN THOSE COUNTRIES WHICH HAVE LESS EXPERIENCE THAN WE HAVE. SELLING TECHNOLOGY TO JAPAN, GERMANY OR THE UNITED STATES WOULD NOT BE VERY PRODUCTIVE, THEREFORE, WE THINK OUR OBJECTIVES SHOULD BE THOSE COUNTRIES WHICH COULD BENEFIT FROM OUR EXPERIENCE. AND CUBA IS AMONG THOSE WHO NEED IT."

CARLOS CARDOEN EXPLAINS THAT IN THE SPECIFIC CASE OF CUBA, WHICH WAS INTEGRATED INTO THE SOCIALIST COMMON MARKET, THERE WERE NO STANDARDS NOR PHYTOSANITARY REQUIREMENTS AS IN THE WEST FOR THE PRODUCTION OF CITRUS FRUITS (GRAPEFRUIT AND ORANGES) AND THEIR APPEARANCE AND QUALITY WERE NOT GOOD. "WITH OUR EXPERIENCE IN EXPORTING TO EUROPEAN MARKETS, WE ADVISED THE CUBANS SO THAT THEIR PRODUCTS COULD HAVE QUALITY AND ACCEPTANCE AT THE INTERNATIONAL LEVEL," HE EXPLAINED.

THUS, TECHNICIANS, PHYTOSANITARY PRODUCTS, BOXES AND PACKING WERE SENT FROM CHILE, CREATING A NEW MARKET FOR NATIONAL INPUTS, TOGETHER WITH THE SALE OF CHILEAN EXPERIENCE. "OUR BENEFITS ARE A SHARE OF THE PROFITS GENERATED BY OUR ACTIVITIES," THE INVESTOR EXPLAINS.

AT PRESENT, CARDOEN IS STUDYING OTHER INVESTMENT PROJECTS RELATED TO TOURISM WHICH IN HIS JUDGMENT IS ANOTHER GREAT SOURCE OF DEVELOPMENT FOR THE CUBAN ECONOMY.

MERCURIO: WHAT WOULD YOU SAY TO OTHER CHILEAN

POTENTIAL INVESTORS IN CUBA?

CARDOEN: I WOULD TELL THEM NOT TO BE AFRAID OF THE WOLF AND TO DARE TO DEVELOP ACTIVITIES IN THAT COUNTRY BECAUSE IT OFFERS A GREAT OPPORTUNITY FOR US, FURTHER TO THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE COUNTRY MAY REACH, THROUGH A FREE MARKET ECONOMY, A DIGNIFIED SOLUTION FOR A SYSTEM WHICH, TOGETHER WITH GREAT SOCIAL ACHIEVEMENTS - SUCH AS EDUCATION AND MEDICINE - HAS HAD GREAT DEVELOPMENT LIMITATIONS WITHIN AN INEFFICIENT PRODUCTIVE SYSTEM."

SUBJECT: REVIEW OF HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES WITH OMBUDSMAN

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT

2. SUMMARY: IN A SEPTEMBER 22 MEETING, HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO TOLD THE DCM HE CONSIDERED VIOLATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AS STATE POLICY HAD ENDED. HE IS CONSIDERING TURNING GREATER ATTENTION TO SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC ISSUES. HE DESCRIBED THE INCREASING RESPONSIBILITIES OF HIS OFFICE WITH REGARD TO THE CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS AND RETURNING REFUGEES. HE HAS TOLD PRESIDENT SERRANO THAT HE BELIEVES THAT THE SECURITY FORCES HAD BEEN INVOLVED IN THE URRUTIA KIDNAPPING, BUT HE HAS NO PROOF.

END SUMMARY

INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS IMPROVING

3. ON SEPTEMBER 22 THE DCM, ACCOMPANIED BY POLCOUNS, SPENT OVER AN HOUR AND A HALF WITH HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO. DE LEON POINTED OUT THAT THERE HAVE BEEN MARKED QUANTITATIVE IMPROVEMENTS IN THE STATISTICS ON VIOLATION OF INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS IN GUATEMALA. BETTER ANALYSIS OF THE FIGURES, WHICH WERE NOW MORE REFINED AND PRECISE, EXPLAINED THIS IN PART, HE NOTED. SECONDLY, HE FELT THAT THE DROP IN VIOLATIONS WAS DUE TO A RECEDING LEVEL OF IMPUNITY. WHERE IN THE PAST A SOLDIER OR OFFICER WOULD HAVE FELT THAT HE COULD DO WHAT HE LIKED WITHOUT FEAR OF PUNISHMENT, HE WAS NOW HAVING TO THINK TWICE BECAUSE OF CONVICTIONS SUCH AS THOSE IN THE PERONIA AND SANTIAGO ATITLAN CASES. HOWEVER, DE LEON REMAINS CONCERNED ABOUT THE CONTINUING IMPUNITY OF SOME, WHICH WAS REFLECTED IN MANY OF THE CURRENT HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS.

4. THE MAIN POINT, ACCORDING TO DE LEON, IS THAT IN THE PAST HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS WERE OFTEN STATE SPONSORED, INDEED WERE GOVERNMENT POLICY, BUT THEY ARE NO LONGER. NOW, HE ASSERTED, SERRANO IS FIRMLY OPPOSED TO SUCH VIOLATIONS; AS ARE SENIOR OFFICIALS, BUT THEY OFTEN CANNOT PREVENT THEM. MOST VIOLATIONS NOW ARE BEING CARRIED OUT BY ROGUE ELEMENTS OF THE SECURITY FORCES OR ARMY, OR EXTREMIST POLITICAL ELEMENTS, HE CONCLUDED.

BUT SOCIAL INJUSTICE GROWING

5. DE LEON SAID HE EXPECTED TO TURN HIS ATTENTION INCREASINGLY TO THE AREA OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC CONCERNS, SO-CALLED COLLECTIVE RIGHTS. HE QUOTED EXTENSIVELY FROM PASSAGES IN AN OMBUDSMAN'S REPORT ON DETERIORATING STATISTICS ON EDUCATION, HEALTH, ETC., NOTING IN PARTICULAR THAT THE AMOUNT OF MONEY SPENT PER CAPITA FOR PRIMARY EDUCATION WAS DRASTICALLY FALLEN. HE ALSO CITED THE RECENTLY ANNOUNCED MAJOR HIKE IN ELECTRICITY RATES AS SOMETHING WHICH WOULD RAISE THE COST OF MANY PRODUCTS.

6. THE DCM NOTED THAT ONLY 30 PERCENT OF THE POPULATION IN GUATEMALA, PRIMARILY THE 30 PERCENT WHO ARE NOT POOR AND GENERALLY LIVE IN THE CITIES, PRESENTLY HAD ELECTRICITY. WHILE ACKNOWLEDGING THE IMPORTANCE OF IMPROVING SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC CONDITIONS IN GUATEMALA, THE DCM NOTED THAT THE ONLY EFFECTIVE WAY TO ENSURE THIS

RESULT OVER THE LONG TERM WAS BY CONSOLIDATING RESPECT FOR INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS SUCH AS THE RIGHT TO LIFE, FREEDOM OF SPEECH, FREEDOM OF THE PRESS, FREEDOM OF ASSEMBLY, THE RIGHT TO VOTE IN HONEST ELECTIONS, ETC. THIS WOULD ENSURE THAT, THROUGH THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS AND ELECTORAL ACCOUNTABILITY, THE VOICE OF THE COMMON MAN WOULD EVENTUALLY PREVAIL AND SOCIAL CONDITIONS WOULD IMPROVE. (COMMENT: DCM EMPHASIZED THESE POINTS BECAUSE HE WOULD BE VERY CONCERNED IF THE OMBUDSMAN INTENDS TO SHIFT FOCUS AWAY FROM BASIC INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS AND TOWARD SOCIO-ECONOMIC ISSUES. END COMMENT)

BETTER STOP THE SHOOTING

7. THE DCM ASKED ABOUT THE POTENTIAL ROLE FOR THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE IN ENDING THE GUERRILLA WAR. DE LEON SAID HE THOUGHT THE TASKS OF DISARMING THE PACS AND DETERMINING WHETHER THEY ARE VOLUNTARY WOULD BE RELATIVELY SIMPLE. THE PROBLEM WOULD BE WITH DISBANDING THEM IN AREAS WHERE THEY WERE POPULAR. HE NOTED THAT IN MANY COMMUNITIES THE CIVIL DEFENSE VOLUNTARY COMMITTEES (C.V.D.C., EX-PACS) WERE NOT ONLY ACCEPTED, BUT SEEN AS PROTECTORS. MANY IN THE C.V.D.C.S WERE TRUE BELIEVERS VERY CLOSE TO THE ARMY, A MATTER WHICH WOULD MAKE RESETTLEMENT OF FORMER GUERRILLAS AND CPR MEMBERS IN SUCH COMMUNITIES A DIFFICULT TASK FROM THE POINT OF VIEW OF HUMAN RIGHTS.

8. MOREOVER, THERE IS GENUINE SUPPORT FOR THE GUERRILLAS IN THE COMMUNITIES OF POPULAR RESISTANCE (CPR). HE DID NOT SEE THE CPR INHABITANTS AS ANXIOUS TO MOVE BACK TO THEIR FORMER AREAS ONCE PEACE HAS BEEN ACHIEVED -- HE SAID THAT OFTEN THE LAND ON WHICH THEY ARE CURRENTLY LIVING AND FARMING IS MORE FERTILE, AND THEY WOULD WISH TO REMAIN IN THOSE AREAS, BUT UNDER CONDITIONS OF PEACE. (COMMENT: OUR INFORMATION IS THAT THE LAND IN THE CPR'S REFUGES IS POOR, AND THAT IT IS DIFFICULT TO EKE OUT A LIVING THERE.)

WHAT ABOUT THE REFUGEES

9. DE LEON EXPECTED HIS OFFICE ALSO TO HAVE A MAJOR ROLE IN THE RESETTLEMENT OF REFUGEES. THIS WOULD BE DIFFICULT IN THOSE COMMUNITIES WHERE THE C.V.D.C.S WERE STRONG. HE EXPECTED THAT UP TO 1,000 FAMILIES WOULD RETURN TO GUATEMALA SHORTLY, EVEN BEFORE THE REFUGEE AGREEMENT PRESENTLY UNDER NEGOTIATION BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND THE REFUGEES HAD BEEN COMPLETED. HE SAW THIS AS A MAJOR BENEFIT POLITICALLY TO THE GOG IN THE GENEVA DISCUSSIONS ON HUMAN RIGHTS AND A LOSS FOR THE GUERRILLAS. HE NOTED THAT THE BIGGEST PROBLEM WOULD BE TO FIND SUFFICIENT LAND FOR THE RETURNEES AND ACKNOWLEDGED GOVERNMENT EFFORTS TO TRY TO ACQUIRE LAND FOR THEM. HE SAID THAT HIS OFFICE WAS PLANNING TO SET UP A MOBILE HUMAN RIGHTS GROUP TO MEET AND ASSIST THE REFUGEES.

URRUTIA CASE

10. DE LEON SEEMED A BIT UNCOMFORTABLE TALKING ABOUT THE URRUTIA CASE. HE SAID HE HAD TOLD SERRANO THAT HE BELIEVED THAT IT WAS ARMY ELEMENTS WHICH HAD KIDNAPPED HER; BUT HE HAD FELT HE COULD NOT PUT THAT IN WRITING. HE HAD NO PROOF. AT THE SAME TIME, HE IS PERSONALLY PERSUADED THAT SERRANO WAS NOT INVOLVED AND INDEED IS GENUINELY TRYING TO STOP SUCH EPISODES. DE LEON CONSIDERED THE URRUTIA CASE VERY SIMILAR TO THE DIKORA PEREZ DISAPPEARANCE AND KILLING LAST YEAR (REFTEL). HOWEVER, IN THIS CASE THE KIDNAPPERS HAD APPARENTLY DISCOVERED THAT URRUTIA HAD A VERY LOW LEVEL CONNECTION WITH THE GUERRILLAS AND THEREFORE HAD SOUGHT A WAY TO GAIN ADVANTAGE FROM HER "DEFECTING."

11. DE LEON CONSIDERED THAT MANY OF THE PEOPLE RALLYING TO THE GOVERNMENT SIDE AND REQUESTING AMNESTY WERE DOING SO UNDER PRESSURE AS PART OF THE ARMY'S PSYOPS CAMPAIGN. HE SHOWED THE DCM A LEAFLET PORTRAYING HIM WITH SOME RETURNEES SAYING THAT GUERRILLAS SHOULD DESERT AND THAT IF THEY DID THEIR RIGHTS WOULD BE PROTECTED. HE OBJECTED TO BEING MISUSED IN THIS WAY. HE NOTED THAT LAST YEAR, THE GOVERNMENT HAD BROUGHT SEVERAL DEFECTORS TO HIM. HE HAD OFFERED THEM PROTECTION, WHICH HAD GIVEN THEM A CERTAIN FREEDOM TO RESUME THEIR LIVES IN PEACE AND WITHOUT PRESSURE. DE LEON OBSERVED THAT THE GOVERNMENT WAS NOW BRINGING SUCH PEOPLE TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL TO REQUEST AMNESTY, WHICH WAS THEN GRANTED BASED ON A HOST OF CONDITIONS AND UNDER CIRCUMSTANCES KEEPING THE DEFECTORS SUBJECT TO GOVERNMENT PRESSURE AND EXPLOITATION. HE ACKNOWLEDGED THAT, IN THE PAST, MOST OF THOSE WHO HAD DEFECTED HAD REMAINED AFFILIATED WITH OR UNDER THE PROTECTION OF THE ARMY FOR THEIR OWN SAFETY.

THINGS ARE CHANGING

12. DE LEON NOTED THAT ATTITUDES WERE CHANGING, IF SLOWLY. HE SAID THAT GENERAL ENRIQUEZ HAD INVITED HIM TO ATTEND A MUSTERING OUT CEREMONY FOR SEVERAL HUNDRED INDIAN SOLDIERS WHO HAD COMPLETED THEIR SERVICE AND WERE RETURNING TO THEIR VILLAGES. DE LEON SAID THAT THERE TENDED TO BE AN INTENSE LOYALTY TO THE ARMY BY THOSE WHO HAD FOUGHT -- ENRIQUEZ HAD TOLD HIM HE HAD WANTED DE LEON PRESENT AT THE CEREMONY SO THAT THE EX-SOLDIERS WOULD CARRY THE MESSAGES BACK TO THEIR HOMES AND VILLAGES THAT THE ARMY AND THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN WERE FRIENDS RATHER THAN ENEMIES.

DIANA ORTIZ

13. DE LEON EXPRESSED THE VIEW THAT IN FACT SOMETHING HAD HAPPENED TO SISTER ORTIZ, BUT THAT HER STORY WAS VERY CONFUSED AND SHE HAS NOT BEEN COOPERATIVE WITH EFFORTS TO GET TO THE BOTTOM OF IT. HE CONSIDERED THAT SHE WAS BEING MANIPULATED. THE DCM ASKED WHETHER THERE WERE PLANS TO ISSUE A REPORT REGARDING THE ORTIZ CASE. DE LEON SAID THAT THAT WAS NOT PRESENTLY UNDER CONSIDERATION, BUT NOTED THAT HE HAD BEEN THINKING ABOUT PREPARING A COMPILATION OF SUMMARIES OR ANALYSES OF THE MOST PROMINENT HUMAN RIGHTS CASES, PERHAPS AT THE END OF

THE YEAR. DCM AGREED THAT SUCH A REPORT WOULD BE USEFUL.

STROOCK.

1. SUMMARY: ON SEPTEMBER 13-16 A GUATEMALAN DELEGATION VISITED WASHINGTON FOR PHASE II OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS/MILITARY JUSTICE MET. THE DELEGATION, LED BY PRESIDENTIAL ADVISOR BERNARDO NEUMANN, PARTICIPATED IN MEETINGS WITHIN THE ADMINISTRATION, WITH MEMBERS AND CONGRESSIONAL STAFF, AND WITH HUMAN RIGHTS NGOS. THE SCHEDULE INCLUDED KEY MEETINGS WITH CHAIRMEN OBEY AND LEAHY. THE FINAL WORD ON FY 93 IMET FUNDING IS "WAIT AND SEE." END SUMMARY.

2. PHASE II OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS/MILITARY JUSTICE MET WAS CONDUCTED IN TWO PARTS DUE TO THE CONGRESSIONAL RECESS. IT IS NOW EVIDENT THAT THE APPROACH AND COMPOSITION OF THE DELEGATIONS FOR THE TECHNICAL MISSION TO THE NAVY JUSTICE SCHOOL IN NEWPORT, RHODE ISLAND AND THE POLICY-BASED VISIT TO WASHINGTON WERE NECESSARILY FUNDAMENTALLY DIFFERENT IN ANY CASE. THE DELEGATION FOR THE WASHINGTON VISIT WAS HEADED BY BERNARDO NEUMANN, PRESIDENT OF COPREDEH, WHO WAS ACCOMPANIED BY VICE MINISTER OF DEFENSE GENERAL JOSE QUILO, GENERAL MARCO ANTONIO GONZALEZ (A MEMBER OF THE GOG PEACE DELEGATION), AND COLONEL HECTOR ROSALES (A FORMER DEFENSE ATTACHE IN WASHINGTON AND FORMER GUATEMALAN AMBASSADOR TO PANAMA). MILGP GUATEMALA COMMANDER PAUL SCHARF ACCOMPANIED THE DELEGATION TO ALL APPOINTMENTS.

3. THE FIRST DAY'S APPOINTMENTS WERE RESTRICTED TO ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS AND THE HUMAN RIGHTS NGOS. THE DELEGATION FIRST MET WITH DAN FISK, ACTING DIRECTOR OF INTER-AMERICAN REGION OF ISA/OSD. DASD DUPART WAS UNABLE TO MEET WITH THE DELEGATION DUE TO TRAVEL TO MEXICO FOR THAT COUNTRY'S INDEPENDENCE CELEBRATION. ACTING DIRECTOR

FISK WELCOMED THE TEAM TO WASHINGTON AND EXPRESSED APPRECIATION FOR THE GOG'S ENTHUSIASTIC SUPPORT OF THE 3-PHASE MET ON HUMAN RIGHTS AND MILITARY JUSTICE. HE ENQUIRED ABOUT THE PROGRESS OF THE PREVIOUS TRIPS, BOTH TO GUATEMALA AND TO THE NAVAL JUSTICE SCHOOL IN NEWPORT, RHODE ISLAND. HE REMINDED THE DELEGATION OF THE CONTINUING CONCERN ON THE PART OF THE ADMINSTRATION AND IN THE CONGRESS OVER PENDING INVESTIGATION AND PROSECUTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES AND KILLINGS, PARTICULARLY THAT OF MICHAEL DEVINE. HE WAS PLEASED TO HEAR THAT INITIAL JUDICIAL ACTION, A VERDICT AND SENTENCING, SHOULD BE COMPLETED IN THE DEVINE CASE BY SEPTEMBER 25.

4. THE DELEGATION THEN MET WITH DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR CENTRAL AMERICA JOHN MAISTO. ARA LEGISLATIVE ASSISTANT MARK KIRK ALSO ATTENDED. DAS MAISTO SPOKE OF THE CONCEPTION OF THE PRECEDENT-SETTING HUMAN RIGHTS/MILITARY JUSTICE COURSE FOR GUATEMALA AND HOW IT WAS ENVISIONED THAT SENIOR GUATEMALAN MILITARY REPRESENTATIVES WOULD TRAVEL TO WASHINGTON TO MEET HUMAN RIGHTS NGOS AND CONGRESS TO LEARN FIRSTHAND THE CONCERNS THAT CLOUD THE ISSUE OF IMET FUNDING FOR GUATEMALA. DAS MAISTO POINTED OUT THAT THIS VISIT OFFERED AN EXCEPTIONAL OPPORTUNITY TO PRESENT THE GOG AND IN PARTICULAR THE MILITARY'S PERSPECTIVE ON THE STATE OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN GUATEMALA. HE ADVISED THE DELEGATION THAT THE HUMAN RIGHTS NGOS WOULD BE MOST KEEN TO DISCUSS SPECIFIC CASES. HE POINTED OUT THE IMPORTANCE OF DOING THAT, BUT EQUALLY IF NOT MORE SO OF DISCUSSING WHAT IS BEING DONE AS AN INSTITUTION TO DEAL WITH ABUSES BY MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY FORCES. FINALLY, DAS MAISTO POINTED OUT MOST

DIPLOMATICALLY, BUT CLEARLY, THAT THERE MUST BE NO PERCEPTION THAT IMET FUNDING WAS BEING USED TO BRING MEMBERS OF THE GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT AND MILITARY TO LOBBY FOR RENEWAL OF MILITARY ASSISTANCE, BECAUSE THAT IS NOT THE CASE AT ALL. THE DELEGATION TOOK THE POINTS TO HEART AND DISPLAYED A REFRESHINGLY POSITIVE ATTITUDE TOWARD THE UPCOMING APPOINTMENTS AND A WILLINGNESS TO MEET ANYONE AND EVERYONE NECESSARY. ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE POINT WAS BERNARDO NEUMANN'S REPLY TO A COMMENT THAT THE MEETING WITH CHAIRMAN OBEY WAS FRAUGHT WITH DANGER; HE SAID "DANGER NO, JUST DECISION."

5. THE DELEGATION NEXT MET WITH HA P/DAS BISHOP, WHO WAS MOST INTERESTED IN MR. NEUMANN'S ASSESSMENT OF THE OVERALL HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN GUATEMALA AND PROGRESS ON THE MOST NOTORIOUS CASES. P/DAS BISHOP WAS PLEASED TO HEAR GENERAL GONZALEZ' ESTIMATE THAT AGREEMENT ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS ACCORD IN THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS COULD BE ACHIEVED SOON.

6. THE FINAL MEETING ON THE FIRST DAY'S SCHEDULE WAS WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF HUMAN RIGHTS NGOS. SHORTLY BEFORE THE APPOINTMENT, BERNARDO NEUMANN EXPRESSED CONCERN THAT A MEETING WHICH INCLUDED FRANK LARUE COULD UPSET THE ENTIRE TRIP. THE TWO GENERALS EXPRESSED NO SUCH QUALMS AND INSISTED THAT THE MEETING TAKE PLACE. WOLA, AMERICAS WATCH, AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL, INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW GROUP, AND THE CENTER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS LEGAL ACTION WERE INVITED TO ATTEND. AMERICAS WATCH AND AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL REGRETTED THAT OTHER OBLIGATIONS PREVENTED THEIR ATTENDANCE. THERE WERE QUESTIONS/COMMENTS ON THREE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

MAIN ISSUES: MOD GARCIA'S RECENT STATEMENTS AND THE PERCEPTION THAT THOSE COMMENTS DELEGITIMIZE THE HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS ACTIVE IN GUATEMALA; THE DRAFT LAW AND ITS REFORM; AND SPECIFICS OF THE MET SEMINAR IN DECEMBER. THE NGOS WERE PLEASED TO HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY TO PRESENT THEIR CONCERNS DIRECTLY TO HIGH-RANKING OFFICERS OF THE GUATEMALAN MILITARY. FOR THEIR PART, THE GENERALS WERE MEASURED IN THEIR RESPONSES, BUT CLEAR IN PRESENTING AN IMAGE OF A MILITARY THAT HAS BROKEN THE TIES WITH THE "OLD WAYS" OF DOING THINGS AND WAS FULLY SUPPORTIVE OF A DEMOCRATICALLY ELECTED CIVILIAN GOVERNMENT. FINALLY, THE NGOS UNANIMOUSLY EXPRESSED THE HOPE THAT THIS WAS ONLY THE FIRST OF MANY OPPORTUNITIES FOR THEM TO EXCHANGE VIEWS WITH LATIN AMERICAN MILITARIES.

NOTE: AT THIS AND ALL SUBSEQUENT MEETINGS, GENERAL QUILO DECLARED HIS WILLINGNESS FOR NGOS TO "PARTICIPATE" IN THE PHASE III SEMINAR. DSAA HAS SAID THAT THE CURRENT

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

LEGISLATION PROHIBITS IMET FUNDING TO BE USED TO TRAIN CIVILIANS, BUT WE WILL EXPLORE WHETHER THEY MAY BE PRESENT AND HOW BEST TO DO SO WHILE MAINTAINING THE EFFECTIVENESS OF THE SEMINAR. END NOTE.

7. THE GOG LOBBYING FIRM OF PATTON, BOGGS, AND BLOW PREPARED A DAY AND ONE HALF PROGRAM OF APPOINTMENTS ON CAPITOL HILL. THE FIRST MEETING WAS WITH JAMES SWEENEY, LEGISLATIVE ASSISTANT TO SENATOR HARKIN. MR. SWEENEY WAS PLEASED THAT THERE WERE ADVANCES IN THE PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS, BUT WAS CONCERNED THAT THERE MAY STILL BE VESTIGES OF THE OLD MENTALITY THAT PROTEST EQUALS SUBVERSION. HE SPECIFICALLY MENTIONED THE FEAR THAT LABOR

ORGANIZERS HARBORED AND THE UNFORTUNATE HISTORY OF LABOR ACTIVISM IN GUATEMALA. MR. SWEENEY HOPED THAT THERE WOULD BE CONTINUED PROGRESS IN THE DEVINE, MACK AND ORTIZ CASES AS WELL AS SUCCESS IN THE ONGOING PEACE NEGOTIATIONS. HE NOTED CONCERN AT THE IMPACT OF THE TRANSFER OF JUDGE SECAIRA FROM THE ORTIZ CASE. MR. NEUMANN MENTIONED THAT CHIEF JUSTICE RODIL WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR THAT ACTION AND INFORMED MR. SWEENEY THAT SHE HAS NOW BECOME A PROSECUTING ATTORNEY WITHIN THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE.

8. THE DELEGATION MINUS BERNARDO NEUMANN (MR. NEUMANN MET WITH REPRESENTATIVE ORTIZ OF THE HISPANIC CAUCUS) MET WITH REPRESENTATIVE GREEN'S LEGISLATIVE ASSISTANT PAM NORICK. MS. NORICK WAS MOST INTERESTED IN THE DEVINE CASE AND ASKED WHETHER A RESOLUTION OF THE CASE WOULD PROMPT AN AUTOMATIC RESUMPTION OF MILITARY ASSISTANCE. SHE ALSO REMINDED THE GROUP THAT CASA ALIANZA'S HOME OFFICE COVENANT HOUSE IS IN REP. GREEN'S DISTRICT. MS. NORICK WAS PLEASED TO HEAR THAT THE HUMAN RIGHTS ACCORD IN THE ONGOING PEACE NEGOTIATIONS HAS COME CLOSE TO RESOLUTION.

9. THE MEETING WITH CHAIRMAN OBEY LASTED NEARLY ONE HOUR. HE LISTENED PATIENTLY TO PRESENTATIONS BY BERNARDO NEUMANN AND GENERAL QUILO. BOTH MR. NEUMANN AND GENERAL QUILO STRESSED THAT THEY ONLY ASKED COMPRESHENSION FOR GUATEMALA AS IT CAME OUT OF A LONG "NIGHTMARE" OF YEARS OF VIOLENCE AND DEATH. CHAIRMAN OBEY SAID THAT WHILE HE WELCOMED PROGRESS IN EFFORTS TO CURB HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, HE HAD HEARD MANY PROMISES IN THE PAST ABOUT CHANGE IN GUATEMALA AND HE STILL HAS DOUBTS ABOUT THE GENUINENESS OF THE CHANGE. MR. NEUMANN SAID THAT UNFORTUNATELY GUATEMALA

THAT GUATEMALA IS GOING TO PROVE ITS METTLE IS WITH FACTS AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS. HE EXTENDED AN INVITATION TO CHAIRMAN OBEY TO COME TO GUATEMALA TO SEE FOR HIMSELF. COMMENT: A SUBSEQUENT READOUT OF THE MEETING FROM HAC FOREIGN OPERATIONS SUBCMTE STAFF ASSISTANT MARK MURRAY CHARACTERIZED MR. NEUMANN'S PRESENTATION AS AN OVERLY LONG, VAGUE MONOLOGUE WHICH DID NOT ALLOW MR. MURRAY ENOUGH TIME TO ASK MORE THAN TWO QUESTIONS. END COMMENT.

10. BEHIND SCHEDULE, THE MEETING WITH SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS CMTE STAFF ASSISTANT JANICE O'CONNELL WAS VERY BRIEF. SHE ASKED FOR AN UPDATE ON THE PEACE PROCESS AND ENQUIRED ABOUT THE STATUS OF THE MACK AND DEVINE CASES.

11. THE DELEGATION HELD A CORDIAL MEETING WITH SENATOR JEFFORDS AND HIS LEGISLATIVE ASSISTANT LAURIE HEIN. SENATOR JEFFORDS WAS CONCERNED AT CONTINUING REPORTS OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, BUT ENCOURAGED BY GENERAL GONZALEZ ESTIMATE OF IMMINENT PROGRESS ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS ACCORD. THE SENATOR SAID THAT HE HOPED TO BE ABLE TO TRAVEL TO GUATEMALA NEXT YEAR FOR ANOTHER FIRST-HAND LOOK.

12. THE DELEGATION'S MEETING WITH CHAIRMAN LEAHY WAS POSITIVE. HE EXPRESSED APPROVAL OF THE COMMITMENT TO INCREASE THE EXPANDED IMET PORTION OF THE IMET PORTFOLIO IN ACCORDANCE WITH HIS EXPRESS WISHES. HE WELCOMED THE INNOVATIVE WAY IN WHICH THE HUMAN RIGHTS/MILITARY JUSTICE MET WAS BEING CONDUCTED. HE SAID THAT HE, TOO, WAS FRUSTRATED BY CHAIRMAN OBEY'S CONTINUED OBJECTION TO THE PROGRAM THAT HAD BEEN WORKED OUT. WHEN SENATOR LEAHY LEFT

FOR A VOTE, COMMITTEE STAFF DIRECTOR ERIC NEWSOM GAVE THE DELEGATION A SHORT, SUCCINCT SYNTHESIS OF THE DIFFICULTIES THAT ANY ASSISTANCE TO GUATEMALA FACES WITHIN THE CONGRESS. HE SAID THAT HIS PERSONAL EXPERIENCE IN GUATEMALA IS PROBABLY TEN YEARS OUT OF DATE, BUT THAT HE HAS FOLLOWED DEVELOPMENTS THERE CLOSELY SINCE THEN. MR. NEUMANN INVITED MR. NEWSOM TO COME TO GUATEMALA TO SEE THE ACTUAL SITUATION; MR. NEWSOM SAID THAT HE HOPED TO TRAVEL THERE, POSSIBLY AS SOON AS NEXT YEAR. ON THE WAY OUT OF THE MEETING, DESKOFF INFORMED MR. NEWSON THAT THE HOUSE HAD ALSO ALLOWED FUNDING FOR TWO CIVILIANS TO ATTEND THE DEFENSE RESOURCE MANAGEMENT COURSE IN MONTEREY, CALIFORNIA.

13. THE LAST APPOINTMENT ON THE SCHEDULE WAS WITH HFAC WESTERN HEMISPHERE SUBCMTE CHAIRMAN TORRICELLI. BERNARDO NUEMANN THANKED THE CHAIRMAN FOR HIS ASSISTANCE IN FREEING UP THE FUNDING FOR IMET FOR GUATEMALA. CHAIRMAN TORRICELLI TOOK ADVANTAGE OF GENERAL GONZALEZ' PRESENCE TO RECEIVE A BRIEF UPDATE ON THE PEACE TALKS. HE ASKED FOR UNDERSTANDING FOR HIS DIVIDED ATTENTION DURING THE

ELECTORAL CAMPAIGN, BUT PROMISED TO DEVOTE HIS FULL ENERGIES TO THE PROCESS AFTER NOVEMBER. CHAIRMAN TORRICELLI ENQUIRED ABOUT THE STATUS OF THE SALE OF HELICOPTER SPARE PARTS TO MAINTAIN THE GOG'S MEDEVAC CAPABILITY. GENERAL QUILO MENTIONED THAT THE REQUEST HAD BEEN CANCELLED. CHAIRMAN TORRICELLI INSISTED THAT A LETTER FROM A/S MULLINS WHICH REFLECTED A TORRICELLI/ARONSON TELCON INDICATED THAT THE MATTER WOULD BE GIVEN SERIOUS CONSIDERATION. SUBSEQUENT DISCUSSIONS WITH CHAIRMAN TORRICELLI'S STAFF CLARIFIED THE MATTER; THE REQUEST THAT THE GOG HAD CANCELLED HAD BEEN MADE PRIOR TO

Guatemala's 1985 constitution calls for election by universal suffrage of a one-term president, a unicameral congress, and municipal officers; it mandates an independent judiciary and a Human Rights Ombudsman, who is elected by and reports to Congress. 1992 was president Jorge Serrano's second year in office. In January, Congress elected new Presidents of Congress and the Supreme Court. In August, Congress re-elected Ramiro de Leon Carpio as Human Rights Ombudsman.

The armed forces operate with significant institutional and legal autonomy, particularly in security and military matters. The 43,000-man army, which has responsibility for national security, has been fighting a leftist insurgency for more than three decades. The Army's Mobile Military Police (PMA) guards key facilities and traditionally has an anti-crime role. The National Police (12,000 men) and Treasury Police (2,000 men) report to the Interior Minister. On March 4, the Interior Minister created the "Hunahpu" task force patrols composed of National Police, Treasury Police, and Mobile Military Police to combat rising common crime. Some 500,000 men in voluntary civil self-defense committees (CVDC), commonly called Civil Defense Patrols (PACs), perform counterinsurgency operations in rural areas. The Human Rights Ombudsmen and the Catholic church's human rights office report that some members of PACs were compelled to join, a violation of the constitution. Security forces and PACs are reported to have committed numerous and serious human rights violations in 1992. The Guatemalan military budget decreased in real terms in 1992, but will increase by 8 percent in real terms in 1993. The military will command a declining share of GDP in 1993, when GDP growth is projected at 5 percent. The 1993 Ministry of Defense budget will total 634 million Quetzales (approximately 107 million U.S. dollars), 8 percent of the total central government budget.

To de-militarize state security forces, President Serrano broke with tradition in 1991 and appointed civilians as Interior Minister and National Police Chief. Other civilians assumed top-level subordinate positions in those institutions. That civilianization process suffered a setback in May 1992, when civilians replaced the civilian Interior Minister and Police Chief, but military personnel were assigned to key subordinate positions after the re-shuffle.

The private-sector-oriented Guatemalan economy grew approximately 3.5 percent in 1992, for a slight increase in per capita incomes after several years of decline. During the year, the government enacted significant fiscal reform and lowered tariffs to a ceiling of 20 percent, effective January 1, 1993. Other trade and investment liberalization measures were implemented. The Serrano Administration continued its conservative fiscal and monetary policy management. Inflation stood at approximately 10 percent for the second consecutive year. During the fourth quarter, Guatemala entered into a stand-by agreement with the International Monetary Fund, requiring the central government to balance its budget in 1993 for the third straight year. Following that agreement, the government cleared its debt service arrears to the international financial institutions and thereby re-established the government's access to international lending for badly-needed infrastructure development. With revenues rising as a result of fiscal reform, the government is planning a major increase in public investment in 1993.

There were improvements in the human rights situation during 1992, but serious abuses continue. Statistics prepared by the Human Rights Ombudsman's office and the Archbishop's Human Rights Office showed a substantial drop in human rights violations during 1992, but there has been no progress in resolving many important cases, particularly when the military was involved.

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

While the Guatemalan Government took significant steps to enhance respect for human rights, other of its actions raised questions about the depth of its commitment, sending mixed signals. On the one hand, government civilians and military personnel participated actively in peace negotiations, the Presidential Human Rights Commission issued its first report updating leading human rights cases, the Army continued human rights training programs for soldiers and introduced such programs for reservists and military commissioners, the Attorney General's office dedicated increased resources to preventing violations against street children, President Serrano became the first Guatemalan chief executive to meet with Committee of Peasant Unity (CUC) leaders, and other Guatemalan officials, including military officers, opened a dialogue with Guatemalan and international human rights entities. On the other hand, they criticized the Human Rights Ombudsman, the Archbishop's Human Rights Office and the U.S. Government for the protection they offered to kidnap victim Maritza Urrutia. Top government officials denounced as improper interference in internal affairs U.S. Government concern over the innocent verdict against an army officer implicated in the Devine murder, chronic causes of security force abuses -- including low pay and insufficient training -- remained unaddressed, the government showed intolerance for press criticism, and charges were dismissed against soldiers responsible for the August 1991 Escuintla/Taxisco murders, a case which is still in the appeal process.

Human rights entities report that the military, civil patrols, and police continued to commit a majority of the major human rights abuses, including extrajudicial killing, torture, and disappearances. The motive behind many abuses appeared to be the belief, whether factual or based on spurious information, that victims were in some way supportive of or sympathetic to guerrillas.

Guerrillas also committed numerous and serious human rights violations, including extrajudicial killings, torture, kidnappings, forced labor recruitment, widespread use of mines and explosives, and the use of children in combat. Guerrilla attacks on infrastructure targets continued throughout the year.

There was some progress in certain past cases of concern to the United States. Remains of American citizens Nicholas Blake and Griffin Davis, who disappeared in 1985, were located and confirmed with assistance from the Embassy, the Guatemalan Army, the Smithsonian Institute and the Blake family. Sister Diana Ortiz returned to Guatemala on April 5-9 and gave partial testimony in Guatemalan court. Diplomatic immunity was waived for Ambassador Stroock, who testified on July 2 as to what he knew about the case. The trial of Noel de Jesus Beteta Alvarez for the 1990 murder of Guatemalan anthropologist Myrna Mack Chang trial began in August and should last into 1993. On September 30, a military court sentenced six enlisted military men to thirty years for the 1990 murder of American citizen Michael Devine; a captain accused of murder was found innocent, a decision appealed by the Attorney General. There are two other charges against the captain still pending. Higher officers involved in covering up the case for two years have not been brought to trial. On July 19, an appellate court sentenced four policemen to 12 years in prison and a collective fine of Quetzales 5,000 (approximately U.S. Dollars 1,000) for the March 1990 murder of street child Nahaman Carmona Lopez.

There has been no progress in resolving: the 1989 disappearances and murders of university students; the 1990 Hector Oqueli Colindres and Gilda Flores killings; the 1990 disappearance of Maria Tiu Tojin and her daughter; the 1991 murder of police detective Jose Luis Merida Escobar; the 1991 disappearance of Diego Domingo Martin; and past kidnappings and murders of various Rununel Junam Council of Ethnic Communities (CERJ) members. The lack of progress in these cases and the fact that abuses continue reflects an inability to control or sanction those responsible for human rights offenses.

The Guatemalan Presidential Human Rights Commission (COPREDEH) established in August 1991 published its first report on April 30. The COPREDEH report discussed peace process developments, Guatemalan accession to the international accord on civil and political rights, guerrilla activities during the first four months of 1992, Red Cross health campaigns in Quiche, cases of international concern, and efforts to repatriate refugees. President Serrano established COPREDEH to coordinate Guatemalan government responses to human rights cases and developments, a function that organization has yet to assume.

Respect for human rights

Section 1 respect for the integrity of the person, including freedom from:

a. Political and other extrajudicial killing

Common crime accounted for the vast majority of violent deaths. Politically-motivated killings dropped significantly in 1992, but nonetheless remained unacceptably high. The Human Rights Ombudsman confirmed 40 extrajudicial killings during the first six months of 1992. Of those 40, 20 were believed committed by state security forces, 12 by guerrillas, and 8 remained unsolved. The Ombudsman's 1991 annual statistics reported 228 extrajudicial killings, of which 130 were atributed to state security forces, 71 to guerrillas, and 27 were unsolved. The Archbishop's Human Rights Office reported 190 extrajudicial killings during the first six months of 1992, as compared to 575 for all of 1991, but did not break down the figures according to who was responsible.

Many of these killings are credibly believed to have been committed by the security forces and persons associated with or protected by the army, such as the civil defense patrols or military commissioners. Most of them took place in areas of guerrilla conflict. The security forces are reported to have been involved in many vigilante killings of criminals or criminal suspects. Security force personnel are hardly ever held accountable for human rights violations. With few exceptions, the government failed to investigate, detain, and prosecute perpetrators of extrajudicial killings. There is little cooperation between security forces and the courts. The Ombudsman, the Attorney General, and human rights groups have found unambiguous eyewitness and physical evidence of killings by PACs. PAC leaders are feared in many rural communities because they enjoy army backing and de facto immunity from prosecution. Nevertheless, the government did not prevent forensic anthropological teams from locating corpses of victims killed and buried in the early 1980's at rural, clandestine cemeteries.

The armed forces and civil patrols frequently threatened and sometimes killed human rights activists. CERJ is a rural-based human rights organization dedicated mainly to opposing involuntary service in PACs. Various CERJ members disappeared, were killed, or were threatened in 1992. CERJ member Catarino Chanchavac Larios, who had refused participation in a PAC in San Pablo, San Pedro Jocopilas, was murdered on August 26. CERJ member Esteban Tojin disappeared on March 13 after receiving similar threats dating to 1990. A grenade exploded on May 10 at the Santa Cruz del Quiche home of CERJ leader Amilcar Mendez, who was in Guatemala city at the time. Mendez reported receiving numerous anonymous telephone threats to himself and his wife.

On January 17, drunken soldiers killed four people in Ciudad Peronia, a poor suburb of Guatemala City. Army intelligence launched an investigation resulting in the January 21 arrest of two enlisted men. A military trial court sentenced the two defendants to 30 years in prison. On April 8, a military appellate court revised that sentence, imposing the death penalty. The soldiers escaped from military jail on May 9. One was re-captured on July 6 and is appealing his death sentence; the other remains at large. The general in charge of the prison was removed from his post.

On February 10, unknown gunmen murdered 27-year-old San Carlos University (USAC) professor Manuel Estuardo Pena outside his Guatemala city home. Pena was active in a variety of left-wing political organizations and social causes. Earlier that day, unknown persons showed the victim's photograph to his wife when they inquired into his whereabouts at his home. The killing followed the January 30 bombing of USAC student union (AEU) offices and coincided with numerous threats to USAC professors and students, some of whom fled into exile. The USAC rector denounced the "new wave of terror" at the university.

On April 10, a confrontation occurred between approximately 30 members of a "Hunahpu" security unit and a group of USAC students during preparations for the students' annual "Huelga de Dolores" parade. The confrontation, which occurred late at night on a street in downtown Guatemala City, led to shooting that killed USAC student Julio Rigoberto Cuc Quim and wounded seven others. Members of the unit involved were arrested and criminal charges are pending. At an August 21 judicial reconstruction, "Hunahpu" personnel claimed they were provoked; the students claimed "Hunahpu" officials fired without provocation. A student attending the reconstruction was passed an anonymous note threatening various students prominent in efforts to prosecute "Hunahpu" unit members.

On the afternoon of June 13, four gunmen killed multi-millionaire and suspected drug trafficker Edgar Galvez Pena when he arrived by helicopter at a Coban farm. No suspects were arrested, nor was a motive established. Galvez had many enemies. At the time of his death, Galvez was attempting to expand his influence by establishing a political party and opening a bank in Coban.

b. Disappearance

The Ombudsman's office received 65 complaints of forced disappearances during the first six months of 1992. Investigations attributed responsiblity to state security forces in 3 cases and to the guerrillas in 9 cases. The Ombudsman did not attribute responsibility in the remaining 53 cases. Similar annual statistics for all of 1991 showed 112 total forced disappearances, of which 31 were attributed to the state and 14 to the guerrillas. The archbishop's human rights office reported 3 forced disappearances for the first six months of 1992, as compared to 144 in all of 1991.

In June, the remains of American citizens Nicholas Blake and Griffith Davis were located and identified. Blake and Davis were free-lance journalists who disappeared in western Guatemala in March 1985. They were preparing a report on Guatemalan rebels and were last seen trying to contact guerrilla forces. Through the combined efforts of the Blake family, U.S. Embassy staff, the Guatemalan Army, and a Guatemalan schoolteacher, bone and tooth fragments were unearthed and positively identified by a Smithsonian Institute forensic anthropologist. Evidence shows local civil patrol members killed the Americans. The murder motive remains unclear, but mistaken identification as guerrillas or robbery are likely possibilities.

On March 12, David Estuardo Mejia Paiz was abducted by three men and detained at an unknown location until the following day. His captors made comments linking the kidnapping to activities of his brother, Casa Alianza staff member Axel Mejía. Axel Mejía is the principal witness in proceedings against 13 members of a police task force implicated in the November 1990 beating of three street children in front of Casa Alianza's Guatemala City crisis center.

On April 10, men dressed in military uniforms kidnapped Maria Rosa Alfaro Perez near a cemetery in Huehuetenango. She was released near her home in Guatemala City on April 28. She made no public statement after her release.

On the morning of July 23, former schoolteacher Maritza Urrutia was kidnapped after dropping off her son at a Guatemala City school. Urrutia is the former common-law wife of a guerrilla commander. She spent several years in exile in Mexico before returning to Guatemala. She was released on July 30, the day after local television broadcast a videotaped statement in which Urrutia acknowledged past links to the URNG. The URNG issued a statement recognizing Urrutia's guerrilla past. Urrutia sought refuge in the Archbishop's Human Rights Office and met with the Human Rights Ombudsman. The U.S. Embassy issued Urrutia a non-immigrant visa enabling her to depart on August 7 for a temporary rest in the United States. The Guatemalan government severely criticized the roles of the Ombudsman, the archbishop, and the U.S. Embassy in the Urrutia case. Urrutia testified on September 30 at the Organization of American States' Human Rights Commission that she believes Guatemalan military personnel abducted her. Her captors were well-trained and had significant institutional resources, including a safehouse, vehicles, video equipment, and disciplined personnel.

c. Torture and other cruel, inhuman, or degrading treatment or punishment

As in past years, many bodies found throughout Guatemala bore signs of torture or postmortem mutilation. Such treatment, however, is not necessarily evidence of security force involvement: gangs and other criminals, as well as guerrillas, all use torture. However, there were credible reports of torture and mistreatment by security forces. There were also credible reports of the use of excessive force by police at the time of arrest and of abusive treatment by army, civil defense patrols, military commissioners and police of persons in rural areas. Maritza Urrutia's testimony at the OAS Human Rights Commission reportedly included statements that the Guatemalan military personnel who abducted her mistreated her.

The government, especially the Attorney General's office, dedicated additional personnel and undertook increased efforts to end police abuse of street children in coordination with Casa Alianza. Casa Alianza, an organization dedicated to protecting the human rights of street children, is affiliated with New York based Covenant House. Casa Alianza reported no extrajudicial killings of street children in 1992, but there were numerous reports of policemen beating or illegally detaining street children. Casa Alianza staff also reported receiving numerous anonymous threats.

d. Arbitrary arrest, detention, or exile

A court-issued arrest warrant is required unless a person is caught in the act of committing a crime. Police may not keep a suspect for over six hours without bringing him to a judge. The law provides for bail, access to lawyers, and limits to 20 days the time anyone may be held, after which he must be charged or freed. Authorities must produce detainees on request. Exile is not used.

Despite these legal safeguards, there are frequent credible reports of arbitrary arrest and incommunicado detention by security forces. Persons detained illegally and released subsequently reported having been held at security force "safehouses." those responsible for illegal detentions routinely ignore writs of habeas corpus.

On September 25, three agents from the department of criminal investigations' minors' unit arrested American citizen Mary Anne Scherf for allegedly kidnapping a Guatemalan infant. In fact, Mrs. Sherf was in the final stages of legally adopting the child and had legal custody until completion of that process. Police arrested and imprisoned her without an arrest order, and destroyed or hid documents confirming her legal custody. Mrs. Scherf was released after the U.S. Embassy protested her illegal detention. The three police officers involved in the affair have been dismissed.

On October 8, the Guatemalan government and representatives of the Guatemalan refugee communities in Mexico signed an historic agreement which allows for the orderly, voluntary, large-scale return of refugees to their homeland. The United Nations has played a key role in the verificaton of this accord.

e. Denial of fair public trial

The constitution provides for an independent judiciary comprised of a Court of Constitutionality, a Supreme Court, appeals courts, and several courts of special jurisdiction, such as labor courts. Military courts have jurisdiction over military personnel, including military commissioners. PAC members are beyond that jurisdiction. Civilian trials are public after the first 15 days; defendants have the right to be present and to legal representation. An appeals court automatically reviews convictions.

The judicial system is often ineffective in human rights cases. Most human rights violations are not investigated; security force personnel are reluctant to investigate cases involving colleagues. Judges are susceptible to intimidation and corruption, suffer low pay, bad working conditions, and low morale. Widespread recognition of those defects led in late September to congressional passage of new criminal procedures and anti-narcotics codes that will introduce sweeping reforms. The criminal procedures law will introduce oral proceedings (in both Spanish and Indigenous languages) open to the public, and a public defender program. The narcotics law prohibits narcotics conspiracies, enacts stiff penalties for violators, and imposes civil damages on narcotics violators.

No political prisoners are known to exist.

f. Arbitrary interference with privacy, family, home, or correspondence

The constitution provides for the inviolability of home, correspondence, and private documents, provisions which are not always respected. Many human rights activists reported receiving threats in the form of surveillance, telephone calls, anonymous letters, or strange occurances. No suspects were identified or arrested. Politicians also reported receiving threats. Former Health Minister Miguel Montepeque claimed he was threatened on several occasions after his dismissal from the Serrano Cabinet, resignation from the President's MAS party, and his accusations of presidential involvement in the sham 1990 arrest of journalist Hugo Arce. A dispute between centrist (UCN) party leader Jorge Carpio and his deputy, Jorge

Arenas, also escalated into threats and violence. Various Arenas supporters received threats and unknown gunmen shot Arenas supporter and UCN congressman Camilo Rodas Ayala on April 4 at his Suchitepequez home.

Officials enforcing the military draft traditionally enter homes and places of business without legally-required court orders. In February, the Army attempted to end such abuses in Quiche when it established the nation's first draft board consisting of the zone military commander, the local representative of the Human Rights Ombudsman's Office, and other civilian leaders. Under new recruitment practices also adopted in several other departments, potential recruits receive three induction notices after which they are arrested. Activists criticize the new procedures for not addressing the fact that Indigenous men are required to serve in the armed forces more frequently than Ladino men. A bill dealing with that and other recruitment issues is pending in the Guatemalan Congress.

High-ranking government officials working in the fields of human rights and jurisprudence have complained publicly and privately of receiving death threats stemming from their interest in resolving cases relating to human rights violations, official corruption and narcotrafficking. Some judges have succeeded in being excused from hearing prominent cases after alleging death threats. A total of 12 different individual judges have been excused from the Myrna Mack Chang case, for example.

g. Use of excessive force and violations of humanitarian law in internal conflicts

Guatemala's armed internal conflict entered its 32nd year in 1992, and continued to be a cause of major human rights violations by both government and guerrilla personnel. The URNG, the umbrella group for guerrilla forces, marked its ten-year anniversary on February 7. Peace negotiations between the government and the URNG continued inconclusively in 1992. Human rights issues were the primary area of disagreement. On August 6, negotiators reached a mini-accord on the PACs issue whereby the government agreed to establish no new PACs if the URNG commenced operations in no new areas.

A wave of bombings apparently intended to create political instability occurred throughout the capital in April and May. The perpetrators were never apprehended, but several right- and left-wing groups were thought responsible. Targets included government and private offices, businesses and schools.

Communities in Resistance (CPR) claimed army aircraft bombed their civilian settlements on numerous occasions. In mid-July, for example, CPR representatives accused the Army of bombing a CPR near Ixcan, Quiche. The Defense Minister, who once commanded forces in that area, denied the charge, claiming guerrillas forced civilians to flee the region many years ago. CPR representatives produced unexploded bombs to support their allegations. The origin of the bombs has not been established.

Guerrilla forces recruited children into their ranks. On January 13, government troops found Mario Catuj Salvador, a 12-year-old child guerrilla, after an armed engagement at Patulul, Suchitepequez. He was transferred to a military hospital, where he died on January 15 of malnutrition, dehydration, diarrhea, and pneumonia. Army spokesmen claimed OPRA guerrillas forcibly recruited him into their ranks while he was working at a farm in Escuintla.

Guerrillas also hindered international relief efforts. On February 4, approximately 40 "Guerrilla Army of the Poor" (EGP) troops intercepted and kidnapped two United Nations refugee relief workers on a road between Nebaj and Chajul, Quiche. The UN personnel, Guatemalan Roberto Herrera and Peruvian Alberto Heredia Jimenez, were forced to March to a nearby rebel stronghold after their pick-up truck was burned on the highway. They were released on February 6.

Section 2 respect for civil liberties, including:

a. Freedom of speech and press

A range of organizations that are frequently critical of the government, including the Human Rights Ombudsman's office and the Archbishop's Human Rights Office, regularly produce and distribute publications. These circulate freely, and their conclusions and assertions are widely reported in other publications and in the broadcast media. Newspapers in particular have complained, however, about government pressure and interference in what they claim are efforts to silence criticism of the actions of the President and his family, and alleged wrongdoing by the security forces.

No journalists or media figures have been killed or disappeared in the past year, but several claim to have received death threats. Two of the more prominent cases involved journalists from "Prensa Libre"; one of these individuals eventually requested and received political asylum in another country. Journalists at the newspaper "Siglo Veintiuno" reported numerous threats stemming from the weekly gossip and commentary column "Guicho Cantoral." One writer of the column, whose home has been the object of repeated mysterious break-ins, felt threatened enough to sleep in a hotel instead of her home. In late August, a group of journalists claimed that armed judicial branch security guards threatened to kill them if coverage did not cease regarding the mysterious murder of the mother of Supreme Court President Juan Jose Rodil's personal secretary. In October, the offices of "Tinamit", a left-of-center magazine that is frequently critical of government and other public figures, was the object of a bombing that resulted in no injuries and little physical damage to the building. To date there have been no prosecutions of these crimes.

Despite credible allegations of threats, the news media have reported on all major human rights stories, as well as having publicized communiques from the URNG (guerrilla umbrella organization), leftist groups and others opposed to the government or its policies. The press has increasingly contributed to public debate of the deeds and alleged misdeeds of the executive, legislative and judicial branches. Further, international groups and individuals have successfully conducted investigations on a number of human rights-related topics and have held public press conferences alleging government or security force involvement in crimes, without reported interference. Both major press organizations have denounced incidents restricting freedom of the press and have vowed to continue coverage of sensitive topics. Journalists themselves admit that significant self-censorship continues to impede full reporting on a variety of topics including government human rights violations, corruption of government officials and influential politicians, aspects of narcotrafficking and issues affecting the economic interests of powerful individuals.

b. Freedom of peaceful assembly and association

The constitution recognizes the rights of peaceful assembly and association: parades, rallies, marches, forums, debates, and seminars on various topics, including human rights, took place openly and freely. On October 12, for example, numerous protest rallies and parades marked the 500th anniversary of Columbus' arrival in the Americas and the subsequent Spanish conquest. Riot police used excessive force on certain occasions in breaking up peaceful demonstrations. On July 21, riot police expelled from the Guatemala City central plaza protest marchers from the Quetzaltenango town of Cajola. That incident and evictions of squatters at the scene of land invasions both within and outside of the capital prompted widespread criticism and condemnation.

Freedom of political association is guaranteed under the constitution although organizations nominally require legal status, a cumbersome and expensive procedure. The Peace Brigades, an international human rights monitoring organization, has been unable to obtain recognition despite persistent efforts. The absence of legal status does not, however, prevent Peace Brigades and other human rights organizations from operating openly and freely.

c. Freedom of religion

No state religion exists. Religious freedom is constitutionally-guaranteed and is respected in practice. Religious personnel are sometimes threatened or killed for political reasons. About 70 per cent of the population is nominally Catholic, but there is a rapidly-growing number of evangelical churches, including the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints.

Many other faiths exist openly.

d. Freedom of movement within the country, foreign travel, emigration, and repatriation

The government did not restrict foreign travel nor did it revoke citizenship for political reasons. Movement inside Guatemala was unrestricted except in some conflictive areas.

Guerrillas continued to establish road blocks and limit travel in certain rural areas. The Army, military commissioners, and PACs also limited travel in some areas.

Nobel laureate and Indigenous leader Rigoberta Menchu visited Guatemala twice in 1992 and travelled to rural areas. Other politically-active Guatemalans who went into exile returned. On February 28, political activist and former socialist (PSD) vice presidential candidate Luis Zurita returned to Guatemala from exile. On March 19, former Rebel Armed Forces (FAR) political leader Gonzalo Danilo Rodriguez received official amnesty, established a political party, and began publishing political articles frequently in the local press.

Repatriation of refugees continued. An estimated 1,600 refugees returned to Guatemala in the first eight months of 1992 under the sponsorship of international groups and the Guatemalan government's committee on refugee affairs. As noted above, the Guatemalan government and representatives of the Guatemalan refugee communities in Mexico signed an October 8 agreement allowing the orderly, voluntary, large-scale return of refugees to their homeland.

Section 3 respect for political rights: the right of citizens to change their government

Guatemalans have the right to change their government by peaceful and democratic means. Universal suffrage by secret ballot exists for those 18 years of age and older; there are no property or literacy requirements. Voting is not mandatory. The last national elections, which international observers found free and fair, were held in January 1991. No national elections were required under the constitution in 1992. Members of the armed forces may not vote.

Indigenous people enjoy equal rights under the constitution. There are some Indigenous congressmen, army officers (including one general), government officials, and judges. Nevertheless, pervasive discrimination prevents Indigenous people from assuming a prominent role in Guatemalan politics.

Section 4 Government attitude regarding international and nongovernmental investigation of alleged violations of human rights

The government welcomed, but at times criticized, international human rights groups. Local human rights groups and organizations are permitted to operate in Guatemala, but members suffered threats and violence from security forces and PACs.

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

The office of the Human Rights Ombudsman remained the most reliable source of objective information on human rights practices, issuing many reports critical of both the government and the guerrillas. On July 8, Congress re-elected Ramiro de Leon Carpio Human Rights Ombudsman, a development widely praised. On May 14, the Ombudsman's office moved into a new building in downtown Guatemala City with improved facilities. That expansion further institutionalized the Ombudsman's role in monitoring human rights abuses. Relations between the executive branch and the Ombudsman's office were tense at times, but the Ombudsman continued to enjoy widespread public support and respect.

Senior Guatemalan officials met representatives of numerous foreign and international officials and activists. Various nongovernmental human rights organizations have local offices. United Nations Human Rights Expert Christian Tomuschat received the cooperation of the Guatemalan government, including a full day with President Serrano, who visited various sites of interest to Tomuschat. His critical comments received widespread press coverage. Foreign forensic anthropologists and human rights groups took part in the location and exhumation of clandestine cemeteries.

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

Nevertheless, the Defense Minister threatened to prosecute forensic anthropologist Clyde Snow for defámation after snow attributed certain past human rights abuses to the Guatemalan military. The International Committee of the Red Cross operated openly.

Section 5 discrimination based on race, sex, religion, language, or social status

One half of the population is culturally indigenous and the rest culturally hispanic. Indigenous people nonetheless remain largely outside the country's predominant political, economic, social, and cultural life. The situation bears marked similarity to relations between whites and blacks in the United States during the decade of 1930-1940. Indigenous people suffered most of the serious human rights abuses, as described above.

Rural Indigenous men were more likely than urban counterparts to be drafted by the Army or recruited forcibly by guerrilla groups. A bill pending in Congress would remedy that defect with regard to army draft procedures.

Rural Indigenous people have limited educational opportunities, and thus have limited employment opportunities. Illiteracy is prevalent in Indigenous communities. Many Guatemalans do not speak Spanish.

Linguistic barriers thus hinder interaction with the government and limit access to public services, including the judiciary, because few officials speak Indigenous languages.

International Labor Organization (ILO) convention No. 169 regarding indigenous and tribal communities has passed through a second reading in the Guatemalan Congress and is under active consideration. That accord would reinforce under Guatemalan law the rights of indigenous people. UN Human Rights Expert Christian Tomuschat has observed, however, that the Guatemalan constitution already guarantees rights described in the convention. Women are active in the labor force, especially in the textile industry, agriculture, retail business, and in lower-paying public sector jobs. Several women hold prominent political positions, including cabinet posts. Despite legal protection, women face job discrimination and receive lower pay than men.

CONAVIGUA is an indigenous widows' organization prominent in advocacy of womens' and human rights issues. Nevertheless, violence against women, including domestic violence, remains common but receives little attention. Criminal sexual violence often goes unreported by victims, and relatively few rape cases came to court. The Deputy Human Rights Ombudsman, a woman, monitors violations of womens' rights.

Guatemala is very tolerant of religious diversity. Government and business leaders espouse various faiths. Nevertheless, certain private clubs bar membership to members of certain religions.

Section 6 worker rights

Worker rights in Guatemala came under increasing public and private scrutiny in 1992, partially because of pending petitions against Guatemala accepted for review under the U.S. GSP law. Some progress was made in addressing worker rights protections. Certain key changes in the labor code (were made or are still pending, depending on the facts at the time.) seven new labor courts were established, but a back-log of cases hindered the labor justice system. The government also hired 75 new inspectors. The process of recognition of unions was accelerated and two landmark unions were authorized -- the first two unions in the rapidly expanding maquila sector. Also, the government and its unions went through the first ever successful public sector negotiations, in which an agreement was reached, peacefully, to provide a wage increase and additional benefits to public workers. Implementation of portions of this agreement, however, was held up by the government, which precipitated a flurry of work stoppages in October.

On the negative side of the ledger, abysmal economic conditions are found throughout most of the country, resulting in unemployment and significant underemployment affecting more than half of the workforce. Labor legislation regulating working conditions were not enforced in many parts of the country. Workers earning less than the minimum wage, illegal child labor and unsafe working conditions continued to exist. Intimidation and threats to union organizers continued. No killings were reported in 1992. Controversy continued over the reported use of forced labor in civil patrols (PACs), whose future remains under negotiation between the government and the URNG in the on-going peace talks.

a. The right of association

Guatemala's constitution (Article 34) and the 1947 labor code guarantee workers freedom of association and the right to join and/or form trade unions. As with most legal procedures in Guatemala, the labor code's current provisions are complex, and many regard them as a serious impediment to the organization of unions and the granting of mandatory legal recognition. Although the government tried to simplify the procedures in 1991/92, the effort was unsuccessful because of a legal ruling that legislative action was necessary. All workers have the right of freedom of association, including public sector employees. Five to eight percent of the work force is organized. The 890 unions in the country are independent of government and political party domination.

Workers have the right to strike. Labor code procedures make legal strikes cumbersome, however, and most strikes occur without legal authorization. In practice the government makes no effort to intervene on the basis of illegality. However, the lack of legal sanction for a strike can be used as a threat against strikers. For example, during a series of work stoppages by civil servants in July some government officials threatened to take legal action against union leaders for pursuing an illegal strike. Organized labor's structural weaknesses, a paucity of membership funds, and a poor overall economic situation with high unemployment and under-employment limit the duration of virtually all strikes.

By law, union leaders may serve only one term in a particular union office, but by rotating union positions, the same persons can stay on union executive boards for extended periods of time. The constitution protects the right of political participation for individuals, including trade union leaders. Unions may form federations and confederations, and join international organizations. With very few exceptions, trade unions depend on assistance received from international contacts. A solidarista movement is active, claiming approximately 100,000 members in over 350 companies. Article 34 of the constitution protects freedom of association, including solidarista associations. Unions may legally continue to operate in workplaces which have solidarista associations, and workers have the right to choose between the two, or belong to both. Both the government and the ILO view these associations as civic organizations, and, as such, they need not interfere with the functioning of trade unions. Critics charge that these associations are promoted by management to rival labor unions. There are credible reports that, at times, democratic principles are not adhered to in the formation and management of some of these associations, and workers are unable to participate fully and freely in decision-making. Similar credible charges are made against some trade union organizations. These charges, if true, highlight a lack of experience with democratic institutions.

It is generally recognized that the labor code needs revision. Better enforcement of the labor laws, however, is clearly the more serious problem in protecting worker rights. The petitions accepted for review in August under the generalized system of preferences (GSP) law allege that various changes are needed in the law and that the current law is not adequately enforced. A tripartite effort -- among the government (including congressional leaders), management and labor -- to revise portions of the labor code was initiated in September and continues. (We will provide an update on this effort in December). Local and international labor and human rights groups, including the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions, charge that unionists have historically been "particular targets of death squads." there was one occurence of an apparent extrajudicial execution of a union leader in 1992, that of University of San Carlos union leader Servio Antulio Taltique on October 7.

Events surrounding this death are under investigation. There was, however, no consistent pattern of attacks which could be characterized as making union leaders "particular targets." on the other hand, there were credible reports during the year of threats of violence against union leaders or members, including in the high profile "maquila" sector. Also, public sector union leaders reportedly received various threats against themselves and their families, coinciding with union demands for improved benefits. Those involved in acts of violence in Guatemala, irrespective of who is being targetted, are seldom apprehended or prosecuted.

At the request of trade union leaders, the independent Human Rights Ombudsman, through its office for economic and social issues, follows complaints related to trade union activities. Union leaders and workers filed a number of complaints with the ombudsman during the year, and the Ombudsman spoke out publicly to condemn the use of violence or threats against those seeking social justice.

b. The right to organize and bargain collectively

Workers have the right to organize and bargain collectively, and do so in a limited number of industries on a regular basis. On the other hand, workers can face strong discriminatory actions from employers in many industries, and, in those instances, are not able to exercise their right to form trade unions or bargain collectively. The textile maquila sector has a reputation for such discrimination against union activists, but workers in two maquila operations formed unions that were granted legal recognition by the government in 1992. Public sector employees successfully bargained with the central government for the first time in 1992 on wages and other benefits. The successful resolution of this public sector strike was a significant advance in labor relations and the peaceful resolution of labor disputes. Controversy remained, however, about the government's full compliance with the terms of this agreement.

Labor courts responsible for enforcing labor laws continued generally to be ineffective. In an effort to relieve the overwhelming workload of the labor courts, four new courts were formed in early 1992 in rural areas. Three additional courts were also formed in late 1992 in Guatemala city, increasing the number of available courts in the city by 75 percent. On the other hand, restructuring and modernizing the labor court system made little headway during 1992. As of the end of 1992, a heavy backlog of cases continued to clog the courts.

Despite a 100 percent increase in the ministry's budget in the first 15 months of the Serrano administration, the Labor Ministry was hampered in its ability to improve the enforcement of labor laws in 1992 by budget restrictions and other resource problems. Resources to the ministry are slated to increase by another 18 percent in real terms in 1993. Nonetheless, the Labor Ministry remains the ministry with the smallest overall budget.

Enforcement against violators of the labor code was spotty, due in part to the scarcity of labor inspectors and a lack of adequate training. Seventy-five new labor inspectors were hired this year and began work in October, following a training course. The salary of all labor inspectors was doubled in 1992, along with all other technical employees in the central government. The U.S. Department of Labor continued to provide training to some inspectors on methods of mediation.

Labor laws and regulations apply throughout Guatemala, including in the few export processing zones under development in the country. Union leaders often blame employer pressures and restricted access into the zones for their virtual inability to organize there. Credible reports charging that worker rights are abused in some plants in these zones -- as in other parts of the country -- continue to be received. These reports focused primarily on low wages, long hours without legally required overtime pay, employment of minors, and poor working conditions. Labor Ministry inspectors filed numerous complaints before the labor courts on these charges, but few of these cases were resolved due to inefficiencies within the court system and to legal maneuvering which employers can undertake to prolong the hearing process.

c. Prohibition of forced or compulsory labor

The constitution bars forced labor, and the practice generally does not exist. Guatemala has had legislation, which the ILO claims is still in effect, that permits 'forced labor' as a form of punishment for those detained for "expressing certain political opinions." the Labor Minister is attempting to ascertain if such legislation, which is inconsistent with ILO convention No. 105, is still in force, but has yet to obtain a clear ruling. There were no allegations of such legislation being used. Trade union and human rights organizations charge that Indigenous people are forced to participate in civilian self-defense patrols (PACs) in areas of armed conflict. Since such PACs engage in some infrastructure development in their localities, it is alleged that such labor is "compulsory." An interim agreement between the government and representatives of guerrilla organizations in September, as part of the on-going peace negotiations, gave the Human Rights Ombudsman the responsibility to investigate and monitor the formation of PACs to ensure that participation is voluntary. An eventual overall peace agreement will deal with the future of these organizations.

C. Minimum age for the employment of children

Although Guatemala's constitution bars employment of minors under the age of 14, the government's National Institute of Statistics reports that some 50,000 children below this minimum age are regularly employed in the formal sector; an untold number reportedly work in the informal sector, a condition typical of all under-developed countries. Only 5,000 of these minors have legal permission from the Labor Ministry to work. Those working without legal permission are open to exploitation, generally receiving no social benefits, no social insurance, no pension or vacations, no severance pay, and are paid at below the minimum wage level. The Labor Ministry has a program to educate minors, their parents, and employers on the rights of minors in the labor market. Economic necessity, however, forces most families to have their children seek some type of employment to supplement the family income.

e. Acceptable conditions of work

The legal workday is 8 hours and the workweek is 44 hours, but a tradition of much longer hours remains in place due to economic conditions. Trade union leaders and human rights groups charge that workers are commonly forced to work overtime, often without overtime pay, to meet work requirements. Labor inspectors report that numerous cases were uncovered of such abuses, but inefficiencies in the labor court system inhibit adequate enforcement of the law.

Occupational health and safety standards are inadequate; as with other aspects of the labor law, enforcement of the standards that do exist is also generally inadequate. Training courses for labor inspectors in health and safety standards were provided, but this area is not perceived as a high priority for the resource-poor ministry. Statistics on labor-related injuries and deaths are not available, but media reports of deaths in work-related accidents appear with some frequency. In 1991, legislation was enacted requiring companies with more than 50 employees to provide on-site medical faciltities for their workers. According to trade union representatives, the decree was not effectively enforced, even though many large employers do provide such facilities.

Minimum wages are set by law and are the de facto wages for most rural and urban workers. The minimum wage was increased in late 1991 by 78.5 percent. Although the minimum wage was not increased in 1992, when inflation was approximately 10 percent, the government did augment worker incomes by 8.3 percent when it passed a law requiring payment of an additional annual one month bonus in July of each year. Organized labor opposed this decision since bonus payments are not considered in calculating other benefit payments based on wages. A bilateral committee representing labor and management is named each year to make recommendations for increases in the mimimum wage. In the event that agreement is not possible, the government may decree such increases.

Widespread, credible reports indicate that the minimum wage, which is approximately 15 Quetzals (3 U.S. dollars) per day in non-agricultural sectors, is commonly not paid. The current minimum wage does not provide a decent standard of living; government statistics indicate that an estimated 80 percent of the population live below the Guatemalan poverty line, including approximately 70 percent of those employed.

1. SUMMARY: AFTER AN OCTOBER 19 MEETING WITH PRESIDENT SERRANO, NOBEL PEACE PRIZE LAUREATE RIGOBERTA MENCHU TUM DEPARTED GUATEMALA FOR MEXICO. SOME 20,000 SUPPORTERS SHOWED UP AT A PARADE AND RALLY CELEBRATING HER AWARD, BUT THE EXTENT OF MENCHU'S SUPPORT IN GUATEMALA REMAINS UNCLEAR. WE EXPECT SHE WILL REMAIN PRIMARILY OVERSEAS AND BEGIN VISITING GUATEMALA MORE FREQUENTLY, THOUGH RUMORS ARE GROWING THAT SHE PLANS A LOCAL POLITICAL CAREER. HER HEIGHTENED INTERNATIONAL PRESTIGE MAY ADD A NEW ELEMENT TO GUATEMALAN PEACE TALKS AND PERHAPS

CELEBRATIONS

2. GUATEMALANS ARE STILL SORTING OUT WHAT RIGOBERTA MENCHU'S NOBEL PEACE PRIZE MEANS FOR THEIR COUNTRY. CELEBRATIONS WERE THE FIRST REACTION TO THE OCTOBER 16 PRIZE ANNOUNCEMENT. THE FOLLOWING DAY, SOME 20,000 GUATEMALANS PARTICIPATED IN A PARADE HONORING HER. PRESS REPORTS OF THE EVENT NOTED THE CONSPICUOUS ABSENCE OF GOVERNMENT AUTHORITIES. RALLY AFTER THE PARADE THAT RIGOBERTA'S AWARD RECOGNIZED THE SUFFERING OF GUATEMALA'S INDIGENOUS POPULATION OVER THE PAST 500 YEARS. OTHER POPULAR ORGANIZATION LEADERS VIEWED THE AWARD IN A SIMILAR LIGHT.

3. MENCHU ACCEPTED THE PRIZE ON BEHALF OF INDIGENOUS GUATEMALANS AND THEIR STRUGGLE FOR PEACE. SHE VOWED THAT THE AWARD WOULD NOT CHANGE HER, AND PLEDGED TO USE THE 1.2 MILLION DOLLARS FROM THE NOBEL COMMITTEE TO SUPPORT SOCIAL WELFARE PROJECTS IN HER HOME COUNTRY AND ESTABLISH A GUATEMALAN FOUNDATION TO BE NAMED AFTER HER FATHER, KILLED BY GOG SECURITY FORCES IN 1980 FOLLOWING A TAKEOVER OF THE SPANISH EMBASSY.

GOVERNMENT CAUGHT FLAT-FOOTED

4. GOVERNMENT DISCOMFORT OVER THE POSSIBILITY THAT RIGOBERTA MIGHT WIN THE PEACE PRIZE WAS PALPABLE (REFTEL). NEVERTHELESS, GOVERNMENT SPOKESMEN APPEARED UNPREPARED WHEN THE PRIZE COMMITTEE MADE THE ANNOUNCEMENT. THE OCTOBER 18 EDITION OF GUICHO CANTORAL, A WEEKLY GOSSIP/SATIRE COLUMN IN THE GUATEMALA CITY DAILY NEWSPAPER "SIGLO XXI", LAMBASTED PRESIDENT SERRANO FOR AGREEING TO SPEAK WITH AND CONGRATULATE RIGOBERTA ONLY AFTER THE ATTORNEY GENERAL INSISTED FORCEFULLY THAT HE DO SO.

5. SERRANO WAS VISIBLY UNCOMFORTABLE DURING AN OCTOBER 19 TELEVISED MEETING WITH MENCHU JUST HOURS BEFORE SHE DEPARTED FOR MEXICO. SERRANO OFFERED VARIOUS PLATITUDES AND THEN TRIED TO SCORE PEACE PROCESS POINTS BY HANDING

THE PRIZE. UNKNOWN PERSONS BRIEFLY DETAINED TWO YOUNG WOMEN AFFILIATED WITH CONAVIGUA. IT IS UNCLEAR WHETHER THE MOTIVE WAS ROBBERY (VALUABLES WERE STOLEN) OR POLITICAL, BUT THE WOMEN APPEARED ON GUATEMALAN TELEVISION TO DENOUNCE THE INCIDENT AS A POLITICAL THREAT. [ ] WHOSE ORGANIZATION HAS CLOSE POLITICAL TIES TO CONAVIGUA, TOLD POLOFF ON OCTOBER 21 THAT THE WOMEN WERE HELD FOR 1-2 HOURS; THEIR CAPTORS REPORTEDLY ACCUSED THEM OF BEING GUERRILLAS.

8. MENCHU DEPARTED GUATEMALA ON OCTOBER 19 FOR THE MEXICAN PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION. HER DEPARTURE LEAVES GUATEMALANS WONDERING WHAT THE NOBEL PRIZE MEANS FOR RIGOBERTA AND FOR THEIR COUNTRY. CERJ PRESIDENT AND HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVIST AMILCAR MENDEZ TOLD POLOFF ON OCTOBER 19 THAT HE EXPECTS RIGOBERTA TO REMAIN ABROAD, BUT TO VISIT GUATEMALA MORE FREQUENTLY. HE BELIEVED SHE PREFERS TO REMAIN OVERSEAS EVEN THOUGH IT IS PROBABLY SAFE FOR HER TO RETURN TO GUATEMALA, WHERE MENDEZ AND OTHER ACTIVISTS OPERATE OPENLY. SHE PROMISED TO USE NOBEL FUNDS FOR SOCIAL WELFARE PROJECTS AND A NEW LOCAL FOUNDATION, BUT ONLY TIME WILL TELL.

11. AMERICA'S WATCH GUATEMALA REPRESENTATIVE ALSO SPECULATES THAT RIGOBERTA COULD HAVE AN IMPACT ON INDIVIDUAL HUMAN RIGHTS CASES. IN AN OCTOBER 21 CONVERSATION WITH POLOFF, HE BELIEVED RIGOBERTA MIGHT AFFECT SPECIFIC HUMAN RIGHTS CASES THROUGH HER ACCESS TO GOVERNMENT AND MEDIA CONTACTS OVERSEAS. COULD ALREADY HAVE BECOME AN INTERNATIONAL -- AS OPPOSED TO LOCAL -- CAUSE CELEBRE IF RIGOBERTA HAD PRESSURED THE GOG THROUGH HER INTERNATIONAL CONTACTS.

12. THOUGH THE GOG AND MILITARY EXPRESS CONCERN, WE BELIEVE IT UNLIKELY THAT MENCHU WILL RETURN TO GUATEMALA SOON TO BEGIN PARTICIPATE DIRECTLY IN LOCAL POLITICS. DESPITE HER INTERNATIONAL PRESTIGE, THE EXTENT TO WHICH SHE HAS A DOMESTIC FOLLOWING IS UNCLEAR. SOME 20,000 GUATEMALANS SHOWED UP FOR THE VICTORY PARADE AND CELEBRATION, BUT MENCHU IS AN INTERNATIONAL -- NOT A DOMESTIC -- PHENOMENON CREATED LARGELY BY HER GHOST-WRITTEN AUTOBIOGRAPHY, "YO, RIGOBERTA" ("I, RIGOBERTA"). SHE IS WELL-KNOWN IN GUATEMALA, BUT HAS VISITED HER HOME COUNTRY ONLY A FEW TIMES IN THE PAST DECADE FOR SEVERAL DAYS AT A TIME. HER AWARD RECOGNIZES AND IS A SOURCE OF PRIDE AMONG GUATEMALA'S INDIGENOUS POPULATION, BUT SHE HAS NO ORGANIZED DOMESTIC SUPPORT BASE. WE EXPECT TO SEE MORE OF RIGOBERTA IN GUATEMALA IN COMING YEARS, BUT ANTICIPATE THAT HER SOURCE OF STRENGTH WILL REMAIN OVERSEAS. END COMMENT.

SUBJECT: MYRNA MACK MURDER VERDICT EXPECTED IN NOVEMBER

REF: A) GT 011075L B) 010525

1. SUMMARY: THE NEW JUDGE ASSIGNED TO THE MYRNA MACK MURDER CASE HAS ACHIEVED CONSIDERABLE PROGRESS IN OBTAINING EVIDENCE DEEMED CRUCIAL BY MACK FAMILY LAWYERS. THE TRIAL OF MACK'S ACCUSED MURDER, NOEL DE JESUS BETETA ALVAREZ, SHOULD CONCLUDE IN NOVEMBER. A VERDICT IS EXPECTED IN LATE NOVEMBER, AFTER WHICH LENGTHY APPEALS WILL COMMENCE. END SUMMARY.

2. THE FOLLOWING UPDATE ON THE MYRNA MACK MURDER TRIAL DRAWS ON CONSUL GENERAL'S OCTOBER 22 CONVERSATION WITH [redacted] POLOFFS' OCTOBER 27 MEETING WITH THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE DIRECTOR, AND PRESS REPORTS. B6

JUDGE NO. 13 COOPERATIVE

3. LAWYERS AT THE ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE TOLD POLOFF ON OCTOBER 2 THAT THEIR GREATEST OBSTACLE IN THE MACK TRIAL HAD BEEN THE UNCOOPERATIVE ATTITUDE OF JUDGE OSCAR SACASTUME MARTINEZ (REFTEL B). SINCE THEN, SACASTUME HAS BEEN REPLACED -- AT HIS OWN REQUEST -- BY JUDGE CARMEN ELLGUTER. [redacted] TOLD CONCEN THAT THE NEW JUDGE IS FAR BETTER THAN SACASTUME. ELLGUTER IS MAKING GOOD FAITH B6 EFFORTS TO OBTAIN ALL RELEVANT EVIDENCE AND GET TO THE BOTTOM OF THE CASE.

EVIDENTIARY ISSUES

4. PROCEEDINGS IN OCTOBER ADDRESSED EVIDENTIARY ISSUES DISCUSSED IN REFTEL B. THOSE ISSUES INCLUDE:

-- DOCUMENT REQUESTS AND WRITTEN QUESTIONS: ON OCTOBER 21, GEN. JOSE LUIS QUILO REFUSED REQUESTS FOR DETAILED INFORMATION ON THE IDENTITY OF BETETA'S SUPERIORS AND THE INNER WORKINGS OF THE PRESIDENTIAL GUARD (ESTADO MAYOR). QUILO CLAIMED THE INFORMATION SOUGHT CONSTITUTED STATE SECRETS. ON OCTOBER 28, HOWEVER, FORMER PRESIDENTIAL SECURITY GUARD (ESTADO MAYOR) CHIEF GEN. EDGAR AUGOSTO GODOY GAITAN REPORTEDLY TESTIFIED THAT BETETA'S PRESIDENTIAL GUARD SUPERIORS WERE JUAN GUILLERMO OLIVA CARERRA AND JUAN VALENCIA OSORIO, CONTRADICTING WHAT BETETA HIMSELF SAID (REF B).

-- RECONSTRUCTION OF EVENTS: THE COURT SUPERVISED A MURDER RECONSTRUCTION ON THE EVENING OF OCTOBER 28. JUAN CARLOS MARROQUIN TEJEDA, A 28-YEAR-OLD EYEWITNESS TO THE KILLING, TESTIFIED THAT TWO MEN GRABBED MYRNA MACK AND THREW HER TO THE GROUND. HE DID NOT/NOT IDENTIFY THE ATTACKERS. HE SAW THE ASSAILANTS MOVING THEIR HANDS, BUT SAID HE DID NOT ACTUALLY SEE THEM STABBING HER. HOWEVER, HE CLAIMED THAT THE MEN HAD KNIVES. MACK WAS DEAD WHEN HER ATTACKERS RAN AWAY MOMENTS LATER. PORTIONS OF MARROQUIN'S DESCRIPTION WERE TELEVISED, INCLUDING SEVERAL REFERENCES TO WHAT "WE" SAW. THE IDENTITIES OF OTHER WITNESSES REMAINED UNCLEAR.

-- RESOLUTION OF CONTRADICTORY TESTIMONY: A "CAREO" TO RESOLVE INCONSISTENCIES BETWEEN STATEMENTS OF BETETA AND GEN. GODOY REVEALED NO NEW INFORMATION. [redacted] NONETHELESS TOLD [redacted] THAT GODOY WAS FULLY COOPERATIVE DURING SUBSEQUENT OCTOBER 28 TESTIMONY. B6

-- MEDICAL EVIDENCE: THE DOCTOR WHO TREATED BETETA'S HAND SAID THE INJURY OCCURRED IN JULY AND HEALED BY SEPTEMBER 1. THE MURDER OCCURRED SEPTEMBER 11. ACCORDING TO THE DOCTOR, BETETA NEVER LOST USE OF THE HAND.

BITS & PIECES

5. OTHER RECENT DEVELOPMENTS INCLUDE:

-- WITNESS RESETTLED: ONE OF TWO WITNESSES WHO IDENTIFIED BETETA AS ONE OF TWO MEN WAITING OUTSIDE MYRNA MACK'S OFFICE JUST BEFORE THE MURDER HAS RESETTLED TO AN UNSPECIFIED OVERSEAS LOCATION. THE OTHER WITNESS IS CONSIDERING RESETTLEMENT TOO.

-- NO DESERTION CHARGES: OCTOBER 22 PROCEEDINGS ESTABLISHED THAT THE ARMY NEVER CHARGED, SUSPENDED, OR FIRED BETETA FOR DESERTING POST AND FLEEING TO THE U.S. AFTER THE MACK MURDER. [redacted] SEES THE ABSENCE OF CHARGES AS CONFIRMING COMPLICITY OF BETETA'S SUPERIORS. GODOY TOLD REPORTERS ON OCTOBER 28 THAT HE HAD NEVER SEEN B6 ANYONE CHARGED WITH DESERTION IN HIS 29 YEARS OF MILITARY SERVICE. DESERTION IS ILLEGAL, GODOY EXPLAINED, BUT USUALLY NOT PROSECUTED.

-- ARREST ORDER NEVER EXECUTED: BETETA IS ALSO CHARGED WITH ASSAULTING A MINOR SEVERAL MONTHS BEFORE THE MACK MURDER. AUTHORITIES ISSUED AN ARREST WARRANT IN MARCH 1990, BUT BETETA WAS NEVER CAPTURED. BETETA'S ACCUSERS SEE THOSE CIRCUMSTANCES AS ADDITIONAL CONFIRMATION OF ASSISTANCE FROM HIGHER-UPS.

United States Department of State
Office of FOI, Privacy, & Classification Review
Review Authority: MOSKOWITZ, SAM
Date: 07/26/95
Case ID: 95122270

-- GOVERNMENT EMPLOYMENT: THE NATIONAL POLICE CONFIRMED THAT BETETA WORKED FOR 3 YEARS AT THE CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIONS DEPARTMENT (DIC) BEFORE JOINING THE PRESIDENTIAL GUARD. HE RESIGNED FROM THE POLICE IN 1987. IT IS NOT CLEAR WHEN HE BEGAN WORKING FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL GUARD.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

6. ACCORDING TO THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE, PREVIOUSLY-SCHEDULED TRIAL PROCEEDINGS WILL CONCLUDE DURING THE FIRST WEEK OF NOVEMBER. THE JUDGE MAY THEN DECIDE TO DECLARE A DISCRETIONARY 15-DAY PERIOD FOR ADDITIONAL INVESTIGATIONS TO BETTER UNDERSTAND ("MEJOR FALLAR") THE CASE. THAT 15-DAY PERIOD WOULD REPORTEDLY BEGIN ON OR ABOUT NOVEMBER 2, AND AN INITIAL VERDICT ANNOUNCED IN LATE NOVEMBER.

COMMENT: HURRY UP AND WAIT

7. THE MACK CASE IS NOT AS CLOSE TO A CONCLUSION AS THE COMMENTS ABOVE SUGGEST. GUATEMALAN LAW REQUIRES MANDATORY APPELLATE REVIEW OF ALL CRIMINAL VERDICTS. HENCE, A VERDICT IN LATE NOVEMBER WOULD NOT CONCLUDE THE CASE; RATHER, IT WOULD ONLY BE THE BEGINNING OF A LENGTHY APPEALS PROCESS EXTENDING WELL INTO 1993.

SUBJECT: SERRANO ADMINISTRATION LASHES OUT ON HUMAN RIGHTS: CRITICS BE DAMNED

REF: A) GT 01586; B) GT 11477

1. (C) SUMMARY: THE GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT HAS ADOPTED A NEW POLICY OF DIRECT CONFRONTATION WITH HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS AND CRITICS. IN LATE OCTOBER, THE GOG REPORTEDLY ESTABLISHED A SECRET, TOP-LEVEL SECURITY COUNCIL TASKED WITH PREPARING A "GLOBAL" STRATEGY FOR RESPONDING TO HUMAN RIGHTS CRITICISM. ON NOVEMBER 11-12, THE PRESIDENT AND DEFENSE MINISTER LASHED OUT AT ACTIVISTS ATTENDING A TORTURE CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON. THE DIRECTOR OF THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE WAS ACCUSED OF BEING A GUERRILLA SYMPATHIZER. THE PRESIDENT'S UNRESTRAINED ANGER AND CONCERN FOR REASSURING THE ARMY THAT HE WILL NOT ALLOW THE "SALVADORIZATION" OF GUATEMALA OR ITS OFFICER CORPS ACCOUNTS FOR THE NEW HARD-LINE ATTITUDE. END SUMMARY.

NEW SECURITY COUNCIL FORMED

2. (C) ACCORDING TO A GOG CIVILIAN OFFICIAL, THE GUATEMALAN EXECUTIVE BRANCH HAS FORMED A SECURITY COUNCIL ("GABINETE DE SEGURIDAD") TASKED WITH RESPONDING TO PERCEIVED ENEMIES ON HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES. THE COUNCIL, FORMED SECRETLY IN LATE OCTOBER, REPORTEDLY CONSISTS OF DEFENSE MINISTER JOSE DOMINGO GARCIA SAMAYOA, MILITARY INTELLIGENCE (D-2) CHIEF COL. OTTO PEREZ MOLINA, FOREIGN MINISTER GONZALO MENENDEZ PARK, INTERIOR MINISTER FRANCISCO PERDOMO, PRESIDENTIAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (COPREDEH) PRESIDENT BERNARDO

NEUMANN, AND PEACE NEGOTIATOR MANUEL CONDE. THE COUNCIL HELD ITS FIRST MEETINGS ON OCTOBER 27 AND NOVEMBER 6 AT THE FOREIGN MINISTRY. THE GROUP REPORTEDLY MET ON BOTH OCCASIONS AFTER THE DEFENSE MINISTER SUMMONED PARTICIPANTS ON ONE-HALF HOUR NOTICE.

3. (C) THE NOVEMBER 6 MEETING REPORTEDLY FOCUSSED ON A TORTURE CONFERENCE AND OTHER MID-NOVEMBER HUMAN RIGHTS MEETINGS IN WASHINGTON. TOP GOG OFFICIALS WERE DISTURBED THAT GUATEMALAN ACTIVISTS WOULD PROBABLY CRITICIZE THE GOVERNMENT'S HUMAN RIGHTS RECORD. MANY SERRANO ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS BELIEVE THE GOG HAS WON THE GUERRILLA WAR IN THE FIELD, BUT IS LOSING THE POLITICAL BATTLE WAGED OVERSEAS. THE NOVEMBER 6 MEETING ENDED WITH A DECISION TO DEVELOP A "GLOBAL STRATEGY" FOR DEALING WITH GOG CRITICS AND ACTIVISTS. WE UNDERSTAND THAT THERE WAS NO DISCUSSION OF CHARGES PENDING AGAINST AMILCAR MENDEZ (REFTEL A).

DEFENSE MINISTER ATTACKS ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE

4. (U) ON NOVEMBER 11, THE DEFENSE MINISTER ATTACKED THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE WHILE THE WASHINGTON MEETINGS WERE UNDERWAY. AFTER CRITICIZING UNSPECIFIED GROUPS INTENT ON DESTROYING GUATEMALA'S INTERNATIONAL IMAGE AND DESTABILIZING THE COUNTRY, GARCIA ACCUSED THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE DIRECTOR OF HAVING GUERRILLA TIES. THE MINISTER THEN FAULTED OCHAETA, CERJ LEADER AMILCAR MENDEZ, AND CIEPRODH HEAD FACTOR MENDEZ FOR ATTENDING THE TORTURE CONFERENCE, WHICH GARCIA CHARACTERIZED AS AN OPPOSITION EFFORT TO SEEK INTERNATIONAL SANCTIONS AGAINST GUATEMALA. GARCIA BELIEVED SANCTIONS WOULD ONLY HARM THE COUNTRY BY CREATING UNEMPLOYMENT AND DESTABILIZATION.

THE ARCHBISHOP RESPONDS

5. (U) ARCHBISHOP PROSPERO PENADOS DEL BARRIO, BISHOP JUAN GERARDI, AND OCHAETA CALLED A PRESS CONFERENCE LATER THAT DAY TO DENY THE MINISTER'S CLAIMS. "WE ARE NOT HIDING OR COVERING UP ANYTHING, NOR ARE WE CONSPIRING NOR DESTABILIZING," THE ARCHBISHOP SAID, "BECAUSE ALL OUR HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE IS DOING IS GIVING GUATEMALANS WITH LIMITED RESOURCES A PROTECTION AND DEFENSE MECHANISM." OCHAETA SPECIFICALLY DENIED ANY GUERRILLA AFFILIATION. HE ACCUSED THE FOREIGN MINISTRY OF PROVIDING THE DEFENSE MINISTRY WITH FALSE INFORMATION ABOUT THE TORTURE CONFERENCE. ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS, OCHAETA SAID THAT THE WASHINGTON CONFERENCE WOULD DISCUSS TORTURE, BUT THAT THERE WERE NO FORMAL COMPLAINTS OF TORTURE PENDING IN GUATEMALA.

SERRANO JUMPS IN

6. (U) PRESIDENT SERRANO REFUSED TO LET THE MATTER DROP. ON NOVEMBER 12, THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE DECLARED HIS "UNCONDITIONAL SUPPORT" FOR THE DEFENSE MINISTER'S STATEMENT THE PREVIOUS DAY. "WE KNOW BETTER THAN THE ARCHBISHOP IMAGINES HOW MR. OCHAETA WORKS," SAID SERRANO. "HE WILL BE QUICKLY SURPISED WITH THE THINGS WE WILL SHOW (THE ARCHBISHOP) ABOUT (OCHAETA'S) ACTIVITIES." THE PRESIDENT ALSO ACCUSED THE ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE OF OBSTRUCTING JUSTICE. THE PRESIDENT BLAMED THE ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE FOR SPIRITING MARITZA URRUTIA OUT OF THE COUNTRY AT NIGHT AND DELIBERATELY PREVENTING HER FROM PROVIDING RELEVANT FACTS TO THE COURTS.

COOING OR COUPING?

7. (U) AT THE SAME NOVEMBER 12 PRESS CONFERENCE, SERRANO CLAIMED THAT UNSPECIFIED GROUPS ARE TRYING TO DESTABILIZE HIS GOVERNMENT AND PROMPT A COUP. HE CLAIMED TO KNOW WHO WAS BEHIND THOSE EFFORTS, BUT DECLINED TO NAME THEM FOR FEAR OF DERAILING PENDING INVESTIGATIONS. "UNFORTUNATELY," SERRANO OBSERVED, "THE BELIZE CASE HAS BEEN MANIPULATED BY A GROUP OF FRUSTRATED POLITICIANS AND EX-COUP PARTICIPANTS."

8. (C) SERRANO DID NOT LINK ONGOING COUP RUMORS (REFTEL B) WITH RENEWED GOVERNMENT PRESSURE AGAINST HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS. WE HEAR SUCH LINKAGE, HOWEVER, IN CONVERSATIONS WITH CONTACTS. ONE OFFICIAL SPECULATED THAT THE GOVERNMENT WAS TURNING UP THE HEAT ON ACTIVISTS TO PLACATE MID-LEVEL ARMY OFFICERS FEARFUL OF THE "SALVADORIZATION" OF THE GUATEMALAN ARMY AFTER A PEACE AGREEMENT. THOSE OFFICERS ARE REPORTEDLY ALARMED BY THE POSSIBILITY THAT A GUATEMALAN PEACE ACCORD COULD

PROMPT DISMISSAL OF MANY OFFICERS. THEY ARE ALSO ENRAGED OVER RIGOBERTA MENCHU'S RECENT RECEIPT OF THE NOBEL PEACE PRIZE. GUSTAVO ANZUETO VIELMAN, A MINISTER IN THE CABINET OF FORMER PRESIDENT ARANA, AND OTHER RIGHT-WING CIVILIANS ACTIVE IN PAST COUP ATTEMPTS, HAVE REPORTEDLY APPROACHED MID-LEVEL OFFICERS ABOUT THE POSSIBILITY OF STAGING A COUP. THE PLOTTERS ARE FAR FROM HAVING SUFFICIENT SUPPORT TO LAUNCH A COUP ATTEMPT. THE MINISTER OF DEFENSE AND OTHER SENIOR OFFICERS STEADFASTLY OPPOSE SUCH DRASTIC MEASURES.

SERRANO SEETHING, AND PROTECTING HIS BASE

9. (C) COMMENTS: THE GOG STATEMENTS SUMMARIZED ABOVE STRIKE US AS PEEVISH, ILL-TIMED AND DAMAGING. SERRANO'S AND THE MILITARY'S FRUSTRATION AND ANGER ABOUT HUMAN RIGHTS CRITICS IS WELL-DOCUMENTED. SEPTEL REPORTS IN DEPTH SERRANO CONVERSATION WITH AMBASSADOR MICHEL AND CHARGE NOVEMBER 12, DURING WHICH SERRANO COMPLAINED BITTERLY OVER NOT RECEIVING CREDIT FOR HIS ADMINISTRATION'S HUMAN RIGHTS ACHIEVEMENTS, SAID HE WAS FED UP WITH DEFAMATORY ALLEGATIONS BY HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS AND WOULD NO LONGER TURN THE OTHER CHEEK. HE NOTED THAT ONLY A FEW HOURS BEFORE HE HAD DENOUNCED A

NUMBER OF HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS WHO WERE NOT ONLY GUILTY OF CALUMNIES BUT EVEN CRIMES, CITING [redacted] (THE LATTER FOR OBSTRUCTING JUSTICE IN THE [redacted] CASE.) SERRANO NOTED THAT THE MILITARY HAVE BEEN MALIGNED LONG ENOUGH -- THEY HAVE STOICALLY RECEIVED ALL MANNER OF UNFOUNDED ALLEGATIONS -- BUT

ENOUGH IS ENOUGH. HE WAS NOW GOING TO DEFEND THE RECORD OF THE MILITARY AND GIVE IRRESPONSIBLE HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS A PIECE OF HIS MIND.

10. (C) SERRANO APPEARS TO US TO BE QUITE FIRM IN THE SADDLE, ALTHOUGH THE RECENT SCARE THAT THE BELIZE ISSUE COULD FESTER AND BE EXPLOITED TO ISOLATE HIM AND ERODE HIS AUTHORITY WAS REAL. MID-LEVEL ARMY MALAISE IS GENUINE AS WELL, AS RECENT DAO REPORTING INDICATES. THE MILITARY ARE ALSO HAUNTED BY THE SPECTRE OF "SALVADORIZATION" -- SERRANO REFERRED EXTENSIVELY IN CONVERSATION WITH CHARGE AND MICHEL TO THE IMPACT OF MILITARY-OFFICER PURGES IN EL SALVADOR ON THE THINKING WITHIN THE GUATEMALAN ARMY. WE BELIEVE SERRANO BY GOING ON A VERBAL OFFENSIVE AGAINST HUMAN RIGHTS CRITICS IS NOT ONLY DOING WHAT HE ENJOYS, HE IS ALSO

REASSURING THE MILITARY THAT THEY WILL NOT RECEIVE TREATMENT LIKE THAT THEY FEAR WILL BE METED OUT TO THEIR SALVADORAN BROTHERS.

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT

2. SUMMARY: DURING WIDE-RANGING DISCUSSION NOV 12 AT LUNCHEON IN HONOR OF USAID AA MICHEL, HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN SAW A TOUGHER GOG POLICY AHEAD ON HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES, AS WELL AS SERIOUS POTENTIAL PROBLEMS FOR THE PLANNED RETURN OF GUATEMALAN REFUGEES FROM MEXICO. GOG CHIEF PEACE NEGOTIATOR CONDE DID NOT SEE MAJOR BREAKTHROUGH IN THE TALKS AS LIKELY SOON AND SAID THE URNG WOULD LIKE A SALVADOR-TYPE SETTLEMENT WHICH WOULD BE ENTIRELY UNJUSTIFIED. CONGRESS PRESIDENT MULET SAID CHANGES IN LABOR CODE WERE A MAJOR ACCOMPLISHMENT, REPORTED THAT THE CONGRESS HAD ELECTED ITS NEW OFFICERS FOR NEXT YEAR, AND EXPRESSED VIEW THAT CONGRESS WOULD NOT BE CALLED UPON TO DEAL WITH BELIZE ISSUE BEFORE JANUARY. (SERRANO TOLD CHARGE NEXT DAY THAT [redacted] AGREED ON A STRATEGY TO FINISH UP WITH BELIZE BY NOVEMBER 1°.)

END SUMMARY

3. CHARGE HOSTED A LUNCHEON AT HIS RESIDENCE NOV 12 IN HONOR OF ASSISTANT ADMINISTRATOR (AND FORMER US AMBASSADOR TO GUATEMALA) JIM MICHEL FOR PRESIDENT OF CONGRESS EDMUND MULET, HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO AND GOG CHIEF PEACE NEGOTIATOR MANUEL CONDE. USAID DEPUTY MISSION DIRECTOR STEVE WINGERT, AIDOFF BAMBI ARELLANO, AND POLCOUNS ALSO ATTENDED.

4. THE OMBUDSMAN NOTED THAT THE GOVERNMENT'S TONE WAS GETTING NOTICEABLY HARSHER ON HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES, REFLECTING ITS FRUSTRATIONS AT NOT BEING GIVEN THE CREDIT IT FEELS IT DESERVES FOR EFFORTS TO END HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES AND HALT IMPUNITY. IT HAD PREVIOUSLY PUT SHOTS ACROSS THE BOWS OF THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE AND THE U.S. EMBASSY IN THE CASE OF MARITZA URRUTIA. (COMMENT: WE WOULD ADD TO THIS LIST THE FOREIGN MINISTER'S FRANTIC INSISTENCE THAT THE USG NOT ATTEND A CAPITOL HILL DISCUSSION OF HUMAN RIGHTS BECAUSE IT INCLUDED SPONSORS OF A SYMPOSIUM ON TORTURE IN GUATEMALA.) NOW THE MOD WAS PUBLICLY CHARGING RONALTH OCHAETA OF THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE, FACTOR MENDEZ OF CIPRODH AND GERJ LEADER AMILCAR MENDEZ OF "RESPONDING TO THE GOALS OF THE URNG." IN DE LEON CARPIO'S VIEW, THIS LASHING OUT INDISCRIMINANTLY AT AN INCREASING NUMBER OF HUMAN RIGHTS CRITICS WOULD UNDERMINE THE GOG'S CREDIBILITY AND DENY IT THE CREDIT FOR THE HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRESS IT HAD MADE. IN ANY EVENT, NOW WAS NOT A GOOD TIME IN GUATEMALA TO STICK ONE'S HEAD UP ON HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES. (LATER IN THE DAY, PAO WAS TOLD THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD ISSUED AN ARREST ORDER FOR AMILCAR MENDEZ FOR ALLEGED INVOLVEMENT IN PLANTING BOMBS, REPORTED SEPTEL).

REFUGEE RETURN DELAYED AND POLITICIZED

5. THE OMBUDSMAN NOTED THAT HIS OFFICE WILL HAVE A MAJOR ROLE IN VERIFICATION OF THE AGREEMENT ON THE RETURN OF GUATEMALAN REFUGEES FROM MEXICO. PLANS ARE WELL ADVANCED TO OPEN A HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE IN IXCAN AND ESTABLISH A MOBILE HUMAN RIGHTS GROUP TO MONITOR THE CONDITIONS OF THE RETURN. DE LEON CARPIO REPORTED THAT DIFFICULTIES WERE INCREASING FOR THE PLANNED RETURN OF REFUGEES, AND THAT THE REPATRIATIONS HAD BEEN PUT OFF UNTIL JANUARY.

6. CONDE ALSO EXPRESSED CONCERN, NOTING THE POLITICAL HAND OF THE URNG BEHIND THE UNACCEPTABLE REQUEST THAT THE RETURNEES CARAVAN AROUND THE COUNTRY AND THEN SETTLE INITIALLY IN TWO LARGE CAMPS WHICH WOULD BECOME POLITICAL HOTBEDS. NEITHER SEEMED UNDULY CONCERNED ABOUT LAND DISPUTES AS A MAJOR PROBLEM, AND CONDE

UNCLASSIFIED

INSISTED THAT SUFFICIENT FUNDS WERE AVAILABLE TO [illegible] THE RESETTLEMENT RIGHT. INDEED, CONCERN WAS EXPRESSED ABOUT JEALOUSIES BEING AROUSED AMONG THEIR LESS FORTUNATE COUSINS WHO REMAINED IN GUATEMALA AND THEREFORE WERE NOT RECEIVING ASSISTANCE.

7. CONDE AND DE LEON CARPIO AGREED THAT IT APPEARED THE URNG WOULD TRY TO EXPLOIT AND DISRUPT THE RETURN TO SHOW IT WAS INDISPENSABLE TO ANY AGREEMENT. CONDE WAS INSISTENT THAT NATIONAL AS WELL AS INTERNATIONAL REPRESENTATIVES WOULD BE INCLUDED IN ALL VERIFICATION TEAMS TO MAKE THE GOG'S AUTHORITY CLEAR. HE EXPRESSED REGRET THAT THE URNG WAS SEEKING TO PROFIT POLITICALLY ON THE MISERY OF THE REFUGEES RATHER THAN TREATING THE RESETTLEMENT IN PURELY HUMANITARIAN TERMS (COMMENT: WHILE TRUE, THE GOG IS ALSO SEEKING TO EXPLOIT THE REFUGEE AGREEMENT AS A MAJOR DEFEAT FOR THE URNG.)

PEACE NOT AROUND THE CORNER

8. CONDE TOOK A SOMEWHAT MORE PESSIMISTIC TONE THAN THAT REPORTED REFTEL, SAYING THAT THE URNG HAD NOT PRESENTED NEW PROPOSALS TO BISHOP QUEZADA DURING HIS LATEST TRIP TO MEXICO, BUT RATHER HAD GIVEN HIM A LONG PAPER SEEKING TO JUSTIFY ITS POSITION ON A HUMAN RIGHTS ACCORD. CONDE DID SAY THAT THE URNG HAD INDICATED A WILLINGNESS TO AGREE TO THE COMMISSION ON THE PAST BEGINNING ITS WORK "WHEN CONVENIENT TO THE PARTIES." HE NOTED THAT HE WOULD BE MEETING WITH PRESIDENT SERRANO LATER NOV 12 TO CONSIDER NEXT STEPS.

9. CONDE UNSURPRISINGLY LAID THE FULL RESPONSIBILITY FOR FAILURE TO AGREE ON THE URNG, AND SAID HE DID NOT YET SEE SIGNS OF WILLINGNESS TO MOVE AHEAD ON THEIR PART. CONDE CONSIDERED THE COMANDANTES WERE STILL FOCUSING ON FORCING CHANGES WHILE THE FIGHTING CONTINUES RATHER THAN ON ENDING IT. THEY STILL HOPED FOR A SALVADOR-TYPE SETTLEMENT, WHICH WOULD BE ENTIRELY UNJUSTIFIED -- GUATEMALA HAD ALREADY ADOPTED MAJOR CHANGES SUCH AS A HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN AND CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM. IT DID NOT NEED GUERRILLA PRESSURES TO DO SO. MOREOVER, UNLIKE SALVADOR, NO ONE (IMPORTANT) OTHER THAN THE GUERRILLAS AND THE ARMY IS AFFECTED BY THE CONFLICT, SO THERE IS NO MAJOR PUBLIC PRESSURE IN THE COUNTRY TO GRANT MAJOR CONCESSIONS TO END THE WAR.

CONGRESS: REASON FOR SATISFACTION

10. AMBASSADOR MICHEL CONGRATULATED CONGRESS PRESIDENT MULET ON THE MANY ACHIEVEMENTS DURING HIS TERM: PASSAGE OF TAX REFORM, THE CRIMINAL PROCEDURE CODE REFORM, THE COUNTERNARCOTICS LAW AND NOW THE MAJOR CHANGES TO THE LABOR CODE. MULET SAID HE EXPECTED THE CRIMINAL PROCEDURE CODE REFORM TO BE PUBLISHED IN THE OFFICIAL REGISTER DECEMBER 1, WHICH WOULD BRING IT INTO EFFECT

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

DECEMBER 1, 1993. MULET NOTED THAT THE LABOR CODE CHANGES WERE STILL UNDERGOING GRAMMATICAL AND TECHNICAL REVIEW BEFORE HE TRANSMITS THEM TO THE PRESIDENT, BUT ALL CONGRESSIONAL VOTES HAD BEEN COMPLETED. THEY WOULD GO INTO EFFECT WHEN PUBLISHED IN THE OFFICIAL REGISTER. HE CONSIDERED THE LABOR CHANGES OF FAR-REACHING SIGNIFICANCE, WHICH HE HOPED WOULD BE ACKNOWLEDGED IN THE UNITED STATES. MICHEL AGREED, BUT ALSO POINTED OUT THE URGENCY OF ADEQUATE ENFORCEMENT.

11. MULET NOTED THAT THE CONGRESS HAD JUST ELECTED ITS OFFICERS FOR 1994. MULET WILL BE SUCCEEDED BY CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT JOSE FERNANDO LUBO DUBON AS PART OF THE DEAL WITHIN THE "HOLY TRINITY". THE THREE VICE PRESIDENTS AND EIGHT SECRETARIES WILL BE DIVIDED UP AMONG DEPUTIES FROM THE THREE PARTIES: MAS-5, DC-2 AND UCN-4. THE CONGRESS WILL CONTINUE ITS WORK UNTIL IT ADJOURNS DECEMBER 10 UNDER THE CURRENT LEADERSHIP.

12. MULET NOTED THAT CONGRESS WOULD NOT NEED TO ADDRESS THE BELIZE ISSUE BEFORE NEXT YEAR, PROBABLY IN JANUARY. THE CHALLENGERS OF THE GOVERNMENT'S BELIZE POLICY HAD FILED REQUESTS FOR "CLARIFICATION AND ELABORATION" WITH THE CONSTITUTIONAL COURT, WHICH WOULD PROBABLY NOT BE RULED ON IN TIME TO PRESENT THE BELIZE ISSUE TO CONGRESS THIS YEAR. IN VIEW OF THE GOVERNMENT'S CONTINUING ALLIANCE WITH THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS AND THE UCN, NO PROBLEMS WERE ANTICIPATED IN DEALING WITH THE ISSUE. (HOWEVER, SERRANO TOLD CHARGE NOVEMBER 13 THAT THE CHALLENGERS FAILED TO FILE THEIR APPEALS BY THE DEADLINE ON THURSDAY AND [redacted] THAT CONGRESS COULD PROBABLY VOTE ON THE BELIZE ISSUE NOVEMBER 17 OR 18, WITH VICTORY VIRTUALLY ASSURED BY THE UCN-DC-MAS "TRIPLE ALLIANCE.")

(GT #189391) MENCHU MET WITH PRESIDENT SERRANO AT AN AWKWARD, TELEVISED GATHERING JUST PRIOR TO HER OCTOBER 19 DEPARTURE FOR MEXICO CITY. (GT #11134; GT #11247) THE U.S. AMBASSADOR READ A CONGRATULATORY STATEMENT ON NATIONAL TELEVISION. (GT #189866) THE GOVERNMENT AND URNG WAGED PARALLEL PROPAGANDA CAMPAIGNS EMPHASIZING

3. (U) UNITED NATIONS HUMAN RIGHTS EXPERT CHRISTIAN TOMUSCHAT MADE HIS FIFTH VISIT TO GUATEMALA BETWEEN SEPTEMBER 26 AND OCTOBER 6. TOMUSCHAT MET WITH THE PRESIDENT, U.S. AMBASSADOR (GT #184271), HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, DEFENSE MINISTER, INTERIOR MINISTER, ATTORNEY GENERAL, SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT, CONGRESS PRESIDENT, ARCHBISHOP, SAN CARLOS UNIVERSITY RECTOR, AND VARIOUS POPULAR GROUPS AND LEADERS. HE TRAVELLED TO SQUATTER SETTLEMENTS IN THE CAPITAL AND A REFUGEE RECEPTION CENTER IN HUEHUETENANGO. AT AN OCTOBER 6 PRESS CONFERENCE, TOMUSCHAT NOTED MODERATE IMPROVEMENT IN THE GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION. HE VOICED CONCERN, HOWEVER, ABOUT THE LACK OF PROGRESS IN PROMINENT CASES, INCLUDING THE MYRNA MACK, JOSE MERIDA ESCOBAR, AND ESCUINTLA/TAXISCO MURDERS. HE CAST DOUBT ON GOVERNMENT CLAIMS THAT CIVIL SELF DEFENSE PATROLS (PACS) ARE TRULY VOLUNTARY, AND CRITICIZED ARMY RECRUITMENT PROCEDURES FOR DISCRIMINATING AGAINST INDIGENOUS PEOPLE. (GT #188421)

4. (LOU) PRESIDENT SERRANO RESPONDED PUBLICLY TO THAT AND OTHER CRITICISM WITH INCREASING DEFENSIVENESS. SERRANO CLAIMED FOR DOMESTIC CONSUMPTION THAT FOREIGN COMPLAINTS OVER HUMAN RIGHTS IN GUATEMALA ARE REALLY INTENDED TO PREVENT GUATEMALAN PRODUCTS FROM GAINING ACCESS TO FOREIGN MARKETS. HE ACCUSED ACTIVISTS OF INTENTIONALLY DISTORTING GUATEMALA'S HUMAN RIGHTS RECORD TO SERVE POLITICAL PURPOSES. (GT #11322)

27. (LOU) PEACE TALKS: THE PEACE TALKS REMAINED FOCUSED ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS AGENDA ITEM, AS LITTLE FORWARD PROGRESS WAS MADE IN SEPTEMBER AND OCTOBER. NOVEMBER SAW THE TWO SIDES DRAW CLOSER TOGETHER, RAISING THE PROSPECTS OF AN EVENTUAL HUMAN RIGHTS ACCORD. NONETHELESS, SERIOUS DIFFICULTIES REMAIN AND IT IS UNCLEAR AS OF THIS WRITING WHETHER THE TWO SIDES WILL MAKE THE NECESSARY COMPROMISES. EVEN IF THEY DO, MANY MORE MONTHS OF NEGOTIATING BUT A MINIMUM WILL BE NECESSARY BEFORE THE GOG AND URNG CAN BE EXPECTED TO SIGN A DEFINITIVE PEACE ACCORD. THE MINI-ACCORD DOES NOT BAR RE-ARMING EXISTING PACS, BUT THE UNVERIFIED COMPLAINTS -- IF ACCURATE -- CALL INTO QUESTION THE GOVERNMENT'S GOOD FAITH IN RESOLVING THE PAC PROBLEM.

29. (U) ORPA INTERNAL DIVISIONS: PETER "NEWSWEEK" INTERVIEWED ORPA COMMANDER GASPER ILOM. A PREVIOUSLY-UNKNOWN ORPA FACTION CALLING ITSELF THE NATIONAL ARMED REVOLUTIONARY UNIT ("UNIDAD REVOLUCIONARIA NACIONAL ARMADA") CRITICIZED ILOM'S LAVISH OVERSEAS LIFESTYLE AND DECLARED ITS OPPOSITION TO THE PEACE PROCESS. MOST OBSERVERS BELIEVED GUATEMALAN ARMY INTELLIGENCE WAS BEHIND THE NEW "FRONT." (GT #09677)

30. (U) GOG-URNG CLASHES: DURING THE NIGHT OF SEPTEMBER 12, ARMY AND GUERRILLA FORCES CLASHED NEAR THE PRESIDENTIAL RETREAT NEAR SANTO TOMAS. THE ARMY DENIED GUERRILLA CLAIMS THAT 12 GOG TROOPS WERE KILLED. A SEPTEMBER 13 ARMED CLASH NEAR PALIN ENDED IN THREE GUERRILLA DEATHS, INCLUDING THAT OF A JAVIER TABRIZ FRONT LEADER IDENTIFIED AS "GABRIEL." THE FOLLOWING WEEK, ARMY SPOKESMAN CLAIMED GOG SOLDIERS KILLED AT LEAST 10 FAR AND ORPA GUERRILLAS IN ESCUINTLA AND QUICHE. THE ARMY ALSO REPORTED CAPTURING REBEL CACHES IN SANTA LUCIA COTZUMALGUAPA AND CHIMALTENANGO. GUERRILLA SPOKESMEN DISPUTED THOSE CLAIMS. ON OCTOBER 5, THE DEFENSE MINISTER ACCUSED GUERRILLAS IN SAYAXCHE, PETEN OF BLOCKING TRAFFIC, DESTROYING 6,000 GALLONS OF PETROLEUM, RAPING 2 WOMEN, AND PLANTING A LAND MINE THAT WOUNDED A CIVILIAN. ON OCTOBER 19-21, GUERRILLA FORCES REPORTEDLY ATTACKED A MILITARY INSTALLATION IN CUARTO PUEBLO, IXCAN, QUICHE.

43. GLUE LAW: PAN CONGRESSMAN RAFEAL BARRIOS PLEDGED IN OCTOBER TO SPONSOR LEGISLATION DESIGNED TO PREVENT GLUE-SNIFFING BY STREET CHILDREN. CASA ALIANZA ORIGINALLY PROPOSED THE NEW LAW, WHICH IS CURRENTLY BEING REVIEWED BY GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND ACTIVISTS. THE LAW WOULD FORCE GLUE MANUFACTURERS TO INCLUDE IN GLUE PRODUCTS MUSTARD OIL, WHICH CAUSES NAUSEA -- BUT NO PERMANENT DAMAGE -- WHEN INHALED. CASA ALIANZA HOPE INCLUDING MUSTARD OIL WILL DETER CHILDREN FROM SNIFFING GLUE. THE PROPOSED LAW WOULD ALSO MAKE SUBSTANCE ABUSE TREATMENT AVAILABLE TO CHILDREN.

27. (LOU) PEACE TALKS: THE PEACE TALKS REMAINED FOCUSED ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS AGENDA ITEM, AS LITTLE FORWARD PROGRESS WAS MADE IN SEPTEMBER AND OCTOBER. NOVEMBER SAW THE TWO SIDES DRAW CLOSER TOGETHER, RAISING THE PROSPECTS OF AN EVENTUAL HUMAN RIGHTS ACCORD. NONETHELESS, SERIOUS DIFFICULTIES REMAIN AND IT IS UNCLEAR AS OF THIS WRITING WHETHER THE TWO SIDES WILL MAKE THE NECESSARY COMPROMISES. EVEN IF THEY DO, MANY MORE MONTHS OF NEGOTIATING (AT A MINIMUM) WILL BE NECESSARY BEFORE THE GOG AND URNG CAN BE EXPECTED TO SIGN A DEFINITIVE PEACE ACCORD. (SEE ALSO GT 011470; [redacted]

28. (U) ARMS TO CIVIL PATROLS: IN AUGUST, THE GOG AND URNG SIGNED A MINI-ACCORD ON CIVIL PATROLS (PACS) UNDER WHICH THE GOVERNMENT AGREED NOT TO ESTABLISH NEW PACS AND THE GUERRILLAS AGREED NOT TO COMMENCE OPERATIONS IN NEW AREAS (REFTEL D). SINCE THAT AGREEMENT, THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN HAS REPORTEDLY RECEIVED COMPLAINTS THAT THE GOG HAS PROVIDED ADDITIONAL ARMS TO PACS IN HUEHUETENANGO AND QUICHE. THE MINI-ACCORD DOES NOT BAR RE-ARMING EXISTING PACS, BUT THE UNVERIFIED COMPLAINTS -- IF ACCURATE -- CALL INTO QUESTION THE GOVERNMENT'S GOOD FAITH IN RESOLVING THE PAC PROBLEM.

29. (U) ORPA INTERNAL DIVISIONS: AFTER "NEWSWEEK"

INTERVIEWED ORPA COMMANDER GASPER ILOM, A PREVIOUSLY-UNKNOWN ORPA FACTION CALLING ITSELF THE NATIONAL ARMED REVOLUTIONARY UNIT ("UNIDAD REVOLUCIONARIA NACIONAL ARMADA") CRITICIZED ILOM'S LAVISH OVERSEAS LIFESTYLE AND DECLARED ITS OPPOSITION TO THE PEACE PROCESS. MOST OBSERVERS BELIEVED GUATEMALAN ARMY INTELLIGENCE WAS BEHIND THE NEW "FRONT." (GT 09677)

30. (U) GOG-URNG CLASHES: DURING THE NIGHT OF SEPTEMBER 12, ARMY AND GUERRILLA FORCES CLASHED NEAR THE PRESIDENTIAL RETREAT NEAR SANTO TOMAS. THE ARMY DENIED GUERRILLA CLAIMS THAT 12 GOG TROOPS WERE KILLED. A SEPTEMBER 13 ARMED CLASH NEAR PALIN ENDED IN [redacted]

[redacted]

THREE GUERRILLA DEATHS, INCLUDING THAT OF A JAVIER TAMBRIZ FRONT LEADER IDENTIFIED AS "GABRIEL." THE FOLLOWING WEEK, ARMY SPOKESMAN CLAIMED GOG SOLDIERS KILLED AT LEAST 10 FAR AND ORPA GUERRILLAS IN ESCUINTLA AND QUICHE. THE ARMY ALSO REPORTED CAPTURING REBEL CACHES IN SANTA LUCIA COTZUMALGUAPA AND CHIMALTENANGO. GUERRILLA SPOKESMEN DISPUTED THOSE CLAIMS. ON OCTOBER 5, THE DEFENSE MINISTER ACCUSED GUERRILLAS IN SAYAXCHE, PETEN OF BLOCKING TRAFFIC, DESTROYING 6,000 GALLONS OF PETROLEUM, RAPING 2 WOMEN, AND PLANTING A LAND MINE THAT WOUNDED A CIVILIAN. ON OCTOBER 19-21, GUERRILLA FORCES REPORTEDLY ATTACKED A MILITARY INSTALLATION IN CUARTO PUEBLO, IXCAN, QUICHE.

31. (U) URNG SABOTAGE: GUERRILLAS CONTINUED DESTROYING ELECTRIC TOWERS. IN LATE OCTOBER, ELECTRIC LINES BETWEEN TOTONICAPAN AND SOLOLA, TOTONICAPAN AND QUICHE, AND CHIMALTENANGO AND SOLOLA WERE SABOTAGED.

SUBJECT: GOG TO WELCOME CONGRESSMAN KOSTMAYER'S DELEGATION

REF: GUATEMALA 011986

1. CONFIDENTIAL -- ENTIRE TEXT.

2. ON THE AFTERNOON OF NOVEMBER 19, GUATEMALAN FOREIGN MINISTER GONZALO MENENDEZ PARK REQUESTED A MEETING WITH CHARGE TO DISCUSS THE VISIT OF REP. KOSTMAYER AS THE HEAD OF A SEVEN-PERSON DELEGATION. FONMIN WAS AWARE THAT THEY WOULD BE ACCOMPANYING CERJ LEADER ANILCAR MENDEZ.

3. THE FOREIGN MINISTER CONFIRMED GOG PLANS TO ARREST MENDEZ. MENENDEZ THEN NOTED THAT FIGHTING IMPUNITY IS AMONG THE SERRANO ADMINISTRATION'S TOP PRIORITIES. UNDER THOSE CIRCUMSTANCES, THE GOVERNMENT FEELS COMPELLED TO COMPLY WITH THE ARREST ORDER AND DETAIN THE CERJ LEADER.

4. MENENDEZ SAID THE GOG WOULD WELCOME CONGRESSMAN KOSTMEYER AND THE OTHER VISITORS, BUT HOPED THEY WOULD NOT TRY TO PREVENT THE ARREST OF MENDEZ. THE GUATEMALAN EMBASSY IN WASHINGTON HAS RECEIVED THE DELEGATION'S REQUEST FOR MEETINGS WITH THE PRESIDENT, DEFENSE MINISTER, COPREDEH PRESIDENT, SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT, AND HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN. GE ARE AWARE FROM ARA/CEN OF THE ADDITIONAL REQUEST TO SEE THE ACTING ATTORNEY GENERAL.) COPREDEH PRESIDENT BERNARDO NEUMANN IS MAKING THE APPOINTMENTS FOR CHARGE, KOSTMAYER AND THE DELEGATION AND WILL FORWARD A TENTATIVE SCHEDULE TO CHARGE ASAP. GOG OFFICIALS WILL BE PREPARED TO DISCUSS HUMAN RIGHTS CASES AND ISSUES.

5. CHARGE ALSO CALLED ON VICE PRESIDENT GUSTAVO ESPINA

GUATEM 12293 2801222 018867 SB19512

SALGUERO FOR AN HOUR. ESPINA TOLD CHARGE THAT MENDEZ HAS CHARGES PENDING AGAINST HIM FOR SERIOUS CRIMES. PREVIOUSLY GUATEMALA HAD ESTABLISHED A REPUTATION AS A LAWLESS SOCIETY AND THE SERRANO GOVERNMENT HAS DETERMINED TO END THAT. HOW COULD THE GOVERNMENT RETAIN MORAL AUTHORITY IF IT DOES NOT COMPLY WITH JUDICIAL ORDERS? THE GOG CANNOT BE GUIDED BY THE POLITICAL IMPACT ELSEWHERE. ESPINA CONFIRMED ANNOUNCEMENT OF EARLIER THAT DAY OF GOG INTENTION TO FILE FOR MENDEZ'S EXTRADITION FROM THE U.S. THE VICE PRESIDENT SAID THE EXTRADITION REQUEST SEEKS MENDEZ'S TRIAL IN GUATEMALA ON CHARGES DESCRIBED IN THE ARREST ORDER. THE NOVEMBER 19 EDITION OF THE AFTERNOON DAILY NEWSPAPER "LA HORA" REPORTED THAT ACTING ATTORNEY GENERAL EDGAR TUNA VALLADARES ANNOUNCED THE EXTRADITION REQUEST AT A NEWS CONFERENCE EARLIER IN THE DAY.

6. COPREDEH PRESIDENT BERNARDO NEUMANN ADVISED CHARGE DURING EVENING OF NOVEMBER 19 THAT HE HAD DISPATCHED TWO ATTORNEYS TO QUICHE TO LEARN AS MUCH AS THEY COULD ABOUT THE STATUS OF THE CASE. HE SAID THAT HE HOPED HE COULD FIND A WAY TO AVOID AN ARREST AT THE AIRPORT AND WOULD LOOK INTO THE POSSIBILITY OF MENDEZ VOLUNTARILY TURNING HIMSELF IN AS WELL AS WHETHER RELEASE ON HIS OWN RECOGNIZANCE OR BAIL WAS POSSIBLE. NEUMANN WANTS TO AVOID AN UGLY SCENE AT THE AIRPORT.

7. NEUMANN ADVISED THAT SERRANO WILL RECEIVE KOSTMAYER

DELEGATION AT 6:00 P.M. ON NOVEMBER 24, WHILE THE HOD IS SCHEDULED FOR 9:30 A.M. THAT DAY. HE IS WORKING ON THE OTHER APPOINTMENTS.

2. SUMMARY: ANILCAR MENDEZ APPEARED BEFORE JUDGE IN QUICHE SUNDAY EVENING NOV 22. JUDGE DETERMINED THAT THERE WAS INSUFFICIENT EVIDENCE TO HOLD HIM AND GRANTED HIM PROVISIONAL LIBERTY. MENDEZ IS NOW HOME IN QUICHE WITH HIS FAMILY. ACCOMPANYING CONGRESSMAN AND OTHER US HUMAN RIGHTS REPRESENTATIVES ARE ECSTATIC WITH THE WAY THE MATTER WAS BEEN HANDLED. WE ARE SEEKING GOG RECONSIDERATION OF REQUEST THAT THEY BE GRANTED APPOINTMENTS TOMORROW WITH THE PRESIDENT AND THE MOD. END SUMMARY

3. ON AFTERNOON OF NOVEMBER 22, CHARGE, HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICER AND RSO ACCOMPANIED MENDEZ GROUP AND ACCOMPANYING US HUMAN RIGHTS REPRESENTATIVES FROM AIRPORT TO QUICHE. MENDEZ, HIS ATTORNEY AND FAMILY MEMBERS TRAVELED IN THEIR OWN VEHICLES AND IN A VEHICLE RENTED BY ROBERT F. KENNEDY HUMAN RIGHTS CENTER, ALONG WITH SOME OF THE US VISITORS. US EMBASSY GROUP AND OTHERS FROM THE US GROUP TRAVELED IN EMBASSY VEHICLES. THERE WAS NO GOG POLICE PRESENCE AT THE AIRPORT OR POLICE ESCORT IN EVIDENCE. ACTING HEAD OF HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE WHO WAS PRESENT AT AIRPORT DID NOT TRAVEL TO QUICHE.

4. SMALL CROWD OF RELATIVES AND SUPPORTERS GREETED MENDEZ ON ARRIVAL IN SANTA CRUZ DE QUICHE, CHEERING AND CARRYING SIGNS OF WELCOME. THE ATMOSPHERE WAS CALM (EXCEPT FOR THE CUSTOMARY WELCOMING FIRECRACKERS) AND THERE WAS NO POLICE OR SECURITY FORCE PRESENCE. UPON ARRIVAL ABOUT 7 PM, JUDGE JUAN FRANCISCO LOPEZ WAS FRIENDLY TO THE US GROUP AND AGREED TO MEET WITH THEM, BUT ONLY AFTER THE JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS HAD BEEN COMPLETED. EMBASSY CONTINGENT, US VISITORS AND MENDEZ FRIENDS AND RELATIVES AWAITED RESULTS OF HEARING IN A LARGE WAITING ROOM AT THE COURTHOUSE. COURT PERSONNEL WERE FRIENDLY AND THE ATMOSPHERE WAS RELAXED.

5. THE HEARING LASTED ABOUT FOUR HOURS. IN ADDITION TO MENDEZ AND THE JUDGE, THE HEARING INCLUDED MENDEZ' TWO ATTORNEYS, A COURT SECRETARY AND BAILIFF. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN WAS NOT REPRESENTED, AND THERE WAS NO PROSECUTOR (FISCAL) PRESENT FROM THE PUBLIC MINISTRY (THEIR QUICHE REP IS ON VACATION, AND IN HIS ABSENCE THE QUICHE IS COVERED BY THE REP IN SOLOLA. THE SOLOLA REP HAS BEEN INSTRUCTED BY THE ACTING ATTORNEY GENERAL TUNA VALLADARES TO TRAVEL TO QUICHE MON MORNING TO REVIEW THE JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS AND ENSURE THEY ARE CARRIED OUT PROPERLY). THE SPECIFIC CHARGE AGAINST MENDEZ IS PUBLIC INTIMIDATION. MENDEZ WAS QUESTIONED BY THE JUDGE, AND HIS LAWYERS WERE PERMITTED TO PRESENT TWO WITNESSES WHO TESTIFIED THAT THEY HAD BEEN WITH MENDEZ ALL THE TIME ON THE DAY IT IS ALLEGED HE HAD PROVIDED EXPLOSIVES, AND THAT HE HAD NOT DONE SO. THE JUDGE'S FINDING WAS THAT THERE WAS INSUFFICIENT EVIDENCE TO WARRANT HOLDING MENDEZ, AND HE WAS RELEASED ON PROVISIONAL LIBERTY, WHICH WE WOULD PROBABLY TERM RELEASE ON OWN RECOGNIZANCE SINCE NO BAIL WAS REQUIRED.

B1,A5

7. WHILE THE JUDGE'S FINDINGS WERE BEING TYPED UP, HE MET WITH THE HUMAN RIGHTS GROUP WHICH HAD ACCOMPANIED MENDEZ FROM THE U.S., INCLUDING CONGRESSMAN KOSTMAYER AND KERRY KENNEDY OF THE ROBERT F. KENNEDY MEMORIAL HUMAN RIGHTS CENTER, AS WELL AS WITH EMBOFFS. THE 20 MINUTE MEETING WAS VERY CORDIAL, AND THE VISITORS EXPLAINED WHY THEY HAD COME AND WHAT ORGANIZATIONS THEY REPRESENT. THE JUDGE, WHO WAS OBVIOUSLY CONCERNED TO FOLLOW ALL PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS TO THE LETTER, DECLINED TO DESCRIBE THE OUTCOME OF THE CASE TO THEM SINCE HIS JUDGMENT WAS STILL BEING TYPED AND HAD NOT YET BEEN PRESENTED TO THE PARTIES.

8. THE MEMBERS OF THE US HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS ACCOMPANYING MENDEZ TOLD CHARGE THEY WERE EXTREMELY PLEASED WITH THE MANNER OF THE RECEPTION AT THE AIRPORT AND THE OUTCOME OF THE HEARING AND THEY ATTRIBUTED IT TO EFFORTS BY THE DEPARTMENT AND THE EMBASSY. MENDEZ AND HIS LAWYERS EXPRESSED THEIR GRATITUDE TO CHARGE EFFUSIVELY, REMARKING THAT THEY THOUGHT USG ASSISTANCE ALTERED THE ENTIRE TONE OF THE PROCEEDINGS AS WELL AS THE RESULTS, FROM THEIR AIRPORT ARRIVAL TO THE JUDGE'S

10. (FYI - THE CASE IS IN THE INVESTIGATORY (I.E. SUMARIO, I.E. SECRET) PHASE. THE MINISTERIO PUBLICO WILL LOOK FOR AND PRESENT NEW EVIDENCE. THE CASE THEN ENTERS THE EVIDENTIARY PHASE (I.E. 4. MOST OF THE LOCAL STORIES ON MENCHU ARE FROM FAXED "NOTICIAS DE GUATEMALA" (NG) DISPATCHES, WIDELY ASSUMED TO BE A URNG FRONT ORGANIZATION. NONETHELESS, LACKING ANY OTHER SOURCE, THE PRESS HAS DUTIFULLY PRINTED THE STORIES AND THEY HAVE BEEN READ ON THE TV NEWS.

5. AMONG REPORTED HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WORLD TOUR HAVE BEEN RIGOBERTA'S GRAND RECEPTION AT THE UN, INCLUDING BEING FETED BY THE CUBAN MISSION (THAT FROM HAVANA REBELDE RADIO -- REF A). SHE HAS PUBLICLY AND PRIVATELY HIT THIS THEME, CALLING ON THE EC AND EUROPEAN NGO'S TO "UNDERTAKE A PLAN OF SUPPORT FOR THIS, INCLUDING CONSIDERING CREATING A SPECIAL REFUGEE FUND WHOSE END WILL BE TO ALLOW THEM TO RETURN WITH DIGNITY." 2. THE PRESIDENT'S CLIMBING APPROVAL RATINGS -- HELPED IN NO SMALL MEASURE BY AN ADEPT MEDIA CAMPAIGN -- HAVE THE OPPOSITION INCREASINGLY ON EDGE. POPULAR NEWSWEEKLY "RUMBO" HIGHLIGHTED THE ADMINISTRATION'S GROWING STRENGTH, CALLING CALDERON A "TEFLON PRESIDENT" WHO HAS SUCCESSFULLY CULTIVATED AN IMAGE

3. TOWARD THE END OF THE MONTH, AS THE LOCAL GALLUP AFFILIATE BEGAN ITS LATEST ROUND OF POLLING (RESULTS WILL BE ANNOUNCED IN EARLY DECEMBER), THE PLN STEPPED UP ITS CRITICISM OF WHAT IT CLAIMS IS THE GOVERNMENT'S SELF-SERVING USE OF PUBLIC FUNDS.

LIBERACION DEPUTIES EVELIO CASTRO AND OSCAR SOLEY, AMONG OTHERS, SNIPED AT THE PRESIDENT FROM THE FLOOR OF THE ASSEMBLY, PROMPTING ACERBIC EXCHANGES AND DERAILING DEBATE ON KEY PROJECTS. CASTRO CRITICIZED THE REPORTEDLY HIGH AMOUNTS (ALLEGEDLY USD 22 MILLION IN THREE YEARS) SPENT ON PRESIDENTIAL PUBLICITY AND INFORMATION SERVICES. SOLEY, CHARGING THAT CALDERON WAS VIOLATING THE CONSTITUTION BY ACTIVELY SUPPORTING PUSC PRE-CANDIDATE MIGUEL ANGEL RODRIGUEZ (AND THAT CALDERON AND RODRIGUEZ SHARED THE SAME PUBLICITY TEAM), THREATENED TO FILE A COMPLAINT WITH THE ELECTORAL TRIBUNAL (TSE).

4. THE PRESIDENT DENOUNCED OPPOSITION ACCUSATIONS AS "FALSE AND ABSURD." AN ADMINISTRATION HAD AN OBLIGATION TO KEEP THE PUBLIC INFORMED OF ITS PROGRESS, HE SAID. FURTHERMORE, HE WASN'T GOING TO PROHIBIT RODRIGUEZ FROM ACCOMPANYING HIM AT CEREMONIAL EVENTS. RODRIGUEZ WARNED THAT THE PLN WOULD GAIN NOTHING WITH ITS UNFOUNDED TIRADE, AND POINTED OUT THAT THERE HAD BEEN NO COMPLAINTS ABOUT HIM APPEARING WITH CALDERON BACK WHEN THE PRESIDENT'S POPULARITY WAS SAGGING.

5. LOATHE TO ABANDON THE OFFENSIVE, CASTRO DROPPED WHAT HE TERMED A "BOMBSHELL," DECLARING THAT AT LEAST TWO BUSINESSES WITH WHICH RODRIGUEZ WAS AFFILIATED WERE GUILTY OF TAX EVASION. RODRIGUEZ SCOFFED THAT CASTRO WAS TOSSING "FIVE CENT FIRECRACKERS;" THE TAXES HE REFERRED TO WERE A MATTER OF LEGAL DISPUTE BEING RESOLVED ACCORDING TO STANDARD PROCEDURE AT THE

7. ON NOVEMBER 13, PUBLIC SECURITY MINISTER FISHMAN WENT PUBLIC WITH THE RELEASE OF THE NAMES OF 14 COMPANIES, HE CHARGED WITH MONEY-LAUNDERING TIES TO COLOMBIA. HE ALSO SENT GOCR INVESTIGATORS RUMMAGING THROUGH THE BOOKS. FISHMAN SAID HE WAS ACTING ON A TIP PROVIDED BY FOREIGN EXCHANGE OFFICIALS IN COLOMBIA. OWNERS FOR SEVERAL OF THE COMPANIES VEHEMENTLY DENIED ANY GUILT. AT MID-MONTH COLOMBIA'S AMBASSADOR TO COSTA RICA, ZULETA DE PATINO, FILED A DIP NOTE FAULTING FISHMAN FOR NOT ABIDING BY THE RULES OF CONFIDENTIALITY GOVERNING EXCHANGES OF ANTI-NARCOTICS INFORMATION BETWEEN THE TWO

(SAN JOSE'S DEA OFFICE HAS ALSO ATTEMPTED TO FOLLOW UP ON THE ALLEGATIONS AND HAS NOT FOUND ANYTHING TO SUBSTANTIATE FISHMAN'S ALLEGATIONS, ALTHOUGH INVESTIGATIONS CONTINUE. THE COLMBIAN AMBASSADOR TOLD THE AMBASSADOR THAT SHE WAS GOING TO LEAK TO THE PRESS THE "FACT" THAT ALL THE COMPANIES NAMED WERE COMPETITORS TO FISHMAN FAMILY ENTERPRISES.) OVERALL, THE LATEST INCIDENT LEFT FISHMAN'S CRITICS AGAIN POINTING TO THE RASH MANNER IN WHICH HE GOES ABOUT HIS COUNTER-NARCOTICS WORK.

8. THE TRIP BY THE THREE OFFICIALS INVESTIGATING THE SEPTEMBER KIDNAPPING OF FISHMAN BY "EX-GUERRILLA" ORLANDO ORDONEZ YIELDED NO PUBLIC RESULTS. HONDURAN INTELLIGENCE CHIEF LUNA SPOKE WITH THE TEAM BUT SHED NO NEW LIGHT ON THE CASE. BISHOP LUIS SANTOS DECLINED TO MEET WITH THE TEAM, SAYING HE HAD ALREADY TOLD ALL HE KNEW TO THE PRESS. PAY RAISES AND POLITICKING: THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

10. OCTOBER 'S DEBATE OVER A SALARY INCREASE FOR DEPUTIES SPILLED OVER INTO NOVEMBER. AFTER THE RESIGNATION OF RODRIGO OREAMUNO ON OCTOBER 20 TO PROTEST THE ILLEGAL CLOAKROOOM CHANGES TO A PAY MEASURE, THE LEGISLATURE BACK-PEDALED. IT DEBATED THE CONSTITUTIONALITY (ARTICLE 113) OF THIS " SELF-ENRICHING" MEASURE AND SOUGHT A MECHANISM TO PEG RAISES TO A BENCHMARK LIKE ELECTIONS, COST-OF-LIVING INCREASES OR GENERAL SALARY RISES. ATTORNEY GENERAL (MINISTRO PUBLICO) JOSE MARIA TIJERINO LAUNCHED AN INVESTIGATION TO SEE IF ANY ILLEGALITY WAS COMMITTED WHEN THE PAY BILL WAS ROUNDED UPWARD FROM 70,000 TO 100,000 COLONES. PLN DEPUTY REYNALDO MAXWELL (MENTIONED AS A HEAD THAT MIGHT ROLL AS A RESULT OF THE PAY RAISE SNAFU) SAID HE HAD CHANGED THE BILL WITH HIS COLLEAGUES' APPROVAL. ASSEMBLY LEADER ROBERTO TOVAR WORRIED ABOUT THE IMAGE OF THE DEPUTIES AS THEY WERE CALLED FOR INTERVIEWS WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S STAFF.

11. BY MONTH'S END THE LEGISLATURE CONTINUED TO HAVE

THE ADVANTAGE OF THE EMERGENCY LAW WAS THAT IT REMOVED SOME PROJECTS FROM THE OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER AND OFFERED A SHORT-CUT FOR PRIORITY PROJECTS. OTHER SALA IV DECISIONS IN NOVEMBER PERMIT THE WRITING OF CONTRACTS IN DOLLARS, A MOVE THAT OPENS THE WAY FOR GREATER FREEDOM OF COMMERCIAL CONTRACTS. THE SALA IV ALSO OPENED THE WAY FOR MORE FREEDOM IN PRIVATE EDUCATION LIMITING THE SUPERVISORY AUTHORITY OF THE NATION'S EDUCATIONAL COUNCIL AND TO SET FEES AND OTHER RULES. Randy Blake, left, returned to Guatemala this past summer for the 5th time to try to solve the mystery surrounding his brother Nick's fate.

Seven years ago, journalist Nick Blake disappeared in the mountains of Guatemala. His brothers knew—oh, they knew—but they couldn't rest until they learned what really happened

By Joshua Hammer

A bullet means to smash, to destroy, to annihilate all he has seen, known, loved, enjoyed or hated; all that is priceless and necessary—the sunshine, the memories, the future.
—FROM LORD JIM, NICK BLAKE'S FAVORITE NOVEL

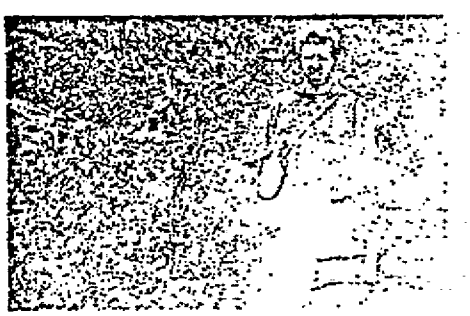
ON A CLEAR, WINDY DAY IN EARLY summer, three helicopters touch down on a deforested slope in the northern corner of Guatemala. Randy and Sam Blake step out of one, followed by an army colonel clutching an Uzi submachine gun in one hand, a grenade in the other. The area is a combat zone, and the officer is guarding against the ever-present possibility of a guerrilla ambush.

Working quickly in the chilly mountain air, the brothers pull spades, shovels, brushes and a wire-mesh screen from the helicopter. Then they clamber across the hillside, over plots of high corn, logs and blackened tree stumps, arriving at a depression beneath a skinny pine.

The Blakes watch intently as Douglas Owsley, a forensic anthropologist from the Smithsonian Institution, kneels on the ground, scraping the moist earth. With his spade, he begins to probe chunks of blackened matter. "There was a fire here," he says quietly. He picks up a tiny yellow sliver resembling aged porcelain and holds it up for inspection.

"What is it?" whispers Randy Blake.

"A piece of bone," says Owsley. "We've got it."



SEVEN YEARS EARLIER, ON THE LAST DAY HE WAS SEEN ALIVE, Nicholas Blake awoke filled with anticipation in a schoolhouse in the village of El Llano. Around him lay a scene of primeval splendor: cedar-covered hills shrouded in mist, the smoke of cooking fires wafting from 20 adobe huts scattered across a lush meadow. In his three years exploring Central America, the 27-year-old freelance journalist from Philadelphia never felt more alive than in these isolated backwaters, worlds removed from the palm-shaded swimming pools and four-star hotels where "the totally unresourceful press gang," as Blake called them, spent their days.

That morning, Blake was setting out for an interview with members of the Guerrilla Army of the Poor, a reclusive band of Marxist revolutionaries who rarely spoke to reporters. Blake had been promised major play in the Toronto Globe and Mail and the Philadelphia Inquirer—and the chance, he believed, to finally make his name—if the insurgents agreed to see him. "I'm going on a suicide expedition," he wrote to a friend days before the trip. "A mega-hike into the mountains. This is a hot opportunity that I have to jump on."

At 8 o'clock on the morning of March 29, 1985, Nick Blake and his traveling companion—an American expatriate named Griffith Davis, 38—began walking east out of El Llano. They climbed a trail through thick pine and oak forests toward the top of a ridge, more than 1,000 feet above the village. The guerrilla enclave lay a few miles up the footpath on a forested mountaintop known as Cerro Sumal. Blake and Davis never made it. Something awful happened on the road to Sumal that morning, but exactly what—and why—would remain a secret for more than seven years.

"YOU JUST CAN'T IMAGINE HOW PAINFUL IT IS TO NOT KNOW FOR certain," says Sam Blake. Four days before his helicopter trip, Blake, 31, sits on a cot in his room at the spartan Hotel Ixil in Nebaj, a poor highland town in the province of El Quiché where his older brother was scheduled to arrive the first week of April 1985. "It's like a cancer that eats at you."

In the muddy Nebaj streets shortly after dawn, Indian women in bright patterned blouses balance firewood on their heads as they trudge past rows of one-story stucco houses. Tinny Latin music emanates from the stalls of the market and wafts across the empty asphalt main plaza, dominated by a turquoise fountain and a 200-year-old whitewashed cathedral. On nearly every corner a helmeted soldier peers from a patrol booth with a [illegible] roof. Although Nebaj is quiet after a decade of civil war and oppression, the military presence here is a constant reminder of how fragile the peace is.

For seven years, Sam Blake has made several trips to Guatemala every year. Nebaj lies three or four hours by car from the capital, Guatemala City, on a dirt road that winds through the mountains of the Cuchumatanes range. Sam Blake has come here to meet with Indian leaders, to talk with refugees and to search for his brother. He has also come to find out what happened to Nick's friend Griffith Davis.

with U.S. Embassy officials, angry confrontations with Guatemalan leaders, helicopter fact-finding expeditions into the mountains. For seven years, he has been fighting off depression and paralyzing anxiety, depending on psychotherapy and even antidepressants to keep going. Sam was tightly wound before Nick disappeared, but the loss of his brother has nearly pushed him over the edge.

"When someone gets hit by a car, you have the body, and society has all these mechanisms to help you deal with it," he says. "Your friends offer comfort, you have a funeral, you grieve, then you move on. With a disappeared person, it's so much harder. I'm saying, 'I know he's dead, but I can't grieve.' You live in a netherworld."

A research fellow at Harvard's Kennedy School of Government, Blake is a thickset young man with horn-rim glasses, a bulldog face and a tight-lipped expression of determination. He has changed drastically from the timid 23-year-old who first flew to Guatemala in December 1985, so ill at ease during his meeting with the American ambassador that accompanying friends mockingly nicknamed him "Blinky." Now he swaggers through the country like an old Central American hand, exuding Yankee can-doism, even arrogance. Yet a fragility, even a self-destructive edge, lurks just beneath his bravado; he seems perpetually on the brink of exploding. "This search," he admits, "is really about saving myself."

> "When someone gets hit by a car, you have the body, and society has all these mechanisms to help you deal with it," Sam says. "With a disappeared person, you live in a netherworld."

Sam's son, and his team may end up finding the bones are color-coded to indicate which guerrilla's ear left into the can of formaldehyde.

The man Sam has come to see, the one with the answers, paces nervously beside his white Datsun pickup truck in front of the Hotel Ixil. Wearing tight blue jeans, a black cowboy hat and a blue chamois shirt with the emblem BUGLE BOY USA above the pocket, Felipe Alva seems a living symbol of Guatemala's murderous heart. He is a handsome, bronzed figure in his early 40s, with high cheekbones, a salt-and-pepper goatee and mustache, and features coiled into a permanent scowl. A United States Embassy source in Guatemala calls Alva "a killer" who recruits Indians for the military, sells tips to the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration and commands 24,000 members of Guatemala's "civil patrol"—the country's notorious anti-guerrilla self-defense force. Last March, Alva signed a contract with the Blakes, agreeing to take them to the site of Nick's murder and burial for $10,000 cash. The last leg of the journey is to take place this morning; it will be Alva's moment of reckoning.

"Buenos dias," I say, stepping into the harsh mountain sunlight.

"Buenos dias," Alva mumbles back. He shuffles away uncomfortably with his two Indian assistants. The last thing Alva wants, it's clear, is a journalist hanging around to document the outcome of his sordid transaction.

NICK BLAKE ARRIVED IN GUATEMALA IN 1982 AT THE AGE OF 24, dreaming of a career as a globe-trotting foreign correspondent, like those of his heroes, Ernest Hemingway and Robert Capa. He was a child of privilege: His father, Richard, was an executive of the First Pennsylvania Bank in Center City; his mother, Mary, a member of the Wheaton Glass family. Blake spent his childhood in Princeton, New Jersey, and summered in Biddeford Pool, Maine, where his circle included Billy LeBlond and his then-wife, Doro, daughter of George Bush. Back when Nick was in the seventh grade, Richard Blake moved the family to Chestnut Hill and enrolled Nick in Chestnut Hill Academy; he hated it there, and the experience caused a rift between Nick and his father. "He had very few friends there," remembers Richard Blake. "He found them snobbish, cliquish. We got him out after three years and sent him to the Hun School, but it made a mark on him. It made him a rebel."

As a teenager, Blake defiantly rejected all the trappings of his wealth—he even wore thrift-shop clothing. "We were always trying to impress each other with how cheaply we could do things," remembers his childhood friend Lauren Yokana Guthrie. "We'd bring a string of delayed-fuse firecrackers into a bar, stick them in the bathroom, they'd explode, the bartenders would run in and we'd jump behind the counter and pour draft beer for ourselves."

Blake graduated from the University of Vermont in 1979 with a B.A. in history, and served stints as a staff writer at Country magazine and as a reporter for Foster's Daily Democrat, a small-town New Hampshire paper. But after two years of dragging himself to fires and board meetings, he couldn't stand being a dues-paying reporter any longer, so in late 1981 he quit, contacted a small news service in Washington, D.C., stuffed some clothes and notebooks into a backpack and boarded a plane for Central America.

Blake based himself in Antigua, Guatemala's colonial capital, a civilized city of cobblestone streets and 400-year-old Spanish-built monasteries in the shadow of a live volcano. He rented a $60-a-month room at the Posada Refugio, learned Spanish at a language school and began banging out features on a battered typewriter. He specialized in quirky, off-the-news stories that captured the region's passions and turmoil: a Costa Rican cold snap, a profile of a small town in rural El Salvador caught between the rebel guerrillas and the army. One of Blake's favorite pieces was first-person account of hitchhiking on the Pan American Highway. "I got my last ride in Nicaragua from a member of the Ministry of Culture, a dance teacher who was as rabid about the revolution as he was about being homosexual," he wrote in the story, which was excerpted in Harper's. "He drove with a parrot named Rosalita perched on the steering wheel, and he sang to her and fed her oranges. 'Oh, it's a wonderful revolution,' he chirped. 'Tell all the homosexuals in the States to come to Nicaragua if they want to be truly free.'"

"Nick had a basic criticism of the journalistic community in Central America," says his friend Jim Adriance, at the time a Peace Corps volunteer in Costa Rica. "Most of them were sitting around capital cities, showing no determination to get out and find out what was happening. He was going to show them all up. He was going to get a scoop."

The "scoop," he increasingly believed, would be found in the remote northern highlands of Guatemala. Nowhere were the contrasts between poverty and wealth, between Ladino privilege and Indian subjugation, between beauty and darkness as extreme as in that country, he said. In early 1983, he and a friend hiked into the highland hamlet of Finca San Francisco, where months earlier the Guatemalan army had massacred nearly all of its 302 inhabitants. The horror they found—skeletons, burned-out huts—committed Blake to documenting the agony. "Guatemala is an outrageous country, as beautiful as anywhere I've been," he wrote to his brother Sam. "The culture combines the way of life of 23 Indian tribes with the classic, cut-throat tendencies of the conquistadores. Everything about it is passionate, which is probably what attracts me so much."

In early 1985, Blake began focusing his energies on one project: obtaining an interview with members of the Guerrilla Army of the Poor (EGP), once a powerful force of 15,000 armed insurgents, now a scraggly band of 2,500 hidden deep in the Cuchumatanes Mountains. But even as he made his plans, his lonely, peripatetic life was beginning to nag at him. "Being down here makes you appreciate the seasons, and I miss the hell out of it," he wrote to Sam. "I'm getting sick of being this typewriter nomad whose only home is a roach-motel mattress and a backpack full of ripe-smelling clothes."

In letters, he toyed with the idea of packing it all in and heading home to Maine to find a steady girlfriend and a job. Then Blake heard rumors that a cadre might be encamped at Cerro Sumal, the mountaintop enclave near El Llano. He spent weeks drinking and dining with EGP representatives, trying to arrange a visit. "It became an obsession for him," remembers his friend Ambrose Evans-Pritchard, the Central American stringer for the Economist. "Finally Nick said, 'Screw it, I'm just going to go in.'"

A week before his trip, Blake encountered Griffith Davis in a rustic cafe in Santiago Atitlán, an Indian village on the shore of Lake Atitlán, near Antigua. An ex-social worker and world traveler from Scranton, Davis had built a house on the lake in the shadow of a 12,000-foot volcano, and with his German girlfriend sold Mayan handicrafts to get by. Blake, who was looking for a traveling companion, invited Davis along. Two days later, at the Posada Refugio, Blake left a note for Jim Adriance, instructing him to meet them in Nebaj the first week of April. "Nebaj is the perfect place for us to hang out, rap, smoke pot, sit under waterfalls," he wrote. "We can be nihilists for a few days. If you get there first, hold a hotel room. If I'm not there by Friday, it's time to start asking questions."

> Nick spent weeks with the rebel representatives, trying to arrange a visit. "It became an obsession for him," remembers a friend. "Finally he said, 'Screw it, I'm just going in.'"

AT 9 O'CLOCK, LATER THE SAME MORNING that Sam spoke of his pain in the hotel room, a four-seat Cessna touches down at the Nebaj military airstrip, a short tarmac runway nestled between the mountains. Clutching a duffel bag, Randy Blake climbs out along with two forensic anthropologists from the Smithsonian Institution. Sam, who arrived in Guatemala two days earlier, greets Randy with an affectionate slap on the back and ruffles his hair.

"What'd you do? Get your hair done for the 'photo op'?" he jokes.

The brothers drive to the military base on the outskirts of Nebaj for a briefing. In the dimly lit operations room, decorated with pinups of naked Latin girls, a Guatemalan colonel opens curtains to reveal a ten-foot-by-six-foot topographical wall map of the Ixil Triangle, the highland region around Nebaj. Color-coded pushpins cover the map, each indicating a guerrilla action during the past 30 days: white for sabotage, blue for armed assaults, black for hostage-taking, brown for "propaganda" dissemination. "We've activated all the civil patrols along the route where you're going," he says, tracing the dirt road with his finger. "You shouldn't have any trouble."

Watching him, Randy Blake shakes his head at the irony. In April 1985, Randy, then an account executive at the Manhattan public relations firm Burson-Marsteller, and his mother stood in a command post just like this in the provincial capital of Santa Cruz del Quiché; an angry army commander called Nick's intentions "madness" and pronounced it "probable" that he had been executed by EGP guerrillas. The U.S. Embassy initially supported that theory. But deep down, the Blake brothers never fully believed it; they shared a gut feeling that some members of the Guatemalan army—or their proxies in the mountains—had killed Nick, then participated in the cover-up.

Playing their political trump card, Randy and Sam [illegible] then-Vice President George Bush into the search through their friendship with his daughter, Doro, and her husband, Billy LeBlond. In 1985, Bush called Guatemalan military dictator Oscar Humberto Mejía Victores to urge him to give special attention to the case. Bush and the Blakes also encouraged Ted Kennedy to use his relationship with Fidel Castro to press [illegible] la leader Rolando Moran for answers. Moran sent a polite letter back to Kennedy saying that the EGP wasn't responsible. Meanwhile, after a few months of futile inquiries by Griffith Davis' girlfriend, Mikki Lindiken, the Davis family abandoned the search. "My father having passed away, I'm probably the only one who could have done anything," says his younger brother, Glenn Davis, who works in railroad management in upstate New York. "But I had a newborn baby, I'd just gotten married. My uncle, a retired army colonel, told us 'don't expect much.'"

In the fall of 1987, the Blakes' suspicions gained credence after a schoolteacher from a village near El Llano approached the U.S. Embassy. For months, he'd been conducting his own undercover investigation, motivated by his Christian faith—and the Blake family's promise of a $10,000 reward. The teacher said he'd learned from a dozen villagers that Blake and Davis had been robbed and shot by El Llano's civil patrol, armed and administered by the Guatemalan military. He even offered the names of the patrollers who had allegedly pulled the triggers: Candelario Cano Herrera, Epolito Ramos Garcia and Vicente Cifuentes. The teacher claimed that El Llano's chief civil patroller, Mario Cano, acting on orders from the military zone's intelligence head, had had the bodies burned.

Mary Blake refused to believe it. In her mind, her son Nick was alive somewhere, possibly encamped with guerrillas in the Cuchumatanes Mountains. In 1986, Latin American missionaries wrote to her that they'd spotted him walking through a Mexican border town, and she clung to that flimsy evidence as if nothing else mattered. Then there were the phone calls—late-night calls shattering her sleep, from someone dialing from out of the country. Her husband would stir beside her, half hoping, half knowing it couldn't be true. But there would only be an eerie silence, then a click, then he'd be gone—back into the limbo in which he, and his family, all existed.

The brothers, increasingly persuaded that Nick was dead, began a maddening five-year waiting game. For a long time, the military ignored embassy requests to interrogate the patrollers, its "eyes and ears" in the highlands. But in 1988, a progressive regional military commander took over and agreed to order the suspected killers rounded up for questioning. (Those questioned denied any involvement in the murders.) Finally, in January 1992, Felipe Alva, jefe of 24,000 civil patrollers in the region, acknowledged to Sam that his charges had "probably killed" Nick Blake. He agreed to lead Sam and Randy to their brother's grave—for $10,000 and a sworn promise that they wouldn't prosecute anyone. The embassy and the Guatemalan military, anxious to get the Blake brothers off their backs, offered full support for the final mission.

Forensic anthropologist Doug Ubelaker, in cap, helps the Blakes dig for a clue. Inset, a tall snake confirms Sam's worst fears.

"NICK AND I CAME DOWN this same road eight years ago," Randy Blake says, as our Suzuki Samurai creeps along a smooth dirt highway north of Nebaj. Army patrols trudge along the shoulder: Indian teenagers carrying M-16 rifles, heads bowed with the resignation of peasants who have known only war and deprivation. "We visited a couple of bombed-out towns, inspected some 'model villages' rebuilt by the army. It was great to see Nick in action once before he disappeared." Randy gazes at the thickly forested gorge far below us and the bone ribbon of road snaking along the mountainside. "We've believed for years that he was murdered—but it's like there's a wall between us and the truth."

A tall, athletic man with square-jawed good looks and an aloof, cautious manner, Randy reveals little of his brother Sam's bulldozer drive and trip-wire temper. Never close growing up, the brothers feuded in the months immediately after Nick's disappearance. Back then, the high-strung Sam infuriated Randy by rushing to the New York Times with every new rumor—first accusing the guerrillas, then the military—and his impetuousness nearly ruined the brothers' credibility. Matters got so bad that when the brothers traveled together to Guatemala they were accompanied by a phalanx of friends who could keep them at arm's length. "Sam can really get under my skin. He gets so insistent and hyperactive," Randy admits. "I know I can drive him crazy too, always saying, 'Sam, think before you act.'"

Events of the last couple of years have drawn them closer. The most unifying factor has been their mother's intransigence [illegible] about their search for Nick's remains. to continued on page 64

BY BLOOD BOUND

"Our message is negative, but I know it's the true one," says Sam. "But you can't take that message to a [mother] who wants to live on a delusion." The two-dozen trips they've taken to Central America, the encounters they've had with ambassadors and congressmen, have piqued their fascination for international politics and inspired both to study government in graduate school (Sam is working at Harvard's Kennedy School while getting his Ph.D. at The Fletcher School at Tufts; Randy recently graduated from George Washington University). And Randy has gradually adopted some of Sam's anger and distrust toward the U.S. State Department, accusing it of not pressing the Guatemalan military harder for information about Nick's death. The tension has taken a long time to abate.

"Randy's more realistic, more level-headed," says family friend Robin Bowman. "He's married. He's got a much more stable life. But Sam's clearly been the driving force the past seven years. It's become his life's mission. He won't rest until it's resolved."

FROM THE ROAD'S END IN THE VILLAGE OF Palob, Felipe Alva leads the Blakes and eight others along a soggy trail through the pine and rhododendron forests near El Llano. We climb, sweating profusely, for 90 minutes, arriving at last on a ridge overlooking a hut and a half-acre plot of corn. "Down there," says Alva, "is where they burned and buried your brother."

Douglas Owsley kneels beside two blackened logs and begins to dig. After 12 years teaching and practicing forensics at Louisiana State University and the Smithsonian Institution, the Wyoming-born Owsley, 41, is an old hand at this gruesome game. Last year he helped identify the remains of victims in the Scud missile attack on a U.S. military barracks in Dhahran, Saudi Arabia; a couple of months later, Ohio medical examiners enlisted him to positively ID serial killer Jeffrey Dahmer's first victim (the teenager Dahmer strangled in 1978, smashed into hundreds of pieces and scattered across a wooded area). Owsley loves the detective work, but he's never encountered a mystery quite as elusive as this one. After one minute of digging, the anthropologist stops. "This isn't right," he says. There isn't enough charcoal or ash, he explains, and the only bone fragments he can find are in a dirt-filled green plastic bag that someone recently planted under a log. "There was never a fire here," he says. "Somebody's trying to fool us."

The Blakes seem ready to kill Alva. What's the bastard up to? What the hell was the point of this tedious slog through the rain forest? Is he trying to extort more money from them? Or is he so desperate for the $10,000 that he's trying to fake it? Suddenly, the seven-year investigation seems in danger of fizzling into futility.

After seething for two hours on the road back to Nebaj, the Blakes confront Alva in his spartan room at the Hotel Ixil. Until now, they have maintained a cordial relationship with the unsavory civil patroller, regarding him as their only hope; but after this afternoon's ruse, all politeness has disappeared. Alva fidgets in a chair; the brothers, sitting on a bed, lean toward him threateningly. Lieutenant Colonel Otto Noack Sierra, an officer with close relations with the U.S. Embassy, translates. Despite two-dozen trips to Guatemala, neither Sam nor Randy speaks passable Spanish.

"Engaño, engaño," Alva keeps saying. ("I was tricked.")

"Felipe, stop lying to us," says Randy.

"All right," says Sam. "That's enough bullshit." Alva, Sam says, must take the Blakes and a Guatemalan military escort to confront Nick's alleged killers, the civil patrollers, in El Llano—and force them to escort the brothers to the burial site.

"That wasn't part of the plan," says Alva weakly. For the first time, Alva seems vulnerable, frightened, and even—in his Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck T-shirt—a bit ridiculous. He rests his head in his hands. The last thing he wants to do is implicate his men in front of the guitpos and Guatemalan military.

"Tomorrow, we're getting the army to go in and say 'do it,'" says Sam.

The next afternoon, a thick gray mist hangs over the Cuchumatanes as the group approaches El Llano. Eight soldiers carrying M-16s, grenade launchers and automatic pistols march ahead of us down a muddy path. A U.S. Embassy helicopter lands, its rotor blades thwack-thwack-thwacking deafeningly.

In the steady drizzle, the village is quiet, mystical in its serenity. Women and children stand together on the porch of a schoolhouse, staring as the helicopter touches down beside them. Our group approaches an old farmer with a creased face and wide-brim hat, holding an orange plastic sheet over his head against the rain. With Noack translating, Sam reads the names of the patrollers they are searching for. But the peasant isn't eager to help the outsiders.

"Do you know Mario Cano?"

"He is away today."

"Do you know Candelario Cano Ramos?"

"Candelario used to live here, but now ne has moved to another village."

A teenage patroller arrives from the fields, an M-1 slung over his shoulder. Sam Blake fishes a sheet of paper out of his pocket. "Let's end this problem," says Sam. "We have the document here, exonerating the people of El Llano."

A half-dozen patrollers gather, staring at the paper. Shabbily dressed, stubble-necked, gap-toothed mountain men, they eye the Blakes suspiciously. Alva speaks to the patrollers, then huddles with Norick. "Leave Alva here alone," the officer tells the Blakes. "He'll see what he can accomplish."

FRUSTRATED AND UNCERTAIN, THE BLAKES drive back to the comforts of Guatemala City—a two-day journey—then wait for good weather to return to El Llano by air. At last, the skies are clear, the air bright with promise, and the brothers and their entourage pile into three chartered Hughes helicopters for the hour flight north. The crawling shantytowns of the capital give way to rolling pine forests, then a forbid-ing landscape of granite escarpments, deep chasms, tiny red-roofed settlements clinging to terraced hillsides. The helicopters swoop in low over the green bowl of El Llano, duck behind a ridge and set down on a deforested slope. Alva is waiting. He came here at 3 in the morning by moonlight with a dozen masked civil patrollers, he says; now he swears he can find the Blakes to the proper burial site.

Alva hurries across the hillside, weaving through high stalks of corn and climbing over logs and blackened stumps. Just above us is the logging trail used by Nicholas and Griffith Davis, where they were last seen alive. After two minutes, we reach an impression in the earth surrounded by bramble and marked by a skinny pine tree. Alva nods, and Douglas Owsley kneels on the ground and starts to dig with his spade. "Okay," he says shortly, "we've got a piece of bone . . . got a second piece, a third piece."

Sam and Randy watch, transfixed as the anthropologist cuts into the hillside, tracking the perimeter of the fire. "This is a burn site. We've got it, man." As he widens the circle, he begins to expose a grisly cache: molars, canines, a femur, skull fragments, and then eerily recognizable bits of metal: 12 tent stakes. A tent-strap buckle with the tiny words MADE IN ENGLAND etched on it. And, eventually, a round metal eyeglass frame, fused to its nicked plastic lens.

"Jesus," Randy says softly.

"That's Nick's," says Sam. "That's exactly what Nick wore."

For two hours they probe the burial pit, filtering shovels full of dirt through a screen, recovering 300 scraps of bone, tent tubing and twisted metal chunks. Finally the clouds roll in, and the pilots signal that it's time to go.

Sam and Randy stand beside the chopper, briefly embracing. It's over. Seven years of searching have ended on this lonely hillside. Sam feels a crushing realization: A tiny molecule of hope he cherished has just exploded. He pictures his brother's life-loving, gonzo Nick—slapping bees on their porch in Maine at sunset, laughing about his brief encounter in Antigua with a "sharp-looking Austrian Stewart." Sam looks down at the plastic bag full of ash and bone and begins to sway with nausea. "Let's go," he says.

FOR FIVE YEARS, DAVID BLAKE FELT AS IF he stood on one side of a thick, heavy door, hearing the truth, yet unable to grasp it. But strong his brother's arms, cradling his glasses in his hands, it could not break down the barrier. Suddenly, the schoolteacher's story from years before, the story reported to the embassy, assumed a terrifying authenticity it never had before; suddenly, the details he had told Randy of Nick's last day alive came flooding back to haunt him.

The schoolteacher, pieced together his account from talking with numerous villagers, said that Nick Blake and Graham Davis arrived in El Llano on March 29, 1985, after a grueling three-day hike through forests and along frothing rivers from the western Guatemalan village of San Juan Ixcoy. Civil patrollers searched the Americans in a schoolhouse shortly after they got there. The patrollers' eyes widened as they encountered treasures rarely seen in the village: wads of American and Guatemalan currency, cameras, backpacks, Nick's Sony shortwave radio.

Besides being tantalized by their possessions, the patrollers were also suspicious. Reports had circulated that the gringos were being aided by leftist army officers, and Blake seemed unusually eager to make contact with the local Ejército. Blake suggested that, despite the hour, he and Graham should hike to the next village, Santa Eulalia. The military garrison in Las Majadas, where the only paved road was nearby. Get them out of the area, came the order. Take them to Santa ard army-occupied territory, away n Sumal. Blake, the civil patrollers said, s angered by the order. Davis, by con- st, remained tranquilo.

That night, Blake and Davis slept on ittresses on the floor of El Llano's oolhouse. After rising early, they thed in a stream, strapped on their ckpacks and left on a trail that eventual- forks. One branch leads north to Sumal, e other to Salquil Grande, an evacuated mlet then being rebuilt by the uatemalan army. Five civil patrollers fol- wed. All carried powerful M-1 and sin- e-shot Mauser rifles.

For an hour they climbed through thick ins and oak forests toward the top of a idge, 1,000 feet above El Llano. From here, Blake and Davis could look to the ight across the plunging Rio Palob Valley and see distant saw-toothed ridges, bright greens fading into ethereal blues. The air smelled of cedar, the silence broken only by the men's heavy breathing.

Only the murderers know what precipitated the next move. Maybe Blake pushed them over the edge by demanding to be taken to Cerro Sumal. Possibly they'd planned the crime in El Llano. But at some point, greed, suspicion, fear and a sense of impunity crystallized in the patrollers' minds. Suddenly "Polo" Garcia, a small man with one withered arm, said to his companions, "Why don't we just kill them?"

Without warning, he aimed and fired his M-1. The bullet tore through Griffith Davis' back, killing him instantly. Then the men turned on Blake. In his brief moment of panic, he somehow had the presence of mind to switch on his shortwave radio. Apparently he hoped to bluff the patrollers into believing he could communicate with a nearby military base. Candelario Cano Herrera fired. The bullet smashed into Blake's chest. Still, he clutched his radio. Vicente Cifuentes shot him again. Within seconds, Nick Blake lay dead.

Randy felt as if he stood on one side of a door, hearing the truth yet unable to grasp it.

The civil patrollers dragged the bodies from the trail and covered them with logs. Polo removed Davis' wide-brim hat, while the others took their cameras, knapsacks and money. That morning, lumberjacks reported to the base at Las Majadas that they'd heard three shots. When questioned, the civil patrollers told the military that they'd been hunting in the forest. Later, a jeep from zone headquarters appeared in Las Majadas with orders for the patrollers: Destroy the evidence. Cano, accompanied by Polo and three other men, returned to the clearing. They stuffed the bodies and tents into large white fertilizer bags and dragged them 500 yards down a slope. They incinerated the remains in a bonfire, then buried the bones and ash. Before piling on dirt, one of the men, Daniel Velasquez, reached into the pit and snatched a gold-filled tooth.

BIT BY BIT, SAY HER SONS, MARY BLAKE HAS begun to confront the reality of Nick's murder. "You have to accept the forensic expert's word," she said days after receiving Douglas Owsley's report matching Nick's dental records to teeth retrieved in Guatemala. [Davis' remains were found in the same pit and were also positively identified by Owsley.] Still, she won't consider having a memorial service. "As a woman, you never give up hope," she said. "It's something men can't understand." In early summer, she told Randy and Sam that somebody had placed an overseas phone call to her, but said nothing before hanging up. To this day, she believes it might have been Nick.

DURING A DEC. 9 BREAKFAST WITH POLOFF, PRTC CHIEF FRANCISCO JOVEL (AKA ROBERTO ROCA) RAISED THE ISSUE OF A TRUTH COMMISSION INVESTIGATION INTO THE FATE OF FORMER PRTC MEMBER PEDRO ANDRADE (AKA MARIO GONZALEZ). 3. JOVEL SAID ANDRADE WAS ARRESTED BY THE PN IN 1989, AND CLAIMED THAT UNDER TORTURE AND DEATH THREATS GAVE AWAY THE LARGEST ARMS CACHE EVER SEIZED FROM THE PRTC. JOVEL ADDED THAT, ACCORDING TO ANDRADE'S WIFE, HE WAS INTERROGATED BY "AMERICANS" AFTER BEING TORTURED. AFTER AGREEING TO COOPERATE WITH THE PN, JOVEL SAID ANDRADE REMAINED TECHNICALLY "UNDER ARREST" BUT WAS ALLOWED SIGNIFICANT PRIVILEGES, INCLUDING PERIODIC TELEPHONE CALLS. AFRAID OF ARREST, JOVEL SAID ANDRADE'S WIFE MOVED TO NICARAGUA BUT WAS ALLOWED TO CALL HER HUSBAND "COLLECT" AT PN HEADQUARTERS IN SAN SALVADOR DURING 1990. ANDRADE REPORTEDLY TOLD HIS WIFE THAT RECEIVING CALLS FROM MANAGUA WAS "CAUSING HIM PROBLEMS WITH THE PN", AND THE FMLN THEN RELOCATED HIS WIFE TO MEXICO.
4. THE PRTC LEADER SAID ANDRADE LATER TOLD HIS WIFE TO RETURN TO SAN SALVADOR BECAUSE HE HAD MADE ARRANGEMENTS TO "START A NEW LIFE" IN THE US. JOVEL SAID ANDRADE WAS APPARENTLY RECEIVING ASYLUM IN THE US FOR HELPING THE GOES AND WANTED TO TAKE HIS WIFE WITH HIM. DESPITE WARNINGS FROM THE FMLN THAT SUCH A MOVE WOULD DISGRACE [redacted]

ANDRADE WITH HIS FMLN COLLEAGUES, ANDRADE'S WIFE RETURNED TO EL SALVADOR AND THE FMLN BELIEVES ANDRADE DID GO TO THE US. JOVEL SAID ANDRADE LATER CALLED A PRTC "GIRLFRIEND" IN SAN SALVADOR, URGING HER TO DESERT. ANDRADE ALLEGEDLY OFFERED TO HELP THE WOMAN OBTAIN A VISA AND SAID THEY COULD "SEE EACH OTHER" IN THE US WHERE HE WAS "WELL ESTABLISHED." JOVEL SAID SHE REFUSED.

5. ACCORDING TO JOVEL, THE TRUTH COMMISSION HAS ASKED THE FMLN FOR EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE, AND THE FMLN HAS RESPONDED THAT IT HAS NO HARD EVIDENCE. HE ADDED THAT THE FMLN BELIEVES THAT THE PN AND THE USG ARE THE PROPER PLACES TO SEEK EVIDENCE OF ANDRADE'S WHEREABOUTS.

6. COMMENT: JOVEL WISHED TO MAKE CLEAR THAT THE FMLN IS NOT PUSHING THIS CASE BUT MERELY RESPONDING TO TRUTH COMMISSION INQUIRIES. HE SAID ANDRADE'S WIFE HAD TRAVELLED TO EUROPE AND SPOKEN TO SEVERAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS IN RECENT YEARS, GIVING THE CASE CERTAIN PUBLICITY. HE ADDED THAT THE FMLN WOULD "STICK TO ITS STORY" BUT WANTS THE USG TO KNOW THAT IT IS NOT SEEKING TO EMPHASIZE ACCUSATIONS OF USG INVOLVEMENT IN THIS CASE.

E.O. 12356: DECL:OADR
TAGS: PHUM, PGOV, GT
SUBJECT: MACK MURDER TRIAL VERDICT DELAYED UNTIL 1993

REF: GUATEMALA 04368 (NOTAL)

1. CONFIDENTIAL -- ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: THE GUATEMALAN ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE DOES NOT EXPECT A VERDICT IN THE MYRNA MACK CHANG MURDER CASE UNTIL JANUARY OR FEBRUARY 1993. THE BISHOP SUPERVISING THAT OFFICE REGARDS THE OUTCOME OF THE TRIAL AS UNCERTAIN, BUT SEES THE RECENT ARREST OF ATTORNEY GENERAL ACIScLO VALLADARES AS A SET-BACK FOR EFFORTS TO IDENTIFY AND PROSECUTE THOSE BEHIND THE MURDER. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN HAS ACCUSED STATE SECURITY FORCES OF KILLING MYRNA MACK. END SUMMARY.

VERDICT DELAYED

3. THE GUATEMALAN ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE DOES NOT EXPECT A VERDICT IN THE MYRNA MACK CHANG MURDER TRIAL UNTIL JANUARY OR FEBRUARY 1993. ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE DIRECTOR RONALTH OCHAETA TOLD POLOFFS ON DECEMBER 4 THAT EVIDENTIARY

PROCEEDINGS AND COURT VACATIONS EXPLAIN THE DELAY.

4. OCHAETA EXPLAINED THAT, UNDER GUATEMALAN LAW,

JUDGES HAVE DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY TO DECLARE A SPECIAL EVIDENCE-GATHERING PERIOD AT THE CONCLUSION OF NORMAL TRIAL PROCEEDINGS. THE PERIOD LASTS FOR 15 CALENDAR DAYS AND GIVES JUDGES AN OPPORTUNITY TO GATHER ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE NEEDED TO BETTER UNDERSTAND ("MEJOR FALLAR") THE CASE. ACCORDING TO OCHAETA, JUDGE CARMEN ELLGUTER HAS JUST APPROVED A DEFENSE MOTION REQUESTING SUCH A PERIOD.

5. JUDICIAL HOLIDAYS WILL CREATE ADDITIONAL DELAYS. GUATEMALAN COURTS WILL BE CLOSED BETWEEN THE SECOND WEEK OF DECEMBER AND THE SECOND WEEK OF JANUARY. OCHAETA BELIEVED DELAYS WOULD PREVENT THE COURT FROM HANDING DOWN A MACK VERDICT BEFORE LATE JANUARY.

OUTCOME UNCERTAIN

6. CHARGE DISCUSSED THE MACK CASE WITH BISHOP JUAN GERARDI, THE PRIEST SUPERVISING THE ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE, DURING A DECEMBER 7 COURTESY CALL AT THE MAIN CATHEDRAL IN GUATEMALA CITY. GERARDI DOES NOT FOLLOW DAY-TO-DAY DEVELOPMENTS IN THE MACK CASE, BUT REGARDED THE OUTCOME OF PROCEEDINGS AGAINST NOEL DE JESUS BETETA ALVAREZ, MACK'S ACCUSED MURDERER, AS UNCERTAIN. GERARDI WAS CONCERNED ABOUT THE EFFECT THE RECENT ARREST OF GUATEMALAN ATTORNEY GENERAL ACISCLO VALLADARES MOLINA, WHO HAS PUSHED THE MACK INVESTIGATION THROUGH THE COURT SYSTEM, WOULD HAVE ON

THE CASE. THE BISHOP FEARED VALLADARES' ARREST WOULD HINDER FUTURE EFFORTS TO IDENTIFY AND PROSECUTE THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE MACK KILLING. IN ANY EVENT, THE BISHOP BELIEVED THAT BETETA WOULD BE THE ONLY SUSPECT PROSECUTED FOR MYRNA MACK'S MURDER. GERARDI DOUBTED THAT BETETA'S SUPERIORS WOULD EVER FACE CHARGES. (COMMENT: PUBLISHED INTERVIEWS WITH ARCHBISHOP PROSPERO PENADOS DEL BARRIO HAVE INCLUDED SIMILAR COMMENTS. END COMMENT.)

OMBUDSMAN'S ACCUSATIONS

7. AS TRIAL PROCEEDINGS DREW TO A CLOSE, GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO RELEASED A NOVEMBER 23 REPORT FINDING THAT: (1) THE VIOLENT DEATH OF MYRNA MACK WAS AN EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLING; AND (2) EVIDENCE SHOWED PARTICIPATION BY GUATEMALAN STATE SECURITY FORCES. GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS REACTED SWIFTLY. PRESIDENTIAL PUBLIC RELATIONS SECRETARY ARTURO ALVARADO DISMISSED ANY SUGGESTION THE SERRANO ADMINISTRATION WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE KILLING, NOTING THAT MACK WAS MURDERED WHILE VICICIO CEREZO WAS PRESIDENT. DEFENSE MINISTER JOSE DOMINGO GARCIA SAMAYOA DENIED ARMY PARTICIPATION, CLAIMING THAT ALLEGATIONS OF STATE SECURITY FORCE INVOLVEMENT PROBABLY REFERRED TO THE NATIONAL POLICE. JUDGE ELLGUTER DECLINED COMMENT, BUT PROMISED TO ATTACH THE REPORT TO HER FINAL CASE STATEMENT, IN ACCORDANCE WITH APPROPRIATE LEGAL PROCEDURES.

8. POLOFFS ASKED OCHAETA ON DECEMBER 4 IF THE

OMBUDSMAN HAD COORDINATED HIS REPORT WITH THE ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE. OCHAETA DENIED KNOWING OF THE REPORT PRIOR TO ITS RELEASE, BUT WELCOMED THE OMBUDSMAN'S FINDINGS. (COMMENT: DE LEON MENTIONED TO FORMER AMBASSADOR STROOCK AND HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICER ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS OVER THE PAST YEAR THAT HIS OFFICE PLANNED TO TAKE UNSPECIFIED STEPS TO PROMOTE JUSTICE IN THE MACK CASE. THE NOVEMBER 23 REPORT MAY HAVE BEEN ONE OF THE STEPS HE HAD IN MIND. END COMMENT.)

MORE THREATS

9. MEANWHILE, THE PRESS HAS REPORTED ADDITIONAL THREATS TO OFFICIALS INVOLVED IN THE MACK CASE. ACCORDING TO MEDIA REPORTS, THE FORMER HEAD OF THE POLICE DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIONS, MEMBER HAROLDO LARIOS TOBAR, LEFT GUATEMALA FOR EXILE ON OCTOBER 25. LARIOS REPORTEDLY RECEIVED DEATH THREATS AFTER PROVIDING THE COURT WITH A COPY OF JOSE MIGUEL MERIDA ESCOBAR'S INVESTIGATION INTO THE MACK MURDER. MERIDA, THE FORMER HEAD OF THE POLICE DEPARTMENT'S HOMICIDE SECTION, WAS MURDERED IN AUGUST, 1991. MANY HAVE LINKED THE MERIDA MURDER TO THE VICTIM'S WORK ON THE MACK INVESTIGATION.

10. OTHER PRESS ACCOUNTS CLAIMED JUDGE OSCAR ALCIDES SAGASTUME MAY HAVE DEPARTED GUATEMALA IN MID-NOVEMBER IN RESPONSE TO DEATH THREATS. HELEN MACK TOLD JOURNALISTS SHE SAW NO REASON WHY ALCIDES SHOULD FACE THREATS FOR HIS ROLE IN THE MACK CASE: HE HAD CONSISTENTLY SIDED WITH BETETA AND DONE NOTHING CONTROVERSIAL.

SUBJECT: A/S ARONSON'S MEETING WITH PRESIDENTIAL ADVISOR BERNARDO NEUMANN

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: A/S ARONSON MET WITH BERNARDO NEUMANN FOR A WIDERANGING DISCUSSION OF U.S./GUATEMALAN RELATIONS TO INCLUDE THE ECONOMY, THE PEACE PROCESS AND HUMAN RIGHTS. A/S ARONSON POINTED OUT, AND MR. NEUMANN FRANKLY ADMITTED, THAT MISUNDERSTANDINGS ABOUT THE NATURE OF U.S. POLICY AND A MISTAKEN BELIEF THAT PAST POLICY DIFFERENCES WERE SUBJECTIVE AND MERELY A MATTER OF PERSONALITY CLASHES COULD HAMPER RESOLUTION OF REAL FUNDAMENTAL PROBLEMS THAT MUST BE ADDRESSED IN GUATEMALA. END SUMMARY.

3. A/S ARONSON MET WITH GUATEMALAN PRESIDENTIAL ADVISOR BERNARDO NEUMANN FOR OVER AN HOUR ON DECEMBER 7. DAS JOHN MAISTO, ARA/CEN DEPUTY DIRECTOR MICHAEL RANNEBERGER, AND DESKOFF JOHN ARNDT ALSO ATTENDED. MR. NEUMANN STOPPED IN WASHINGTON ON HIS RETURN FROM MEETINGS AT THE UN.

4. AFTER AN EXCHANGE OF PLEASANTRIES, MR. NEUMANN STATED THAT HE WOULD APPRECIATE THE A/S ARONSON'S CANDID ASSESSMENT OF THE GENERAL SITUATION IN GUATEMALA. NEUMANN OBSERVED HE WAS CONCERNED FOLLOWING THE REPORT HE RECEIVED OF THE MEETING IN MIAMI OF PRESIDENT SERRANO WITH DAS GELBARD AND DAS MAISTO.

A CANDID ASSESSMENT
---

5. A/S ARONSON REPLIED THAT HE FELT THAT THERE IS A BASIC MISUNDERSTANDING ABOUT OUR RELATIONSHIP WHICH WE HAVE TRIED TO OVERCOME, BUT ARE NOT SURE WE HAVE BEEN SUCCESSFUL. FIRST OF ALL, THE U.S. WANTS NOTHING MORE THAN TO SEE PRESIDENT SERRANO SUCCEED IN CARRYING OUT WHAT HE SET OUT TO DO: NEGOTIATIONS TO END THE CIVIL WAR;

IMPROVE THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION; BRING THE ARMED FORCES FIRMLY UNDER CIVILIAN CONTROL; STRENGTHEN THE ECONOMY; AND MEET PRESSING SOCIAL NEEDS.

6. A/S ARONSON SAID THAT THE PRESIDENT DESERVES HIGH MARKS FOR HIS HANDLING OF THE ECONOMY. HE POINTED OUT THAT WE HAD REWARDED HIM FOR HIS SUCCESS, DISBURSING THE USD 50 MILLIONS THAT HAD BEEN WITHHELD FROM THE CEREZO ADMINISTRATION IS A U.S. RESPONSE TO THIS SUCCESS.

7. A/S ARONSON EXPRESSED DISAPPOINTMENT WITH THE STATUS OF THE PEACE PROCESS. HE NOTED THIS NOT AS CRITICISM OF PRESIDENT SERRANO, KNOWING HOW IMPORTANT THE TALKS AND THEIR SUCCESS ARE TO HIM. A/S ARONSON SAID THAT HE HAD HOPED THAT SUCCESS IN EL SALVADOR WOULD CREATE AN ATMOSPHERE OF SUCCESS IN GUATEMALA. THE PROBLEM, HOWEVER, IS THAT UNLIKE EL SALVADOR THERE IS NO TIME PRESSURE. IT IS FOR THAT REASON THAT HE URGED THE GOG TO BRING IN OUTSIDE ACTORS TO PLAY A CONSTRUCTIVE ROLE. MEXICO HAS A DEEP NATIONAL INTEREST, BUT NO FORMAL ROLE. CONGRESSMAN TORRICELLI HAS TRIED TO HELP. A/S ARONSON HOPED THAT PRESIDENT SERRANO COULD BE THE PRESIDENT THAT BROUGHT PEACE TO GUATEMALA AND BELIEVES THAT A SUCCESSFUL RESOLUTION TO THE CONFLICT WOULD HELP ADDRESS THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION, BUT WAS CONCERNED THAT THE PROCESS, IF IT DRAGGED ON FOR SIX MONTHS TIME, COULD LOSE MORE TIME AS THE PRESIDENT'S TERM IN OFFICE WINDS DOWN AND GUATEMALA IS IMMERSED IN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION POLITICS.

8. A/S ARONSON SAID THAT HE BELIEVES THAT PRESIDENT SERRANO MISUNDERSTANDS U.S. POLICY ON THE ISSUE OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND MISTAKENLY BELIEVES THAT ANY DISAGREEMENTS IN THE PAST YEAR AND ONE HALF ARE MERELY DUE TO A QUESTION OF PERSONALITIES. HE FEARED THAT ANYONE WHO IS UNDER THAT ERRONEOUS IMPRESSION IS IN FOR A RUDE SHOCK WITH THE NEW ADMINSTRATION AND CONGRESS. THIS COULD BECOME GUATEMALA'S ACHILLES HEEL. AS AN EXAMPLE, A/S ARONSON RAISED THE PRESIDENT'S REACTION DURING A MEETING IN MIAMI (AT THE CARRIBEAN CONFERENCE) BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT, P/DAS GELBARD, AND DAS MAISTO. IT IS SURPRISING, HE SAID, THAT WHEN WE WISHED TO THANK THE PRESIDENT FOR HIS ASSISTANCE IN MAKING THE RETURN OF ANILCAR MENDEZ GO AS WELL AS IT DID, THAT THE PRESIDENT THOUGHT OTHERWISE AND WAS ANGRY, SAYING THAT HE SHOULD NEVER HAD DONE IT. A/S ARONSON ASSURED MR. NEUMANN THAT, IF ANILCAR MENDEZ HAD BEEN ARRESTED AND BROUGHT BEFORE A JUDGE IN HANDCUFFS, THERE WOULD HAVE BEEN AN OUTCRY. HE NOTED THAT PRESIDENT SERRANO DID NOT SEEM TO THINK THAT THE CONGRESS WAS AN ACTOR IN THE FIELD OF HUMAN RIGHTS. HE POINTED OUT THAT WE HAD TO WORK TO CONVINCE THE CONGRESS NOT TO CONDITION ALL ASSISTANCE TO GUATEMALA ON HUMAN RIGHTS.

9. MOST DISTURBING HOWEVER, ADDED A/S ARONSON, WAS THE GROWING IMPRESSION THAT CRITICS ARE BEING HARASSED THROUGH THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM ITSELF. THIS IS WHOLLY INCONSISTENT WITH THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS. PRESIDENT SERRANO APPEARS TO BE INCREASINGLY FRUSTRATED AND WILLING TO LASH OUT AT CRITICS. THE LAST PRESIDENT TO MAKE THIS MISCALCULATION WAS FUJIMORI. THE RESULT WAS AN ISOLATED PERU. IF THE TREND CONTINUES IN GUATEMALA, IT COULD LEAD TO A CRISIS IN RELATIONS WITH THE U.S.

10. A/S ARONSON SAID THAT HE BELIEVED THE GLASS WAS STILL MORE FULL THAN EMPTY, BUT THAT GUATEMALA WAS AT A CROSSROADS; IF THE GOVERNMENT MOVES AHEAD TO ACCOMPLISH WHAT SERRANO SET OUT TO DO AT THE OUTSET, THIS COULD BE THE BEST TIME FOR GUATEMALA, A SUCCESSFUL ADMINISTRATION, OR THE OTHER HAND, IF THE JUDICIARY IS USED TO SILENCE CRITICS, THE COUNTRY WOULD BE SAILING AGAINST THE WINDS OF DEMOCRACY THROUGHOUT THE HEMISPHERE.

ARA 3

I WILL CARRY THE MESSAGE

11. MR. NEUMANN RESPONDED THAT APPRECIATED THE FRANK AND CANDID WORDS FROM THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY AND THEY WERE EXACTLY WHAT HE WANTED TO HEAR. HE ADMITTED THAT THERE WERE VOICES IN GUATEMALA THAT HE WAS BECOMING DISTANT FROM THE PRESIDENT, BUT THAT "AN EAR WALKED IN AND A MOUTH WILL WALK OUT." HE ADDED THAT HE UNDERSTOOD COMPLETELY AND REGRETTED IF THE PRESIDENT WAS MISUNDERSTOOD AT THE MEETING IN MIAMI. HE SAID THAT HE HAD BECOME FRIENDS WITH AMBASSADOR STROOCK AND HIS WIFE; THAT FRIENDSHIP ROSE FROM THE BAD CHEMISTRY BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND THE AMBASSADOR. AMBASSADOR STROOCK DID MUCH GOOD, MR. NEUMANN SAID, BUT HIS "EXPRESSIONS WERE CLEVERLY MISUSED IN GUATEMALA." NOTE: MR. NEUMANN REPEATED "CLEVERLY MISUSED" TWICE. END NOTE. MR. NEUMANN OPINED THAT THERE WAS A GREAT DEAL OF SUBJECTIVITY IN THE ISSUE OF BAD BLOOD AND AGREED THAT THERE WERE MANY WHO SAY THAT NOW THAT AMBASSADOR STROOCK IS GONE, ALL WILL BE WELL IN U.S./GUATEMALAN RELATIONS. A/S ARONSON REPLIED THAT SIX MONTHS FROM NOW THOSE SAME PEOPLE MAY LOOK BACK AT AMBASSADOR STROOCK'S TENURE AS THE "GOOD OLD DAYS."

12. MR. NEUMANN SAID THAT PRESIDENT SERRANO'S GOVERNMENT HAS NOT BUDGED ONE INCH FROM WHAT IT REPRESENTED AT ITS INCEPTION. HE ADMITTED, HOWEVER, THAT HOW IT IS PRESENTED IS OFTEN DIFFERENT. HE CREDITED THIS TO OTHERS IN THE GOVERNMENT WHO DO NOT SHARE PRESIDENT SERRANO'S VISION. HE WORRIED THAT THE ARMY IS STILL NOT "TRANSFORMED," AND LOOKS TO AN UNCERTAIN FUTURE IN LIGHT OF WHAT IS PERCEIVED AS A GROWING THREAT TO ABOLISH MILITARIES IN CENTRAL AMERICA. HE POINTED OUT THAT COSTA RICA HAS NO ARMY SINCE 1948 AND PANAMA HAS ABOLISHED ITS ARMED FORCES; SOMETHING WHICH HE BELIEVES IS INEVITABLE.

13. HE BELIEVES THAT PROGRESSIVE ELEMENTS UNDERSTAND THAT THE ONLY WAY TO AVOID THIS IS TO HAVE CIVILIAN CONTROL OF THE MILITARY. UNFORTUNATELY, THE ARMY AS AN INSTITUTION STILL REACTS IN TRADITIONAL, AND ALMOST AUTOMATIC, FASHION TO CRITICISM. HE REFERRED TO THE ALMOST VISCERAL REACTION TO THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE TORTURE SYMPOSIUM HELD AT CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY. HE SAID THAT HE IS PART OF THE SECURITY CABINET AND SO CLOSER TO THE MILITARY AND UNDERSTANDS THEIR THINKING. IN THE CASE OF ANILCAR MENDEZ' PARTICIPATION IN THE CONGRESSIONAL STAFF BRIEFING AND THE TORTURE SYMPOSIUM, IF NOTHING HAD BEEN SAID IN GUATEMALA THINGS WOULD HAVE BEEN FINE. THE ARMY MUST STILL LEARN WHEN TO REMAIN SILENT, ADDING THAT "A STRONG REACITON ON OUR PART IS OUR WEAKNESS."

14. MR. NEUMANN THEN SAID THAT THE ARREST ORDER AGAINST

ANILCAR DID NOT COME FROM THE TOP. BECAUSE ANILCAR IS WHO HE IS, THERE WERE COMPLAINTS ABOUT HIS TREATMENT AND EMBASSY AND INTERNATIONAL INVOLVEMENT. DAS MAISTO POINTED OUT THAT WE WERE CAREFUL NOT TO PROVIDE HIM TRANSPORTATION TO SANTA CRUZ DEL QUICHE, OUR EMBASSY VEHICLE WAS FOR THE DELEGATION WHO HAD COME SIMPLY TO ENSURE HIS PROTECTION. MR. NEUMANN SAID THAT HE WAS PLEASED TO HEAR THAT MENDEZ WAS NOT IN THE EMBASSY VEHICLE, BUT THAT THERE WAS NO NEED FOR HIS PROTECTION IN ANY CASE. HE SAID, "I AM LIKE THE LIFE INSURANCE SALESMAN. ONCE I HAVE SOLD THE POLICY, I PRAY FOR HIS LIFE EVERYDAY."

THE LAW SHOULD BE THE LAW

STATE 401625 1314452 012448 S868259

15. A/S ARONSON INTERJECTED THAT IT IS UNFORTUNATE WHEN THE GOG AND OTHERS OBJECT TO INTERNATIONAL INVOLVEMENT. HUMAN RIGHTS IS NO LONGER THE REALM ONLY OF NATIONAL GOVERNMENTS. IT IS ONE THING TO SAY THAT THE LAW WILL PROTECT YOUR CITIZENS, WHEN IN FACT THAT IS NOT-THE CASE; THE LAW IS NOT FULFILLING ITS FUNCTION. HE LISTED THE PROMINENT CASES, MICHAEL DEVINE, MYRNA MACK, WHERE THE PERCEPTION IS THAT JUSTICE IS NOT BEING DONE. A/S ARONSON POINTED OUT THAT IN THE CASE OF GUATEMALA'S OWN ATTORNEY GENERAL ASISCLO VALLADARES, IT APPEARS THAT HE IS THE VICTIM OF THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM. THE GOG CANNOT SIMPLY SAY TRUST US TO DEAL WITH THESE MATTERS UNDER OUR LAW; THERE IS NO CONFIDENCE. UNTIL CRITICS OF THE GOVERNMENT ARE PROTECTED BY THE LAW AND NOT HARASSED, THERE WILL NOT BE ANY CONFIDENCE.

16. CHIEF JUSTICE RODIL AND ATTORNEY GENERAL VALLADARES ARE FIGHTING FOR THE PRESIDENCY, MR. NEUMANN SAID, AND WHEN MR. VALLADARES FELL INTO A TRAP, RODIL PULLED OUT ALL HIS GUNS AGAINST VALLADARES. A/S ARONSON SAID THAT IF RODIL IS RESPONSIBLE, WOULD IT NOT MAKE SENSE TO DENOUNCE THIS PERVERSION OF JUSTICE. MR. NEUMANN SAID THAT THERE WAS NOTHING TO BE DONE AS THE SEPARATION OF POWERS BETWEEN THE BRANCHES IS STRONGER IN GUATEMALA THAN IN THE U.S. A/S ARONSON ASKED WHEN IT IS THE PRESIDENT OF THE SUPREME COURT WHO IS PREVENTING JUSTICE, WHO WILL PROTECT THE CITIZENS. HE INSISTED THAT EXCESSIVE AND UNPRECEDENTED BAIL MUST BE DENOUNCED. MR. NEUMANN REITERATED THAT PRESIDENT SERRANO'S HANDS WERE TIED. F.Y.I: LATER, SHORTLY BEFORE DEPARTING THE BUILDING, MR. NEUMANN CONFIDED TO DAS MAISTO THAT PRESIDENT SERRANO CANNOT TOUCH CHIEF JUSTICE RODIL BECAUSE IT WOULD MEAN THE COLLAPSE OF THE DC/UCN COALITION WITH THE PRESIDENT'S PARTY, MAS. END F.Y.I.

17. A/S ARONSON SAID THAT UNFORTUNATELY, PRESIDENT SERRANO HIMSELF IS INTOLERANT OF CRITICISM. THIS SENDS THE WRONG SIGNAL TO ALL THAT SUPPORTERS OF DEMOCRACY CANNOT BROACH OPPOSING IDEAS. MR. NEUMANN ADMITTED THAT HE WISHED HE COULD TAKE THE PRESIDENT "ON A LONG CRUISE TO HAVE HIM CALM DOWN," BUT DEFENDED HIM. HE SAID THAT THE ATTACKS AGAINST THE PRESIDENT AND EVEN HIS FAMILY ARE OF AN UNPARALLELED NATURE. A/S ARONSON REPLIED THAT PRESIDENT SERRANO SHOULD SEE WHAT IS SAID ABOUT USG AND OTHER POLITICAL FIGURES, AND OTHER CENTRAL AMERICAN PRESIDENTS. MR. NEUMANN LAID THE BLAME ON BAD PUBLIC RELATIONS AND SAID THAT HE COUNSELS THE PRESIDENT TO CHOOSE HIS BATTLES CAREFULLY AND NOT OPEN TOO MANY FRONTS.

18. A/S ARONSON ENQUIRED ABOUT THE STATUS OF THE DEVINE AND MYRNA MACK MURDER INVESTIGATION. MR. NEUMANN REPLIED THAT HE IS PERSONALLY COMMITTED TO HAVE BOTH RESOLVED. HIS INVESTIGATION CONCLUDED THAT CAPTAIN CONTRERAS WAS GUILTY, BUT THAT THE TWO COLONELS BORE NO RESPONSIBILITY IN THE DEVINE CASE. HE ADMITTED THAT ONE OF THE TWO COLONELS HAD BEEN PRACTICALLY "DRUMMED OUT" OF THE ARMY. IN THE MACK CASE, HE SAID THAT HE HAD EVIDENCE, BUT NOT ENOUGH TO PROSECUTE, AGAINST TWO ACTIVE DUTY MILITARY OFFICERS. HE SAID THAT HE URGED THE ARMY LEADERSHIP AT EVERY OPPORTUNITY TO TRY THEM OR BRING SOME OTHER DISCIPLINARY ACTION AGAINST THEM. F.Y.I.: AFTER THE MEETING DESKOFF ASKED MR. NEUMANN THE NAMES OF THE TWO OFFICERS AND TO CONFIRM THAT THEY ARE STILL ON ACTIVE DUTY. HE REPLIED THAT THEY ARE ON DUTY AND THAT HE WILL MAKE THEIR NAMES PUBLIC THE MINUTE THAT HE HAS SUFFICIENT EVIDENCE AGAINST THEM. END F.Y.I.

19. A/S ARONSON ASKED MR. NEUMANN WHY THE ARMY HAD MYRNA MACK KILLED. MR. NEUMANN REPLIED SIMPLY BECAUSE SHE WAS WRITING ABOUT THE DISPLACED IN GUATEMALA. A/S ARONSON STATED THAT IT WAS PRECISELY BECAUSE THERE ARE SOME IN THE MILITARY WHO COULD BELIEVE THAT A SOCIOLOGIST (MACK) IS A SUBVERSIVE THAT THE PRESIDENT MUST NOT CRITICIZE HIS CRITICS.

PEACE NEEDS SOME FRIENDS

---

20. TURNING TO THE PEACE PROCESS, A/S ARONSON SAID THAT AS SOMEONE WHO WAS INTIMATELY INVOLVED IN THE PROCESS IN EL SALVADOR, THE CURRENT WAY THE GOG/URNG/CNR ARE GOING ABOUT IT WILL NOT WORK. WE HAVE OFFERED THE IDEA OF FRIENDS OF THE PROCESS BEFORE. PRESENT IN NEW YORK WHEN THE UNSYG ANNOUNCED THE FORMATION OF THE FOUR FRIENDS OF THE U.N. SECURITY AGREEMENT FOR EL SALVADOR, A/S ARONSON KNEW THAT CRISTIANI WAS INITIALLY SKEPTICAL AND SAW THEM AS ADVERSARIES. NOW, HOWEVER, WHEN PRESIDENT CRISTIANI UTILIZES THE PRESSURE OF THE FOUR FRIENDS ON THE FMLN MR. NEUMANN REPLIED THAT HE WOULD ADVISE THE PRESIDENT OF THAT COURSE AND THE U.S OFFER TO BE OF HELP, IF ASKED. HE CONTINUED THAT HE WAS COMING TO THE SAME CONCLUSION ALSO.

21. A/S ARONSON CONCLUDED BY SAYING THAT ALL GOOD ACHIEVEMENTS CAN BE UNDONE BY ONE WRONG STATEMENT. HE NOTED THAT EVEN CONGRESSMAN KOSTMAYER, IN THE NAME OF THE WHOLE DELEGATION, HAD MENTIONED THAT THERE WAS PROGRESS IN GUATEMALA THAT THE DELEGATION APPLAUDED. [redacted] B1,A5

SUBJECT: GOG PEACE COMMISSION METS WITH ARA/DAS MAISTO

REF: MEXICO 29833

1. CONFIDENTIAL -- ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: IN A WIDE-RANGING LUNCHEON DISCUSSION WITH GOG PEACE COMMISSION MEMBERS HOSTED BY THE CHARGE, ARA/DAS JOHN MAISTO NOTED THAT THE PEACE PROCESS HAS BECOME STUCK AND POINTED OUT THE VALUE OF SEEKING SOME TYPE OF INTERNATIONAL PRESSURE TO MOVE THE URNG TOWARD AN ACCORD. THROUGHOUT THE DISCUSSION, MAISTO ALSO STRESSED THE NEED TO FOCUS ON NEGOTIATIONS, NOT SEEK THE CHIMERA OF A MILITARY VICTORY. GOG HEAD NEGOTIATOR MANUEL CONDE DID NOT FULLY ACCEPT THE ARGUMENT OF INTERNATIONALIZING THE DISCUSSIONS, THOUGH SOME OTHERS ON THE COMMISSION SEEMED MORE RECEPTIVE.

3. CONDE BLAMED THE NEGOTIATING STALEMATE ON THE URNG AND ITS STRATEGY TO STRING DISCUSSIONS OUT. HE ALSO COMPLAINED ABOUT THE ISSUANCE OF VISAS TO URNG MEMBERS, A POSITION MAISTO PARRIED. THE GOG CHIEF NEGOTIATOR, WHO DID MOST OF THE TALKING FOR HIS SIDE, ALSO STATED THAT THE FMLN, FSLN AND URNG ARE SEEKING TO SEND A JOINT TEAM TO MEET WITH CLINTON ADMINISTRATION TRANSITION OFFICIALS. IN THE COURSE OF THE LUNCH, MAISTO MENTIONED SEVERAL HUMAN RIGHTS CASES, INCLUDING DEVINE, MACK AND AMILCAR MENDEZ. HE REPEATEDLY POINTED OUT THE NEED FOR COMPLETE JUSTICE. CONDE ALSO RELATED THAT HIS RECENT TRIP TO

CONFIDENTIAL

MEXICO HAD GONE VERY WELL. END SUMMARY.

4. ARA/DAS JOHN MAISTO MET DECEMBER 10 WITH SEVEN (OF 11) MEMBERS OF THE GOG PEACE COMMISSION AT A LUNCHEON HOSTED DECEMBER 10 BY THE CHARGE. ATTENDING FOR THE GOG WERE CHIEF NEGOTIATOR MANUEL CONDE AND CIVILIAN COMMISSION MEMBERS MANOLO BENDFELDT, JOSE LUIS ASENCIO, AMILCAR BURGOS AND FERNANDO HURTADO PREN. REPRESENTING THE MILITARY SIDE OF THE NEGOTIATING TEAM WERE GENERALS PINEDA AND ROSSITO. ALSO ATTENDING WERE POLCOUNS, DATT AND POLOFF.

MEXICO VISIT

5. CONDE AND ASENCIO OFFERED COMMENTS ON THEIR JUST-CONCLUDED TRIP TO MEXICO (REF). THEY WERE BOTH EFFUSIVE ABOUT THE RESULTS, CONDE RELATING THAT THE GOM HAD PROMISED GREATER COOPERATION ON FRONTIER SECURITY AND NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING. ASENCIO ADDED THAT THE ISSUE OF REFUGEES HAD BEEN MENTIONED, BUT HE GAVE NO INDICATION OF THE DEPTH OF THESE DISCUSSION.

6. CONDE STATED THAT HE HAD GONE TO MEXICO TO EXPLAIN THE GOG'S PEACE TALK'S POSITION TO THE GOM AND VARIOUS THIRD COUNTRY EMBASSIES (INCLUDING OURS). HE BELIEVED HE HAD MADE GOOD PROGRESS IN PUTTING FORTH THE GOVERNMENT'S VIEW. CONDE ALSO ADDED THAT PRESIDENT SERRANO HAD A FRUITFUL TWO-HOUR CHAT WITH MEXICAN PRESIDENT SALINAS ON A BRIEF DECEMBER 8 MEXICAN STOPOVER. LATER, ASENCIO RELATED THAT ON THE TRIP A GROUP OF FIFTY EXILES SOUGHT OUT HIM AND CONDE, EXPRESSING THEIR APPRECIATION OF THE NEW POSITIVE REALITIES IN GUATEMALA. FOR THIS ACTION, THE URNG BRANDED THE GROUP "RENEGADES."

HONOR THY WORD

7. CONDE OFFERED HIS VIEW OF WHERE THE PEACE PROCESS STANDS. IN FAMILIAR TERMS, HE BLAMED THE URNG FOR THE CURRENT STALEMATE. IT WAS STRINGING OUT THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS FOR POLITICAL AND FINANCIAL REASONS (THE LATTER POINT AN ALLUSION TO THE BENEFITS GAINED FROM POSTURING AS HUMAN RIGHTS CHAMPIONS). EVEN MORE UNSETTLING, THOUGH, THE COMANDANTES HAD

BACKED AWAY FROM PREVIOUSLY AGREED UPON POINTS, INCLUDING THAT INTERNATIONAL VERIFICATION WOULD COME AFTER A GLOBAL PEACE ACCORD WAS SIGNED. HOW COULD YOU TRUST SUCH PEOPLE, HE QUERIED. THERE WOULD BE NO PROGRESS UNTIL THEY HONORED THEIR PREVIOUS COMMITMENTS.

8. "AND IF THEY DON'T?," ASKED MAISTO. WELL, PRESSURE NEEDED TO BE APPLIED, RESPONDED CONDE, WITH THE NODDING ASSENT OF GENERAL PINEDA. MAISTO SAID HE HOPED THAT THIS WOULD NOT INCLUDE A NEW OFFENSIVE. NOT ONLY WOULD THIS LEAD TO MORE DEATHS, BUT GIVEN THE NATURE OF THE GUERRILLAS AND THE POROUS GUATEMALAN BORDERS, INCREASED MILITARY ACTION MAY NOT HAVE AS POSITIVE RESULTS AS HOPED. IN ADDITION, IT WOULD FURTHER DAMAGE GUATEMALA'S IMAGE.

9. SIMPLY PUT, MAISTO CONTINUED, YOU ALONE CANNOT SUFFICIENTLY PRESSURE THE URNG EITHER POLITICALLY OR MILITARILY TO MAKE NEEDED CONCESSIONS. THE ONLY WAY TO ACCOMPLISH THIS IS THROUGH INTERNATIONAL PRESSURE, POSSIBLY INCLUDING A FRIENDS GROUP. ALLOWING HOW HIS INTERLOCUTORS MIGHT NOT LIKE HIS COMPARISON, THE DAS NOTED THAT THE "FOUR FRIENDS" OF THE UN SECRETARY GENERAL PLUS THE U.S. WERE KEY TO PROGRESS IN EL SALVADOR. IF THERE WAS ANY DOUBT ABOUT THIS, THE GUATEMALANS COULD ASK PRESIDENT CRISTIANI.

10. CONDE ALLOWED AS TO HOW TURNING UP THE INTERNATIONAL HEAT ON THE URNG WAS IMPORTANT, BUT LAMENTED THAT THE GUERRILLAS WERE PROVIDED SO MANY FOREIGN OUTLETS TO PUT FORTH THEIR IDEAS. CURRENTLY, FOR INSTANCE, THEY ARE HOPING TO PLEAD THEIR CASE BEFORE CLINTON ADMINISTRATION TRANSITION TEAM MEMBERS AS PART OF A "DEMOCRATIC LEFT" GROUP ALSO COMPOSED OF THE FSLN AND FMLN. IN ADDITION, THEY HAVE RECEPTIVE AUDIENCES IN MANY COUNTRIES.

11. STAYING ON HIS MOMENTARY THEME OF ALLOWING THE URNG FOREIGN OUTLETS, CONDE COMPLAINED ABOUT THE ISSUANCE OF A VISA TO RODRIGO ASTURIAS TO TRAVEL TO THE UN. THE PROBLEM, CONDE LAMENTED, WAS THAT HE WOULD GO TO THE STATES AND FOLLOW HIS OWN AGENDA, SAYING PUBLICLY WHATEVER SERVED URNG PURPOSES. RESPONDING, MAISTO NOTED THAT ONCE IN THE U.S., THE RIGHT TO FREE SPEECH PREVAILED. IT WAS IMPORTANT, NONETHELESS, FOR THE GOG TO REALIZE THAT OUR CONTACTS WITH THE URNG ARE NOT FORMAL. IN ADDITION, WHENEVER WE SEE THEM (LARGELY THROUGH OUR EMBASSY IN MEXICO), WE PASS THE CONSISTENT MESSAGE THAT THEY NEED TO MOVE TOWARD PEACE, NOT STALL.

12. MAISTO ALSO NOTED THAT THE COMMISSION SHOULD NOT OVERBLOW THE EXTENT OF THESE CONTACTS (LARGELY ACCOMPLISHED THROUGH OUR MEXICAN EMBASSY). IN THIS RESPECT, IT WAS IMPORTANT TO REALIZE THAT HE HAD ONLY MET WITH ONE URNG OFFICIAL, LUIS BECKER, AND MAISTO NOTED THAT FOREIGN MINISTER MENENDEZ PARK HAD REQUESTED AT THE 1992 UNGA THAT THE U.S. URGE THE URNG TO NEGOTIATE SERIOUSLY. CONDE TOOK THE POINT AND SAID THAT IT WAS "GOOD NEWS" THAT THE U.S. HAD NO FORMAL CONTACTS WITH THE URNG.

HUMAN RIGHTS

13. DAS MAISTO TOOK ADVANTAGE OF THIS MEETING WITH THE PEACE COMMISSION, SEVERAL OF WHOSE MEMBERS ARE CLOSE TO SERRRANO OR THE MILITARY HIERARCHY, TO RAISE THE NEED FOR JUSTICE IN A NUMBER OF HUMAN RIGHTS CASES. COMING IN FOR SPECIAL MENTION WERE THE DEVINE, MACK AND AMILCAR MENEDEZ CASES. SPEAKING FRANKLY, MAISTO ALLOWED AS TO HOW ANY PERCEIVED RIGHTS VIOLATIONS REDOUND TO THE DETRIMENT OF THE GOG ABROAD AND, NOT INCONSECUENTIALLY, TO THE BENEFIT OF

THE URNG. IMPORTANT IN THIS RESPECT, HE ADDED, IS TO STAY AWAY FROM ANY COVER-UPS.

14. THE PEACE COMMISSION MEMBERS AGREED ON THE IMPORTANCE OF CHANGING GUATEMALA'S IMAGE AND RESPECTING HUMAN RIGHTS. ADDRESSING THE DEVINE CASE, GENERAL ROSSITO, OUTGOING ARMY INSPECTOR GENERAL, STATED THAT IT IS STILL IN THE COURT SYSTEM AND JUSTICE IS BEING DONE. AS FOR AMILCAR, ROSSITO PRONOUNCED THIS CASE A POSITIVE DISPLAY OF GUATEMALAN JUSTICE, SINCE IT TOO IS BEING HANDLED THROUGH NORMAL LEGAL CHANNELS.

COMMENT

15. DAS MAISTO MADE CLEAR TO HIS GOG INTERLOCUTORS THAT THEIR BEST HOPE FOR ADVANCING THE TALKS LAY IN INCREASING INTERNATIONAL PRESSURE ON THE URNG. BEING CONTRARY TO GOG DOGMA, CONDE DISPLAYED SOME SKEPTICISM OVER THIS JUDGMENT. SOME OTHERS IN THE COMMISSION (E.G., ASENCIO), HOWEVER, SEEMED MORE WILLING TO ENTERTAIN THIS NOTION. NONETHELESS, THE KEY, AS ALWAYS, REMAINS PRESIDENT SERRANO. IF HE IS INDEED FOLLOWING A PLAN TO PRESSURE THE URNG POLITICALLY AND, PERHAPS, MILITARILY, HE MAY REMAIN RETICENT TO CONSIDER THE "FRIENDS" IDEA UNTIL AFTER GIVING HIS SCHEME A SHOT. THIS MAY ESPECIALLY BE THE CASE IF HE LEFT MEXICO WITH AS GOOD NEWS AS CONDE

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PHUM, PREL, PGOV, UN, GT
SUBJECT: ACTING FOREIGN MINISTER MEETS WITH ARA/DAS MAISTO

1. CONFIDENTIAL -- ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: ARA/DAS JOHN MAISTO DISCUSSED HUMAN RIGHTS MATTERS DECEMBER 10 WITH ACTING FOREIGN MINISTER MANUEL VILLACORTA AND MFA ADVISER ANTONIO ARENALES. MAISTO STRESSED THE NEED FOR ACTING JUSTLY AND WISELY ON HUMAN RIGHTS, MENTIONING THE KEY MENDEZ, DEVINE AND MACK CASES. HIS INTERLOCUTORS AGREED, BUT FELT THAT THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY WAS TOO WILLING TO BELIEVE THE WORST ABOUT GUATEMALA. AS AN EXAMPLE, BOTH CANADA AND THE EC ARE PROMOTING PLACING GUATEMALA UNDER ITEM 12 AT THE UPCOMING UNHRC MEETING. END SUMMARY.

3. ARA/DAS JOHN MAISTO MET DECEMBER 10 WITH ACTING FOREIGN MINISTER MANUEL VILLACORTA AND MFA ADVISER ANTONIO ARENALES IN A MEETING ALMOST COMPLETELY DEVOTED TO HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES. ACCOMPANYING MAISTO WERE THE CHARGE, MILGRP COMMANDER AND POLOFF.

MENDEZ, MACK AND DEVINE

4. AFTER INITIAL PLEASANTRIES, MAISTO MENTIONED THAT HE HAD JUST COME FROM A MEETING WITH AMILCAR MENDEZ. NOTING THAT HE HAD ALSO DISCUSSED THE MENDEZ CASE EARLIER IN THE DAY WITH HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO, WHOSE OFFICE HAD JUST ISSUED A REPORT SAYING THAT THOSE WHO IMPLICATED THE HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVIST HAD BEEN PRESSURED TO DO SO, MAISTO URGED THE MFA OFFICIALS TO MAKE SURE THEIR GOVERNMENT HANDLED THE CASE SAGACIOUSLY.

5. CONTINUING, MAISTO NOTED THAT HE HAD BEEN SPEAKING FRANKLY TO ALL HIS GOG INTERLOCUTORS ABOUT THE NEED FOR JUSTICE IN THE MENDEZ CASE, AS WELL AS IN THE CASES OF DEVINE AND MACK. THESE MATTERS NEEDED A TRANSPARENT AND CREDIBLE RESOLUTION; ANY

HINT OF A COVER-UP WOULD BE COUNTERPRODUCTIVE. REFERRING TO THE DEVINE KILLING, THE DAS REITERATED OUR SPECIAL INTEREST DUE TO DEVINE BEING A U.S. CITIZEN. WE HOPED TO SEE ALL THOSE GUILTY PUNISHED AND BELIEVED THAT THE PRINCIPLE OF RESPONSIBILITY OF THE COMMAND MEANT THAT HIGHER-UPS (I.E., CAPT. CONTRERAS) WOULD ALSO BE PUNISHED.

WE ARE GOOD GUYS

6. VILLACORTA RESPONDED BY STATING THAT PRESIDENT SERRANO AND HIS GOVERNMENT WERE COMMITTED TO JUSTICE AND SOUGHT TO ASSIGN RESPONSIBILITY TO THOSE WHO WERE GUILTY. NONETHELESS, THE EXECUTIVE COULD NOT INTERFERE IN THE WORK OF THE COURT SYSTEM. IN ADDITION, THE GOG HAD DONE MANY GOOD THINGS FOR WHICH IT DID NOT GET INTERNATIONAL CREDIT. SPEAKING IN AN ANIMATED FASHION, VILLACORTA SAID THAT, "WE DO 15 GOOD THINGS AND THEN ONE ERROR ERASES EVERYTHING." THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY NEEDS TO RECOGNIZE WHAT WE HAVE ACCOMPLISHED AND ARE TRYING TO DO. IT ALSO NEEDS TO RECOGNIZE THAT CHANGES TAKE TIME.

UNHRC

7. JOINING IN, ARENALES AGREED THAT THE OUTSIDE WORLD DID NOT RECOGNIZE HOW MUCH GUATEMALA HAD CHANGED. IT ALSO DID NOT SEEM TO REALIZE THAT THIS ONGOING PROCESS NEEDED INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT, NOT CONDEMNATION. IN THIS REGARD, ARENALES COMPLAINED ABOUT GUATEMALA'S TREATMENT AT THE UNHRC. HE LABELED THE COMMISSION'S WORK AS POLITICAL AND PARTIAL. WHY ARE ONLY SMALL OR WEAK COUNTRIES TAKEN TO TASK? IN INDIA, 800 DIED THIS WEEK, BUT IT WILL NEVER BE "JUDGED" IN GENEVA. PERHAPS EVEN WORSE, GUATEMALA IS GROUPED WITH PARIAH COUNTRIES LIKE IRAQ AND IRAN AT THE UNHRC.

8. TURNING TO LAST YEAR'S UNHRC MEETING, BOTH MFA OFFICIALS RECOGNIZED U.S. AID IN THE MEETING. GUATEMALA REMAINED UNDER ITEM 19, AND ITS INDEPENDENT EXPERT HAD A MANDATE EQUAL TO AN ITEM 12 SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR. OBVIOUSLY, ARENALES CONCLUDED, THE ATTEMPT TO CAST GUATEMALA INTO ITEM 12 WAS PURELY POLITICAL.

EC/CANADA

9. CONTINUING, ARENALES STATED THAT CANADA AND THE EC WERE NOW INTERESTED IN MOVING GUATEMALA TO ITEM 12. OTTAWA HAD INFORMED THE GOG AMBASSADOR TO CANADA OF ITS INTENT TO PUSH THIS CHANGE AND THE EC WAS ON THE VERGE OF A HARSH RESOLUTION ALONG THE SAME LINES. ARENALES NOTED THAT THESE MOVES WERE BEING TAKEN EVEN PRIOR TO INDEPENDENT EXPERT TOMUSCHAT ISSUING HIS REPORT ON GUATEMALA. MAISTO REPLIED THAT FAIR AND TRANSPARENT HANDLING OF HIGH INTEREST HUMAN RIGHTS CASES (MACK, DEVINE, MENDEZ) BY THE GUATEMALAN AUTHORITIES WOULD BE THE BEST MEANS TO PRECLUDE SUCH MOVES.

E.O. 12356: DECL:OADR
TAGS: PHUM, PGOV, PINR, GT
SUBJECT: GUATEMALAN OMBUDSMAN DISCUSSES MENDEZ CASE & HEIGHTENED TENSIONS

1. CONFIDENTIAL -- ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO CONFIRMED TO DAS MAISTO THAT MILITARY PERSONNEL COERCED WITNESSES INTO TESTIFYING AGAINST CERJ PRESIDENT ANILCAR MENDEZ. THE OMBUDSMAN WANTED MILITARY LEADERS TO ADMIT THE MISTAKE AND PLEDGE THAT IT WILL NOT RECUR, BUT BELIEVED THE ARMY WILL CONTINUE TO DENY ANY WRONGDOING. RELATIONS BETWEEN THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE AND PRESIDENT SERRANO HAVE BEEN STRAINED AT TIMES, BUT DE LEON CLAIMED THEY WERE CURRENTLY AT A LOW POINT. THE OMBUDSMAN FAULTED THE PRESIDENT FOR ALIENATING VIRTUALLY EVERY MAJOR SECTOR OF GUATEMALAN SOCIETY AS HIS PERSONAL POPULARITY AND SUPPORT FOR HIS GOVERNMENT CONTINUED TO SLIDE. END SUMMARY.

3. ON DECEMBER 12, DAS MAISTO AND HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICER CALLED ON GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO. THE FOLLOWING REPORT ON THE ANILCAR MENDEZ CASE AND GROWING TENSION BETWEEN THE GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT AND HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS IS BASED ON THEIR CONVERSATION.

OMBUDSMAN'S REPORT ON MENDEZ CASE

4. DAS MAISTO MET WITH DE LEON THE DAY AFTER THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE RELEASED A REPORT ACCUSING SANTA CRUZ DEL QUICHE MILITARY PERSONNEL OF COERCING WITNESSES INTO TESTIFYING AGAINST CERJ PRESIDENT

ANILCAR MENDEZ. MENDEZ FACES CHARGES THAT HE GAVE BOMBS CONTAINING URNG PAMPHLETS TO PEASANTS TASKED WITH DETONATING THEM IN SANTA CRUZ. DE LEON SAID HE HAD NO ILLUSIONS ABOUT MENDEZ AND HIS FAULTS, BUT FELT COMPELLED TO SPEAK OUT AGAINST MILITARY EFFORTS TO DEVELOP FALSE TESTIMONY. DE LEON EMPHASIZED THAT THE REPORT FOCUSSED ON A SINGLE, NARROW ASPECT IN THE MENDEZ CASE (I.E., COERCED TESTIMONY) WITHOUT ADDRESSING BROADER ISSUES. NEVERTHELESS, HE CONCEDED DAS MAISTO'S OBSERVATION THAT THE REPORT HAD BROADER POLITICAL AND LEGAL IMPLICATIONS.

5. DAS MAISTO MENTIONED THAT ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF BRIG. GEN. JORGE ROBERTO PERRUSSINA HAD TOLD HIM THE PREVIOUS DAY THAT THE OMBUDSMAN WAS DISPLEASED WITH THE REPORT. PERRUSSINA CLAIMED THAT DEPUTY OMBUDSMAN EUGENIA MORALES DE SIERRA RELEASED THE REPORT WHILE DE LEON WAS OUT OF THE COUNTRY AND FAILED TO OBTAIN HER BOSS' CLEARANCE BEFOREHAND. DE LEON TOLD DAS MAISTO HE REVIEWED THE REPORT BEFORE DEPARTING GUATEMALA AND STOOD BY ITS CONTENTS. HE ALSO SUPPORTED MORALES, BUT FAULTED HER FOR NOT SENDING THE REPORT TO THE ARMY BEFORE MAKING IT PUBLIC, A GAFFE THAT HAD CAUSED EMBARRASSMENT. (COMMENT: WE ARE UNSURE WHETHER DE LEON IS TELLING DIFFERENT STORIES TO DIFFERENT AUDIENCES, OR PERRUSSINA IS GUILTY OF WISHFUL THINKING. WE NOTE, HOWEVER, THAT THE OMBUDSMAN PROVIDED PRESIDENT SERRANO AND THE EMBASSY WITH DIFFERENT ASSESSMENTS OF THE MARITZA URRUTIA CASE IN THE DAYS FOLLOWING HER JULY 1992 KIDNAPPING. END COMMENT.)

MILITARY STONEWALLING

6. DE LEON WANTED THE MILITARY TO ADMIT ITS MISTAKE IN THE MENDEZ CASE, AND PLEDGE THAT IT WOULD NOT BE REPEATED. HE DOUBTED THAT WOULD OCCUR, HOWEVER, BECAUSE MILITARY LEADERS HAVE CONSISTENTLY REFUSED TO RECOGNIZE ERRORS. (FYI: THE POLICE ARRESTED THE BOMBING SUSPECTS AND ARE HANDLING THE CASE, BUT

MILITARY PERSONNEL ARE ACCUSED OF ILLEGALLY INTERROGATING THE SUSPECTS AT THE SANTA CRUZ MILITARY BASE AFTER THEY WERE TAKEN INTO CUSTODY. END FYI.)

7. DE LEON RECALLED CALLING THE THEN-DEFENSE MINISTER DURING AN INTERNATIONALLY-PUBLICIZED MARCH 1990 INCIDENT WHEN CIVIL PATROLLERS IN PARAXTUT THREATENED TO KILL DEPUTY OMBUDSMAN CESAR ALVAREZ GUADAMUZ. THE MINISTER DENIED ALVAREZ WAS IN DANGER, CLAIMING MILITARY SOURCES HAD A DIFFERENT VERSION OF EVENTS. THE OMBUDSMAN THANKED THE MINISTER FOR HIS TIME, NOTED THAT A VIDEOTAPE CONFIRMED THE INCIDENT, AND HUNG UP THE PHONE. THE MINISTER CALLED BACK TEN MINUTES LATER AND ACKNOWLEDGING THE THREAT, BUT DE LEON DOUBTED THERE WOULD HAVE BEEN A CHANGE OF HEART ABSENT VIDEOTAPED EVIDENCE. THE ARMY REPORTEDLY RESPONDED WITH SIMILAR STONEWALLING TO INITIAL REPORTS OF THE DECEMBER 1990

SANTIAGO ATITLAN MASSACRE.

8. DE LEON BELIEVED THAT THE MENDEZ CASE AND THE SANTIAGO ATITLAN MASSACRE WERE SIMILAR BECAUSE THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE ACCUSED MILITARY PERSONNEL OF ABUSES, BUT ASKED THE DEFENSE MINISTRY TO IDENTIFY THOSE RESPONSIBLE IN BOTH CASES. OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE INVESTIGATIONS SHOWED THAT SANTA CRUZ SOLDIERS INTIMIDATED THE WITNESSES, AND THAT ONLY MILITARY PERSONNEL KNEW WHO HAD ACCESS TO THEM. DE LEON

REJECTED A DECEMBER 11 STATEMENT BY ARMED FORCES SPOKESMAN CAPT JULIO YON RIVERA THAT THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE REPORT WAS FLAWED AND CONTRADICTORY BECAUSE INVESTIGATIONS COULD NOT HAVE BEEN COMPLETE IF GUILTY PARTIES WERE NOT IDENTIFIED.

RELATIONS WITH SERRANO STRAINED

9. RELATIONS BETWEEN THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE AND PRESIDENT SERRANO HAVE BEEN STRAINED AT TIMES, BUT DE LEON CLAIMED THEY WERE CURRENTLY AT A LOW POINT. DE LEON BELIEVED CURRENT GOG EFFORTS TO CLOSE THE POLITICAL "SPACE" FOR HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISM WERE UNPRECEDENTED DURING HIS TENURE AS OMBUDSMAN.

10. DE LEON AND THE PRESIDENT DID NOT SPEAK FOR SEVERAL MONTHS AFTER MARITZA URRUTIA'S AUGUST 1992 DEPARTURE FROM GUATEMALA LED TO AN OPEN CLASH BETWEEN THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE AND THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH. SERRANO RENEWED CONTACT WHEN HE CALLED DE LEON SEVERAL DAYS BEFORE ANILCAR MENDEZ'S NOVEMBER 22 RETURN FROM

THE U.S. THE PRESIDENT SOLICITED DE LEON'S VIEWS ON HOW TO HANDLE MENDEZ'S ARRIVAL AT THE GUATEMALA CITY AIRPORT. HE SUBSEQUENTLY INVITED THE OMBUDSMAN TO A LATE-NIGHT CABINET MEETING ON THE ISSUE. DE LEON TOLD THE PRESIDENT AND HIS CABINET THAT THE COURT ORDER COULD NOT BE IGNORED, BUT THAT AUTHORITIES SHOULD ARREST MENDEZ IN A LOW-KEY MANNER. DE LEON TOLD DAS MAISTO THAT, IN SUBSEQUENT CONVERSATIONS WITH U.S. OFFICIALS, SERRANO CLAIMED THE OMBUDSMAN ADVISED HIM TO ARREST MENDEZ. DE LEON BELIEVED SERRANO SOUGHT THE OMBUDSMAN'S VIEWS MERELY TO BOLSTER THE CASE FOR ARRESTING MENDEZ AT THE AIRPORT.

SERRANO ALIENATED

11. ACCORDING TO DE LEON, SERRANO HAS ALIENATED MANY FORMER SUPPORTERS AND VIRTUALLY ALL MAJOR SECTORS OF GUATEMALAN SOCIETY. IT TOOK VINICIO CEREZO THREE OR FOUR YEARS TO LOSE HIS CREDIBILITY AS PRESIDENT, DE LEON OBSERVED, BUT SERRANO ACCOMPLISHED THE SAME FEAT IN LESS THAN TWO. THE OMBUDSMAN FAULTED SERRANO FOR HIS OWN UNPOPULARITY: THE PRESIDENT MANAGES PERSONAL RELATIONS POORLY AND LIVES TOO FLAMBOYANTLY. DE LEON CRITICIZED THE PRESIDENT FOR BUYING POLO PONIES WHEN EVERYONE KNOWS HE PLAYED ONLY TENNIS AND SOCCER BEFORE BECOMING CHIEF EXECUTIVE. CORRUPTION IS A PROBLEM IN ALL LATIN AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES, DE LEON SAID, BUT SERRANO WAS TOO CONSPICUOUS IN FLAUNTING HIS NEW WEALTH.

NEW DEPUTY OMBUDSMAN

12. HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICER ASKED IF DE LEON HAD CHOSEN A SUCCESSOR TO DEPUTY OMBUDSMAN CESAR ALVAREZ GUADAMUZ. ALVAREZ ANNOUNCED LAST AUGUST HE WOULD RESIGN AT THE END OF 1992 (PROBABLY BECAUSE DE LEON'S RE-ELECTION AS OMBUDSMAN FRUSTRATED ASPIRATIONS TO THE TOP POST); AND WAS BEEN MENTIONED AS A POSSIBLE SUCCESSOR TO GUATEMALA'S BESEIGED ATTORNEY GENERAL, ACISCLO VALLADARES. DE LEON HAS YET TO ANNOUNCE ALVAREZ'S SUCCESSOR, BUT SAID HE HAD ASKED AUGUSTO WILLEMSON DIAZ TO TAKE THE POST. WILLEMSON, WHO HAS YET TO ACCEPT OR DECLINE, IS A LAWYER ASSIGNED SINCE 1956 TO HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES AT THE UNITED NATIONS. HE IS A PAST RECIPIENT OF THE SPANISH GOVERNMENT'S BARTOLOME DE LAS CASAS AWARD, WHICH HONORS DEFENDERS OF INDIGENOUS RIGHTS.

COMMENT

GUATEM 13385 00 OF 03 172255Z #15993 S864256

13. THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE REPORT ON THE MENDEZ CASE IS A MAJOR DEVELOPMENT FOR SEVERAL REASONS. FIRST OF ALL, THE GOVERNMENT'S CASE IS PREDICATED ENTIRELY ON EYEWITNESS TESTIMONY LINKING MENDEZ TO PAMPHLET BOMBS. IF THAT TESTIMONY IS FOUND DEFICIENT, THE GOVERNMENT'S CASE COLLAPSES. SECOND, THE GOVERNMENT HAS ACCUSED MENDEZ OF A VARIETY OF MISDEEDS. IF THE SANTA CRUZ COURT FINDS THE WITNESSES WERE COERCED, MANY WILL REGARD GOVERNMENT EVIDENCE IN THIS OR OTHER PROCEEDINGS AS TAINTED. THIRD, MENDEZ HAS LONG CLAIMED HE IS A VICTIM OF GOVERNMENT PERSECUTION. BUT MANY GUATEMALANS HAVE AMBIVALENT FEELINGS ABOUT HIS POLITICAL VIEWS AND ACTIVITIES. THE OMBUDSMAN'S PRESTIGE ENHANCES MENDEZ'S PERSONAL CREDIBILITY WHILE UNDERCUTTING THAT OF THE PRESIDENT. FINALLY, MENDEZ ENJOYS CONSIDERABLE SUPPORT FROM OVERSEAS, BUT RELATIVELY LITTLE IN GUATEMALA. THE OMBUDSMAN'S REPORT REPRESENTS ONE OF THE FEW TIMES A MAINSTREAM GUATEMALAN ORGANIZATION HAS COME TO HIS DEFENSE. WE WONDER IF MENDEZ MIGHT NOT ATTRACT MORE MAINSTREAM SUPPORT AS SERRANO'S ENEMIES SEEK PRETEXTS FOR ATTACKING THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE AND HIS POLICIES.

14. AS FOR SERRANO, DE LEON IS CORRECT THAT THE PRESIDENT'S POLITICAL BASE IS ERODING RAPIDLY. SERRANO WILL NOT SUFFER IRREPARABLE HARM IF HE RECEIVES NO SUPPORT FROM THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE, BUT THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE HAS MADE POWERFUL ENEMIES THROUGHOUT GUATEMALAN SOCIETY. HE STILL ENJOYS THE BACKING OF TOP MILITARY LEADERS, BUT SUPPORT IS SCARCE ELSEWHERE.

15. DAS MAISTO DID NOT CLEAR THIS TELEGRAM PRIOR TO DEPARTING GUATEMALA.

SUBJECT: MAISTO'S CONVERSATION WITH VICE PRESIDENT ESPINA

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: ARA/DAS JOHN MAISTO AND CHARGE CALLED ON VICE PRESIDENT GUSTAVO ESPINA ON DECEMBER 11. ESPINA EXPRESSED CONCERN ABOUT THE LIKELY OUTLOOK OF THE CLINTON ADMINISTRATION TOWARD GUATEMALA. MAISTO CALLED THE VP'S ATTENTION TO THE PRESIDENT-ELECT'S MESSAGES TO THE RIO GROUP PRESIDENTS AND TO THE CARIBBEAN CONFERENCE THE PREVIOUS WEEK IN MIAMI FOR HIS VIEWS ON DEMOCRACY, HUMAN RIGHTS, DRUG CONTROL, THE ENVIRONMENT, ACCESS TO MARKETS, ETC. MAISTO EMPHASIZED THAT THE PERCEPTION OF GUATEMALA'S EFFORTS TO DEAL WITH HUMAN RIGHT ABUSES,

THE NEW ADMINISTRATION'S OUTLOOK

3. AFTER PLEASANTRIES, ESPINA MENTIONED THAT PRESIDENT SERRANO WAS PLEASED WITH HIS CONVERSATIONS IN MIAMI REGARDING THE PROBABLE OUTLOOK OF THE CLINTON ADMINISTRATION TOWARD GUATEMALA. SERRANO WAS REPORTEDLY TOLD THAT THOSE LIKELY TO HAVE INFLUENCE IN THE NEW ADMINISTRATION DO NOT HAVE PRE-CONCEIVED NOTIONS ABOUT GUATEMALA AND WILL BE OBJECTIVE, "UNLIKE THE CARTER ADMINISTRATION." ON THE OTHER HAND, SAID ESPINA, MANY GUATEMALAN SECTORS ARE VERY CONCERNED, GIVEN THEIR MEMORIES ABOUT CARTER ADMINISTRATION POLICIES.

4. MAISTO REPLIED THAT SIMPLE COMPARISONS TO THE CARTER ADMINISTRATION SHOULD BE AVOIDED. THE UNITED STATES HAS A BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY. THE SITUATION HAS CHANGED IN CENTRAL AMERICA. EMPHASIS IS ON CONSOLIDATION OF DEMOCRACY, HUMAN RIGHTS, DEVELOPMENT, NARCOTICS CONTROL, THE ENVIRONMENT, THE NORTH AMERICAN FREE TRADE ASSOCIATION AND OTHER TRADE ISSUES.

5. NEVERTHELESS, MAISTO ADDED, PERCEPTIONS OF GUATEMALA WILL MOLD THE VIEWS OF NEW POLICY MAKERS. FOR EXAMPLE, IF WITHIN 6 MONTHS: A) PEACE TALKS MAKE NO PROGRESS, B) THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION DETERIORATES OR REMAINS THE SAME AS IT IS NOW, C) JUSTICE IS FRUSTRATED IN THE MICHAEL DEVINE, MYRNA MACK AND OTHER HIGH-PROFILE HUMAN RIGHTS CASES, AND THOSE INVOLVED IN THE COVERUP OF THE DEVINE CASE ARE NOT PUNISHED, THE USG AND THE CONGRESS WILL NOT LIKELY BE WELL-DISPOSED TOWARD GUATEMALA BY THE MIDDLE OF 1994. ELABORATING ON THE DEVINE CASE, MAISTO ADDED, PEOPLE IN THE US SIMPLY DO NOT ACCEPT THE NOTION THAT SOLDIERS MURDERED DEVINE ON THEIR OWN AND, FURTHERMORE, THAT THERE WAS NO PROGRESS IN THE CASE FOR SO LONG SIMPLY DUE TO NEGLIGENCE. PEOPLE ARE CONVINCED THAT THERE WAS A DELIBERATE COVERUP BY FORMER OFFICERS IN THE ARMY.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

PEACE DIALOGUE STALLED

6. TURNING TO THE PEACE TALKS, MAISTO ASSERTED THAT THE URNG DOES NOT FEEL ANY PRESSURE TO NEGOTIATE SERIOUSLY. HE SUGGESTED THAT A "GROUP OF FRIENDS" WORKING WITH BOTH THE URNG AND THE GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT COULD BE USEFUL IN BRINGING PRESSURE TO BEAR ON THE URNG. ESPINA REPLIED THAT CANADA HAD RECENTLY DENIED VISAS TO URNG COMANDANTE LEADERS, WHICH WAS A FORM OF INTERNATIONAL PRESSURE THE GOG SUPPORTS. IN THAT CONTEXT HE SAID THAT HE WAS DISAPPOINTED THE USG HAD ALLOWED URNG LEADERS TO MARKET THEIR WARES IN THE U.S. MAISTO REPLIED THAT THE FOREIGN MINISTER HAD TOLD ASSISTANT SECRETARY ARONSON AT THE UNGA THAT IT WOULD BE USEFUL FOR U.S.G. REPS TO INFORM URNG LEADERS THAT THEY SHOULD SEEK A PEACE AGREEMENT AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, AND NOT BE DELUDED INTO THINKING TIME WAS ON THEIR SIDE. THAT WAS EXACTLY WHAT MAISTO HAD TOLD URNG LEADER LUIS BECKER WHEN THEY HAD A

ADDRESS, AMONG THEM THE PEACE PROCESS AND HUMAN RIGHTS, WITH A FOCUS ON THE NEED TO END PERCEPTIONS OF IMPUNITY. ESPINA REPLIED THAT THESE REMAIN THE ADMINISTRATION'S GOALS AND THEY WERE WORKING ON ALL OF THEM. HE ADDED THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS TRYING ITS UTMOST TO END IMPUNITY. MAISTO RAISED AMILCAR MENDEZ, COMPLIMENTING THE SERRANO ADMINISTRATION ON ITS HANDLING OF THE ARRIVAL OF MENDEZ, CONGRESSMAN KOSTMAYER AND SEVERAL HUMAN RIGHTS REPRESENTATIVES. HE NOTED THAT KOSTMAYER WAS ACCOMPANIED BY REPRESENTATIVES OF FIVE MAJOR HUMAN RIGHTS NGOS, ALL OF WHOM WERE ABLE TO WITNESS A TRANSPARENT JUDICIAL PROCESS IN ACTION IN THIS CASE.

8. CONTINUING, MAISTO NOTED THAT SINCE THE MENDEZ RETURN THERE HAVE BEEN DISTURBING DEVELOPMENTS, AND THERE IS GREAT CONCERN ABOUT HOW MENDEZ WILL BE TREATED. THE MOST RECENT WAS A DENUNCIATION BY HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO THAT MILITARY PERSONNEL HAD ATTEMPTED TO PRESSURE THE WITNESSES IN THE MENDEZ CASE TO NOT RECANT THEIR ACCUSATIONS AGAINST MENDEZ. MAISTO NOTED THAT WHEN HUMAN RIGHTS LEADERS SUCH AS MENDEZ COMPLAIN OF PRESSURES, AND IN PARTICULAR WHEN THE GOVERNMENT OR THE MILITARY ARE ACCUSED BY THE OMBUDSMAN OF PRESSURING, THE GOVERNMENT'S AND THE MILITARY'S CREDIBILITY LEVEL AMONG GUATEMALANS IS ZERO. ESPINA RESPONDED THAT THE CHARGES BY DE LEON WERE GRAVE

AND THAT HE WOULD RAISE IT IMMEDIATELY WITH THE APPROPRIATE AUTHORITIES TO LAUNCH AN INVESTIGATION.

A VOICE CRYING IN THE WILDERNESS

9. ESPINA REMARKED THAT THE CULTURE OF VIOLENCE WILL TAKE MANY YEARS TO CHANGE. THIS LED TO A DISCUSSION OF RECENT CONFRONTATIONS IN THE PETEN INVOLVING LOGGERS, SOLDIERS, TREASURY POLICE, CONAP OFFICIALS (FOREST RANGERS) AND A JOURNALIST. HE ASSERTED THAT THERE WILL BE A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION AND ALL THOSE RESPONSIBLE WILL BE PUNISHED.

10. CHARGE NOTED THAT THE ENVIRONMENT WILL BE ONE OF THE NEW ADMINISTRATION'S AREAS OF MAJOR FOCUS. GIVEN

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE PETEN AND THE ECOLOGICALLY SIMILAR SURROUNDING AREAS IN BELIZE AND MEXICO FOR CONSERVATION, THE PRESERVATION OF UNIQUE FLORA AND FAUNA, AS WELL AS ARCHEOLOGICAL AND CULTURAL WEALTH, NO DOUBT THERE WILL BE GREAT INTEREST IN WHAT GUATEMALA DOES TO PROTECT THIS HERITAGE. CHARGE ADDED THAT THE USAID ALREADY COOPERATES IN SOME AREAS, SUCH AS FOREST PRESERVATION, BUT WE HAVE NOT BEEN SATISFIED WITH THE RESULTS. ESPINA BROKE IN TO AGREE, NOTING THAT DIRECTION HAS BEEN DIFFUSE AND RUDDERLESS. HE SAID THERE ARE TOO MANY AGENCIES ACTING IN UNCOORDINATED FASHION AND WITHOUT STRONG LEADERSHIP. HE SAID HE WAS THINKING OF PROPOSING THAT OVERALL MANAGEMENT OF THE ENVIROMENTAL AREA BE CENTRALIZED IN HIS OWN OFFICE, BUT HE CAUTIONED THAT HE HAD NOT YET BROACHED THIS WITH THE AUTHORITIES CONCERNED (CONAMA, CONAP, AND THE PRESIDENT) AND IT NEEDED TO BE HELD IN RESERVE. MAISTO EMPHASIZED THE IMPORTANCE OF THIS ISSUE TO THE U.S., AND OF SATISFACTORY CLARIFICATION OF THE RECENT CASE OF BEATINGS OF THE JOURNALIST, CONAP OFFICIALS AND OTHERS IN THE PETEN. CHARGE ADDED THAT IF GUATEMALA CAN CLEAN UP ITS ACT IN THIS AREA AND PUT AN EFFECTIVE PROGRAM IN PLACE, THE U.S. WOULD PROBABLY BE WILLING TO CONSIDER INCREASING OUR ASSISTANCE.

LANDMARK HUMAN RIGHTS CASES

11. RETURNING TO THE MENDEZ CASE, MAISTO NOTED THAT THE PERCEPTION ABROAD IS THAT MENDEZ IS BEING VICTIMIZED AND TIED UP IN THE LEGAL SYSTEM IN ORDER TO OBSTRUCT HIS ACTIVITIES AS A HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVIST. THAT PERCEPTION

HURTS THE REPUTATION OF THE GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT AND THE GUATEMALAN MILITARY. MAISTO NOTED THAT THE US AND OTHERS HAVE RECOGNIZED GUATEMALAN ACHIEVEMENTS IN THE AREA OF HUMAN RIGHTS BUT THE PERCEPTION OF THESE KINDS OF ACTIONS ERODES ALL OF THE POSITIVE IMAGE. SIMILARLY, ADDED CHARGE, IN THE CASE OF MICHAEL DEVINE, THE SUSPICION A COVER-UP WILL GO UNPUNISHED RAISES DOUBTS ABROAD REGARDING THE GOVERNMENT'S POLITICAL WILL TO DEAL WITH TOUGH HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES. MAISTO ADDED THAT THE SERRANO ADMINISTRATION HAD EXERTED CONTROL OVER THE ARMED FORCES, AND IT WOULD BE A SHAME FOR THESE KINDS OF POSITIVES TO BE OVERSHADOWED BY HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS.

---

12. SLIGHTLY AGITATED FOR THE FIRST TIME (UNLIKE THE PRESIDENT, ESPINA RARELY LOSES HIS COMPOSURE), THE VICE PRESIDENT REPLIED THAT THE GOVERNMENT EXERCISES LEADERSHIP. THE PRESIDENT IS THE COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE ARMED FORCES. THE WORD "CONTROL" IS MISPLACED, HE ADDED, SINCE IT SUGGESTS THAT OTHERWISE THE ARMY WOULD BE "OUT OF CONTROL", LIKE SAVAGES. THEY ARE PROFESSIONALS AND EXERCISE RESPONSIBILITY EFFECTIVELY. THAT CLARIFIED, ESPINA COMMENTED THAT THE CASES ARE IN THE HANDS OF THE COURTS, THE EXECUTIVE IS COOPERATING IN WHATEVER IT CAN. WE CAN REST ASSURED THAT JUSTICE WILL

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

BE DONE AND THAT ALL WILL BE TRANSPARENT. HE NOTED WITH SOME FRUSTRATION THAT ALL THE CASES FOR WHICH THE SERRANO ADMINISTRATION IS BEING CRITICIZED UNJUSTLY (SIC) OCCURRED DURING THE PRESIDENCY OF VINICIO CEREZO. THE MESS WAS TURNED OVER TO THE CURRENT ADMINISTRATION TO SORT OUT, IN MANY CASES AFTER THE EVIDENCE WAS COLD OR HAD DISAPPEARED AND INVESTIGATIONS HAD BEEN BOTCHED, MAKING IF EXTREMELY DIFFICULT TO FIND THE TRUTH. IT SEEMED THAT THE ONLY WAY THE U.S.G WOULD BE SATISFIED WOULD BE IF BETETA, CONTRERAS AND OTHERS ARE CONVICTED, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER THE EVIDENCE SUPPORTS SUCH AN OUTCOME. IN SHORT, HE COMPLAINED, HIS GOVERNMENT IS BEING ASKED TO PRESSURE THE COURTS TO SECURE CONVICTIONS, AGAINST ALL THE GOVERNMENT'S PRINCIPLES AND MAKING A MOCKERY OF JUSTICE. THE GOG WILL NOT STOOP TO THAT, REGARDLESS OF THE PRESSURE AND COST. NEVERTHELESS, HE COMMENTED, HE UNDERSTOOD MAISTO'S MESSAGE: NEGATIVE DEVELOPMENTS ON SPECIFIC HUMAN RIGHTS CASES WILL CAUSE A DETERIORATION IN RELATIONS WITH THE NEW ADMINISTRATION AND THE CONGRESS.

13. MAISTO CONGRATULATED THE VEEP ON THE GOG'S SUCCESSES WITH RESPECT TO BELIZE AS WELL AS THE PASSAGE OF THE LABOR CODE REFORM AND THE CRIMINAL PROCEDURES CODE, WHICH LED TO A REVIEW BY ESPINA OF THE DIFFICULTIES OVERCOME IN EACH CASE. ESPINA ALSO RELATED SOME RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN THE MAQUILA SECTOR AS WELL AS PROGRESS ON CABLE TELEVISION, WHICH HE HOPED WOULD DISPEL DOUBTS THAT THE GOG IS TAKING STEPS TO DEAL WITH ISSUES RAISED BY PETITIONERS IN RELATION TO GUATEMALA'S ACCESS TO GSP. MAISTO REPLIED THAT THE U.S. HAD NOTED

THESE ADVANCES AND, IN THE CASE OF WORKERS RIGHTS, WOULD BE FOLLOWING THE GOG'S STEPS TO IMPLEMENT THE NEW LABOR CODE.

CRUCIFYING THE CRUDADER

14. TURNING TO THE CASE OF FORMER ATTORNEY GENERAL ASISCLO VALLADARES, MAISTO NOTED THE PERCEPTION BOTH IN GUATEMALA AND ABROAD THAT HE IS NOT RECEIVING FAIR TREATMENT. CHARGE NOTED THAT IT APPEARED THE COURT SYSTEM WAS BEING ABUSED BY POWERFUL ENEMIES TO RETALIATE AGAINST AN INDIVIDUAL WHO HAD A RECORD OF COMBATING IMPUNITY.

[redacted] B1,A5

ESPINA SAID THAT HE IS NOT PREPARED TO ISSUE A JUDGMENT ON WHETHER THE COURT SYSTEM'S TREATMENT OF VALLADARES HAS BEEN JUST OR NOT.

FORCING THE URNG TO TALK SERIOUSLY

9. SERRANO STOPPED OFF IN MEXICO TO SEE PRESIDENT SALINAS ON THE WAY HOME FROM THE MIAMI L/AAC CONFERENCE. ACCORDING TO SERRANO, SALINAS IS PREPARED TO HELP SERRANO PERSUADE THE URNG TO NEGOTIATE SERIOUSLY. THE TIMING IS NOT RIPE FOR MEXICO TO PRESSURE THE URNG JUST YET, SALINAS TOLD SERRANO, SINCE RIGOBERTA MENCHU WILL HAVE JUST RETURNED WITH THE NOBEL LAUREATE. HOWEVER, SALINAS AGREED TO CONCERT WITH SERRANO BEGINNING JANUARY 20 ON EFFORTS TO PRESSURE THE

URNG. SERRANO COMMENTED THAT HE HAD ONLY SIX MONTHS REMAINING TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF MEXICAN SUPPORT TO REACH A PEACE SETTLEMENT. SOON AFTER THE MIDDLE OF 1993, MEXICO WILL BE ENTERING ITS PRE-ELECTORAL PERIOD AND THE GOM WILL NO LONGER BE WILLING TO TAKE POLITICAL RISKS. HE ADDED THAT THE GOM AGREES WITH SERRANO THAT IT WOULD BE A MISTAKE TO CONCEDE THE POINTS THE URNG IS INSISTING ON IN THE TALKS: IMMEDIATE VERIFICATION OF A HUMAN RIGHTS AGREEMENT AND START-UP OF THE COMMISSION OF THE PAST PRIOR TO THE SIGNATURE OF A GLOBAL PEACE ACCORD.

10. (COMMENT: ALTHOUGH SERRANO DID NOT INDICATE HOW HE EXPECTS THE GOM TO LEAN ON THE URNG, HE THINKS THE MEXICAN ARMY WILL TRY TO DENY USE OF MEXICAN TERRITORY AS A GUERRILLA REFUGE. (SEE AARO REPORTING ON THIS SUBJECT.) THE FACT THAT THE GOM HAS SAID IT WILL BEGIN TO CONCERT WITH THE GOG AFTER JANUARY 20 SUGGESTS THE GOM HAS NOT MADE SOLID COMMITMENTS TO SERRANO ABOUT SPECIFIC MOVES.)

TORRICELLI AND UN'S ALVARO DE SOTO ENCOURAGE SERRANO

11. SERRANO MET TWICE WITH REPRESENTATIVE ROBERT TORRICELLI (D. - N.J.) WHILE THEY WERE BOTH IN MIAMI. TORRICELLI TOLD SERRANO THAT HE HAD PUT URNG LEADER RODRIGO ASTURIAS ON NOTICE THAT THE URNG COULD NOT COUNT ON THE UNDERSTANDING AND SUPPORT OF THE CLINTON ADMINISTRATION AND THAT THE URNG SHOULD TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE OPENING OFFERED BY THE GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT FOR A PEACE ACCORD NOW ON FAVORABLE TERMS. SERRANO ADDED THAT THE UN'S ALVARO DE SOTO TOLD ASTURIAS THAT THE UN COULD NOT INVOLVE ITSELF MORE IN THE PEACE PROCESS THAN THE LEVEL DESIRED BY THE GOG. SERRANO NOTED THAT ASTURIAS HAD ATTEMPTED TO INVOLVE THE UN MORE DEEPLY IN THE PEACE TALKS THAN IT CURRENTLY IS WITH THE PARTICIPATION AS AN OBSERVER OF JEAN ARNAULD. SERRANO INTERPRETED THE URNG'S ACTION AS AN EFFORT TO UNDERCUT PEACE CONCILIATOR BISHOP QUEZADA.

HUMAN RIGHTS CASES

12. FOLLOWING THIS LONG MONOLOGUE, MAISTO NOTED THAT IT WOULD BE MUCH EASIER FOR GUATEMALA TO SECURE OUTSIDE UNDERSTANDING AND SUPPORT IF THERE WERE MORE PROGRESS

ON SPECIFIC HUMAN RIGHTS CASES. FORWARD MOVEMENT INITIATED BY PRESIDENT SERRANO IN THE PEACE PROCESS COMBINED WITH PROGRESS ON HUMAN RIGHTS CASES WOULD IMPROVE GUATEMALA'S IMAGE SIGNIFICANTLY. THIS LED TO A LONG AND ANIMATED DISCUSSION OF THE DEVINE, AMILCAR MENDEZ AND MYRNA MACK CASES. THROUGHOUT, MAISTO EMPHASIZED THE IMPORTANCE OF TRANSPARENCY AND THE NEED

TO OVERCOME PERCEPTIONS OF IMPUNITY, WHEN THE SUSPECTS ARE MILITARY OFFICIALS, OR OBSTRUCTION OF THE ACTIVITIES OF HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS, SUCH AS AMILCAR MENDEZ. MAISTO OBSERVED THAT THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN COMMANDS RESPECT IN GUATEMALA AND ABROAD, AND THAT THE MILITARY'S VERSION OF EVENTS IN THE AMILCAR MENDEZ CASE, IN LIGHT OF THE OMBUDSMAN'S DAMNING REPORT, IS ZERO. GENERAL ORTEGA AGREED. MAISTO NOTED HE MADE THE SAME POINT IN THE MEETING WITH COLONEL TERRAZA IN QUICHE THE PREVIOUS DAY, PRIOR TO MEETING WITH MENDEZ IN THE CERJ OFFICE.

13. AN EXCITED SERRANO DEFENDED HIS GOVERNMENT'S RECORD IN EACH OF THESE CASES AND CRITICIZED MENDEZ AND THOSE (LIKE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO) WHO HAVE ACCUSED THE ARMY OF ATTEMPTING TO INFLUENCE THE CASE. ON SPECIFICS, SERRANO SAID:

-- THE CASES ARE IN THE HANDS OF THE COURTS AND HE CANNOT INTERFERE;

-- NEVERTHELESS, HIS IMPRESSION IS THAT NO ONE OTHER THAN THE CONVICTED SPECIALIST SOLDIERS WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR DEVINE'S MURDER;

-- THE PROOF AGAINST BETETA MAY NOT BE ENOUGH TO CONVICT HIM OF MYRNA MACK'S MURDER, SINCE THE STRONGEST EVIDENCE IS ALLEGEDLY A FUZZY PHOTOGRAPH;

-- HE WOULD HEED OUR REQUEST FOR A FULL INVESTIGATION INTO THE CHARGES BY HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN RAMIRO DE

15. SERRANO SAID HE MET WITH HISPANIC CAUCUS MEMBER REP. BILL RICHARDSON (D - NEW MEXICO) IN MIAMI AND ENCOURAGED RICHARDSON TO ORGANIZE A GROUP OF ROOKIE HISPANIC CONGRESSMEN TO COME TO GUATEMALA IN THE SPRING FOR A MEETING WITH SEVERAL LATIN AMERICAN POLITICAL LEADERS WHO SERRANO WILL BE INVITING. 1. CONFIDENTIAL -- ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO IS WIDELY REGARDED AS A LEADING PROSPECTIVE CANDIDATE FOR THE 1995 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION. CRITICS ACCUSE DE LEON OF TAKING ADVANTAGE OF THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE TO ADVANCE HIS LONG-TERM POLITICAL AMBITIONS. END SUMMARY.

INTRODUCTION

3. GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO WINS HIGH MARKS FROM LOCAL AND FOREIGN OBSERVERS FOR HIS OBJECTIVE INVESTIGATION AND OUTSPOKEN CRITICISM OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. THE OMBUDSMAN AND HIS OFFICE ENJOY CONSIDERABLE RESPECT AND PRESTIGE, BUT SOME ARE TROUBLED THAT POLITICAL AMBITIONS MAY BE INFLUENCING HIS APPROACH TO HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES IN THE RUN-UP TO THE 1995 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS. DE LEON IS A VETERAN POLITICIAN WIDELY REGARDED AS A LEADING CANDIDATE FOR THE PRESIDENCY IN 1995. THE FOLLOWING

[redacted]

B1,A5

KEYS TO SUCCESS

4. THREE FACTORS EXPLAIN PRAISE FOR DE LEON'S PERFORMANCE AS OMBUDSMAN: (1) HIS POLITICAL SAVVY; (2) HIS NON-PARTISAN ATTITUDE; AND (3) HIS OFFICE'S

INSTITUTIONAL RESOURCES. DE LEON WAS BORN INTO A POLITICAL FAMILY AND ENTERED POLITICS AS A YOUNG MAN. BEFORE BECOMING OMBUDSMAN, HE CO-FOUNDED THE UCN PARTY AND RAN FOR THE VICE PRESIDENCY IN 1985 UNDER THE UCN BANNER. HE SUBSEQUENTLY RESIGNED FROM THE PARTY AND

GUATEM 13688 00 OF 03 2822142 033103 S004231

CURRENTLY HAS NO OFFICIAL POLITICAL AFFILIATION, BUT HIS FORAYS INTO POLITICS SERVE HIM WELL AS OMBUDSMAN. DE LEON UNDERSTANDS THE POLITICAL PROCESS AND THE POLITICAL IMPACT OF HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES. THAT POLITICAL SOPHISTICATION GUIDED HIM THROUGH VARIOUS CLASHES WITH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND PRIVATE ACTIVISTS THAT MIGHT OTHERWISE HAVE ESCALATED WITH TRAGIC CONSEQUENCES.

5. WE PRAISE DE LEON BOTH FOR EMPLOYING HIS POLITICAL SKILLS TO MAXIMUM BENEFIT AND FOR AVOIDING MOST PITFALLS AWAITING ELECTED POLITICIANS. POLITICAL EXPERIENCE BREEDS FAMILIARITY WITH THE POLITICAL PROCESS, BUT FEW LATIN AMERICAN POLITICIANS SUCCEED WITHOUT ACQUIRING SIGNIFICANT POLITICAL COMMITMENTS. REMARKABLY, DE LEON HAS BEEN ELECTED TWICE AND SERVED AS OMBUDSMAN WITHOUT CHARGES THAT PAST POLITICAL AFFILIATIONS BIAS HIS APPROACH TO HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES.

6. DE LEON'S NON-PARTISANSHIP HAS FACILITATED THE GROWTH OF THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE INTO AN INSTITUTION THE EMBASSY NOW REGARDS AS GUATEMALA'S MOST EFFECTIVE HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION. THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE SURPASSED GROUPS FORMED AROUND A SINGLE POPULAR LEADER (E.G., CERJ'S ANILCAR MENDEZ OR GAM'S NINETH MONTENEGRO DE GARCIA) BECAUSE OF VASTLY GREATER INSTITUTIONAL

RESOURCES THAT DE LEON EMPLOYS TO MAXIMUM BENEFIT. IN MID-1992, THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE DEDICATED A NEW HEADQUARTERS BUILDING IN GUATEMALA CITY THAT FAR SURPASSES FACILITIES OCCUPIED BY OTHER GROUPS.

B1,A5

7. DE LEON HAS PERFORMED WELL AS OMBUDSMAN, BUT SOME OBSERVERS CRITICIZE HIS STATED INTENTION TO GIVE SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC HUMAN RIGHTS INCREASED EMPHASIS. MANY BELIEVE THAT EMPHASIZING SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC ISSUES DILUTES THE MEANING AND IMPORTANCE OF EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, DISAPPEARANCES, AND OTHER POLITICAL INJUSTICES THAT REMAIN ALL TOO COMMON. NEVERTHELESS, DE LEON HAS INVESTIGATED AND CONDEMNED AS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS EXCESSIVE ELECTRIC TARIFFS, INADEQUATE SERVICE AT GOVERNMENT HOSPITALS, SUSPENSION OF PUBLIC BUS SERVICE DURING A STRIKE, AND ENVIRONMENTAL DESTRUCTION.

8. SOME SPECULATE THAT DE LEON'S EMPHASIS ON SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC VIOLATIONS IS DESIGNED TO ACHIEVE POLITICAL ADVANTAGE WITH RESPECT TO:

-- VOTERS: ELECTRIC TARIFF INCREASES AND OTHER SUCH HUMAN RIGHTS "VIOLATIONS" AFFECT THE PUBLIC AT LARGE, WHILE POLITICAL VIOLATIONS TOUCH ONLY VICTIMS AND ACTIVISTS. A "SIGLO XXI" EDITORIAL OBSERVED THAT DE LEON'S DENUNCIATION OF EXCESSIVE ELECTRIC RATES "SEEMED MORE AN ACT OF POLITICAL DEMAGOGY, IN SEARCH OF POPULAR SYMPATHY" THAN A GENUINE EFFORT TO REDRESS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS.

-- ENEMIES: THE GOVERNMENT CAN EASILY FEND OFF CRITICISM OF EXCESSIVE ELECTRIC RATES AND OTHER SOCIAL/ECONOMIC "VIOLATIONS" BY PLEDGING TO INITIATE A SPECIAL STUDY OR COMMISSION. DISPUTES NEED NOT BECOME PERSONALIZED BECAUSE NO SINGLE INDIVIDUAL IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE GREATEST SOCIAL ILLS. IN POLITICAL CASES, HOWEVER, ACTIVISTS FREQUENTLY ACCUSE A SINGLE SUSPECT OR INSTITUTION OF SPECIFIC ACTS. THE GRUTIA AND HACK CASES, FOR EXAMPLE, ERUPTED INTO PERSONAL

CLASHES BETWEEN THE OMBUDSMAN AND GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS. AGGRESSIVE PURSUIT OF POLITICAL HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES CAN CREATE POWERFUL POLITICAL ENEMIES, AS THE RECENT FATE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL ACISCLO VALLADARES DEMONSTRATES. SOME BELIEVE DE LEON THE OMBUDSMAN HIGHLIGHTS SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC ABUSES TO PREVENT POLITICAL RETRIBUTION AGAINST DE LEON THE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE.

-- VISIBILITY: POLITICIANS OUT OF SIGHT ARE NUISANCES OUT OF MIND. GUATEMALAN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS OCCUR ONLY ONCE EVERY FIVE YEARS, MAKING IT DIFFICULT FOR PROSPECTIVE CANDIDATES TO REMAIN VISIBLE BETWEEN CAMPAIGNS. DE LEON'S EMPHASIS ON ISSUES OF GENERAL CONCERN WILL REMIND VOTERS OF HIS WORK AS OMBUDSMAN WHEN THEY GO TO THE POLLS IN 1995. SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT JUAN JOSE RODIL PERALTA IS WIDELY THOUGHT TO HAVE SOUGHT THAT OFFICE FOR SIMILAR REASONS.

-- COMPETENCE: POLITICIANS ARE OFTEN ACCUSED OF PROMISING MUCH, BUT DELIVERING LITTLE. THE OMBUDSMAN CANNOT RESOLVE THE NATION'S SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC ILS. HE CAN, HOWEVER, CULTIVATE THE IMPRESSION HE IS CONCERNED ABOUT AND COMPETENT TO ADDRESS THOSE PROBLEMS BY HIGHLIGHTING THEM AS HUMAN RIGHTS "VIOLATIONS."

-- WORKLOAD: OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE STATISTICS SHOW A DRAMATIC DROP IN 1992 IN EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, POLITICAL KIDNAPPINGS, AND OTHER MORE "TRADITIONAL" HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES. NOBODY BELIEVES GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS FACE AN IMMINENT WORK SHORTAGE, BUT VIOLATIONS ARE CLEARLY DECLINING. SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC PROBLEMS COULD JUSTIFY THE OMBUDSMAN'S CURRENT BUDGET AND RESOURCES EVEN IF POLITICAL VIOLATIONS STOPPED ALTOGETHER.

[redacted] B1,A5

9. DE LEON'S CRITICS ALSO FAULT HIM FOR MAINTAINING A POLITICIAN'S AFFINITY FOR PUBLICITY. HE IS ACCUSED OF SEEKING MEDIA EXPOSURE TO FURTHER LONG-TERM POLITICAL (I.E., PRESIDENTIAL) GOALS. THROUGHOUT 1992, FOR EXAMPLE, THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE RAN A MEDIA CAMPAIGN OSTENSIBLY DESIGNED TO EDUCATE CITIZENS ABOUT THEIR HUMAN RIGHTS. TELEVISION COMMERCIALS CONDEMNING HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS CONCLUDED WITH THE SLOGAN "THIS CANNOT CONTINUE." THE MAY 4 EDITION OF THE GUATEMALA CITY DAILY NEWSPAPER "SIGLO XXI" RAN AN EDITORIAL CARTOON EXPRESSING POPULAR DISSATISFACTION OVER THE FINANCIAL COST AND POLITICAL OVERTONES OF THE CAMPAIGN. UNDER THE CAPTION "MANY POLITICIANS HAVE USED RESOURSES OF THEIR INSTITUTIONS TO ENHANCE THEIR IMAGE," THE CARTOON PICTURED A CURMUDGEON ON TELEVISION POINTING HIS FINGER AT DE LEON WHILE REMARKING "THIS CANNOT CONTINUE." AS OF THIS WRITING, THE CAMPAIGN CONTINUES, BUT ON A REDUCED SCALE. COMMENT: SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT JUAN JOSE RODIL PERALTA, ANOTHER PRESIDENTIAL ASPIRANT, INITIATED A SIMILAR COMMERCIAL CAMPAIGN PUBLICIZING JUDICIAL BRANCH ACCOMPLISHMENTS. RODIL'S CAMPAIGN ALSO CONTINUES DESPITE CRITICISK. END COMMENT.

[redacted] B1,A5

AFTER KIDNAP VICTIM MARITZA URRUTIA WAS FREED IN LATE JULY, FOR EXAMPLE, SHE SPOKE WITH DE LEON AT THE GUATEMALAN ARCHBISHOP' RESIDENCE, WHERE SHE RECEIVED PROTECTION AND ADVICE FROM

ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE LAWYERS. THE OMBUDSMAN APPROACHED THE EMBASSY CONFIDENTIALLY SEEKING A U.S. VISA FOR URRUTIA, BUT HAD NO OTHER INVOLVEMENT IN THE CASE. THE USG ISSUED URRUTIA A VISA AND WAS PREPARED TO ESCORT HER TO THE AIRPORT. THE EMBASSY'S

COMMENT

11. IF HE CHOOSES TO RUN, DE LEON WILL BE A SERIOUS PRESIDENTIAL CONTENDER. HE IS WELL-RESPECTED, WELL-QUALIFIED, AND -- PERHAPS MOST IMPORTANTLY -- WELL-CONNECTED. HIS PAST RECORD AS OMBUDSMAN CAUSES US TO WELCOME THE PROSPECT OF HIS CANDIDACY.

12. [redacted] CONCERN THAT DE LEON'S STATED INTENTION TO EMPHASIZE SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC VIOLATIONS WILL COINCIDE WITH WEAKENED RESOLVE ON CONTROVERSIAL POLITICAL CASES. RECENT OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE STATEMENTS BLAMING THE GOVERNMENT FOR THE URRUTIA KIDNAPPING AND THE MACK MURDER SUGGEST THOSE FEARS HAVE YET TO BE REALIZED. B1,A5

2. SUMMARY: NOBEL PEACE PRIZE WINNER RIGOBERTA MENCHU TUM DEPARTED GUATEMALA DECEMBER 26 WITH A BLAST AT GOG INTRANSIGENCY IN THE PEACE TALKS. SHE LAMENTED EFFORTS BY GOG OFFICIALS TO LINK HER, AND OTHERS INTERESTED IN HUMAN RIGHTS, TO THE URNG. USING THE SAME LOGIC, SHE ADDED, ALL GOG OFFICIALS COULD BE SAID TO BE LINKED TO THE ARMY, SINCE THEY CONTINUALLY DEFEND THE MILITARY. THE GOG SHOULD DROP ITS NEGATIVE ATTITUDE TOWARDS THE PAST/TRUTH COMMISSION, AS OTHERWISE HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS WILL CONTINUE. SHE SAID SHE PLANS TO RETURN TO GUATEMALA ON JANUARY 11 TO BEGIN WORK ON THE CREATION OF THE VICENTE MENCHU FOUNDATION, AND TO GREET THE LARGE

3. RIGOBERTA MENCHU ENDED HER ONE-WEEK VISIT TO GUATAMALA (REFTEL) ON DECEMBER 26, WITH A SHARP BLAST AT THE GOG FOR ALLEGED INTRANSIGENCE IN THE PEACE TALKS. SHE NOTED TO THE PRESS HER PREOCCUPATION OVER THE GOG'S APPARENT UNWILLINGNESS TO LISTEN TO OTHERS, CALLING THE GOG ATTITUDE "CLOSED AND IMMATURE." THE NOBEL PEACE PRIZE WINNER WARNED THAT UNLESS THE GOG UNDERTAKES SUBSTANTIAL CHANGES IN HOW IT ACTS AND HOW IT RULES THE NATION, THE GUATEMALAN PEOPLE ARE DESTINED TO LIVE "CONTINUALLY FRUSTRATED." THIS COULD LEAD TO MORE REBELLION ON THE PART OF THOSE WHO LOSE HOPE FOR PEACEFUL CHANGE.

4. MENCHU TOLD THE PRESS THE ATTITUDE OF MANUEL CONDE ORELLANA, PRESIDENT OF THE GOG'S PEACE COMMISSION,

"LEAVES MUCH TO BE DESIRED." SHE SAID HIS EFFORTS TO PAINT HER AND VARIOUS POPULAR GROUPS, SUCH AS CONAVIGUA, AND THE CPR'S, AS URNG SYMPATHIZERS AND/OR SUPPORTERS WAS "SAD." USING THE SAME CRITERIA AS CONDE, SHE COULD LABEL CONDE AND OTHER GOG OFFICIALS AS ARMY SYMPATHIZERS, SINCE THEY "HAVE ALWAYS" DEFENDED THE MILITARY'S POSITIONS ON VARIOUS ISSUES.

5. THE NOBEL PRIZE WINNER WAS CRITICAL AS WELL OF THE GOG'S ALLEGED NEGATIVE APPROACH TO THE PAST/TRUTH COMMISSION. THE GLOBAL ACCORD ON HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES WAS AT A STAND-STILL IN THE PEACE TALKS, AND SHE CALLED FOR A NATIONAL DIALOGUE ON THIS ISSUE. SHE ADDED THAT SHE HOPES TO USE THE AUTHORITY OF THE NOBEL PEACE PRIZE AS A MEANS OF UNBLOCKING THE PEACE TALKS, ADDING THAT SHE WILL HOLD AN INTERNATIONAL VIGIL FOR PEACE IN GUATEMALA DURING THE FIRST PART OF 1993.

6. CONDE RESPONDED TO MENCHU'S CHARGES IN HIS OWN PRESS CONFERENCE, NOTING THE GOG RECOGNIZES THE IMPORTANCE OF THE NOBEL PEACE PRIZE AND THE AUTHORITY THIS CONFERS ON THE WINNER. THIS AUTHORITY, HOWEVER, SHOULD BE USED IN AN EVEN AND IMPARTIAL MANNER IF IT IS TO ASSIST THE PEACE PROCESS. HE NOTED THAT MENCHU'S WORDS HAD CHANGED, AND HE "HOPED" THIS WAS NOT JUST TO HELP WIN THE PEACE PRIZE. THE GOG IS HOPEFUL THAT MENCHU'S ACTIVITIES WILL HELP IN THE SEARCH FOR PEACE AND RECONCILIATION, AND NOT BE USED TO POLARIZE THE GUATEMALAN PEOPLE. CONDE CALLED ON MENCHU TO REMEMBER THE RESPONSIBILITIES PLACED ON HER BY THE PEACE PRIZE, AND TO NOT SIMPLY ECHO THE WORDS AND PHRASES OF URNG

7. MENCHU IS VISITING GUATEMALAN REFUGEES IN SOUTHERN MEXICO FOR THE NEXT SEVERAL DAYS. SHE WAS CRITICAL IN HER PRESS REMARKS OF GOG INACTION IN PREPARING TO RECEIVE THE FIVE THOUSAND REFUGEES PLANNING TO RETURN ON JANUARY 13. SHE NOTED THAT THE AREA IN IXCAN WHERE THE REFUGEES HOPE TO RESETTLE HAS BEEN "CONVERTED" INTO THE MAIN BATTLE GROUND BETWEEN THE MILITARY AND THE URNG. SHE CALLED ON THE GOG TO GIVE PRIORITY TO THE MANY

8. COMMENT: MENCHU'S VISIT WAS, AS EXPECTED, A MAJOR NEWS EVENT, AS THE PRESS FOCUSED ON HER EVERY WORD AND ACTION IN A GENERALLY POSITIVE MANNER. EVEN THE GOG SEEMS TO BE GETTING THE POINT THAT OUTRIGHT HOSTILITY (AS OPPOSED TO EXPRESSING HONEST DIFFERENCES) TO MENCHU IS COUNTERPRODUCTIVE. BY AND LARGE, IT AVOIDED THE NASTY OUTBURSTS THAT CHARACTERIZED HER OCTOBER VISIT. ONE MID-LEVEL MFA OFFICIAL CLAIMED TO US DECEMBER 29 THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD MADE A CONSCIOUS DECISION TO (TRY AND) ACT IN A MORE CIVIL MANNER TOWARD RIGOBERTA.

9. MENCHU'S SUPPORT FOR THE MASSIVE RETURN OF REFUGEES IN MID-JANUARY WILL BOLSTER THE RESOLVE OF THE REFUGEE PERMANENT COMMISSIONS TO CONTINUE WITH THEIR PLANS, DESPITE GROWING EVIDENCE THAT THEY MAY BE STRANDED IN OR NEAR COBAN, A RAINY ZONE 200 KMS. BY ROAD NORTH OF GUATEMALA CITY, IF THE ROADS REMAIN IMPASSABLE. HER VISIT SHOWS SHE WILL BE A MAJOR FACTOR IN GUATEMALAN POLITICS FOR SOME TIME TO COME, POSSIBLY INCLUDING AT THE PEACE TALKS WHERE SHE MAY BECOME THE VOICE OF THE INDIGENOUS.

SUBJECT: GOG-REFUGEE CONFRONTATION GOES PUBLIC

REF: A) GUATEMALA 218, B) STATE 416327 AND PREVIOUS

1. [redacted] - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: THE CONTINUING DISAGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOG AND THE PERMANENT COMMISSIONS OF REFUGEES (CPS) REGARDING THE JANUARY 13 CARAVAN (REF A) WENT PUBLIC IN MEXICO CITY ON JANUARY 7. AT A PRESS CONFERENCE CALLED BY THE GOG WHICH WAS WELL-ATTENDED BUT POORLY ORGANIZED AND CONTROLLED, A REFUGEE REPRESENTATIVE ATTACKED THE GOG'S PRESENTATION AND ACCUSED IT OF VIOLATING THE OCTOBER ACCORDS BY REFUSING TO SUPPORT THE CARAVAN. GOG REPRESENTATIVES WERE UPSTAGED BY THE CRITICISM; THE MEDIA REPS PRESENT APPEARED MUCH MORE SYMPATHETIC TO THE REFUGEES' ARGUMENTS. THE REFUGEE LEADERS APPEARED DETERMINED TO PROCEED WITH THEIR CARAVAN PLANS UNALTERED. ON JANUARY 6, RIGOBERTA MENCHU TOLD POLOFF THAT THE REFUGEES HAD MADE THE NECESSARY PREPARATIONS AND THAT THE CARAVAN WOULD BEGIN TO CROSS INTO GUATEMALA AS ANNOUNCED -- DESPITE ALL DISSUASIONS AND WARNINGS OF DANGER.

4. THERE WILL BE A MEETING AT UNHCR'S OFFICES IN MEXICO CITY ON MONDAY, JANUARY 18, TO REVIEW ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE JANUARY 13 START OF THE RETURN OF THE REFUGEES TO GUATEMALA. WE PLAN TO ATTEND, BUT HAVE SEEN NOTHING SO FAR TO INDICATE THAT THE CARAVAN ORGANIZERS MIGHT BE DISSUADED FROM PROCEEDING AS PLANNED. END SUMMARY.

PRESS CONFERENCE

5. DURING A JANUARY 7 PRESS CONFERENCE ORGANIZED BY THE GUATEMALAN EMBASSY, THE GUATEMALAN NATIONAL FOUNDATION FOR PEACE (FONAPAZ), AND THE GUATEMALAN REFUGEE COMMITTEE (CEAR), FONAPAZ EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR ALVARO COLOM CABALLEROS AND CEAR MEMBER MICHELE MARSICOVETERE WERE ATTACKED

VEHEMENTLY BY CPS REPRESENTATIVE CARLOS CHAC CAAL IN FRONT OF SOME FIFTY JOURNALISTS AND REPORTERS. THE ATTACK CAME AFTER NEARLY TWO HOURS OF INCOHERENT AND CONTRADICTORY TESTIMONY BY COLOM AND MARSICOVETERE IN WHICH THEY ATTEMPTED TO DEFEND THE READINESS OF THE GOG TO RECEIVE THE NEARLY FOUR THOUSAND REFUGEES AND EXPRESSED CONCERN FOR THEIR SAFETY AND SECURITY. COLOM AND MARSICOVETERE SAID THAT THE GOG DID NOT HAVE A DEFINITE DATE FOR A RETURN OF THE REFUGEES, THAT THE GOG HAD NOT YET RECEIVED

AN OFFICIAL LIST OF THE REFUGEES WHO WANTED TO RETURN FROM COMAR OR THE UNHCR, AND THAT THE GOG WAS GREATLY CONCERNED FOR THE WELFARE OF THE WOMEN AND CHILDREN AMONG THE REFUGEES IF THE CPS CARAVAN WERE TO PROCEED. THEN THEY ANNOUNCED THAT THE GOG HAD DECIDED THAT THE REFUGEES WOULD BE ALLOWED TO RETURN TO GUATEMALA ONLY IN GROUPS OF 500 AT THREE-TO-FOUR-DAY INTERVALS, WOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO FORM INTO CARAVANS INSIDE GUATEMALA, WOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO GO TO GUATEMALA CITY, WOULD HAVE TO GO DIRECTLY TO THEIR NEW SETTLEMENTS, AND WOULD BE CONSTANTLY UNDER MILITARY SURVEILLANCE.

6. CHAC CAAL STUNNED THE SPEAKERS AND AUDIENCE WHEN, NEAR THE PRESS CONFERENCE'S CONCLUSION, HE SEIZED THE MICROPHONE AND READ A CPS DECLARATION ACCUSING THE GOG OF VIOLATING THE OCTOBER ACCORD BETWEEN THE GOG AND THE CPS REGARDING THE RIGHT OF THE REFUGEES TO TRAVEL FREELY THROUGHOUT GUATEMALA AND TO RETURN HOME WITH THE PROTECTION OF THE UNITED NATIONS IN ANY MANNER THEY CHOSE. CHAC CAAL SAID THAT THE JANUARY 13 DATE HAD BEEN AGREED DURING THE OCTOBER ACCORDS AND THAT THE GOG, CEAR, COMAR, UNHCR, AND FONAPAZ ALL KNEW WHO THE REFUGEES WERE AND WHERE THEY WANTED TO GO. HE SAID THAT THE GOG WAS PLACING UNNECESSARY OBSTACLES IN THE PATH OF THE REFUGEES' RETURN AND THREATENING THE REFUGEES' SECURITY BY FORCING THEM TO TAKE OBSCURE JUNGLE ROUTES. UNDER CHAC CAAL'S ATTACK, THE AUDIENCE WAS LEFT WITH THE IMPRESSION THAT THE GOG WAS RESISTING THE REFUGEES' RETURN AND STALLING.

7. CHAC CAAL'S ACCUSATIONS SEEMED TO IMPRESS HIS AUDIENCE MORE THAN THE GOG REPRESENTATIVES' PROTESTATIONS TO THE CONTRARY. CHAC CAAL SAID THE REFUGEES WERE AFRAID OF BEING ATTACKED BY THE ARMY AND THAT THE ROUTE PROPOSED BY THE GOG WOULD ONLY INCREASE THE RISK OF SUCH AN ATTACK. HE SAID THAT THE CPS WOULD NOT ACCEPT THE GOG'S ROUTE NOR WOULD IT ACCEPT BEING BROKEN INTO SMALLER GROUPS. HE ASKED FOR THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY'S SUPPORT AND SAID THAT THE CPS WOULD HOLD THE GOG AND THE MILITARY RESPONSIBLE IF ANYTHING HAPPEN TO THE REFUGEES DURING THE JANUARY CARAVAN.

8. ON JANUARY 8, POLOFF MET WITH CPS REPRESENTATIVE CARLOS CHAC CAAL TO FOLLOW-UP ON HIS ACCUSATIONS AT THE JANUARY 7 PRESS CONFERENCE. HE AGAIN STATED THAT THE GOG WAS IN VIOLATION OF THE OCTOBER ACCORDS REGARDING THE REFUGEES' FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT AND THE MANNER IN WHICH THEY CHOSE TO RETURN TO GUATEMALA. HE SAID THAT THE CPS HAD TWO MAJOR GOALS IN THE JANUARY CARAVAN. THE FIRST WAS TO KEEP THE REFUGEES' RETURN IN THE OPEN, UNDER THE SCRUTINY OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY. THIS, HE SAID, WOULD PROVIDE THE REFUGEES PROTECTION FROM THE MILITARY. THE SECOND REASON FOR PROCEEDING WITH THE JANUARY CARAVAN WAS

TO HEIGHTEN AWARENESS OF THE REFUGEES' RETURN AFTER TEN YEARS WITHIN GUATEMALA AND WITH THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY. HE SAID THERE WERE STILL PROBLEMS IN GUATEMALA

REGARDING HUMAN RIGHTS AND POLITICAL AND CIVIL LIBERTIES SUCH AS FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT OR EXPRESSION. HE SAID THAT THE GOG'S REACTION TO THE CARAVAN PROVED THAT SUCH FREEDOMS DID NOT EXIST IN GUATEMALA UNDER THE SERRANO ADMINISTRATION. HE DID NOT BELIEVE THAT EITHER THE GOVERNMENT OR THE UNRG CARED MUCH ABOUT THE PUBLIC WELFARE, ONLY ABOUT THEIR IMAGES.

9. CHAC CAAL SAID THAT THE CARAVAN WOULD BEGIN TO CROSS INTO GUATEMALA ON JANUARY 13 AND THAT HE DID NOT KNOW WHAT WOULD HAPPEN WHEN THE REFUGEES ATTEMPTED TO CARAVAN TO GUATEMALA CITY AND COBAN. THE CPS, HOWEVER, WOULD NOT ACCEPT RETURNING IN GROUPS OF 500. HE SAID THAT ALL THE PARTIES WOULD BE MEETING BEFORE JANUARY 13 TO WORK ON A COMPROMISE, ALTHOUGH HE DID NOT HOLD OUT MUCH HOPE OF REACHING ONE. CHAC CAAL NOTED THAT THE REFUGEES WERE DETERMINED TO RETURN TO GUATEMALA (HE CLAIMED THAT THE VAST MAJORITY OF THE 43,000 IN MEXICO WOULD EVENTUALLY RETURN) AND THAT THEIR RETURN WOULD HAVE A MARKED IMPACT ON THE POLITICAL LIFE OF THE COUNTRY. HE NOTED THAT THE TEN-YEAR EXPERIENCE IN MEXICO HAD RAISED A NEW GENERATION WHICH WAS BETTER EDUCATED, HAD EXPERIENCED GREATER FREEDOM, AND UNDERSTOOD DEMOCRACY.

10. AS CHAC CAAL AND POLOFF WERE CONCLUDING OUR DISCUSSION, RIGOBERTA MENCHU ARRIVED AND SAID THAT SHE WAS VERY CONCERNED ABOUT THE PENDING RETURN OF THE REFUGEES

AND THE GOG'S ANNOUNCED CHANGES. SHE SAID THAT THOUSANDS OF REFUGEES HAD ALREADY GATHERED IN COMITAN WITH ALL OF THEIR PERSONAL BELONGINGS. SHE SAID THAT THE REFUGEES HAD MADE ALL THE NECESSARY ARRANGEMENTS (GATHERED BUSES, DRIVERS) AND THAT THEY WERE READY TO BEGIN THE CARAVAN ON JANUARY 13. MENCHU SAID THAT SHE PLANNED TO RECEIVE THE CARAVAN IN GUATEMALA CITY. (NOTE: SHE WILL BE IN CHILE AROUND JANUARY 15 AND WILL BE TRAVELING AROUND CENTRAL AMERICA IN THE NEXT FEW MONTHS AS A GOODWILL AMBASSADOR END NOTE).

2. SUMMARY: I DISCUSSED THE REFUGEE RETURN CONTROVERSY WITH THE FOREIGN MINISTER AND WITH NOBEL LAUREATE RIGOBERTA MENCHU, BUT THEY SHOWED LITTLE OR NO INCLINATION TO SEEK A COMPROMISE BETWEEN THE EQUALLY RIGID POSITIONS OF THE GOG AND THE REFUGEES' REPRESENTATIVES, THE PERMANENT COMMISSIONS. IT NOW SEEMS LIKELY THAT REFUGEES WILL STREAM ACROSS THE BORDER WITHOUT THE AGREEMENT OF THE GOG TO THE RETURN PLAN, AND WITHOUT THE BACKING OF THE UNHCR. I DO NOT RECOMMEND THAT THE U.S. ATTEMPT TO DO ANYTHING MORE AT THIS STAGE. END SUMMARY.

3. ON JANUARY 11, FOREIGN MINISTER GONZALO MENENDEZ PARK TOLD ME THAT LATER THAT AFTERNOON HE WOULD BE HOSTING A MEETING OF THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS AND A PRESS CONFERENCE TO DESCRIBE THE GOVERNMENT'S POSITION ON VARIOUS ISSUES SURROUNDING THE REFUGEE RETURN. HE ASKED ME IF THE POSITION OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT WAS STILL THAT EXPLAINED EARLIER (BY EMBOFF TO ANOTHER SENIOR FORMIN OFFICIAL). I DREW ON INSTRUCTIONS IN STATE 416327 AND 396101 TO STATE OUR VIEWS. MENENDEZ PARK REPLIED THAT HE WAS

GRATIFIED BY THE U.S. STANCE BECAUSE IT OBVIOUSLY PLACED GREATEST IMPORTANCE ON HUMANITARIAN CONSIDERATIONS, WHICH WAS THE SAME POSITION AS THE GOG. HE FORESHADOWED TO ME THE POSITION THE GOG WOULD BE TAKING IN PUBLIC LATER THAT DAY (SEPTEL).

UNCLASSIFIED

4. I NOTED THAT THE GOG STANCE NOW WAS LESS FORTHCOMING THAN THE ONE IT HAD IN LATE DECEMBER, WHEN IT ADVISED THE UNHCR THAT IT WOULD CONSIDER AGREEING TO A CONTINGENT OF REFUGEES COMING TO GUATEMALA CITY, WHILE THE BULK OF THEM WOULD GO BY THE MOST DIRECT ROUTE TO THE RESETTLEMENT AREAS. FORMIN DID NOT EXPLAIN THE REASON FOR THE NEW STANCE, EXCEPT TO INDICATE THAT THE

[redacted]

CARAVAN IS A POLITICAL PROVOCATION AND UNSAFE FOR THE REFUGEES.

5. I HAD AN OPPORTUNITY FOR AN ASIDE WITH THE FORMIN IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE MEETING WITH THE DIP CORPS. I REPEATED MY QUESTION ABOUT THE HARDENING OF THE GOG LINE. I NOTED THAT A GOG SPOKESMAN HAD JUST SAID PUBLICLY THAT PRESIDENT SERRANO IN LATE DECEMBER HAD OFFERED TO FLY REFUGEES TO PLACES NEAR THEIR RESETTLEMENT SITES. FORMIN REPLIED THAT THE PERMANENT COMMISSIONS HAD DECLINED THE OFFER. I ASKED WHAT THE GOG WOULD DO IF ATTEMPTS TO TURN OFF THE SPONTANEOUS REPATRIATION FAILED AND SEVERAL HUNDRED OR EVEN THOUSAND REFUGEES CAMP OUT ONLY 50 METERS FROM WHERE WE WERE STANDING (IN THE NATIONAL PALACE.) HE AGREED WITH MY COMMENT THAT THE MOTIVES OF SOME OF THE REFUGEE LEADERS PROBABLY INCLUDED AN ATTEMPT TO EMBARRASS THE GOG PRIOR TO THE FEBRUARY UNHRC MEETING, AND ALSO WITH THE REMARK THAT THE GOG HAS NOTHING TO BE GAINED BY AN INTERMINABLE REFUGEE DEMONSTRATION IN THE CAPITAL OR ANOTHER LARGE CITY (E.G. COBAN, ON THE ROUTE TO THE MAIN RESETTLEMENT AREA). MENENDEZ PARK THEN SMILED AND SAID HE GUESSED THE GOG WOULD HAVE TO FIND A WAY TO GET THEM TO THEIR RESETTLEMENT SITES AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. (COMMENT: THE GUATEMALAN ARMED FORCES HAVE TWO SERVICABLE DC 3S. THESE AIRCRAFT, PERHAPS WITH SOME REINFORCEMENT, COULD SHUTTLE A LARGE NUMBER OF REFUGEES TO IXCAN IN A FEW DAYS IF IT BECAME NECESSARY. END COMMENT)

RIGOBERTA MENCHU : UNCONDITIONAL SUPPORT FOR THE REFUGEES

6. AT A DINNER HOSTED BY THE FRENCH AMBASSADOR FOR NOBEL LAUREATE RIGOBERTA MENCHU ON JANUARY LL, SEVERAL CHIEFS OF MISSION AND I HAD OPPORTUNITY TO DISCUSS REFUGEE SITUATION AT

[redacted]

LENGTH. THE CANADIAN AND ITALIAN AMBASSADORS AND I URGED HER TO PROMOTE FLEXIBILITY ON THE PART OF THE PERMANENT COMMISSIONS. WE MADE ALL THE OBVIOUS POINTS: WE RECOGNIZE,

UNCLASSIFIED

INDEED DEFEND, THE LEGITIMATE RIGHT OF ALL GUATEMALANS TO DEMONSTRATE PEACEFULLY AND TO ASSEMBLE IN THE CAPITAL IF THAT IS THEIR DESIRE. HOWEVER, THE UNHCR WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO FINANCIALLY SUPPORT A REPATRIATION DISAPPROVED BY THE GOG, THE LOGISTICAL DIFFICULTIES OF A MASSIVE RETURN WERE DAUNTING, A REPATRIATION FAILURE WOULD PUT MANY VULNERABLE GROUPS AT RISK AS WELL AS DISCOURAGE THOUSANDS OF OTHER REFUGEES IN MEXICO FROM RETURNING.

7. MENCHU WAS UNMOVED. SHE EXPLAINED THAT THE REFUGEESS HAVE HAD HIGH EXPECTATIONS ABOUT THEIR RETURN. THEY HAVE MADE

WITH NGOS, THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND OTHERS TO ACCOMPLISH A RETURN WITHOUT FUNDING FROM THE UNHCR, WHICH HAS LOST SOME CREDIBILITY WITH THE REFUGEES, SHE CLAIMED. BESIDES, SHE CONCLUDED, THE GOG HAS STALLED TOO LONG, BEEN INFLEXIBLE AND IT IS NOW TOO LATE FOR FURTHER NEGOTIATIONS, SINCE MANY REFUGEES WERE ALREADY ON THE MARCH TOWARD AN ASSEMBLY POINT IN MEXICO (COMITAN).

8. WHEN I POINTED OUT THAT ROAD FROM COBAN TO THE THE RESETTLEMENT AREA IN POLIGONO 14 WAS IMPASSABLE, MENCHU REMARKED THAT THE REFUGEES WOULD CAMP OUT IN COBAN UNTIL THEY COULD GET THROUGH, FOR WEEKS IF NECESSARY. SHE EXPRESSED FAITH IN THE NGOS AND CATHOLIC CHURCH TO PROVIDE SUPPLIES AND SERVICES TO WEATHER SUCH A CHALLENGE. DIPCORPS PRESSED ON THE ISSUES WITH MENCHU FOR MORE THAN AN HOUR, BUT SHE APPEARED TO REJECT ANY COMPROMISE PERSONALLY, AND SPECIFICALLY SAID SHE WOULD NOT DISAPPOINT THE PERMANENT COMMISSIONS BY APPEARING TO FLAG IN HER SUPPORT OF THEIR POSITION. AFTER DINNER BROKE UP, THE AMBASSADORS OF SWEDEN AND CANADA TOLD ME THEY WOULD TRY AGAIN THE NEXT MORNING AT A MEETING WITH MENCHU AT THE UN OFFICES TO GET HER TO TALK SENSE TO THE PERMANENT COMMISSIONS.

9. COMMENT: IT APPEARS NOW THAT A FORCED RETURN WILL TAKE PLACE, UNLESS THE PERMANENT COMMISSIONS ARE UNABLE TO COLLECT FUNDS FROM NGOS FOR TRANSPORT, FOOD, ETC. (WE HEARD ONE UNCONFIRMED REPORT ON JANUARY 11 THAT THEY WERE RUNNING INTO PROBLEMS ON THIS SCORE.) IT'S SIZE COULD RANGE FROM A FEW HUNDRED TO A FEW THOUSAND, SINCE NO ONE HAS PRODUCED LISTS OF THOSE DESIRING TO RETURN. (A MEMBER OF THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES HERE WHO HAS BEEN FOLLOWING THE REFUGEE ISSUE CLOSELY AND HAS CONTACTS WITH THEIR IN-COUNTRY SUPPORT GROUPS CONFIDED

TO CHARGE THAT THE NUMBERS OF REFUGEES RETURNING WITH THE FIRST GROUP IS LIKELY TO BE SIGNIFICANTLY LESS THAN THE FIGURE BANTIED ABOUT BY THE PERMANENT COMMISSIONS.) NEVERTHELESS, I SUSPECT THAT THE NGOS AND THE CATHOLIC CHURCH WILL BE ABLE TO PROVIDE FOR MANY OF THE NEEDS OF THE RETURNEES. MOREOVER, SINCE THE GOG KNOWS THAT ITS IMAGE WILL BE TARNISHED IF HUNDREDS OF RETURNEES, INCLUDING CHILDREN, SUFFER PRIVATIONS, IT IS LIKELY TO RESPOND IN VARIOUS WAYS TO HELP THEM WHEN THE CHIPS ARE DOWN. THE GOG SAID AS MUCH IN THE PRESS CONFERENCE YESTERDAY (SEPTEL). I DO NOT BELIEVE THERE IS ANYTHING ELSE USEFUL THE US CAN DO AT THIS TIME. IN THE LONG RUN, THE MOST LAST
ING CHALLENGE WILL BE FOR THE REFUGEES, THE GOG, THE MILITARY AND THE COMMUNITIES WHERE THEY SETTLE TO WORK OUT LIVING TOGETHER IN PEACE, GIVEN THE SEVERELY DIVERGENT

POLITICAL PERSUASIONS OF THESE GROUPS AND THE FACT THAT GUATEMALA IS STILL AT WAR.

CONGRESS, AND MUNICIPAL OFFICERS; IT MANDATES AN INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY AND A HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, WHO IS ELECTED BY AND REPORTS TO CONGRESS. IN 1992 PRESIDENT JORGE SERRANO SERVED HIS SECOND YEAR OF A 5-YEAR TERM. IN JANUARY CONGRESS ELECTED NEW PRESIDENTS OF CONGRESS AND THE SUPREME COURT. IN AUGUST CONGRESS REELECTED RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO AS HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN.

5. THE ARMED FORCES OPERATE WITH CONSIDERABLE INSTITUTIONAL AND LEGAL AUTONOMY, PARTICULARLY IN SECURITY AND MILITARY MATTERS. THE 43,000-MAN ARMY, WHICH HAS RESPONSIBILITY FOR NATIONAL SECURITY, HAS BEEN FIGHTING A LEFTIST INSURGENCY FOR MORE THAN THREE DECADES. THE ARMY'S MOBILE MILITARY POLICE (PMA) GUARDS KEY FACILITIES AND TRADITIONALLY HAS AN ANTICRIME ROLE. TOTAL MILITARY EXPENDITURES FOR 1989, ACCORDING TO U.S. ARMS CONTROL AND

DISARMAMENT FIGURES, WERE 131 MILLION. ALTHOUGH THE DEFENSE BUDGET FOR 1992 DECREASED IN REAL TERMS, THE 1993 BUDGET WILL INCREASE IN REAL TERMS BY APPROXIMATELY 8 PERCENT.

6. THE NATIONAL POLICE (12,000 STRONG) AND TREASURY POLICE (2,000) REPORT TO THE INTERIOR MINISTER. ON MARCH 4, THE INTERIOR MINISTER CREATED THE "HUNAHPU" TASK FORCE PATROLS COMPOSED OF NATIONAL POLICE, TREASURY POLICE, AND MOBILE MILITARY POLICE TO COMBAT RISING COMMON CRIME. PRESIDENT SERRANO BROKE WITH TRADITION IN 1991 AND APPOINTED A CIVILIAN AS NATIONAL POLICE CHIEF, AS WELL AS OTHER CIVILIANS TO SENIOR POSITIONS IN THE POLICE AND MINISTRY OF INTERIOR. IN A MAY 1992 RESHUFFLING, CIVILIANS WERE APPOINTED INTERIOR MINISTER AND POLICE CHIEF, AND SEVEN MILITARY PERSONNEL WERE ASSIGNED TO KEY ADVISORY POSITIONS. SOME 500,000 MEN SERVE IN VOLUNTARY CIVIL SELF-DEFENSE COMMITTEES, COMMONLY CALLED CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS (PAC'S), SOME OF WHICH CONDUCT COUNTERINSURGENCY PATROLS IN RURAL AREAS. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN AND THE CATHOLIC ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE REPORT THAT SOME PAC MEMBERS WERE COMPELLED TO JOIN, IN VIOLATION OF THE CONSTITUTION. SECURITY FORCES AND PAC'S WERE REPORTED TO HAVE COMMITTED NUMEROUS SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN 1992.

7. THE AGRICULTURE-BASED, PRIVATE SECTOR-ORIENTED GUATEMALAN ECONOMY GREW APPROXIMATELY 4 TO 4.5 PERCENT IN 1992, PRODUCING A SLIGHT INCREASE IN PER CAPITA INCOME AFTER SEVERAL YEARS OF DECLINE. INFLATION STOOD AT APPROXIMATELY 14 PERCENT. DURING THE FOURTH QUARTER,

GUATEMALA ENTERED INTO A STANDBY AGREEMENT WITH THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND, REQUIRING THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT TO BALANCE ITS BUDGET IN 1993 FOR THE THIRD STRAIGHT YEAR, AND SIGNED A 120 MILLION ECONOMIC RESTRUCTURING LOAN WITH THE WORLD BANK.

8. ALTHOUGH THERE WERE SOME IMPROVEMENTS IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN 1992, SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES OCCURRED FREQUENTLY. STATISTICS PREPARED BY THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE AND THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE SHOWED A SUBSTANTIAL DROP DURING 1992 IN REPORTED HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, PARTICULARLY EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, TORTURE, AND DISAPPEARANCES. THERE WAS SOME PROGRESS IN RESOLVING CERTAIN KEY CASES, AND NONE IN OTHERS. WHILE GUERRILLA GROUPS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS REPORTED THAT THE MILITARY, CIVIL PATROLS, AND POLICE CONTINUED TO COMMIT A MAJORITY OF THE MAJOR VIOLATIONS, INCLUDING EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLING AND DISAPPEARANCES.

9. AMONG POSITIVE DEVELOPMENTS, THE PRESIDENTIAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION ISSUED ITS FIRST REPORT UPDATING LEADING HUMAN RIGHTS CASES, THE ARMY CONTINUED HUMAN RIGHTS TRAINING PROGRAMS, AND THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE DEDICATED INCREASED RESOURCES TO PREVENTING ABUSES AGAINST STREET CHILDREN. PRESIDENT SERRANO BECAME THE FIRST GUATEMALAN CHIEF EXECUTIVE TO MEET WITH COMMITTEE OF PEASANT UNITY LEADERS, AND HE, AS WELL AS OTHER GUATEMALAN OFFICIALS AND MILITARY OFFICERS, OPENED A DIALOG WITH GUATEMALAN AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS.

10. BY YEAR'S END, HOWEVER, THAT DIALOG HAD DETERIORATED. PRESIDENT SERRANO AND MEMBERS OF HIS CABINET STRONGLY CRITICIZED BOTH LOCAL AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS, CLAIMING THEY DISTORT GUATEMALA'S HUMAN RIGHTS RECORD FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES. OFFICIALS CRITICIZED THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE, AND THE U.S. GOVERNMENT FOR THE PROTECTION THEY OFFERED TO KIDNAP VICTIM MARITZA URRUTIA. SENIOR OFFICIALS DENOUNCED AS IMPROPER INTERFERENCE IN INTERNAL AFFAIRS EXPRESSIONS OF U.S. GOVERNMENT CONCERN OVER THE COURT'S VERDICT OF "INNOCENT" IN THE CASE OF AN ARMY OFFICER IMPLICATED IN THE MURDER OF AMERICAN CITIZEN MICHAEL DEVINE (SEE SECTION 1.A.). THE GOVERNMENT SHOWED INTOLERANCE FOR PRESS CRITICISM. LOCAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS CONTINUED TO BE THREATENED AND WERE VICTIMS OF VIOLENT ATTACKS. ALTHOUGH PROGRESS WAS MADE IN INVESTIGATING AND PROSECUTING SOME PAST AND PRESENT HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, THE OVERALL RECORD WAS POOR. CHARGES WERE DISMISSED AGAINST SOLDIERS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE AUGUST 1991

"TRAILEROS" MURDERS IN TAXISCO, A CASE WHICH IS STILL IN THE APPEAL PROCESS.

11. GUERRILLAS ALSO COMMITTED NUMEROUS AND SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, INCLUDING EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, KIDNAPINGS, FORCED LABOR RECRUITMENT, WIDESPREAD USE OF MINES AND EXPLOSIVES, AND THE USE OF CHILDREN IN COMBAT. GUERRILLA ATTACKS ON INFRASTRUCTURE TARGETS CONTINUED THROUGHOUT THE YEAR.

SECTION 1 RESPECT FOR THE INTEGRITY OF THE PERSON, INCLUDING FREEDOM FROM:

A. POLITICAL AND OTHER EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLING

12. POLITICALLY MOTIVATED KILLINGS CONTINUED IN 1992, ALTHOUGH THERE WERE FAR FEWER THAN IN PAST YEARS. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN CONFIRMED 40 EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS DURING THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992. OF THOSE 40, 20 WERE BELIEVED COMMITTED BY STATE SECURITY FORCES, 12 BY GUERRILLAS, AND 8 REMAINED UNSOLVED. THE OMBUDSMAN'S 1991 ANNUAL STATISTICS REPORTED 228 EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, OF WHICH 130 POLITICALLY MOTIVATED MURDERS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO STATE SECURITY FORCES AND 71 WERE ATTRIBUTED TO GUERRILLAS. STATE SECURITY FORCES WERE ALSO BELIEVED RESPONSIBLE FOR THE EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLING OF 27 CRIMINAL SUSPECTS. THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE REPORTED 190 EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS DURING THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992, AS COMPARED TO 575 FOR ALL OF 1991, BUT DID NOT BREAK DOWN THE FIGURES ACCORDING TO THE RESPONSIBLE ORGANIZATIONS.

13. THE SECURITY FORCES AND PERSONS ASSOCIATED WITH OR PROTECTED BY THE ARMY, SUCH AS THE CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS OR MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, COMMITTED MANY OF THESE KILLINGS, MOST OF WHICH TOOK PLACE IN AREAS OF GUERRILLA CONFLICT. THE SECURITY FORCES WERE REPORTED TO BE INVOLVED IN MANY VIGILANTE KILLINGS OF CRIMINALS OR CRIMINAL SUSPECTS. THE OMBUDSMAN, THE ATTORNEY GENERAL, AND HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS HAVE FOUND UNAMBIGUOUS EYEWITNESS AND PHYSICAL EVIDENCE OF KILLINGS BY PAC'S. PAC LEADERS

SECURITY FORCES ARE RARELY HELD ACCOUNTABLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. WITH FEW EXCEPTIONS, THE GOVERNMENT FAILED TO INVESTIGATE, DETAIN, AND PROSECUTE PERPETRATORS OF EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS. IN 1992 AN INTERNATIONAL TEAM OF FORENSIC ANTHROPOLOGISTS WORKED TO LOCATE CORPSES OF VICTIMS KILLED AND BURIED IN THE EARLY 1980'S AT CLANDESTINE RURAL CEMETERIES.

14. THE ARMED FORCES AND CIVIL PATROLS FREQUENTLY THREATENED AND SOMETIMES KILLED HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS. THE RUNUJEL JUNAM COUNCIL OF ETHNIC COMMUNITIES (CERJ) IS A RURAL-BASED HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION DEDICATED MAINLY TO OPPOSING INVOLUNTARY SERVICE IN PAC'S. VARIOUS CERJ MEMBERS DISAPPEARED, WERE KILLED, OR WERE THREATENED IN 1992. CERJ MEMBER ESTEBAN TOJIN DISAPPEARED ON MARCH 13 AFTER RECEIVING THREATS DATING BACK TO 1990. A GRENADE EXPLODED ON MAY 10 AT THE SANTA CRUZ DEL QUICHE HOME OF CERJ LEADER AMILCAR MENDEZ, WHO WAS IN GUATEMALA CITY AT THE TIME. MENDEZ REPORTED RECEIVING NUMEROUS ANONYMOUS TELEPHONE THREATS. IN OCTOBER MENDEZ WAS CHARGED WITH PROVIDING EXPLOSIVES TO GUERRILLAS, AND A WARRANT WAS ISSUED FOR HIS ARREST. MENDEZ AND THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN ALLEGED MILITARY PERSONNEL COERCED A CERJ MEMBER INTO ISSUING A FALSE CONFESSION IMPLICATING MENDEZ. MENDEZ RETURNED TO GUATEMALA TO FACE THE CHARGES ON NOVEMBER 22, ACCOMPANIED BY A U.S. CONGRESSMAN AND A GROUP OF HUMAN RIGHTS MONITORS. AFTER TURNING HIMSELF IN TO A GUATEMALAN JUDGE, MENDEZ WAS FREED ON HIS OWN RECOGNIZANCE, A DECISION APPEALED BY THE GUATEMALAN

15. ON JANUARY 17, DRUNKEN SOLDIERS KILLED FOUR PEOPLE IN CIUDAD PERONIA, A GUATEMALA CITY SUBURB. THE ARMY ARRESTED TWO SUSPECTS ON JANUARY 21, BOTH OF WHOM WERE SENTENCED TO DEATH IN A MILITARY COURT ON APRIL 8. THE SOLDIERS ESCAPED FROM JAIL ON MAY 9. ONE WAS RECAPTURED ON JULY 6 AND IS APPEALING HIS DEATH SENTENCE; THE OTHER REMAINS AT LARGE.

16. ON FEBRUARY 10, UNIDENTIFIED GUNMEN MURDERED 27-YEAR-OLD SAN CARLOS UNIVERSITY (USAC) PROFESSOR MANUEL ESTUARDO PENA, WHO WAS ACTIVE IN A VARIETY OF POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS AND SOCIAL CAUSES. THE KILLING FOLLOWED THE JANUARY 30 BOMBING OF USAC STUDENT UNION OFFICES AND COINCIDED WITH NUMEROUS THREATS TO USAC PROFESSORS AND STUDENTS, SOME OF WHOM FLED INTO EXILE. ON APRIL 10, MEMBERS OF A HUNAHPU SECURITY UNIT FIRED ON A GROUP OF USAC STUDENTS AFTER A CONFRONTATION DURING PREPARATIONS FOR A PARADE, KILLING ONE AND WOUNDING SEVEN OTHERS. MEMBERS OF THE UNIT WERE ARRESTED. IN NOVEMBER A COURT

CONVICTED SIX HUNAHPU PERSONNEL FOR THEIR ROLE IN THE SHOOTING AND SENTENCED THEM TO 12 2/3 YEARS IN PRISON.

17. THERE WAS SOME PROGRESS IN CERTAIN OTHER HIGH-PROFILE CASES. THE TRIAL OF FORMER GOVERNMENT SECURITY AGENT NOEL DE JESUS BETETA ALVAREZ FOR THE 1990 MURDER OF GUATEMALAN ANTHROPOLOGIST MYRNA MACK CHANG TRIAL BEGAN IN AUGUST AND WAS CONTINUING AT YEAR'S END. ON SEPTEMBER 30, A MILITARY COURT SENTENCED SIX ENLISTED MILITARY MEN TO 30 YEARS FOR THE 1990 MURDER OF AMERICAN CITIZEN MICHAEL DEVINE; A

CAPTAIN ACCUSED OF INVOLVEMENT WAS FOUND INNOCENT, A DECISION APPEALED BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL. TWO OTHER CHARGES AGAINST THE CAPTAIN ARE STILL PENDING. SENIOR OFFICERS INVOLVED IN COVERING UP THE CASE FOR 2 YEARS HAVE NOT BEEN BROUGHT TO TRIAL. ON JULY 19, AN APPELLATE COURT SENTENCED FOUR POLICEMEN TO 12 YEARS IN PRISON AND A COLLECTIVE FINE OF APPROXIMATELY 1,000 FOR THE MARCH 1990 MURDER OF STREET CHILD NAHAMON CARMONA LOPEZ.

18. THERE WAS NO PROGRESS IN RESOLVING THE 1989 DISAPPEARANCES AND MURDERS OF UNIVERSITY STUDENTS, THE 1990 HECTOR OQUELI COLINDRES AND GILDA FLORES KILLINGS, THE 1990 DISAPPEARANCE OF MARIA TIU TOJIN AND HER DAUGHTER, THE 1991 MURDER OF POLICE DETECTIVE JOSE LUIS MERIDA ESCOBAR, THE 1991 "TRAILEROS" KILLINGS IN TAXISCO, THE 1991 DISAPPEARANCE OF DIEGO DOMINGO MARTIN, OR PAST KIDNAPINGS AND MURDERS OF VARIOUS CERJ MEMBERS. THE GOVERNMENT'S INABILITY TO CONTROL OR SANCTION THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS OFFENSES IS A MAJOR IMPEDIMENT TO HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRESS.

B. DISAPPEARANCE

19. THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE RECEIVED 65 COMPLAINTS OF FORCED DISAPPEARANCES DURING THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992. ITS INVESTIGATIONS ATTRIBUTED RESPONSIBILITY TO STATE SECURITY FORCES IN THREE CASES AND TO THE GUERRILLAS IN NINE CASES. OF THE REMAINING 53 CASES, 14 VICTIMS REAPPEARED ALIVE, 3 VICTIMS WERE FOUND DEAD, AND 39 COMPLAINTS REMAINED UNDER INVESTIGATION. STATISTICS FOR 1991 SHOWED 112 FORCED DISAPPEARANCES, OF WHICH 31 WERE

ATTRIBUTED TO THE STATE AND 14 TO THE GUERRILLAS. THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE REPORTED 3 FORCED DISAPPEARANCES FOR THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992, AS COMPARED TO 144 IN ALL OF 1991. CREDIBLE REPORTS LINKED MOST

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 009516

POLITICAL DISAPPEARANCES TO PERSONS CONNECTED WITH THE ARMED FORCES. THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT IDENTIFY OR PROSECUTE THE PERPETRATORS OF ANY OF THE ABOVE DISAPPEARANCES.

20. IN JUNE THE REMAINS OF FREE-LANCE AMERICAN JOURNALISTS NICHOLAS BLAKE AND GRIFFITH DAVIS WERE LOCATED AND IDENTIFIED WITH THE ASSISTANCE OF THE GUATEMALAN ARMY, THE BLAKE FAMILY, AND THE U.S. EMBASSY. THEY HAD DISAPPEARED IN WESTERN GUATEMALA IN MARCH 1985 WHILE SEEKING TO INTERVIEW GUATEMALAN REBELS. THERE ARE INDICATIONS THAT LOCAL CIVIL PATROL MEMBERS KILLED THE AMERICANS FOR UNKNOWN REASONS.

21. ON THE MORNING OF JULY 23, MARITZA URRUTIA, THE FORMER COMMON- LAW WIFE OF A GUERRILLA COMMANDER WHO HAD SPENT SEVERAL YEARS IN EXILE IN MEXICO, WAS KIDNAPED. SHE WAS RELEASED ON JULY 30, THE DAY AFTER LOCAL TELEVISION BROADCAST A VIDEOTAPED STATEMENT IN WHICH URRUTIA ACKNOWLEDGED PAST LINKS TO THE URNG, AN UMBRELLA GROUP FOR GUERRILLA FORCES (A STATEMENT CONFIRMED BY THE URNG). URRUTIA SOUGHT REFUGE IN THE GUATEMALAN ARCHBISHOP'S RESIDENCE AND MET WITH THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN. THE U.S. EMBASSY ISSUED URRUTIA A VISA ENABLING HER TO VISIT THE UNITED STATES. THE GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT SEVERELY CRITICIZED THE ROLES OF THE OMBUDSMAN, THE ARCHBISHOP, AND THE U.S. EMBASSY IN THE URRUTIA CASE. ACCORDING TO PRESS

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

REPORTS, URRUTIA TESTIFIED ON SEPTEMBER 30 BEFORE THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS THAT SHE BELIEVES GUATEMALAN MILITARY PERSONNEL ABDUCTED HER AND THAT SHE WAS MISTREATED DURING CAPTIVITY. HER CAPTORS WERE WELL TRAINED AND HAD SIGNIFICANT INSTITUTIONAL RESOURCES, INCLUDING A SAFE HOUSE, VEHICLES, VIDEO EQUIPMENT, AND DISCIPLINED PERSONNEL.

C. TORTURE AND OTHER CRUEL, INHUMAN, OR DEGRADING TREATMENT OR PUNISHMENT

22. THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE STATED PUBLICLY THAT IT DID NOT DOCUMENT ANY CASES OF TORTURE IN 1992. NEVERTHELESS, AS IN PAST YEARS, MANY BODIES WERE FOUND THROUGHOUT GUATEMALA BEARING SIGNS OF SEVERE DISFIGUREMENT OR POST MORTEM MUTILATION. THERE WERE CREDIBLE REPORTS OF TORTURE AND MISTREATMENT BY SECURITY FORCES, INCLUDING USE OF EXCESSIVE FORCE BY POLICE AT THE TIME OF ARREST AND OF ABUSIVE TREATMENT OF PERSONS IN RURAL AREAS BY THE ARMY, CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS, MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, AND POLICE. GANGS AND OTHER CRIMINALS, AS WELL AS GUERRILLAS, ALL USE TORTURE.

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 009516

23. THE GOVERNMENT, ESPECIALLY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, DEDICATED ADDITIONAL PERSONNEL AND UNDERTOOK INCREASED EFFORTS TO END POLICE ABUSE OF STREET CHILDREN IN COORDINATION WITH CASA ALIANZA, AN ORGANIZATION DEDICATED TO PROTECTING THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF STREET CHILDREN. CASA ALIANZA REPORTED NO EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS OF STREET CHILDREN IN 1992. THERE WERE, HOWEVER, NUMEROUS REPORTS OF POLICEMEN BEATING OR ILLEGALLY DETAINING STREET

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

CHILDREN. CASA ALIANZA'S STAFF ALSO REPORTED RECEIVING NUMEROUS ANONYMOUS THREATS, AND THE BROTHER OF ONE STAFF MEMBER WAS KIDNAPED AND HELD BRIEFLY, APPARENTLY IN AN ATTEMPT TO INTIMIDATE STAFF MEMBERS.

D. ARBITRARY ARREST, DETENTION, OR EXILE

24. A COURT-ISSUED ARREST WARRANT IS REQUIRED UNLESS A PERSON IS CAUGHT IN THE ACT OF COMMITTING A CRIME. POLICE MAY NOT DETAIN A SUSPECT FOR OVER 6 HOURS WITHOUT BRINGING HIM BEFORE A JUDGE. THE LAW PROVIDES FOR BAIL, ACCESS TO LAWYERS, AND LIMITS TO 20 DAYS THE TIME ANYONE MAY BE HELD, AFTER WHICH HE MUST BE CHARGED OR FREED. AUTHORITIES MUST PRODUCE DETAINEES ON REQUEST. EXILE IS PROHIBITED UNDER THE CONSTITUTION.

25. DESPITE THESE LEGAL SAFEGUARDS, THERE ARE FREQUENT CREDIBLE REPORTS OF ARBITRARY ARREST AND INCOMMUNICADO DETENTION BY SECURITY FORCES. PERSONS DETAINED ILLEGALLY AND RELEASED SUBSEQUENTLY REPORTED HAVING BEEN HELD AT SECURITY FORCE SAFE HOUSES. THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR ILLEGAL DETENTIONS ROUTINELY IGNORE WRITS OF HABEAS CORPUS.

26. THERE WAS ALSO INCREASING CONCERN OVER APPARENT MISUSE OF THE JUDICIAL PROCESS TO INTIMIDATE POLITICAL OPPONENTS. BAIL FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL ACISCLO VALLADARES, A CRUSADER AGAINST IMPUNITY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATORS, WHO FACES CHARGES OF COVERING UP HIS BROTHER'S ALLEGED FRAUDULENT TRANSFER OF REAL ESTATE DEEDS, WAS FIXED AT AN UNPRECEDENTED AMOUNT. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN ACCUSED MILITARY PERSONNEL OF COERCING PEASANTS INTO TESTIFYING

AGAINST CERJ LEADER AMILCAR MENDEZ. INVESTIGATION INTO THE ACTIVITIES OF FORMER IZABAL DEPARTMENT GOVERNOR LILIAN VASQUEZ DE GUZMAN AND ALLEGED CORRUPTION BY FORMER HEALTH MINISTER MIGUEL MONTEPEQUE APPEARED POLITICALLY MOTIVATED.

27. ON SEPTEMBER 25, THREE AGENTS FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 009516

CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIONS' MINORS' UNIT ARRESTED AN AMERICAN CITIZEN FOR ALLEGEDLY KIDNAPING A GUATEMALAN INFANT. IN FACT, THE AMERICAN WAS IN THE FINAL STAGES OF LEGALLY ADOPTING THE CHILD AND HAD LEGAL CUSTODY UNTIL COMPLETION OF THAT PROCESS. POLICE ARRESTED AND IMPRISONED HER WITHOUT AN ARREST ORDER AND DESTROYED OR HID DOCUMENTS CONFIRMING HER LEGAL CUSTODY OF THE CHILD. SHE WAS RELEASED AFTER THE U.S. EMBASSY PROTESTED HER ILLEGAL DETENTION. THE THREE POLICE OFFICERS INVOLVED IN THE AFFAIR WERE DISMISSED.

E. DENIAL OF FAIR PUBLIC TRIAL

28. THE CONSTITUTION PROVIDES FOR AN INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY COMPOSED OF A COURT OF CONSTITUTIONALITY, A SUPREME COURT, APPEALS COURTS, AND SEVERAL COURTS OF SPECIAL JURISDICTION, SUCH AS LABOR COURTS. MILITARY COURTS HAVE JURISDICTION OVER MILITARY PERSONNEL, INCLUDING MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, BUT NOT PAC MEMBERS, THUS LIMITING THE ABILITY OF CIVIL COURTS TO PROSECUTE MILITARY PERSONNEL IN HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSE CASES. CIVILIAN TRIALS ARE PUBLIC AFTER THE FIRST 15 DAYS, DEDICATED TO AN INITIAL INVESTIGATIVE PHASE THAT IS CLOSED TO THE PUBLIC; DEFENDANTS HAVE THE RIGHT TO BE PRESENT AT TRIALS AND TO LEGAL REPRESENTATION. AN APPEALS COURT AUTOMATICALLY REVIEWS CONVICTIONS.

29. THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM IS INEFFECTIVE. MOST HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS ARE NOT INVESTIGATED; SECURITY FORCE PERSONNEL ARE RELUCTANT TO INVESTIGATE CASES INVOLVING COLLEAGUES. JUDGES ARE SUSCEPTIBLE TO INTIMIDATION AND CORRUPTION AND SUFFER LOW PAY, BAD WORKING CONDITIONS, AND LOW MORALE. SOME JUDGES SUCCEEDED IN BEING EXCUSED FROM HEARING PROMINENT CASES AFTER ALLEGING DEATH THREATS. A TOTAL OF 12 DIFFERENT JUDGES WERE EXCUSED FROM THE MYRNA MACK CHANG CASE, FOR EXAMPLE. IN SEPTEMBER THE FORMER JUDGE IN THE SISTER DIANA ORTIZ CASE PUBLICLY CHARGED THAT THE SUPREME COURT PRESSURED LOWER COURT JUDGES TO DECIDE CASES IN LINE WITH ITS WISHES.

30. WIDESPREAD RECOGNITION OF DEFECTS LED TO CONGRESSIONAL PASSAGE IN LATE SEPTEMBER OF NEW CRIMINAL PROCEDURES AND ANTINARCOTICS CODES. THE NARCOTICS LEGISLATION WENT INTO EFFECT IN 1992, AND THE CRIMINAL PROCEDURE CODE WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE AFTER COMPLETION OF FUNDAMENTAL RETRAINING OF LAWYERS AND JUDGES. THE CRIMINAL PROCEDURES LAW WILL INTRODUCE ORAL PROCEEDINGS (IN BOTH SPANISH AND INDIGENOUS LANGUAGES) OPEN TO THE PUBLIC, AND A PUBLIC DEFENDER PROGRAM. THE NARCOTICS LAW CRIMINALIZES NARCOTICS CONSPIRACIES, ENACTS STIFF

PENALTIES FOR VIOLATORS, AND IMPOSES CIVIL DAMAGES ON NARCOTICS VIOLATORS.

OR CORRESPONDENCE

32. THE CONSTITUTION PROVIDES FOR THE INVIOLABILITY OF HOME, CORRESPONDENCE, AND PRIVATE DOCUMENTS, PROVISIONS THAT ARE NOT ALWAYS RESPECTED. ARMY INTELLIGENCE UNITS MONITOR PRIVATE COMMUNICATIONS. MANY HUMAN RIGHTS MONITORS REPORTED RECEIVING THREATS IN THE FORM OF SURVEILLANCE, TELEPHONE CALLS, AND ANONYMOUS LETTERS.

33. OFFICIALS ENFORCING THE MILITARY DRAFT TRADITIONALLY ENTER HOMES AND PLACES OF BUSINESS WITHOUT LEGALLY REQUIRED COURT ORDERS. IN FEBRUARY THE ARMY ATTEMPTED TO END SUCH ABUSES IN QUICHE WHEN IT ESTABLISHED THE NATION'S FIRST DRAFT BOARD CONSISTING OF THE ZONE MILITARY COMMANDER, THE LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE, AND OTHER CIVILIAN LEADERS. UNDER NEW RECRUITMENT PRACTICES ALSO ADOPTED IN SEVERAL OTHER DEPARTMENTS, POTENTIAL RECRUITS RECEIVE THREE INDUCTION NOTICES, AFTER WHICH THEY ARE ARRESTED IF THEY DO NOT REPORT FOR ENLISTMENT. ACTIVISTS CRITICIZE THE NEW PROCEDURES FOR NOT ADDRESSING THE FACT THAT INDIGENOUS MEN ARE REQUIRED TO SERVE IN THE ARMED FORCES MORE FREQUENTLY THAN NONINDIGENOUS MEN.

34. THE CONSTITUTION REQUIRES THAT PAC SERVICE BE VOLUNTARY. HOWEVER, ARMY OFFICERS, MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, AND PAC LEADERS OFTEN PRESSURE MEN IN CONFLICT AREAS TO BECOME PAC MEMBERS. THERE ARE CREDIBLE REPORTS THAT SOME WHO REFUSE TO SERVE HAVE BEEN KILLED OR SUFFERED OTHER ABUSES.

G. USE OF EXCESSIVE FORCE AND VIOLATIONS OF HUMANITARIAN LAW IN INTERNAL CONFLICTS

35. GUATEMALA'S ARMED INTERNAL CONFLICT ENTERED ITS 32ND YEAR IN 1992 AND CONTINUED TO BE A CAUSE OF MAJOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS BY BOTH GOVERNMENT AND GUERRILLA FORCES. THE URNG MARKED ITS 10-YEAR ANNIVERSARY ON FEBRUARY 7. PEACE NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 009516

THE URNG CONTINUED INCONCLUSIVELY IN 1992. HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES WERE THE PRIMARY AREA OF DISAGREEMENT. ON AUGUST 6, NEGOTIATORS REACHED AN ACCORD ON THE PAC ISSUE WHEREBY THE GOVERNMENT AGREED TO ESTABLISH NO NEW PAC'S IF THE URNG REFRAINED FROM EXTENDING OPERATIONS INTO NEW AREAS. NO NEW PAC'S HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED SINCE THE AGREEMENT WAS REACHED.

36. A WAVE OF BOMBINGS OCCURRED THROUGHOUT THE CAPITAL IN APRIL AND MAY. THE PERPETRATORS WERE NEVER APPREHENDED, BUT SEVERAL RIGHTWING AND LEFTWING GROUPS WERE THOUGHT TO BE RESPONSIBLE. TARGETS INCLUDED GOVERNMENT AND PRIVATE OFFICES, BUSINESSES, AND SCHOOLS.

37. COMMUNITIES IN RESISTANCE (CPR) CLAIMED ARMY AIRCRAFT BOMBED THEIR CIVILIAN SETTLEMENTS ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS. IN MID-JULY, FOR EXAMPLE, CPR REPRESENTATIVES ACCUSED THE ARMY OF BOMBING A CPR NEAR IXCAN, QUICHE. THE DEFENSE MINISTER, WHO ONCE COMMANDED FORCES IN THAT AREA, DENIED THERE HAD BEEN ANY BOMBING AND CLAIMED GUERRILLAS FORCED CIVILIANS TO FLEE THE REGION MANY YEARS AGO. CPR REPRESENTATIVES PRODUCED UNEXPLODED BOMBS TO SUPPORT THEIR ALLEGATIONS. THE ORIGIN OF THE BOMBS HAS NOT BEEN ESTABLISHED.

38. GUERRILLA FORCES RECRUITED CHILDREN INTO THEIR RANKS. GOVERNMENT TROOPS FOUND MARIO CATUJ SALVADOR, A 12-YEAR-OLD CHILD GUERRILLA, AFTER AN ARMED ENGAGEMENT AT PATULUL, SUCHITEPEQUEZ. HE HAD REPORTEDLY BEEN FORCIBLY RECRUITED BY GUERRILLAS WHILE WORKING ON A FARM IN ESCUINTLA. HE DIED SHORTLY THEREAFTER OF MALNUTRITION, DEHYDRATION, DIARRHEA, AND PNEUMONIA.

39. GUERRILLAS ALSO HINDERED INTERNATIONAL RELIEF EFFORTS. ON FEBRUARY 4, APPROXIMATELY 40 "GUERRILLA ARMY OF THE POOR" (EGP) TROOPS INTERCEPTED AND KIDNAPED TWO UNITED NATIONS REFUGEE RELIEF WORKERS ON A ROAD BETWEEN NEBAJ AND CHAJUL, QUICHE. THE U.N. PERSONNEL WERE FORCED TO WALK TO A NEARBY REBEL STRONGHOLD AFTER THEIR PICKUP TRUCK WAS BURNED ON THE HIGHWAY. THEY WERE RELEASED ON FEBRUARY 6.

SECTION 2 RESPECT FOR CIVIL LIBERTIES, INCLUDING:

A. FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND PRESS

PRESSURE AND INTERFERENCE TO SILENCE CRITICISM OF THE ACTIONS OF THE PRESIDENT AND HIS FAMILY AND ALLEGED WRONGDOING BY THE SECURITY FORCES.

41. NO JOURNALISTS OR MEDIA FIGURES DISAPPEARED OR WERE KILLED IN 1992, BUT SEVERAL REPORTED RECEIVING DEATH THREATS. TWO OF THE MORE PROMINENT CASES INVOLVED JOURNALISTS FROM PRENSA LIBRE; ONE OF WHOM EVENTUALLY REQUESTED AND RECEIVED POLITICAL ASYLUM IN ANOTHER COUNTRY. IN LATE AUGUST, A GROUP OF JOURNALISTS CLAIMED THAT ARMED JUDICIAL BRANCH SECURITY GUARDS THREATENED TO KILL THEM IF COVERAGE DID NOT CEASE REGARDING THE MYSTERIOUS MURDER OF THE MOTHER OF SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT JUAN JOSE RODIL'S PERSONAL SECRETARY. IN OCTOBER THE OFFICES OF TINAMIT, A LEFT-OF-CENTER MAGAZINE THAT IS FREQUENTLY CRITICAL OF GOVERNMENT AND OTHER PUBLIC FIGURES, WAS THE OBJECT OF A BOMBING THAT RESULTED IN NO INJURIES AND LITTLE PHYSICAL DAMAGE TO THE BUILDING. IN DECEMBER SIGLO VEINTIUNO JOURNALIST OMAR CANO WAS BEATEN, ALONG WITH TREASURY POLICE AGENTS AND REPRESENTATIVES OF GOVERNMENT ENVIRONMENTAL AGENCIES, IN THE PRESENCE OF MILITARY PERSONNEL. CANO WAS INVESTIGATING ALLEGED ILLEGAL TIMBER CUTTING IN NATIONAL PARKS AND PROTECTED RESERVES. THE NATIONAL MEDIA WERE OUTRAGED BY THE INCIDENT AND DIRECTLY ACCUSED MEMBERS OF THE GUATEMALAN ARMY OF RESPONSIBILITY. TO DATE THERE HAVE BEEN NO PROSECUTIONS OF THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR THESE CRIMES.

42. DESPITE THE ALLEGED THREATS, THE NEWS MEDIA REPORTED ALL MAJOR HUMAN RIGHTS STORIES AND PUBLICIZED COMMUNIQUES FROM THE URNG, LEFTIST GROUPS, AND OTHERS OPPOSED TO THE

GOVERNMENT OR ITS POLICIES. BOTH MAJOR PRESS ORGANIZATIONS DENOUNCED INCIDENTS RESTRICTING FREEDOM OF THE PRESS AND VOWED TO CONTINUE COVERAGE OF SENSITIVE TOPICS. JOURNALISTS THEMSELVES ADMIT THAT SIGNIFICANT SELF-CENSORSHIP CONTINUES TO IMPEDE FULL REPORTING ON A VARIETY OF TOPICS, INCLUDING GOVERNMENT HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, CORRUPTION OF GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND INFLUENTIAL POLITICIANS, ASPECTS OF NARCOTRAFFICKING, AND ISSUES AFFECTING THE ECONOMIC INTERESTS OF POWERFUL INDIVIDUALS.

B. FREEDOM OF PEACEFUL ASSEMBLY AND ASSOCIATION

43. THE CONSTITUTION GUARANTEES THE RIGHTS OF PEACEFUL ASSEMBLY AND ASSOCIATION: PARADES, RALLIES, MARCHES, FORUMS, DEBATES, AND SEMINARS ON VARIOUS TOPICS, INCLUDING HUMAN RIGHTS, TOOK PLACE OPENLY AND FREELY. ON OCTOBER 12, FOR EXAMPLE, NUMEROUS PROTEST RALLIES AND PARADES MARKED THE 500TH ANNIVERSARY OF COLUMBUS' ARRIVAL IN THE AMERICAS WITHOUT INCIDENT. RIOT POLICE USED EXCESSIVE FORCE ON SOME OCCASIONS IN BREAKING UP PEACEFUL DEMONSTRATIONS. ON JULY 21, RIOT POLICE FORCIBLY EXPELLED FROM THE GUATEMALA CITY CENTRAL PLAZA PROTEST MARCHERS FROM THE QUETZALTENANGO TOWN OF CAJOLA. THAT INCIDENT AND EVICTIONS OF SQUATTERS PROMPTED WIDESPREAD CRITICISM AND CONDEMNATION.

44. FREEDOM OF POLITICAL ASSOCIATION IS GUARANTEED UNDER THE CONSTITUTION, ALTHOUGH ORGANIZATIONS NOMINALLY REQUIRE LEGAL STATUS, A CUMBERSOME AND EXPENSIVE PROCEDURE. THE PEACE BRIGADES, AN INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS MONITORING

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

ORGANIZATION, HAS BEEN UNABLE TO OBTAIN RECOGNITION DESPITE PERSISTENT EFFORTS. THE ABSENCE OF LEGAL STATUS DOES NOT, HOWEVER, PREVENT PEACE BRIGADES AND OTHER HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS FROM OPERATING OPENLY.

C. FREEDOM OF RELIGION

45. NO STATE RELIGION EXISTS. RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IS CONSTITUTIONALLY GUARANTEED AND IS RESPECTED IN PRACTICE. RELIGIOUS PERSONNEL ARE SOMETIMES THREATENED FOR POLITICAL REASONS. ABOUT 70 PER CENT OF THE POPULATION IS NOMINALLY CATHOLIC, BUT MANY OTHER FAITHS OPERATE FREELY. THE PRESIDENT IS AN EVANGELICAL PROTESTANT.

D. FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT WITHIN THE COUNTRY, FOREIGN TRAVEL, EMIGRATION, AND REPATRIATION

46. THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT RESTRICT FOREIGN TRAVEL, NOR DID IT REVOKE CITIZENSHIP FOR POLITICAL REASONS. MOVEMENT INSIDE GUATEMALA WAS UNRESTRICTED EXCEPT IN SOME CONFLICT AREAS. GUERRILLAS CONTINUED TO ESTABLISH ROAD BLOCKS, ASSAULT PRIVATE CITIZENS TO DEMAND "WAR TAXES," ATTACK PETROLEUM TRUCKS, AND LIMIT TRAVEL IN CERTAIN RURAL AREAS. THE ARMY, MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, AND PAC'S ALSO LIMITED TRAVEL IN SOME AREAS.

47. NOBEL LAUREATE AND INDIGENOUS LEADER RIGOBERTA MENCHU VISITED GUATEMALA TWICE IN 1992 AND TRAVELED TO RURAL AREAS. OTHER POLITICALLY ACTIVE GUATEMALANS WHO HAD GONE

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 009516

INTO EXILE RETURNED. ON FEBRUARY 28, POLITICAL ACTIVIST AND FORMER SOCIALIST PARTY VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

LUIS ZURITA RETURNED TO GUATEMALA FROM EXILE. ON MARCH 19, FORMER REBEL ARMED FORCES POLITICAL LEADER GONZALO DANILO RODRIGUEZ RECEIVED OFFICIAL AMNESTY, ESTABLISHED A POLITICAL PARTY, AND BEGAN PUBLISHING POLITICAL ARTICLES FREQUENTLY IN THE LOCAL PRESS.

48. REPATRIATION OF REFUGEES CONTINUED. AN ESTIMATED 1,600 REFUGEES RETURNED TO GUATEMALA IN THE FIRST 8 MONTHS OF 1992 UNDER THE SPONSORSHIP OF INTERNATIONAL GROUPS AND THE GOVERNMENT'S COMMITTEE ON REFUGEE AFFAIRS. THE GOVERNMENT AND REPRESENTATIVES OF THE GUATEMALAN REFUGEE COMMUNITIES IN MEXICO SIGNED AN AGREEMENT ON OCTOBER 8 ALLOWING THE ORDERLY, VOLUNTARY, LARGE-SCALE RETURN OF REFUGEES TO THEIR HOMELAND.

SECTION 3 RESPECT FOR POLITICAL RIGHTS: THE RIGHT OF CITIZENS TO CHANGE THEIR GOVERNMENT

49. GUATEMALANS HAVE THE RIGHT TO CHANGE THEIR GOVERNMENT BY PEACEFUL AND DEMOCRATIC MEANS. UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE BY SECRET BALLOT EXISTS FOR THOSE 18 YEARS OF AGE AND OLDER; THERE ARE NO PROPERTY OR LITERACY REQUIREMENTS. VOTING IS NOT MANDATORY. THE LAST NATIONAL ELECTIONS, WHICH INTERNATIONAL OBSERVERS FOUND FREE AND FAIR, WERE HELD IN JANUARY 1991. MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES MAY NOT VOTE.

50. INDIGENOUS PEOPLE ENJOY EQUAL RIGHTS UNDER THE CONSTITUTION. THERE ARE SOME INDIGENOUS CONGRESSMEN, ARMY OFFICERS (INCLUDING ONE GENERAL), GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, AND JUDGES. NEVERTHELESS, PERVASIVE DISCRIMINATION LIMITS OPPORTUNITIES FOR INDIGENOUS PEOPLE TO ASSUME PROMINENT

ROLES IN GUATEMALAN POLITICS.

SECTION 4 GOVERNMENTAL ATTITUDE REGARDING INTERNATIONAL AND NONGOVERNMENTAL INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS

51. LOCAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS AND ORGANIZATIONS ARE PERMITTED TO OPERATE IN GUATEMALA, BUT MEMBERS SUFFERED THREATS AND VIOLENCE FROM SECURITY FORCES AND PAC'S. AS NOTED IN SECTION 1.A., MEMBERS OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION CERJ DISAPPEARED, WERE KILLED, AND WERE THREATENED IN 1992. THE OFFICE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 009516

OMBUDSMAN REMAINED THE MOST RELIABLE SOURCE OF OBJECTIVE INFORMATION ON HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES, ISSUING MANY REPORTS CRITICAL OF BOTH THE GOVERNMENT AND THE GUERRILLAS. CONGRESS REELECTED RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, AND HIS OFFICE MOVED INTO A NEW BUILDING IN DOWNTOWN GUATEMALA CITY WITH IMPROVED FACILITIES. RELATIONS BETWEEN THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH AND THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE WERE TENSE AT TIMES, AND HIGH-RANKING GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS WORKING IN THE FIELDS OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND JURISPRUDENCE HAVE COMPLAINED PUBLICLY AND PRIVATELY OF RECEIVING DEATH THREATS STEMMING FROM THEIR INTEREST IN RESOLVING CASES RELATED TO HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, OFFICIAL CORRUPTION, AND NARCOTRAFFICKING. THE OMBUDSMAN CONTINUED TO ENJOY WIDESPREAD PUBLIC SUPPORT AND RESPECT.

52. THE GOVERNMENT OFFICIALLY WELCOMED, BUT AT TIMES CRITICIZED, INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS. SENIOR GUATEMALAN OFFICIALS MET REPRESENTATIVES OF NUMEROUS

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

FOREIGN AND INTERNATIONAL OFFICIALS AND ACTIVISTS. UNITED NATIONS HUMAN RIGHTS EXPERT CHRISTIAN TOMUSCHAT RECEIVED THE COOPERATION OF THE GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT, AND HIS CRITICAL COMMENTS RECEIVED WIDESPREAD PRESS COVERAGE. FOREIGN FORENSIC ANTHROPOLOGISTS AND HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS TOOK PART IN THE LOCATION AND EXHUMATION OF CLANDESTINE CEMETERIES. NEVERTHELESS, THE DEFENSE MINISTER THREATENED TO PROSECUTE FORENSIC ANTHROPOLOGIST CLYDE SNOW FOR DEFAMATION AFTER SNOW ATTRIBUTED CERTAIN PAST HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES TO THE GUATEMALAN MILITARY. BOTH LOCAL AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS WERE CRITICIZED BY PRESIDENT SERRANO AND MEMBERS OF HIS CABINET, WHO ACCUSED THEM OF INTENTIONALLY DISTORTING GUATEMALA'S HUMAN RIGHTS RECORD FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES.

SECTION 5 DISCRIMINATION BASED ON RACE, SEX, RELIGION, LANGUAGE, OR SOCIAL STATUS

53. ONE-HALF OF THE POPULATION IS CULTURALLY INDIGENOUS AND THE REST HISPANIC. INDIGENOUS PEOPLE REMAIN LARGELY OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY'S POLITICAL, ECONOMIC, SOCIAL, AND CULTURAL MAINSTREAM. INDIGENOUS PEOPLE SUFFERED MOST OF THE SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES DESCRIBED ABOVE. RURAL INDIGENOUS MEN WERE MORE LIKELY THAN URBAN COUNTERPARTS TO BE DRAFTED BY THE ARMY OR RECRUITED FORCIBLY BY GUERRILLA GROUPS.

54. RURAL INDIGENOUS PEOPLE HAVE LIMITED EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES AND THUS HAVE LIMITED EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES. ILLITERACY IS PREVALENT IN INDIGENOUS COMMUNITIES. MANY GUATEMALANS DO NOT SPEAK SPANISH.

LINGUISTIC BARRIERS HINDER INTERACTION WITH THE GOVERNMENT AND LIMIT ACCESS TO PUBLIC SERVICES, INCLUDING THE JUDICIARY, BECAUSE FEW OFFICIALS SPEAK INDIGENOUS LANGUAGES.

55. WOMEN ARE ACTIVE IN THE LABOR FORCE, ESPECIALLY IN THE TEXTILE INDUSTRY, AGRICULTURE, RETAIL BUSINESS, AND IN LOWER-PAYING PUBLIC SECTOR JOBS. SEVERAL WOMEN HOLD PROMINENT POLITICAL POSITIONS, INCLUDING CABINET POSTS. DESPITE LEGAL PROTECTION, WOMEN FACE JOB DISCRIMINATION AND RECEIVE LOWER PAY THAN MEN. CONAVIGUA, AN INDIGENOUS WIDOWS' ORGANIZATION PROMINENT IN THE ADVOCACY OF WOMEN'S AND HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES, REPORTS THAT VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN, INCLUDING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, REMAINS COMMON BUT RECEIVES LITTLE ATTENTION. CRIMINAL SEXUAL VIOLENCE OFTEN GOES UNREPORTED BY VICTIMS, AND RELATIVELY FEW RAPE CASES CAME TO COURT. THE DEPUTY HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, A WOMAN, MONITORS VIOLATIONS OF WOMEN'S RIGHTS.

SECTION 6 WORKER RIGHTS

A. THE RIGHT OF ASSOCIATION

56. THE CONSTITUTION AND THE 1947 LABOR CODE PROVIDE WORKERS FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION AND THE RIGHT TO FORM AND JOIN TRADE UNIONS. AS A RESULT OF A TRIPARTITE NEGOTIATING PROCESS INCLUDING LABOR, MANAGEMENT, AND GOVERNMENT, THE LABOR CODE WAS AMENDED IN LATE 1992 TO FACILITATE FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION, TO STRENGTHEN THE RIGHTS OF WORKING WOMEN, TO INCREASE PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS OF LABOR LAWS, AND TO ENHANCE THE ROLE OF THE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LABOR MINISTRY AND LABOR COURTS IN ENFORCING THE LABOR CODE. THESE AMENDMENTS ENTERED INTO FORCE IN 1992. ALL WORKERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO FORM OR JOIN UNIONS, INCLUDING PUBLIC SECTOR EMPLOYEES. BETWEEN 5 AND 8 PERCENT OF THE WORK FORCE IS ORGANIZED. THE 890 UNIONS IN THE COUNTRY ARE INDEPENDENT OF GOVERNMENT AND POLITICAL PARTY DOMINATION.

57. THE LABOR CODE AMENDMENTS SIMPLIFY THE PROCESS FOR UNIONS SEEKING LEGAL STATUS, WHICH HAS LONG BEEN CRITICIZED BY U.S. LABOR ORGANIZATIONS AS EXCESSIVELY CUMBERSOME, BY ELIMINATING A NUMBER OF PROVISIONS, INCLUDING ONE THAT REQUIRED THE PRESIDENT OF THE COUNTRY TO SIGN THE FINAL PAPERS. WORKERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO

STRIKE, BUT LABOR CODE PROCEDURES MAKE LEGAL STRIKES CUMBERSOME, FOR EXAMPLE BY REQUIRING A TWO-THIRDS VOTE. MOST STRIKES OCCUR WITHOUT LEGAL AUTHORIZATION, AND IN PRACTICE THE GOVERNMENT MAKES NO EFFORT TO INTERVENE ON THE BASIS OF ILLEGALITY. HOWEVER, THE LACK OF LEGAL SANCTION FOR A STRIKE CAN BE USED AS A THREAT AGAINST STRIKERS. FOR EXAMPLE, DURING A SERIES OF WORK STOPPAGES BY CIVIL SERVANTS IN JULY, SOME GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS THREATENED TO TAKE LEGAL ACTION AGAINST UNION LEADERS FOR PURSUING AN ILLEGAL STRIKE. ORGANIZED LABOR'S STRUCTURAL WEAKNESSES, A PAUCITY OF MEMBERSHIP FUNDS, AND A POOR OVERALL ECONOMIC SITUATION WITH HIGH UNEMPLOYMENT AND UNDEREMPLOYMENT LIMIT THE DURATION OF VIRTUALLY ALL STRIKES.

58. BY LAW, UNION LEADERS MAY SERVE ONLY ONE TERM IN A PARTICULAR UNION OFFICE, BUT, BY ROTATING UNION POSITIONS,

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

THE SAME PERSONS CAN STAY ON UNION EXECUTIVE BOARDS FOR EXTENDED PERIODS OF TIME. THE CONSTITUTION AND THE 1992 LAW PROTECT THE RIGHT OF POLITICAL PARTICIPATION FOR INDIVIDUALS, INCLUDING TRADE UNION LEADERS. UNIONS MAY AND DO FORM FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS AND JOIN INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS. WITH VERY FEW EXCEPTIONS, TRADE UNIONS DEPEND ON ASSISTANCE RECEIVED FROM INTERNATIONAL CONTACTS.

59. A "SOLIDARITY" MOVEMENT IS ACTIVE, CLAIMING APPROXIMATELY 100,000 MEMBERS IN OVER 350 COMPANIES. UNIONS MAY LEGALLY CONTINUE TO OPERATE IN WORKPLACES WHICH HAVE SOLIDARITY ASSOCIATIONS, AND WORKERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO CHOOSE BETWEEN THE TWO OR BELONG TO BOTH. THE GOVERNMENT VIEWS THESE ASSOCIATIONS AS CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS WHICH NEED NOT INTERFERE WITH THE FUNCTIONING OF TRADE UNIONS. ARTICLE 214 OF THE AMENDED LABOR CODE STIPULATES THAT TRADE UNIONS HAVE THE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT TO BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY OVER WORK CONDITIONS ON BEHALF OF WORKERS. CRITICS CHARGE THAT SOLIDARITY ASSOCIATIONS ARE PROMOTED BY MANAGEMENT TO RIVAL LABOR UNIONS. THERE ARE CREDIBLE REPORTS THAT, AT TIMES, DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES ARE NOT ADHERED TO IN THE FORMATION AND MANAGEMENT OF SOME OF THESE ASSOCIATIONS, AND WORKERS ARE UNABLE TO PARTICIPATE FULLY AND FREELY IN DECISION MAKING. SIMILAR CREDIBLE CHARGES ARE MADE AGAINST SOME TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS.

60. THERE WERE CREDIBLE REPORTS DURING THE YEAR OF THREATS OF VIOLENCE AGAINST UNION LEADERS OR MEMBERS, INCLUDING IN THE HIGH-PROFILE "MAQUILA" (DRAWBACK, OR IN-BOND EXPORT) SECTOR. PUBLIC SECTOR UNION LEADERS ALSO

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 009516

REPORTED RECEIVING THREATS AGAINST THEMSELVES AND THEIR FAMILIES, COINCIDING WITH UNION DEMANDS FOR IMPROVED BENEFITS.

61. AT THE REQUEST OF TRADE UNION LEADERS, THE INDEPENDENT HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, THROUGH HIS OFFICE FOR ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL ISSUES, FOLLOWS COMPLAINTS RELATED TO TRADE UNION ACTIVITIES. UNION LEADERS AND WORKERS FILED A NUMBER OF COMPLAINTS WITH THE OMBUDSMAN DURING THE YEAR, AND THE OMBUDSMAN SPOKE OUT PUBLICLY TO CONDEMN THE USE OF VIOLENCE OR THREATS AGAINST THOSE SEEKING SOCIAL JUSTICE. THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION'S (ILO) COMMITTEE ON FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION REGRETTED IN NOVEMBER THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD FAILED TO REPLY TO NEW ALLEGATIONS REGARDING 15 MURDERS, AS WELL AS PHYSICAL ATTACKS, ABDUCTIONS, DEATH THREATS, AND 58 ARRESTS OF TRADE UNIONISTS IN 1991. THERE WERE NO REPORTS OF MURDERS OF UNION LEADERS IN 1992.

B. THE RIGHT TO ORGANIZE AND BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY

62. WORKERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO ORGANIZE AND BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY, BUT OFTEN FACE DISCRIMINATORY ANTIUNION ACTIONS BY EMPLOYERS. THE NEW LABOR AMENDMENTS PROVIDE THAT WORKERS CANNOT BE DISMISSED FOR PARTICIPATING IN THE FORMATION OF A TRADE UNION. ARTICLE 78 OF THE LABOR CODE, ONE OF THE MORE HOTLY CONTESTED CHANGES, ESTABLISHES THE RIGHT OF EMPLOYERS TO FIRE WORKERS FOR CAUSE AND PERMITS WORKERS TO APPEAL THEIR DISMISSAL TO THE LABOR COURTS, BUT DOES NOT REQUIRE THE REINSTATEMENT OF ANY WORKER FIRED WITHOUT CAUSE. LABOR COURTS RESPONSIBLE FOR ENFORCING

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LABOR LAWS CONTINUED GENERALLY TO BE INEFFECTIVE. IN AN EFFORT TO RELIEVE THE OVERWHELMING WORKLOAD OF THE LABOR COURTS, SEVEN NEW COURTS WERE CREATED IN 1992. FOR BUDGET REASONS, THEY ARE NOT YET FUNCTIONING. RESTRUCTURING AND MODERNIZING THE LABOR COURT SYSTEM THUS MADE LITTLE HEADWAY, AND A HEAVY BACKLOG OF CASES CONTINUES TO CLOG THE COURTS.

63. ENFORCEMENT OF THE LABOR CODE IS SPOTTY, DUE IN PART TO THE SCARCITY OF LABOR INSPECTORS AND A LACK OF ADEQUATE TRAINING. PLANS ARE PENDING TO HIRE AND TRAIN ADDITIONAL LABOR INSPECTORS. THE SALARY OF ALL LABOR INSPECTORS WAS DOUBLED IN 1992, ALONG WITH ALL OTHER TECHNICAL EMPLOYEES IN THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT.

64. LABOR LAWS AND REGULATIONS APPLY THROUGHOUT

GUATEMALA, INCLUDING IN THE FEW EXPORT PROCESSING ZONES UNDER DEVELOPMENT IN THE COUNTRY. UNION LEADERS OFTEN BLAME EMPLOYER PRESSURES AND RESTRICTED ACCESS TO THE ZONES FOR THEIR VIRTUAL INABILITY TO ORGANIZE THERE. CREDIBLE REPORTS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED ABOUT THESE ZONES, ALLEGING LOW WAGES, LONG HOURS WITHOUT LEGALLY REQUIRED OVERTIME PAY, EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS, AND POOR WORKING CONDITIONS. LABOR MINISTRY INSPECTORS FILED NUMEROUS COMPLAINTS BEFORE THE LABOR COURTS ON THESE CHARGES. FEW OF THESE CASES WERE RESOLVED, HOWEVER, DUE TO INEFFICIENCIES WITHIN THE COURT SYSTEM AND TO LEGAL MANEUVERING WHICH EMPLOYERS CAN USE TO PROLONG THE HEARING PROCESS.

65. THE CONSTITUTION BARS FORCED LABOR, AND THE PRACTICE GENERALLY DOES NOT EXIST. HOWEVER, SOME GROUPS CHARGE THAT COERCED PARTICIPATION OF INDIGENOUS PEOPLES IN THE PAC'S VIOLATES PROHIBITIONS AGAINST FORCED LABOR. THERE WERE CREDIBLE REPORTS OF ISOLATED INSTANCES OF UNPAID PAC MEMBERS BEING USED TO PROVIDE FREE MANUAL LABOR, BUT NO SYSTEMATIC PATTERN OF SUCH ABUSE WAS ESTABLISHED.

D. MINIMUM AGE FOR THE EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN

66. ALTHOUGH THE CONSTITUTION BARS EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS UNDER THE AGE OF 14, THE GOVERNMENT'S NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF STATISTICS REPORTS THAT SOME 50,000 CHILDREN BELOW THIS MINIMUM AGE ARE REGULARLY EMPLOYED IN THE FORMAL SECTOR; AN UNTOLD NUMBER REPORTEDLY WORK IN THE INFORMAL SECTOR. ONLY 5,000 OF THESE MINORS HAVE LEGAL PERMISSION FROM THE LABOR MINISTRY TO WORK. THOSE WORKING WITHOUT LEGAL PERMISSION ARE OPEN TO EXPLOITATION, GENERALLY RECEIVING NO SOCIAL BENEFITS, NO SOCIAL INSURANCE, NO PENSION OR VACATIONS, NO SEVERANCE PAY, AND ARE PAID AT BELOW THE MINIMUM WAGE LEVEL. THE LABOR MINISTRY HAS A PROGRAM TO EDUCATE MINORS, THEIR PARENTS, AND EMPLOYERS ON THE RIGHTS OF MINORS IN THE LABOR MARKET. ECONOMIC NECESSITY, HOWEVER, FORCES MOST FAMILIES TO HAVE THEIR CHILDREN SEEK SOME TYPE OF EMPLOYMENT TO SUPPLEMENT THE FAMILY INCOME.

E. ACCEPTABLE CONDITIONS OF WORK

67. MINIMUM WAGES ARE SET BY LAW. DUE TO A VARIETY OF FACTORS, MOST IMPORTANTLY THE SHARP VARIANCE BETWEEN THE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

OVERSUPPLY OF LABOR AND THE VERY LIMITED DEMAND FOR IT, THE MINIMUM WAGE BECOMES THE PREVAILING WAGE CEILING, AND NOT THE MORE COMMONLY ACCEPTED WAGE FLOOR, FOR MOST UNSKILLED AND SEMISKILLED WORKERS. WIDESPREAD, CREDIBLE REPORTS INDICATED THE MINIMUM WAGE IS COMMONLY, IF ILLEGALLY, NOT PAID TO SIGNIFICANT NUMBERS OF RURAL AND URBAN WORKERS. THE CURRENT MINIMUM WAGE DOES NOT PROVIDE A DECENT STANDARD OF LIVING; GOVERNMENT STATISTICS INDICATE THAT AN ESTIMATED 80 PERCENT OF THE POPULATION LIVES BELOW THE GUATEMALAN POVERTY LINE, INCLUDING APPROXIMATELY 70 PERCENT OF THOSE EMPLOYED. A BILATERAL COMMITTEE REPRESENTING LABOR AND MANAGEMENT IS NAMED EACH YEAR TO MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR INCREASES IN THE MINIMUM WAGE. IN THE EVENT THAT AGREEMENT IS NOT POSSIBLE, THE GOVERNMENT MAY DECREE SUCH INCREASES. THE MINIMUM WAGE WAS INCREASED IN LATE 1991 BY 78.5 PERCENT. ALTHOUGH THE MINIMUM WAGE WAS NOT INCREASED IN 1992, WHEN INFLATION WAS APPROXIMATELY 12 PERCENT, THE GOVERNMENT DID AUGMENT WORKER INCOMES BY 8.3 PERCENT WHEN IT PASSED A LAW REQUIRING PAYMENT OF AN ADDITIONAL ANNUAL 1-MONTH BONUS IN JULY OF EACH YEAR. ORGANIZED LABOR OPPOSED THIS DECISION SINCE BONUS PAYMENTS ARE NOT CONSIDERED IN CALCULATING OTHER BENEFIT PAYMENTS BASED ON WAGES.

68. THE LEGAL WORKDAY IS 8 HOURS AND THE WORKWEEK IS 44 HOURS, BUT A TRADITION OF MUCH LONGER HOURS REMAINS IN PLACE DUE TO ECONOMIC CONDITIONS. THE NEWLY AMENDED LABOR CODE CONTINUES THE TRADITION OF PROVIDING ALL WORKERS A REQUIRED WEEKLY REST PERIOD OF AT LEAST 24 HOURS. TRADE UNION LEADERS AND HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS CHARGE THAT WORKERS ARE COMMONLY FORCED TO WORK OVERTIME, OFTEN WITHOUT

OVERTIME PAY, TO MEET WORK REQUIREMENTS. LABOR INSPECTORS REPORT THAT NUMEROUS INSTANCES WERE UNCOVERED OF SUCH ABUSES, BUT INEFFICIENCIES IN THE LABOR COURT SYSTEM INHIBIT ADEQUATE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAW.

69. OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY STANDARDS ARE INADEQUATE. AS WITH OTHER ASPECTS OF THE LABOR LAW, ENFORCEMENT OF THE STANDARDS THAT DO EXIST IS ALSO GENERALLY INADEQUATE. TRAINING COURSES FOR LABOR INSPECTORS IN HEALTH AND SAFETY STANDARDS WERE PROVIDED, BUT THIS AREA IS NOT PERCEIVED AS A HIGH PRIORITY FOR THE RESOURCE-POOR MINISTRY. IN 1991 LEGISLATION WAS ENACTED REQUIRING COMPANIES WITH MORE THAN 50 EMPLOYEES TO PROVIDE ON-SITE MEDICAL FACILITIES FOR THEIR WORKERS. ACCORDING TO TRADE UNION REPRESENTATIVES, THE DECREE WAS NOT EFFECTIVELY ENFORCED, EVEN THOUGH MANY LARGE EMPLOYERS DO PROVIDE SUCH FACILITIES.

GUATEMALA'S 1985 CONSTITUTION CALLS FOR ELECTION BY UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE OF A ONE-TERM PRESIDENT, A UNICAMERAL CONGRESS, AND MUNICIPAL OFFICERS; IT MANDATES AN INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY AND A HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, WHO IS ELECTED BY AND REPORTS TO CONGRESS. IN 1992 PRESIDENT JORGE SERRANO SERVED HIS SECOND YEAR OF A 5-YEAR TERM. IN JANUARY CONGRESS ELECTED NEW PRESIDENTS OF CONGRESS AND THE SUPREME COURT. IN AUGUST CONGRESS REELECTED RAMIRO DE

LEON CARPIO AS HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN.

THE ARMED FORCES OPERATE WITH CONSIDERABLE INSTITUTIONAL AND LEGAL AUTONOMY, PARTICULARLY IN SECURITY AND MILITARY MATTERS. THE 43,000-MAN ARMY, WHICH HAS RESPONSIBILITY FOR NATIONAL SECURITY, HAS BEEN FIGHTING A LEFTIST INSURGENCY FOR MORE THAN THREE DECADES. THE ARMY'S MOBILE MILITARY POLICE (PMA) GUARDS KEY FACILITIES AND TRADITIONALLY HAS AN ANTICRIME ROLE. TOTAL MILITARY EXPENDITURES FOR 1989, ACCORDING TO U.S. ARMS CONTROL AND DISARMAMENT FIGURES, WERE 131 MILLION. ALTHOUGH THE DEFENSE BUDGET FOR 1992 DECREASED IN REAL TERMS, THE 1993 BUDGET WILL INCREASE IN REAL TERMS BY APPROXIMATELY 8 PERCENT.

THE NATIONAL POLICE (12,000 STRONG) AND TREASURY POLICE

(2,000) REPORT TO THE INTERIOR MINISTER. ON MARCH 4, THE INTERIOR MINISTER CREATED THE "HUNAHPU" TASK FORCE PATROLS COMPOSED OF NATIONAL POLICE, TREASURY POLICE, AND MOBILE MILITARY POLICE TO COMBAT RISING COMMON CRIME. PRESIDENT SERRANO BROKE WITH TRADITION IN 1991 AND APPOINTED A CIVILIAN AS NATIONAL POLICE CHIEF, AS WELL AS OTHER CIVILIANS TO SENIOR POSITIONS IN THE POLICE AND MINISTRY OF INTERIOR. IN A MAY 1992 RESHUFFLING, CIVILIANS WERE APPOINTED INTERIOR MINISTER AND POLICE CHIEF, AND SEVEN MILITARY PERSONNEL WERE ASSIGNED TO KEY ADVISORY POSITIONS. SOME 500,000 MEN SERVE IN VOLUNTARY CIVIL SELF-DEFENSE COMMITTEES, COMMONLY CALLED CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS (PAC'S), SOME OF WHICH CONDUCT COUNTERINSURGENCY PATROLS IN RURAL AREAS. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN AND THE CATHOLIC ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE REPORT THAT SOME PAC MEMBERS WERE COMPELLED TO JOIN, IN VIOLATION OF THE CONSTITUTION. SECURITY FORCES AND PAC'S WERE REPORTED TO HAVE COMMITTED NUMEROUS SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN 1992.

THE AGRICULTURE-BASED, PRIVATE SECTOR-ORIENTED GUATEMALAN ECONOMY GREW APPROXIMATELY 4.6 PERCENT IN 1992, PRODUCING AN INCREASE IN PER CAPITA INCOME OF MORE THAN 1.5 PERCENT. INFLATION STOOD AT APPROXIMATELY 14 PERCENT. DURING THE FOURTH QUARTER, GUATEMALA ENTERED INTO A STANDBY AGREEMENT WITH THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND, REQUIRING THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT TO BALANCE ITS BUDGET IN 1993 FOR THE THIRD STRAIGHT YEAR, AND SIGNED A 120 MILLION ECONOMIC RESTRUCTURING LOAN WITH THE WORLD BANK.

ALTHOUGH THERE WERE SOME IMPROVEMENTS IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS

SITUATION IN 1992, SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES OCCURRED FREQUENTLY. STATISTICS PREPARED BY THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE AND THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE SHOWED A SUBSTANTIAL DROP DURING 1992 IN REPORTED HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, PARTICULARLY EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, TORTURE, AND DISAPPEARANCES. THERE WAS SOME PROGRESS IN RESOLVING CERTAIN KEY CASES, AND NONE IN OTHERS. WHILE GUERRILLA GROUPS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS REPORTED THAT THE MILITARY, CIVIL PATROLS, AND POLICE CONTINUED TO COMMIT A MAJORITY OF THE MAJOR VIOLATIONS, INCLUDING EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLING AND DISAPPEARANCES.

AMONG POSITIVE DEVELOPMENTS, THE PRESIDENTIAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION ISSUED ITS FIRST REPORT UPDATING LEADING HUMAN RIGHTS CASES, THE ARMY CONTINUED HUMAN RIGHTS TRAINING PROGRAMS, AND THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE DEDICATED INCREASED RESOURCES TO PREVENTING ABUSES AGAINST STREET CHILDREN. PRESIDENT SERRANO BECAME THE FIRST GUATEMALAN CHIEF EXECUTIVE TO MEET WITH COMMITTEE OF PEASANT UNITY LEADERS, AND HE, AS WELL AS OTHER GUATEMALAN OFFICIALS AND MILITARY OFFICERS, OPENED A DIALOG WITH GUATEMALAN AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS.

BY YEAR'S END, HOWEVER, THAT DIALOG HAD DETERIORATED. PRESIDENT SERRANO AND MEMBERS OF HIS CABINET STRONGLY CRITICIZED BOTH LOCAL AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS, CLAIMING THEY DISTORT GUATEMALA'S HUMAN RIGHTS RECORD FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES. OFFICIALS CRITICIZED THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE, AND THE U.S. GOVERNMENT FOR THE PROTECTION THEY

OFFERED TO KIDNAP VICTIM MARITZA URRUTIA. SENIOR OFFICIALS DENOUNCED AS IMPROPER INTERFERENCE IN INTERNAL AFFAIRS EXPRESSIONS OF U.S. GOVERNMENT CONCERN OVER THE COURT'S VERDICT OF "INNOCENT" IN THE CASE OF AN ARMY OFFICER IMPLICATED IN THE MURDER OF AMERICAN CITIZEN MICHAEL DEVINE (SEE SECTION 1.A.). THE GOVERNMENT SHOWED INTOLERANCE FOR PRESS CRITICISM. LOCAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS CONTINUED TO BE THREATENED AND WERE VICTIMS OF VIOLENT ATTACKS. ALTHOUGH PROGRESS WAS MADE IN INVESTIGATING AND PROSECUTING SOME PAST AND PRESENT HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, THE OVERALL RECORD WAS POOR. CHARGES WERE DISMISSED AGAINST SOLDIERS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE AUGUST 1991 "TRAILEROS" MURDERS IN TAXISCO, A CASE WHICH IS STILL IN THE APPEAL PROCESS.

GUERRILLAS ALSO COMMITTED NUMEROUS AND SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, INCLUDING EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, KIDNAPINGS, FORCED LABOR RECRUITMENT, WIDESPREAD USE OF MINES AND EXPLOSIVES, AND THE USE OF CHILDREN IN COMBAT.

OMBUDSMAN CONFIRMED 40 EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS DURING THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992, WHILE ANOTHER 209 COMPLAINTS REMAINED PENDING INVESTIGATION. OF THE 40 CONFIRMED EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, 20 POLITICALLY MOTIVATED MURDERS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO STATE SECURITY FORCES, 8 MURDERS OF CRIMINAL SUSPECTS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO STATE SECURITY FORCES, AND 12 POLITICALLY MOTIVATED MURDERS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO GUERRILLAS. THE OMBUDSMAN'S 1991 ANNUAL STATISTICS REPORTED 228 CONFIRMED EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, WITH ANOTHER 203 COMPLAINTS PENDING INVESTIGATION AT YEAR'S END. OF THE 228 CONFIRMED EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, 130 POLITICALLY MOTIVATED MURDERS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO STATE SECURITY FORCES, 27 MURDERS OF CRIMINAL SUSPECTS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO STATE SECURITY FORCES, AND 71 WERE POLITICALLY MOTIVATED MURDERS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO GUERRILLAS. THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE REPORTED 190 EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS DURING THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992, AS COMPARED TO 575 FOR ALL OF 1991, BUT DID NOT BREAK DOWN THE FIGURES ACCORDING TO THE RESPONSIBLE ORGANIZATIONS.

THE SECURITY FORCES AND PERSONS ASSOCIATED WITH OR PROTECTED BY THE ARMY, SUCH AS THE CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS OR MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, COMMITTED MANY OF THESE KILLINGS, MOST OF WHICH TOOK PLACE IN AREAS OF GUERRILLA CONFLICT. THE SECURITY FORCES WERE REPORTED TO BE INVOLVED IN MANY VIGILANTE KILLINGS. THE OMBUDSMAN, THE ATTORNEY GENERAL, AND HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS HAVE FOUND EVIDENCE OF KILLINGS BY PAC'S. PAC LEADERS ARE FEARED IN MANY RURAL COMMUNITIES BECAUSE THEY ENJOY ARMY BACKING AND DE FACTO IMMUNITY FROM PROSECUTION. SECURITY FORCES ARE

RARELY HELD ACCOUNTABLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. WITH FEW EXCEPTIONS, THE GOVERNMENT FAILED TO INVESTIGATE, DETAIN, AND PROSECUTE PERPETRATORS OF EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS. IN 1992 AN INTERNATIONAL TEAM OF FORENSIC ANTHROPOLOGISTS WORKED TO LOCATE CORPSES OF VICTIMS KILLED AND BURIED IN THE EARLY 1980'S AT CLANDESTINE RURAL CEMETERIES.

THE ARMED FORCES AND CIVIL PATROLS FREQUENTLY THREATENED AND SOMETIMES KILLED HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS. THE RUNUJEL JUNAM COUNCIL OF ETHNIC COMMUNITIES (CERJ) IS A RURAL-BASED HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION DEDICATED MAINLY TO OPPOSING INVOLUNTARY SERVICE IN PAC'S. VARIOUS CERJ MEMBERS DISAPPEARED, WERE KILLED, OR WERE THREATENED IN 1992. CERJ MEMBER ESTEBAN TOJIN DISAPPEARED ON MARCH 13 AFTER RECEIVING THREATS DATING BACK TO 1990. A GRENADE EXPLODED ON MAY 10 AT THE SANTA CRUZ DEL QUICHE HOME OF CERJ LEADER AMILCAR MENDEZ, WHO WAS IN GUATEMALA CITY AT THE TIME. MENDEZ REPORTED RECEIVING NUMEROUS ANONYMOUS TELEPHONE THREATS. IN OCTOBER MENDEZ WAS CHARGED WITH PROVIDING EXPLOSIVES TO GUERRILLAS, AND A WARRANT WAS ISSUED FOR HIS ARREST. MENDEZ AND THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN ALLEGED MILITARY PERSONNEL COERCED A CERJ MEMBER INTO ISSUING A FALSE CONFESSION IMPLICATING MENDEZ. MENDEZ RETURNED TO QUICHE TO FACE THE CHARGES ON NOVEMBER 22, ACCOMPANIED BY A U.S. CONGRESSMAN, THE U.S CHARGE D'AFFAIRES, AND A GROUP OF HUMAN RIGHTS MONITORS. AFTER TURNING HIMSELF IN TO A GUATEMALAN JUDGE, MENDEZ WAS FREED ON HIS OWN RECOGNIZANCE, A DECISION APPEALED BY THE GUATEMALAN ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE.

ON JANUARY 17, DRUNKEN SOLDIERS KILLED FOUR PEOPLE IN CIUDAD PERONIA, A GUATEMALA CITY SUBURB. THE ARMY ARRESTED TWO SUSPECTS ON JANUARY 21, BOTH OF WHOM WERE SENTENCED TO DEATH IN A MILITARY APPEALS COURT ON APRIL 8. THE SOLDIERS ESCAPED FROM JAIL ON MAY 9. ONE WAS RECAPTURED ON JULY 6 AND IS APPEALING HIS DEATH SENTENCE; THE OTHER REMAINS AT LARGE.

ON FEBRUARY 10, UNIDENTIFIED GUNMEN MURDERED 27-YEAR-OLD SAN CARLOS UNIVERSITY (USAC) PROFESSOR MANUEL ESTUARDO PENA, WHO WAS ACTIVE IN A VARIETY OF POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS AND SOCIAL CAUSES. THE KILLING FOLLOWED THE JANUARY 30 BOMBING OF USAC STUDENT UNION OFFICES AND COINCIDED WITH NUMEROUS THREATS TO USAC PROFESSORS AND STUDENTS, SOME OF WHOM FLED INTO EXILE. ON APRIL 10, MEMBERS OF A HUNAHPU SECURITY UNIT FIRED ON A GROUP OF USAC STUDENTS AFTER A CONFRONTATION DURING PREPARATIONS FOR A PARADE, KILLING ONE AND WOUNDING SEVEN OTHERS. MEMBERS OF THE UNIT WERE ARRESTED. IN NOVEMBER A COURT CONVICTED SIX HUNAHPU PERSONNEL FOR THEIR ROLE IN THE SHOOTING AND SENTENCED THEM TO 12 2/3 YEARS IN PRISON.

THERE WAS SOME PROGRESS IN CERTAIN OTHER HIGH-PROFILE CASES. THE TRIAL OF FORMER GOVERNMENT SECURITY AGENT NOEL DE JESUS BETETA ALVAREZ FOR THE 1990 MURDER OF GUATEMALAN ANTHROPOLOGIST MYRNA MACK CHANG TRIAL BEGAN IN AUGUST AND WAS CONTINUING AT YEAR'S END. ON SEPTEMBER 30, A MILITARY COURT SENTENCED SIX ENLISTED MILITARY MEN TO 30 YEARS FOR THE 1990 MURDER OF AMERICAN CITIZEN MICHAEL DEVINE; A CAPTAIN ACCUSED OF INVOLVEMENT WAS FOUND INNOCENT, A DECISION APPEALED BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL. TWO OTHER

CHARGES AGAINST THE CAPTAIN ARE STILL PENDING. SENIOR OFFICERS INVOLVED IN COVERING UP THE CASE FOR 2 YEARS HAVE NOT BEEN BROUGHT TO TRIAL. ON JULY 19, AN APPELLATE COURT SENTENCED FOUR POLICEMEN TO 12 YEARS IN PRISON AND A COLLECTIVE FINE OF APPROXIMATELY 1,000 FOR THE MARCH 1990 MURDER OF STREET CHILD NAHAMON CARMONA LOPEZ.

THERE WAS NO PROGRESS IN RESOLVING THE 1989 DISAPPEARANCES AND MURDERS OF UNIVERSITY STUDENTS, THE 1990 HECTOR OQUELI COLINDRES AND GILDA FLORES KILLINGS, THE 1990 DISAPPEARANCE OF MARIA TIU TOJIN AND HER DAUGHTER, THE 1991 MURDER OF POLICE DETECTIVE JOSE LUIS MERIDA ESCOBAR, THE 1991 "TRAILEROS" KILLINGS IN TAXISCO, THE 1991 DISAPPEARANCE OF DIEGO DOMINGO MARTIN, OR PAST KIDNAPINGS AND MURDERS OF VARIOUS CERJ MEMBERS. THE GOVERNMENT'S INABILITY TO CONTROL OR SANCTION THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS OFFENSES IS A MAJOR IMPEDIMENT TO HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRESS.

B. DISAPPEARANCE

THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE RECEIVED 65 COMPLAINTS OF FORCED DISAPPEARANCES DURING THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992. ITS INVESTIGATIONS ATTRIBUTED RESPONSIBILITY TO STATE SECURITY FORCES IN THREE CASES AND TO THE GUERRILLAS IN SIX CASES. OF THE REMAINING CASES, 14 VICTIMS REAPPEARED ALIVE, 3 VICTIMS WERE FOUND DEAD, AND 39 COMPLAINTS REMAINED UNDER INVESTIGATION. STATISTICS FOR 1991 SHOWED 112 COMPLAINTS OF FORCED DISAPPEARANCES, OF WHICH 31 WERE ATTRIBUTED TO THE STATE AND 14 TO THE GUERRILLAS. THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE REPORTED 3 FORCED DISAPPEARANCES FOR

THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992, AS COMPARED TO 144 IN ALL OF 1991. CREDIBLE REPORTS LINKED MOST POLITICAL DISAPPEARANCES TO PERSONS CONNECTED WITH THE ARMED FORCES. THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT IDENTIFY OR PROSECUTE THE

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 016326

PERPETRATORS OF ANY OF THE ABOVE DISAPPEARANCES.

IN JUNE THE REMAINS OF FREE-LANCE AMERICAN JOURNALISTS NICHOLAS BLAKE AND GRIFFITH DAVIS WERE LOCATED AND IDENTIFIED WITH THE ASSISTANCE OF THE GUATEMALAN ARMY, THE BLAKE FAMILY, AND THE U.S. EMBASSY. THEY HAD DISAPPEARED IN WESTERN GUATEMALA IN MARCH 1985 WHILE SEEKING TO INTERVIEW GUATEMALAN REBELS. THERE ARE INDICATIONS THAT LOCAL CIVIL PATROL MEMBERS KILLED THE AMERICANS FOR UNKNOWN REASONS.

ON THE MORNING OF JULY 23, MARITZA URRUTIA, THE FORMER COMMON- LAW WIFE OF A GUERRILLA COMMANDER WHO HAD SPENT SEVERAL YEARS IN EXILE IN MEXICO, WAS KIDNAPED. SHE WAS RELEASED ON JULY 30, THE DAY AFTER LOCAL TELEVISION BROADCAST A VIDEOTAPED STATEMENT IN WHICH URRUTIA ACKNOWLEDGED PAST LINKS TO THE URNG, AN UMBRELLA GROUP FOR GUERRILLA FORCES (A STATEMENT CONFIRMED BY THE URNG). URRUTIA SOUGHT REFUGE IN THE GUATEMALAN ARCHBISHOP'S RESIDENCE AND MET WITH THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN. THE U.S. EMBASSY ISSUED URRUTIA A VISA ENABLING HER TO VISIT THE UNITED STATES. THE GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT SEVERELY CRITICIZED THE ROLES OF THE OMBUDSMAN, THE ARCHBISHOP, AND THE U.S. EMBASSY IN THE URRUTIA CASE. ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS, URRUTIA TESTIFIED ON SEPTEMBER 30 BEFORE THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS THAT SHE BELIEVES GUATEMALAN MILITARY PERSONNEL ABDUCTED HER AND

THAT SHE WAS MISTREATED DURING CAPTIVITY. HER CAPTORS WERE WELL TRAINED AND HAD SIGNIFICANT INSTITUTIONAL RESOURCES, INCLUDING A SAFE HOUSE, VEHICLES, VIDEO EQUIPMENT, AND DISCIPLINED PERSONNEL.

C. TORTURE AND OTHER CRUEL, INHUMAN, OR DEGRADING TREATMENT OR PUNISHMENT

THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE STATED PUBLICLY THAT IT DID NOT DOCUMENT ANY CASES OF TORTURE IN 1992. NEVERTHELESS, AS IN PAST YEARS, MANY BODIES WERE FOUND THROUGHOUT GUATEMALA BEARING SIGNS OF SEVERE DISFIGUREMENT OR POST MORTEM MUTILATION. THERE WERE CREDIBLE REPORTS OF TORTURE AND MISTREATMENT BY SECURITY FORCES, INCLUDING USE OF EXCESSIVE FORCE BY POLICE AT THE TIME OF ARREST AND OF ABUSIVE TREATMENT OF PERSONS IN RURAL AREAS BY THE ARMY, CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS, MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, AND POLICE. GANGS AND OTHER CRIMINALS, AS WELL AS GUERRILLAS, ALL USE TORTURE.

THE GOVERNMENT, ESPECIALLY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, DEDICATED ADDITIONAL PERSONNEL AND UNDERTOOK INCREASED EFFORTS TO END POLICE ABUSE OF STREET CHILDREN IN

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 016326

COORDINATION WITH CASA ALIANZA, AN ORGANIZATION DEDICATED TO PROTECTING THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF STREET CHILDREN. CASA ALIANZA REPORTED NO EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS OF STREET CHILDREN IN 1992. THERE WERE, HOWEVER, NUMEROUS REPORTS OF POLICEMEN BEATING OR ILLEGALLY DETAINING STREET CHILDREN. CASA ALIANZA'S STAFF ALSO REPORTED RECEIVING NUMEROUS ANONYMOUS THREATS, AND THE BROTHER OF ONE STAFF MEMBER WAS KIDNAPED AND HELD BRIEFLY, APPARENTLY IN AN ATTEMPT TO INTIMIDATE STAFF MEMBERS.

D. ARBITRARY ARREST, DETENTION, OR EXILE

A COURT-ISSUED ARREST WARRANT IS REQUIRED UNLESS A PERSON IS CAUGHT IN THE ACT OF COMMITTING A CRIME. POLICE MAY NOT DETAIN A SUSPECT FOR OVER 6 HOURS WITHOUT BRINGING HIM BEFORE A JUDGE. THE LAW PROVIDES FOR BAIL, ACCESS TO LAWYERS, AND LIMITS TO 20 DAYS THE TIME ANYONE MAY BE HELD, AFTER WHICH HE MUST BE CHARGED OR FREED. AUTHORITIES MUST PRODUCE DETAINEES ON REQUEST. EXILE IS PROHIBITED UNDER THE CONSTITUTION.

DESPITE THESE LEGAL SAFEGUARDS, THERE ARE FREQUENT CREDIBLE REPORTS OF ARBITRARY ARREST AND INCOMMUNICADO DETENTION BY SECURITY FORCES. PERSONS DETAINED ILLEGALLY AND RELEASED SUBSEQUENTLY REPORTED HAVING BEEN HELD AT SECURITY FORCE SAFE HOUSES. THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR ILLEGAL DETENTIONS ROUTINELY IGNORE WRITS OF HABEAS CORPUS.

THERE WAS ALSO INCREASING CONCERN OVER APPARENT MISUSE OF THE JUDICIAL PROCESS TO INTIMIDATE POLITICAL OPPONENTS. BAIL FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL ACISCLO VALLADARES, A CRUSADER AGAINST IMPUNITY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATORS, WHO FACES CHARGES OF COVERING UP HIS BROTHER'S ALLEGED FRAUDULENT TRANSFER OF REAL ESTATE DEEDS, WAS FIXED AT AN UNPRECEDENTED AMOUNT. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN ACCUSED MILITARY PERSONNEL OF COERCING PEASANTS INTO TESTIFYING AGAINST CERJ LEADER AMILCAR MENDEZ. INVESTIGATION INTO THE ACTIVITIES OF FORMER IZABAL DEPARTMENT GOVERNOR LILIAN VASQUEZ DE GUZMAN AND ALLEGED CORRUPTION BY FORMER HEALTH MINISTER MIGUEL MONTEPEQUE APPEARED POLITICALLY MOTIVATED.

ON SEPTEMBER 25, THREE AGENTS FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIONS' MINORS' UNIT ARRESTED AN AMERICAN CITIZEN FOR ALLEGEDLY KIDNAPING A GUATEMALAN INFANT. IN FACT, THE AMERICAN WAS IN THE FINAL STAGES OF LEGALLY

ADOPTING THE CHILD AND HAD LEGAL CUSTODY UNTIL COMPLETION OF THAT PROCESS. POLICE ARRESTED AND IMPRISONED HER WITHOUT AN ARREST ORDER AND DESTROYED OR HID DOCUMENTS CONFIRMING HER LEGAL CUSTODY OF THE CHILD. SHE WAS RELEASED AFTER THE U.S. EMBASSY PROTESTED HER ILLEGAL DETENTION. THE THREE POLICE OFFICERS INVOLVED IN THE AFFAIR WERE DISMISSED.

E. DENIAL OF FAIR PUBLIC TRIAL

THE CONSTITUTION PROVIDES FOR AN INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY COMPOSED OF A COURT OF CONSTITUTIONALITY, A SUPREME COURT, APPEALS COURTS, AND SEVERAL COURTS OF SPECIAL JURISDICTION, SUCH AS LABOR COURTS. MILITARY COURTS HAVE JURISDICTION OVER MILITARY PERSONNEL, INCLUDING MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, BUT NOT CIVILIAN PAC MEMBERS, THUS LIMITING THE ABILITY OF CIVIL COURTS TO PROSECUTE PERSONS UNDER MILITARY CONTROL IN HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSE CASES. CIVILIAN TRIALS ARE PUBLIC AFTER THE FIRST 15 DAYS, DEDICATED TO AN INITIAL INVESTIGATIVE PHASE THAT IS CLOSED TO THE PUBLIC; DEFENDANTS HAVE THE RIGHT TO BE PRESENT AT TRIALS AND TO LEGAL REPRESENTATION. AN APPEALS COURT AUTOMATICALLY REVIEWS CONVICTIONS.

THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM IS INEFFECTIVE. MOST HUMAN RIGHTS

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

VIOLATIONS ARE NOT INVESTIGATED; SECURITY FORCE PERSONNEL ARE RELUCTANT TO INVESTIGATE CASES INVOLVING COLLEAGUES. JUDGES ARE SUSCEPTIBLE TO INTIMIDATION AND CORRUPTION AND SUFFER LOW PAY, BAD WORKING CONDITIONS, AND LOW MORALE. SOME JUDGES SUCCEEDED IN BEING EXCUSED FROM HEARING PROMINENT CASES AFTER ALLEGING DEATH THREATS. A TOTAL OF 12 DIFFERENT JUDGES WERE EXCUSED FROM THE MYRNA MACK CHANG CASE, FOR EXAMPLE. IN SEPTEMBER THE FORMER JUDGE IN THE SISTER DIANA ORTIZ CASE PUBLICLY CHARGED THAT THE SUPREME COURT PRESSURED LOWER COURT JUDGES TO DECIDE CASES IN LINE WITH ITS WISHES.

WIDESPREAD RECOGNITION OF DEFECTS LED TO CONGRESSIONAL PASSAGE IN LATE SEPTEMBER OF NEW CRIMINAL PROCEDURES AND ANTINARCOTICS CODES. THE NARCOTICS LEGISLATION WENT INTO EFFECT IN 1992, AND THE CRIMINAL PROCEDURE CODE WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE AFTER COMPLETION OF FUNDAMENTAL RETRAINING OF LAWYERS AND JUDGES. THE CRIMINAL PROCEDURES LAW WILL INTRODUCE ORAL PROCEEDINGS (IN BOTH SPANISH AND INDIGENOUS LANGUAGES) OPEN TO THE PUBLIC, AND A PUBLIC DEFENDER PROGRAM. THE NARCOTICS LAW CRIMINALIZES NARCOTICS CONSPIRACIES, ENACTS STIFF PENALTIES FOR VIOLATORS, AND IMPOSES CIVIL DAMAGES ON NARCOTICS VIOLATORS.

CORRESPONDENCE, AND PRIVATE DOCUMENTS, PROVISIONS THAT ARE NOT ALWAYS RESPECTED. ELEMENTS OF THE SECURITY FORCES CONTINUE TO MONITOR PRIVATE COMMUNICATIONS. MANY HUMAN RIGHTS MONITORS REPORTED RECEIVING THREATS IN THE FORM OF SURVEILLANCE, TELEPHONE CALLS, AND ANONYMOUS LETTERS.

OFFICIALS ENFORCING THE MILITARY DRAFT TRADITIONALLY ENTER HOMES AND PLACES OF BUSINESS WITHOUT LEGALLY REQUIRED COURT ORDERS. IN FEBRUARY THE ARMY ATTEMPTED TO END SUCH ABUSES IN QUICHE WHEN IT ESTABLISHED THE NATION'S FIRST DRAFT BOARD CONSISTING OF THE ZONE MILITARY COMMANDER, THE LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE, AND OTHER CIVILIAN LEADERS. UNDER NEW RECRUITMENT PRACTICES ALSO ADOPTED IN SEVERAL OTHER DEPARTMENTS, POTENTIAL RECRUITS RECEIVE THREE INDUCTION NOTICES, AFTER WHICH THEY ARE ARRESTED IF THEY DO NOT REPORT FOR ENLISTMENT. UNDER GUATEMALAN LAW, SUCH ARRESTS MUST BE EFFECTED PURSANT TO A COURT ORDER. ACTIVISTS CRITICIZE THE NEW PROCEDURES FOR NOT ADDRESSING THE FACT THAT INDIGENOUS MEN ARE REQUIRED TO SERVE IN THE ARMED FORCES MORE FREQUENTLY THAN NONINDIGENOUS MEN.

THE CONSTITUTION REQUIRES THAT PAC SERVICE BE VOLUNTARY. HOWEVER, ARMY OFFICERS, MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, AND PAC LEADERS OFTEN PRESSURE MEN IN CONFLICT AREAS TO BECOME PAC MEMBERS. THERE ARE CREDIBLE REPORTS THAT SOME WHO REFUSE TO SERVE HAVE BEEN KILLED OR SUFFERED OTHER ABUSES.

GUATEMALA'S ARMED INTERNAL CONFLICT ENTERED ITS 32ND YEAR IN 1992 AND CONTINUED TO BE A CAUSE OF MAJOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS BY BOTH GOVERNMENT AND GUERRILLA FORCES. PEACE NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND THE URNG GUERRILLA UMBRELLA GROUP CONTINUED INCONCLUSIVELY IN 1992. HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES WERE THE PRIMARY AREA OF DISAGREEMENT. ON AUGUST 6, NEGOTIATORS REACHED AN ACCORD ON THE PAC ISSUE WHEREBY THE GOVERNMENT AGREED TO ESTABLISH NO NEW PAC'S IF

THE URNG REFRAINED FROM EXTENDING OPERATIONS INTO NEW AREAS. NO NEW PAC'S HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED SINCE THE AGREEMENT WAS REACHED.

A WAVE OF BOMBINGS OCCURRED THROUGHOUT THE CAPITAL IN APRIL AND MAY. THE PERPETRATORS WERE NEVER APPREHENDED, BUT SEVERAL RIGHTWING AND LEFTWING GROUPS WERE THOUGHT TO BE RESPONSIBLE. TARGETS INCLUDED GOVERNMENT AND PRIVATE OFFICES, BUSINESSES, AND SCHOOLS.

COMMUNITIES IN RESISTANCE (CPR) CLAIMED ARMY AIRCRAFT BOMBED THEIR CIVILIAN SETTLEMENTS ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS. IN MID-JULY, FOR EXAMPLE, CPR REPRESENTATIVES ACCUSED THE ARMY OF BOMBING A CPR NEAR IXCAN, QUICHE. THE DEFENSE MINISTER, WHO ONCE COMMANDED FORCES IN THAT AREA, DENIED THERE HAD BEEN ANY BOMBING AND CLAIMED GUERRILLAS FORCED CIVILIANS TO FLEE THE REGION MANY YEARS AGO. CPR REPRESENTATIVES PRODUCED UNEXPLODED BOMBS TO SUPPORT THEIR ALLEGATIONS. THE ORIGIN OF THE BOMBS HAS NOT BEEN ESTABLISHED.

GUERRILLA FORCES RECRUITED CHILDREN INTO THEIR RANKS. GOVERNMENT TROOPS FOUND MARIO CATUJ SALVADOR, A 12-YEAR-OLD CHILD GUERRILLA, AFTER AN ARMED ENGAGEMENT AT PATULUL, SUCHITEPEQUEZ. HE HAD REPORTEDLY BEEN FORCIBLY RECRUITED BY GUERRILLAS WHILE WORKING ON A FARM IN ESCUINTLA. SHORTLY THEREAFTER, HE DIED IN A MEDICAL FACILITY OF MALNUTRITION, DEHYDRATION, DIARRHEA, AND PNEUMONIA.

GUERRILLAS ALSO HINDERED INTERNATIONAL RELIEF EFFORTS. ON FEBRUARY 4, APPROXIMATELY 40 "GUERRILLA ARMY OF THE POOR" (EGP) TROOPS INTERCEPTED AND KIDNAPED TWO UNITED NATIONS REFUGEE RELIEF WORKERS ON A ROAD BETWEEN NEBAJ AND CHAJUL, QUICHE. THE U.N. PERSONNEL WERE FORCED TO WALK TO A NEARBY REBEL STRONGHOLD AFTER THEIR PICKUP TRUCK WAS BURNED ON THE HIGHWAY. THEY WERE RELEASED ON FEBRUARY 6.

SECTION 2 RESPECT FOR CIVIL LIBERTIES, INCLUDING:

A. FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND PRESS

THE CONSTITUTION PROVIDES FOR FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION. A NUMBER OF LOCAL HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS, INCLUDING THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE AND THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE, REGULARLY PRODUCE AND DISTRIBUTE PUBLICATIONS. THESE CIRCULATE FREELY, AND THEIR CONCLUSIONS AND ASSERTIONS ARE WIDELY REPORTED IN OTHER PUBLICATIONS AND IN THE BROADCAST MEDIA. NEWSPAPERS IN PARTICULAR HAVE COMPLAINED, HOWEVER, ABOUT GOVERNMENT

NO JOURNALISTS OR MEDIA FIGURES DISAPPEARED OR WERE KILLED IN 1992, BUT SEVERAL REPORTED RECEIVING DEATH THREATS. TWO OF THE MORE PROMINENT CASES INVOLVED JOURNALISTS FROM PRENSA LIBRE; ONE OF WHOM EVENTUALLY REQUESTED AND RECEIVED POLITICAL ASYLUM IN ANOTHER COUNTRY. IN LATE AUGUST, A GROUP OF JOURNALISTS CLAIMED THAT ARMED JUDICIAL BRANCH SECURITY GUARDS THREATENED TO KILL THEM IF COVERAGE DID NOT CEASE REGARDING THE MYSTERIOUS MURDER OF THE MOTHER OF SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT JUAN JOSE RODIL'S PERSONAL SECRETARY. IN OCTOBER THE OFFICES OF TINAMIT, A LEFT-OF-CENTER MAGAZINE THAT IS FREQUENTLY CRITICAL OF GOVERNMENT AND OTHER PUBLIC FIGURES, WAS THE OBJECT OF A BOMBING THAT RESULTED IN NO INJURIES AND LITTLE PHYSICAL DAMAGE TO THE BUILDING. IN DECEMBER SIGLO VEINTIUNO JOURNALIST OMAR CANO WAS BEATEN, ALONG WITH TREASURY POLICE AGENTS AND REPRESENTATIVES OF GOVERNMENT ENVIRONMENTAL AGENCIES, IN THE PRESENCE OF MILITARY PERSONNEL. CANO WAS INVESTIGATING ALLEGED ILLEGAL TIMBER CUTTING IN NATIONAL PARKS AND PROTECTED RESERVES. THE NATIONAL MEDIA WERE OUTRAGED BY THE INCIDENT AND DIRECTLY ACCUSED MEMBERS OF THE GUATEMALAN ARMY OF RESPONSIBILITY. TO DATE THERE HAVE BEEN NO PROSECUTIONS OF THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR THESE CRIMES.

DESPITE THE ALLEGED THREATS, THE NEWS MEDIA REPORTED ALL MAJOR HUMAN RIGHTS STORIES AND PUBLICIZED COMMUNIQUES FROM THE URNG, LEFTIST GROUPS, AND OTHERS OPPOSED TO THE GOVERNMENT OR ITS POLICIES. BOTH MAJOR PRESS ORGANIZATIONS DENOUNCED INCIDENTS RESTRICTING FREEDOM OF THE PRESS AND VOWED TO CONTINUE COVERAGE OF SENSITIVE TOPICS. JOURNALISTS THEMSELVES ADMIT THAT SIGNIFICANT

SELF-CENSORSHIP CONTINUES TO IMPEDE FULL REPORTING ON A VARIETY OF TOPICS, INCLUDING GOVERNMENT HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, CORRUPTION OF GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND INFLUENTIAL POLITICIANS, ASPECTS OF NARCOTRAFFICKING, AND ISSUES AFFECTING THE ECONOMIC INTERESTS OF POWERFUL INDIVIDUALS.

8. FREEDOM OF PEACEFUL ASSEMBLY AND ASSOCIATION

THE CONSTITUTION GUARANTEES THE RIGHTS OF PEACEFUL

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 016326

ASSEMBLY AND ASSOCIATION: PARADES, RALLIES, MARCHES, FORUMS, DEBATES, AND SEMINARS ON VARIOUS TOPICS, INCLUDING HUMAN RIGHTS, TOOK PLACE OPENLY AND FREELY. ON OCTOBER 12, FOR EXAMPLE, NUMEROUS PROTEST RALLIES AND PARADES MARKED THE 500TH ANNIVERSARY OF COLUMBUS' ARRIVAL IN THE AMERICAS WITHOUT INCIDENT. RIOT POLICE USED EXCESSIVE FORCE ON SOME OCCASIONS IN BREAKING UP PEACEFUL DEMONSTRATIONS. ON JULY 21, RIOT POLICE FORCIBLY EXPELLED FROM THE GUATEMALA CITY CENTRAL PLAZA PROTEST MARCHERS FROM THE QUETZALTENANGO TOWN OF CAJOLA. THAT INCIDENT AND EVICTIONS OF SQUATTERS PROMPTED WIDESPREAD CRITICISM AND CONDEMNATION.

FREEDOM OF POLITICAL ASSOCIATION IS GUARANTEED UNDER THE CONSTITUTION, ALTHOUGH ORGANIZATIONS NOMINALLY REQUIRE LEGAL STATUS, A CUMBERSOME AND EXPENSIVE PROCEDURE. THE PEACE BRIGADES, AN INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS MONITORING ORGANIZATION, HAS BEEN UNABLE TO OBTAIN RECOGNITION DESPITE PERSISTENT EFFORTS. THE ABSENCE OF LEGAL STATUS DOES NOT, HOWEVER, PREVENT PEACE BRIGADES AND OTHER HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS FROM OPERATING OPENLY.

C. FREEDOM OF RELIGION

NO STATE RELIGION EXISTS. RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IS CONSTITUTIONALLY GUARANTEED AND IS RESPECTED IN PRACTICE. RELIGIOUS PERSONNEL ARE SOMETIMES THREATENED FOR POLITICAL REASONS. ABOUT 70 PER CENT OF THE POPULATION IS NOMINALLY CATHOLIC, BUT MANY OTHER FAITHS OPERATE FREELY. THE PRESIDENT IS AN EVANGELICAL PROTESTANT.

D. FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT WITHIN THE COUNTRY, FOREIGN TRAVEL, EMIGRATION, AND REPATRIATION

THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT RESTRICT FOREIGN TRAVEL, NOR DID IT REVOKE CITIZENSHIP FOR POLITICAL REASONS. MOVEMENT INSIDE GUATEMALA WAS UNRESTRICTED EXCEPT IN SOME CONFLICT AREAS. GUERRILLAS CONTINUED TO ESTABLISH ROAD BLOCKS, ASSAULT PRIVATE CITIZENS TO DEMAND "WAR TAXES," ATTACK PETROLEUM TRUCKS, AND LIMIT TRAVEL IN CERTAIN RURAL AREAS. THE ARMY, MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, AND PAC'S ALSO LIMITED TRAVEL IN SOME AREAS.

NOBEL LAUREATE AND INDIGENOUS LEADER RIGOBERTA MENCHU VISITED GUATEMALA TWICE IN 1992 AND TRAVELED TO RURAL AREAS. OTHER POLITICALLY ACTIVE GUATEMALANS WHO HAD GONE INTO EXILE RETURNED. ON FEBRUARY 28, POLITICAL ACTIVIST AND FORMER SOCIALIST PARTY VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE LUIS ZURITA RETURNED TO GUATEMALA FROM EXILE. ON MARCH 19, FORMER REBEL ARMED FORCES POLITICAL LEADER GONZALO

FREQUENTLY IN THE LOCAL PRESS.

REPATRIATION OF REFUGEES CONTINUED. AN ESTIMATED 1,600 REFUGEES RETURNED TO GUATEMALA IN THE FIRST 8 MONTHS OF 1992 UNDER THE SPONSORSHIP OF INTERNATIONAL GROUPS AND THE GOVERNMENT'S COMMITTEE ON REFUGEE AFFAIRS. THE GOVERNMENT AND REPRESENTATIVES OF THE GUATEMALAN REFUGEE COMMUNITIES IN MEXICO SIGNED AN AGREEMENT ON OCTOBER 8 ALLOWING THE ORDERLY, VOLUNTARY, LARGE-SCALE RETURN OF REFUGEES TO THEIR HOMELAND.

SECTION 3 RESPECT FOR POLITICAL RIGHTS: THE RIGHT OF CITIZENS TO CHANGE THEIR GOVERNMENT

GUATEMALANS HAVE THE RIGHT TO CHANGE THEIR GOVERNMENT BY PEACEFUL AND DEMOCRATIC MEANS. UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE BY SECRET BALLOT EXISTS FOR THOSE 18 YEARS OF AGE AND OLDER; THERE ARE NO PROPERTY OR LITERACY REQUIREMENTS. VOTING IS NOT MANDATORY. THE LAST NATIONAL ELECTIONS, WHICH INTERNATIONAL OBSERVERS FOUND FREE AND FAIR, WERE HELD IN JANUARY 1991. MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES MAY NOT VOTE.

INDIGENOUS PEOPLE ENJOY EQUAL RIGHTS UNDER THE CONSTITUTION. THERE ARE SOME INDIGENOUS CONGRESSMEN, ARMY OFFICERS (INCLUDING ONE GENERAL), GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, AND JUDGES. NEVERTHELESS, PERVASIVE DISCRIMINATION LIMITS OPPORTUNITIES FOR INDIGENOUS PEOPLE TO ASSUME PROMINENT ROLES IN GUATEMALAN POLITICS.

VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS

LOCAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS AND ORGANIZATIONS ARE PERMITTED TO OPERATE IN GUATEMALA, BUT MEMBERS SUFFERED THREATS AND VIOLENCE FROM SECURITY FORCES AND PAC'S. AS NOTED IN SECTION 1.A., MEMBERS OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION CERJ DISAPPEARED, WERE KILLED, AND WERE THREATENED IN 1992. THE OFFICE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN REMAINED THE MOST RELIABLE SOURCE OF OBJECTIVE INFORMATION ON HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES, ISSUING MANY REPORTS CRITICAL OF BOTH THE GOVERNMENT AND THE GUERRILLAS. CONGRESS REELECTED RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, AND HIS OFFICE MOVED INTO A NEW BUILDING IN DOWNTOWN GUATEMALA CITY WITH IMPROVED FACILITIES. RELATIONS BETWEEN THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH AND THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE WERE TENSE AT TIMES, AND HIGH-RANKING GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS WORKING IN THE FIELDS OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND JURISPRUDENCE HAVE COMPLAINED PUBLICLY AND PRIVATELY OF RECEIVING DEATH THREATS STEMMING FROM THEIR INTEREST IN RESOLVING CASES RELATED TO HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, OFFICIAL CORRUPTION, AND NARCOTRAFFICKING. THE OMBUDSMAN CONTINUED TO ENJOY WIDESPREAD PUBLIC SUPPORT AND RESPECT.

THE GOVERNMENT OFFICIALLY WELCOMED, BUT AT TIMES CRITICIZED, INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS. SENIOR GUATEMALAN OFFICIALS MET REPRESENTATIVES OF NUMEROUS FOREIGN AND INTERNATIONAL OFFICIALS AND ACTIVISTS. UNITED NATIONS HUMAN RIGHTS EXPERT CHRISTIAN TOMUSCHAT RECEIVED THE COOPERATION OF THE GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT, AND HIS CRITICAL COMMENTS RECEIVED WIDESPREAD PRESS COVERAGE. FOREIGN FORENSIC ANTHROPOLOGISTS AND HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS

TOOK PART IN THE LOCATION AND EXHUMATION OF CLANDESTINE CEMETERIES. NEVERTHELESS, THE DEFENSE MINISTER THREATENED TO PROSECUTE FORENSIC ANTHROPOLOGIST CLYDE SNOW FOR DEFAMATION AFTER SNOW ATTRIBUTED CERTAIN PAST HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES TO THE GUATEMALAN MILITARY. BOTH LOCAL AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS WERE CRITICIZED BY PRESIDENT SERRANO AND MEMBERS OF HIS CABINET, WHO ACCUSED THEM OF INTENTIONALLY DISTORTING GUATEMALA'S HUMAN RIGHTS RECORD FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES.

SECTION 5 DISCRIMINATION BASED ON RACE, SEX, RELIGION, LANGUAGE, OR SOCIAL STATUS

ONE-HALF OF THE POPULATION IS CULTURALLY INDIGENOUS AND THE REST HISPANIC. INDIGENOUS PEOPLE REMAIN LARGELY OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY'S POLITICAL, ECONOMIC, SOCIAL, AND CULTURAL MAINSTREAM. INDIGENOUS PEOPLE SUFFERED MOST OF THE SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES DESCRIBED ABOVE. RURAL INDIGENOUS MEN WERE MORE LIKELY THAN URBAN COUNTERPARTS TO BE DRAFTED BY THE ARMY OR RECRUITED FORCIBLY BY GUERRILLA GROUPS.

RURAL INDIGENOUS PEOPLE HAVE LIMITED EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES AND THUS HAVE LIMITED EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES. ILLITERACY IS PREVALENT IN INDIGENOUS COMMUNITIES. MANY GUATEMALANS DO NOT SPEAK SPANISH. LINGUISTIC BARRIERS HINDER INTERACTION WITH THE GOVERNMENT AND LIMIT ACCESS TO PUBLIC SERVICES, INCLUDING THE JUDICIARY, BECAUSE FEW OFFICIALS SPEAK INDIGENOUS LANGUAGES.

WOMEN ARE ACTIVE IN THE LABOR FORCE, ESPECIALLY IN THE TEXTILE INDUSTRY, AGRICULTURE, RETAIL BUSINESS, AND IN LOWER-PAYING PUBLIC SECTOR JOBS. SEVERAL WOMEN HOLD PROMINENT POLITICAL POSITIONS, INCLUDING CABINET POSTS. DESPITE LEGAL PROTECTION, WOMEN FACE JOB DISCRIMINATION AND RECEIVE LOWER PAY THAN MEN. CONAVIGUA, AN INDIGENOUS WIDOWS' ORGANIZATION PROMINENT IN THE ADVOCACY OF WOMEN'S AND HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES, REPORTS THAT VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN, INCLUDING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, REMAINS COMMON BUT RECEIVES LITTLE ATTENTION. CRIMINAL SEXUAL VIOLENCE OFTEN GOES UNREPORTED BY VICTIMS, AND RELATIVELY FEW RAPE CASES CAME TO COURT. THE DEPUTY HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, A WOMAN, MONITORS VIOLATIONS OF WOMEN'S RIGHTS.

SECTION 6 WORKER RIGHTS

A. THE RIGHT OF ASSOCIATION

THE CONSTITUTION AND THE 1947 LABOR CODE PROVIDE WORKERS FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION AND THE RIGHT TO FORM AND JOIN TRADE UNIONS. AS A RESULT OF A TRIPARTITE NEGOTIATING PROCESS INCLUDING LABOR, MANAGEMENT, AND GOVERNMENT, THE LABOR CODE WAS AMENDED IN LATE 1992 TO FACILITATE FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION, TO STRENGTHEN THE RIGHTS OF WORKING WOMEN, TO INCREASE PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS OF LABOR LAWS, AND TO ENHANCE THE ROLE OF THE LABOR MINISTRY AND LABOR COURTS IN ENFORCING THE LABOR CODE. THESE AMENDMENTS ENTERED INTO FORCE IN 1992. ALL WORKERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO FORM OR JOIN UNIONS, INCLUDING PUBLIC SECTOR EMPLOYEES. BETWEEN 5 AND 8 PERCENT OF THE WORK FORCE IS ORGANIZED. THE 890 UNIONS IN THE COUNTRY ARE INDEPENDENT OF GOVERNMENT AND POLITICAL PARTY DOMINATION.

THE LABOR CODE AMENDMENTS SIMPLIFY THE PROCESS FOR UNIONS SEEKING LEGAL STATUS, WHICH HAS LONG BEEN CRITICIZED BY U.S. LABOR ORGANIZATIONS AS EXCESSIVELY CUMBERSOME, BY ELIMINATING A NUMBER OF PROVISIONS, INCLUDING ONE THAT REQUIRED THE PRESIDENT OF THE COUNTRY TO SIGN THE FINAL PAPERS. WORKERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO STRIKE, BUT LABOR CODE PROCEDURES MAKE LEGAL STRIKES CUMBERSOME, FOR EXAMPLE BY REQUIRING A TWO-THIRDS VOTE. MOST STRIKES OCCUR WITHOUT LEGAL AUTHORIZATION, AND IN PRACTICE THE GOVERNMENT MAKES NO EFFORT TO INTERVENE ON THE BASIS OF ILLEGALITY. HOWEVER, THE LACK OF LEGAL SANCTION FOR A STRIKE CAN BE USED AS A THREAT AGAINST STRIKERS. FOR EXAMPLE, DURING A

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 016326

SERIES OF WORK STOPPAGES BY CIVIL SERVANTS IN JULY, SOME GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS THREATENED TO TAKE LEGAL ACTION AGAINST UNION LEADERS FOR PURSUING AN ILLEGAL STRIKE. ORGANIZED LABOR'S STRUCTURAL WEAKNESSES, A PAUCITY OF MEMBERSHIP FUNDS, AND A POOR OVERALL ECONOMIC SITUATION WITH HIGH UNEMPLOYMENT AND UNDEREMPLOYMENT LIMIT THE DURATION OF VIRTUALLY ALL STRIKES.

BY LAW, UNION LEADERS MAY SERVE ONLY ONE TERM IN A PARTICULAR UNION OFFICE, BUT, BY ROTATING UNION POSITIONS, THE SAME PERSONS CAN STAY ON UNION EXECUTIVE BOARDS FOR EXTENDED PERIODS OF TIME. THE CONSTITUTION AND THE 1992 LAW PROTECT THE RIGHT OF POLITICAL PARTICIPATION FOR INDIVIDUALS, INCLUDING TRADE UNION LEADERS. UNIONS MAY AND DO FORM FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS AND JOIN INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS. WITH VERY FEW EXCEPTIONS, TRADE UNIONS DEPEND ON ASSISTANCE RECEIVED FROM INTERNATIONAL CONTACTS.

A "SOLIDARITY" MOVEMENT IS ACTIVE, CLAIMING APPROXIMATELY 100,000 MEMBERS IN OVER 350 COMPANIES. UNIONS MAY LEGALLY CONTINUE TO OPERATE IN WORKPLACES WHICH HAVE SOLIDARITY ASSOCIATIONS, AND WORKERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO CHOOSE BETWEEN THE TWO OR BELONG TO BOTH. THE GOVERNMENT VIEWS THESE ASSOCIATIONS AS CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS WHICH NEED NOT INTERFERE WITH THE FUNCTIONING OF TRADE UNIONS. ARTICLE 214 OF THE AMENDED LABOR CODE STIPULATES THAT TRADE UNIONS HAVE THE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT TO BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY OVER WORK CONDITIONS ON BEHALF OF WORKERS. CRITICS CHARGE THAT SOLIDARITY ASSOCIATIONS ARE PROMOTED BY MANAGEMENT TO RIVAL LABOR UNIONS. THERE ARE CREDIBLE REPORTS THAT, AT TIMES, DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES ARE NOT ADHERED TO IN THE FORMATION AND MANAGEMENT OF SOME OF THESE ASSOCIATIONS, AND WORKERS ARE UNABLE TO PARTICIPATE FULLY AND FREELY IN DECISION MAKING. SIMILAR CREDIBLE CHARGES ARE MADE AGAINST SOME TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS.

THERE WERE CREDIBLE REPORTS DURING THE YEAR OF THREATS OF VIOLENCE AGAINST UNION LEADERS OR MEMBERS, INCLUDING IN THE HIGH-PROFILE "MAQUILA" (DRAWBACK, OR IN-BOND EXPORT) SECTOR. PUBLIC SECTOR UNION LEADERS ALSO REPORTED RECEIVING THREATS AGAINST THEMSELVES AND THEIR FAMILIES, COINCIDING WITH UNION DEMANDS FOR IMPROVED BENEFITS.

AT THE REQUEST OF TRADE UNION LEADERS, THE INDEPENDENT HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, THROUGH HIS OFFICE FOR ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL ISSUES, FOLLOWS COMPLAINTS RELATED TO TRADE UNION ACTIVITIES. UNION LEADERS AND WORKERS FILED A

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 93STATE 016326

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

NUMBER OF COMPLAINTS WITH THE OMBUDSMAN DURING THE YEAR, AND THE OMBUDSMAN SPOKE OUT PUBLICLY TO CONDEMN THE USE OF VIOLENCE OR THREATS AGAINST THOSE SEEKING SOCIAL JUSTICE. THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION'S (ILO) COMMITTEE ON FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION REGRETTED IN NOVEMBER THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD FAILED TO REPLY TO NEW ALLEGATIONS REGARDING 15 MURDERS, AS WELL AS PHYSICAL ATTACKS, ABDUCTIONS, DEATH THREATS, AND 58 ARRESTS OF TRADE UNIONISTS IN 1991. THERE WERE NO REPORTS OF MURDERS OF UNION LEADERS IN 1992.

B. THE RIGHT TO ORGANIZE AND BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY

WORKERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO ORGANIZE AND BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY, BUT OFTEN FACE DISCRIMINATORY ANTIUNION ACTIONS BY EMPLOYERS. THE NEW LABOR AMENDMENTS PROVIDE THAT WORKERS CANNOT BE DISMISSED FOR PARTICIPATING IN THE FORMATION OF A TRADE UNION. ARTICLE 78 OF THE LABOR CODE, ONE OF THE MORE HOTLY CONTESTED CHANGES, ESTABLISHES THE RIGHT OF EMPLOYERS TO FIRE WORKERS FOR CAUSE AND PERMITS WORKERS TO APPEAL THEIR DISMISSAL TO THE LABOR COURTS, BUT DOES NOT REQUIRE THE REINSTATEMENT OF ANY WORKER FIRED WITHOUT CAUSE. LABOR COURTS RESPONSIBLE FOR ENFORCING LABOR LAWS CONTINUED GENERALLY TO BE INEFFECTIVE. IN AN EFFORT TO RELIEVE THE OVERWHELMING WORKLOAD OF THE LABOR COURTS, SEVEN NEW COURTS WERE CREATED IN 1992. FOR BUDGET REASONS, THEY ARE NOT YET FUNCTIONING. RESTRUCTURING AND MODERNIZING THE LABOR COURT SYSTEM THUS MADE LITTLE HEADWAY, AND A HEAVY BACKLOG OF CASES CONTINUES TO CLOG THE COURTS.

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

ENFORCEMENT OF THE LABOR CODE IS SPOTTY, DUE IN PART TO THE SCARCITY OF LABOR INSPECTORS AND A LACK OF ADEQUATE TRAINING. PLANS ARE PENDING TO HIRE AND TRAIN ADDITIONAL LABOR INSPECTORS. THE SALARY OF ALL LABOR INSPECTORS WAS DOUBLED IN 1992, ALONG WITH ALL OTHER TECHNICAL EMPLOYEES IN THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT.

LABOR LAWS AND REGULATIONS APPLY THROUGHOUT GUATEMALA, INCLUDING IN THE FEW EXPORT PROCESSING ZONES UNDER DEVELOPMENT IN THE COUNTRY. UNION LEADERS OFTEN BLAME EMPLOYER PRESSURES AND RESTRICTED ACCESS TO THE ZONES FOR THEIR VIRTUAL INABILITY TO ORGANIZE THERE. CREDIBLE REPORTS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED ABOUT THESE ZONES, ALLEGING LOW WAGES, LONG HOURS WITHOUT LEGALLY REQUIRED OVERTIME PAY, EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS, AND POOR WORKING CONDITIONS. LABOR MINISTRY INSPECTORS FILED NUMEROUS COMPLAINTS BEFORE THE

LABOR COURTS ON THESE CHARGES. FEW OF THESE CASES WERE RESOLVED, HOWEVER, DUE TO INEFFICIENCIES WITHIN THE COURT SYSTEM AND TO LEGAL MANEUVERING WHICH EMPLOYERS CAN USE TO PROLONG THE HEARING PROCESS.

C. PROHIBITION OF FORCED OR COMPULSORY LABOR

THE CONSTITUTION BARS FORCED LABOR, AND THE PRACTICE GENERALLY DOES NOT EXIST. HOWEVER, SOME GROUPS CHARGE THAT COERCED PARTICIPATION OF INDIGENOUS PEOPLES IN THE PAC'S VIOLATES PROHIBITIONS AGAINST FORCED LABOR. THERE WERE CREDIBLE REPORTS OF ISOLATED INSTANCES OF UNPAID PAC MEMBERS BEING USED TO PROVIDE FREE MANUAL LABOR, BUT NO SYSTEMATIC PATTERN OF SUCH ABUSE WAS ESTABLISHED.

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

D. MINIMUM AGE FOR THE EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN

ALTHOUGH THE CONSTITUTION BARS EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS UNDER THE AGE OF 14, THE GOVERNMENT'S NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF STATISTICS REPORTS THAT SOME 50,000 CHILDREN BELOW THIS MINIMUM AGE ARE REGULARLY EMPLOYED IN THE FORMAL SECTOR; AN UNTOLD NUMBER REPORTEDLY WORK IN THE INFORMAL SECTOR. ONLY 5,000 OF THESE MINORS HAVE LEGAL PERMISSION FROM THE LABOR MINISTRY TO WORK. THOSE WORKING WITHOUT LEGAL PERMISSION ARE OPEN TO EXPLOITATION, GENERALLY RECEIVING NO SOCIAL BENEFITS, NO SOCIAL INSURANCE, NO PENSION OR VACATIONS, NO SEVERANCE PAY, AND ARE PAID AT BELOW THE MINIMUM WAGE LEVEL. THE LABOR MINISTRY HAS A PROGRAM TO EDUCATE MINORS, THEIR PARENTS, AND EMPLOYERS ON THE RIGHTS OF MINORS IN THE LABOR MARKET. ECONOMIC NECESSITY, HOWEVER, FORCES MOST FAMILIES TO HAVE THEIR CHILDREN SEEK SOME TYPE OF EMPLOYMENT TO SUPPLEMENT THE FAMILY INCOME.

E. ACCEPTABLE CONDITIONS OF WORK

MINIMUM WAGES ARE SET BY LAW. DUE TO A VARIETY OF FACTORS, MOST IMPORTANTLY THE SHARP VARIANCE BETWEEN THE OVERSUPPLY OF LABOR AND THE VERY LIMITED DEMAND FOR IT, THE MINIMUM WAGE BECOMES THE PREVAILING WAGE CEILING, AND NOT THE MORE COMMONLY ACCEPTED WAGE FLOOR, FOR MOST UNSKILLED AND SEMISKILLED WORKERS. WIDESPREAD, CREDIBLE REPORTS INDICATED THE MINIMUM WAGE IS COMMONLY, IF ILLEGALLY, NOT PAID TO SIGNIFICANT NUMBERS OF RURAL AND URBAN WORKERS. THE CURRENT MINIMUM WAGE DOES NOT PROVIDE A DECENT STANDARD OF LIVING; GOVERNMENT STATISTICS INDICATE THAT AN ESTIMATED 80 PERCENT OF THE POPULATION

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIVES BELOW THE GUATEMALAN POVERTY LINE, INCLUDING APPROXIMATELY 70 PERCENT OF THOSE EMPLOYED. A BILATERAL COMMITTEE REPRESENTING LABOR AND MANAGEMENT IS NAMED EACH YEAR TO MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR INCREASES IN THE MINIMUM WAGE. IN THE EVENT THAT AGREEMENT IS NOT POSSIBLE, THE GOVERNMENT MAY DECREE SUCH INCREASES. THE MINIMUM WAGE WAS INCREASED IN LATE 1991 BY 78.5 PERCENT. ALTHOUGH THE MINIMUM WAGE WAS NOT INCREASED IN 1992, WHEN INFLATION WAS APPROXIMATELY 12 PERCENT, THE GOVERNMENT DID AUGMENT WORKER INCOMES BY 8.3 PERCENT WHEN IT PASSED A LAW REQUIRING PAYMENT OF AN ADDITIONAL ANNUAL 1-MONTH BONUS IN JULY OF EACH YEAR. ORGANIZED LABOR OPPOSED THIS DECISION SINCE BONUS PAYMENTS ARE NOT CONSIDERED IN CALCULATING OTHER BENEFIT PAYMENTS BASED ON WAGES.

THE LEGAL WORKDAY IS 8 HOURS AND THE WORKWEEK IS 44 HOURS, BUT A TRADITION OF MUCH LONGER HOURS REMAINS IN PLACE DUE TO ECONOMIC CONDITIONS. THE NEWLY AMENDED LABOR CODE CONTINUES THE TRADITION OF PROVIDING ALL WORKERS A REQUIRED WEEKLY REST PERIOD OF AT LEAST 24 HOURS. TRADE UNION LEADERS AND HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS CHARGE THAT WORKERS ARE COMMONLY FORCED TO WORK OVERTIME, OFTEN WITHOUT OVERTIME PAY, TO MEET WORK REQUIREMENTS. LABOR INSPECTORS REPORT THAT NUMEROUS INSTANCES WERE UNCOVERED OF SUCH ABUSES, BUT INEFFICIENCIES IN THE LABOR COURT SYSTEM INHIBIT ADEQUATE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAW.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY STANDARDS ARE INADEQUATE. AS WITH OTHER ASPECTS OF THE LABOR LAW, ENFORCEMENT OF THE STANDARDS THAT DO EXIST IS ALSO GENERALLY INADEQUATE. TRAINING COURSES FOR LABOR INSPECTORS IN HEALTH AND SAFETY

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

STANDARDS WERE PROVIDED, BUT THIS AREA IS NOT PERCEIVED AS A HIGH PRIORITY FOR THE RESOURCE-POOR MINISTRY. IN 1991 LEGISLATION WAS ENACTED REQUIRING COMPANIES WITH MORE THAN 50 EMPLOYEES TO PROVIDE ON-SITE MEDICAL FACILITIES FOR THEIR WORKERS. ACCORDING TO TRADE UNION REPRESENTATIVES, THE DECREE WAS NOT EFFECTIVELY ENFORCED, EVEN THOUGH MANY LARGE EMPLOYERS DO PROVIDE SUCH FACILITIES.

END TEXT.

1. THIS IS AN ACTION TELEGRAM. POST URGENTLY REQUESTS ASSISTANCE OF EMBASSY BONN IN FAXING THE FOLLOWING TEXT OF EMBASSY GUATEMALA'S 1992 HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT TO UNITED NATIONS HUMAN RIGHTS EXPERT CHRISTIAN TOMUSCHAT IN BONN (FAX 228-73-91-00; OFFICE TEL 228-73-91-71).

2. BEGIN TEXT: GUATEMALA'S 1985 CONSTITUTION CALLS FOR ELECTION BY UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE OF A ONE-TERM

PRESIDENT, A UNICAMERAL CONGRESS, AND MUNICIPAL OFFICERS; IT MANDATES AN INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY AND A HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, WHO IS ELECTED BY AND REPORTS TO CONGRESS. IN 1992 PRESIDENT JORGE SERRANO SERVED HIS SECOND YEAR OF A 5-YEAR TERM. IN JANUARY CONGRESS ELECTED NEW PRESIDENTS OF CONGRESS AND THE SUPREME COURT. IN AUGUST CONGRESS REELECTED RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO AS HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN.

THE ARMED FORCES OPERATE WITH CONSIDERABLE INSTITUTIONAL AND LEGAL AUTONOMY, PARTICULARLY IN SECURITY AND MILITARY MATTERS. THE 43,000-MAN ARMY, WHICH HAS RESPONSIBILITY FOR NATIONAL SECURITY, HAS BEEN FIGHTING A LEFTIST INSURGENCY FOR MORE THAN THREE DECADES. THE ARMY'S MOBILE MILITARY POLICE (PMA) GUARDS KEY FACILITIES AND TRADITIONALLY HAS AN ANTICRIME ROLE. TOTAL MILITARY EXPENDITURES FOR 1989, ACCORDING TO U.S. ARMS CONTROL AND DISARMAMENT FIGURES, WERE $131 MILLION. ALTHOUGH THE DEFENSE BUDGET FOR 1992 DECREASED IN REAL TERMS, THE 1993 BUDGET WILL INCREASE IN REAL TERMS BY APPROXIMATELY 8 PERCENT.

THE NATIONAL POLICE (12,000 STRONG) AND TREASURY POLICE (2,000) REPORT TO THE INTERIOR MINISTER. ON MARCH 4, THE INTERIOR MINISTER CREATED THE "MUNAHPU" TASK FORCE PATROLS COMPOSED OF NATIONAL POLICE, TREASURY POLICE, AND MOBILE MILITARY POLICE TO COMBAT RISING COMMON CRIME. PRESIDENT SERRANO BROKE WITH TRADITION IN 1991 AND APPOINTED A CIVILIAN AS NATIONAL POLICE CHIEF, AS WELL AS OTHER CIVILIANS TO SENIOR POSITIONS IN THE POLICE AND MINISTRY OF INTERIOR. IN A MAY 1992

RESHUFFLING, CIVILIANS WERE APPOINTED INTERIOR MINISTER AND POLICE CHIEF, AND SEVEN MILITARY PERSONNEL WERE ASSIGNED TO KEY ADVISORY POSITIONS. SOME 500,000 MEN SERVE IN VOLUNTARY CIVIL SELF-DEFENSE COMMITTEES, COMMONLY CALLED CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS (PAC'S), SOME OF WHICH CONDUCT COUNTERINSURGENCY PATROLS IN RURAL AREAS. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN AND THE CATHOLIC ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE REPORT THAT SOME PAC

GUATEM 00574 01 OF 11 191722Z

MEMBERS WERE COMPELLED TO JOIN, IN VIOLATION OF THE CONSTITUTION. SECURITY FORCES AND PAC'S WERE REPORTED TO HAVE COMMITTED NUMEROUS SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN 1992.

THE AGRICULTURE-BASED, PRIVATE SECTOR-ORIENTED GUATEMALAN ECONOMY GREW APPROXIMATELY 4.6 PERCENT IN 1992, PRODUCING AN INCREASE IN PER CAPITA INCOME OF MORE THAN 1.5 PERCENT. INFLATION STOOD AT APPROXIMATELY 14 PERCENT. DURING THE FOURTH QUARTER, GUATEMALA ENTERED INTO A STANDBY AGREEMENT WITH THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND, REQUIRING THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT TO BALANCE ITS BUDGET IN 1993 FOR THE THIRD STRAIGHT YEAR, AND SIGNED A $120 MILLION ECONOMIC RESTRUCTURING LOAN WITH THE WORLD BANK.

ALTHOUGH THERE WERE SOME IMPROVEMENTS IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN 1992, SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES OCCURRED FREQUENTLY. STATISTICS PREPARED BY THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE AND THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE SHOWED A SUBSTANTIAL DROP DURING 1992 IN REPORTED HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, PARTICULARLY EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, TORTURE, AND DISAPPEARANCES.

THERE WAS SOME PROGRESS IN RESOLVING CERTAIN KEY CASES, AND NONE IN OTHERS. WHILE GUERRILLA GROUPS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS REPORTED THAT THE MILITARY, CIVIL PATROLS, AND POLICE CONTINUED TO COMMIT A MAJORITY OF THE MAJOR VIOLATIONS, INCLUDING EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLING AND DISAPPEARANCES.

AMONG POSITIVE DEVELOPMENTS, THE PRESIDENTIAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION ISSUED ITS FIRST REPORT UPDATING LEADING HUMAN RIGHTS CASES, THE ARMY CONTINUED HUMAN RIGHTS TRAINING PROGRAMS, AND THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE DEDICATED INCREASED RESOURCES TO PREVENTING

ABUSES AGAINST STREET CHILDREN. PRESIDENT SERRANO BECAME THE FIRST GUATEMALAN CHIEF EXECUTIVE TO MEET WITH COMMITTEE OF PEASANT UNITY LEADERS, AND HE, AS WELL AS OTHER GUATEMALAN OFFICIALS AND MILITARY OFFICERS, OPENED A DIALOG WITH GUATEMALAN AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS.

BY YEAR'S END, HOWEVER, THAT DIALOG HAD DETERIORATED.

PRESIDENT SERRANO AND MEMBERS OF HIS CABINET STRONGLY CRITICIZED BOTH LOCAL AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS, CLAIMING THEY DISTORT GUATEMALA'S HUMAN RIGHTS RECORD FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES. OFFICIALS CRITICIZED THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE, AND THE U.S. GOVERNMENT FOR THE PROTECTION THEY OFFERED TO KIDNAP VICTIM MARITZA URRUTIA. SENIOR OFFICIALS DENOUNCED AS IMPROPER INTERFERENCE IN INTERNAL AFFAIRS EXPRESSIONS OF U.S. GOVERNMENT CONCERN OVER THE COURT'S VERDICT OF "INNOCENT" IN THE CASE OF AN ARMY OFFICER IMPLICATED IN THE MURDER OF AMERICAN CITIZEN MICHAEL DEVINE (SEE SECTION 1.A.). THE GOVERNMENT SHOWED INTOLERANCE FOR PRESS CRITICISM. LOCAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS CONTINUED TO BE THREATENED AND WERE VICTIMS OF VIOLENT ATTACKS. ALTHOUGH PROGRESS WAS MADE IN INVESTIGATING AND PROSECUTING SOME PAST AND PRESENT HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, THE OVERALL RECORD WAS POOR. CHARGES WERE DISMISSED AGAINST SOLDIERS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE AUGUST 1991 "TRAILEROS" MURDERS IN TAXISCO, A CASE WHICH IS STILL IN THE APPEAL PROCESS.

GUERRILLAS ALSO COMMITTED NUMEROUS AND SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, INCLUDING EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, KIDNAPINGS, FORCED LABOR RECRUITMENT, WIDESPREAD USE OF MINES AND EXPLOSIVES, AND THE USE OF CHILDREN IN COMBAT. GUERRILLA ATTACKS ON INFRASTRUCTURE TARGETS CONTINUED THROUGHOUT THE YEAR.

RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

SECTION 1 RESPECT FOR THE INTEGRITY OF THE PERSON, INCLUDING FREEDOM FROM:

A. POLITICAL AND OTHER EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLING

POLITICALLY MOTIVATED KILLINGS CONTINUED IN 1992, ALTHOUGH THERE WERE FAR FEWER THAN IN PAST YEARS. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN CONFIRMED 48 EXTRAJUDICIAL

GUATEM 00574 02 OF 11 191723Z SHC0627

KILLINGS DURING THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992, WHILE ANOTHER 203 COMPLAINTS REMAINED PENDING INVESTIGATION. OF THE 48 CONFIRMED EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, 28 POLITICALLY MOTIVATED MURDERS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO STATE SECURITY FORCES, 8 MURDERS OF CRIMINAL SUSPECTS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO STATE SECURITY FORCES, AND 12 POLITICALLY MOTIVATED MURDERS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO GUERRILLAS. THE OMBUDSMAN'S 1991 ANNUAL STATISTICS REPORTED 228 CONFIRMED EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, WITH ANOTHER 203 COMPLAINTS PENDING INVESTIGATION AT YEAR'S END. OF THE 228 CONFIRMED EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, 138 POLITICALLY MOTIVATED MURDERS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO STATE SECURITY FORCES, 27 MURDERS OF CRIMINAL SUSPECTS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO STATE SECURITY FORCES, AND 71 WERE POLITICALLY MOTIVATED MURDERS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO GUERRILLAS. THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE REPORTED 198 EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS DURING THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992, AS COMPARED TO 575 FOR ALL OF 1991, BUT DID NOT BREAK DOWN THE FIGURES ACCORDING TO THE RESPONSIBLE ORGANIZATIONS.

THE SECURITY FORCES AND PERSONS ASSOCIATED WITH OR PROTECTED BY THE ARMY, SUCH AS THE CIVIL DEFENSE

PATROLS OR MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, COMMITTED MANY OF THESE KILLINGS, MOST OF WHICH TOOK PLACE IN AREAS OF GUERRILLA CONFLICT. THE SECURITY FORCES WERE REPORTED TO BE INVOLVED IN MANY VIGILANTE KILLINGS. THE OMBUDSMAN, THE ATTORNEY GENERAL, AND HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS HAVE FOUND EVIDENCE OF KILLINGS BY PAC'S. PAC LEADERS ARE FEARED IN MANY RURAL COMMUNITIES BECAUSE THEY ENJOY ARMY BACKING AND DE FACTO IMMUNITY FROM PROSECUTION. SECURITY FORCES ARE RARELY HELD ACCOUNTABLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. WITH FEW EXCEPTIONS, THE GOVERNMENT FAILED TO INVESTIGATE, DETAIN, AND PROSECUTE PERPETRATORS OF EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS. IN 1992 AN INTERNATIONAL TEAM OF FORENSIC ANTHROPOLOGISTS WORKED TO LOCATE CORPSES OF VICTIMS KILLED AND BURIED IN THE EARLY 1980'S AT CLANDESTINE

RURAL CEMETERIES.

THE ARMED FORCES AND CIVIL PATROLS FREQUENTLY THREATENED AND SOMETIMES KILLED HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS. THE RUNUJEL JUNAM COUNCIL OF ETHNIC COMMUNITIES (CERJ) IS A RURAL-BASED HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION DEDICATED MAINLY TO OPPOSING INVOLUNTARY SERVICE IN PAC'S. VARIOUS CERJ MEMBERS DISAPPEARED,

WERE KILLED, OR WERE THREATENED IN 1992. CERJ MEMBER ESTEBAN TOJIN DISAPPEARED ON MARCH 13 AFTER RECEIVING THREATS DATING BACK TO 1990. A GRENADE EXPLODED ON MAY 18 AT THE SANTA CRUZ DEL QUICHE HOME OF CERJ LEADER AMILCAR MENDEZ, WHO WAS IN GUATEMALA CITY AT THE TIME. MENDEZ REPORTED RECEIVING NUMEROUS ANONYMOUS TELEPHONE THREATS. IN OCTOBER MENDEZ WAS CHARGED WITH PROVIDING EXPLOSIVES TO GUERRILLAS, AND A WARRANT WAS ISSUED FOR HIS ARREST. MENDEZ AND THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN ALLEGED MILITARY PERSONNEL COERCED A CERJ MEMBER INTO ISSUING A FALSE CONFESSION IMPLICATING MENDEZ. MENDEZ RETURNED TO QUICHE TO FACE THE CHARGES ON NOVEMBER 22, ACCOMPANIED BY A U.S. CONGRESSMAN, THE U.S CHARGE D'AFFAIRES, AND A GROUP OF HUMAN RIGHTS MONITORS. AFTER TURNING HIMSELF IN TO A GUATEMALAN JUDGE, MENDEZ WAS FREED ON HIS OWN RECOGNIZANCE. A DECISION APPEALED BY THE GUATEMALAN ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE.

ON JANUARY 17, DRUNKEN SOLDIERS KILLED FOUR PEOPLE IN CIUDAD PERONIA, A GUATEMALA CITY SUBURB. THE ARMY ARRESTED TWO SUSPECTS ON JANUARY 21, BOTH OF WHOM WERE SENTENCED TO DEATH IN A MILITARY APPEALS COURT ON APRIL 8. THE SOLDIERS ESCAPED FROM JAIL ON MAY 5. ONE WAS RECAPTURED ON JULY 6 AND IS APPEALING HIS DEATH SENTENCE; THE OTHER REMAINS AT LARGE.

ON FEBRUARY 18, UNIDENTIFIED GUNMEN MURDERED 27-YEAR-OLD SAN CARLOS UNIVERSITY (USAC) PROFESSOR MANUEL ESTUARDO PENA, WHO WAS ACTIVE IN A VARIETY OF POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS AND SOCIAL CAUSES. THE KILLING FOLLOWED THE JANUARY 30 BOMBING OF USAC STUDENT UNION

OFFICES AND COINCIDED WITH NUMEROUS THREATS TO USAC PROFESSORS AND STUDENTS, SOME OF WHOM FLED INTO EXILE. ON APRIL 16, MEMBERS OF A HUNANPU SECURITY UNIT FIRED ON A GROUP OF USAC STUDENTS AFTER A CONFRONTATION DURING PREPARATIONS FOR A PARADE, KILLING ONE AND WOUNDING SEVEN OTHERS. MEMBERS OF THE UNIT WERE ARRESTED. IN NOVEMBER A COURT CONVICTED SIX HUNANPU PERSONNEL FOR THEIR ROLE IN THE SHOOTING AND SENTENCED

THEM TO 12 2/3 YEARS IN PRISON.

THERE WAS SOME PROGRESS IN CERTAIN OTHER HIGH-PROFILE CASES. THE TRIAL OF FORMER GOVERNMENT SECURITY AGENT NOEL DE JESUS BETETA ALVAREZ FOR THE 1990 MURDER OF GUATEMALAN ANTHROPOLOGIST MYRNA MACK CHANG TRIAL BEGAN IN AUGUST AND WAS CONTINUING AT YEAR'S END. ON SEPTEMBER 30, A MILITARY COURT SENTENCED SIX ENLISTED MILITARY MEN TO 30 YEARS FOR THE 1990 MURDER OF AMERICAN CITIZEN MICHAEL DEVINE; A CAPTAIN ACCUSED OF INVOLVEMENT WAS FOUND INNOCENT. A DECISION APPEALED BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL. TWO OTHER CHARGES AGAINST THE CAPTAIN ARE STILL PENDING. SENIOR OFFICERS INVOLVED IN COVERING UP THE CASE FOR 2 YEARS HAVE NOT BEEN BROUGHT TO TRIAL. ON JULY 19, AN APPELLATE COURT SENTENCED FOUR POLICEMEN TO 12 YEARS IN PRISON AND A COLLECTIVE FINE OF APPROXIMATELY $1,000 FOR THE MARCH 1990 MURDER OF STREET CHILD NAHAMON CARMONA LOPEZ.

THERE WAS NO PROGRESS IN RESOLVING THE 1989 DISAPPEARANCES AND MURDERS OF UNIVERSITY STUDENTS. THE 1990 HECTOR COQUEL COLINDRES AND GILDA FLORES KILLINGS, THE 1990 DISAPPEARANCE OF MARIA TIU TOJIN AND HER DAUGHTER, THE 1991 MURDER OF POLICE DETECTIVE JOSE LUIS MERIDA ESCOBAR, THE 1991 "TRAILEROS" KILLINGS IN TAXISCO, THE 1991 DISAPPEARANCE OF DIEGO DOMINGO MARTIN, OR PAST KIDNAPINGS AND MURDERS OF VARIOUS CERJ MEMBERS. THE GOVERNMENT'S INABILITY TO CONTROL OR SANCTION THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS OFFENSES IS A MAJOR IMPEDIMENT TO HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRESS.

B. DISAPPEARANCE

THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE RECEIVED 65 COMPLAINTS OF FORCED DISAPPEARANCES DURING THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992. ITS INVESTIGATIONS ATTRIBUTED RESPONSIBILITY TO STATE SECURITY FORCES IN THREE CASES AND TO THE GUERRILLAS IN SIX CASES. OF THE REMAINING CASES, 14 VICTIMS

REAPPEARED ALIVE, 3 VICTIMS WERE FOUND DEAD, AND 39 COMPLAINTS REMAINED UNDER INVESTIGATION. STATISTICS FOR 1991 SHOWED 112 COMPLAINTS OF FORCED DISAPPEARANCES, OF WHICH 31 WERE ATTRIBUTED TO THE STATE AND 14 TO THE GUERRILLAS. THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE REPORTED 3 FORCED DISAPPEARANCES FOR THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992, AS COMPARED TO 144 IN ALL OF 1991. CREDIBLE REPORTS LINKED MOST POLITICAL

DISAPPEARANCES TO PERSONS CONNECTED WITH THE ARMED FORCES. THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT IDENTIFY OR PROSECUTE THE PERPETRATORS OF ANY OF THE ABOVE DISAPPEARANCES.

IN JUNE THE REMAINS OF FREE-LANCE AMERICAN JOURNALISTS NICHOLAS BLAKE AND GRIFFITH DAVIS WERE LOCATED AND IDENTIFIED WITH THE ASSISTANCE OF THE GUATEMALAN ARMY, THE BLAKE FAMILY, AND THE U.S. EMBASSY. THEY HAD DISAPPEARED IN WESTERN GUATEMALA IN MARCH 1985 WHILE SEEKING TO INTERVIEW GUATEMALAN REBELS. THERE ARE INDICATIONS THAT LOCAL CIVIL PATROL MEMBERS KILLED THE AMERICANS FOR UNKNOWN REASONS.

ON THE MORNING OF JULY 23, MARITZA URRUTIA, THE FORMER COMMON- LAW WIFE OF A GUERRILLA COMMANDER WHO HAD SPENT SEVERAL YEARS IN EXILE IN MEXICO, WAS KIDNAPED. SHE WAS RELEASED ON JULY 30, THE DAY AFTER LOCAL TELEVISION BROADCAST A VIDEOTAPED STATEMENT IN WHICH URRUTIA ACKNOWLEDGED PAST LINKS TO THE URNG, AN UMBRELLA GROUP FOR GUERRILLA FORCES (A STATEMENT CONFIRMED BY THE URNG). URRUTIA SOUGHT REFUGE IN THE GUATEMALAN ARCHBISHOP'S RESIDENCE AND MET WITH THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN. THE U.S. EMBASSY ISSUED URRUTIA A VISA ENABLING HER TO VISIT THE UNITED STATES. THE GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT SEVERELY CRITICIZED THE ROLES OF THE OMBUDSMAN, THE ARCHBISHOP, AND THE U.S. EMBASSY IN THE URRUTIA CASE. ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS, URRUTIA TESTIFIED ON SEPTEMBER 30 BEFORE THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS THAT SHE BELIEVES GUATEMALAN MILITARY PERSONNEL ABDUCTED HER AND THAT SHE WAS MISTREATED DURING CAPTIVITY. HER CAPTORS WERE WELL TRAINED AND HAD SIGNIFICANT INSTITUTIONAL RESOURCES, INCLUDING A SAFE HOUSE, VEHICLES, VIDEO EQUIPMENT, AND DISCIPLINED PERSONNEL.

C. TORTURE AND OTHER CRUEL, INHUMAN, OR DEGRADING TREATMENT OR PUNISHMENT

THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE STATED PUBLICLY

THAT IT DID NOT DOCUMENT ANY CASES OF TORTURE IN 1992. NEVERTHELESS, AS IN PAST YEARS, MANY BODIES WERE FOUND THROUGHOUT GUATEMALA BEARING SIGNS OF SEVERE DISFIGUREMENT OR POST MORTEM MUTILATION. THERE WERE CREDIBLE REPORTS OF TORTURE AND MISTREATMENT BY SECURITY FORCES, INCLUDING USE OF EXCESSIVE FORCE BY POLICE AT THE TIME OF ARREST AND OF ABUSIVE TREATMENT OF PERSONS IN RURAL AREAS BY THE ARMY, CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS, MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, AND POLICE. GANGS AND OTHER CRIMINALS, AS WELL AS GUERRILLAS, ALL USE TORTURE.

THE GOVERNMENT, ESPECIALLY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, DEDICATED ADDITIONAL PERSONNEL AND UNDERTOOK INCREASED EFFORTS TO END POLICE ABUSE OF STREET CHILDREN IN COORDINATION WITH CASA ALIANZA, AN ORGANIZATION DEDICATED TO PROTECTING THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF STREET CHILDREN. CASA ALIANZA REPORTED NO EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS OF STREET CHILDREN IN 1992. THERE WERE, HOWEVER, NUMEROUS REPORTS OF POLICEMEN BEATING OR ILLEGALLY DETAINING STREET CHILDREN. CASA ALIANZA'S STAFF ALSO REPORTED RECEIVING NUMEROUS ANONYMOUS THREATS, AND THE BROTHER OF ONE STAFF MEMBER WAS KIDNAPED AND HELD BRIEFLY, APPARENTLY IN AN ATTEMPT TO INTIMIDATE STAFF MEMBERS.

D. ARBITRARY ARREST, DETENTION, OR EXILE

A COURT-ISSUED ARREST WARRANT IS REQUIRED UNLESS A PERSON IS CAUGHT IN THE ACT OF COMMITTING A CRIME. POLICE MAY NOT DETAIN A SUSPECT FOR OVER 6 HOURS WITHOUT BRINGING HIM BEFORE A JUDGE. THE LAW PROVIDES FOR BAIL, ACCESS TO LAWYERS, AND LIMITS TO 28 DAYS THE TIME ANYONE MAY BE HELD, AFTER WHICH HE MUST BE CHARGED OR FREED. AUTHORITIES MUST PRODUCE DETAINEES ON REQUEST. EXILE IS PROHIBITED UNDER THE CONSTITUTION.

DESPITE THESE LEGAL SAFEGUARDS, THERE ARE FREQUENT CREDIBLE REPORTS OF ARBITRARY ARREST AND INCOMMUNICADO

DETENTION BY SECURITY FORCES. PERSONS DETAINED ILLEGALLY AND RELEASED SUBSEQUENTLY REPORTED HAVING BEEN HELD AT SECURITY FORCE SAFE HOUSES. THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR ILLEGAL DETENTIONS ROUTINELY IGNORE WRITS OF HABEAS CORPUS.

THERE WAS ALSO INCREASING CONCERN OVER APPARENT MISUSE OF THE JUDICIAL PROCESS TO INTIMIDATE POLITICAL

OPPONENTS. BAIL FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL ACISCLO VALLADARES, A CRUSADER AGAINST IMPUNITY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATORS, WHO FACES CHARGES OF COVERING UP HIS BROTHER'S ALLEGED FRAUDULENT TRANSFER OF REAL ESTATE DEEDS, WAS FIXED AT AN UNPRECEDENTED AMOUNT. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN ACCUSED MILITARY PERSONNEL OF COERCING PEASANTS INTO TESTIFYING AGAINST CERJ LEADER ANILCAR MENDEZ. INVESTIGATION INTO THE ACTIVITIES OF FORMER IZABAL DEPARTMENT GOVERNOR LILIAN VASQUEZ DE GUZMAN AND ALLEGED CORRUPTION BY FORMER HEALTH MINISTER MIGUEL MONTEPEQUE APPEARED POLITICALLY MOTIVATED.

ON SEPTEMBER 25, THREE AGENTS FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIONS' MINORS' UNIT ARRESTED AN AMERICAN CITIZEN FOR ALLEGEDLY KIDNAPING A GUATEMALAN INFANT. IN FACT, THE AMERICAN WAS IN THE FINAL STAGES OF LEGALLY ADOPTING THE CHILD AND HAD LEGAL CUSTODY UNTIL COMPLETION OF THAT PROCESS. POLICE ARRESTED AND IMPRISONED HER WITHOUT AN ARREST ORDER AND DESTROYED OR HID DOCUMENTS CONFIRMING HER LEGAL CUSTODY OF THE CHILD. SHE WAS RELEASED AFTER THE U.S. EMBASSY PROTESTED HER ILLEGAL DETENTION. THE THREE POLICE OFFICERS INVOLVED IN THE AFFAIR WERE DISMISSED.

E. DENIAL OF FAIR PUBLIC TRIAL

THE CONSTITUTION PROVIDES FOR AN INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY COMPOSED OF A COURT OF CONSTITUTIONALITY, A SUPREME COURT, APPEALS COURTS, AND SEVERAL COURTS OF SPECIAL JURISDICTION, SUCH AS LABOR COURTS. MILITARY COURTS

HAVE JURISDICTION OVER MILITARY PERSONNEL, INCLUDING MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, BUT NOT CIVILIAN PAC MEMBERS, THUS LIMITING THE ABILITY OF CIVIL COURTS TO PROSECUTE PERSONS UNDER MILITARY CONTROL IN HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSE CASES. CIVILIAN TRIALS ARE PUBLIC AFTER THE FIRST 15 DAYS, DEDICATED TO AN INITIAL INVESTIGATIVE PHASE THAT IS CLOSED TO THE PUBLIC; DEFENDANTS HAVE THE RIGHT TO BE PRESENT AT TRIALS AND TO LEGAL REPRESENTATION. AN

APPEALS COURT AUTOMATICALLY REVIEWS CONVICTIONS.

THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM IS INEFFECTIVE. MOST HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS ARE NOT INVESTIGATED; SECURITY FORCE PERSONNEL ARE RELUCTANT TO INVESTIGATE CASES INVOLVING COLLEAGUES. JUDGES ARE SUSCEPTIBLE TO INTIMIDATION AND CORRUPTION AND SUFFER LOW PAY, BAD WORKING CONDITIONS, AND LOW MORALE. SOME JUDGES SUCCEEDED IN BEING EXCUSED FROM HEARING PROMINENT CASES AFTER ALLEGING DEATH THREATS. A TOTAL OF 12 DIFFERENT JUDGES WERE EXCUSED FROM THE MYRNA MACK CHANG CASE, FOR EXAMPLE. IN SEPTEMBER THE FORMER JUDGE IN THE SISTER DIANA ORTIZ CASE PUBLICLY CHARGED THAT THE SUPREME COURT PRESSURED LOWER COURT JUDGES TO DECIDE CASES IN LINE WITH ITS WISHES.

WIDESPREAD RECOGNITION OF DEFECTS LED TO CONGRESSIONAL PASSAGE IN LATE SEPTEMBER OF NEW CRIMINAL PROCEDURES AND ANTINARCOTICS CODES. THE NARCOTICS LEGISLATION WENT INTO EFFECT IN 1992, AND THE CRIMINAL PROCEDURE CODE WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE AFTER COMPLETION OF FUNDAMENTAL RETRAINING OF LAWYERS AND JUDGES. THE CRIMINAL PROCEDURES LAW WILL INTRODUCE ORAL PROCEEDINGS

(IN BOTH SPANISH AND INDIGENOUS LANGUAGES) OPEN TO THE PUBLIC, AND A PUBLIC DEFENDER PROGRAM. THE NARCOTICS LAW CRIMINALIZES NARCOTICS CONSPIRACIES, ENACTS STIFF PENALTIES FOR VIOLATORS, AND IMPOSES CIVIL DAMAGES ON NARCOTICS VIOLATORS.

THERE ARE NO KNOWN POLITICAL PRISONERS.

F. ARBITRARY INTERFERENCE WITH PRIVACY, FAMILY, HOME, OR CORRESPONDENCE

THE CONSTITUTION PROVIDES FOR THE INVIOLABILITY OF HOME, CORRESPONDENCE, AND PRIVATE DOCUMENTS, PROVISIONS THAT ARE NOT ALWAYS RESPECTED. ELEMENTS OF THE SECURITY FORCES CONTINUE TO MONITOR PRIVATE

COMMUNICATIONS. MANY HUMAN RIGHTS MONITORS REPORTED RECEIVING THREATS IN THE FORM OF SURVEILLANCE, TELEPHONE CALLS, AND ANONYMOUS LETTERS.

OFFICIALS ENFORCING THE MILITARY DRAFT TRADITIONALLY ENTER HOMES AND PLACES OF BUSINESS WITHOUT LEGALLY REQUIRED COURT ORDERS. IN FEBRUARY THE ARMY ATTEMPTED TO END SUCH ABUSES IN QUICHE WHEN IT ESTABLISHED THE NATION'S FIRST DRAFT BOARD CONSISTING OF THE ZONE MILITARY COMMANDER, THE LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE, AND OTHER CIVILIAN LEADERS. UNDER NEW RECRUITMENT PRACTICES ALSO ADOPTED IN SEVERAL OTHER DEPARTMENTS, POTENTIAL RECRUITS RECEIVE THREE INDUCTION NOTICES, AFTER WHICH THEY ARE ARRESTED IF THEY DO NOT REPORT FOR ENLISTMENT. UNDER GUATEMALAN LAW, SUCH ARRESTS MUST BE EFFECTED PURSANT TO A COURT ORDER. ACTIVISTS CRITICIZE THE NEW PROCEDURES FOR NOT ADDRESSING THE FACT THAT INDIGENOUS MEN ARE REQUIRED TO SERVE IN THE ARMED FORCES MORE FREQUENTLY THAN NONINDIGENOUS MEN.

THE CONSTITUTION REQUIRES THAT PAC SERVICE BE VOLUNTARY. HOWEVER, ARMY OFFICERS, MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, AND PAC LEADERS OFTEN PRESSURE MEN IN CONFLICT AREAS TO BECOME PAC MEMBERS. THERE ARE CREDIBLE REPORTS THAT SOME WHO REFUSE TO SERVE HAVE BEEN KILLED OR SUFFERED OTHER ABUSES.

G. USE OF EXCESSIVE FORCE AND VIOLATIONS OF HUMANITARIAN LAW IN INTERNAL CONFLICTS

GUATEMALA'S ARMED INTERNAL CONFLICT ENTERED ITS 32ND YEAR IN 1992 AND CONTINUED TO BE A CAUSE OF MAJOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS BY BOTH GOVERNMENT AND GUERRILLA FORCES. PEACE NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND THE URNG GUERRILLA UMBRELLA GROUP CONTINUED INCONCLUSIVELY IN 1992. HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES WERE THE PRIMARY AREA OF DISAGREEMENT. ON AUGUST 6, NEGOTIATORS REACHED AN ACCORD ON THE PAC ISSUE WHEREBY THE GOVERNMENT AGREED TO ESTABLISH NO NEW PAC'S IF THE URNG REFRAINED FROM EXTENDING OPERATIONS INTO NEW AREAS. NO NEW PAC'S HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED SINCE THE AGREEMENT WAS REACHED.

A WAVE OF BOMBINGS OCCURRED THROUGHOUT THE CAPITAL IN APRIL AND MAY. THE PERPETRATORS WERE NEVER APPREHENDED, BUT SEVERAL RIGHTWING AND LEFTWING GROUPS

GUATEM 00574 06 OF 11 191727Z SHC0642

WERE THOUGHT TO BE RESPONSIBLE. TARGETS INCLUDED GOVERNMENT AND PRIVATE OFFICES, BUSINESSES, AND SCHOOLS.

COMMUNITIES IN RESISTANCE (CPR) CLAIMED ARMY AIRCRAFT BOMBED THEIR CIVILIAN SETTLEMENTS ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS. IN MID-JULY, FOR EXAMPLE, CPR REPRESENTATIVES ACCUSED THE ARMY OF BOMBING A CPR NEAR IXCAN, QUICHE. THE DEFENSE MINISTER, WHO ONCE COMMANDED FORCES IN THAT AREA, DENIED THERE HAD BEEN ANY BOMBING AND CLAIMED GUERRILLAS FORCED CIVILIANS TO FLEE THE REGION MANY YEARS AGO. CPR REPRESENTATIVES PRODUCED UNEXPLODED BOMBS TO SUPPORT THEIR ALLEGATIONS. THE ORIGIN OF THE BOMBS HAS NOT BEEN ESTABLISHED.

GUERRILLA FORCES RECRUITED CHILDREN INTO THEIR RANKS. GOVERNMENT TROOPS FOUND MARIO CATUJ SALVADOR, A 12-YEAR-OLD CHILD GUERRILLA, AFTER AN ARMED ENGAGEMENT AT PATULUL, SUCHITEPEQUEZ. HE HAD REPORTEDLY BEEN FORCIBLY RECRUITED BY GUERRILLAS WHILE WORKING ON A FARM IN ESCUINTLA. SHORTLY THEREAFTER, HE DIED IN A MEDICAL FACILITY OF MALNUTRITION, DEHYDRATION, DIARRHEA, AND PNEUMONIA.

GUERRILLAS ALSO HINDERED INTERNATIONAL RELIEF EFFORTS. ON FEBRUARY 4, APPROXIMATELY 40 "GUERRILLA ARMY OF THE POOR" (EGP) TROOPS INTERCEPTED AND KIDNAPED TWO UNITED NATIONS REFUGEE RELIEF WORKERS ON A ROAD BETWEEN NEBAJ AND CHAJUL, QUICHE. THE U.N. PERSONNEL WERE FORCED TO WALK TO A NEARBY REBEL STRONGHOLD AFTER THEIR PICKUP TRUCK WAS BURNED ON THE HIGHWAY. THEY WERE RELEASED ON FEBRUARY 6.

NUMBER OF LOCAL HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS, INCLUDING THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE AND THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE, REGULARLY PRODUCE AND DISTRIBUTE PUBLICATIONS. THESE CIRCULATE FREELY, AND THEIR CONCLUSIONS AND ASSERTIONS ARE WIDELY REPORTED IN OTHER PUBLICATIONS AND IN THE BROADCAST MEDIA. NEWSPAPERS IN PARTICULAR HAVE COMPLAINED, HOWEVER, ABOUT GOVERNMENT INTERFERENCE AND PRESSURE TO SILENCE

CRITICISM OF THE ACTIONS OF THE PRESIDENT AND HIS FAMILY AND ALLEGED WRONGDOING BY THE SECURITY FORCES.

NO JOURNALISTS OR MEDIA FIGURES DISAPPEARED OR WERE KILLED IN 1992, BUT SEVERAL REPORTED RECEIVING DEATH THREATS. TWO OF THE MORE PROMINENT CASES INVOLVED JOURNALISTS FROM PRENSA LIBRE; ONE OF WHOM EVENTUALLY REQUESTED AND RECEIVED POLITICAL ASYLUM IN ANOTHER COUNTRY. IN LATE AUGUST, A GROUP OF JOURNALISTS CLAIMED THAT ARMED JUDICIAL BRANCH SECURITY GUARDS THREATENED TO KILL THEM IF COVERAGE DID NOT CEASE REGARDING THE MYSTERIOUS MURDER OF THE MOTHER OF SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT JUAN JOSE RODIL'S PERSONAL SECRETARY. IN OCTOBER THE OFFICES OF TIEMPO, A LEFT-OF-CENTER MAGAZINE THAT IS FREQUENTLY CRITICAL OF GOVERNMENT AND OTHER PUBLIC FIGURES, WAS THE OBJECT OF A BOMBING THAT RESULTED IN NO INJURIES AND LITTLE PHYSICAL DAMAGE TO THE BUILDING. IN DECEMBER SIGLO VEINTIUNO JOURNALIST OMAR CANO WAS BEATEN, ALONG WITH TREASURY POLICE AGENTS AND REPRESENTATIVES OF GOVERNMENT ENVIRONMENTAL AGENCIES, IN THE PRESENCE OF MILITARY PERSONNEL. CANO WAS INVESTIGATING ALLEGED ILLEGAL TIMBER CUTTING IN NATIONAL PARKS AND PROTECTED RESERVES. THE NATIONAL MEDIA WERE OUTRAGED BY THE INCIDENT AND DIRECTLY ACCUSED MEMBERS OF THE GUATEMALAN ARMY OF RESPONSIBILITY. TO DATE THERE HAVE BEEN NO PROSECUTIONS OF THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR THESE CRIMES.

DESPITE THE ALLEGED THREATS, THE NEWS MEDIA REPORTED ALL MAJOR HUMAN RIGHTS STORIES AND PUBLICIZED COMMUNIQUES FROM THE URNG, LEFTIST GROUPS, AND OTHERS

OPPOSED TO THE GOVERNMENT OR ITS POLICIES. BOTH MAJOR PRESS ORGANIZATIONS DENOUNCED INCIDENTS RESTRICTING FREEDOM OF THE PRESS AND VOWED TO CONTINUE COVERAGE OF SENSITIVE TOPICS. JOURNALISTS THEMSELVES ADMIT THAT SIGNIFICANT SELF-CENSORSHIP CONTINUES TO IMPEDE FULL REPORTING ON A VARIETY OF TOPICS, INCLUDING GOVERNMENT HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, CORRUPTION OF GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND INFLUENTIAL POLITICIANS, ASPECTS OF

GUATEM 00574 07 OF 11 191728Z SHC0645

NARCOTRAFFICKING, AND ISSUES AFFECTING THE ECONOMIC INTERESTS OF POWERFUL INDIVIDUALS.

B. FREEDOM OF PEACEFUL ASSEMBLY AND ASSOCIATION

THE CONSTITUTION GUARANTEES THE RIGHTS OF PEACEFUL ASSEMBLY AND ASSOCIATION: PARADES, RALLIES, MARCHES, FORUMS, DEBATES, AND SEMINARS ON VARIOUS TOPICS, INCLUDING HUMAN RIGHTS, TOOK PLACE OPENLY AND FREELY. ON OCTOBER 12, FOR EXAMPLE, NUMEROUS PROTEST RALLIES AND PARADES MARKED THE 500TH ANNIVERSARY OF COLUMBUS' ARRIVAL IN THE AMERICAS WITHOUT INCIDENT. RIOT POLICE USED EXCESSIVE FORCE ON SOME OCCASIONS IN BREAKING UP PEACEFUL DEMONSTRATIONS. ON JULY 21, RIOT POLICE FORCIBLY EXPELLED FROM THE GUATEMALA CITY CENTRAL PLAZA PROTEST MARCHERS FROM THE QUETZALTENANGO TOWN OF CAJOLA. THAT INCIDENT AND EVICTIONS OF SQUATTERS PROMPTED WIDESPREAD CRITICISM AND CONDEMNATION.

FREEDOM OF POLITICAL ASSOCIATION IS GUARANTEED UNDER THE CONSTITUTION, ALTHOUGH ORGANIZATIONS NOMINALLY REQUIRE LEGAL STATUS, A CUMBERSOME AND EXPENSIVE PROCEDURE. THE PEACE BRIGADES, AN INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS MONITORING ORGANIZATION, HAS BEEN UNABLE TO OBTAIN RECOGNITION DESPITE PERSISTENT EFFORTS. THE ABSENCE OF LEGAL STATUS DOES NOT, HOWEVER, PREVENT PEACE BRIGADES AND OTHER HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS FROM OPERATING OPENLY.

C. FREEDOM OF RELIGION

NO STATE RELIGION EXISTS. RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IS CONSTITUTIONALLY GUARANTEED AND IS RESPECTED IN PRACTICE. RELIGIOUS PERSONNEL ARE SOMETIMES THREATENED FOR POLITICAL REASONS. ABOUT 70 PER CENT OF THE POPULATION IS NOMINALLY CATHOLIC, BUT MANY OTHER FAITHS OPERATE FREELY. THE PRESIDENT IS AN EVANGELICAL PROTESTANT.

D. FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT WITHIN THE COUNTRY, FOREIGN TRAVEL, EMIGRATION, AND REPATRIATION

THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT RESTRICT FOREIGN TRAVEL, NOR DID IT REVOKE CITIZENSHIP FOR POLITICAL REASONS. MOVEMENT INSIDE GUATEMALA WAS UNRESTRICTED EXCEPT IN SOME CONFLICT AREAS. GUERRILLAS CONTINUED TO ESTABLISH ROAD BLOCKS, ASSAULT PRIVATE CITIZENS TO DEMAND "WAR TAXES," ATTACK PETROLEUM TRUCKS, AND LIMIT TRAVEL IN CERTAIN RURAL AREAS. THE ARMY, MILITARY COMMISSIONERS, AND PAC'S ALSO LIMITED TRAVEL IN SOME AREAS.

NOBEL LAUREATE AND INDIGENOUS LEADER RIGOBERTA MENCHU VISITED GUATEMALA TWICE IN 1992 AND TRAVELED TO RURAL AREAS. OTHER POLITICALLY ACTIVE GUATEMALANS WHO HAD GONE INTO EXILE RETURNED. ON FEBRUARY 28, POLITICAL ACTIVIST AND FORMER SOCIALIST PARTY VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE LUIS ZURITA RETURNED TO GUATEMALA FROM EXILE. ON MARCH 19, FORMER REBEL ARMED FORCES POLITICAL LEADER GONZALO DANILO RODRIGUEZ RECEIVED OFFICIAL AMNESTY, ESTABLISHED A POLITICAL PARTY, AND BEGAN PUBLISHING POLITICAL ARTICLES FREQUENTLY IN THE LOCAL PRESS.

REPATRIATION OF REFUGEES CONTINUED. AN ESTIMATED 1,600 REFUGEES RETURNED TO GUATEMALA IN THE FIRST 8 MONTHS OF 1992 UNDER THE SPONSORSHIP OF INTERNATIONAL GROUPS AND THE GOVERNMENT'S COMMITTEE ON REFUGEE AFFAIRS. THE GOVERNMENT AND REPRESENTATIVES OF THE GUATEMALAN REFUGEE COMMUNITIES IN MEXICO SIGNED AN AGREEMENT ON OCTOBER 8 ALLOWING THE ORDERLY, VOLUNTARY, LARGE-SCALE RETURN OF REFUGEES TO THEIR HOMELAND.

SECTION 3 RESPECT FOR POLITICAL RIGHTS: THE RIGHT OF CITIZENS TO CHANGE THEIR GOVERNMENT

GUATEMALANS HAVE THE RIGHT TO CHANGE THEIR GOVERNMENT BY PEACEFUL AND DEMOCRATIC MEANS. UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE BY SECRET BALLOT EXISTS FOR THOSE 18 YEARS OF AGE AND OLDER; THERE ARE NO PROPERTY OR LITERACY REQUIREMENTS. VOTING IS NOT MANDATORY. THE LAST NATIONAL ELECTIONS, WHICH INTERNATIONAL OBSERVERS FOUND FREE AND FAIR, WERE HELD IN JANUARY 1991. MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES MAY NOT VOTE.

INDIGENOUS PEOPLE ENJOY EQUAL RIGHTS UNDER THE CONSTITUTION. THERE ARE SOME INDIGENOUS CONGRESSMEN, ARMY OFFICERS (INCLUDING ONE GENERAL), GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, AND JUDGES. NEVERTHELESS, PERVASIVE DISCRIMINATION LIMITS OPPORTUNITIES FOR INDIGENOUS PEOPLE TO ASSUME PROMINENT ROLES IN GUATEMALAN POLITICS.

SECTION 4 GOVERNMENTAL ATTITUDE REGARDING INTERNATIONAL AND NONGOVERNMENTAL INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS

LOCAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS AND ORGANIZATIONS ARE PERMITTED TO OPERATE IN GUATEMALA, BUT MEMBERS SUFFERED THREATS AND VIOLENCE FROM SECURITY FORCES AND PAC'S. AS NOTED IN SECTION 1.A., MEMBERS OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION CERJ DISAPPEARED, WERE KILLED, AND WERE THREATENED IN 1992. THE OFFICE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN REMAINED THE MOST RELIABLE SOURCE OF OBJECTIVE INFORMATION ON HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES, ISSUING MANY REPORTS CRITICAL OF BOTH THE GOVERNMENT AND THE GUERRILLAS. CONGRESS REELECTED RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, AND HIS OFFICE MOVED INTO A NEW BUILDING IN DOWNTOWN GUATEMALA CITY WITH IMPROVED FACILITIES. RELATIONS BETWEEN THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH AND THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE WERE TENSE AT TIMES, AND HIGH-RANKING GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS WORKING IN THE FIELDS OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND JURISPRUDENCE HAVE COMPLAINED PUBLICLY AND PRIVATELY OF RECEIVING DEATH THREATS STEMMING FROM THEIR INTEREST IN RESOLVING CASES RELATED TO HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, OFFICIAL CORRUPTION, AND NARCOTRAFFICKING. THE OMBUDSMAN CONTINUED TO ENJOY WIDESPREAD PUBLIC SUPPORT AND RESPECT.

THE GOVERNMENT OFFICIALLY WELCOMED, BUT AT TIMES CRITICIZED, INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS. SENIOR GUATEMALAN OFFICIALS MET REPRESENTATIVES OF NUMEROUS FOREIGN AND INTERNATIONAL OFFICIALS AND ACTIVISTS. UNITED NATIONS HUMAN RIGHTS EXPERT CHRISTIAN TOMUSCHAT RECEIVED THE COOPERATION OF THE GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT, AND HIS CRITICAL COMMENTS RECEIVED WIDESPREAD PRESS COVERAGE. FOREIGN FORENSIC ANTHROPOLOGISTS AND HUMAN RIGHTS

GROUPS TOOK PART IN THE LOCATION AND EXHUMATION OF CLANDESTINE CEMETERIES. NEVERTHELESS, THE DEFENSE MINISTER THREATENED TO PROSECUTE FORENSIC ANTHROPOLOGIST CLYDE SNOW FOR DEFAMATION AFTER SNOW ATTRIBUTED CERTAIN PAST HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES TO THE GUATEMALAN MILITARY. BOTH LOCAL AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS WERE CRITICIZED BY PRESIDENT SERRANO AND MEMBERS OF HIS CABINET, WHO ACCUSED THEM OF INTENTIONALLY DISTORTING GUATEMALA'S HUMAN RIGHTS RECORD FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES.

SECTION 5 DISCRIMINATION BASED ON RACE, SEX, RELIGION, LANGUAGE, OR SOCIAL STATUS

ONE-HALF OF THE POPULATION IS CULTURALLY INDIGENOUS AND THE REST HISPANIC. INDIGENOUS PEOPLE REMAIN LARGELY OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY'S POLITICAL, ECONOMIC, SOCIAL, AND CULTURAL MAINSTREAM. INDIGENOUS PEOPLE SUFFERED MOST OF THE SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES DESCRIBED ABOVE. RURAL INDIGENOUS MEN WERE MORE LIKELY THAN URBAN COUNTERPARTS TO BE DRAFTED BY THE ARMY OR RECRUITED FORCIBLY BY GUERRILLA GROUPS.

RURAL INDIGENOUS PEOPLE HAVE LIMITED EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES AND THUS HAVE LIMITED EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES. ILLITERACY IS PREVALENT IN INDIGENOUS COMMUNITIES. MANY GUATEMALANS DO NOT SPEAK SPANISH. LINGUISTIC BARRIERS HINDER INTERACTION WITH THE GOVERNMENT AND LIMIT ACCESS TO PUBLIC SERVICES, INCLUDING THE JUDICIARY, BECAUSE FEW OFFICIALS SPEAK INDIGENOUS LANGUAGES.

WOMEN ARE ACTIVE IN THE LABOR FORCE, ESPECIALLY IN THE TEXTILE INDUSTRY, AGRICULTURE, RETAIL BUSINESS, AND IN LOWER-PAYING PUBLIC SECTOR JOBS. SEVERAL WOMEN HOLD PROMINENT POLITICAL POSITIONS, INCLUDING CABINET POSTS. DESPITE LEGAL PROTECTION, WOMEN FACE JOB DISCRIMINATION AND RECEIVE LOWER PAY THAN MEN. CONAVIGUA, AN INDIGENOUS WIDOWS' ORGANIZATION PROMINENT IN THE ADVOCACY OF WOMEN'S AND HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES, REPORTS THAT VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN, INCLUDING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, REMAINS COMMON BUT RECEIVES LITTLE ATTENTION. CRIMINAL SEXUAL VIOLENCE OFTEN GOES UNREPORTED BY VICTIMS, AND RELATIVELY FEW RAPE CASES CAME TO COURT. THE DEPUTY HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, A WOMAN, MONITORS VIOLATIONS OF WOMEN'S RIGHTS.

SECTION 6 WORKER RIGHTS

A. THE RIGHT OF ASSOCIATION

THE CONSTITUTION AND THE 1947 LABOR CODE PROVIDE WORKERS FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION AND THE RIGHT TO FORM AND JOIN TRADE UNIONS. AS A RESULT OF A TRIPARTITE NEGOTIATING PROCESS INCLUDING LABOR, MANAGEMENT, AND GOVERNMENT, THE LABOR CODE WAS AMENDED IN LATE 1992 TO FACILITATE FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION, TO

GUATEM 00574 03 OF 11 191738Z SHC0650

STRENGTHEN THE RIGHTS OF WORKING WOMEN, TO INCREASE PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS OF LABOR LAWS, AND TO ENHANCE THE ROLE OF THE LABOR MINISTRY AND LABOR COURTS IN ENFORCING THE LABOR CODE. THESE AMENDMENTS ENTERED INTO FORCE IN 1992. ALL WORKERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO FORM OR JOIN UNIONS, INCLUDING PUBLIC SECTOR EMPLOYEES. BETWEEN 5 AND 8 PERCENT OF THE WORK FORCE IS ORGANIZED. THE 890 UNIONS IN THE COUNTRY ARE INDEPENDENT OF GOVERNMENT AND POLITICAL PARTY DOMINATION.

THE LABOR CODE AMENDMENTS SIMPLIFY THE PROCESS FOR UNIONS SEEKING LEGAL STATUS, WHICH HAS LONG BEEN CRITICIZED BY U.S. LABOR ORGANIZATIONS AS EXCESSIVELY CUMBERSOME, BY ELIMINATING A NUMBER OF PROVISIONS, INCLUDING ONE THAT REQUIRED THE PRESIDENT OF THE COUNTRY TO SIGN THE FINAL PAPERS. WORKERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO STRIKE, BUT LABOR CODE PROCEDURES MAKE LEGAL STRIKES CUMBERSOME, FOR EXAMPLE BY REQUIRING A TWO-THIRDS VOTE. MOST STRIKES OCCUR WITHOUT LEGAL AUTHORIZATION, AND IN PRACTICE THE GOVERNMENT MAKES NO EFFORT TO INTERVENE ON THE BASIS OF ILLEGALITY. HOWEVER, THE LACK OF LEGAL SANCTION FOR A STRIKE CAN BE USED AS A THREAT AGAINST STRIKERS. FOR EXAMPLE, DURING A SERIES OF WORK STOPPAGES BY CIVIL SERVANTS IN JULY, SOME GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS THREATENED TO TAKE LEGAL ACTION AGAINST UNION LEADERS FOR PURSUING AN ILLEGAL STRIKE. ORGANIZED LABOR'S STRUCTURAL WEAKNESSES, A PAUCITY OF MEMBERSHIP FUNDS, AND A POOR OVERALL ECONOMIC SITUATION WITH HIGH UNEMPLOYMENT AND UNDEREMPLOYMENT LIMIT THE DURATION OF VIRTUALLY ALL STRIKES.

BY LAW, UNION LEADERS MAY SERVE ONLY ONE TERM IN A PARTICULAR UNION OFFICE, BUT, BY ROTATING UNION POSITIONS, THE SAME PERSONS CAN STAY ON UNION EXECUTIVE BOARDS FOR EXTENDED PERIODS OF TIME. THE CONSTITUTION AND THE 1992 LAW PROTECT THE RIGHT OF POLITICAL PARTICIPATION FOR INDIVIDUALS, INCLUDING TRADE UNION LEADERS. UNIONS MAY AND DO FORM FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS AND JOIN INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS. WITH VERY FEW EXCEPTIONS, TRADE UNIONS DEPEND ON ASSISTANCE RECEIVED FROM INTERNATIONAL CONTACTS.

SUBJECT: EMBASSY GUATEMALA 1992 HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT

A "SOLIDARITY" MOVEMENT IS ACTIVE, CLAIMING APPROXIMATELY 100,000 MEMBERS IN OVER 350 COMPANIES. UNIONS MAY LEGALLY CONTINUE TO OPERATE IN WORKPLACES WHICH HAVE SOLIDARITY ASSOCIATIONS, AND WORKERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO CHOOSE BETWEEN THE TWO OR BELONG TO BOTH. THE GOVERNMENT VIEWS THESE ASSOCIATIONS AS CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS WHICH NEED NOT INTERFERE WITH THE FUNCTIONING OF TRADE UNIONS. ARTICLE 214 OF THE AMENDED LABOR CODE STIPULATES THAT TRADE UNIONS HAVE THE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT TO

BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY OVER WORK CONDITIONS ON BEHALF OF WORKERS. CRITICS CHARGE THAT SOLIDARITY ASSOCIATIONS ARE PROMOTED BY MANAGEMENT TO RIVAL LABOR UNIONS. THERE ARE CREDIBLE REPORTS THAT, AT TIMES, DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES ARE NOT ADHERED TO IN THE FORMATION AND MANAGEMENT OF SOME OF THESE ASSOCIATIONS, AND WORKERS ARE UNABLE TO PARTICIPATE FULLY AND FREELY IN DECISION MAKING. SIMILAR CREDIBLE CHARGES ARE MADE AGAINST SOME TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS.

THERE WERE CREDIBLE REPORTS DURING THE YEAR OF THREATS OF VIOLENCE AGAINST UNION LEADERS OR MEMBERS, INCLUDING IN THE HIGH-PROFILE "MAQUILA" (DRAWBACK, OR IN-BOND EXPORT) SECTOR. PUBLIC SECTOR UNION LEADERS ALSO REPORTED RECEIVING THREATS AGAINST THEMSELVES AND THEIR FAMILIES, COINCIDING WITH UNION DEMANDS FOR IMPROVED BENEFITS.

AT THE REQUEST OF TRADE UNION LEADERS, THE INDEPENDENT HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, THROUGH HIS OFFICE FOR ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL ISSUES, FOLLOWS COMPLAINTS RELATED TO TRADE UNION ACTIVITIES. UNION LEADERS AND WORKERS FILED A NUMBER OF COMPLAINTS WITH THE OMBUDSMAN DURING THE YEAR, AND THE OMBUDSMAN SPOKE OUT PUBLICLY TO CONDEMN THE USE OF VIOLENCE OR THREATS AGAINST THOSE SEEKING SOCIAL JUSTICE. THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION'S (ILO) COMMITTEE ON FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION REGRETTED IN NOVEMBER THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD FAILED TO REPLY TO NEW ALLEGATIONS REGARDING 15 MURDERS, AS WELL AS PHYSICAL ATTACKS, ABDUCTIONS, DEATH THREATS, AND 58 ARRESTS OF TRADE UNIONISTS IN 1991. THERE WERE NO REPORTS OF MURDERS OF UNION LEADERS IN 1992.

B. THE RIGHT TO ORGANIZE AND BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY

WORKERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO ORGANIZE AND BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY, BUT OFTEN FACE DISCRIMINATORY ANTIUNION ACTIONS BY EMPLOYERS. THE NEW LABOR AMENDMENTS PROVIDE THAT WORKERS CANNOT BE DISMISSED FOR PARTICIPATING IN THE FORMATION OF A TRADE UNION. ARTICLE 78 OF THE LABOR CODE, ONE OF THE MORE HOTLY CONTESTED CHANGES, ESTABLISHES THE RIGHT OF EMPLOYERS TO FIRE WORKERS FOR CAUSE AND PERMITS WORKERS TO APPEAL THEIR DISMISSAL TO THE LABOR COURTS, BUT DOES NOT REQUIRE THE REINSTATEMENT OF ANY

GUATEM 00574 10 OF 11 191731Z SHC0654

WORKER FIRED WITHOUT CAUSE. LABOR COURTS RESPONSIBLE FOR ENFORCING LABOR LAWS CONTINUED GENERALLY TO BE INEFFECTIVE. IN AN EFFORT TO RELIEVE THE OVERWHELMING WORKLOAD OF THE LABOR COURTS, SEVEN NEW COURTS WERE CREATED IN 1992. FOR BUDGET REASONS, THEY ARE NOT YET FUNCTIONING. RESTRUCTURING AND MODERNIZING THE LABOR COURT SYSTEM THUS MADE LITTLE HEADWAY, AND A HEAVY BACKLOG OF CASES CONTINUES TO CLOG THE COURTS.

ENFORCEMENT OF THE LABOR CODE IS SPOTTY, DUE IN PART TO THE SCARCITY OF LABOR INSPECTORS AND A LACK OF ADEQUATE TRAINING. PLANS ARE PENDING TO HIRE AND TRAIN ADDITIONAL LABOR INSPECTORS. THE SALARY OF ALL LABOR INSPECTORS WAS DOUBLED IN 1992, ALONG WITH ALL OTHER TECHNICAL EMPLOYEES IN THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT.

LABOR LAWS AND REGULATIONS APPLY THROUGHOUT GUATEMALA, INCLUDING IN THE FEW EXPORT PROCESSING ZONES UNDER DEVELOPMENT IN THE COUNTRY. UNION LEADERS OFTEN BLAME EMPLOYER PRESSURES AND RESTRICTED ACCESS TO THE ZONES FOR THEIR VIRTUAL INABILITY TO ORGANIZE THERE. CREDIBLE REPORTS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED ABOUT THESE ZONES, ALLEGING LOW WAGES, LONG HOURS WITHOUT LEGALLY REQUIRED OVERTIME PAY, EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS, AND POOR WORKING CONDITIONS. LABOR MINISTRY INSPECTORS FILED NUMEROUS

COMPLAINTS BEFORE THE LABOR COURTS ON THESE CHARGES. FEW OF THESE CASES WERE RESOLVED, HOWEVER, DUE TO INEFFICIENCIES WITHIN THE COURT SYSTEM AND TO LEGAL MANEUVERING WHICH EMPLOYERS CAN USE TO PROLONG THE HEARING PROCESS.

C. PROHIBITION OF FORCED OR COMPULSORY LABOR

THE CONSTITUTION BARS FORCED LABOR, AND THE PRACTICE GENERALLY DOES NOT EXIST. HOWEVER, SOME GROUPS CHARGE THAT COERCED PARTICIPATION OF INDIGENOUS PEOPLES IN THE PAC'S VIOLATES PROHIBITIONS AGAINST FORCED LABOR. THERE WERE CREDIBLE REPORTS OF ISOLATED INSTANCES OF UNPAID PAC MEMBERS BEING USED TO PROVIDE FREE MANUAL LABOR, BUT NO SYSTEMATIC PATTERN OF SUCH ABUSE WAS ESTABLISHED.

D. MINIMUM AGE FOR THE EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN

ALTHOUGH THE CONSTITUTION BARS EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS UNDER THE AGE OF 14, THE GOVERNMENT'S NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF STATISTICS REPORTS THAT SOME 50,000 CHILDREN BELOW THIS MINIMUM AGE ARE REGULARLY EMPLOYED IN THE FORMAL SECTOR; AN UNTOLD NUMBER REPORTEDLY WORK IN THE INFORMAL SECTOR. ONLY 5,000 OF THESE MINORS HAVE LEGAL PERMISSION FROM THE LABOR MINISTRY TO WORK.

THOSE WORKING WITHOUT LEGAL PERMISSION ARE OPEN TO EXPLOITATION, GENERALLY RECEIVING NO SOCIAL BENEFITS, NO SOCIAL INSURANCE, NO PENSION OR VACATIONS, NO SEVERANCE PAY, AND ARE PAID AT BELOW THE MINIMUM WAGE LEVEL. THE LABOR MINISTRY HAS A PROGRAM TO EDUCATE MINORS, THEIR PARENTS, AND EMPLOYERS ON THE RIGHTS OF MINORS IN THE LABOR MARKET. ECONOMIC NECESSITY, HOWEVER, FORCES MOST FAMILIES TO HAVE THEIR CHILDREN SEEK SOME TYPE OF EMPLOYMENT TO SUPPLEMENT THE FAMILY INCOME.

E. ACCEPTABLE CONDITIONS OF WORK

MINIMUM WAGES ARE SET BY LAW. DUE TO A VARIETY OF FACTORS, MOST IMPORTANTLY THE SHARP VARIANCE BETWEEN THE OVERSUPPLY OF LABOR AND THE VERY LIMITED DEMAND FOR IT, THE MINIMUM WAGE BECOMES THE PREVAILING WAGE CEILING, AND NOT THE MORE COMMONLY ACCEPTED WAGE FLOOR, FOR MOST UNSKILLED AND SEMISKILLED WORKERS. WIDESPREAD, CREDIBLE REPORTS INDICATED THE MINIMUM WAGE IS COMMONLY, IF ILLEGALLY, NOT PAID TO SIGNIFICANT NUMBERS OF RURAL AND URBAN WORKERS. THE CURRENT MINIMUM WAGE DOES NOT PROVIDE A DECENT STANDARD OF LIVING; GOVERNMENT STATISTICS INDICATE THAT AN ESTIMATED 88 PERCENT OF THE POPULATION LIVES BELOW THE GUATEMALAN POVERTY LINE, INCLUDING APPROXIMATELY 78 PERCENT OF THOSE EMPLOYED. A BILATERAL COMMITTEE REPRESENTING LABOR AND MANAGEMENT IS NAMED EACH YEAR TO MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR INCREASES IN THE MINIMUM WAGE. IN THE EVENT THAT AGREEMENT IS NOT POSSIBLE, THE GOVERNMENT MAY DECREE SUCH INCREASES. THE MINIMUM WAGE WAS INCREASED IN LATE 1991 BY 78.5 PERCENT. ALTHOUGH THE MINIMUM WAGE WAS NOT INCREASED IN 1992, WHEN INFLATION WAS APPROXIMATELY 12 PERCENT, THE GOVERNMENT DID AUGMENT WORKER INCOMES BY 8.3 PERCENT WHEN IT PASSED A LAW REQUIRING PAYMENT OF AN ADDITIONAL ANNUAL 1-MONTH BONUS IN JULY

OF EACH YEAR. ORGANIZED LABOR OPPOSED THIS DECISION SINCE BONUS PAYMENTS ARE NOT CONSIDERED IN CALCULATING OTHER BENEFIT PAYMENTS BASED ON WAGES.

THE LEGAL WORKDAY IS 8 HOURS AND THE WORKWEEK IS 44 HOURS, BUT A TRADITION OF MUCH LONGER HOURS REMAINS IN PLACE DUE TO ECONOMIC CONDITIONS. THE NEWLY AMENDED LABOR CODE CONTINUES THE TRADITION OF PROVIDING ALL WORKERS A REQUIRED WEEKLY REST

PERIOD OF AT LEAST 24 HOURS. TRADE UNION LEADERS AND HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS CHARGE THAT WORKERS ARE COMMONLY FORCED TO WORK OVERTIME, OFTEN WITHOUT OVERTIME PAY, TO MEET WORK REQUIREMENTS. LABOR INSPECTORS REPORT THAT NUMEROUS INSTANCES WERE UNCOVERED OF SUCH ABUSES, BUT INEFFICIENCIES IN THE LABOR COURT SYSTEM INHIBIT ADEQUATE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAW.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY STANDARDS ARE INADEQUATE. AS WITH OTHER ASPECTS OF THE LABOR LAW, ENFORCEMENT OF THE STANDARDS THAT DO EXIST IS ALSO GENERALLY INADEQUATE. TRAINING COURSES FOR LABOR INSPECTORS IN HEALTH AND SAFETY STANDARDS WERE PROVIDED, BUT THIS AREA IS NOT PERCEIVED AS A HIGH PRIORITY FOR THE RESOURCE-POOR MINISTRY. IN 1991 LEGISLATION WAS ENACTED REQUIRING COMPANIES WITH MORE THAN 50 EMPLOYEES TO PROVIDE ON-SITE MEDICAL FACILITIES FOR THEIR WORKERS. ACCORDING TO TRADE UNION REPRESENTATIVES, THE DECREE WAS NOT EFFECTIVELY ENFORCED, EVEN THOUGH MANY LARGE EMPLOYERS DO PROVIDE SUCH FACILITIES. END TEXT.

TAGS: PINS, PTER, PREL, PHUM, PGOV, UN, GT
SUBJECT: SERRANO PROPOSAL: URNG MEMBER IN EUROPE, RIGOBERTA AND THE PRESS

REF: GUAT 594

1. [redacted] -- ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: A REPORTED URNG SPOKESMAN IN EUROPE, JORGE ROSAL, SAID THAT THE INSURGENTS ARE READY TO SIGN A HUMAN RIGHTS ACCORD, BUT WILL NOT AGREE TO FIXED NEGOTIATING PERIODS AND A PRE-SET DEMOBILIZATION DATE. NOTING THAT THE URNG'S LEADERS HAD NOT YET OFFICIALLY RESPOND TO THE GOG OFFER DELIVERED TO THEM BY QUEZADA (WHICH INCLUDED THE NOW-DROPPED DEMOBILIZATION DEMAND), ROSALES OPINED THAT THE URNG COULD SIGN A HUMAN RIGHTS PACT THAT DID NOT INCLUDE ITS DEMOBILIZATION AND UNILATERALLY CESSATION OF ACTIONS. ON OTHER PEACE FRONTS, RIGOBERTA MENCHU COMPLAINED ABOUT QUEZADA'S SUPPOSED MARGINALIZATION FROM THE PEACE PROCESS AND THE PRESS CONTINUED TO PRAISE SERRANO'S INITIATIVE. END SUMMARY.

A URNG REPLY, OF SORTS, TO AN OLD PROPOSAL

3. MAJOR DAILIES HEADLINED JANUARY 20 A STATEMENT MADE IN EUROPE BY JORGE ROSAL, IDENTIFIED IN THE PRESS AS THE URNG EUROPEAN SPOKESPERSON. DRAWING FROM A DPA BONN DISPATCH, THE MEDIA REPORTED THAT THE ROSAL SAID THE URNG WAS READY TO SIGN A HUMAN RIGHTS ACCORD, BUT

REJECTED ANY TIME LIMITS "IMPOSED ON THE CIVILIAN GOVERNMENT BY THE ARMY." NOTING THAT "THE URNG'S GENERAL COMMAND HAD NOT YET OFFICIALLY RESPONDED" TO SERRANO'S PROPOSAL GIVEN IT "TWO WEEKS BACK" BY QUEZADA, HE CONTINUED THAT THE "GOVERNMENT WANTS TO CREATE THE FALSE IMPRESSION THAT HUMAN RIGHTS ARE RESPECTED IN GUATEMALA AND THAT IT IS INTERESTED IN THEM AND THAT THERE IS PROGRESS IN THE NEGOTIATIONS" IN ORDER TO DEFLECT A NEGATIVE UNHRC JUDGMENT.

4. ROSAL ADDED THAT CALLING FOR A PEACE ACCORD BY MAY 15 WAS UNREALISTIC SINCE THE REMAINING ISSUES TO BE DEALT WITH ARE "FUNDAMENTAL." INDICATING THAT HE WAS WORKING FROM THE OFFER QUEZADA DELIVERED TO THE COMANDANTES, (AND IGNORING THAT THE REVISED SERRANO PROPOSAL DROPPED THE DEMAND FOR URNG DEMOBILIZATION AFTER MAY 15), ROSAL SAID THAT "THE PRESIDENTIAL OFFER SAYS THAT IN CASE THERE IS (NO ACCORD) SIGNED BY THAT (MAY 15) DATE, THE URNG WILL COMMIT ITSELF TO IMMEDIATELY DEMOBILIZE AND UNILATERALLY CEASE ALL ACTIONS."

5. SUCH A CONDITION, ROSAL REITERATED, "IS UNACCEPTABLE FOR A REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT THAT HAS STRUGGLED FOR THIRTY YEARS TO IMPROVE CONDITIONS IN THE COUNTRY." HE CLOSED, THOUGH, BY STATING THAT "IF THE TWO (ABOVE) OBSTACLES ARE REMOVED, WITHOUT ADDING FURTHER UNACCEPTABLE CONDITIONS, THE URNG IS WELL DISPOSED TO SIGN" A HUMAN RIGHTS ACCORD.

RIGOBERTA AND THE ESTADO MAYOR AGREE?

6. IN ANOTHER PEACE PROCESS DEVELOPMENT, RIGOBERTA MENCHU HELD A JANUARY 19 PRESS CONFERENCE LAMBASTING THE GOG FOR ITS SUPPOSED MARGINALIZATION OF QUEZADA FROM THE PEACE PROCESS. ECHOING BISHOP PENADOS (REF), SHE SAID THAT SERRANO'S ACTIONS THREATEN THE WHOLE PEACE PROCESS. IN A STATEMENT, MENCHU CONCLUDED THAT SERRANO COULD NOT MANAGE THE LOCAL PEACE NEGOTIATIONS LIKE CRISTIANI MANAGED HIS, SINCE "THE TWO PROCESSES ARE TOTALLY DIFFERENT."

DOMESTIC REACTION CONTINUES VERY POSITIVE

7. LOCAL REACTION TO THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVE CONTINUED HEAVILY FAVORABLE. TWO OF THE THREE MORNING DAILIES AGAIN EDITORIALIZED IN SERRANO'S FAVOR. ALLUDING TO PENADOS AND RIGOBERTA'S COMMENTS ON QUEZADA, "PRENSA LIBRE" MADE THE POINT THAT IT DID NOT MATTER HOW A PEACE PACT WAS REACHED, ONLY THAT IT BE SIGNED AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE.

COMMENT: STILL WAITING

8. AS ROSAL HIMSELF GRANTS, HIS WORD IS NOT AUTHORITATIVE, EVEN MORE SO SINCE HE IS OBVIOUSLY RESPONDING TO THE ORIGINAL GOG PROPOSAL, NOT THE REVISED OFFER DROPPING THE DEMOBILIZATION DEMAND. APPARENTLY, THE UNCHARACTERISTICALLY QUIET MEXICO-BASED COMANDANTES ARE HAVING SOME TROUBLE GINNING-UP A RESPONSE TO SERRANO'S NEW INITIATIVE. IF THEY CHOSE TO STALL FOR TIME, THEY COULD FALL BACK ON PROCEDURAL COMPLAINT THAT THE REVISED PROPOSAL WAS NOT FORWARDED VIA QUEZADA (A LA RIGO AND PENADOS).

SUBJECT: REFUGEE RETURN: THE ODYSSEY AND THE CONFRONTATIONS CONTINUE

REF: GUATEMALA 784

1. (C) SUMMARY: AN ESTIMATED 2,500 GUATEMALAN REFUGEES RETURNED TO GUATEMALA FROM MEXICO ON JANUARY 22. THE RETURN WAS WITHOUT MAJOR INCIDENT, WAS RELATIVELY WELL ORGANIZED (BY GUATEMALAN STANDARDS), BUT GENERATED CONFRONTATIONS BETWEEN THE PERMANENT COMMISSIONS OF REFUGEES (CPS) AND THE GOG'S COMMITTEE FOR REFUGEE AFFAIRS (CEAR). THE CPS CHARGE CEAR WITH FAILING TO PROTECT THE CONSTITUTIONAL AND HUMAN RIGHTS OF THE RETURNEES, WHILE CEAR CLAIMS THE CPS FAILED TO CARRY OUT THEIR RESPONSIBILITIES TO PROVIDE AN ACCURATE LIST OF THE RETURNEES, WHICH UNNECESSARILY COMPLICATED THE PROCESSING OF THE RETURNEES. BY LATE JANUARY 22, TALKS BETWEEN CEAR AND THE CPS HAD BEEN SUSPENDED, BUT THIS HAS NOT ALTERED THE REFUGEES' PLANS TO CONTINUE TO COBAN ON JANUARY 25. EFFORTS APPEAR TO BE UNDERWAY FOR THE CPS TO CLAIM THEY WERE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR CHOOSING THE LONGER ROUTE, WHICH HAS THE REFUGEES' PASSAGE BLOCKED NORTH OF COBAN BY IMPASSABLE ROADS. THE RETURNEES ARRIVED IN GUATEMALA CITY LATE JANUARY 23 AND WERE THE CENTER OF ATTRACTION AT SEVERAL CIVIC DEMONSTRATIONS, AND AN OPEN-AIR MASS, ON JANUARY 24. NO INCIDENTS HAVE BEEN REPORTED THUS FAR AS THE CARAVAN MAKES ITS WAY THROUGH GUATEMALA.

2. (C) THE QUICKNESS OF THE CPS IN CLAIMING THAT RETURNEE RIGHTS WERE BEING VIOLATED MAY MARK THEIR DETERMINATION TO MAINTAIN CONTROL OVER THE RETURN PROCESS, AND NOT ALLOW THE ORGANIZATIONS WHICH WERE DEVELOPED IN MEXICO TO DISSIPATE NOW THAT THE REFUGEES ARE BACK IN GUATEMALA. UNFORTUNATELY, THIS AGGRESSIVE ATTITUDE HAS CAUSED THE GOG TO SUSPEND FURTHER TALKS WITH THE CPS. THEIR MANIPULATION OF THE RETURN MAY WELL HARM THEIR CREDIBILITY EXCEPT AMOUNG THEIR MOST DIE-HARD SUPPORTERS. END SUMMARY.

THE ODYSSEY

3. (U) THE FIRST MASSIVE RETURN OF GUATEMALAN REFUGEES FROM MEXICO TOOK PLACE WITHOUT MAJOR INCIDENT. ACCORDING TO SEVERAL SOURCES, THE NIGHT PRIOR TO THE RETURN WAS EXTREMELY HECTIC, MAINLY BECAUSE THE PERMANENT COMMISSIONS OF REFUGEES (CPS) HAD NOT PROVIDED AN ACCURATE LIST OF THOSE RETURNING. IN THE EARLY MORNING HOURS OF JANUARY 22, AGREEMENT WAS FINALLY REACHED THAT THE CARAVAN OF BUSES FROM MEXICO WOULD ENTER GUATEMALA DESPITE THE LACK OF A LIST OF THOSE RETURNING. AT THE BORDER TOWN OF LA MESILLA, WHERE THE PAN AMERICAN HIGHWAY PASSES THROUGH A NARROW CANYON CONNECTING MEXICO AND GUATEMALA, SEVERAL HUNDRED OBSERVERS (INCLUDING POLOFF AND USAIDOFF), ON-LOOKERS, AND PRESS REPRESENTATIVES AWAITED THE RETURNEES. THE MEDIATOR GROUP WAS PRESENT, BUT THERE WERE NO INDICATIONS THAT SENIOR GOG OFFICIALS WERE ON HAND.

4. (U) WHILE ALL APPEARED CALM, THERE WERE INDICATIONS THAT CONTROVERSY WAS STILL PRESENT. WHEN NOBEL PRIZE WINNER RIGOBERTA MENCHU ARRIVED WITH THE FRENCH AMBASSADOR, SHE IMMEDIATELY ENTERED INTO AN ANIMATED DISCUSSION WITH MEDIATOR GROUP LEADER BISHOP AVILA OVER HER PLANS TO STOP THE CARAVAN AT THE BORDER FOR A WELCOMING CEREMONY. THE BISHOP NOTED THAT AGREEMENT HAD EARLIER BEEN REACHED BY THE MEDIATOR GROUP THAT THE CARAVAN WOULD PROCEED WITHOUT STOPPING TO HUEHUETENANGO. HE ARGUED THAT STOPPING THE CARAVAN ON THIS NARROW ROAD WAS UNWISE, AS THERE WAS NO PLACE ADEQUATE FOR THE CEREMONY TO TAKE PLACE. MENCHU INSISTED, HOWEVER, AND IT WAS FINALLY AGREED THE CARAVAN WOULD STOP WHILE SHE MADE A SPEECH TO THE FIRST BUSLOAD OF RETURNEES. EMBOFFS WITNESSED THE CONFUSION AND DISCOMFORT THIS THIRTY MINUTE STOP CAUSED IN THE BUSES AT THE END OF THE LINE, WHERE FEW APPEARED TO UNDERSTAND THE REASON FOR THE DELAY AND WHERE THE HOT SUN CAUSED SOME OBVIOUS DISCOMFORT. THE CARAVAN FINALLY DEPARTED THE BORDER TOWN ONE HOUR AFTER THE FIRST BUS ENTERED GUATEMALA.

5. (U) THE 66-BUS CARAVAN, ACCOMPANIED BY SOME 70/75 OTHER VEHICLES CONTAINING OBSERVERS, RED CROSS, POLICE UNITS, PRESS, AND A COUPLE OF TRUCKS HAULING COFFEE BEANS TO MARKET, PROCEEDED TO HUEHUETENANGO. THIS ONE-HOUR DRIVE TOOK JUST OVER THREE HOURS DUE TO PROBLEMS WITH AT LEAST FOUR BUSES, BUT THE PRESENCE OF SEVERAL EXTRA BUSES ALLOWED THE CARAVAN TO MOVE ON ONCE THE RETURNEES WERE TRANSFERRED FROM ONE BUS TO ANOTHER. THE GUATEMALAN POLICE DID A CREDIBLE JOB IN MAINTAINING CONTROL OVER THE CARAVAN, BUT COULD DO LITTLE TO KEEP PRESS VEHICLES FROM IGNORING DISCIPLINE. THERE WERE SMALL CLUSTERS OF PEOPLE SCATTERED ALONG THE CANYON ROAD

TO GREET THE RETURNEES, OR TO SIMPLY GAWK. THE ATMOSPHERE WAS FRIENDLY AND FESTIVE. THERE WAS NO VISIBLE MILITARY PRESENCE ANYWHERE.

6. (U) THE CARAVAN ARRIVED AT THE RETURNEE RECEPTION CENTER AT 3:30 P.M. AND ENTERED VIA THE ROAD WHICH PASSES THE LARGE MILITARY CAMP LOCATED CLOSE TO THE RECEPTION CENTER. BECAUSE OF THE NARROW ROAD AND THE SLOW UNLOADING OF THE BUSES AT THE RECEPTION CENTER, A NUMBER OF BUSES WERE FORCED TO STOP BESIDE THE MILITARY CAMP, A DELAY WHICH WE UNDERSTAND CAUSED SOME ANXIETY AMOUNG THE RETURNEES. THE UNLOADING PROCESS WAS LENGTHY MAINLY BECAUSE SEVERAL MEXICAN BUS DRIVERS NEEDED TO MAKE A PIT STOP AND LEFT THEIR BUSES BLOCKING THE UNLOADING AREA. A NUMBER OF UNHCR AND CEAR PEOPLE WERE ON HAND TO DIRECT THE RETURNEES TO THE DINING AREA, WHERE HOT MEALS WERE AVAILABLE, OR TO SLEEPING AREAS.

THE PROCESSING OF THE RETURNEES ALSO APPEARED TO GET UNDERWAY VERY QUICKLY.

7. (U) THE RETURN HAD A NORMAL AMOUNT OF CONFUSION AND CHAOS, DUE TO THE LARGE NUMBER OF PEOPLE INVOLVED. THIS RECEPTION CENTER IS DESIGNED TO HANDLE 400 TO 500 RETURNEES AT A TIME, NOT THE 2,500 IN THIS MASSIVE CARAVAN. TWO LARGE CIRCUS-TYPE TENTS WERE SET UP, ONE TO SUPPLEMENT THE SMALL CAFETERIA AND ONE TO HOUSE THOSE RETURNEES WHO COULD NOT FIND SPACE IN THE RECEPTION CENTER. A NUMBER OF SMALL FAMILY-SIZE TENTS WERE ALSO AVAILABLE FROM THE GUATEMALA RED CROSS. VARIOUS INTERNATIONAL MEDICAL ASSISTANCE TEAMS WERE ON HAND TO MAN THE CENTER'S MEDICAL UNIT. DUE TO COMPLAINTS BY THE CPS, A NUMBER OF MEDIUM-SIZE MILITARY TENTS HAD BEEN DISMANTLED PRIOR TO THE ARRIVAL OF THE RETURNEES, WITH THE CPS ARGUING THAT HOUSING THE RETURNEES IN THESE

TENTS WOULD INCREASE THEIR ANXIETIES ABOUT COMING BACK TO GUATEMALA. THIS DECISION, HOWEVER, CAUSED A NUMBER OF RETURNEES TO REMAIN OUTSIDE OF THE AVAILABLE SHELTERS. WHEN CEAR OFFERED TO RE-PITCH THESE TENTS, AFTER IT WAS CLEAR THAT INSUFFICIENT SHELTER WAS AVAILABLE, THE CPS REITERATED THEIR REFUSAL TO USE THE MILITARY TENTS. THE MEDIATOR GROUP WAS THEN FACED WITH THE NEED, LATE THAT EVENING, OF FINDING PLASTIC SHEETS WITH WHICH TO FASHION MAKE-SHIFT TENTS FOR THOSE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD.

THE CONFRONTATIONS

8. (U) EARLY JANUARY 23 THE CPS REPRESENTATIVES HELD A PRESS CONFERENCE AT THE RECEPTION CENTER TO AIR THEIR GRIEVANCES AGAINST THE MANNER IN WHICH CEAR WAS HANDLING THE RETURN. THEY CHARGED CEAR WITH VIOLATING THE CONSTITUTIONAL AND HUMAN RIGHTS OF THE RETURNEES, AND WITH FAILING TO CARRY OUT THE RESPONSIBILITIES ASSIGNED CEAR IN THE OCTOBER 1992 AGREEMENT ON THE RETURN AND THE JANUARY ACCORD ON THE CARAVAN.

9. (U) THE CPS LISTED EIGHT SPECIFIC COMPLAINTS ASSOCIATED WITH THE MOVEMENT OF THE CARAVAN, THE CONDITIONS AT THE RECEPTION CENTER, AND THE REFUSAL TO ALLOW THE RETURNEES TO PARTICIPATE IN A WELCOME-HOME CEREMONY AT THE HUEHUETENANGO CENTRAL PLAZA. THEY CLAIMED CEAR, AND THE GOG, WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE FAILURE TO HOLD A WELCOMING CEREMONY AT THE BORDER CROSSING (SIC), SHOWED LACK OF SENSITIVITY BY ROUTING THE CARAVAN PAST THE MILITARY BASE AND FOR USING MILITARY TENTS AND MEDICAL PERSONNEL AT THE RECEPTION CENTER, FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE SUFFICIENT SHELTERS FOR

THE RETURNEES, FOR REFUSING TO ALLOW THE RETURNEES TO LEAVE THE CAMP OR TO PERMIT VISITORS TO ENTER THE CAMP, AND FOR GENERALLY OPERATING THE CENTER AS A CONCENTRATION CAMP. COMPLAINTS WERE MADE AS WELL ABOUT THE QUALITY AND QUANTITY OF THE FOOD, FOR THE LACK OF ADEQUATE SANITARY FACILITIES, AND FOR NOT PROVIDING SUFFICIENT BLANKETS.

10. (U) THE CPS TERMED CEAR'S ATTITUDE INFLEXIBLE, WHILE THE CPS CLAIMED THEY HAD DISPLAYED AMPLE

FLEXABILITY IN TRYING TO RESOLVE THE PROBLEMS RELATED TO THE RETURN. THEY URGED THE MEDIATOR GROUP TO TAKE ALL NECESSARY ACTIONS TO INSURE THAT CEAR COMPLIES WITH ITS RESPONSIBILITIES, AND THREATENED TO TAKE UNSPECIFIED PROTEST ACTIONS IF CEAR DID NOT RESOLVE THE CPS' DEMANDS.

11. (U) THIS WAS FOLLOWED BY A SPEECH FROM RIGOBERTA MENCHU TO THE RETURNEES. LIKE THE CPS REPRESENTATIVES, SHE THANKED THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT, THE MEXICAN REFUGEE AFFAIRS ORGANIZATION (COMAR), THE UNHCR, THE CHURCHES, THE NGOS, AND OTHER INTERNATIONAL OBSERVERS FOR THEIR ASSISTANCE IN THIS FIRST STEP BY THE RETURNEES BACK INTO GUATEMALA. LIKE THE CPS, SHE MADE NO ATTEMPT TO THANK EITHER THE GOG OR CEAR. FOR EXAMPLE, AFTER SHE ASKED THE CHILDREN IF THEY WANTED FOOTBALLS TO PLAY WITH, SHE ASKED IF THEY WANTED THEM FROM CEAR OR ACNUR (THE SPANISH ACRONYM FOR THE UNHCR). ONLY AFTER SOME PRODING DID SOME VOICES CALL FOR ACNUR TO PROVIDE THE BALLS.

12. (U) MENCHU THEN TOLD THE RETURNEES THEY WOULD HEAR

A LOT ABOUT THE ROUTE SELECTED FOR THEIR TRIP TO POLIGONO 14, THEIR FINAL DESTINATION. SHE SAID THIS WAS NOT THE ROUTE SELECTED BY RIGOBERTA MENCHU, NOR WAS IT THE ROUTE SELECTED BY THE PERMANENT COMMISSIONS, AND SHE CAUTIONED THE RETURNEES TO UNDERSTAND THIS POINT. THE ROUTE WAS THAT USED BY ALL GUATEMALANS TO RETURN TO GUATEMALA, AND WAS BEING USED TO SHOW THAT THE RETURNEES WERE NOT "SNEAKING" BACK INTO THEIR HOME LAND. (NOTE: SHE DID NOT, HOWEVER, SAY WHO DID SELECT THIS ROUTE. SHE LEFT THE IMPRESSION THAT THE ROUTE WAS NOT IN GOOD CONDITION, AND THE RETURNEES WOULD FACE FURTHER TRIALS AND TRIBULATIONS IN THEIR JOURNEY TO POLIGONO 14.)

13. (U) MENCHU WARNED THE RETURNEES THAT THEY WOULD ALSO HAVE DIFFICULTIES AT POLIGONO 14, AND ADVISED THEM TO EXPECT THE SAME BARE CONDITIONS THEY FACED WHEN THEY FIRST FLED GUATEMALA TO MEXICO. SHE URGED THEM TO CONTINUE TO WORK TOGETHER TO CONSTRUCT HOUSES AND A NEW LIFE, AND TO BEAR THE UNCOMFORTS ASSOCIATED WITH BEING PIONEERS. SHE ALSO ASKED FOR PATIENCE IN PUTTING UP WITH THE "SEMI-CONCENTRATION CAMP" CONDITIONS OF THE RECEPTION CENTER. SHE FURTHER NOTED THAT THE MAJORITY OF THIS FIRST GROUP OF RETURNEES WERE FROM THE HUEHUETENANGO ETHNIC GROUP (THE MAM), AND SHE URGED THEM TO MAINTAIN THEIR UNITY WITH THOSE WHO HAD SHARED EXILE WITH THEM IN MEXICO.

4. EMBASSY REACTION: MINUTES AFTER THE CALL, AMCIT TEAM MEMBER [redacted] CALLED HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICER TO REPORT THE INCIDENT AND REQUEST A MEETING. HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICER OFFERED TO MEET IMMEDIATELY, BUT [redacted] PREFERRED A MEETING THE FOLLOWING MORNING. AT 08:00 ON JANUARY 26, [redacted] AND AMCIT [redacted] [redacted] CALLED ON POLCOUNS AND HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICER. [redacted] SAID THEY WANTED THE EMBASSY TO BE AWARE OF THE INCIDENT, BUT DID NOT WANT THE USG TO TAKE ACTION FOR THE TIME BEING. THEY ASKED EMBOFFS TO

NEITHER PUBLICIZE NOR APPROACH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ABOUT THE INCIDENT. THEY AGREED TO CONTACT EMBOFFS IMMEDIATELY IF ANOTHER INCIDENT OCCURRED OR IF THEY FELT IN DANGER FOR WHATEVER REASON.

5. ISOLATED INCIDENT: ACCORDING TO [redacted] [redacted] THE CALL WAS THE FIRST THREAT RECEIVED FOR SOME TIME. DURING THE WAVE OF BOMBINGS THAT CAUSED NERVOUSNESS IN THE CAPITAL IN MAY 1992, AN ANONYMOUS INDIVIDUAL CALLED THE HOUSE WITH NEWS OF A BOMB IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD ("EN SU LOCAL"). THAT WAS THE FIRST THREAT RECEIVED SINCE 1989, WHEN PEACE BRIGADES TEAM MEMBERS RECEIVED 4 DEATH THREATS, A BOMB EXPLODED AT THE TEAM'S HOUSE (IN A DIFFERENT LOCATION) ON AUGUST 15, AND 3 TEAM MEMBERS (INCLUDING 1 AMCIT) WERE WOUNDED IN A DECEMBER 20 KNIFING INCIDENT.

6. MOTIVE UNCLEAR: [redacted] HAD NO LEADS REGARDING MOTIVES FOR THE JANUARY 25 CALL. THE 11-MEMBER PEACE BRIGADES TEAM HAS BEEN INVOLVED IN A VARIETY OF HIGH-PROFILE HUMAN RIGHTS CASES, ANY ONE OF WHICH COULD EXPLAIN THE CALL. IN RECENT WEEKS, TEAM MEMBERS HAVE ACCOMPANIED REFUGEES RETURNING FROM MEXICO, NOBEL-PRIZE WINNER RIGOBERTA MENCHU, THE WIDOWS' ORGANIZATION CONAVIGUA, CERJ LEADER AMILCAR MENDEZ, COMMUNITIES IN RESISTANCE (CPR) LEADERS RESIDING IN GUATEMALA CITY, AND THE MUTUAL SUPPORT GROUP (GAM).

E.O. 12356: DECL:OADR
TAGS: PHUM, PGOV, GT,
SUBJECT: GUATEMALAN REACTION TO USG HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT

REF: GUATEMALA 0889

1. (LOU) SUMMARY: THE ANNUAL USG HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT FOR GUATEMALA ELICITED A LUKEWARM REACTION FROM GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS. A LEADING GUATEMALA CITY NEWSPAPER PRAISED THE REPORT'S OBJECTIVITY. END SUMMARY.

GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN

2. (U) REFTEL REPORTED THE GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT'S MUTED REACTION TO THE ANNUAL USG HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT. GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN ARTURO ALVARADO CHARACTERIZED THE REPORT AS POSITIVE IN JANUARY 28 COMMENTS TO REPORTERS. ALVARADO SAID HE WAS PLEASED BY USG RECOGNITION OF IMPROVEMENTS OVER THE YEAR BEFORE. "EL GRAFICO," A GUATEMALA CITY DAILY NEWSPAPER, NOTED THAT REACTION IN A JANUARY 21 ARTICLE.

INTERIOR MINISTER

3. (U) THERE WAS NO FURTHER GOVERNMENT COMMENT UNTIL THE JANUARY 26 EDITION OF THE "TELEPRENSA" NEWS PROGRAM AIRED THE FOLLOWING COMMENTS BY INTERIOR MINISTER FRANCISCO PERDOMO SANDOVAL:

4. (U) BEGIN TRANSLATION OF EXCERPTED TELEVISED COMMENTS: "IN COUNTRIES LIKE OURS (OBSERVERS) ATTACK US BY SIMPLY MAKING MANY, MANY COMPLAINTS OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. (THEY SAY) EVERYONE HERE SUFFERS

VIOLATIONS BY PUBLIC FORCES, BUT WHEN THEY ATTACK THE POLICE OR THE SECURITY FORCES, THERE IS NO CONVICTION OR ACCUSATION ... (I AM NOT SAYING) THE (STATE DEPARTMENT REPORT) IS WRONG. IN GUATEMALA, WE HAVE SAID VERY CLEARLY THAT WE ARE IMPROVING THE SITUATION.

GUATEM 01804 00 OF 02 272111Z 005700 S047493

NOR CAN I TELL YOU THAT THE GUATEMALAN SECURITY FORCES ARE NOT COMMITTING HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS BECAUSE FIRINGS OF CERTAIN POLICEMEN ARE PROOF OF ACTS COMMITTED OUTSIDE THE LAW. BUT WHAT SEEMS UNFAIR TO ME IS THAT THEY SAY THAT ONLY IN GUATEMALA AND OTHER DEVELOPING COUNTRIES, OR THE SECURITY FORCES, ARE THOSE WHO COMMIT HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. IN THAT SENSE, I AM NOT CONTRADICTING THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S OPINION. I RESPECT THE OPINION OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. BUT I JUST DO NOT BELIEVE THAT IT IS FAIR TO ACCUSE GUATEMALA WITH THE SOLE PURPOSE OF SINGLING OUT GUATEMALA FOR ACCUSATIONS. ONE HAS TO NOTE THAT, IN SPITE OF THEIR OBSERVATIONS, THE SAME STATE DEPARTMENT IS RECOGNIZING THE IMPROVEMENTS UNDER THE SERRANO ELIAS ADMINISTRATION." END INFORMAL TRANSLATION.

5. (LOU) "LA HORA," ANOTHER GUATEMALA CITY DAILY, REPORTED PERDOMO'S STATEMENT IN AN ARTICLE HEADLINED "INTERIOR REJECTS STATE DEPARTMENT REPORT." THE "LA HORA" ARTICLE NOTED PERDOMO'S CRITICISMS OF THE USG REPORT WITHOUT INCLUDING FAVORABLE COMMENTS. WE THUS BELIEVE "LA HORA" INCORRECTLY CONVEYED THE SPIRIT OF PERDOMO'S REMARKS.

"LA HORA"

6. (U) THE JANUARY 26 EDITION OF "LA HORA" INCLUDED A SPECIAL INSERT SECTION WITH THE FULL SPANISH-LANGUAGE TEXT OF THE USG REPORT. THE INSERT, HEADLINED "DOCUMENTS FOR HISTORY," INCLUDED AN INTRODUCTION PREPARED BY NEWSPAPER STAFF. THE INTRODUCTION DESCRIBED RIGHTS EXAMINED IN THE REPORT, AND NOTED THAT IT DREW ON A WIDE VARIETY OF PUBLIC AND PRIVATE SOURCES. "LA HORA" PUBLISHED NO ANALYSIS OF THE TEXT.

"PRENSA LIBRE"

7. (U) THE ONLY SUBSTANTIVE PRESS COMMENTS ON THE REPORT APPEARED IN THE JANUARY 27 EDITION OF THE DAILY NEWSPAPER "PRENSA LIBRE." THE FIRST SENTENCE OF "PRENSA LIBRE'S" LEAD EDITORIAL CLAIMED "THE STATE DEPARTMENT REPORT ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN GUATEMALA IS DESTINED TO BECOME ONE OF THE MOST FAMOUS OF THE PAST FEW YEARS DUE TO THE OBJECTIVITY WITH WHICH IT TREATS THE PROBLEM AND ITS WORLDWIDE DISTRIBUTION." THE EDITORIAL REPRODUCED STATISTICS ON 1992 POLITICAL MURDERS, AND SPECIFICALLY MENTIONED USG TREATMENT OF THE MARITZA URRUTIA AND AMILCAR MENDEZ CASES. GOVERNMENT REPRESSION OF JOURNALISTS RECEIVED SPECIAL MENTION AS WELL. WE UNDERSTAND "PRENSA LIBRE" WILL PUBLISH AN IN-DEPTH ANALYSIS ON SUNDAY, JANUARY 31.

COMMENT: SO FAR, SO GOOD

8. (C) WE ARE PLEASED BY REACTION TO DATE. WE HOPE COMMENTS OF ALVARADO AND PERDOMO REFLECT GOVERNMENT

RELUCTANCE TO MAKE A BILATERAL ISSUE OVER REPORT FINDINGS. ALVARADO REACTED POSITIVELY, WHILE PERDOMO TOOK PAINS NOT TO REACT OVERLY NEGATIVELY. MOREOVER, PRESIDENT SERRANO MET AND SPOKE WITH CHARGE AT A JANUARY 23 MILITARY CEREMONY, BUT THE REPORT NEVER CAME UP DURING THE CONVERSATION. OUR CONCERN IS THAT HEAVY PRESS PLAY -- HOWEVER WELL-MEANING -- WILL PUSH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS INTO OVERREACTING.

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PHUM, GT
SUBJECT: GUATEMALAN ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE 1992 HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT

1. (U) SUMMARY: THE ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE 1992 REPORT DECLARES THAT PEACE IS THE KEY TO LONG-TERM IMPROVEMENT IN THE GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION. DESPITE ONGOING CONCERNS ABOUT MILITARY ABUSES, JUDICIAL INEFFICIENCY, GOVERNMENT INTOLERANCE, AND OTHER VIOLATIONS, ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE STATISTICS SHOW "SUBSTANTIALLY FEWER" HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES IN 1992. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) THE GUATEMALAN ARCHBISHOP'S HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE HAS JUST RELEASED ITS HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT FOR 1992. THE REPORT, WHICH FOCUSSES PRIMARILY ON THE LAST SIX MONTHS OF THE YEAR, OPENS WITH A THEORETICAL DISCUSSION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE AS PRIMARY GUARANTOR. IT NOTES INTERNATIONAL RECOGNITION GIVEN RIGOBERTA MENCHU, HELEN MACK, AND RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO BEFORE DISCUSSING DOMESTIC DEVELOPMENTS.

PEACE IS KEY

3. (U) ACCORDING TO THE ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE, PEACE IS THE KEY TO IMPROVING THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION. NEGOTIATIONS CONTINUED THROUGHOUT 1992, BUT THERE WERE MANY "DIFFICULT MOMENTS" DUE TO "INTRANSIGENT POSITIONS" OF BOTH SIDES. THE RETURN OF SOME 4,000 REFUGEES SHOWED BOTH THE "VIABILITY OF NEGOTIATED SOLUTIONS" AND LATENT POLARIZATION IN SOCIETY.

4. (U) THE REPORT CRITICIZES VIOLATIONS BY BOTH ARMY AND URNG COMBATANTS. THE ARMY IS BLAMED FOR

BOMBARDMENT OF COMMUNITIES IN RESISTANCE AND ABUSES BY MILITARY COMMISSIONERS. GUERRILLA VIOLATIONS INCLUDED DESTRUCTION OF INFRASTRUCTURE (A CHART LISTS ELECTRIC

GUATEM 01869 00 OF 02 282214Z 007816 $063887
TOWERS DESTROYED AND THE VALUE OF EACH), AND INDISCRIMINATE MINING OF CIVILIAN AREAS. BOTH SIDES COMMITTED RECRUITMENT VIOLATIONS: THE ARMY ADOPTED REFORMS NOT ALWAYS IMPLEMENTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH LEGAL PROCEDURES, AND GUERRILLAS RECRUITED UNDERAGE CHILDREN.

JUDICIAL ABUSES

5. (U) THE INEFFICIENT JUDICIAL SYSTEM PERMITTED IMPUNITY TO CONTINUE. DILATORY TACTICS AND THREATS TO JUDICIAL PERSONNEL UNDERMINED EFFORTS TO ACHIEVE JUSTICE. THE REPORT CRITICIZED THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE FOR PROSECUTING CERTAIN POLITICAL CASES. IN AN APPARENT REFERENCE TO THE MARITZA URRUTIA CASE, THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE IS FAULTED FOR NOT CONDUCTING FULL INVESTIGATIONS AFTER UNSPECIFIED GUERRILLA PARTISANS APPLIED FOR AND RECEIVED OFFICIAL AMNESTY.

INTOLERANCE

6. (U) "INTOLERANCE TOWARD THE WORK OF DIFFERENT INSTITUTIONS AND SECTORS, PRINCIPALLY THOSE IN THE POPULAR SECTOR, DOMINATED THE POLITICAL SITUATION DURING THE LAST SIX MONTHS OF THE YEAR." SUCH INTOLERANCE, A "SERIOUS SETBACK," OFTEN TOOK THE FORM OF ACCUSATIONS AGAINST HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS. BOTH THE CIVIL WAR AND "ALARMING" CRIMINAL VIOLENCE CREATED ADDITIONAL INSTABILITY IN THE NATION'S SECURITY CLIMATE.

STATISTICS

7. (U) THE REPORT INCLUDES STATISTICS SHOWING "SUBSTANTIALLY FEWER" POLITICAL VIOLATIONS IN 1992:

would be useful if we had '91 figures for comparison

8. (U) THE HUMAN RIGHTS CLIMATE IMPROVED QUANTITATIVELY, BUT REMAINED QUALITATIVELY TROUBLESOME

BECAUSE VIOLATIONS APPEARED DESIGNED TO SOW FEAR AMONG TARGETTED LEADERS AND GROUPS. IRONICALLY, COMMON MURDERS INCREASED WHILE POLITICAL KILLINGS DECREASED.

COMMENTS

9. (C) THE JANUARY 27 EDITION OF "LA HORA," AN AFTERNOON DAILY NEWSPAPER, QUOTED ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE DIRECTOR RONALTH OCHAETA AS REMARKING THAT HIS REPORT'S FINDINGS WERE SIMILAR TO THOSE OF THE U.S. EMBASSY. WE AGREE. THE ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE FINDS CAUSE FOR CONCERN IN VARIOUS AREAS, BUT NOTES A SHARP DROP IN VIOLATIONS.

10. (C) TWO OTHER POINTS ARE ALSO WORTH NOTING. FIRST, THE REPORT IS FILLED WITH GENERALIZATIONS, BUT FEW SPECIFICS. THE NAMES OF MYRNA MACK, AMILCAR MENDEZ, AND MARITZA URRUTIA, FOR EXAMPLE, ARE NOWHERE TO BE FOUND. THE DRAFTERS CLEARLY HAD CERTAIN CASES IN MIND, BUT READERS UNFAMILIAR WITH GUATEMALA WILL NOT CATCH OBLIQUE REFERENCES. SECOND, STATISTICS SHOW ONE CASE OF TORTURE. WHEN RELATIONS BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND THE ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE BECAME TENSE IN LATE 1992, OCHAETA TOLD REPORTERS (AND THE EMBASSY) HE WAS UNAWARE OF ANY 1992 TORTURE CASE. WE PLAN TO ASK HIM FOR CASE DETAILS THE NEXT TIME WE MEET PRIVATELY.

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PHUM, GT
SUBJECT: GUATEMALAN OMBUDSMAN'S 1992 HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT

KS - This, plus acknowledgment report will certainly suggest Sust. decisions to remain under them 21... RSJ

1. (U) SUMMARY: THE GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S 1992 REPORT FINDS THAT HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS DECREASED SIGNIFICANTLY DURING THE PAST YEAR. DESPITE QUANTITATIVE IMPROVEMENT, THE OMBUDSMAN REMAINS CONCERNED THAT QUALITITATIVE IMPROVEMENTS LAG FAR BEHIND, PARTICULARLY WITH REGARD TO ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL RIGHTS. END SUMMARY.

TYPES OF RIGHTS

2. (U) ON JANUARY 28, GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHT OMBUDSMAN RAMIRO DE LEON CARPIO PRESENTED HIS ANNUAL HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT TO THE GUATEMALAN CONGRESS. THE REPORT INCLUDES STATISTICS, CONCLUSIONS AND PROPOSALS. THE OMBUDSMAN DISTINGUISHES BETWEEN INDIVIDUAL, SOCIAL, CIVIC, AND POLITICAL RIGHTS. DE LEON ALSO DISTINGUISHES QUANTITATIVE FROM QUALITIATIVE ANALYSIS. THE REPORT RECOGNIZES QUANTITATIVE IMPROVEMENTS, BUT CRITICIZES THE GOVERNMENT FOR LACK OF QUALITATIVE PROGRESS, PARTICULARLY WITH REGARD TO ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL RIGHTS.

STATISTICS

3. (U) HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATION STATISTICS DECLINED SHARPLY IN 1992. THERE WERE 48 CONFIRMED EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, OF WHICH 36 WERE ATTRIBUTED TO GOVERNMENT FORCES AND 12 TO GUERRILLAS. (COMMENT: THE OMBUDSMAN'S MID-YEAR REPORT DISTINGUISHED BETWEEN POLITICAL MURDERS BY GOVERNMENT FORCES AND KILLINGS OF CRIMINAL SUSPECTS BY GOVERNMENT PERSONNEL. THE FINAL REPORT MAKES NO SUCH DISTINCTION. END COMMENT.)

ANOTHER 318 COMPLAINTS OF EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS REMAINED UNDER INVESTIGATION AT YEAR'S END.

4. (U) THE OMBUDSMAN CONFIRMED 18 FORCED

GUATEM 01898 00 OF 03 2915137 009266 S003899

DISAPPEARANCES, OF WHICH THE GOVERNMENT WAS BELIEVED RESPONSIBLE FOR 4 AND GUERRILLAS FOR 6. SOME 62 DISAPPEARANCE COMPLAINTS WERE PENDING INVESTIGATION AT YEAR'S END. THE MARITZA URRUTIA CASE IS THE ONLY DISAPPEARANCE CASE MENTIONED SPECIFICALLY. THE REPORT ALSO INCLUDES STATISTICS ON VIOLATIONS OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC RIGHTS SUCH AS THE RIGHT TO HEALTH, ENVIRONMENT, AND EDUCATION.

CONCLUSIONS: "INDIVIDUAL" RIGHTS

5. (U) VIOLATIONS OF "INDIVIDUAL" RIGHTS INCLUDE EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, FORCED KIDNAPPINGS, AND OTHER AREAS TRADITIONALLY OF GREATEST CONCERN TO THE USG. ABUSES DECREASED IN FREQUENCY, BUT STATISTICS "PROVE THAT LACK OF RESPECT FOR THE LIFE, DIGNITY, INTEGRITY, AND SECURITY OF THE PERSON NONETHELESS PERSISTS IN GUATEMALA." "THIS," THE REPORT OBSERVES, "IS MOST IMPORTANT IN ANALYZING THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN THE COUNTRY."

6. (U) THE REPORT CITES ARMED CONFLICT AND COMMON VIOLENCE AS CAUSES FOR ONGOING VIOLATIONS. THE WAR PROVIDES A PRETEXT FOR ABUSES AGAINST INDIVIDUALS AND NEEDLESS DESTRUCTION OF RESOURCES. COMMON CRIME HAD A "TREMENDOUSLY NEGATIVE IMPACT" ON THE PERSONAL SECURITY OF GUATEMALANS IN 1992. THE OMBUDSMAN FAULTS THE STATE FOR NOT CONTROLLING SOCIO-ECONOMIC FACTORS CAUSING VIOLENCE, AND CRITICIZES SECURITY PERSONNEL FOR USING EXCESSIVE FORCE. THE OMBUDSMAN BLAMES EXCESSIVE GOVERNMENT FORCE ON 2 FACTORS: GOVERNMENT ACTIONS INTERPRETED AS APPROVAL FOR SUCH ACTIONS, AND FAILURE TO CONTROL "REPRESSIVE GROUPS WHO CONTINUE ACTING OUTSIDE THE LAW." THE KILLING OF A SAN CARLOS UNIVERSITY STUDENT DURING "HUELGA DE DOLORES" CELEBRATIONS AND THE CAJOLA SQUATTER VIOLENT EVICTION FROM THE GUATEMALA CITY PLAZA RECEIVE SPECIAL MENTION IN THAT CONTEXT. IN ADDITION, THE OMBUDSMAN CRITICIZES GOVERNMENT EFFORTS TO CURB PRESS FREEDOMS AND LABOR UNION ACTIVITIES. THE REPORT ALSO NOTES PERSISTENT COMPLAINTS OF VIOLATIONS BY CIVIL PATROLS ("PAC'S").

CONCLUSIONS: SOCIAL, CIVIC & POLITICAL RIGHTS

7. (C) THE REPORT RE-EMPHASIZES DE LEON'S INTENTION TO GIVE INCREASING EMPHASIS TO VIOLATIONS OF ECONOMIC, SOCIAL, AND CULTURAL RIGHTS. (COMMENT: WE DISAGREE WITH THIS APPROACH AND WONDER ABOUT THE EXTENT TO WHICH DE LEON'S INTEREST IN THOSE RIGHTS IS LINKED TO FUTURE PRESIDENTIAL AMBITIONS. END COMMENT.) THE OMBUDSMAN CRITICIZES THE GOVERNMENT FOR NOT "INCORPORATING THE MAJORITY OF GUATEMALANS INTO THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT PROCESS." FORCED RECRUITMENT CASES ARE ALSO DISCUSSED IN THE CONTEXT OF "POLITICAL" RIGHTS. THE OMBUDSMAN ACCUSES BOTH THE GOVERNMENT AND GUERRILLAS OF FORCED RECRUITING VIOLATIONS.

PROPOSALS

GUATEMALA ARA 3

8. (U) THE REPORT ALSO PROPOSES:

-- DEADLINES: PRESIDENTIAL PREPARATION OF A TIMETABLE FOR ELIMINATING THE MOST FLAGRANT HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES (EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS, DISAPPEARANCES, ETC.)

-- NATIONAL COUNCIL: GOVERNMENT SUPPORT FOR A NATIONAL COUNCIL PRESIDED OVER BY THE OMBUDSMAN. VARIOUS SOCIAL SECTORS WOULD BE INVITED TO PRESENT

PROPOSALS ON HOW TO ENHANCE RESPECT FOR SOCIAL AND CULTURAL RIGHTS.

-- NEW ATTITUDES: HEIGHTENED RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS BY THE CONGRESSIONAL AND JUDICIAL BRANCH.

MILITARY REACTION

9. (U) INITIAL MILITARY REACTION TO DE LEON'S REPORT WAS NON-COMMITTAL. IN A JANUARY 28 INTERVIEW ON NATIONAL TELEVISION, DEFENSE MINISTER JOSE DOMINGO GARCIA SAMAYOA RE-ASSERTED MILITARY SUPPORT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE RULE OF LAW. GARCIA PROMISED TO REVIEW THE OMBUDSMAN'S REPORT CAREFULLY AND ISSUE UNSPECIFIED "CLARIFICATIONS," IF NECESSARY. WHEN ASKED FOR HIS REACTION TO ACCUSATIONS THAT BOTH THE ARMY AND GUERRILLAS COMMITTED HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN 1992, GARCIA DID NOT RESPOND DIRECTLY. HE BELIEVED OBSERVERS MUST DETERMINE WHO COMMITTED MORE VIOLATIONS, IMPLYING THAT GUERRILLAS WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR FAR MORE ABUSES THAN THE ARMY.

COMMENTS

10. (C) DE LEON'S FINDINGS COME AS LITTLE SURPRISE BECAUSE HE SHARED THEM WITH EMBOFFS WEEKS AGO IN PRIVATE CONVERSATIONS. WE NOTE, HOWEVER, THAT CONFIRMED YEAR-END STATISTICS ARE ONLY SLIGHTLY HIGHER THAN THOSE CONTAINED IN THE OMBUDSMAN'S REPORT FOR THE FIRST 6 MONTHS OF 1992 (E.G., 48 CONFIRMED EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS FOR THE FIRST 6 MONTHS VERSUS 48 FOR THE ENTIRE YEAR), WHILE CASES UNDER INVESTIGATION INCREASED SIGNIFICANTLY (E.G., 289 COMPLAINTS OF EXTRAJUDICIAL KILLINGS FOR THE FIRST 6 MONTHS VERSUS 318 FOR THE ENTIRE YEAR). THE FIRING OF THE OMBUDSMAN'S CHIEF INVESTIGATOR AT YEAR'S END MAY HAVE BEEN RELATED TO THE DISPROPORTIONATE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN CONFIRMED CASES AND THOSE STILL PENDING INVESTIGATION.

11. (C) WE HAD ADVANCE KNOWLEDGE OF THE OMBUDSMAN'S GENERAL FINDINGS, BUT RECEIVED NO NOTICE OF HIS PROPOSALS. WE UNDERSTAND DE LEON'S DESIRE TO SUGGEST CONCRETE STEPS FOR IMPROVING THE SITUATION, BUT FIND HIS PROPOSALS LACKING. WE WOULD BE VERY SURPRISED IF PRESIDENT SERRANO AGREED TO ESTABLISH AN ARBITRARY SET OF DEADLINES FOR ENDING HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES. SERRANO WOULD HAVE LITTLE TO GAIN -- AND A FAIR AMOUNT OF PRESTIGE TO LOSE -- IN DOING SO. MOREOVER, WE ARE CONFIDENT THE PRESIDENT HE WILL DO NOTHING TO PROVIDE DE LEON WITH A POLITICAL SPRINGBOARD IN THE FORM OF A "NATIONAL COUNCIL." THE OMBUDSMAN'S PROPOSAL THAT BRANCHES OF GOVERNMENT ADOPT "NEW ATTITUDES" IS CLEARLY WHAT IS NEEDED, BUT SAYING SO SIMPLY DESCRIBES THE PROBLEM, NOT A PROPOSAL FOR ITS SOLUTION. MEANWHILE, A (NOT NECESSARILY RELIABLE) SIGLO XXI POLL PUBLISHED JAN 29 (AND THEREFORE NOT INFLUENCED BY THE OMBUDSMAN'S REPORT) NOTES THAT 31 PERCENT CONSIDER THAT PRESIDENT SERRANO IS PROMOTING RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS -- AND 63 PERCENT THAT HE IS NOT.

SUBJECT: MACK MURDER TRIAL IN TROUBLE -- AGAIN

REF: A) GT 00511; B) 92 GT 013017; C) 92 GT 011476

1. CONFIDENTIAL -- ENTIRE TEXT.

2. THIS IS AN ACTION TELEGRAM -- SEE PARAS 19-22.

3. SUMMARY: NEW COMPLICATIONS IN THE MYRNA MACK CHANG MURDER TRIAL INCLUDE THE PENDING TRANSFER OF TRIAL JUDGE CARMEN ELLGUTER, RECENT THREATS TO TWO EYEWITNESSES, AND CHANGED TESTIMONY BY DEFENDANT NOEL DE JESUS BETETA ALVAREZ'S ARMY DOCTOR. HELEN MACK DOES NOT NOW EXPECT A TRIAL VERDICT UNTIL MARCH OR APRIL, AT THE EARLIEST. [redacted] END SUMMARY. B1

4. ON JANUARY 29, HELEN MACK CALLED ON HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICER TO DISCUSS RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN THE MYRNA MACK CHANG MURDER TRIAL. THE FOLLOWING REPORT DRAWS ON THEIR CONVERSATION.

VERDICT DELAYED

5. CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS AGAINST DEFENDANT NOEL DE JESUS BETETA ALVAREZ HAVE HIT NEW SNAGS. TRIAL JUDGE CARMEN ELLGUTER TOLD REPORTERS ON JANUARY 15 SHE HOPED TO ISSUE A VERDICT IN MID-FEBRUARY (REFTEL A), BUT THAT ASSESSMENT WAS OVERLY-OPTIMISTIC. AS DESCRIBED BELOW, HELEN PLANS TO FILE EVIDENTIARY APPEALS THAT SHOULD DELAY A DECISION BY AT LEAST A MONTH OR TWO.

JUDGE TRANSFERRED

6. THE PENDING TRANSFER OF ELLGUTER TO A HIGHER, APPELLATE COURT WILL ALSO DELAY PROCEEDINGS. ON JANUARY 28, THE GUATEMALAN CONGRESS APPROVED JUDICIAL PROMOTIONS RECOMMENDED BY THE JUDICIAL BRANCH LEADERSHIP. ELLGUTER WAS AMONG THOSE PROMOTED TO THE APPELLATE TRIBUNAL JUST BENEATH THE SUPREME COURT. ELLGUTER'S ROLE IN THE MACK CASE WILL PROBABLY COME TO AN END AFTER THE FIRST WEEK OF FEBRUARY.

7. HELEN PRAISES ELLGUTER'S PROFESSIONALISM, AND DOES NOT DOUBT HER PROMOTION QUALIFICATIONS. HELEN NONETHELESS QUESTIONS THE TIMING OF THE PROMOTION, WHICH CAME JUST TWO WEEKS BEFORE A VERDICT WAS EXPECTED. [redacted] B1

8. ELLGUTER'S PROMOTION WILL REQUIRE JUDICIAL BRANCH DESIGNATION OF A THIRTEENTH JUDGE IN THE MACK CASE. TRIAL COURT INVESTIGATIONS ARE ALMOST OVER, SO THE NEW JUDGE WILL BE REQUIRED ONLY TO RENDER A VERDICT. HELEN FEARS: (1) JUDICIAL BRANCH APPOINTMENT OF A BIASED OBSERVER; AND (2) THAT THE NEW JUDGE WILL LACK BACKGROUND KNOWLEDGE SUFFICIENT TO ISSUE AN INFORMED DECISION. HELEN HAS NO IDEA WHO THE NEW JUDGE MIGHT BE.

EYEWITNESSES THREATENED

9. HELEN REPORTED RECEIVING NO THREATS AND TOLD HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICER SHE HAD NO CURRENT REASON TO FEAR FOR HER PERSONAL SECURITY. NEVERTHELESS, TWO KEY EYEWITNESSES, JUAN CARLOS MARROQUIN TEJEDA AND JOSE TEJEDA ENRIQUEZ, HAVE RECEIVED THREATS WITHIN THE LAST WEEK. MARROQUIN PROVIDED EYEWITNESS TESTIMONY DURING AN OCTOBER 28, 1992 JUDICIAL RECONSTRUCTION OF THE MURDER (REFTEL C). TEJEDA HAS YET TO TESTIFY AND HIS CURRENT WHEREABOUTS ARE UNKNOWN.

10. ACCORDING TO HELEN, MARROQUIN SHOWED UP AT THE RECONSTRUCTION AND VOLUNTEERED TESTIMONY WITHOUT PRIOR NOTICE. HE TOLD ELLGUTER HE SAW MEN KILL MYRNA MACK, BUT DID NOT IDENTIFY BETETA. MARROQUIN'S DESCRIPTION OF THE ATTACKERS ACCORDS, HOWEVER, WITH A DESCRIPTION OF BETETA OFFERED BY RUBIO ARMADO CABALLEROS HERERRA. CABALLEROS IS THE FRIEND OF MYRNA MACK WHO SAW BETETA AT THE MURDER SCENE 15 MINUTES BEFORE HER DEATH.

11. HELEN TOLD HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICER THAT MARROQUIN AND TEJEDA BEGAN RECEIVING THREATS AT THEIR GUATEMALA CITY HOMES AFTER ELLGUTER PUBLICIZED PLANS TO TAKE ADDITIONAL EYEWITNESS TESTIMONY. ACCORDING TO HELEN, ELLGUTER SOUGHT TESTIMONY ONLY FROM TEJEDA, BUT HER REMARKS TO JOURNALISTS DO NOT SPECIFY WHICH OF THE TWO WITNESSES WOULD APPEAR.

12. IN ANY EVENT, HELEN PROVIDED HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICER WITH COPIES OF HANDWRITTEN LETTERS DELIVERED BY ANONYMOUS MEN TO BOTH MARROQUIN AND TEJEDA ON THE EVENING OF SUNDAY, JANUARY 24. THE LETTERS THREATEN TO KILL BOTH WITNESSES AND THEIR FAMILIES IF THEY TESTIFY. THEY ARE SIGNED BY THE "JACKSON GANG." [redacted] B1

13. ON JANUARY 28, ELLGUTER DENIED A REQUEST FOR COURT-ORDERED SECURITY PROTECTION FOR BOTH WITNESSES. HELEN SUBSEQUENTLY APPROACHED PRESIDENTIAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (COPREDEH) PRESIDENT BERNARDO NEUMANN -- WHO SHE KNOWS PERSONALLY FROM CHARITY WORK A DECADE AGO -- AND DEPUTY HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN EUGENIA MORALES DE SIERRA. NEUMANN PROMISED TO APPROACH THE PRESIDENT ABOUT THE SECURITY REQUEST, BUT HAD NOT RESPONDED BY THE MORNING OF JANUARY 29. MORALES PLEDGED TO BEGIN AN INVESTIGATION.

B1

14. [redacted] SAID SHE DID NOT KNOW THE CURRENT WHEREABOUTS OF EITHER MARROQUIN OR TEJEDA. SHE ASSUMED THEY WERE OUTSIDE GUATEMALA CITY, BUT HAD NOT INQUIRED BECAUSE SHE WANTED TO BE ABLE TO TESTIFY TRUTHFULLY THAT SHE DID NOT KNOW THEIR CURRENT LOCATION. [redacted]

B1

MEDICAL TESTIMONY CHANGED

15. MEANWHILE, ANOTHER KEY WITNESS CHANGED HER TESTIMONY ON JANUARY 27. ONE OF BETETA'S PRINCIPAL DEFENSES HAS ALWAYS BEEN THAT HIS HAND WAS INJURED AT THE TIME OF THE MURDER. HE COULD NOT HAVE KILLED MYRNA MACK, THE STORY GOES, BECAUSE HE WAS UNABLE TO HOLD THE KNIFE USED TO STAB HER TO DEATH.

16. TWO DOCTORS, ONE AT A MILITARY HOSPITAL AND ANOTHER AT THE JUDICIAL BRANCH'S FORENSIC MEDICINE DEPARTMENT, TESTIFIED THAT BETETA'S MEDICAL CONDITION WOULD NOT HAVE PREVENTED HIM FROM MURDERING MYRNA (REFTEL C). THE MILITARY HOSPITAL DOCTOR, WHOSE PREVIOUS TESTIMONY WAS INFORMAL ONLY, CHANGED HER STORY WHEN CALLED TO TESTIFY FORMALLY ON JANUARY 27. IN ADDITION, BETETA'S LAWYER MOVED FOR A THIRD GOVERNMENT DOCTOR TO EXAMINE HIS CLIENT. ELLGUTER GRANTED THE MOTION, AND RESULTS ARE DUE THE WEEK OF FEBRUARY 1-5. IF THE RESULTS FAVOR BETETA, THE TRIAL RECORD WOULD SHOW TWO DOCTORS SUPPORTING BETETA'S MEDICAL DEFENSE, AND ONLY ONE OPINION TO THE CONTRARY.

NO ARMY EVIDENCE OFFERED

17. LAST YEAR, HELEN SUCCESSFULLY APPEALED JUDGE SAGASTUME'S DENIAL OF HER DISCOVERY MOTION TO THE PRESIDENTIAL GUARD ("ESTADO MAYOR"). SHE SUBSEQUENTLY REQUESTED: 1) CONFIRMATION THAT CERTAIN INDIVIDUALS SHE SUSPECTS OF INVOLVEMENT IN THE MURDER WERE EMPLOYED BY THE ARMY; AND 2) THE MACK MURDER INVESTIGATION REPORT PREPARED BY MILITARY PERSONNEL. THE ARMY RESPONDED ON JANUARY 22 THAT: 1) NONE OF THE REFERENCED INDIVIDUALS HAD SERVED IN THE MILITARY; AND 2) THE INVESTIGATION WAS PREPARED BY SOMEONE OTHER THAN THE PERSON NAMED IN THE REQUEST. THE ARMY DID NOT PROVIDE THE INVESTIGATION REPORT.

MORE PROCEEDINGS EXPECTED

18. HELEN TOLD HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICER SHE WAS DISTURBED BY THE PROSPECT OF ADDITIONAL TRIAL DELAYS, BUT FEARED THAT A VERDICT ISSUED BEFORE ELLGUTER'S TRANSFER WOULD BE UNFAVORABLE. SHE PLANS TO APPEAL THE ADMISSION OF THE CHANGED MEDICAL TESTIMONY AND MAKE ANOTHER REQUEST FOR THE REPORT OF THE MILITARY MURDER INVESTIGATION. SHE UNDERSTANDS THAT APPROPRIATE PROCEDURES WILL TAKE ANOTHER MONTH OR TWO, BUT BELIEVES RESOLVING THOSE ISSUES ARE WORTH THE EXTRA TIME.

[redacted]

B1

COMMENT: THINGS ARE FALLING APART

20. JUST TWO WEEKS BEFORE A VERDICT WAS EXPECTED, THE PROSECUTION CASE SEEMS TO BE FALLING APART. A JUDICIAL FINDING BASED ON MEDICAL EVIDENCE THAT BETETA COULD NOT HAVE COMMITTED THE MURDER WOULD, BY ITSELF, COMPEL AN INNOCENT VERDICT. WE PLAN QUIETLY TO RAISE THE ISSUE OF PROTECTION FOR THE EYEWITNESSES WITH APPROPRIATE GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, [redacted] WE ALSO BELIEVE IT IS IMPORTANT THAT MANY ELEMENTS IN THIS SOCIETY BE REMINDED AGAIN THAT WE AND OTHERS ARE WATCHING THIS CASE CLOSELY. THEREFORE, WE REQUEST DEPARTMENT GUIDANCE ON THE POSSIBILITY OF OUR ISSUING A PUBLIC STATEMENT ALONG THE FOLLOWING LINES:

B1

21. QUOTE: THE EMBASSY HAS CLOSELY FOLLOWING THE EFFORTS OF THE GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT TO RESOLVE THE 1990 MURDER OF MYRNA MACK CHANG. WHILE IT WOULD BE INAPPROPRIATE TO COMMENT ON ON-GOING PROCEEDINGS IN THE CASE, WE CONTINUE TO EXPECT A FULL AND FAIR JUDICIAL PROCESS. HOWEVER, WE ARE CONCERNED TO LEARN THAT WITNESSES IN THIS CONTROVERSIAL CASE HAVE NOT BEEN GRANTED THE GOVERNMENTAL PROTECTION THAT THEY HAD SOUGHT THROUGH THE JUDICIAL PROCESS. END QUOTE.

22. PLEASE ADVISE.

REF: GUATEMALA 0692

1. [redacted] - ENTIRE TEXT.

SUMMARY AND INTRODUCTION

2. UNITED NATIONS HUMAN RIGHTS EXPERT CHRISTIAN

TOMUSCHAT HAS JUST RELEASED HIS 1992 REPORT ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN GUATEMALA. THE 81-PAGE, SPANISH-LANGUAGE VERSION MIXES CRITICISM OF ABUSES WITH RECOGNITION OF IMPROVEMENT IN LENGTHY DESCRIPTIONS OF INCIDENTS AND CASES. THE TONE IS TOUGH, BUT ONLY SLIGHTLY MORE SO THAN THE USG'S 1992 GUATEMALA HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT. TOMUSCHAT'S MOST CONTROVERSIAL RECOMMENDATIONS ARE: REPLACING THE PRESIDENTIAL SECURITY GUARD ("ESTADO

GUATEM 01544 01 OF 07 0821037Z SHB9779

MAYOR") WITH A GROUP OF CIVILIAN ADVISORS; REVISING CURRENT MILITARY INTELLIGENCE SECTION ("D-2") DUTIES IN ACCORDANCE WITH "DEMOCRATIC NORMS"; AND PRESIDENTIAL SUBMISSION TO CONGRESS OF A REPORT ON ALLEGED GOVERNMENT MONITORING OF CORRESPONDENCE AND TELECOMMUNICATIONS.

3. TOMUSCHAT MAKES NO/NO RECOMMENDATION ON WHETHER THE UNITED NATIONS HUMAN RIGHTS COMMITTEE (UNHRC) SHOULD REVIEW GUATEMALAN HUMAN RIGHTS DEVELOPMENTS UNDER AGENDA ITEM 12 ("COUNTRY SITUATIONS") OR ITEM 21 ("ADVISORY SERVICES"), NOTING THAT MUST BE A POLICY DECISION. NOR DOES HE MAKE AN OVERALL JUDGMENT THAT THE SITUATION IMPROVED, REMAINED STATIC, OR DETERIORATED. UNHRC READERS WILL FIND SUFFICIENT EVIDENCE TO SUPPORT EITHER VIEW ON THE AGENDA ITEM ISSUE. END SUMMARY AND INTRODUCTION.

REPORT OVERVIEW

4. TOMUSCHAT'S REPORT OPENS WITH A DESCRIPTION OF UNHRC EFFORTS SINCE 1979 TO MONITOR THE GUATEMALAN SITUATION (PAGES 1-5). HIS REVIEW OF 1992 POLITICAL

DEVELOPMENTS (PAGES 6-18) EXAMINES THE CONSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORK, THE PEACE PROCESS, LEGISLATIVE INITIATIVES, AND THE ARMED FORCES. HUMAN RIGHTS IN CONFLICTIVE AREAS (PAGES 19-32) ARE EVALUATED IN TERMS OF VIOLATIONS DISCOVERED AND REFUGEE ISSUES. ANALYSIS OF CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS (PAGES 33-56) INCLUDES DISCUSSION OF INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS TO LIFE, PHYSICAL INTEGRITY, AND SECURITY. FREEDOMS OF EXPRESSION, ASSOCIATION, CORRESPONDENCE, AND COMMUNICATION ARE EXAMINED, AS IS THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM. ECONOMIC, SOCIAL AND CULTURAL RIGHTS DEVELOPMENTS (PAGES 57-70) ARE ALSO REVIEWED.

5. TOMUSCHAT SAVES THE BEST FOR LAST. HIS "FINAL OBSERVATIONS" (PAGE 81) PROVIDE AN OVERVIEW THAT MIGHT HAVE BETTER SERVED AS A REPORT INTRODUCTION. HIS CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS SECTION (PAGES 71-80)

THE FOLLOWING ANALYSIS OF TOMUSCHAT'S FINDINGS TRACKS THE CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS SECTION IN THE ORDER ITEMS ARE PRESENTED. NUMERICAL REFERENCES IN THE FOLLOWING TEXT ARE TO TOMUSCHAT REPORT PARAGRAPH NUMBERS.

PRAISE FOR GOG COOPERATION (236-8)

6. TOMUSCHAT THANKS GUATEMALAN AUTHORITIES AND THE PRESIDENT FOR FACILITATING UNRESTRICTED INVESTIGATIONS. HE OBSERVES THAT RIGOBERTA MENCHU'S RECEIPT OF THE NOBEL PEACE PRIZE WAS AMONG THE MOST NOTABLE EVENTS OF 1992, AND PRAISES HER STATED COMMITMENT TO PROMOTE PEACE AND HUMAN RIGHTS. HE ALSO

GUATEM 01544 02 OF 07 082103Z SHB9781
PRAISES THE SERRANO ADMINISTRATION FOR ITS "UNEQUIVOCAL COMMITMENT" TO PEACE NEGOTIATIONS WITH URNG GUERRILLAS.

CAUSES (279-81)

7. TOMUSCHAT IMPLIES THAT GUATEMALA'S CIVIL WAR, WHICH HAS SPANNED 3 DECADES, IS THE CAUSE FOR MOST HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, EMPHASIZING THAT HUMAN RIGHTS CAN FLOURISH ONLY IN CONDITIONS OF PEACE. NATIONAL RECONCILIATION AND MUTUAL CONFIDENCE ARE ESSENTIAL TO CONCLUSION OF THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

PUBLIC SECURITY (239-248)

8. CONCLUSIONS: SECURITY FORCES WERE UNABLE TO CONTROL CRIMES AGAINST INDIVIDUALS IN ALL SECTORS OF SOCIETY. INDIGENOUS PEOPLE IN RURAL AREAS WERE THE MOST FREQUENT VICTIMS OF CRIMES. IT WAS OFTEN DIFFICULT TO DETERMINE WHETHER COMMON CRIMINALS OR STATE SECURITY FORCES WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR CRIMES. ALL OBSERVERS AGREE MANY ATTACKS ARE ATTRIBUTED TO STATE SECURITY PERSONNEL, INCLUDING CIVIL PATROLS. THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE, WHICH PREPARES THE MOST RELIABLE STATISTICS ON VIOLATIONS, REPORTED AN IMPORTANT DECLINE IN EXTRAJUDICIAL ATTACKS IN 1992. HOWEVER, VICTIMS INCLUDED UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS AND STUDENTS, AND HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS, INCLUDING UNION LEADERS, POLITICAL LEADERS, AND CATHOLIC CHURCH MEMBERS.

9. RECOMMENDATION: THERE HAS BEEN NO ACTION ON LAST YEAR'S RECOMMENDATION THAT SECURITY FORCES VERIFY THE INTEGRITY OF ALL PERSONNEL AND MAKE THEMSELVES MORE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC. TOMUSCHAT RENEWS THE SUGGESTION.

NATIONAL POLICE (241-242)

10. CONCLUSIONS: THE POLICE HAS NOT SIGNIFICANTLY IMPROVED ITS REPUTATION FOR INEFFICIENCY. THE RE-OPENING OF THE POLICE ACADEMY MAY BRING INCREASED PROFESSIONALIZATION, BUT THE ESTABLISHMENT OF "HUNAPU" TASK FORCES CREATED COMBINED CIVILIAN-MILITARY UNITS

AGAIN.

11. RECOMMENDATIONS: (1) WHILE THE "HUNAPU" TASK FORCE MAY HAVE BEEN JUSTIFIED AT THE TIME, IT SHOULD BE DISSOLVED AS SOON AS FEASIBLE. (2) AS PREVIOUSLY SUGGESTED, THE NATIONAL POLICE SHOULD CREATE A SPECIAL UNIT TO INVESTIGATE POLITICAL CRIMES. (3) EFFORTS TO

PROFESSIONALIZE THE POLICE SHOULD BE CONTINUED. (4) THE POLICE AND ARMED FORCES SHOULD BE STRICTLY SEPARATED. (5) CIVILIAN FUNCTIONS CURRENTLY PERFORMED

GUATEM 01544 03 OF 07 0821072 025201 S047446
BY MILITARY INTELLIGENCE PERSONNEL SHOULD BE ASSIGNED TO POLICE. (6) A CIVILIAN ADVISORY STAFF SHOULD BE CREATED TO REPLACE THE PRESIDENTIAL SECURITY STAFF (ESTADO MAYOR).

JUSTICE SYSTEM (243-246)

12. CONCLUSIONS: PREVENTION AND PUNISHMENT OF CRIMES IS LARGELY INEFFECTIVE. EVIDENCE IS DIFFICULT TO GATHER, JUDGES ARE OFTEN PRESSURED, AND CASES ARE FILED FOR POLITICAL MOTIVES. MANY POLITICAL CASES WERE PENDING IN THE COURTS AS OF HIS WRITING. CONGRESS FULFILLED LAST YEAR'S RECOMMENDATION FAVORING PASSAGE OF A NEW CRIMINAL PROCEDURES CODE AND THE SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT HAS DEVELOPED FAR REACHING PLANS TO SUPERVISE THE ACTIVITIES OF JUDGES THAT RESPOND TO ANOTHER RECOMMENDATION.

13. RECOMMENDATIONS: (1) MILITARY JURISDICTION IS OVERLY-BROAD AND SHOULD BE LIMITED TO CRIMES OF A MILITARY NATURE COMMITTED BY SOLDIERS AGAINST SOLDIERS. (2) GOVERNMENT SHOULD UNDERTAKE EFFORTS TO ENSURE THE EFFECTIVENESS OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE DURING THE SUSPENSION OF ATTORNEY GENERAL ACISCLO VALLADARES. (3) CONGRESS SHOULD CONCLUDE ITS EXAMINATION OF AND ENACT THE PENDING ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE ("MINISTERIO PUBLICO") LAW AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN (247-249)

14. CONCLUSIONS: THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE CONFIRMED ITS "WELL-DESERVED REPUTATION" FOR "TOTAL INDEPENDENCE AND IMPARTIALITY," AND DESERVES THE FULL SUPPORT OF THE GUATEMALAN CONGRESS AND THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY.

15. RECOMMENDATION: THE OMBUDSMAN SHOULD ESTABLISH A DEPARTMENT FOR INDIGENOUS AFFAIRS.

PRESIDENTIAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (COPREDEH) (250-1)

16. CONCLUSIONS: COPREDEH HAS RECEIVED ADEQUATE RESOURCES AND BEGAN FUNCTIONING IN 1992 AS A GOVERNMENT CENTER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES.

17. RECOMMENDATIONS: COPREDEH SHOULD COORDINATE GOG EFFORTS TO FULFILL INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS OBLIGATIONS. IT SHOULD: (1) COORDINATE THE PREPARATION

OF PERIODIC HUMAN RIGHTS REPORTS WITH OTHER INVOLVED ORGANIZATIONS; (2) COORDINATE RESPONSES TO SPECIAL UNITED NATIONS PROCEEDINGS; (3) PROMOTE RATIFICATION OF INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS AGREEMENTS; (4) FAMILIARIZE CIVILIAN AND MILITARY SECURITY FORCE PERSONNEL WITH U.N. HUMAN RIGHTS PRINCIPLES; (5) REVISE THE MILITARY CODE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE U.N. AGREEMENT ON CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS; AND (6) REVISE INTERNAL LAWS IN ACCORDANCE WITH INTERNATIONAL NORMS.

GUATEM 01544 04 OF 07 0821082 025202 S047466

ARMED FORCES (252-6)

18. CONCLUSIONS: THE DEFENSE MINISTER HAS EMPHASIZED THE UNCONDITIONAL LOYALTY OF THE ARMED FORCES TO THE DEMOCRATICALLY-ELECTED GOVERNMENT. THE ARMED FORCES HAVE SUPPORTED THE PEACE PROCESS, PARTICIPATING FULLY AND WITHOUT RESERVATION. NEVERTHELESS, SOME MILITARY PERSONNEL ARE ACCUSED, ON WELL-FOUNDED EVIDENCE, OF PARTICIPATING IN VIOLATIONS OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF CITIZENS. VIOLATIONS INCLUDED INDISCRIMINATE BOMBINGS OF NOT-STRICTLY-MILITARY TARGETS AND, WHILE SOMEWHAT IMPROVED, IRREGULARITIES AND DISCRIMINATION IN RECRUITMENT.

19. RECOMMENDATIONS: (1) THE ARMED FORCES SHOULD DEVELOP NEW STRATEGIES TO ENSURE FULL RESPECT FOR GENEVA ACCORDS REGARDING RIGHTS OF CIVILIANS, INCLUDING REFUGEES RETURNING FROM MEXICO. (2) CONGRESS SHOULD ENACT INTO LAW QUICKLY THE DRAFT MILITARY SERVICE LAW PREPARED IN RESPONSE TO A PREVIOUS RECOMMENDATION. (3) THE ARMED FORCES SHOULD HAVE TO BECOME ACCOUNTABLE TO SOCIETY, AND MUST UNDERTAKE INVESTIGATIONS OF ALLEGED MILITARY WRONGDOING.

CIVIL PATROLS (257)

20. CONCLUSIONS: IN MOST RURAL AREAS WHERE CIVIL PATROLS EXIST, CITIZENS ARE PRESSURED TO PATROL.

MILITARY COMMISSIONERS AND PATROLLERS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR MANY ACTS OF VIOLENCE.

21. RECOMMENDATIONS: TOMUSCHAT REPEATS PREVIOUS RECOMMENDATIONS THAT A SOLUTION BE FOUND TO THE CIVIL PATROL PROBLEM AND, IN THAT REGARD, PRAISES THE 1992 ACCORD BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND GUERRILLAS (WHEREBY THE GOG WOULD ESTABLISH NO NEW PATROLS IF GUERRILLAS OPENED NO NEW AREAS OF OPERATIONS) AS A FIRST STEP TOWARD THE ABOLITION OF THE PATROLS.

GUERRILLA FORCES (258)

22. CONCLUSIONS: THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN ATTRIBUTES NUMEROUS ATTACKS AGAINST CIVILIANS TO GUERRILLAS. (COMMENT: TOMUSCHAT'S FINDINGS ELSEWHERE IN THE REPORT ARE STATED DIRECTLY AS FACTS. OUR CURSORY READING OF THE SPANISH-LANGUAGE TEXT REVEALED THAT THIS IS ONE OF SEVERAL RARE INSTANCES -- WITH THE
